James "Jimmy" Nixon McGarfield is a minor antagonist in the animated series Codename: Kids Next Door.

He was voiced by Tom Kenny.

McGarfield was the Fourth Grade President-For-Life at Gallagher Elementary School. He first appeared in Operation: R.O.B.B.E.R.S. and made his official debut as "Fourth Grade President" in Operation: P.R.E.S.I.D.E.N.T. where Sector V escorts him to a meeting at City Hall, where he plans to shorten school days and make mandatory pizza lunches. Along the way, they are attacked by Ice Cream Men and a robotic duplicate of Jimmy controlled by the Delightful Children From Down the Lane. He has an Arnold Ernst Toht style fedora.

Jimmy is the main antagonist In Operation: S.N.O.W.I.N.G., in a parody of Star Wars: The Empire Strikes Back. He betrays his fourth graders by planning kidnapping them all on a snowday and forcing them to attend an assembly at the school. Using his Bus Walkers (a parody of the AT-AT's), Jimmy successfuly kidnaps all but one person. During the assembly, Jimmy announces that, to be ruler, he will need a queen. In fact the whole reason for his switch to evil was to make Lizzie Devine fall for him. He even has a discussion with her on the matter when she is brought before him. He shows Lizzie her crown which was a modied "boyfriend helmet" made to warp her mind into thinking that Jimmy is her boyfriend. When Numbuh One arrived, however, he clashed 'blades' with the usurper. At the end of their battle, Lizzie announces that she loves Jimmy, which crushes Numbuh One. As Jimmy was about the finish him off, Numbuh One blocked the attack with the soup container he was given by Lizzie earlier. The container breaks, and the soup falls and lands on Lizzie's crown. The soup causes it to malfunction and explode, destroying the school in the process. Jimmy is taken to the KND Arctic Prison, where he finds his new girlfriend - his secretary, Anna

Worthington.

Numbuh 1: James Nixon McGarfield!?

James Nixon McGarfield: That's right. Good to see you all again.

Me: So you are James Nixon McGarfield. Your name is a fusion of 4 Different presents in one: James Madison, Richard Nixon, William McKinnley and James Garfield. Two of those presidents were assassinated.

Nico: Yeah they sure were.

Qin: So he's James Nixon McGarfield?

Me: Yep and he was the former 4th Grade President of Gallagher Elementary School. He tried to take over the entire school in a huge Battle of Hoth Style Hostile Takeover and become 4th Grade President forever. Numbuh 1 defeated him even though he was afflicted with a cold and sent him to Permanent Detention which is the Kids Next Door Version of the Federal Supermax Prison system.

Qin: Wow.

Rainbow Dash: That must've been an awesome battle.

Numbuh 1: It was.

Me: And it took a lot of guts facing him even with a cold.

James Nixon McGarfield: A lot seems to have happened while I was locked up.

Numbuh 4: Long story short: Father's dead, the Delightful Children are back to being Sector Z, and some of our enemies are in the Masters of Evil like you.

Me: That's right. Father was using adults, teens and children alike in a diabolical ambition to destroy all of the entire human race. He was out to destroy EVERYONE.

Nico: Yeah he was the ultimate personification of pure ultimate evil.

Me: He was a Genocidal Parent.

Eli: Yeah and we destroyed him forever.

Numbuh 1: And you are not going to like this. Father was really my uncle Benedict Uno. My fathers brother.

He gasped in shock.

Me: That was a huge shock for us too. His own uncle was a genocidal monster.

?: No kidding.

A figure came out and it was PARROT TOP from episode 2 of Mighty Morphin Alien Rangers!

---

Parrot Top is an aquatic monster who was one of the five monsters selected from Master Vile's monster conference. He, Brick Bully's second form, Crabby Cabbie, Garbage Mouth, and See Monster joined Professor Longnose in attacking the Aquitar Rangers. When Professor Longnose was destroyed, Parrot Top and the other monsters fled.

---

Aurico: (Alien Voice) Parrot Top!

Parrot Top: Been a long time rangers.

Me: I remember you! You are one of the five monsters that were with Professor Longnose when he and you 5 were sent to attack the Aquitar Rangers.

Parrot Top: That's right. Good memory on you J.D.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Parrot Top: (to the Alien Rangers) Is this seriously my first real battle against you Rangers?

Delphine: (Alien Voice) Indeed it is.

Me: I'm gonna be looking forward to seeing this. You were not shown in a fight on TV.

Nico: Yeah that stinks.

Varie: It sure does.

?: Lots of things going on huh?

A figure came out and it was MARZIPAN!

Marzipan is the first droid sent by Emerald to help fill Tokyo's vulnerable spots with dark energy. She has the power to spray people and turn them into cakes. She appeared in Sailor Moon R Episode 29, Emerald Takes Over .

When Emerald summoned Marzipan, she battled the Sailor Scouts, and was too fast for them to hit with their attacks. She turned them into cakes, but Tuxedo Mask attacked her and broke her spell. Giving a hint as to Marzipan's weakness (since she is made of cake, she can be melted), Sailor Mercury used Shine Aqua Illusion to damage Marzipan, and Sailor Moon destroyed her with Moon Scepter Activation.

Sailor Moon: Marzipan!

Marzipan: Been a while sailors.

Shanan: I didn't expect the Negamoon to have a Cremepastrisapien in their forces.

Qin: A Cremepastrisapien? What are they?

Shanan: They are a race of pastry warriors that have the power to use a spray that turns people into cakes. They are known as warriors that are good bakers. They come from the planet Bruleeus and it's located in the Black Eye Galaxy.

Marzipan: That's right Shanan. You do know your aliens and I am a Cremepastrisapien.

Mary K.: Sounds like my kind of home planet.

Laney: Yeah.

Me: Indeed. Lets get it on.

Me: Zeta, you love your daughter and your selfishness and evil is causing you to make her feel sad. Think of how it would make you and Mighty Eagle feel if you made your daughter sad and all that.

Zeta knew I was right and she knew that her actions were gonna make her make a mistake that would cost her dearly in the future. She and Mighty Eagle then reconciled and we had a wedding for them on Bird Island.

We had a great wedding for Mighty Eagle and Zeta and they were happy.

We later moved Bird Island to the lake and had Pig Island merged with it and it was now part of the city area. We later had an awesome dinner and we went to sleep.

See you all tomorrow.

Wolfwalkers and Joker Poisoned Thugs

At the Ice Peak over in Spyro's World, me and Amy Bascom were flying over to the castle of McWolf he set up there.

Me: Wow. McWolf set up a nice castle here and in a cold place too.

Amy: I'm surprised you haven't asked the Bolton Sisters and more of the Underground Girls to help you on these rescues.

Amy concentrated and groaned as she was forced to all fours.

Me: Well I'm still thinking on that one.

She turned into a Suicune.

Me: Wow! I forgot how awesome you look as a Suicune, Amy.

Amy Suicune: Thanks.

We busted into the castle and McWolf saw us and he screamed like a little girl and fell to pieces. We then jumped him and tickled him all over.

Me: Coochy coochy coo!

McWolf was laughing hysterically.

McWolf: (LAUGHING HYSTERICALLY) HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA!

We went to a room and we felt extreme cold and we saw a girl tied up and she was a Jack Frost.

Me: Wow! She's a Jack Frost, a Personification of Winter.

We cut her free.

Rosty: Oh thanks. Wow! You're J.D. Knudson, leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: That's right. Pleasure to meet you.

Rosty: My name is Rosty and yes I'm a Jack Frost. Or Jackie Frost in my case.

Me: Wow!

Amy Suicune: My name is Amy Bascom and I'm a Suicune too.

Rosty: Pleasure to meet you too.

Amy: I'm gonna revert back now.

Me: Okay.

I put on my blind man glasses and she reverted back.

Amy was human again but naked.

Amy: (covers herself) Just great! I'm naked and in a cold place!

I gave her new clothes.

Amy: Thanks J.D.

Me: You're welcome.

Rosty: That must happen to you a lot when you transform.

Amy: You have no idea.

Me: We also know another one like you. His name is Jack Frost and he is the personification of winter.

Rosty: That's cool and I also heard that you all have been rescuing Miia and her friends.

Me: We sure have.

Rosty: It'll be great to see Miia and friends again.

Me: Yeah. Lets head home.

We went back home to the World Tree Estate.

* * *

Back at the World Tree Estate, Amy sat down on the sofa.

Rosty: Whoa? This is where you live? So awesome!

Me: Yep. This is home. We live in a tree that's 100 miles tall.

Rosty: That is amazing!

Me: It sure is.

Nico: Wow! She's a Jack Frost, the Personification of winter.

Rosty: That's right. My name is Rosty and it's an honor to meet you Nico.

Nico: Same to you.

Miia: Rosty!

Rosty: Miia!

They went and hugged.

Miia: It's awesome to have you with us.

Rosty: It's gonna be cooler to be with you all.

Laney: It sure is.

* * *

Later we were aboard the Justice League Watchtower.

Me: Boy we haven't been to the Justice League Watchtower in a while.

Nico: No we sure haven't.

Tundra Man: (to Rosty) So, how do you like it aboard the Watchtower?

Rosty: It's amazing!

Nico: It sure has been a while since we were on the Justice League Watchtower.

Me: I know it sure has.

Superman: Things have been really busy for all of us since.

Gloriosa Daisy: But the view from up here is amazing.

Timber Spruce: You can see everything down on Earth.

Laney: Yeah at 200 miles up we have a huge view of the entire planet.

Vince: Including the World Tree Estate.

We saw the Estate and it was amazing. It stuck out like a sore thumb.

Nico: Wow! I didn't know our tree was that big from this view.

Applejack: Quite an incredible sight.

Starfire: It is most amazing.

We then saw Dr. Fate and with him was a golden man with glowing yellow eyes.

Persephone: Hello, Dr. Fate. (sees Amazo) Who's your golden friend?

Dr. Fate: This is A.M.A.Z.O. or Amazo for short.

Amazo: Greetings to you all Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's an honor to meet you.

Me: Pleasure to meet you too Amazo.

Nico: So you are Professor Ivo's android that we were told about.

Me: Wow.

My data eyes turned on and I looked over him and saw that Professor Ivo built him incredibly well.

Origins

Amazo was found by Lex Luthor, when looking for Professor Ivo to repair his battlesuit. The Android was protecting Ivo's corpse. As soon as Luthor realised that the android was capable of duplicating the Justice League's powers, he took advantage of the android's naivete, saying that now Ivo was dead he would look after Amazo, saying that is what Ivo would have wanted, and tried to pit him against the heroes. Amazo was sent to steal fuel for Luthor.

Amazo went on a rampage to attract the League's attention. He broke into the facility by copying a guard's fingerprints. Having already assimilated Hawkgirl's mace and wings of flight, Amazo replicated Wonder Woman's powers and bracelets, John Stewart's power ring, and Flash's super-speed. With all their powers combined, Amazo soon overpowered the Leaguers. When Superman showed up to try to stop him, he succeeded in emulating the Man of Steel's powers, despite Superman's best efforts to prevent it.

However, when Amazo duplicated someone's power, he also took in their weaknesses, i.e., Superman's vulnerability to Kryptonite, which Batman exploited after the android tried to copy him. As the android assimilated other traits, he also started to develop character, and began to question Luthor's intentions. Despite his scepticism, Amazo again was persuaded by Luthor to try and kill the League.

This time Amazo "adapted" and overcame his weakness to Kryptonite. The combined power of Amazo and Luthor nearly succeed in killing the Leaguers until J'onn J'onzz stepped in and allowed himself to be copied. Amazo acquired the Martian's power of telepathy and used it to read Luthor's thoughts, learning of Luthor's manipulations. At this point, Luthor activated a fail-safe kill switch developed by Ivo to detonate the bomb at the base of the android's brain. However, having also duplicated J'onn's shapeshifting powers, Amazo could now regenerate himself and simply regrew his head. The disgruntled android turned against Luthor, tearing his battlesuit apart and preparing to kill him. Amazo only ceased his attack when the terrified Luthor pleaded for mercy. Upon realising that he had nothing left to learn from Earth, Amazo gazed upon the cosmos, evolved into a golden version of himself, and departed to explore the universe. J'onn claimed Amazo had departed to go "where gods belong", prompting Luthor to scoff that Amazo was no god, no matter how much power he had now. Superman warned Luthor that he should be worried if Amazo ever did come back.

Return

Some time later, Amazo did make his way back to Earth. While travelling through space, he apparently destroyed the planet Oa, home to the Green Lantern Corps and the Guardians of the Universe. Witnessing this event, the Justice League mobilised its forces in an attempt to stop him when he reached Earth. However, Amazo was now nearly omnipotent and he beat them all without effort. He then set about searching for Lex Luthor. The Atom and Luthor worked to try and defeat Amazo by devising a nanotechnological weapon against him, but Amazo had self-developed beyond nanotechnology and the weapon proved to be useless against him. The Atom took Luthor into a microscopic world, but Amazo followed them even there. It had been assumed that Amazo wanted revenge for the way Luthor had manipulated him, but in fact he was confused about his own existence and wanted guidance. Luthor was a man who always sought more wealth and power than he already had and Amazo hoped that he would explain what his own purpose in life was.

Luthor explained that the reason to keep on living was to see where it would lead to and that each person must decide for themselves what to do with their life, regardless of what it means in the grand scheme of things. Enlightened, Amazo relinquished his vendetta against Luthor. Upon emerging from the microscopic world, he was confronted by a group of Green Lanterns who wanted to destroy him for apparently destroying Oa. However, he revealed that he had simply shifted Oa to another dimension since it was "in his way" and, in the blink of an eye, restored it to its original location. He then departed with Dr. Fate who had offered to help him find purpose in life.

Amazo stayed with Dr. Fate until Solomon Grundy was resurrected as a mindless berserker. The android tried to stop him by teleporting him into the sun, but the zombie - filled with chaos magic - absorbed and repelled Amazo's cosmic blast. So as to prevent Grundy from becoming stronger, Amazo teleported himself several light-years away until he could figure out how to solve the problem at hand.

Indirect inspiration

Having a photographic memory, Luthor was able to memorise the plans when the Atom showed them. During the Cadmus Crisis, Luthor created a second Amazo android (with his own face), intending to transfer his mind into it. He was stopped when Amanda Waller destroyed the android with a nano-disassembler beam based from Luthor's designs to take down the original android.

* * *

Me: Wow! Professor Ivo really knew what he was doing when he made you. And Lex Luthor turned you into a weapon to destroy the Justice League.

Amazo: That he did and I heard that you all killed him.

Me: Well actually in our first battle as we were sending him to prison he died of Severe Kryptonite Poisoning. And then we fought him in the dream world and Varie Super Hakaied him and destroyed him from existence forever.

Varie: And that was over in the dream world.

Me: Yep.

Flash: Dude, where have you been since we fought Grundy that one time?

Undermine: You just vanished after you teleported away from

Grundy that day.

Amazo: I was with Dr. Fate learning more about the minds of humans and all life.

Dr. Fate: I have been teaching him everything I know.

Me: That's all right.

Nico: Yeah.

Me: That's cool and we heard you have an amazing power to copy powers.

Amazo: That is correct.

Me: You have have our permission to copy our powers.

Ultra Magnus: If you want to copy any of our powers, you can. Including the ability to use Cyber Keys.

Amazo: Thank you. I would be honored.

Me: Great.

Éclair: That is so awesome.

Me: Yep.

We got to having a nice talk and later we went back to the estate.

Now we were getting ready for our mission. But it was two missions that we were getting ready for. Unfortunately me and Lincoln and his and my girls were going on the second mission and some of us couldn't go.

Mushi: WHAT DO YOU MEAN WE CAN'T GO ON THE NEXT MISSION WITH YOU GUYS?!

Lincoln: (sarcastically) Told you they'd take it well.

Me: Okay first of all Ow. (Rubs Ear) Secondly this mission for me, Zarya, Lincoln, Paige, Girl Jordan and the monster girls is one that is for anti-persecution.

Mushi: Oh.

Nico: What is your mission for?

Me: Have you guys ever heard of the legend of the Wolfwalkers?

Natilee: I have. They are legendary wild people that live among wolves and they are said to be magical creatures of Irish Folklore.

Me: That's right. And they were persecuted for their magic and all that.

Nico: Oh I get it.

Varie: That's amazing.

Me: Yep. Nico you are gonna take the rest of the group on the mission I gave you guys while I take my group with me.

Nico: Roger that.

Cantwell, Major Disaster, Man Ray, Cluemaster, Captain Cold, Mysterio, Common Cold, and Tri Klops then appeared.

Cantwell: Look, Nico. J.D. and the others might be going on a different mission. But can me, Major Disaster, Man Ray, Cluemaster, Captain Cold, Mysterio, Common Cold, and Tri Klops still go with you and the rest on the mission you guys are on?

Nico: You all sure can and you guys will like this mission that J.D. gave me. We're going to save three people.

Laney: Who are they?

Nico: Well you guys are not gonna like this. But these three people have been infected with the blood of our old nemesis The Joker.

They gasped!

Varie: How is that possible? When I hakaied The Joker there should have been nothing left of him. Not even some blood.

Lincoln: Yeah. How is that possible?

Nico: I think the Tantabus had something to do with it when we were in the Dream World.

Me: That's what I'm thinking too.

Maria: (to me and Lincoln) Look, I'm coming with you guys. It's obvious you two aren't thinking straight ever since the fight against the Tantabus! And especially since you two heard about the people infected with Joker's blood!

Me: I know but thanks for the support Maria. But believe me we are thinking straight.

Lincoln: We saw this on a movie: Wolfwalkers.

Lincoln showed her the movie on his phone.

Maria: Oh yeah! I've seen this movie. This was a great movie. Now I see why you all wanted to do two missions all at once.

Zarya: Yeah and we haven't had an adventure like this in a while since Deacon Blackfire.

Maria: Right! I remember that.

Varie: Yep.

Me: Good luck guys. We're gonna head to the Simulator for our mission.

Nico: Okay. Not that we'll need it but thanks.

Me and my group went to the simulator for our adventure.

Red Lantern Ratchet: Who are the three victims infected with the Joker's blood?

Nico: Their names are Albert King, Christina Bell and Johnny

Charisma. We're gonna find them each in Scotland, Las Vegas and Utah.

Eli: Wow! In 2 different parts of the world.

Shaggy: Like we might as well get some food in Las Vegas while we're there.

Nico: You and your food Shaggy.

Éclair: Where are we gonna go first?

Nico: We're heading to Scotland to face Christina Bell.

Cluemaster: This is very strange for those three to have the Joker's blood in them.

Laney: What do you mean Arthur?

Cluemaster: The Joker's blood seems to have made these 3 people inherit each of his specific personality traits. Johnny Charisma is demonstrating the showman side of the Joker, Christina Bell is showing the obsessive love and hate side of the Joker, and Albert King is showing The Joker's arrogant and violent side.

Nico: That's right and they are all sides I ABSOLUTELY HATE.

Eli: I hate the Joker more than any villain.

Ets: Hard to find anyone that doesn't like the Joker.

Twilight Sparkle: Yeah The Joker is the most feared and most hated villain of all.

Sunset Shimmer: Yeah he is a monster.

Fluttershy: You mean he was a monster.

Éclair: Yeah I heard all about the Joker from Lucy and he is a monster.

Flint Lockwood: You said it.

In the Simulator, me and my team were getting ready and the simulator activated and we found ourselves in 17th Century Ireland.

Zarya: This must be the place.

Me: Yep. Welcome to 17th Century Ireland.

Rosty: Wow. It sure is beautiful.

Miia: I'll say.

Zarya Moonwolf: It's beautiful.

Riado: Who are we here for?

Me: We're going after a monster named Oliver Cromwell.

Maria: He's the main bad guy of Wolfwalkers.

Maria went over his history.

Oliver Cromwell, also known as The Lord Protector, is the main antagonist of Cartoon Saloon's 4th film Wolfwalkers. He is a wolf hunter and Robyn Goodfellowe's archenemy.

He was voiced by Simon McBurney, who also played Kreacher in Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows - Part 1 and Atlee in Mission Impossible.

Oliver Cromwell is the lord protector from England and comes over to Ireland where he become ruler of Kilkenny; there, he assigns a wolf hunter, Bill Goodfellowe, to help exterminate the wolves so the woodcutters can continue their work unimpeded. However when Goodfellowe's daughter Robyn was seen outside of Kilkenny, the Lord Protector scolds her for not working in his scullery and gives Bill two days to kill the wolves while he attends to matters further south.

When Robyn is working in the scullery on Cromwell's orders while the Lord Protector is away, she comes across a cage in his chambers. Before she can investigate further, she is ushered out by a maid. When Robyn returns in wolf form after having been turned into a Wolfwalker by her new friend Mebh, Robyn discovers that Cromwell has captured Mebh's mother, Moll, and barely escapes when the Lord Protector discovers her. He shoots at her, thinking she is merely an animal, but fails. From there, the angry Cromwell plans to restore control of the town by showing the townspeople he can tame the wolf he's captured, and by extension, nature itself. He ignores Robyn's pleas to let Moll go and demotes Bill to a foot soldier for failing to eliminate the wolves when she tries to intervene in human form.

Later, Cromwell presents the captured Moll before the townspeople, trying to garner their support by taming Moll. An enraged Mebh attempts to free her, and when Bill restrains her, Moll bites him. Mebh flees, but she vows to return with her pack to rescue her mother. The enraged Cromwell orders Bill to kill Moll, and leads his army to burn the forest down. Robyn protects Moll from Bill's attempt to kill her, then frees and reunites her with Mebh before she and her pack can attack Kilkenny, earning Mebh's forgiveness. Bill follows them and shoots Moll with an arrow out of fear, causing Moll's wolf form to become a spirit and return to her human form in the den, with Robyn, Mebh, and the wolves following it. As Bill laments what he's done and cradles Robyn's sleeping body, Cromwell and his army arrive, chaining Bill in shackles and begin razing the forest. As Mebh works to heal a grievously wounded Moll, Robyn and the pack stall the soldiers, attacking them and driving the vast majority of Cromwell's forces away. Mebh summons Robyn and her pack back, realizing she needs them present to heal Moll, but Robyn is knocked unconscious after disabling the army's cannon and causing the rest of the men to flee.

By this point only Cromwell remains to fight and proceeds to try and kill Robyn's wolf form as she lies injured at the base of the waterfall where Mebh and her mother make their home. By this time, he now realizes the Wolfwalkers are real and devolves into madness, desperate to eliminate this affront to his religion once and for all. Before the Lord Protector can kill Robyn, Bill, due to Moll's bite, transforms into a Wolfwalker to protect Robyn and overpowers the Lord Protector in his wolf form, breaking Cromwell's sword. As Cromwell attempts to shoot Bill after seeing his human body is vulnerable, his gun is shot away by Robyn using her father's crossbow, and Cromwell makes a desperate last stand with his dagger near the entrance to the pack's lair, only for Bill to knock the dagger away and begin biting through his armor. Rather than let Bill kill him, Cromwell commits suicide by falling into the sharp rocks at the base of the waterfall, his last words being to beg God to take his soul to heaven.

When she was finished we were shocked.

Paige: Whoa man!

Girl Jordan: That is so not good.

Maria: Yeah. He wants to kill all the wolves here.

Froze: No one kills wolves and gets away with it.

Rosty: No they won't.

---

In Scotland, Nico and the rest of the team were heading to the first spot for one of the Jokers 3.

Nico: Here we are guys. Welcome to Scotland.

Scotland: (Scottish Accent) It's so beautiful lads.

Rockhoof: (Scottish Accent) Aye. It sure is.

Muscle Man: Hey, guys. You know who else loves going to Scotland?

Gus Grav: I think I know the answer by now.

Muscle Man: My mom!

They laughed at his joke.

Nico: That's funny. Hey we're here. Scans show that the evil of The Joker's blood is coming from here.

They saw that they were in front of a really OLD CASTLE that looks like it was there for a long time.

Jessie K.: Hey I know this castle. This is Buchanan Castle.

Eli: It sure looks like a really old castle.

Ets: Wonder how it became like this.

Jessie K.: It was built back in 1852 by James Graham the 4th Duke of Montrose. But it was destroyed in a fire and left here to rot like a open wound. Ever since then, this castle has been here for 169 years.

Nico: Man what a shame.

Eli: It sure is.

They went into the castle and saw that it was sitting and rotting away. Just rotting away to the elements.

Nico: Wow. It sure looks deserted here.

Laney: Well this castle hasn't been visited in almost 170 years.

Lisa Loud: It sure is an ancient place.

Then they heard some scuffling and went into a room and they saw CHRISTINA BELL!

---

After a successful career of finance, Christina Bell joined the board of directors at Queen Industries in Star City. During a blood transfusion following a miscarriage, Christina was exposed to the Joker's Titan-infected blood. When she returned to work, Christina took a knife to a board meeting, brutally murdered eleven senior executives, and carved smiles on her victims' faces. She adopted several facets of Joker's personality, notably his obsession with Batman.

Before Arkham Knight Incident

After a brief career in finance, Christina Bell went on to become a board member at Queen Industries. She also used to work as part of Stagg Enterprises' Gotham branch. Christina suffered a miscarriage, so she needed a blood transfusion.

When Joker sent samples of his mutated blood to hospitals all over the state, Christina and four other people were infected with his blood. Because Christina's blood and the other transfusions went unrecorded for some reason, she didn't receive the cure, which caused the blood to gestate too long and made the infected people to look and act like Joker; except for one of the victims, Henry Adams, who appeared to be immune to Joker's blood. Three weeks later, when Christina returned to Queen Industries and entered the boardroom for a monthly shareholder's meeting, she discovered her seat was taken, which resulted in her killing all 11 board members by slitting their throats and carving smiles on their faces, and eventually laughed when she was caught and confronted with it. Batman (who was also infected) brought all four of the infected people to a containment facility.

When she was incarcerated by Batman, Christina developed Stockholm Syndrome, and had also adopted the more extreme characteristics of the Joker's personality.

Arkham Knight Incident

Harley Quinn raided Panessa Studios, where Christina, Albert King, and Johnny Charisma were being kept. Quinn released Bell, King, and Charisma from their cells, and left them free to roam the studios. Bell was protected by a squad of Harley's Henchmen, sadistically shot one, gave orders to the goons that were laced with taunts and threats, and also made no secret toward her wanting Batman to win, to the other goons' disgust (since Joker at least rooted for them to beat Batman before his death). After all of Harley's goons are defeated, Bell lunged at Robin and was quickly subdued when the duo barged in. Robin took Christina back to her cell, where she was later murdered by Henry.

Christina Bell: Batman, Batman? Is that you? These idiots want to break us apart. I tried to explain all the painful things you're gonna do to them but, well, I think they're masochists! Enjoy!

Tri Klops: Well, at least she's right about one thing.

Nico: We'll kill the Jokerz.

Varie: I'll face Christina.

Eli: That blood is really messing with her mind.

Varie: Lets go.

They went at the Jokers and Varie faced Christina.

POW! BIFF! CRACK! SMASH! BLAM!

They smashed and pulverized the Jokerz all over the place into kingdom come.

Man Ray: What's wrong, Joker? Not using any laughing gas on us? Assuming you're still in there.

Christina Bell: Of course I'm still in here! And did you forget? You party poopers destroyed my old body! Now I'm forced to use crude replacements of my old gimmicks!

Nico: You're a grade "A" Loser comedy.

Bell: Oh yeah!

Nico dodged her strikes and teleported away.

Nico: Told you ya didn't know me.

Bell: Funny guy…

Nico: Can't say the same for you. [shoves Bell so that her chest hits a table]

Bell: Impudent brat. Who do you think you're talking to?

Nico: Not a comedian, I'll tell you that.

Bell: [draws a gun] Shut your mouth! [fires at Nico]

Nico: [retreats into the rafters] The real Batman never talked to you much, did he? That's probably why you were so fixated on him. [fires an energy laser, knocking the gun out of Bell's hand]

Bell: Don't play psychoanalyst with me, boy!

Nico: Oh, I don't need a degree to figure you out. [Forms a dome of darkness and blocks out the light] The real reason you kept coming back was that you never got a laugh out of Batman didn't you?

Bell: I'm not hearing this…

Nico: Get a clue, clowny! He's got no sense of humor! He wouldn't know a good joke if it bit him in the cape… not that you ever had a good joke.

Bell: [really getting angry] Shut up… Shut up!

Nico: I mean, joy buzzers, squirting flowers? Lame! Where's the "A" material? Make a face, drop your pants, something!

Bell: Show yourself!

Nico: You make me laugh. But only 'cause I think you're kinda pathetic and a fucked up moron. [mimics the Joker's laugh]

Bell: Stop that!

Nico: So you fell in a tank of acid, got your skin bleached and decided to become a supervillain. What, you couldn't get a job as a rodeo clown? [laughs mockingly]

Bell: Don't you dare laugh at me!…

Nico: [laughs harder] Why? I thought the Joker always wanted to make Batman laugh!

Varie punched Bell in the face!

Jokerz Thug: Look, if you want Bell, take her! She's nothing like the old boss. At least he rooted for us to beat Batman before you took him out!

Astro Man: (puts handcuffs on him) Just for that, you get to go to jail. At least you're man enough to admit your mistakes.

Nico: That's right!

POW!

Varie punched Bell in the face.

Varie: Time for you to wake up!

Bell: Wake up from what!

She pulled out a clay jug and she threw the sacred water onto Bell and the Joker's insidious blood was destroyed in her and she was back to normal but she had a tremendous headache.

Bell: (Groans) What happened? I have got the worst headache ever.

Varie looked her over.

Varie: The Sacred Water destroyed all of the Joker's blood inside her.

Supernova Zap: We're just glad you're okay.

Christina Bell: Is Batman with you? He knows the Joker better then anyone.

Batman: I'm right here.

Nico: We also know the Joker too. Ugly story.

Éclair: How did the Joker become like this?

Nico: He was a gangster named Jack Napier and he fell into a tank full of chemicals and they destroyed his sanity and he became the most f up and most ruthless adversary of Batman: The Joker.

Twilight Sparkle: He killed over 2,000 people.

Éclair: What a monster!

Eli: Yeah.

Bell: Wow.

Nico: Yeah it's crazy.

Varie: A medivac transporter will take you to Gotham Royal York General.

Sirens were heard and the medivac arrived and carted her to Gotham Royal York.

Major Disaster: Time to go Vegas next.

Nico: Yep.

They were off to Las Vegas.

---

Back in 17th Century Ireland we were wandering through the forest.

Maria: So, what's our first move?

Me: First we got to find Robyn and Mebh.

Girl Jordan: Okay.

Rachnera: Lets take a look.

Rachnera looked around with her vision. She had infrared vision and looked around the forest and she saw a heat signature.

Rachnera: I see someone.

Me: Great.

Maria: What do you see, Rachnera?

Rachnera: I see Robin and she's with a girl that is living among a big wolf pack.

Lincoln: That's amazing.

We went up to Robyn.

Maria: (to Robyn) It's okay, Robyn. We're here to help.

Robyn: (Irish Accent) Who are all of you?

Me: We are Team Loud Phoenix Storm. We came here from 371 years into the future.

Maria: Yeah.

We explained everything.

Robyn: Wow! So you all came to kill Cromwell?

Lincoln: We sure did.

Paige: And no one is gonna hurt a wolf on our watch.

Cerea: That's right!

Robyn: Wow.

---

In Las Vegas, Nevada the group Nico was leading, they were in front of the old Frontier Casino and it was shut down back in 2007.

Nico: Wow the old Frontier Casino.

Eli: Looks like no one has been in here for a long time.

Ets: Yeah.

They went into the building and it was really old and dilapidated. Everything was covered in cobwebs, dust and rotting floors and more.

Nico: Wow. No one has been in here for years.

Varie: It sure looks like a really old place.

Lana: I wonder if the machines are still working.

Laney: Go for it.

Linka used her lightning powers to turn the machines on and Lana won all the money that was still in the machines!

Nico: WHOA! Looks like they forgot to take some of the money out when this place went under.

Lana came back with a wheelbarrow full of the money.

Lana: Yeah they sure did.

Vince: That's awesome work Lana.

Sly Cooper: This girl is REALLY lucky.

Lynn: Yeah.

Lana put all the money she won into a scroll and it was bound to be worth something. They then went further in and saw on a stage, JOHNNY CHARISMA!

---

Jonathan Browne a.k.a. Johnny Charisma, the self-proclaimed Messiah of Entertainment. Johnny made a name for himself on the cabaret circuit before he hit the big time when he was discovered by a national talent show.

Charisma was no stranger to controversy with a string of drug offenses and a DUI, but his assault on a groupie was uncharacteristically violent.

When he was infected, Charisma displayed signs of megalomania, with his behavior echoing the sadistic showmanship of the Joker.

Before Arkham Knight Incident

Johnny Charisma was a professional singer in Gotham City. The self-proclaimed messiah of entertainment.

When Joker sent samples of his mutated blood to hospitals all over the state, Johnny and four other people were infected with his blood. But because Johnny's blood and the other transfusions went unrecorded for some reason, he didn't receive the cure, which caused the blood to gestate too long and made the infected people to look and act like Joker; except for one of the victims, Henry Adams, who appeared to be immune to Joker's blood.

Following a psychotic episode, Charisma was interned at a private clinic.

Eventually Batman (who was also infected) brought all four of the infected people to a containment facility and had Robin run tests to investigate why Henry wasn't like the others. Johnny's infection showed up on October 10 when he came off-stage and beat a groupie hard and prolonged enough to render the latter into a coma, and allegedly inflated his already substantial ego into something else. When he was abducted by Batman, Johnny's absence was covered up with the claim that he had gone to rehab at an exclusive clinic. At some point before this, one of Johnny's billboards replaced one for James Gordon, the police commissioner for the GCPD, with Charisma hysterically commenting on this when Gordon was invited to the Movie Studios by Batman to reveal the Jokerized victims.

Arkham Knight Incident

By the time of Halloween, Batman's current estimate of how long until Johnny's infection reached maximum levels was in 48 hours. Harley Quinn raided Panessa Studios, where Johnny, Albert King, and Christina Bell were being kept. Quinn released Bell, King, and Charisma from their cells, and left them free to roam the studios. After Batman recaptured Bell, Charisma and King both spoke to Batman on the TV, and challenged him to come and face them. Batman would choose to capture Johnny after King or capture King after Johnny. Batman would learn that Johnny had entered a room with a security panel. After he rewound the security footage, Batman figured out the code, and entered the room to find that Johnny had strapped himself to bombs. Johnny started singing a song (in Batman's fear toxin-infected mind, it's the original Joker singing "Who's Laughing Now") and Batman listened to distract him while Robin defused the bomb, sneaked up behind Johnny, and removed the bomb vest. Batman then knocked Johnny unconscious with a headbutt. Batman and Robin later took Johnny back to the cells.

Depending on whether Batman chose to confront Christina Bell or Johnny first, the results would slightly vary.

If Batman chose to go after Johnny first, he would be discovered to be shot and killed by a Jokerized Henry Adams by the time Batman arrived.

If Batman chose to go after Christina first, Johnny would be shot and killed in front of Batman.

Nico: Johnny Charisma.

Johnny Charisma: Don't be shy! There's room up here on stage for two.

Magma: Wait. Stage for two?

Johnny Charisma: That's right! I'm planning a duet for me and one of you. So how about the rest of you wait out there and listen to us make sweet music together?

Éclair: I'll dance with you.

Johnny Charisma: Lets dance then.

He went to a Jukebox.

Johnny Charisma: Anyone got a quarter?

Nico: Sure. Here.

Nico pulled out a quarter from his pocket and gave it to him.

Johnny Charisma: Time to let the music play! (turns the jukebox on)

The jukebox then played the My Little Pony song.

Common Cold: (to Twilight) I think you and your friends like this song!

Johnny Charisma: (panics) Wait. That's not the song I wanted! (Turns the jukebox off and puts in a different song) Here we go! (turns jukebox back on)

Super Villain by Powerman5000 started playing.

Johnny Charisma: Let's kick things off!

He then began singing.

Johnny Charisma (singing): You're dressin all in black!

From your front to your back!

And all your evil ways

They seem to go on for days

And as a matter of fact!

You got one more night before ya

Smash it up, burn it down

Tearing up the underground

You wanna live like a super villain!

Back in the line up

Before your times up

You wanna live like a super villain!

There's nowhere to go!

There's nowhere to go!

When he was done it was Éclair's turn.

Éclair: Now you will see why I am a great dancer.

Nico: And she is not called the Priestess of The Phoenix for show.

She got to dancing like she did back in her village and she was dancing to Adiemus by Karl Jenkins and she was dancing with incredible grace and beauty.

Luna Loud: Wow. Éclair is an amazing dancer.

Laney: She sure is.

Lucy H.: Éclair is as beautiful a dancer as she is with her fortune telling.

Then her back was enveloped in a wave of fire and then phoenix wings that had powerful flames of pure fire sprouted from her back and she then was ready for action.

Éclair: Now that the dancing is done it's time to fight!

Éclair went at him and kicked him in the face and fired waves of fire and burned him all over.

Captain Cold used his cold gun to freeze Johnny's feet.

Captain Cold: Sorry. But the show's over.

Johnny Charisma: What? No encore?

Varie: Right now you need to be cured from a monster that needs to be long forgotten.

She splashed him with the sacred water and it destroyed the Joker's blood in him and he was back to normal.

Johnny Charisma: What? What happened?

Nico: You were under the influence of a really fucked up monster.

Eli: The Joker.

Johnny Charisma: Oh man.

Indigo Zap: (to Johnny) I don't know if it was you or the Joker who was in control during that whole thing. But that was some really awesome singing and dancing!

Lori: It literally was.

Lori showed him on her phone and it was awesome.

Johnny Charisma: Wow I don't remember doing that.

Nico: You did really good.

Eli: Yeah.

Ets: You sure did.

The medivac came and took him to Gotham Royal York General and they got out of the casino.

Nico: Lets blow this popsicle stand.

Eli: Good idea. This building was scheduled to be demolished anyway.

Nico fired an energy blast and it hit the building and blew it to smithereens and reduced it to dust.

Lola: YEAH!

May: That takes care of that place.

Lucy H.: It sure does.

Nico: Now we head for the last of the Joker 3.

Lucy Loud: Where is that one at?

Nico: Next, we're going to a ghost town in Utah.

Shaggy: (scared) Did you say… ghost town?!

May: If you two don't want to go with us, we're not forcing you.

Twilight Sparkle: Shaggy a Ghost Town is not really haunted for real. It's called a ghost town because no one has lived there in a long time. Just because it has ghost in its name doesn't mean it's haunted.

Nico: Yeah Shaggy. Besides you guys bust ghosts and criminals in masks and costumes on a daily basis. Lets get moving.

They were off to Utah.

In 17th Century Ireland, Me and my group were ready to face Cromwell and we heard shouting and out of the trees came OLIVER CROMWELL!

Maria: Nice for you to stop by Cromwell. You just saved us the trouble of hunting you down.

Me: You want to get to the wolves and Robyn, then you will have to go through us!

Rosty: And it's not gonna be pretty.

Jelli: It will be a messy end for you.

Rachnera: (Hisses ferociously)

Cromwell: (Irish Accent) YOU WILL NOT STAND IN MY WAY TO DESTROY THE WOLVES!

Me: You want them? Come and get them!

---

Nico and the rest of the group were over in Sego, Utah. It was an old ghost town that was abandoned in 1955.

Nico: Wow.

Jessie K.: This is Sego, Utah. It's a ghost town that was abandoned back in 1955. It was a coal mining town back then.

Velma: Sounds like a perfect place to have a mystery.

Laney: It sure does.

Twilight Sparkle: Yeah I would like it.

Then they heard cheered and they walked into the center of the town and saw ALBERT KING!

---

Albert King, aka the Gotham Goliath, was a legendary prizefighter with consecutive knockouts since records began. Days before his testimonial fight, King checked into Gotham General for a routine procedure, only to become infected with Joker's mutated blood. After he hospitalized his entire family in a fit of rage, King took on the more violent and sadistic aspects of Joker's personality.

Before Arkham Knight Incident

Albert King was a professional heavyweight boxer in Gotham City and acquired the nickname of the Goliath. However, he ended up losing to a Russian boxer due to age, and ended up retiring. Albert eventually ended up having to go to the hospital for a routine treatment at Gotham General.

When Joker sent samples of his mutated blood to the hospitals all over the state, Albert and four other people were infected with his blood, but because his blood and the other transfusions went unrecorded for some reason, Albert didn't receive the cure in time, which caused the blood to gestate too long and made the infected people to look and act like Joker; except for one of the victims, Henry Adams, who appeared to be immune to Joker's blood. Batman (who was also infected) brought all four of the infected people to a containment facility and had Robin run tests to investigate why Henry wasn't like the others. The first sign of Albert being infected was when he forcibly challenged three members of his immediate family to an arm-wrestling match, proceeded to viciously rip their arms out upon beating them, and presumably used their blood to make a Joker-esque smile on his face. He was the second person to become infected.

Arkham Knight Incident

On the night of October 30th, the Gotham News reported that a late replacement for Albert King had been found, emphasizing that the promotion was back on track. Later that night, Harley Quinn raided Panessa Studios, where Albert, Johnny Charisma, and Christina Bell were being kept. Quinn released Bell, King, and Charisma from their cells, and left them free to roam the studios. After Batman recaptured Bell, Charisma and King both spoke to Batman on the TV, and challenged him to come and face them. Batman would either decide to pursue King before Charisma or Charisma before King. Batman found that King had entered a room with a wild western theme with a squad of Harley's Henchmen. King challenged Batman to a fight and eventually lost with some help from Robin, despite the assistance of Harley's goons. He was taken back where he was later killed by Henry, who was not immune to Joker's tainted blood after all.

Albert King saw them.

Albert King: This is it! The fight of the century! You ready to get schooled, Team Loud Phoenix Storm? Where do you wanna start? How about getting your asses kicked 101? (we say nothing at first) What? Nothing to say.

Brimstone: (breaks the silence) For a minute, I thought you were Balrog.

Nico: No he's dead. But I will enjoy tearing this freak apart.

Eli: And we'll rip his thugs to shreds.

Ets: This is gonna be good.

Mysterio: Time to summon some appropriate backup. (summons some Large Body Heartless robots)

Eli: Yeah!

Laney: Lets get them guys!

Then Mr. Touch and Go, Melter, Heatwave, Carly Atlas, Dr. Destiny, Titanium Toenail, Stinky Butt and Po Kong the Demon Sorcerer of The Mountain then appeared.

Nico: Mr. Touch and Go, Melter, Heatwave, Carly Atlas, Dr. Destiny, Titanium Toenail, Stinky Butt and Po Kong.

Po Kong: Nice seeing you all here.

Mr. Touch: Nice job taking out the Joker's blood.

May: Thanks. But it wasn't that easy.

Melter: But at least two victims are cured.

Heatwave: Now you guys just have to cure that Balrog look alike.

Albert King: Oh, c'mon! Why do you guys think I'm Balrog?!

Carly: Well, you have to admit that you two look alike.

Nico: And Balrog was killed by my little sister Mindy.

Carly Atlas: Wow. Where's J.D. and some of the group?

Varie: J.D. has some of the group with him to go stop the persecution of the legendary Wolfwalkers of Irish Myth.

Heatwave: Wow! Two missions appeared at the same time.

Nico: Yeah crazy.

Then two more figures appeared and they were GAZIMON and PROFESSOR CALLAGHAN A.K.A. YOKAI!

---

Gazimon

Digimon Adventure

The Gazimon were the servants of Etemon who loved his awful singing and operated his Dark Network and other grunt work. One seemed to have a pair of sunglasses like his. When Etemon was supposedly killed after the fight with MetalGreymon, that Gazimon and another one plotted revenge against the DigiDestined but decided not to, since they had never liked Etemon. The two ate the mushrooms of forgetfulness.

Some Gazimon later appear as customers at Digitamamon's diner.

During Wizardmon's flashback of how he met Gatomon, three Gazimon passed Wizardmon when he was close to death but they never stopped to help him and continued their track.

Digimon Adventure 02

In a flashback, a Gazimon was seen emerging from the sand and attacking a young Ken Ichijouji, Wormmon and Ryo Akiyama.

A Gazimon was running and a dark ring got him.

A pack of Gazimon, along with Gabumon, were hostages to RedVegiemon and his Vegiemon army.

Several Gazimon are partnered to several of the French DigiDestined. One shows up alongside all the DigiDestined and Partners around the world to support the Japanese DigiDestined against MaloMyotismon.

Yokai

Professor Robert Callaghan, or also better known by his supervillain name Yokai, is the main antagonist of Disney's 54th full-length animated feature film Big Hero 6 and a minor character in Big Hero 6: The Series . He is also the former archenemy of Hiro Hamada and Baymax.

He is a former university teacher presumed dead in a fire; until he later re-emerged using a vast army of microbots in his plan to take revenge on Alistair Krei, whom he blames for the supposed death of his daughter Abigail Callaghan.

He was voiced by James Cromwell, who also played Joseph Campbell in The General's Daughter, The Colonel in Spirit: Stallion of the Cimarron, Warden Hazen in the 2005 remake of The Longest Yard, Captain Dudley Liam Smith in L.A. Confidential, Dr. Arthur Arden in American Horror Story: Asylum and William Donahue in Eraser .

Past

While the full extant of Robert's past is unclear, what is known is that Professor Callaghan is a renowned roboticist in San Fransokyo, credited with the creation of Callaghan's Laws of Robotics, as well as a teacher at the San Fransokyo Institute of Technology. He also married and had a daughter named Abigail, though it is unknown what happened to his wife.

Robert was present during Alistair Krei's presentation of Project "Silent Sparrow" on Akuma Island near San Fransyoko, which consisted of using two portals leading into another dimension for fast transportation, mostly because his daughter was the test pilot for the invention. Robert shared one last moment with his daughter before she was sent through the portal. However, an anomaly were detected, but Alistair pushed forward with the test anyway. As Abigail was sent into the portal, the machine malfunctioned, causing the first portal to start sucking in everything in sight while destroying the second, effectively trapping Abigail inside. After the device was shut down, Robert attempted to assault Krei for his daughter's supposed death, but was prevented by the generals that were also present.

Ever since then, Robert has thought of nothing else but seeking revenge on Krei for the loss of his only family. He came up with the idea to use the same portal as before against Krei, but lacked the means to acquire it with Akuma Island being sealed off. During his time at the Institute, he watched over his students as they created their inventions in the hope that one of them would build something that would help in his revenge plan while not building any true bonds with them.

Big Hero 6

Professor Callaghan first appears in Tadashi's university known as the San Fransokyo Institute of Technology, with Tadashi and his younger brother named Hiro. Upon introducing himself to Hiro, Callaghan speaks that Hiro's fighting robot employs his laws, and subtly reprimands him for bot-fighting as opposed to putting his intellect to use. It is this that motivates Hiro to join Tadashi's university and to invent the microbots. Hiro's subsequent demonstration of his new microbots to join the university visibly impresses Callaghan, as well as Alistair Krei. Krei expresses great interest in buying Hiro's microbots, but Callaghan intervenes with Krei's offer and states his distrust of Krei, convincing Hiro not to sell his microbots (a subtle reference to his hate of Krei). Once Hiro denies to selling the microbots, Callaghan accepts Hiro into the university.

In truth, however, Callaghan actually wanted the micobots himself for his revenge plan against Krei. First, he sets fire to the building the showcase was held in to cover his tracks, then he places on the control device and orders the microbots to shield from the resulting explosion that destroys the entire building. He then escapes with whatever microbots that survived the blast undetected so that the rest of the world could presume his deceased. Just before the explosion, Tadashi, who knew nothing of Callaghan's plans, rushed in to rescue the professor, only to actually perish for nothing.

After the incident, Callaghan relocated himself to a warehouse in a shadier part of San Fransokyo. There, he devised a small, secret factory to manufacture microbots by the dozen, which included the same robotic arms Callaghan presented in the showcase. In order to prevent his true identity from being discovered, a created a new one by putting on a black suit and grey trenchcoat and refitted the control device into a traditional yokai mask. And thus, Yokai was born (though he never actually called himself this).

Later on, Hiro and Baymax discover his hideout after following one of the microbots to it. Before Hiro could investigate any further, Yokai appears and bundles the microbots into a slithering wave, and attempts to kill Hiro and Baymax. Hiro catches a brief glimpse at the masked man before escaping out of a window. Hiro explains the matter to the local police station, but the cop he tries to explain the matter to is unsure whether to believe him or not, and Baymax's battery runs low, rendering his evidence almost completely unreliable.

Still devastated about the loss of his brother, Hiro theorizes that Yokai stole his microbots, then caused the fire in Tadashi's showcase to cover his theft. Determined not to let him escape, Hiro builds Baymax a suit and installs combat into his databases, like a chip of his design. Hiro tracks down Yokai near the warehouse. Hiro sees Yokai and ducks for cover and seeing the villain gathering massive parts from the nearby bay with the microbots. Suddenly, the rest of Tadashi's friends (GoGo Tomago, Honey Lemon, Wasabi, and Fred who Baymax had contacted earlier) drive-in. Hiro desperately attempts to explain the situation, but Yokai sees them and attempts to crush them. Narrowly saved by Baymax, Hiro and the rest of the team drive off with Yokai right behind them. Yokai attempts to kill them by throwing vehicles and using his microbots as a wave to attack them. It ends with Gogo accidentally driving a car into the bay and sinking into the water. Yokai looks on, and, thinking they drowned, leaves.

Baymax saves Hiro and his friends by discarding his armor and using his buoyant balloon body to float them back up to the surface. They retreat to Fred's house, which, surprisingly, is a fancy mansion. Baymax then reveals that he scanned Yokai. Planning to do a mass scan on San Fransokyo to find out his identity, Hiro builds a new battle suit for Baymax, equipped with offensive capabilities and rocket-propelled flight, and designs suits for his friends, organizing the team known as Big Hero 6 to bring Yokai to justice. Baymax and Hiro fly above San Fransokyo and scan the city, and Yokai's information is matched to a distant and quarantined island.

Flying down to the island, the Big Hero 6 discover what remained of Silent Sparrow, as well as partial footage of the events that led to its shutdown. This leaves Big Hero 6 to assume that Krei is the true identity of Yokai and is using Hiro's microbots to steal his machine back. Before the feed continues, however, Yokai suddenly appears, armed with the microbots, and yet again attempts to crush the heroes. Hiro and everyone else fights Yokai, ending with Hiro and Baymax flying into Yokai and knocking off his mask.

As they got up, Yokai turned and showed his true identity as Professor Robert Callaghan. Realizing that Callaghan was still alive and the one who stole Hiro's microbots and caused the fire to fake his death that killed Tadashi, a shocked Hiro confronts him for this, only for the professor to explain that he used Hiro's microbots to save himself. As Hiro is shocked by this, he tries to tell him that Tadashi tried to save him, but Callahan coldly yells at Hiro that Tadashi's death as his own mistake, showing that he doesn't care that Tadashi is dead and that he tried to save him. Out of complete rage, Hiro removes Baymax's healthcare chip and orders him to kill Callaghan as revenge to see how he likes getting killed. Baymax goes out of control and attempts to kill the now powerless Callaghan under Hiro's orders, but the other members try to stop him, knowing killing him is wrong, allowing Callaghan to gather up the microbots and flee. Baymax is forcefully stopped and Callaghan reclaims his mask to use the microbots to escape, much to Hiro's rage.

Hiro is very angry at his friends for interfering, but still holds a much bigger grudge on Callaghan and flies off with Baymax, leaving the others behind on the island so they won't try to stop him again (although Fred tells him that his butler picked them up and flew them back in his family's helicopter). After trying so many failed attempts to gain access to his access port, Baymax asks if killing Callaghan is what Tadashi would have wanted. With Hiro entering a fit of anger and despair, Baymax shows Hiro a video compilation of Tadashi making improvements, making Hiro regain his senses and realize that killing Callaghan will not do any good. Big Hero 6 regroups and looks over the video feed again. It visibly shows Callaghan furiously storming into the building, raging at a frightened Krei by telling him that he knew the portal "wasn't ready". The building was quarantined by the government, and Abigail the test pilot is revealed to be Abigail Callaghan, the professor's now supposedly dead daughter. It was then Big Hero 6 realized that Abigail's apparent death drove Callaghan to a point of vengeful anger, leading him to adopt the masked costume and manufacture the microbots to take revenge on Krei.

Big Hero 6 rushes over to Krei Tech's main building, where Krei is making a speech about the new building's opening. Callaghan, again as Yokai, suddenly intercepts, seizing Krei and dragging him into the air and directly confronting Krei about his daughter's supposed demise. Krei begs that Abigail's presumed death was an accident, but Callaghan dismisses his plea and accuses Krei and his arrogance and greed, and lack of regard for the consequences of his actions for being the cause of Abigail's death. He then tells Krei that he took everything from him when he sent Abigail into the portal and apparently disregarded her life and now he will take everything from him in retaliation. Callaghan takes the remains of the teleportation machine and with the microbots, rebuilds it over Krei Tech's building, intending to destroy it. He tells Krei that he will make him watch everything he built get destroyed, then he would kill Krei next.

Big Hero 6 arrives, and Hiro tries to reason with Callaghan to spare Krei, admitting that he understands his pain and knows the very feeling of loss. Realizing that what Hiro says may be true, Callaghan hesitates and appears to consider stopping his plan. However, when Krei cowardly pleads for mercy, the villain once again allows his disgust at Krei's lack of courage to consume him and instead opts to kill both Krei and the Big Hero 6, saying furiously that he wishes to have his daughter alive again, using the microbots to pin down each member of Big Hero 6. In a climactic final battle, Hiro has everyone work from different angles, succeeding in tricking Callaghan into sucking his microbots into the portal the machine above created.

Callaghan (without any working microbots) is about to receive a punch in the face by Baymax, but it turns out that the robot decides to spare the former professor. Baymax removes the mask and crushes it, rendering the remaining microbots useless. As such, Callaghan starts to fall along with the portal, only to be saved by Baymax and Hiro. Before Callaghan can be arrested, Baymax detects life within the teleportation machine's dimension, revealing that Abigail is alive but in hypersleep, much to Callaghan's surprise. Hiro and Baymax fly into the portal and successfully manage to draw Abigail out, but at the cost of Baymax's original body.

For his crimes, Callaghan is arrested by the police, but he manages to see Abigail one last time before being driven off in a police car, and his sad facial expression implies that he becomes remorseful for his actions as he waits to be given a prison sentence for his crimes.

Big Hero 6: The Series

Callaghan briefly appeared in the episode "Mini-Max", where Hiro paid a visit to him in his prison cell. It is revealed that Callaghan was a close friend of Professor Granville (who became the new dean following Callaghan's arrest) and that Hiro only came by to ask about what caused her to leave 20 years prior. Callaghan then confessed that there were rumors about an unsanctioned project going wrong that caused Granville to resign out of shame and that the incident was covered up by an "official" story of a pipe burst. Hiro later learned from Granville that a certain student named Bob Aken was responsible for the unsanctioned project and that he suffered injuries after the incident, which prompted Granville to resign out of guilt since she allowed him free rein in the lab at that time.

With this information, Hiro thanks Callaghan for his help, but before he could leave, Callaghan reminds him that he is thankful for Hiro for saving Abigail's life and that he is truly sorry for Tadashi's death. Callaghan also admits that he understands that his apology is not enough for Hiro to forgive him, though Hiro notes that Tadashi would want him to forgive Callaghan. However, Hiro remains stoic and says someday he hopes he can before leaving.

Callaghan returned in the episode "Hiro the Villain", where he is being interrogated by Chief Cruz, who has declared Big Hero 6 fugitives for defending Globby. However, Callaghan sternly points out that Cruz is wrong about Big Hero 6 as they rescued Abigail and Krei, and that he himself is paying the price for his unforgivable mistakes against Big Hero 6.

We later got back together and Eli and Éclair told me everything about what happened and I was amazed and I was really proud of everyone. Now the Joker was gone forever. We later went to Lynn's Table for dinner and then went back home for bed.

THE END

---

Another awesome adventure done.

Wolfwalkers was a really cool movie. I never saw it but I heard that it was amazing and I love wolves. The Batman adventure is from Batman Arkham Knight and it's for The Three Jokers Adventure. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Etstheclarencefan, Drako1234658 and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this one. Thanks guys. The next girl is Kalolo the Jackalope and we're going to find her in Crop Circle Country and you are gonna be shocked to see who her archenemy will be. The next chapter is for where we face an evil version of the funny cowboy pony Troubleshoes and he is gonna be bringing bad luck to all of Appleossa and is gonna bring trouble. But not if we have anything to say about it in the 12th Installment of the MLP Chapters.

See you all tomorrow

Old West Troubles

In Spyro's world, me and Joan were flying over Crop Circle Country. It looked like a nice farm realm.

---

Crop Circle Country is a realm that appeared in Spyro: Enter the Dragonfly . Unfortunately, the farm had been invaded by Space Cows and they are abducting cows for their army. Spyro soon came along and started to deal with the Space Riptocs and Cows. The farmers were very grateful to Spyro and rewarded him.

---

Joan Bolton: Wow! So this is Crop Circle Country.

Me: It sure looks like an ominous place.

Joan Bolton: It sure does. Hard to believe that it's the sight of alien abductions.

Me: Yeah. Spyro told us that aliens are abducting cows from here.

Joan: I was getting worried that you wouldn't pick me or my sisters.

Joan concentrated and groaned as her teeth sank into her gums.

She turned into her Street Shark Form!

Me: Yeah sorry about that Joan.

Joan: No worries.

Then 3 beams of light teleported in 3 Space Cows! They were anthropomorphic cows from another planet!

Me: Wow! They are cows from another planet!

Joan: No wonder that farmer here hates them.

Me: Yeah. Lets get them!

Joan: SHARK ATTACK!

We went at the Space Cows and punched and kicked and bit them and turned them into steaks and pulverized them.

Me: YEAH!

We went into a farm and we saw McWolf and he saw us and screamed and jumped back and did an inhuman scream

McWolf: (To the Viewers) Is there no place that's safe for me from them!?

We jumped him and tickled him all over and he was laughing hysterically.

McWolf: (LAUGHING HYSTERICALLY) OKAY OKAY! HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA!

We went up to the Hay Loft and we saw the girl and she was a Jackalope, a rabbit with antlers from North American Folklore.

Me: Whoa! She's a Jackalope from North American Folklore. I thought they were fake.

Joan: Looks like they are real.

We went and cut her free.

Kalolo: Oh thank you. Wow! J.D. Knudson of Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's such an honor.

Me: Same to you.

Kalolo: My name is Kalolo and yes I am a Jackalope.

Me: Pleasure to meet you. And this is Joan Bolton.

Joan: Hey there. I'm gonna revert back.

Me: Okay.

She reverted back.

Joan was human again but topless.

Joan: (covers her boobs) At least I'm still wearing pants.

I gave her a new shirt.

Joan: Thanks J.D.

Me: You're welcome.

Kalolo: That must happen a lot huh?

Me: You have no idea. Love your bikini top.

Kalolo: Thank you kindly. Hot huh?

Me: It sure is.

Joan: I always thought that Jackalopes were just a figment of the imagination.

Kalolo: I know. Everyone thinks that.

Me: But they are really cool creatures.

Kalolo: They sure are.

Me: Lets head back to the estate so we can show you around.

Kalolo: Okay.

We went back to the World Tree Estate.

---

We arrived back at the World Tree Estate and Joan went to the sofa and played Video Games with Nicole.

Kalolo: Wow! Your estate is amazing.

Me: It sure is.

Nico: Wow! She's a Jackalope from North American Folklore.

Me: Yep.

Kalolo: Nico Chan it's an honor to meet you.

Nico: Same here.

Kalolo: My name is Kalolo.

Nico: Pleasure to meet you.

Miia: Kalolo!

Kalolo: Miia!

They went and hugged and it was a great reunion.

---

Later we were back in Reykjavik, Iceland.

Commander Jupiter: Another nice day in Iceland. Right, guys?

Me: Boy you said it. Last time we were here was when we saw the Millennium Comet.

Éclair: What was that like?

Me: A really awesome and amazing event. We won't see a comet like that for 1,000 years.

Tara: Just like a comet that happened when my sister disappeared.

Beast Boy: Yeah that was an interesting event.

Laney: It sure was.

With us was Hunter's friend from Iceland, Marselína Haddsdóttir, Born from December 12th, 2003 AD. She has platinum blonde hair in a single long ponytail, heart shape face, delicate nose, narrow ears, amethyst purple eyes, medium hard-angled eyebrows, height similar to Luna or Leni's. Wears a grey and black wool shirt, blue jeans with a black belt, Icelandic winter boots with red socks, red wool gloves, red Mosi Hat. And has powers of Ice, Water, Wind, Earth, Tectonic, Boil, Fire, Lava, and Ocean Release.

Me: It's awesome having you with us Marselina.

Marselina: (Icelandic Accent) I am honored to be part of the team. Hunter told me so much about you.

Edwayl: (Breton Accent) It's great you're with us lass.

Marselina: Same here.

Me: Hey look there.

We saw a small figure go across the street and it looked like Jirachi.

Me: Was that Jirachi?

Nico: It sure looked like it.

Tentacool: That's not Jirachi.

Paula: How do you know?

Tentacool: I know my own boyfriend when I see him.

Me: Tentacool is right. I sense that this Jirachi has a human life signal inside it.

Cyborg: That could be the Jirachi Gene-Slammer that I mentioned.

Eli: It was actually Technus that brought it up.

Me: Yeah.

We saw an Icelandic man and we heard him say I wish I had 121,670,000,079.94 Króna and then POOF! He had it and it was a lot of money!

Nico: WHOA! That guy got filthy rich.

Wanda: And normally asking for money like that is against the rules.

Stacy Bolton: It sure is.

Me: Lets go find that Jirachi lookalike.

We went and followed where that 2nd Jirachi went to and we found it in an alley.

Jirachi: Hey! Why the Hell are you copying me?!

2nd Jirachi: (In a girls Voice) (Icelandic Accent) I'm not copying anyone.

Marselina: I know that voice. Holly? Is that you?

2nd Jirachi: Yes Marselina. It's me.

Lori: You know each other?

Marselina: We sure do. We are friends from school.

Me: (Speaking Icelandic) Holly hvað gerðist sem varð til þess að þú varðst svona? Var það annar vitlaus vísindamaður sem var frá Team Rocket? (Holly what happened that caused you to become like this? Was it another mad scientist that was from Team Rocket?)

2nd Jirachi: (Speaking Icelandic) Já það var. Þeir gerðu mig að þessu og ég hef þessa ótrúlegu krafta. (Yes it was. They turned me into this and I have these amazing powers.)

Me: What was that scientist doing?

Holly: He was dying and he injected me with something from a dart and it made me into a Jirachi.

Nico: I've got this. Holly, I wish you were back to human form!

Skullcruncher: You were able to grant the wish of a man wanting to be rich. So you should be able to grant the boss' wish in wanting you to become human again, right?

2nd Jirachi: I think so. Let me try.

She concentrated and nothing happened.

2nd Jirachi: I can't do that.

Me: Well it was a really good try.

Carol: Let me see if I can do it. My powers have gotten stronger over the years.

Vince: Go for it Carol.

Carol went up to her.

Carol: (Speaking Icelandic) Ég ætla að nota krafta mína til að gefa þér möguleika á að breyta að vild. Þú munt hafa öll völdin sem þú fékkst sem Jirachi. En viðsnúningurinn verður óskaplega sár. (I'm gonna use my powers to give you the ability to change at will. You will have all of the powers you got as a Jirachi. But the reversion will be excruciatingly painful.)

2nd Jirachi: I understand.

Laney: But you will be naked when you are human again.

Me: Fashion team get ready to move.

Varie: Right.

Carol: Ready Holly?

2nd Jirachi: Ready.

Carol: Cover your eyes boys and no peaking.

Nicole: Or else!

We covered our eyes.

She snapped her fingers and Holly was in excruciating pain.

Holly: (GROANING IN PAIN) IT HURTS SO MUCH!

She grew and got her skin color back and then she got her blond hair back and she had purple eyes. She was back to normal and she was completely naked.

Holly: Dammit! I feel like I grew alot!

Warpath: That's because you did.

Holly: (Covers herself) EYES TO YOURSELVES PERVERTS! ANYONE WHO SNEAKS A PEAK AT ME WHILE I'M NAKED WILL GET HIS NECK SNAPPED!

Varie and the Fashion team gave her a new and amazing outfit. She had a green dress shirt with flowers on it and she had a beautiful winter vest and she had a gorgeous skirt with yellow ribbons and red bows and she had dark red boots with butterflies on them.

Varie: Okay you can look now.

We did and she was amazing.

Laney: Wow! Nice outfit.

Lola: Beautiful.

Me: Take a look.

I formed a mirror and she was incredible.

Holly: Wow! I look amazing.

Me: You sure do.

Eli: Those are awesome clothes.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja.

Holly: I wonder if I still have my powers. Wish for something.

Me: Lets see. I wish that meat would rain from the sky for 5 minutes.

Holly: Here goes. (Snaps fingers)

She snapped her fingers and it happened! We saw meat raining from the sky and it was all really awesome and well cooked meat.

Nico: OH WOW!

Laney: So awesome!

Lola: She still has her powers.

Me: Yeah!

The people of Iceland were gathering meat all over and more and it was awesome for the people of Iceland.

---

Later we were getting ready for an awesome mission.

Fuse Man: Who's up for another Wild West adventure?

Me: YEEHAW! (Imitating John Wayne) You know I am pardner.

Fuse Man: Love that Country Talk.

Éclair: That's well said.

Applejack: And I know just the place for us to go have some fun.

She pulled out a poster of the Appleossa Rodeo.

Applejack: The Appleoosa Rodeo. My cousin Braeburn lives in Appleoosa and he competes in it.

Me: Awesome!

Eli: This is gonna be awesome!

Nico: I've never been to Appleossa before.

Ets: It will be cool going to that part of Equestria.

Me: Yeah and we're in luck. It's down in Arizona.

Holly: This is gonna be fun.

Marselina: Looking forward to this.

Carl Carlson: Me too. This is gonna be awesome.

Mr. Smithers came in and he was dressed like a cowboy. (Season 8 Episode 9)

Mr. Smithers: Lookin forward to this too.

Nico: Nice cowboy outfit Weylon.

Mr. Smithers: Thanks Nico. I wear it to the annual chili cookoff but I can't pass up a good opportunity for this.

Titanium Toenail, Touch and Go, Melter, Heat Wave, Carly, Dr. Destiny, Stinky Butt, and Po Kong then appeared.

Titanium Toenail: Can me, Touch and Go, Melter, Heat Wave, Carly, Dr. Destiny, Stinky Butt, and Po Kong go with you guys?

Eli: Reckon y'all can.

Me: We're going to Appleoosa to attend the Rodeo.

Carly Atlas: Ooh I love the Rodeo.

Jack Atlas: Me too!

Po Kong: I hope they have really awesome food there.

Shaggy: Like, are you kidding? Rodeos ALWAYS have great food.

Stinky Butt: I hope they have good beans.

Heat Wave: And good spicy food.

Me: There will be plenty of food. Lets ride em up pardners!

We got dressed up in cowboy clothes and we were on our way! I was riding my Rapidash and May was riding her Blue Flame Rapidash.

The ToQger Rangers were on the Rainbow Express.

Me: YEEHAW!

May: YEAH!

---

We arrived in Appleoosa and it was located 25 miles northwest of Tombstone, Arizona.

Blizzard Man: This must be the place.

Applejack: Indeed it is. Welcome to Appleoosa y'all.

Me: Wow!

We saw that we were in Appleoosa.

---

Appleloosa is a western town in Equestria that is first featured in the episode Over a Barrel and makes minor appearances and mentions in later episodes. It is the hometown of Applejack's cousin Braeburn. The name of the town comes from the Appaloosa breed of horse. Its name is spelled as "Appleoosa" in Appleoosa's Most Wanted, in a Hasbro Studios My Little Pony Friendship is Magic video,and in some merchandise, as "Appleloosa"/"Apple Loosa" in other merchandise and depictions, and as "Appaloosa" in a February 1, 2014 tweet by Amy Keating Rogers and in closed-captions both of Over a Barrel and of Appleoosa's Most Wanted.

Appleloosa is first mentioned and featured in Over a Barrel. Applejack and her friends take a train there to deliver Bloomberg, one of Applejack's favorite trees, as a gift to her Appleloosan relatives. As a result, they get drawn into a long-standing dispute between the settler ponies and the buffalo tribe.

When Applejack and friends arrive in Appleloosa, Applejack's cousin Braeburn gives them the grand tour, explaining that the town was built in less than a year. The town includes a saloon called the Salt Block, a clock tower, a stage for musical performances, and acres of apple orchard, and has some of what Braeburn calls the "finest comforts" such as horse-drawn carriages, horse-drawn horse-drawn carriages, wild west dances, and mild west dances. The town is governed by Sheriff Silverstar.

Due to the town's location, the Appleloosans are locked in conflict with a tribe of buffalo led by Chief Thunderhooves. The buffalo wish for the ponies to remove the apple orchards from their traditional stampeding grounds, but the ponies refuse out of a need to feed their town and families. When the Mane Six fail to help the two sides reach a compromise, the conflicts escalates to war. During the conflict, Chief Thunderhooves is downed by a stray apple pie. Upon sampling its delicious taste, he decides to allow the ponies to keep the land in exchange for a share of their apple pies. In return, the Appleloosans create a road through the orchard for the buffalo to stampede through.

Appleloosa is mentioned in Apple Family Reunion as one of the places in Equestria from which Apple family members have RSVP'd to come to the reunion at Sweet Apple Acres. In the episode Bats!, Applejack cultivates a giant apple for the Appleloosa State Fair.

The town briefly appears at the beginning of Pinkie Pride, where the ponies and buffalo enjoy a party thrown by Cheese Sandwich.

In Twilight's Kingdom - Part 1, Appleloosa appears again when Discord captures the town's Earth ponies and Lord Tirek steals their magic. It also appears in Twilight's Kingdom - Part 2 when the Earth ponies' strength is returned.

It is mentioned by Applejack in The Cutie Map - Part 2. The town is featured in Appleoosa's Most Wanted and Buckball Season.

In Shadow Play - Part 2, the Appleloosian Wastes are mentioned as one of the Pony of Shadows' possible hiding places.

In Common Ground, a buckball stadium and museum are shown to have been built within Appleloosa, with the stadium hosting the Buckball Championship.

In Growing Up is Hard to Do, Appleloosa holds a County Fair, which the Cutie Mark Crusaders wish to attend. After being magically transformed into grown-up ponies, they get to enjoy the festivities, and encourage two ponies named Spur and Biscuit to enter their pet Bloofy in the pet show, which leads to a near-disaster.

Me: Boy howdy! This is gonna be fun.

Tuddrussel: YEEHAW! Nothing like going to the West to have some fun.

Laney: Always love the West.

Me: I've heard so much about this place. It's awesome.

Carly Atlas: What should we do first?

Applejack: First lets find my cousin Braeburn. Y'all will love him.

Laney: Okay.

We went to find Braeburn and he was in the Hay Bale toss arena but he had a cast on meaning he had a hurt leg.

Applejack: Uh oh.

Me: Hello Braeburn.

Braeburn: Wow! Howdy J.D. Good to see y'all again. Cousin Applejack and Apple Bloom great to see y'all.

Applejack: Same to you Braeburn.

Me: What happened to your leg?

Braeburn: Sprained it in a Steeplechase run.

Me: Ouch.

Laney: It'll get better.

Applejack: Yeah.

Terrorsaur: You really should be more careful.

Braeburn: Yeah but I'll be fine.

Kalolo: That's good.

Me: Well we got time before the rodeo begins. Let walk around and see the place and get some viddles while we're at it.

Nico: (Laughs) Good thinking.

Me: And if any outlaws try to stop us we'll stop them.

Carly Atlas: This will be good.

Heat Wave: I could use a drink.

Apple Bloom: Lets all get one.

Me: There's lots of sarsaparilla and cider here.

Poromon: Oh boy!

Jirachi: Love cider.

We went to a juice saloon and I kicked the gate opened like in the western movies and we went into the bar.

We went up to the bartender.

Bartender: Well Team Loud Phoenix Storm welcome.

Me: Howdy my good friend. Sarsaparilla and Cider for us please.

I gave him a bag of money.

Me: On me.

Bartender: Coming right up.

We got really good sarsaparilla and cider and we were drinking it.

Pirate Man: This be some good stuff!

Me: You said it.

Nico: This brings back memories.

Me: Yeah it sure does. Twilight I don't know if I ever told you about this but before Nico and May's wedding, I found a chicken nugget stream and in a matter of minutes the whole stream turned into a massive gold rush like it was back in the Klondike Gold Rush back in the year 1900.

Nico: Wow! I remember that.

Me: Yep.

Twilight Sparkle: Wow!

Sunset Shimmer: When was this?

Me: It was a cool adventure for me.

---

I was in a nearby meadow and I was enjoying the sights and sounds of nature. It was beautiful.

Me: (Inhales) Ahh! What a beautiful day.

I then came across a small stream.

Me: I'll just walk through it.

I walked through the water and then I saw something shining in the water.

Me: Huh?

I picked it up and saw that it looked like a gold nugget.

Me: Is this gold? Wait.

I sniffed it and took a bite out of it and it was really a delicious chicken nugget!

Me: Wow! That is delicious! Wait a second. I didn't know chicken nuggets could be found in streams like this.

I saw another nugget and then an old west style prospector kid came. It was Chicken Pete.

Chicken Pete: YEE! (Takes a bite of one of the nuggets) HAW! That there is 100% Gen-u-ine Chicken! The guy has found the Chicken Nugget Motherlode!

But then a rumbling was felt and then hundreds of kids came from over the hills and set up their camps and a huge 1849 Gold Rush style prospecting operation began!

Me: Whoa! This looks like a true gold rush from the 1800s.

Chicken Pete: (Laughs) That it does. But it looks like we got ourselves a chicken rush on our hands here partner. You just discovered a big old deposit of chicken nuggets. Biggest dern one I ever did see I don't mind telling ya. And if'n you don't believe me then my name ain't Chicken Pete! (Finishes the nugget) Now if'n you'll excuse me I got a fortune to find before it's too late. They don't call it fast food for nothing! WA-HOO! (Leaves)

Me: Wow! Who would've thought I would discover that Chicken Nuggets can be worth their weight in gold? I think I'll join in the fun myself.

I then pulled out a prospector grate and scooped up some dirt from the stream and it and it was full of Chicken Nuggets. Some of the chicken nuggets were as big as soccer balls and I got a lot of them and more. They were perfect for Nico's wedding in a few hours.

I got wheelbarrows full of chicken nuggets by the truckload and more. They were perfect.

Me: Perfect. What a haul.

I looked at my watch and saw that there was only 5 hours left till the wedding.

FLASHBACK ENDS

Fluttershy: Wow.

Rainbow Dash: Chicken Nuggets are worth as much as gold?

Me: Yep. To the Kids Next Door they are. And Red Licorice is worth as much as diamonds.

We laughed.

We later went to walk around.

Melter: Everyone looks peaceful here so far.

Me: Yep.

Apple Bloom: Aren't you glad y'all came with me to see Applejack complete in the Appleloosa rodeo?

Me: There's lots more to do than that.

Scootaloo: There's barrel racing…"

The three fillies and us turned to see a pony racing between some barrels.

Scootaloo: "… roping contests, rodeo clowning…"

We saw another pony twirling a lasso and then roped a stuffed dummy sitting on a stake. Then we saw a group of clowns practicing their routine and silly antics for the rodeo.

Then one clown crashed into another, causing some ponies watching them to start laughing.

Scootaloo: "… steeplechase… !"

Two ponies were running side by side as they jumped over some hurdles.

Nico: Boy lots of stuff to do.

Lola: Yeah and it's amazing.

Leni: It sure is totes fun.

Sheriff Silverstar: Alright, everypony, listen up! We need a big presence at this here rodeo, so make yourself plenty seen! I want that low-down varmint to know we mean business!

Me: Uh oh. Something is going on.

Nico: Whatever it is it can't be good.

Me: Yeah I heard that all the rodeos around Ponyville closed down for some reason.

Varie: That's weird.

Me: Lets go see how Applejack and Braeburn are doing.

We left. But little did we know that somebody was watching as the shadow of an ominous looking pony was looking out from behind the building. They had left a rather giant but detailed horseshoe print on the ground.

And then somepony had to do a western harmonica rift to make it feel dramatic. That's Appleloosa for you.

Slog: Who could possibly be causing the rodeos to close down? We took out pretty much all of Equestria's bad guys.

Me: Yeah we sure have. That's unusual. But there are still some of the minor enemies that we have to deal with. Remember how we took out all of Gemina's major enemies?

Nico: I do.

We got back and we saw several ponies were practicing lassoing hay bales. One pony then grabbed a hay bale with his rope and tossed it toward a mare, who then tossed it to another mare, and then that mare tossed it to a stallion. The stallion than passed it to Applejack, who bucked it high into the sky. The view zoomed out to show that she was working with her cousins to create the tallest stack of hay bales and several ponies were standing in various heights along the pile. Braeburn cheered for them.

Braeburn: Woo-hoo! Yee-haw! That's my cousin! Go, Applejack, go!

Me: Way to go Applejack!

Applejack: Whew! It's been a dog's age since I got to complete. All the rodeos 'round Ponyville are closed down for some reason."

Nico: Yeah that is a mystery.

Braeburn: Well, I guess havin' injured kinfolk in Appleloosa sure paid off then, huh, cuz?

Applejack: Just doin' my best to fill your horseshoes, Braeburn.

Braeburn: Keep tossin' like that and I'll be out of a job!

Applejack then gave her cousin a hoofbump… to his injured fore-hoof.

Braeburn: Ow, ow!

Applejack: (Winces) Ooh, sorry.

Me: Careful Braeburn.

Braeburn: LOOK OUT!

Applejack gasped as she saw that the super tall stack of hay bales came tumbling down at us.

Me: DIVE ASIDE!

We dove away from the falling hay bales as it came down.

Me: WHOA! That was a close one.

Applejack: What the hay just happened?

The stack of hay bales had also destroyed a nearby set of bleachers.

Lincoln: I don't know, Applejack.

Lisa Loud: That stack of hay bales was stable when I walked away. The only way it could have toppled over is if… someone made them fall…

Me: But how?

Sheriff Silverstar: Sugar and salt licks! Well, I'll be…

Applejack: "What is it, Sheriff?"

It was then they all noticed a rather large horseshoe print on the ground.

We all saw it.

Braeburn: Is it him?

Sheriff Silverstar: Ain't no doubt. It's Evil Trouble Shoes.

The Sheriff snorted in surprise when they both noticed that Caramel, dressed up like a clown, was playing a harmonica riff. But once Caramel saw the ponies were staring at him, he smiled sheepishly and walked away.

Me: I've got a bad feeling about this.

Nico: I sense something evil here.

Eli: I can feel it.

Stinky Butt: Am I the only one who saw that clown with a harmonica?

Me: You aren't the only one. But he did play a really good outlaw sting.

Later on just outside the Sheriff's office, the crowds were shouting just outside the Sheriff's office.

Crowd: [shouting]

Townspony 1: Is it true? Is Evil Trouble Shoes here?

Townspony 2: You ain't gonna shut down the rodeo, are ya?!

Sheriff Silverstar: All right now, I called for a meetin', not a mob scene. (Ponies threw torches and pitchforks away) Now, as many of you know, the Equestria rodeo circuit has been plagued by the dirty dealin's of a notorious outlaw.

Townspony 3: He knocked barrels every which way at the Hoof City rodeo! Nearly crushed my Aunt Bae Mare!

Townspony 4: That's nothin'! He sabotaged the steer pen at Pinto Creek rodeo, settin' off such a stampede they cancelled the whole dadgum thing!

Crowd: [shouting]

Sheriff Silverstar: Now, now, it's true we had an incident this mornin' at our own Appleloosa rodeo. Hay bale stack came down right near on top of fine people! I examined them hoof-prints myself and, uh… it was Evil Trouble Shoes, all right.

Crowd: [gasps]

Sheriff Silverstar: I reckon I oughta cancel this rodeo like all the others done. But dag-hoof it, this has gone far enough! We'll double the patrols! This rodeo will go on! Appleloosa ain't gonna be intimidated!

[ponies cheering]

Sheriff Silverstar: But who will go after him?

BANG!

I fired a shot into the air and everyone saw me put my gun into my holster. I was standing up against a pole in a Clint Eastwood style fashion and I was smoking a peppermint candy cane and my hat covered my face.

Me: (Cowboy Clint Eastwood Accent) I'll gladly go after him for ya. If'n y'all are willin to pay.

Sheriff Silverstar: Who are you son?

(The Good, The Bad and the Ugly Theme Plays)

Me: Name's Knudson.

I Puffed a cloud of mint smoke in the shape of a phoenix and it cried.

Me: James Dean Knudson.

Everyone saw me.

Sheriff Silverstar: J.D. Knudson! Wow it's great to see you again pardner.

Me: You too sheriff.

Mason Brown: We were in the neighborhood when we heard what happened.

Avior: Heck, we even SAW what happened!

Me: We sure did and we will gladly help you out in dealing with this menace named Evil Troubleshoes.

Apple Bloom: But how can he be evil? We helped him and helped him realize his talent.

Sheriff Silverstar: I know you did princess and I'm proud. But this Troubleshoes is evil because a dark cloud came out of him and he formed into another Troubleshoes. But this one destroys everything he touches.

Lola: Whoa man.

Me: Don't worry sheriff. We'll have that sidewinder varmint locked up in the pokey before sundown.

Sheriff Silverstar: Thanks pardner.

Dr. Destiny: We need to know everything about Evil Trouble Shoes if we're going to stop him.

Me: Right. Apple Bloom what do you know about him?

Apple Bloom: Here's what we found out before he had this evil inside him.

Apple Bloom told us about him.

Trouble Shoes is a male Earth pony who first appears as a supporting character in the season five episode Appleoosa's Most Wanted. He is an Appleloosa rodeo clown and former outlaw. He is called Troubleshoes Clyde in some promotional material.

Trouble Shoes is described by Sheriff Silverstar as a notorious outlaw, known for ruining rodeos in at least two towns in Equestria. Due to his size, he is known for leaving large hoofprints at the scenes of his crimes.

When Trouble Shoes' presence in Appleloosa threatens to cancel the Appleloosa Rodeo, Apple Bloom, Sweetie Belle, and Scootaloo set out to catch him so they can take part in the rodeo and possibly earn their cutie marks. At a remote cabin in the nearby woods, the fillies meet the tall yet klutzy Trouble Shoes and realize that he means no harm.

As Trouble Shoes shows the lost Crusaders the way back to Appleloosa, he tells them the story of how he got his cutie mark. When he was a colt, Trouble Shoes wanted to be a rodeo star, but due to his clumsiness, he kept publicly embarrassing himself. During his audition for rodeo school, he got his cutie mark-an upside-down horseshoe-and humiliated himself in front of the judges. Though he abandoned his dreams, Trouble Shoes still liked to watch the rodeo, but his bad luck caused mishaps every time, thus earning him a reputation as an outlaw.

Trouble Shoes is soon apprehended by Sheriff Silverstar and placed in jail. With the Crusaders' help, he escapes from jail, joins the Appleloosa Rodeo, and discovers his true calling as a rodeo clown. However, he is exposed when his clown makeup washes off, prompting the Crusaders to defend him and clear up the misunderstanding. After taking responsibility for the trouble his past mistakes have caused, Trouble Shoes is accepted by the ponies of Appleloosa, and he becomes a full-time rodeo clown.

Trouble Shoes appears through archive footage in Crusaders of the Lost Mark.

Season nine

Trouble Shoes appears during the CMC Appreciation Day in The Last Crusade. In Growing Up is Hard to Do, Trouble Shoes appears in the dunk tank at the Appleloosa County Fair.

In The Last Problem, Trouble Shoes briefly appears in Applejack's group shot during The Magic of Friendship Grows.

---

When she was done we were amazed that they helped him out.

Me: Wow that was well done girls.

?: Indeed it was.

Trouble Shoes Clyde then appeared.

Me: Are you the good Trouble Shoes?

Trouble Shoes: Indeed I am. It's an honor to meet you J.D.

Me: You too. Apple Bloom and the C.M.C.'s told us all about you and everything that happened.

Lana: Yeah.

Chill Bill: Wait. Do you by any chance have a harmonica?

Troubleshoes: No I don't.

Me: Lets focus on the matter at hand. Trouble Shoes you are a good man and you have an amazing and awesome talent for being really funny.

Trouble Shoes: Thank you kindly for that.

Me: You're welcome.

Po Kong: Hold on. I think Chill Bill might be onto something here. Stinky Butt saw a clown with a harmonica. That might have been Evil Trouble Shoes in disguise.

Me: No that wasn't him. The clown we saw with the harmonica had orange fur. Trouble shoes has brown fur. And I'll bet the Evil Trouble Shoes has malevolent red eyes.

Nico: I'll bet you he is one of the clowns in disguise.

Me: How much do you want to wager?

Nico: A really good steak dinner at the best Texas Steakhouse in Gotham Royal York.

Me: Deal.

Tuddrussel: That's my kind of deal.

Éclair: Mine too.

Kalolo: Same here.

Rosty: Me too.

We gathered all the clowns together and interrogated them.

Thunderblast: (to the clowns) Which one of you clowns is the criminal we're looking for? They looked at Thunderblast like she was crazy.

Caramel: We aren't him ma'am.

Eli: These guys are not Evil Troubleshoes. The Force is telling me that he is hiding in an alley behind the Saloon.

Me: Then that is where we'll go.

Nico: Right.

Me: And I know just how to call him out.

Eli: Looks like you owe us all a steak dinner Nico.

Nico: Oh tartar sauce.

We laughed.

We went to the alley he said and I saw a shadow in it.

Me: Evil Trouble Shoes, I'm calling you out!

A figure came out and it was EVIL TROUBLE SHOES! He looked like a red eye version of Trouble Shoes!

Me: Looks like we were right about the evil red eyes.

Evil Trouble Shoes: So you all found me.

Me: And now we're going to destroy you.

Evil Troubleshoes: You should be less concerned about me and more concerned about the friends you've yet to meet in person.

Mr. Touch: What are you talking about?

Evil Troubleshoes: (chuckles sinisterly) Maybe you should check up on Kameo. I hear that things are about go badly for her!

Mr. Go: Figures you'd say something to get under our skin. People like you always do!

Evil Troubleshoes: Ever consider that someone like me is actually telling the truth this time?

Me: We'll worry about that later. Right now we have to stop you. But first…

I went at him in an Old West style High Noon showdown.

DING DING DING!

(The Good The Bad And The Ugly Theme plays)

We looked at each other with sinister looks.

Evil Troubleshoes: Draw!

BANG! BANG! BANG!

I fired a shot at him and it hit his gun in his hand and blew it out of his hand and then I fired a shot into his legs and crippled him.

(SCREAM!) ELI WALLACH - THE UGLY!

(DEEP FLUTE!) EVIL TROUBLESHOES - THE BAD!

(WHISTLE!) J.D. KNUDSON - THE GOOD!

I smirked with smoke coming out of my gun.

Nico: J.D. has been watching way too many Western movies.

I blew the smoke out of my gun.

But then Snake, Skinner, Dark Turtles, Doc Ock, Silver Samurai, Mole Man, Beast Man, LaGrange, The Vreedle Brothers and Ranamon then appeared.

Me: Snake, Skinner, Dark Turtles, Doc Ock, Silver Samurai, Mole Man, Beast Man, LaGrange, The Vreedle Brothers and Ranamon. Nice to see y'all in these here parts.

Ranamon: Love that western talk.

Octagon: Really well done.

Po Kong: J.D. learned it all from a lot of western movies.

Snake: Looks like you dudes got the party started without us.

Maria: Actually, you're right on time.

Skinner: Did J.D. make the first shot?

May: Actually, yes.

Doctor Octopus: Well, we can see that it was literally a shot.

Silver Samurai: Now you all just have to finish this fool off!

Me: Yep and I learned all I know about all this from Western movies.

Doctor Octopus: I can tell you watch a lot of them.

Me: Yep and Nico is treating us to a steak dinner.

Nico: (Grumbles)

May: It's nice of you to do that Nico.

May kissed Nico.

We laughed.

Me: We always love our dinners. You two can get the special presidential table.

Nico: Thanks.

?: (Transylvanian Accent) Indeed.

A figure came out and it was COUNT NOCTURNE! Back for Round 2.

Me: Count Nocturne. Back for round 2.

Count Nocturne: You bet I am.

Lola: Awesome!

Count Nocturne: (to Carlos) Apologies, Carlos. But I've decided to move onto an opponent who's more like me.

Marceline: And I'll bet it's me. Vampire Queen VS Vampire.

Count Nocturne: You got it.

Marceline: This is gonna be awesome!

A figure then came out as it was reading the newspaper and we saw that it was EUSTACE BAGGE!

Eustace Bagge is the tritagonist of Courage the Cowardly Dog. He is Muriel's cranky husband and one of Courage's two owners.

Despite being a main character, Eustace also has several roles throughout the series where he is the main antagonist, one of the most notable is in the episode "Ball of Revenge", where he gathers and meets up with the villains that Courage had previously encountered and either outwitted or defeated to get rid of him by challenging him to a game of dodgeball. Even to the point of getting Courage killed much to his jealousy of attention gathered by Muriel over himself.

That episode arguably cemented Eustace as a villain and the direct threat and most dangerous enemy to Courage. However, sometimes he teams up with Courage if need be, as seen in a few episodes such as "Bad Hair Day". Another episode where he is the main antagonist, is "The Hunchback of Nowhere", where he repeatedly abused and bullied a hunchback that just wants to seek shelter at their house. This is one of the only episodes where he is alarmingly dangerous.

He was voiced by Howard Hoffman, the late Lionel G. Wilson, the late Arthur Anderson, and Wallace Shawn, who also portrayed Vizzini in The Princess Bride, Bertram in Family Guy, Dr. Elliot Coleye in My Favorite Martian, and Taotie in Kung Fu Panda: Legends of Awesomeness.

Eustace was born on an unknown date in a trailer park. He was not well-liked by his mother and he was shown to be a friendlier person than in his later years. He had a brother and father who are implied to be bigger and much more muscular than Eustace. It is implied that his family all wear glasses for unknown reasons (possibly a poor vision trait) and that he was bald since he was a child. Because of the abuse he got at the hands of his family, he become bitter and hateful.

Eustace married Muriel sometime in 1953.

Muriel found Courage as a puppy outside the veterinarian office where his parents were launched into space by the vet for his secret experiment on sending dogs to space (which in the "Remembrance of Courage Past" episode, later failed as they were revealed to be alive, mauling him in the end). Later on, Eustace began to hate Courage as he received more attention from Muriel than Eustace himself.

At certain times, Eustace was subject to many weird and crazy injuries, such as being mummified or exploding and surviving (often saying "OW!" as the explosion happens or afterwards) leaving him as black string wearing glasses.

At times, he helped Courage save Muriel from various things (despite that he at times gets hurt or does not return and besides, who else was going to fix his meals?).

Villainous Acts

"Courage Meets Bigfoot" - He refused to let Theodore get reunited with his mother before getting chased by a mob

"Hothead" - He failed to listen to Courage's warning as he keeps on using a hair growth formula and destroys everything every time he rages over something and later on himself when his small hair went flat

"The Hunchback of Nowhere" - Criticizing Courage and bullying him at the same time by scaring the dog and calling the hunchback ugly before getting told off by Muriel to eat his breakfast in the henhouse

"The Precious, Wonderful, Adorable, Lovable Duckling" - This episode was where Eustace was at his extreme worse. While Courage tried to protect Muriel the farmer spent the rest of the day beating up Courage by kicking him out of the house and unfairly blames him for what that duckling did just so Courage can get in trouble. Like Sarah laughing at Eddy getting stabbed in the hand by a cactus on "Sir-Ed-A-Lot". The duckling grabbed Courage and throws him in the bathtub loaded with wet cement and then Eustace stands at the bathroom door laughing like a thug smoking a cigar.

"The Magic Tree of Nowhere" - Cut's down the magical tree while Courage was out.

Bai Tza: Eustace!?

Francesca: Grandpa Eustace!?

Courage: Oh no!

Nico: I thought he was locked up because you didn't like him.

Bai Tza: He was.

Skinner: We just recruited him.

Muriel went over and hugged him.

Muriel: You're back! Oh Eustace you're back.

Eustace: I know Muriel.

Muriel: Where have you been?!

BONK!

She bonked him on the head with a rolling pin.

Eustace: OW! What did I do!?

Francesca: It's great you are back grandpa.

Eustace: What happened since I was gone?

Francesca: A lot of things.

She went over everything that happened from chapters 524 thru 555.

When she was finished we all were amazed and more.

A roar was heard and a white figure came out and it was THE SNOW GHOST!

Shaggy: ZOINKS! It's the Snow Ghost!

Qin: This cold guy? Oh man.

Twilight Sparkle: What was he known for?

Qin: He was really Mr. Greenway. He and his partner Mr. Leach were really a huge duo of jewel thieves that stole millions of dollars in jewels and jewelry and planned to smuggle them out of the country by getting them out in hollowed out logs.

Sunset Shimmer: Wow! That's genius.

Twilight Sparkle: What did they get?

Qin: They got 45 to 85 years for their crimes and then life in prison.

Rosty: Whoa. And I'll gladly face him.

Me: Yeah! Mr. Greenway and Mr. Leach looked very reminiscent and similar to the late Sydney Greenstreet and the late Peter Lorre.

Nico: Wow! I remember them.

Laney: That's cool.

Nico: Is there anyone else coming?

Suddenly there was a massive earthquake and we saw smoke coming out a volcano.

Me: WHOA! That volcano is gonna blow!

And sure enough it did!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Fire and smoke exploded out of the volcano and lava poured out of it down the slopes of the volcano and then we saw a huge monster appear out of it.

Nicole: WHOA! What is that!?

We saw a Firebird Creature appear from it! It was THE FIREBIRD KAIJU OF HANNA-BARBERA'S GODZILLA!

---

The Firebird lived in the magma of the Earth, but one day she was urged to go to the surface to nest. The Firebird rose from a dormant volcano that threatened to start a chain reaction around the globe. The Calico, arriving in response to geologists' distress calls, discovered the cause of the violent eruption when they actually ventured inside the mountain.

Enraged at finding humans intruding in her home, the Firebird broke free of the lava and rock and flew into the sky, but she had a new challenger.

Godzilla rose from the sea to fight. The Firebird fired heat waves at Godzilla and used her talons and beak against him. The battle ended in a draw. She then flew to the Arctic to lay her eggs. Godzilla rose from the water to fight her again. The fight sent both Godzilla and the Firebird plummeting into the water, where he imprisoned her in an underwater cave.

Carol: WHOA! It's a Firebird!

Another awesome chapter complete.

This was an awesome chapter filled with action from the Old West. Hope you all liked it being like in The Good The Bad And The Ugly from 1966 and it was awesome. This chapter was a mixture of said movie and the MLP episode Appleoosa's Most Wanted. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Etstheclarencefan, Drako1234658, Nflemingful and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next girl is gonna be Anura the Bullywug and she is gonna be at Seashell Shore from Spyro 3. Kameo is next and I don't know if any of you ever played that game but it was cool. I never played it myself but I heard from Nico that it was great. This chapter is gonna be all about us going after the Troll King Thorn and we're going to make that overgrown ugly freak pay for his crimes.

See you all tomorrow.

The Elf With 10 Elemental Warriors

At the beaches of Seashell Shores in Spyro's world me and Mina Necturne were flying over the sands of the beach.

Me: Wow. Look at this place.

Mina Necturne: This would make a great vacation spot.

Me: It sure would.

?: HELP ME!

We heard a cry for help.

Mina: J.D., you can hop into my back if you want.

Mina concentrated and groaned as she began to lose her balance.

She grew longer as her clothes ripped and she turned into RAYQUAZA!

Me: YEAH!

I hopped onto her and we were off to McWolf's castle.

We smashed in and McWolf screamed like a girl and his clothes lost all their color and then we jumped him and tickled him all over the place.

Me: Coochy coochy coo.

He was laughing hysterically.

McWolf: (LAUGHING HYSTERICALLY) OKAY OKAY!

We stopped.

McWolf: Are you gonna tickle me every time I kidnap a goil?

Me: Well it's better than beating you to a pulp.

McWolf: That's true.

We went up to a room and we saw the girl and she was a Bullywug, the frog people from Dungeons & Dragons.

Me: Wow she's a Bullywug from the world of Dungeons and Dragons.

I went over and cut her free.

Anura: Thanks. Wow! J.D. Knudson, leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Me: That's right.

Anura: It's an honor to meet you. My name is Anura and yes I'm a Bullywug.

I put on my blind man glasses and Mina reverted back.

Mina was human again. But naked.

Mina: (covers herself while trying not to fall) It's challenging covering myself every time I revert back.

Anura grabbed her as she was about to fall.

Anura: I got ya.

Mina: Your hands are clammy and slimy.

Anura: Sorry. Being a frog girl means that I'm a slimy creature.

I gave Mina some new clothes.

Mina: Thanks J.D.

Me: You're welcome Mina.

She put them on and we went back to the World Tree Estate.

---

Back at the World Tree Estate, everyone was watching TV and playing board games. We came in and Mina went to join the fun.

Anura: Wow! So this is where you live?

Nico: Wow. She's a Bullywug.

Me: Yep.

Lana: Cool! I like her.

Me: She is cool. All the girls we met are cool.

Jeri then came in with a look of determination on her face.

We gasped.

Me: Jeri are you sure? Your dark past and everything that happened with you might still be affecting you.

Jeri: I'm sure and I'm ready to face him.

Me: Okay. Lets head out to Japan everyone.

We were off to Japan.

---

In Japan we were on the outskirts of Tokyo and we were walking to Jeri's house.

Jinx: Jeri, please tell me your dad never abused you!

Jeri: No my dad never abused me. He tried his hardest to take care of me after my mother died.

Sena: What happened to your mom Jeri?

Me: Right you don't know about this Sena. Jeri has a really dark past. Her mother died of a terminal disease when she was young.

I went over everything that happened to her and how she lost Leomon the first time and how the D-Reaper used her to nearly destroy the entire planet. When I was done everyone that hasn't heard about her past was sad and horrified.

Rai: Whoa!

Right Suzuki: I remember seeing that. That was horrible!

Kairi Yano: Jeri we didn't know you were going through all that.

Umika: That's awful.

Jeri: It was.

Varie: I saw it and it was terrible. I went into her mind when I first met her and it was horrible that she went through all that.

Laney: Yeah.

Jeri: But thanks for coming with me guys.

Éclair: You're welcome.

We arrived at the home of the Katou family.

Me: This it?

Jeri: Yeah.

We went up and I knocked on the door and answering it was Jeri's dad Tadashi Katou.

Tadashi: Team Loud Phoenix Storm it's an honor to meet you.

Me: Pleasure to meet you too Mr. Katou. Sorry to come like this but we would like to talk to you about Jeri. She's not in trouble or anything.

Tadashi: Sure come on in.

We went inside.

Luna grabbed Jeri's dad by the throat.

Luna: (starts choking him) Any last words, asshole?!

Dora the Dragon Ghost: Luna, calm down!

Lola: Yeah! Violence is me, Lynn, and Lori's thing, remember?

Sam S.L.: Luna calm down! Let him go.

Me: We're only here to talk to him and not hurt him.

Luna let him go.

Me: Sorry about that Mr. Katou, Luna gets really pissed off about anyone being abused by family. And so do I.

Tadashi: No worries.

Octopunch: Jeri has been an important member of our team. Heck, she even has Duskmon as her archenemy.

Tadashi Katou: Duskmon? You mean one of those Evil Digimon?!

Lori: (facepalms) It'll literally be a miracle if this ends up resolved peacefully.

Me: Tadashi, Duskmon is not an evil Digimon anymore. He's now part of our frenemies in the Masters of Evil. It's a long story. But yeah.

Nico: We understand your concern about Jeri and everything that happened to her after her mom died and all that.

Varie: Jeri and I know the same pain that Jeri went through.

Naruto: And so do I.

Sasuke: As well as me.

Me: Most of us come from incredibly dark backgrounds and all that. It's not good.

I told him everything that has happened with Jeri and us and all that and everything that went down because of the D-Reaper and everything that Jeri went through.

Tadashi Katou was horrified. He had no idea that his own daughter was going through such incredible emotional pain from the loss of her mother and it was horrible that she would be subjected to such darkness.

Tadashi Katou: (Voice Breaking) Jeri why didn't you tell me you were going through all this?

Jeri: Because I didn't want to worry you or make you upset. Mom's death really devastated me and I always thought that it was my destiny to always be alone.

Varie: But it wasn't the case. Jeri went through so much because of the D-Reaper and losing Leomon. She blamed herself for not being able to help him. But the D-Reaper used her as a pawn to destroy the entire planet. I reminded Jeri that there are others that went through the exact kind of pain she did.

Nico: Jeri was hiding her pain with a mask. The death of her own mother and Leomon devastated her very badly.

Me: Yeah. Varie and Takato did really good helping her out.

Takato: I have been there for Jeri since.

Tadashi: I will always be grateful to you both.

Me: Also Tadashi, I know you did your best to help her and that Jeri was mad at you for not trying hard enough but I think it's time for you to bury the hatchet and forgive each other.

Seaspray: Yeah. So, why don't you two hug and make up?

Lynn: Before Luna tries to strangle you again.

Me: Lynn you can't rush these things. Jeri went through a dark and traumatic past and her losing Leomon, not befriending her stepmother and stepbrother and the D-Reaper nearly destroying the entire planet really scarred her not just emotionally but psychologically.

Lynn: Oh. Sorry.

Jeri: But daddy?

She went and hugged him.

Jeri: I forgive you for everything. I know you did your best and I will always love you for it.

Tadashi then cried in happiness and hugged his daughter.

Nico: Aww.

Laney: So happy for them.

I then saw a picture of Jeri's mom and she was a beautiful red-hair woman and Jeri loved her more than anything. I picked up the frame with the photo of her mom in it.

Me: This must be Shizue Katou.

Vince: Wow she is pretty.

Laney: Yeah she sure is.

Me: Mmm.

Nico: I have a feeling I know what you are going to do J.D.

Me: Yep. It's time for Jeri to be healed. (Snaps fingers)

Then a pillar of white light shined down onto the Katou house and then the divine singing of angels was heard as an angel came down and it was Jeri's mom Shizue and she landed and opened her eyes.

Jeri saw her and gasped.

Jeri: (Voice Breaking) Mommy?

Shizue: Hello my sweet Jeri.

Jeri: MOMMY!

She went and hugged her mom for the first time in 9 years and then she cried hard.

Jeri: (Crying hard) MOM! I MISSED YOU SO MUCH!

Shizue: I missed you too Jeri.

Tadashi: Shizue.

Shizue: Its good to see you again Tadashi.

Tadashi: You are as beautiful as ever. But how did you get here?

I put my hand on his shoulder.

Me: I did it. I resurrected her for you and Jeri. After everything that happened to you and your family it's time for you to start healing.

After everything you and Jeri went through it's time for you to be back together and start rebuilding.

Tadashi: You did this for us?

Me: I sure did. Just like I did with so many.

Tadashi then surprised me and he hugged me and cried happily and I smiled.

I hugged him and pat his back.

Eli: That's my bro for you guys. Always giving to people.

Éclair: J.D. is truly an amazing guy.

We had the Katou family move into the estate.

---

Later we were getting ready to visit Kameo's world.

Stewie: Well, time to go see Kameo and hope she really is doing okay.

Me: She will be Stewie. She is a strong elf and she will be fine.

Laney: Yeah and Elves are amazing.

Skinner, the Dark Turtles, LaGrange, Silver Samurai, Doctor Octopus, Snake, Beast Man, and Mole Man then appeared.

Skinner: Can me, the Dark Turtles, LaGrange, Silver Samurai, Doctor Octopus, Snake, Beast Man, and Mole Man go with you guys?

Me: You all sure can and we're gonna need all the help we can get to face Kameo's enemies.

Nico: This is gonna be awesome.

Me: Yep.

Nicole: Here we go guys. Lets go!

Nicole opened a portal to Kameo's world and we went through it.

Goche let Mr. Mind know about what we were doing.

Goche: It seems that Team Loud Phoenix Storm is heading towards Kameo's world.

Baron Nero: Should we go there to find some possible recruits?

Mr. Mind: No. None of the villains there are worthy enough to join our cause. For now, we should observe what happens from here. Don't want Team Loud Phoenix Storm becoming too suspicious.

Goche: Yes sir.

Baron Nero: Understood.

Mr. Mind: I could get used to being called sir.

On the Justice League Watchtower, Martian Manhunter was probing the minds of the braindead bodies of Sponge and Spiker.

Flash: All you could find was that Goche and Baron Nero were involved somehow in sending Sponge and Spiker?

Martian Manhunter: I'm afraid so.

Hawkgirl: Don't beat yourself, J'onn. At least you tried.

Martian Manhunter: I did however find a third presence. But his psychic energy is just as powerful as mine.

Superman: Who do you think it is?

Martian Manhunter: I can't say for certain but whoever that Goche and Baron Nero are working for he is the leader.

Batman: I'll have the Question look into it and find out more. But I have a feeling that it's someone that Billy Batson knows all too well.

---

Later we were in Kameo's world and it was an amazing and beautiful place.

Me: Wow! So this is the world of Kameo.

Nico: It's everything like I imagined.

We saw Kameo.

Me: There she is!

Nicole: Hey Kameo!

Kameo saw us.

Kameo: Hey guys! You all came!

Me: We sure did. Great to see you again.

Circe: Kameo, we can't thank you enough for holding off Baron Nero when we were fighting Count Nair.

Kameo: No problem. Sorry he got away though.

Maria: It's fine. But we can still destroy him in the future.

Kameo: Well, I probably won't be much help there. I lost all of my Elemental Warrior forms.

We gasped!

Me: Oh man.

Nicole: I had a strong feeling that this was gonna happen.

Me: Let me guess, you fought recklessly and tried to take down Thorn the Troll King by yourself.

Kameo: That's right.

Touma: (to Dark Mikey and Dark Raph) Does this look like Kameo is fine to you two?

Dark Raph: Well, we thought she was!

Dark Mikey: (sheepishly) Um… whoops?

Lincoln: Okay, so evil Trouble Shoes was telling the truth about Kameo being in trouble! Doesn't mean people like him are right all the time!

Me: Yeah that's right. But she isn't hurt so that's all that matters. But right now we have to get her powers back.

Nico: Right.

Naruto: Lets get to work and figure this out.

Me: Right.

We went into a Hut and Kameo told us everything that happened. She told us that her own sister Kalus was overwhelmed with extreme jealousy and betrayal and she awokened an ancient evil called Thorn the King of Trolls!

---

Thorn the Troll King

King Thorn is the ruler of the Trolls and the primary antagonist of the game.

Self-proclaimed King of the Trolls, Thorn rose to power and used the troll's newfound fortune during the pact the trolls made with Solon many years ago in, exchange for their machinery and services, to create a massive castle on top of a nearby volcano.

Thorn became unhappy with their treatment and stereotype from the elves and other races, believing that Trolls, due to their physical strength, were superior and should be at the top of the food chain.

When Solon left to retrieve the other Elemental Warriors, Thorn took opportunity of this and started instructing the other trolls to steal and pillage the surrounding areas, causing absolute chaos for Solon to return to.

In absolute rage, Solon banished the trolls with all ten Elemental Warriors and Thorn swore vengeance.

He is later contacted by The Mystic, who organizes an ambush for Solon in the Twycross Village. Terramus is playing with his baby granddaughter and when Solon arrives after the Mystic warns that the village was under attack, Thorn and his 5 Warlords jump out of hiding and attack.

In the resulting battle, Terramus is killed and Solon just manages to snatch his granddaughter out of the way, saving her life. He then uses the Ultimate Curse of Thorn, to turn him to stone, before the spell drains his life energy and Solon vanishes. The Wotnot is heavily damaged and the Elemental Warriors revert to Elemental Sprites as the Warlords, in a panic, take the Wotnot and the five Sprites and flee. The remaining sprites take the baby to the Enchanted Kingdom, as Thorn remained conscious while trapped in stone for 15 years in the Twycross village.

He is freed by Kalus, and both strike a deal: The trolls would obey and help Kalus to take back her throne, in exchange for the Tribal Lands being ruled by Thorn and the trolls. Despite this, Kalus actively tried to sabotage Thorn behind the scenes to prevent him from doing serious damage, as well as overthrow him, but it's revealed in the unfinished Beta that Thorn was aware of this and kept Kalus around as amusement.

Kalus

Kalus, alongside Thorn, are the biggest threats and main antagonists of Kameo: Elements of Power .

Being the only biological daughter of Theena, and the late King Solon, Kalus was heir to the throne, the Wotnot Book and the Element of Power until Theena unfairly passed it onto Kameo, Kalus' adoptive sister.

Overcome with rage, jealousy and heartache, Kalus frees the Troll King, Thorn to take back what's rightfully hers, even if it means by force.

The Elemental Stand Incident

A day before Kalus 's ceremony, Kameo wonders into the room where Theena keeps the Element of Power on a stand after being drawn to it from a dream she had. Kameo has the urge to touch the gem and breathes on it before cleaning it on her sleeve.

Kalus enters and sees Kameo holding the Element of Power and yells at her, demanding to know what she is doing. Kameo tries to tell her that she was just checking on it but Kalus is too enraged and terrified to listen and shoves Kameo, causing her to step back. Kalus ' foot gets caught in her own skirt and she trips a little.

Kalus bumped into the Element's stand, causing it to crash to the ground loudly. Kalus screamed while Kameo covers her mouth in shock as the Element hits the ground and slides across it.

Theena storms into the room and yells at both siblings but her rage is directed at Kalus, grabbing her arm really hard and demanding to know what she was doing. Kameo thinks that Theena is going to hit her but refrains and screams about her being irresponsible and how she feels she cannot trust Kalus.

Kalus tries to explain what happened however Theena ignores her in her fit of rage.

Theena yells at both siblings to go to their rooms. She has to tell them twice as the two were in shock.

Kalus gives Kameo the fiercest glare she can muster, absolutely seething with jealousy.

When they both step into the hallway, Kalus starts crying and flies to her room as fast as she can before slamming her door.

Kameo is left feeling devastated and guilty about what she did.

After the incident with the Elemental Stand, Theena remains furious and decides( after some persuasion and a false vision from The Mystic ) that Kalus is not fit to rule the Enchanted Kingdom and decides to pass the Element of Power onto Kameo instead.

She invites Kameo to her room to tell her this in private and forces her to accept the Element of Power. The moment she does this, Kalus enters and grabs Kameo's shoulder, spinning her around. Kalus is furious and says some heart breaking words before flying off in absolute despair and rage of her mother's betrayal, causing Theena to to chase after her.

More can be read from Kalus' Journal.

Freeing Thorn

Kalus flies further ahead of Theena and the ancestors and frees Thorn(whether the Mystic told her this or hinted at Thorn's location is unknown) and frees Thorn with a kiss.

Thorn breaks free and asks why Kalus released him and she then proceeds to tell Thorn about her family's betrayal and strikes a deal with Thorn to take back what is rightfully hers. Thorn says he will agree as her magic could augment his trolls.

Soon after Theena and the ancestors find Kalus but are ambushed by both her and Thorn and Kalus uses her magic to unleash her rage and heartache upon her family.

During the Game

There are no cutscenes to show Kalus and Thorn's interactions but in the beta XBOX version of the game, it is revealed that Kalus had tried to sabotage Thorn's plans behind his back but Thorn was aware of her plans and admitted that he found it "amusing". This suggests that Kalus was planning for Thorn's plans to backfire so she could take over as ruler of the Kingdom and stop the trolls from destroying what was left of it.

End Game

When Kameo arrives, Kalus is waiting and looks up before Thorn jumps down and is quick to remark how "you never did know when you weren't welcome" then Thorn starts talking and Kameo does not respond to Kalus' words at all and retaliates to Thorn by saying she has not yet begun to burn but when she does, all that will be left of him is ashes, which impresses him and Thorn comments on understanding why Theena passed the power onto Kameo instead of Kalus(or the "wretched excuse for an elf" as he calls her)

This causes Kalus to become infuriated and remind him that he's only here because of her.

Thorn then calls her gullible like her father and remarks that she's not even worth the effort to kill.

Kalus then tells Thorn not to disrespect her father and that he loves her but Thorn tells her to be quiet and speaks about the era of magic coming to an end and being replaced by the "light of technology".

Despite this, Kalus still helps Thorn fight Kameo but by the end, Kameo strikes Kalus with an ice spear from Chilla which seems to knock some sense into her.

Kalus starts having flashbacks to the Mystic and realises that both sisters were being manipulated by the old crone. This makes her hear Thorn's voice taunting her and Kalus' rage flares up again, remembering that Thorn had murdered her father and comments that she will finish what he started.

Kalus comes to and starts flying at Thorn to attack him but he punches her and send Kalus flying with a scream.

Kameo flies higher then ever before to catch her sister and the two hug without saying a word. The power of the Element of Power and the Wotnot being near a Royal Elf causes the Elemental Shield to appear(the same one Solon used before his demise) and both fly at Thorn who is currently laughing.

Kalus realises what she needs to do to save everyone and looks over at Kameo before telling her to stay behind, flying ahead towards Thorn on her own.

Thorn notices her and goes to attack but Kameo's quick thinking protects Kalus with the Elemental Shield so she can place the curse on Thorn with another kiss. Thorn starts thrashing about, trying to throw Kalus off but she hangs on.

When the curse takes hold of Thorn, Kalus looks back and thinks, 'Kameo, tell our family I'm sorry.' before being encased in stone.

Thorn follows suit and the airship starts blowing up before the ship starts lurching to the side, making the statue of Thorn and Kalus slide off and plummet into the ocean, sinking to the bottom floor.

When she was done we were horrified.

Me: Oh man!

Nico: Your own sister did this to you!? That's terrible!

Laney: Yeah!

Kameo: The worst part is that no one has seen Kalus or the Ancestors after Thorn ambushed me.

Luna: Well, I wouldn't want to show my face either if I had done what she did!

Dark Don: Look, I know that Kalus was the one who helped Thorn ambush Kameo and led her Elemental Warrior forms to be lost. But don't you think there might be a good reason why she's helping Thorn?

Luna: I know the reason. Because she's a dirty traitor and she deserves to be thrown into the Warp for the rest of her life!

Dark Leo: Look, Kalus did something bad. No argument there. But she's still Kameo's sister.

Luna: She WAS Kameo's sister. And when I get my hands on her, she'll be nothing but a bad memory! (sighs) I'll see you guys outside.

With that, Luna stormed outside.

Me: (Sighs) Kameo, Luna is really pissed because she hates it when people in other families hurt their own family members. She is Lincoln's guardian and she hates it when her sisters hurt him for no good reason other than for their own self-satisfactory needs.

Kameo: That's understandable.

Nico: Yeah.

Laney: I never hurt Lincoln like that.

Lincoln: Thanks Laney.

Then Goliath, Atomic Skull, Grodd, Calamitous, Kaos, Technus, Dr. Viktor, and Fizz then appeared.

Me: Goliath, Atomic Skull, Grodd, Calamitous, Kaos, Technus, Dr. Viktor, and Fizz.

Goliath: I hope we aren't interrupting anything.

Me: Actually you aren't. We were just having Kameo talk to us about what went down with her family.

May: We're not gonna have the usual battles here, are we?

Calamitous: Of course not.

Technus: But we will have 2 battles each when you guys find each of Thorn's monsters.

Dr. Viktor: Hopefully, Kameo will slowly gain her Elemental Warrios back.

Mystic: (glares at them) And while you all are having fun with these battles of yours, Thorn and his forces will continue to grow stronger.

Mr. Fizz: (glares back at her) Hey, we always have time to have the usual battles even in situations like these! Besides, this will show Kameo some of our skills in action.

Horsea, Poliwag, Manaphy, Tentacool, Jirachi and Horsea noticed that the Mystic was hiding something but kept it to themselves.

Me: We have plenty of time for our battles and they are always fun.

Nico: Yeah.

Dr. Viktor: Oh good.

Me: Yep. First we'll demonstrate for Kameo some of our powers for her and show her our abilities in action before we set out for our adventure to bring back her powers and rescue her family.

Nico: Good idea.

Dr. Viktor: And we have just the Masters of Evil to help out with that.

?: Starting with me.

A figure came out and it was DATASCAMMER back for round 2.

Me: Datascammer. Back for round 2 I see.

Datascammer: Indeed I am.

Nico: Sweet.

Datascammer: (to us) I'm glad that project of Vypra's that I helped complete worked out in your favor.

Me: Yes it sure did.

Nico: And it is so awesome.

Datascammer: Also we have a new recruit for you all.

A ring of water appeared and out of it came a girl in a blue outfit and she had blue hair and it was FISH EYE!

---

Fish Eye, alternately spelled Fisheye, is one of the Amazon Trio who serve Zirconia.

Character biography

Fish Eye was originally a fish, until she was turned into a human by Zirconia.

As part of the Amazon Trio, she arrived on Earth with the Dark Moon Circus. Zirconia sent them to capture Pegasus.

Fish Eye hates cats, as evidenced when she freaks out both times she sees Diana (once in Episode 10, and again in Episode 21).

Fish Eye didn't go on a mission until Episode 10, Phony Fairy . Unlike Tiger's Eye and Hawk's Eye, all her targets and Remless were male. She attempted to find Pegasus five times. The Remless she sent to eliminate Sailor Moon were Tsunawataro, Sea Lion, Mawashitaro, and Kurumiwario. In addition, when Tiger's Eye was going after Lita, Fish Eye was entering a college festival and won, not realizing Lita was their next target. When Tiger's Eye did not find Pegasus, he left Fish Eye to deal with the Sailor Scouts, and she summoned the Remless named Shuffle who, like the others, was destroyed by Sailor Moon.

Fish Eye targeted Darien, and fell in love with him. She soon began to realize that they were unable to dream like humans, at one point pinning Tiger's Eye to a wall and trying to extract his dream mirror, to prove that there was no dream mirror to speak of. It was soon revealed to her and the others that they were once a tiger, a hawk, and a fish, and would be changed back if they did not find Pegasus soon. Zirconia also told them of the existence of their true ruler, Queen Nehelenia.

After extracting Darien's dream mirror and not finding Pegasus, Fish Eye did not attempt to kill him (as she intended to do to her other targets). She did summon the Remless, Tobihaneru, to fight the Sailor Scouts, but he was destroyed. Afterward, Serena found Fish Eye in the rain (with Zircon spying on them) and invited her over to her room, forgiving her for trying to steal Darien from her. Fish Eye soon realized, through something Serena said, that she was Sailor Moon. She also discovered that Rini was the holder of Pegasus.

When she told Zirconia that she knew whose dreams Pegasus was hiding in, she did not tell him, as she was beginning to question whether he really intended for them to remain in human form. From what Zirconia saw, he believed that Serena was the holder of Pegasus, and sent Hawk's Eye after her. Fish Eye came to stop him, but Tiger's Eye held her back, and she revealed that Serena was Sailor Moon.

However, Mr. Magic Pierrot arrived, under orders from Zirconia and ParaPara to kill the trio. To Fish Eye's horror, he destroyed Serena's dream mirror. He then directed an attack at Fish Eye, but Hawk's Eye jumped in front of her and took the hit, killing him.

When Fish Eye and Tiger's Eye were unable to defeat him, they gave up the power that made them human to rebuild Serena's dream mirror. Fish Eye also brought Rini, whom she had frozen, to the area, and she transformed into Sailor Mini Moon and summoned Pegasus, allowing Sailor Moon to destroy Mr. Magic Pierrot. After dying from losing their power, Tiger's Eye and Fish Eye, along with Hawk's Eye, returned to their original forms. Pegasus revived them in their human forms and gave them dream mirrors, then took them to live in Elysion.

* * *

Fish Eye: Fish Eye Present!

Natilee: Fish Eye!

Fish Eye: Natilee!

Natilee and Fish Eye then hugged.

Natilee: It's great to see you again.

Fish Eye: Same here Natilee.

Me: How do you know Fish Eye, Natilee?

Natilee: I helped her, Tigers Eye and Hawks Eye redeem themselves when Zirconia was about to kill them. Apparently he has had enough of their failures and decided to cast them out with the trash. So to help them out I made them human and gave them dream mirrors. As the Guardian of Dreams, I can do anything in the real world like I can in the dream world.

Me: Wow! That is amazing.

Nico: It sure is.

Fish Eye: I thought so too.

Natilee: And if you are in the Masters of Evil then that must mean that Tiger's Eye and Hawk's Eye are too.

Fish Eye: Yes they are.

Natilee: Awesome and I take it that Vypra told you about Nehelenia and Zirconia being dead?

Fish Eye: She sure did and we are forever grateful to you for killing them.

Natilee: It was nothing. Who have you chosen for your archenemy?

Fish Eye: I chose Anura as my archenemy.

Natilee: Awesome!

Anura: I get my own archenemy? Awesome!

Me: Lets get this demonstration started.

We went outside and got it on.

Battle 1: In Space Rangers, Megaforce Rangers, Lisa Loud, Lucy H., Lincoln and Linka VS Datascammer

---

Datascammer was first.

In Space Rangers: LETS ROCKET!

They transformed and they were ready for action!

Andros: "Power Red!"

Carlos: "Power Black!"

T.J: "Power Blue!"

Ashley: "Power Yellow!"

Cassie: "Power Pink!"

Zhane: "Power Silver!"

All: "Power Rangers Power Up!"

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off behind them and they were ready!

Megaforce Rangers: LEGENDARY RANGER MODE! IN SPACE!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the In Space Rangers too.

Lisa Loud: It's time to Crack that safe of yours!

Lisa teleported and punched in a code on Datascammer's safe and opened it and in it was a book and a sword.

Datascammer: That's the Sword of the Zodiac - Zodiacalibur and the Book of the Zodiac Spells.

Lisa Loud: Wow! Lucy would like these.

Datascammer: Indeed she would.

Lisa teleported back.

Andros: SPIRAL BLASTER!

Carlos: QUATRO BLASTER!

Lisa Loud: FIRE!

They fired energy blasts and lightning blasts and the blasts all hit Datascammer and he fell to the ground and exploded in a massive fiery explosion!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Datascammer was dead again!

Lisa: In the worlds of Nicolas, Datascammer you have failed this universe!

Lisa gave Lucy the sword and book.

Lucy H.: Wow thanks Lucy. These are perfect for a Celestial Mage like me.

Lisa Loud: My pleasure Lucy.

Troy Burrows: Rangers that's a Super Mega Win.

---

Battle 2: Anura the Bullywag VS Fish Eye

---

Fish Eye was next.

Anura: I'm completely new at this so go easy on me.

Fish Eye: I understand.

Anura unsheathed her newly acquired German Rapier that Natilee gave her and Fish Eye had a rapier ready too.

They went at each other and clashed powerfully and sparks were flying all over and she then jumped into the air as Fish Eye swiped at her and dodged it and she fired a long tongue from her mouth and it latched onto Fish Eye's face and Anura smashed her down all over the place and she won.

When we were done we cheered.

Kameo: Wow! You guys have amazing powers and abilities.

Me: That was just a small sample of what we can do. You haven't seen anything yet.

Kameo: I can't wait to see what you all can do.

Me: You will. Lets head out.

We were off to find Kameo's powers and then we saw a dark shadowy figure and it was a SHADOW TROLL!

Shadow Trolls are a type of troll that dwell in the shadow realm. They can be considered bosses, although they are less important and rare compared to the 3 ancestor guardian demons. 7 of them have been released and each have a elemental sprite. Each area has two shadow trolls, with the exception of the Enchanted Kingdom, and Badlands, whereas the badlands have none and the Enchanted Kingdom has 1. Every shadow troll varies in power and health, with their order of power also their order of appearance. Kameo must use the shadow wells to get into the shadow realm.

To defeat the Shadow Trolls, Kameo must incapacitate lost souls that spawn throughout the arena and fire them as light energy at the Shadow Trolls to harm them, as no other method will damage them and Elemental Warriors are disabled in their arena. Walking into the Shadow Trolls or coming into contact with them or their attacks in any way (including a life-draining grab attack) will result in Kameo losing health. To escape, you must move the Left Thumbstick in any direction quickly. Dose not work.

Encounters

The Shadow Troll encounters cannot be done out of order as the abilities of the Elemental Warriors they hold are required to access the next Shadow Troll.

1. Holds Pummel Weed and is found in the Enchanted Kingdom near the Warrior Trainer's hut. It does not actively attack Kameo but can still damage her if she walks into it and requires only one lost soul hit to defeat it.

2. Holds Rubble and is found in the Forgotten Forest Glade in the last room of the mushroom cave. It needs two hits to defeat it and can shoot bats at Kameo along with the previous abilities.

3. Holds Major Ruin and is found at Mountain Falls in a cave on a plateau. It sends shockwaves and chases after you. It needs three hits to be defeated.

4. Holds Deep Blue and is found at Mountain Rise. It creates vortexes, which transforms into giant spikes. It needs three hits to be defeated.

5. Holds Flex and is found in Sulfur Cave in Snow Top Village. It sends bombs, exploding and splitting into smaller bombs. It needs three hits to be defeated.

6. Holds 40 Below and is found in the Crystal Grotto in Snow Top Village. It sends shockwaves and creates two shadow clones. All of them chase after you.

7. Holds Thermite and is found in the Ogre's Swamp in Forgotten Forest Glade. When the Shadow Troll stands above ground, homing missiles make their way to Kameo, which can be avoided until they disappear or hit a tombstone.

---

Maria: (sees the Shadow Troll run off) What the Fuck was that?!

Nicole: It was a Shadow Troll. They are malevolent entities that have stolen Kameo's powers.

Me: Lets get it!

We went after it and we were in the Enchanted Kingdom.

Nicole: They hate the light.

Luan: They lets blast it.

Luan and Eddy blasted the Shadow Troll and destroyed it and Kameo got her powers as Pummel Weed back!

Kameo: Alright! I got Pummel Weed back!

Luna: (smiles) Nice job, Kameo! It might not be much but you can use Pummel Weed to beat Kalus to death.

Kairi Yano: Hey, Pummel Weed can probably do more then just punching, you know!

Nicole: Pummel Weed can also be used to go under small cracks in doors and kick enemies with heavy plates on them with a deadly uppercut from underneath.

Me: That's clever.

Ben: Pummel Weed looks very similar to Wildvine.

Gwen: He sure does.

Next we went to the Forbidden Forest Glade and we found another Shadow Troll and Luan and Eddy destroyed it and Kameo got her powers as Rubble for the first time.

May: Is this your first time with Rubble?

Kameo: Honestly, yes.

Luna: That's okay, dudette. At least you can kill Kalus by throwing a rock in her throat.

Keiichiro: Luna, that threat you just made just gave me an idea on how to kill Ol Ma'Wood.

Me: We can't wait to see it Keiichiro.

Ben: Also Rubble would make a great partner for Armodrillo.

Gwen: I was just about to point that out.

Lola: That is cool.

Eli: Luna, Kalus is a pawn in all this. The Force is telling me that she is being used in a terrible scheme.

Luna: I'll believe that when we see it.

Me: You will.

Nicole: Now we go after the first boss. Lets go find Old' Ma'Wood.

We were at the Forest Temple.

Horsea: No sign of Old Ma'Wood yet.

Illia: Well, while we're waitng for him, I'll use this tree as a cover.

Eli: Illia that's not a tree.

Illia: What do you mean?

The tree started moving and then we saw it come alive.

Me: Illia?

Illia: I'm not following you guys one bit on this because it looks like a normal tree to me.

Me: Illia!?

The tree grew arms and then it had eyes come out.

Me: (Points Behind her) ILLIA!

She looked behind her and the tree grew a mouth and it roared and we saw that it was OLD MA'WOOD!

---

Old Ma'wood is an ancient tree Demon residing in the Forest Temple. Old Ma'wood is the first true boss of the game following the Pummel Weed and Rubble Shadow Trolls and opening Troll Guard at Thorn's Castle in the game's prologue. Old Ma'wood contains ancestor Halis, Kameo and Kalus' young warrior uncle.

He is the guardian of the Forest Temple and deeply feared by Forgotten Forest Glade denizens.

The Elemental Warriors Pummel Weed and Rubble bring about its' demise.

---

Illia jumped back as Old Ma'Wood ROARED!

Muscle Man: Hey, guys. You know who else loves to chop down trees?

Silver Samurai: (uses sword on Ol Ma'Wood) Besides lumberjacks?

Muscle Man: My Mom! (hits Ol Ma'Wood with axe)

Me: Good one but now is not the time for jokes.

I fired a blast of fire at Ol Ma'Wood and burned it all over and the tree screamed in pain.

Nico: Take that you overgrown toothpick!

Kameo turned into Rubble and smashed Ol Ma'Wood all over the place.

Stealth Elf: Normally we respect all trees but you are not a tree that even me and the elves would respect.

Laney: I wouldn't respect this tree either.

Technus and Professor Calamitous then came out for the first 2 battles.

Me: Technus and Professor Calamitous. Lisa, Cyborg, you're up.

Battle 3: Lisa Loud, Starlight Glimmer, Cozy Glow, Clover the Clever, Undead Skylanders, Max Steel, Sydney, Stewie Griffin and Bowser Jr. VS Calamitous

---

Calamitous was next.

Calamitous: (to Lisa) Something about that Mystic rubs me the wrong way.

Lisa Loud: It's not just you professor. That Mystic has an energy that shows that she is malevolence personified.

Starlight Glimmer: Yeah she has evil that is just as bad as how I was.

Cozy Glow: And it's as bad as it was for me.

Clover the Clever: No kidding.

Hex: She is as bad as Malefor.

Cynder: Yeah no kidding.

Max Steel: I don't like it.

Sydney: Yeah.

Calamitous: Indeed. Lets go!

Calamitous fired lasers at them and they dodged them and fired waves of energy and bones and smashed him down.

Lisa Loud: A most successful victory.

Starlight Glimmer: That was great!

---

Battle 4: Cyborg, Pinkie Pie, Somnambula, Tech Skylanders, Elena V. and Circe VS Technus

---

Technus was next.

Technus: (to Cyborg) Am I the only one who think something's off about that Mystic?

Cyborg: You aren't the only one Nicolai. I'm getting some really bad feelings from her.

Pinkie Pie: Yeah she may be a big party pooper.

Somnambula: (Egyptian Accent) Yeah something is off about her and I have a bad feeling about it.

Sprocket: Me too.

Bouncer: Same here dudes.

Technus: And it looks like we both were right about there being a Jirachi Gene-Slammer.

Cyborg: Yep and her name is Holly Guðmundsdóttir. She's from Iceland.

Technus: Wow! That's amazing. Lets do it!

Technus fired lightning blasts and they dodged them and fired waves of energy and gears and smashed him down.

Cyborg: BOOYAH!

Pinkie Pie: BEST USUAL BATTLE EVER!

---

Leo Corbett: GO! GALACTIC!

He turned into the Red Galaxy Ranger!

Leo Corbett, Volcana, Ultrabot 1, Jake (Animorphs), and El Diablo blasted Old Ma'Wood all over with fire and burned him all over.

Keiichiro: Kameo! Use Rubble to throw a rock down Ol Ma'Wood's throat!

Kameo: Right!

She turned into rubble and I threw a rock down the tree's throat and the tree was choking.

Me: Lets destroy it with a teamwork blast!

Nico: Right!

Applejack and Flashwing: CRYSTAL APPLE PULVERIZER!

Applejack fired waves of flowers and Flashwing fired crystals.

Sunset Shimmer and Sunburn: PHOENIX FLARE BLAST!

Sunset Shimmer and Sunburn fired waves of fire and they formed into a powerful phoenix.

The blasts all hit Old Ma'Wood and incinerated the tree into ashes in an instant!

We rescued Kameo's uncle Halis.

Halis: Thank you all so much and Team Loud Phoenix Storm it's an honor.

Me: You too.

Kameo: Thank goodness you're safe uncle Halis.

Halis: Same here.

He gave Kameo Ash.

Kameo: Thanks for giving me Ash, Halis.

Luna: Now Kameo can be able to burn Kalus alive!

Sakuya: Say what you want, Luna. But I'm just happy Kameo can turn into a dragon now!

Kari Kamiya: Looks like you and I will be partners as dragons Kameo.

Me: Right I forgot that Kari can turn into a dragon too.

Kairi: That's right and she looks so awesome as a dragon.

Spike: What is her dragon form like?

Me: You would love it Spike. Lets head out to find more forms for her.

We went to the Mountain Falls and we destroyed another Shadow Troll and got Major Ruin back.

Kameo: Looks like I got Major Ruin back now.

Luna: I bet you can use him to flatten Kalus!

Umika: I don't think flattening Kalus will kill her.

Me: Yeah and it will take more than that to kill her.

Nicole: He's right. From what I have read about Elves in myth they are immortal.

Me: Yep.

Ben: Also Swampfire would be perfect for helping Ash and Major Ruin looks like a rock version of Cannonbolt.

Me: That's what I was thinking too.

Nico: Yep.

Eli: These powers are awesome.

Me: They sure are.

Next we went to the Mountain Rise and destroyed another Shadow Troll and got the Water Power, Deep Blue.

Kameo: An underwater Elemental Warrior? That's new.

Luna: (pats Kameo on the back) Don't worry about it. You can probably still use Deep Blue to drown Kalus.

Touma: That one was very badly thought up.

Me: Yeah but Water Hazard would be a perfect partner for Deep

Blue.

Ben: Just about to point that out.

Laney: Yeah.

We then went into the Water Temple of the Mountain Falls.

Dr. Krankcase: Tentacool, stay outside and keep watch. Make sure no troll gets in.

Tentacool: (Salutes with her tentacle) Yes sir doctor!

Tentacool was on the watch.

The trolls that were planning to ambush us were stopped by three humans and their Digimon.

Yoshi: Great! The teleporter brought us to the wrong location!

Lalamon: You said it! This doesn't look like our Earth at all!

Thomas: What are those things? They're not Digimon.

Gaomon: Well, they're definitely not human or friendly either!

Data Squad Agumon: Either way, we gotta take em down! (to Marcus) Ready, boss?

Marcus: I'm always ready! (takes out Digivice) DNA CHARGE!

Data Squad Agumon Digivolved!

Data Squad Agumon: AGUMON DIGIVOLVE TOO…

He turned into GeoGreymon!

GeoGreymon: GEOGREYMON!

He blasted the trolls with fire and destroyed them.

Data Squad Agumon: Well, that was fun!

Marcus: Was there any doubt?

Thomas: I find it hard to believe that these dangerous situations we keep getting ourselves into count as "fun".

Gaomon: Well, either way, everyone else is wondering where we are.

They then saw Tentacool, who witnessed the whole thing.

Yoshi: Hey there! Tentacool, right?

Lalamon: Can you keep this a secret from J.D. and the others until the time is right?

Tentacool: You bet!

Yoshi: Awesome!

---

In the temple we saw a huge Jellyfish creature and it was CORALLIS!

---

Corallis is an ancient demon appearing in Kameo: Elements Of Power which is the boss of the Water Temple.

He is a colossal jelly fish like creature with four long electrical tentacles pulsating with energy source orbs and possessing two slightly blind eyes.

He serves as the demon attempting to force the elemental sprite out of the Ancestor Lenya. This boss destroyed by Kameo using Major Ruin and Deep Blue.

Corallis along with demons Old Ma'wood and Queen Thyra are the only sentient beings strong enough to force out the elemental sprites of the Ancestors.

---

Nicole: It's Corallis!

SpongeBob: Looks like it's time to go Jellyfishing!

Lincoln: Time to call in some backup.

Snake: Who do you have in mind, dude?

Lincoln: You'll see.

Lincoln held his hand up and a massive wave of water exploded out and surfing on it were BRUCE, ANCHOR AND CHUM! THE SHARKS OF FINDING NEMO!

Bruce: ALL RIGHT! LETS GET THEM!

Anchor: LETS EAT!

Chum: YEAH BABY!

Chloe Bolton: Are those more sharks?!

Lincoln: Yep. Bruce, Anchor and Chum.

Me: WOW! The 3 sharks of Finding Nemo!

Nico: I love those guys!

Dr. Viktor and Mr. Fizz then appeared.

Me: Dr. Viktor and Mr. Fizz. Will and Gwen, you're up.

---

Battle 5: Will Vandom, Rainbow Dash, Scootaloo, Magma Gloom, Flash Magnus, Air Skylanders, Kaz, Chaor, Borth-Majar, Emerald Sustrai and Illia VS Dr. Viktor

---

Dr. Viktor was next.

Dr. Viktor: (to Will) Kameo actually reminds me of Ben.

Will: She sure does and she is so awesome.

Rainbow Dash: She sure is. And it's amazing how she can turn into elemental creatures.

Scootaloo: Yeah it is!

Magma Gloom: That is something.

Flash Magnus: It sure is amazing and very awesome.

Whirlwind: You said it.

Thunderbolt: Yeah!

Dr. Viktor: I bet it is. Lets do it!

He fired waves of purple lightning and they dodged it and blasted him all over the place and smashed him down.

Will Vandom: AW YEAH!

Rainbow Dash: That was AWESOME!

---

Battle 6: Gwen Tennyson, Rarity, Sweetie Belle, Thunder Terror, Mistmane, Water Skylanders, Numbuh 2, Cree Lincoln, Tommy Gilligan, Pain Yatta and Krankcase VS Mr. Fizz

---

Mr. Fizz was next.

Fizz: (to Gwen) Do those Elemental Warriors remind you of some of your cousin's aliens?

Gwen: They sure do and they have all the unique qualities of them.

Rarity: They most certainly do darling and they are as amazing as they are powerful.

Sweetie Belle: They sure are. And they are so awesome.

Thunder Terror: Boy I'll say. They are just as awesome as any alien we saw.

Mistmane: You bet.

Gill Grunt: Yeah baby!

Echo: Yeah!

Numbuh 2: They pack a punch.

Cree: Yep.

Mr. Fizz: They are amazing. Lets do it!

Mr. Fizz fired waves of soda and they dodged them and blasted him all over with magic, water and jewels and smashed him down.

Gwen: All right!

Rarity: Rapture Darling that was grand!

---

We faced Corallis and blasted it all over with lightning and energy.

Maya: GO! GALACTIC!

THUNDERCLAP!

In a flash of lightning, Maya transformed and she was ready.

Rarity and Bobby: CRYSTAL JEWEL SMASHER!

They fired waves of jewels and Crystals.

Fluttershy and Laney: LEAF SHREDDER BLAST!

They fired waves of leaves.

They blasted Corallis with lightning and energy and smashed him apart and they saved Lenya and we also got Chilla back for Kameo.

Kameo: You won't reget giving me back Chilla, Lenya.

Luna: (Smirks) I hope Kalus likes being frozen to death!

Tsukasa: Okay, Luna. We're going to have to stop you there. Mainly because you're probably running out imaginary scenarios that end with Kalus' brutal demise.

Luna: You're right I am.

Me: Also Luna this anger of your towards Kalus is completely unsubstantiated and is starting to cloud your mind to the point of being unreasonable.

Nico: Okay first off ow that hurt my head. And second he's right. You got to let this anger go.

Me: We're not banishing Kalus to the Warp and that is final. We don't want to make the same mistake that happened with Lori when she threatened to banish Nico. Sorry to bring that up again Nico.

Nico: No worries. That's all behind me.

Salem: That's good.

Kameo: What did you mean by that J.D.?

Me: We went through a terrible ordeal with a bunch of douchebags out to destroy us and the entire universe. From January 23rd to February 11th we went through an ordeal called the 20 Days of Darkness.

I went through everything about it.

Kameo gasped.

Kameo: That's terrible.

Me: Yeah it was.

Animorphs Rachel: Look, Luna. I'm all for giving bad guys what they deserve. But Kalus' isn't a true villain.

Luna: Are you kidding me?! You all know what she did to Kameo.

Tobias: That's right. We did. But Eli said that the Force told him that Kalus is being manipulated.

Luna: Maybe the Force is wrong for once!

Marco: Why would the Force lie to Eli about this?

Ax: Marco is right. The Force is never wrong.

Cassie: Luna, you remember when you and the others helped us defeat the Yeerks, right?

Luna: I do. Why?

Animorphs Jake: Well, during that time, we were able to save my brother Tom and several other Yeerk victims. If we can do that, then we can save Kalus from herself too.

Me: That's right Luna. Like I said, Kalus is a pawn in all this and what usually happens to pawns when they have expended their usefulness? They get destroyed and are replaced. Kalus will die because of that and not by our hands. We need to save her from herself and not kill her.

Nico: That's right.

Me: Lets go continue on.

We continued on and Luna was thinking hard about what we said.

Luna: I really am sorry, dudes.

Maria: It's okay, Luna. Your anger towards Kalus was actually understandable.

Luna: Really?

Maria: Yeah if I found out that someone was hurting Carmen, I would feel exactly the same way.

Me: Same here. If my sister was evil and did the same things as Kalus did, I would be angry too.

Luna: Yeah.

We arrived at Sulfur Cave in the Snow Top Village and we destroyed another Shadow Troll and we got Flex for Kameo.

Poliwag: Flex looks funny!

Nico: He sure does look funny.

Jelli: I would like that one.

Me: Yeah.

In the Crystal Grotto we found another Shadow Demon and we destroyed it and got 40 Below for Kameo.

Poromon: 40 Below looks really cool!

Lori: He literally does.

Ben: Arctiguana would be a perfect partner for him.

Me: Yeah! Same with Big Chill.

Chione: My kind of elemental creatures.

Rosty: Same here.

We then went to the Snow Temple.

Charmcaster: Everyone stay alert. Thyra is close!

Me: I sense her.

Nicole: Be on your guard.

Eli: Right.

Carol: We're ready.

We got into the temple and we saw QUEEN THYRA!

---

Queen Thyra is an icy, giant arachnid demon taking residence in the Snow Temple, where Kameo must defeat her to free Yeros. Queen Thyra boasts seven green iced eyeballs that can dislodge and spike posing another form of assault upon her enemies. She commands a legion of ice arachnid children of minute size.

---

Me: WHOA! So that's Thyra. She sure is ugly!

Doctor Octopus: A lot of eyes, huh? Well, I have 4 tentacles!

Me: And I have 11 tails!

Eli: 10 tails for me!

Nico: YEAH!

Lola: Lets burn this freak!

Atomic Skull and Kaos then came out.

Me: Maggie, Twilight Sparkle you're up.

---

Battle 7: Maggie, Sunset Shimmer, Gusty the Great, Fire Skylanders, Red Star, Zangief, Chill, Cross Crow, Andropov, Zarya, Golova, Anastasia, Charmcaster and Rose the Huntsgirl VS Atomic Skull

---

Atomic Skull was next.

Atomic Skull: (to Maggie) Who did J.D. rescue this morning?

Maggie: Her name is Anura and she's a Bullywug, the frog people of Dungeons & Dragons.

Sunset Shimmer: She is really amazing and she is a really good swimmer.

Gusty: Yeah she sure is.

Sunburn: I wonder how she would compete with Sailor Neptune and Sailor Mercury.

Flameslinger: Yeah.

Red Star: (Russian Accent) That would be something.

Zangief: (Russian Accent) Indeed comrades.

Atomic Skull: That would be interesting to see. Lets do it!

Atomic Skull fired atomic energy and they dodged it and blasted him all over with fire and darkness and energy and smashed him down.

Maggie: That was great!

Sunset Shimmer: It was!

---

Battle 8: Twilight Sparkle, Star Swirl the Bearded, Magic Skylanders, Princess Celestia, Princess Luna, Light Skylanders, Dark Skylanders, Golden Queen and Tussle Sprout VS Kaos

---

Kaos was next.

Kaos: (to Twilight) Considering that Poliwag's species evolves into frogs, he and Anura will make good friends.

Twilight Sparkle: I agree with you on that.

Star Swirl: That would be so cool.

Spyro: It sure would and it would be awesome.

Deja Vu: Yeah.

Princess Celestia: Yeah it would be cool.

Princess Luna: Yep.

Spotlight: This is gonna be cool.

Blackout: Yep.

Kaos: Indeed. Lets do it for I, Kaos, Command it!

He went at them and fired waves of elements and they dodged them and fired waves of magic, light, darkness and elements and smashed him down.

Twilight Sparkle: YEAH!

Star Swirl: That was fun!

Princess Celestia: It sure was.

Princess Luna: That was great!

---

We regrouped and faced Thyra.

Kai Chen: GO! GALACTIC!

In a wave of water he transformed!

Kai Chen, Ariel, Ultrabot 3, and Ax fired waves of water and explosive wire

Sunset Shimmer and Lola: FIRESTORM PHOENIX BURST!

They fired waves of fire and it formed into a phoenix.

Starlight Glimmer and Lucy Loud: MAGIC UNDEAD SUPERBLAST!

They fired waves of stars and bones and destroyed Thyra.

Me: YEAH!

Yeros was saved and he gave Kameo Snare.

Kameo: I'm grateful for you giving me Snare, Yeros

Manaphy: But he looks so scary!

Ben: He would be perfect for Snare-Oh.

Me: Yep and that is awesome.

Golden Queen: You all help Kameo find the last Elemental Warrior. Me and the others have to make a slight detour.

Jirachi: Are you guys going to confront the Mystic?

Golden Queen: You hit 24K Gold.

Jessica Shannon: I'll go with you to take her down.

Me: Turn that witch into a 24K Gold DISK Jessica.

Jessica: With pleasure.

They were off to find face the Mystic.

Me: Donkey Kong, Whenua, you take your groups for the usual battles. I have a feeling that Grodd and Goliath will meet you there to face them. Kendrix, Ultrabot 4, Sakura Avalon, and Animorphs Rachel you go too to help Jessica.

Kendrix: Right.

Ultrabot 4: Affirmative.

They went with them.

The group then arrived at the Mystic's hut and they were facing THE MYSTIC!

---

The Mystic is one of Queen Theena's royal advisers who aids Kameo throughout her quest with her own ulterior motives for doing so. She has the ability to use her Crystal Eye to divine the locations of people, Shadow Trolls and Elemental Warriors, as well as communicating with Kameo from the Enchanted Kingdom. She lives in the gardens in the Enchanted Kingdom.

Mystic acts as both a supporting character and later as an antagonist. While she assists Kameo in her quest, Mystic's true motive is to end the Elves' lineage and take back the Element of Power and the Wotnot.

Mystic and Ortho share a mutual dislike of each-other that is obvious in conversations involving the two.

History

The Mystic is supposedly the last of the Sargothans, a race of reptilian mystics.

Because Sargothans have such an incredible lifespan, the Mystic was the very first to tell the elves how to use the magic in order to get close to the royal family.

At the time no one remembered what Sargothans looked like, so it played in her favor as she remained as the Royal Advisor for several generations leading others to believe they were all different Mystics, not knowing it was the same Mystic.

She did this, waiting for the elves to finally collect all of the scattered Elemental Warriors for her so she wouldn't have to do it herself, then steal it as the ultimate revenge for her species near extinction at the hands of the Elves.

When King Solon had finally retrieved all ten of the Elemental Sprites, Mystic tricked him into facing Thorn alone, leading to his death when he used the Ultimate Curse on the Troll King, after he killed his closest friend, Teramus.

The Wotnot was damaged and some of the Elemental Sprites, along with the Wotnot, were briefly seized by Thorn's Troll Warlords. Five sprites escaped with the Elements of Power, and returned them to the Enchanted Kingdom along with a baby.

The Mystic then used her crystal eye to track down the warlords and Theena sent her armies to capture them and recover the Wotnot before sending them into the Shadow Realm(aka hell), unaware that each Warlord held an elemental sprite within.

Before the ceremony for Kalus to receive the Element of Power and the Wotnot, there was the Elemental Stand Incident(which can be found in Kalus' wiki page) that caused Theena to fly into a blind rage and doubt her own daughter.

The Mystic took advantage of this and talked to Kalus in private, telling her just enough to get the idea in her head to free Thorn. After this, she talks to Theena and shows her a fake vision of the Kingdom in ruins as a result of Kalus becoming Queen. This along with Theena's favouritism of Kameo and neglect towards Kalus makes her choose Kameo over her own daughter.

When Kameo loses her warriors in her attempt to rescue her family from Kalus, Mystic uses her medical knowledge to bring Kameo back from the brink of death before scolding the Princess for her irresponsibility. She then send Kameo to see if Ortho has finished his repairs of the Wotnot.

Kameo overhears Ortho complaining to the Warrior Trainer about her recklessness and believes she does not deserve the Wotnot. Warrior Trainer objects and both he and Kameo convince him of her worthiness before returning to the Mystic.

Kameo informs the Mystic that Ortho has finished repairing the Wotnot and she commentsabout how long it took, causing Ortho to remark about her long snout under his breath. After their brief bicker, the Mystic uses her Crystal Eye to find Pummel Weed who was taken by a shadow troll after Kameo's brief encounter with Thorn.

Once Pummel Weed is retrieved, The Mystic starts looking for the next Elemental Sprite until Kameo interrupts by asking about Halis. This annoys the Mystic who convinces Kameo that she would be more effective at another rescue with all the Warriors returned to the Wotnot, however is outvoted by the others and eventually gives into their demands, locating Halis' whereabouts before Kameo rushes off.

She would continue to relay information to Kameo and Ortho for most of the game.

When Kameo recovers Thermite, the Mystic suggests that she return to the Enchanted Kingdom, to attack Kameo and steal the Wotnot and recover the Element of Power for herself. Kameo and the Ancestors decide that she should head straight to Thorn's Lair without returning home to prepare, much to the Mystic's annoyance.

When Kameo decides to go to Thorn's Pass, Mystic disappears. If Kameo enters her hut before leaving for Thorn's Pass, she will find Yeros instead, commenting on Mystic's mysterious absence. Where the Mystic went after the events of the game is unknown.

Mystic: Hello, Ms. Shannon. Is Kameo with you right now?

Jessica: (smirks) Did you really think you had us fooled, Mystic?

Mystic: Pardon me?

Disk Wars Wasp: We were onto you the entire time.

LaGrange: I was wondering how Kalus got this crazy idea of turning against her own family!

Jessica: You turned her against her whole family! And you had her wake up the Troll King! And it was because of you that Luna got REALLY pissed off at Kalus.

Mystic: So you all figured it out. I had a feeling you would.

Jessica: Doesn't take a rocket scientist to figure a monster like you out.

Goliath and Grodd then appeared.

Jessica: Just like J.D. said. Donkey Kong, Whenua it's your turn.

---

Battle 9: Whenua, Applejack, Apple Bloom, Frozen Fright, Rockhoof, Earth Skylanders, Choji, Patrick, Ed, Shaggy, Scooby Doo, Gyro Man and Charge Man VS Goliath

---

Goliath was next.

Goliath: (to Whenua) It's not just Kalus. Luna was also pissed off at Jeri's dad too.

Whenua: Yeah that was nuts.

Applejack: It sure was but thank goodness we calmed her down.

Apple Bloom: But Jeri needed her mom and family back.

Frozen Fright: She sure did. Poor girl went through so much over her life.

Rockhoof: (Scottish Accent) Aye that she did.

Flashwing: It was terrible.

Bash: Yeah.

Choji: No kidding. Poor girl.

Goliath: Yeah. Lets do it!

Goliath went at them and they went at him and smashed him all over with earth and powerful punches and smashed him down.

Whenua: All right!

Applejack: YEEHAW! That was great!

---

Battle 10: Donkey Kong, Fluttershy, Tree Hugger, Mage Meadowbrook, Life Skylanders, Mewtwo, Ash, Mewtwo's Clones, Meta Knight and King Dedede VS Gorilla Grodd

---

Gorilla Grodd was next.

Grodd: (to Donkey Kong) I'm glad Jeri's family is whole again.

Donkey Kong: Me too. Jeri went through a nightmare and she needs her life back together.

Fluttershy: She sure does. Poor girl went through a lot.

Mage Meadowbrook: Yeah that was awful.

Stealth Elf: Poor Jeri went through a dark lifestyle.

Ambush: Indeed she did.

Mewtwo: Yeah.

Grodd: You got that right. Lets get it on!

Donkey Kong: HERE COMES DONKEY KONG!

They went at him and smashed him all over the place with leaves and coconuts and elements and smashed him down.

Donkey Kong: OOOOOOOOOOOOOHHHHH!

Fluttershy: That was fun.

---

They punched and blasted the Mystic all over.

Kendrix: GO! GALACTIC!

In a wave of earth, Kendrix transformed and she was ready.

Kendrix Morgan, Ultrabot 4, Sakura Avalon, and Animorphs Rachel fired waves of energy and bullets and smashed her all over.

Jessica then stripped the Mystic of her powers with a snap of her fingers.

Princess Celestia and Jessica: LIGHT SUN STINGBLAST!

They fired waves of light and sting energy.

Princess Luna and Brittney: DARKNESS MOONSTORM!

They fired waves of darkness and the blasts smashed The Mystic down.

Jessica: You have nowhere to go. D-SECURE!

She trapped the Mystic in a DISK.

Jessica: This will serve as evidence for Kalus. Lets get back with everyone.

They teleported back to us.

---

We then got to Thorn's Pass and everyone regrouped and we were facing LORD DROK!

---

Lord Drok is the boss of Thorns Pass. He appears as a giant mecha troll wielding a massive hammer. He also smashes the bridge making Thorns Pass inaccessible.

Boss Fight

This boss fight takes place inside a castle. He can smash and swing his hammer, as well as charge at the player. The strategy is to use Chilla to hit the sparks in his chest compartment when it opens. Magmites will then come out. At this point, use snare to grab and throw them onto Drok, then shoot them with Chilla. Rinse and repeat.

---

Nicole: Lord Drok!

Gyro Man: (to Lord Drok) Domo Arigato, Mr. Roboto!

Me: And good-bye!

We fired waves of energy and elements and smashed Lord Drok all over.

Mole Man: Moloids! Tear Drok apart!

He sent a bunch of Moloids and smashed him all over the place.

Lola: YEAH!

We fired waves of energy and elements and smashed him all over and obliterated him in an instant.

Kameo got Thermite back.

Tentacool: Thermite looks cute even as a grown up Elemental Warrior!

Kameo: Yeah he does.

Ben: And Heatblast would be perfect for that one.

Me: Yep.

We got to Thorn's Castle and we saw Queen Theena, Kameo and Kalus's mother trapped!

Meta Knight: Do not worry, Queen Theena. We will get you out shortly!

Me: It's Team Loud Phoenix Storm to the rescue!

Nico: Yeah!

?: You did well to make it this far. But I have a deal to uphold.

We turned and we saw KALUS!

Kameo: Hello sister.

Me: Kalus you have no idea what you are doing!

Kalus: Oh I know exactly what I'm doing. I'm going to kill all of you!

She fired a wave of purple lightning and it wasn't affecting us.

Me: Thanks we were cold.

Beast Man: C'mon, Kalus. There must be some good left in you!

Kalus: You know what the problem with all of you is? You see the good in everyone even when it's not there. You're all living a fantasy! There is no Easter Bunny, there is no Tooth Fairy, and there's no such thing as Santa! This is the real world! And you all have to wake up!

Me: That's a lie Kalus! You don't have any idea how wrong you are on that! Also you are being used as a pawn!

Kalus: What do you mean?

Laney: The Mystic is using you! She made you release Thorn from his prison and turned you against your family!

Kalus: YOU LIE! The Mystic would never!

Jessica: Yes she would!

Jessica held up the DISK and made a hologram of her appear.

Jessica: Tell her now!

She made her do so and revealed everything and Kalus was shocked! But she refused to believe it!

Luna: Can I transform with you dudes?

Leo Corbett: Go for it, Luna.

Lost Galaxy Rangers: Go Galactic!

Mike Corbett: MAGNA POWER!

The Lost Galaxy Rangers transformed!

Leo: "Galaxy Red!"

Kai: "Galaxy Blue!"

Damon: "Galaxy Green!"

Maya: "Galaxy Yellow!"

Kendrix/Karone: "Galaxy Pink!"

Mike: "Magna Defender!"

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM

A massive fiery explosion went off behind them and they were ready!

Luna: Kalus you have no idea how wrong you are about everything.

A ring of singing water was swirling around her feet and water was swirling around her.

Luna: You need to realize that you are a pawn in a terrible plot to destroy this world. And I will make you realize that.

Suddenly Luna was enveloped in a massive vortex of singing water and it went high into the sky and her power was rising at a massive and incredibly astronomical rate as the divine singing of mermaids was heard and the water started glowing a powerful neon blue! Then when the vortex faded, Luna was forever changed!

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI PLAYS AT 1:45)

She had glowing neon purple hair and she had a mermaid singing with the kanji for water emblazoned in the middle of her forehead and she had glowing purple eyes and her clothes were now neon people water. She was now a SUPER ANGEL 1,000,000,000 MERMAID ROCKSTAR SIREN!

Me: WHOA! Luna is that you!?

Lincoln: Wow! Luna you look incredible!

Sam S.L.: Wow! Luna ascended!

Nico: How do you feel Luna?

Luna: (Divine Echoing Water Voice) I feel amazing dudes. This power is amazing.

Sam S.L.: WOW! Luna I love this new look!

Kameo: Wow! Her power is amazing!

Me: It sure is.

Luna: Here we go.

Damon, Ax, Ultrabot 5, and Discord blasted her all over with waves of shuriken, Wind and energy and smashed her all over and Luna fired a massive megatsunami blast of water and smashed her down.

Kameo: Kalus it's not too late. The Mystic used you as a pawn in all this.

Jessica Shannon: She's right. You were lied to. She took your own jealousy and anger and made it fester and turned you against your family.

Me: That's right Kalus. You were lied to and manipulated all for her own treacherous and evil ambitions. Just like what happened when Danzō betrayed the entirety of the Leaf Village and it nearly destroyed the world. But it's not too late for you Kalus. You can still make the right choice and do the right thing and help us destroy the Troll King for good.

Kalus then broke down crying and Kameo comforted her.

Me: Lets go make things right and go get the Troll King.

Nico: Right!

Me: Lets get him!

We went into the castle and went down a hall into the Troll King's Throne room and he saw us coming!

Thorn: Swabbies! Trolls! Attack!

Several Swabbies and Trolls appeared in front of us.

Me: Take these monsters down and I'll face the Troll King. I got some choice words for him.

We went at the Trolls and smashed and slashed and blasted them all over.

Lost Galaxy Rangers: Lights of Orion, activate!

They glowed a golden yellow and then an armband appeared on their arms, their belt buckles got bigger, and they got arm claws and scabbards on their sabers!

Nico: Lets get them!

Mike Corbett, Tobias, Ultrabot 6, and El Toro blasted them all over and Ultrabot 6 slashed them with his saws.

Rainbow Dash and Lori: RAINBOW TORNADO FIRESTORM!

They fired waves of rainbows and wind.

Twilight Sparkle and me: MAGIC FRIENDSHIP ULTRA BLAST!

We fired waves of magic and energy and obliterated all the trolls.

We then were facing THORN!

Thorn: Do you fools think you can take me on?

Leo Corbett: Just watch us! Red Armored Power Ranger!

He had his Red Battlizer on!

Me: And you will see my ultimate power!

I was enveloped in a rainbow fire aura and vortex and then I went Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix-Harmony 10,000,000,000!

Me: (Divine Echoing Fiery Voice) Troll King you are dead meat!

Thorn: We'll see about…

KROW!

I kicked him in the face with devastating force and smashed him into the ground. The whole tower was destroyed!

More trolls came.

Lost Galaxy Rangers: Transdaggers Star formation!

Mike Corbett: Magna Blaster!

Laney: KAAAAAA MEEEEEEE HAAAAAA MEEEEEEE HAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA!

Rangers: FIRE!

They fired a green Kamehameha Wave and powerful energy blasts and the blasts all hit the trolls and they exploded into nothing but massive fiery explosions!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMM!

Thorn: Do you fools think you've won? Think again!

Lord Drok, Corallis, Thyra, and Old MaWood suddenly appeared as giants.

Leo Corbett: Nothing we can't handle!

Lost Galaxy Rangers: GALACTABEASTS ARISE!

The Galactabeasts came!

Lost Galaxy Rangers: Galaxy Megazord!

Mike Corbett: Defender Torozord!

The Megazords Formed!

Nico: Let me help! CENTAURUS MEGAZORD!

Nico summoned the Centaurus Megazord!

Vince: STRATOFORCE MEGAZORD!

Vince Summoned the Stratoforce Megazord!

Eli: ZENITH CARRIERZORD WARRIOR MODE!

Eli had the Zenith Carrierzord turn into its warrior mode!

Gia: Don't leave us out!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Mystic Force!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Mystic Force Rangers!

Nico: YEAH! And guys you are gonna love what I have in store for the Lost Galaxy Megazords.

Nico pulled out a key with the Lost Galaxy Emblem on it.

Nico: Me and J.D. made some awesome modifications to the zords. COSMOS ULTRAZORD!

He put the key into a slot and it activated and all the zords merged and combined together and formed into a brand new ultrazord! It was THE COSMOS ULTRAZORD!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off behind it and it was ready for action and ready to destroy!

Nico: COSMOS ULTRAZORD! POWER UP!

Leo Corbett: WHOA! Nico this is awesome!

Kendrix: How did you do this?

Nico: Me and J.D. made it.

Eli: Awesome!

Kai Chen: Lets get them!

Nico: FIRE! BIG BANG LASER!

The Cosmos Ultrazord fired a massive laser blast and it hit all four of the monsters and they exploded in a massive fiery explosion!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Nico: YEAH!

They cheered.

Kalus: Kameo, tell our family… I'm sorry.

But just when Kalus was about go and sacrifice herself…

Spiderman: Tell them that yourself. (webs her up in a coccoon)

Kalus: What are you doing?!

Spiderman: Sorry, Kalus. But your mom's gonna kill us if we let you die after you and Kameo just reconciled.

Me: And we can't let you die after everything that happened. You still can redeem yourself but not by making the ultimate sacrifice.

I held up my hands into the air.

Me: SHARE YOUR ENERGY WITH ME!

Nico: The Spirit Bomb! Lets give J.D. some cover for him to gather energy! Teamwork time!

Tassanil, Crawsectus, and Kileron blasted the Troll King all over the place.

I formed a small Spirit Bomb.

Me: Ready!

I channelled the energy into my hand.

Me: SPIRIT BOMB!

I fired a ball of energy.

Thorn the Troll was completely overwhelmed by the magnitude of our incredible power and he was no match for us.

Maria then went up to him.

Maria: I'll deliver the killing blow.

Me: What are you gonna do?

Maria: Trust me. (Winks at me)

She went up to him.

Maria: Okay. You got us. And now, we're weak enough for you to finish us off. But before you do, I have one last request.

Thorn: What's thar?

Maria: (seductively) Can I have a kiss?

Thorn: Certainly, my dear.

William: Say what?!

Maria and Thorn leaned in to kiss each other. But before they did. Maria whispered one word.

Maria: Hakai.

With that, Maria kisses Thorn.

And then he glowed purple and screamed in pain as he was banished to the warp forever!

Me: Whoa! That was clever.

Nico: Ingenius!

We powered down

Kameo: Thank you all for everything.

Atomic Skull: It was no problem, Kameo.

Kaos: The important thing is that your family is reunited and the Wotnot is at full power.

Goliath: (laughs) And Maria got to kiss someone other then William!

Maria: (blushes) Oh, c'mon! It was the only way to send Thorn to the Warp.

Grodd: (chuckles) I can believe that. You can't exactly pursue a relationship with someone you've sent to the Warp.

Me: That's true.

William: Yeah but that was clever.

Eli: It sure was.

Nico: Yep.

Kalus: Kameo I am so sorry.

Kameo: It's all right sister. The important thing is that you are forgiven.

We rescued the queen and we went back to Kameo's kingdom and she was a hero. We all were heroes.

Kameo and Kalus hugged.

Kameo: (To the viewers) Just remember that with great power comes great responsibility. And people like the Mystic better beware.

Me: You got that right.

We later went back home to Earth and Kameo and Kalus came with us and we had a great dinner and went to bed.

THE END

---

Another awesome chapter done.

Kameo was a great game for Xbox that came out in 2005. I never played it but NicoChan11 got me into seeing it and it was really cool! It was a great story and a great adventure! NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Etstheclarencefan, Nflemingful, Drako1234658 and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next girl is Lato and she is a Dragonewt and she is gonna be in Twilight Harbor in Spyro's world and the next chapter is where we go face Kubla Khan and make him pay for trying to hurt Tuddrussel for trying to get him to go into battle.

See you all tomorrow

Revenge of the 13th Century Mongul

In Twilight Harbor, me and Chloe Bolton were looking for the next girl that McWolf kidnapped.

Me: Wow so this is Twilight Harbor. Sounds like a quaint place.

Chloe: Yeah it sure does.

We walked around and we saw McWolf's castle.

Chloe Bolton: Let's see who's Girl 14.

Chloe concentrated and groaned as her eyes start pushing out of her head and her buttons start popping off her shirt.

She turned into her Hammerhead Shark form!

Me: Lets go!

We went at the castle and smashed in and McWolf screamed like a horse and we jumped him and tickled him and he was laughing hysterically.

Me: Coochie coochie coo.

McWolf: (Laughing hysterically) HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA!

We went into a room and we saw the girl and she was a Dragonewt, the Dragon-Human Hybrids of Medieval Myth.

Me: Wow she's a Dragonewt, the Dragon-Human Hybrids of Medieval Myth.

Chloe: Never saw one like her.

We went and cut her free.

Lato: Whew. Thank you so much. Wow you're J.D. Knudson, leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Me: That's right. And this is Chloe Bolton, and she can turn into a Hammerhead shark too.

Lato: So awesome. My name is Lato and I'm a Dragonewt. It's an honor.

Me: Same here.

Chloe: I'm gonna revert back now.

Me: Okay.

I put on my blind man glasses and Chloe reverted back.

Chloe was human again but topless.

Chloe: (graons and feels her head) Can someone rub the part of my back where my fin popped out?

Lato: You're not concerned that a pervert might see your boobs?

Chloe: That's the least of my worries, okay?! My eyes popped out of my head a few minutes ago!

I gave her a new shirt.

Chloe: Oh thanks.

She put it on.

I then massaged her back for her.

Chloe: Ahh that's better.

Lato: That must happen to her a lot.

Me: You have no idea. Also my daughter Nicole hates perverts with a vengeance and she will beat the living shit out of us if we try to sneak a peak.

Lato: Oh man. She REALLY must hate them.

Me: No kidding. Lets head back to the estate.

Lato: Okay.

We went back to the Estate.

---

Back at the World Tree Estate we were watching TV and reading birds.

Lato: Wow! This is where you all live?

Me: Yep. We call it the World Tree Estate. It's called that because it's a tree that's over 100 miles high the trunk is 100 miles wide and the foliage is 1,000 miles wide.

Lato: Wow!

Miia: Lato!

Lato: Miia!

They hugged.

Miia: It's great to see you here.

Nico: Wow she's a Dragonewt.

Me: Yep and Lato is an interesting one.

---

Later we were walking over to a good donut shop. We were there to go teach the local donut shop worker Lars a lesson.

Luxord: Remind me again why we're wasting time on this one buffoon?

Me: Well. He works at a donut shop and he gives Steven's friend Sadie a hard time. Besides Homer loves donuts and so does Nico.

We were going to the Krispy Kreme, the most popular donut shop in the country.

We went in.

Sadie: Hey guys.

Me: Hiya Sadie.

Sadie: Here for your favorite flavors of donuts?

Me: You know we are.

She got us really good donuts and I gave her a bag of money and we went to a table to eat our breakfast.

Minuette: (to Nico) Make sure to save a donut for us to lace with Fire Salt.

Nico: Don't worry I will.

We ate really good donuts.

Me: Man I forgot how good the Krispy Kreme's Donuts are.

Eli: They are delicious.

Lola ate one and then…

SUGAR RUSH!

Lola: AIYIYIYIYIYIYIYIYIYIYIYIYIYIYIYIYI!

She ran around in circles as fast as the Roadrunner did.

Laney: She has sugar rushes like that.

Me: No kidding.

Homer: Mmm donuts. (Drools)

Kameo: Boy these are good.

Pinkie Pie: The donuts at the Krispy Kreme are always good.

Me: So are the ones at Sugarcube Corner. But you guys will love the ones from Voodoo Donut.

Hunter: (German Accent) Isn't that a donut shop usually located in Oregon?

Me: Yep. Portland, Oregon is where it was established. But they expanded and put one in Denver.

Hunter: Wunderbar.

Me: Yeah. I like a lot of donuts there.

Nico: Those sound delicious.

Me: Oh yeah.

Eli: They sure sound like it.

Me: Yep. I saw it on Man V. Food and flew all the way to Portland, Oregon to get some.

Varie: When you lived in Colorado?

Me: Yep.

Ets: That's like a thousand miles of flying.

Me: Never stopped me before.

Ets: Oh.

We were eating and we saved the last donut and Nico poured Fire Salt all over it.

Armada Cyclonus: (to Lars) How would you like the last donut in this box?

Lars: Sure thanks.

He took the donut and what he didn't know however was that it was laced with the hottest seasoning ever known in the universe: FIRE SALT!

We were snickering.

Lars: Mmm! This is a good one.

Sadie: Careful, it's a little hot. (Steven's excitement builds up.)

Lars: takes a bite Hey, this is pretty good, is this a new flavor or something?

Steven: cracks up Hahahaha, she said- She said it's hot"!

(IT BURNS BURNS BURNS BY LOCO LOCO PLAYS)

(At that moment, Lars' face swells up and he begins to breathe a persistent stream of fire like a powerful flamethrower, lighting the store aflame as he yells in panic and screams in pain!)

We were absorbing all the fire.

Lars: Don't just stand there! Help me!

Powerglide: Alright. But it's gonna cost you.

Lars: ANYTHING!

Me: You have to promise to be nicer to Sadie and be a more diligent worker here and give Steven and the Crystal Gems free donuts.

Lars: What!? NO WAY!

Me: Eh suit yourself. It's your funeral.

Grim: HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA!

We walked away with Lars on the ground in agony.

Lars: WAIT!

Me: Yes?

Lars: You win! I'll do it!

Maria: I knew you would see things our way.

Maria fired waves of water and cooled him off and a massive cloud of steam came out of his mouth.

I gave him a contract and a pen and it showed that he would never treat Sadie like he did or else he would get more fire salt shoved down his throat.

* * *

Later we were getting ready for our next mission.

Skullcruncher: Which time era are we going to next?

Me: We haven't gotten a call from the History Instability Alarm yet,

BOING BOING BOING BOING!

BUZZ BUZZ BUZZ BUZZ!

ALARM BLARES!

Me: Oh looks like I spoke too soon.

Nico: Good timing!

We went to the computer. It was coming from 13th Century Mongolia to the time of Kubla Khan, Grandson of Genghis Khan.

Me: We're headed to 13th Century Mongolia to meet Kubla Khan, the Grandson of Genghis Khan.

Nico: This is gonna be interesting.

Lola: Yeah I can't wait to see what that is gonna be like.

Naruto: Yeah.

Fizz, Goliath, Atomic Skull, Grodd, Calamitous, Kaos, Technus, and Dr. Viktor then appeared.

Fizz: Can me, Goliath, Atomic Skull, Grodd, Calamitous, Kaos, Technus, and Dr. Viktor go with you guys?

Me: You all sure can. We're going to 13th Century Mongolia to meet Kubla Khan.

Grodd: Ah yes I am well familiar with Kubla Khan. He was a formidable warrior back in those times.

Me: Yeah but I think this might be the one that gave Tuddrussel a REALLY hard time.

Tuddrussel: Yeah I'll tell you all about it later. Lets go.

We went to the transporter and we were off.

MONGOLIA - 1251 A.D.

---

We arrived in 13th Century Mongolia in the year 1251 A.D.

Me: Here we are guys. 13th Century Mongolia, 1251 A.D.

Cross Crow: (Russian Accent) This might be our first time in this time era. No pun intended.

Tuddrussel: It is for many of you.

Jessie K.: I've always wanted to see 13th Century Mongolia. It's loaded with history.

Nico: It sure is. Wow.

I then saw a wanted poster on a pole and it had a picture of Tuddrussel on it. I pulled it off and looked at it.

Me: But from the looks of things I would say that Kubla Khan has it out for Tuddrussel.

Eli: Uh oh.

We disguised Tuddrussel as a Mongolian Warrior to help him blend in.

Me: Tuddrussel what is your history with him. No pun intended.

Tuddrussel: I know what you mean. I guess I should tell you.

He told us everything that happened the first time they were there.

Time Squad appears in medieval China around 1251, where Otto reminds the team that they are looking for Kublai Khan. Tuddrussel is admiring blueprints for a new laser he wants when Otto suddenly hears voices nearby. Inside a palace, an old man is lecturing Kublai Khan, saying that he should be conquering places instead of reading comic books. Kublai ignores the man, who turns out to be his grandfather Genghis Khan, frustrating him. Larry and Otto are ready to speak with Kublai when Tuddrussel intervenes, saying that he has seen plenty of missions just like this, so he can handle this himself while Otto and Larry sightsee. Otto and Larry get talked into agreeing, allowing Tuddrussel to handle it "Tuddrussel-style." He calls for Kublai's attention, then rips one of his limited-edition comics, infuriating him.

Meanwhile, Larry and Otto are having fun exploring the local village and are getting photos of themselves taken by a peasant, when Otto suddenly sees a poster for Tuddrussel's execution nearby. Larry plans to get Tuddrussel out of prison by dressing as an attorney and entering the prison, but he is denied entry, worrying Otto. Larry then says that he could call for emergency backup, revealing to Otto that there are more Time Squad officers working in any point in time. He hesitates at doing so, since Tuddrussel won't like it, but does so under pressure from Otto. He types on his arm, then lets out a distress signal.

A woman and a robot appear and greet Larry, who calls them Sheila and XJ5. Larry explains that Tuddrussel got himself arrested and introduces Otto as an orphan they "sort of adopted" (although Sheila calls it abduction) while XJ5 scans the prison with x-ray vision, locating Tuddrussel. He gives Sheila the information and she leaves to get Tuddrussel. She gets past the guards easily, and finds Tuddrussel with radio assistance from XJ5. Tuddrussel is upset at Larry when he sees Sheila, and assures her that he was just about to bust out on his own. She frees him from his chains with a laser when they are suddenly attacked by ninjas who followed her. She and Tuddrussel battle them, while Tuddrussel tries to justify keeping Otto by calling him his nephew. She and Tuddrussel then scale the wall under fire from archers, who manage to hit Tuddrussel's rear, and she informs him that she got a promotion, to his annoyance.

Later, after Tuddrussel is reunited with his unit, Tuddrussel insists that he can handle it from here. But Sheila reminds him that because they were called in for an an emergency, Time Squad regulation states that she and XJ5 can't leave the mission until its completion. Down below from the cliff, Kublai Khan is seen riding with a military procession. Tuddrussel suggests that they all leave the mission, since Kublai seems to be back to conquering, when Kublai suddenly shoots a massive laser at a tree. Sheila asks Tuddrussel where he might have gotten a hold of such a device, and Tuddrussel realizes that Kublai might have found his magazine with blueprints for the laser he was looking at, and leaves to get it from him. Sheila lets down her guard when Tuddrussel leaves, and mentions to Otto that at one point she and Tuddrussel were married and it obviously didn't work out, leading Larry and XJ5 to chuckle amongst themselves over it.

Tuddrussel ends up getting captured by Kublai's army again. Exasperated, Sheila has XJ5 do something quick, and he sends out a dragon hologram, scaring Kublai's men and scaring Kublai into dropping his weapon. Tuddrussel brings back the laser, which XJ5 and Sheila confiscate. Tuddrussel asks her to not mention anything incriminating or embarrassing in her report to headquarters, leading her to curtly say she'd think about it, and they leave without another word. Otto, shocked, expresses his amazement that Tuddrussel used to be married, making Tuddrussel upset and orders Larry to just take them home already.

When he was done we were shocked.

Atomic Skull: You're kidding me. This whole grudge is because of a comic book?!

Me: That's REALLY stupid if you ask me.

Lincoln: I like comics and I can't believe that Kubla would resort to tearing the world apart just for a comic.

Me: More crazily I didn't know they had comics back in the 13th Century. What kind of comic was it?

Tuddrussel: It was called Feng Shui Twins #1.

Me: Wow.

Nico: Yeah.

Wingspan: Tuddrussel, you did the right thing tearing up that comic to get Kubla to fight again. We all do weird things for the right reasons.

Maria: Wingspan's right. I mean, the other day, I had to kiss Thorn to safely banish him to the Warp.

Me: Which was a really clever way to lull him into a false sense of security.

Kameo: That was amazing and very well done. I hope it didn't make William jealous.

William: It did a little but I'm over it.

Applejack: Well that's good.

Rainbow Dash: But what is Kubla doing right now?

Me: I think he might be looking for Tuddrussel so he can get revenge and get another Feng Shui Twins #1.

Nico: Sheesh! He just won't give it up.

Tuddrussel: The guy may be a comic book lover but he gives all comic book guys a bad name and he never lets go of a grudge.

Me: No kidding. I think Jeff would hate this guy to the core. And Bubble Bass would love him.

Dr. Viktor: How about we explore the sights before we go after Kubla?

Me: Good idea. We've never seen what it's like here in 13th Century Mongolia. But I have a feeling it's gonna be cool.

Heffer: I don't know guys I don't like it here. Rocko remember my past life destroyed the reign of Mortimer Khan?

Rocko: (Australian Accent) Right I remember that.

Me: Who's Mortimer Khan?

Rocko: He was the forgotten son of Genghis Khan and was kind of like the black sheep of the family.

Me: Whoa. And Heffer's past life prevented him from conquering the world? Weird.

Muscle Man: Hey, guys. You know who else likes it in 13th Century Mongolia?

Bristleback: (laughs) We all know this one. But tell us anyway!

Muscle Man: My mom!

We laughed at his joke and it was funny.

Kameo: I don't get it but it was amusing.

Me: Yeah his jokes are funny.

We walked around the place.

Calamitous: I wonder what sights are here.

Me: From the looks of things a lot of them.

We saw the Gobi Desert, lots of awesome buildings and even amazing and beautiful mountains.

In the Gobi Desert we then saw a blast of lightning explode out of the ground and that meant only one thing!

Me: UH OH! THE MONGOLIAN DEATH WORM IS COMING!

We flew into the air and we saw THE LEGENDARY MONGOLIAN DEATH WORM!

Laney: WHOA!

Nico: I forgot that Mongolia has that legendary creature!

But then a green ring appeared on Laney's finger and in it was a gem with the Worm on it.

Laney: Wow! The Worm Spirit chose me.

Isabel: The Worm spirit is perfect for you Laney. The Worm spirit animal meaning recites about miraculous resurrection and healing that you may be undergoing a medication period in your own life exhorting you to come to be a different but decent person or you may also be witnessing miraculous recovery in others.

Laney: Wow!

Then a green ball of light appeared and it landed in Laney's hand and it was the MONGOLIAN DEATH WORM WILD ZORD CRYSTAL!

Laney: An Animal Crystal for the Mongolian Death Worm Zord!

Me: Whoa! I've never seen that before.

Cole Evans: Me neither.

Darkwing: (sighs in relief) For a minute, I thought the Worm was gonna attack us.

Me: Looked like it was there for a second.

Shaggy: Like thank goodness it wasn't El Gusano Grande.

Me: Yeah.

Qin: That would have been an ugly worm.

Lola: Yeah.

Me: But Princess Shayla might know something about there being other Wild Zords from Cryptozoology.

Cole Evans: Yeah she might.

Me: Lets head back and come up with a plan of attack on Kubla.

Nico: Good idea.

Technus: I, Technus, could go for some food right about now.

Shaggy: Like oh boy! Lets eat some Mongolian Beef!

Scooby Doo slurped.

Me: Yeah we are hungry.

Our stomachs growled.

Nico: Lets go.

We went to a restaurant and got some food and we were hungry.

Kalus: Why?

Lemon Zest: Why what? Can you be a little more specific?

Kalus: Why did you all forgive me so easily?! I freed Thorn and because of me, Kameo temporarily lost her Elemental Warrior forms!

Me: Because the Mystic made your jealousy and hatred fester and turned you against your family when it reached the breaking point.

Nico: Yeah you were used as a pawn in a terrible plot so that the Mystic can have all that power for herself.

Tayuya: You aren't the only one that was used as a pawn like that.

Me: Yeah have you ever heard of a monster named Orochimaru?

Kalus: No.

Me: He was one of my most dangerous enemies. He was a mad scientist. There were also other enemies of ours that used people like pawns and killed them and all that. Like Frieza, The Kisenian Blossom, Babidi, Mr. Burns, Phobos, many people we hate with a passion.

I went over Orochimaru's history as well as Frieza, Kisenian Blossom, Babidi, Mr. Burns, Phobos, and many more and how they all used people just as pawns and all that.

When I was done she was shocked.

Kalus: Oh man! That's horrible.

Kameo: You guys have seen and destroyed many enemies.

Lana: Some of them were the worst ever.

Lola: Yeah they were.

Kaos: I, Kaos, like this Mongolian Beef!

Me: It sure is good stuff.

Nico: And one of my favorite things.

Me: Yep.

We saw Shaggy and Scooby eating everything.

Drag Strip: The Ultrabots were a big help taking down Thorn.

Me: They sure were and they had a big hand in helping us take down his minions.

Kalus: You guys all fight incredibly well.

Me: We've had a lot of training. And there's two things that the Mystic didn't count on that saved you from yourself Kalus.

Kalus: What are they?

Me: Love and Friendship. Love because your sister loves you and she was doing everything she can to help save you from yourself. And Friendship because we will always be there to help you and care for you just like we have done for so many.

Nico: That's right Kalus. J.D. and his team are the best friends I've ever had. They helped me conquer my dark past and helped me in many ways.

Kalus: Wow but thanks guys.

Me: You're welcome.

We were stuffed.

Goliath: (grows to giant size) Time to get ready for the battle!

Me: Lets do it!

Carol: Wait what's that?

Carol saw something in the bushes and she went over and picked it up and it was a Time Shifter and it was BUBBLEGUM!

---

Bubblegum is a Time Shifter that can shoot is found in Edo-era Japan with Nobunaga Oda.

History

He is seen in Chapter 1 amongst the group shots of the Time Shifters.

In the manga he is found by Z•Z in chapter 2. Z•Z has taken Bubblegum as his partner (much like how Getalong and Bindi follow Flint Hammerhead and Merlock Holmes). Due to old age, Bubblegum ends up covering for the old man.

He accomplishes Flint in Chapter 3 when they go after Jitterbug.

He also goes with Flint in Chapter 4.

In Chapter 5, he (along with Talen and Bubblegum) are left behind after he and Jitterbug decided to turn into their Super forms to fight over breakfast as punishment.

He joins the group when they go after Batterball in Chapter 6.

Anime

He, along with Eldora and Jitterbug were sent to fight Monk-Kon in episode 26. After Jitterbug is sent flying, Eldora and he transform to their Master forms. They hold down Monk and even prevent further harm to Flint, but run out of energy and revert back.

---

Carol: It's a Time Shifter.

Sarah Goodman: It's Bubblegum.

Lori: He's so cute.

Me: Where did you guys find this one before?

Sarah Goodman: We found this one in 1582 in Japan.

Me: That's in the 16th Century. Wow.

Carol: If a Time Shifter is here then that must mean that Petra Fina is not far behind.

Me: We'll face her when we go after Kubla. Come on. (Eyes glow red) You picked the wrong comic book lovers Kubla.

---

Kubla Khan was on the warpath and we saw him going through a canyon. An energy blast hit the ground in front of them and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion stopped them and blew them back and we came out of the explosion and we were ready for a fight.

Me: Kubla Khan, Grandson of Genghis Khan.

Mandarin: (to Kubla) I suggest you cease this hostility towards Tuddrussel.

Kubla: I will not! That fat oaf will pay for ruining me and destroying my Feng Shui Twins #1 comic!

Me: All this just for a pathetic comic book!

Kubla: I will kill you for saying that!

He then came at me and got a sword out and just as he was about to slash me and stopped the blade with my hands and kicked him away!

I had the sword in my hands and I gave it to Kameo.

Me: Are you skilled with a sword?

Kameo: I think I can handle it.

Carol then sensed something behind her and she grabbed the figure and threw it in front of her and it was PETRA FINA!

Me: Petra Fina.

Ed the Protector: (laughs) Hey, Petra Fina! Did you like the shiner me and my team gave you?

Petra Fina: (growls) That still hurts even now!

Grodd: (smirks) Guess there's no reason for you to keep Ed and his friends a secret anymore.

Me: That's right!

Carol: You're now going to get the worst buttkicking of your life you OLD LADY!

BURN!

Petri Fina: Wha? Wha? DID YOU JUST CALL ME!? (GROWLS FEROCIOUSLY AND FIRE EXPLODES OUT OF HER MOUTH!)

Meowth: (Screams) Petra Fina just evolved into a Flareon!

Carol: Bring it on grandma!

Petra Fina's eyes glowed a ferocious red and she went at Carol!

Carol then punched Petra Fina in her face and smashed some of her teeth out.

Black Spider: Glad to see you all here.

Myotismon: Been busy.

Me: Yeah.

Tar Pit: How are you guys liking 13th Century Mongolia?

Maria: We're actually liking it a lot.

El Oso: (Spanish Accent) That's good. So are we.

Black Spider: We actually did see the sights before we came here.

DC Enchantress: And I see Petra Fina is back.

Me: Yeah and Carol is beating the living shit out of her right now.

POW! BIFF! SMASH!

Carol punched her in the face and kicked her in the stomach and smashed her teeth out of her mouth.

El Oso: Wow! Carol's got some moves.

Lord Drakkon: She sure does. Wow.

Me: Yeah she does. Vince made an awesome pick for his wife.

?: I'll say.

A figure came out and it was CHILLYFISH! Back for round 2.

Me: Chillyfish. Back for round 2.

Chillyfish: You got that right.

Me: Sweet.

Chillyfish: Loyax still hasn't chosen his archenemy. But I have!

Me: And I have a feeling I know who it is.

Gi: Me.

Chillyfish: Yep you are right! Also you guys met Fish Eye so here's a face Natilee knows too.

A ring of fire portal appeared and out came TIGERS EYE!

---

Tiger's Eye is one of the Amazon Trio who work for Zirconia.

Tiger's Eye was originally a tiger, until Zirconia turned him into a human.

As part of the Amazon Trio, he traveled to Earth with the rest of the Dark Moon Circus, and Zirconia sent them to capture Pegasus.

Tiger's Eye often targeted young girls, usually ones he found attractive. He would usually get them to fall in love with him, before revealing his true identity and attacking them. Whenever Sailor Moon attacked him, he would send a Remless after them. All the Remless he summoned were female as well.

When posing as a human to target Mina, competing with Hawk's Eye, he called himself Jack.

Tiger's Eye made twelve attempts to find Pegasus, which was more than Hawk's Eye or Fish Eye. He also targeted Raye, Amy, and Lita, at one point. As was the case in Sailor Moon S, Raye was the first of the Sailor Scouts to be targeted.

At one point, Tiger's Eye tried to trap Pegasus using a cage set up by Hawk's Eye, but this failed, as Pegasus went through the cage like an optical illusion. At another point, he sent a Remless named Hebihanabiko into Pegasus to enter the dreams of the one whose dreams he was hiding inside, which turned out to be Rini. Fortunately, Tiger's Eye left before he could see Rini fall asleep as a result. However, this plan failed, and Hebihanabiko was destroyed.

While going after Lita, Tiger's Eye left Fish Eye to deal with the Sailor Scouts rather than send a Remless himself.

In Episode 21, A True Reflection, Zirconia told the Amazon Trio that they were originally a tiger, a hawk, and a fish, and that he'd turn them back if they failed again. He also revealed to them that the Dark Moon Circus had a queen, Queen Nehelenia.

When Zirconia thought that Serena was the holder of Pegasus and sent Hawk's Eye after her, Fish Eye tried to stop him, so Tiger's Eye went after her. However, Zirconia and ParaPara sent Mr. Magic Pierrot to kill the trio. After Mr. Magic Pierrot destroyed Serena's dream mirror and killed Hawk's Eye, Tiger's Eye and Fish Eye gave up the power that made them human, destroying the green orb containing the power, in order to rebuild Serena's dream mirror.

After Mr. Magic Pierrot was destroyed, Tiger's Eye and Fish Eye died from losing their power, and, along with Hawk's Eye, reverted to their original forms. Pegasus revived them, returning them to human forms and giving them dream mirrors, and then took them to live in Elysion.

Tigers Eye: Tigers Eye, Present!

Natilee: Tigers Eye! Great to see you again.

Tigers Eye: You too Natilee. It's great to see you.

Tigers Eye: You better believe it.

Cavalier: After all the hiliarious stuff you pulled on the Shadow

Riders, consdering this returning the favor.

Bronze Kneecap: Just don't make ripping up comics a habit.

Count Vertigo: I just hope we didn't mess up the timeline in this battle.

Me: Nah this is an alternate timeline so it will be all right.

Nico: That's good. Besides, Tuddrussel had fun in this one.

Me: We all did. It was funny.

Eli: You said it.

Me: Yep.

Tuddrussel: (To the viewers) I hope this was fun for all of you.

Me: I know it was for us.

Nico: Yep.

We went back home and had an awesome dinner and went to bed.

Another awesome fanfic done.

Kubla Khan't from Time Squad was a really funny and awesome episode. It aired on October 26th, 2001 and it was funny. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, vinjedi1995, Darkhai, Drako1234658, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. The next girl will be Bima the Garuda and she is gonna be located in the World of Magic The Gathering this time. She will be in a quicksand pit in the middle of the Mirrodin Forest. It's time I started doing something else other than the world of Spyro. Also get ready for an action packed adventure of battle as we go into battle against the Hellfire Club and make those monsters pay for their crimes!

We're going to make sure they all suffer.

See you all tomorrow

Burning Fury of The Hellfire Club

In the world of Magic The Gathering, me and Elrena Kirlian were searching for girl #15. She was seen in the Mirrodin Forest.

Me: Wow. So McWolf picked some spots in the world of Magic The Gathering for us to rescue some of the girls.

Elrena: This is amazing. We can see more of the world of the awesome Trading Card Game and rescue the girls too.

Me: Yeah this is amazing.

Elrena: What's that there?

We looked up ahead and we saw that McWolf had the 15th girl tied up and she was sinking in quicksand and she was bound and gagged.

Me: Oh man!

Elrena: Time to rescue the girl of the day!

Elrena conentrated and groaned as her teeth sank into her gums.

Me: This is the 15th Girl we're rescuing.

Elrena turned into RAIKOU!

Elrena Raikou: YEAH!

We were going through the forests of Mirrodin and we went at McWolf and Elrena pounced on him and held him down and I flew and grabbed the girl by her ropes and cut her free and I saw that she was a Garuda, the King of Birds in Hindu Myth.

Me: Wow! You're a Garuda from Hindu Myth.

I removed the gag.

Bima: Yeah that's right. Wow! You're J.D. Knudson, leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Me: That's right and this is Elrena Kirlian with me. She is also a Raikou.

Bima: Wow! My name is Bima and yes I am a Garuda.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you.

Bima: Same here.

Elrena: Lets get to a grove of trees where I can revert back.

Me: Strange story on that.

We went to a tree grove and I put on my blind man glasses.

Elrena was human again. And naked.

Elrena: (covers herself) Nothing like being naked in a forest to start the day.

Bima: That really must happen to you a lot whenever that happens.

Elrena: You have no idea.

Me: And we have to make sure that Nicole doesn't catch us peaking or else this… (Makes throat slash gesture)

Bima: Whoa boy.

I gave Elrena some new clothes.

Elrena: Thanks J.D.

She put them on.

Bima: That must happen a lot to you all.

Me: You have no idea. Lets head back to our estate. Miia and friends will be so happy to see you.

Bima: I'm sure she will.

We went back to the World Tree Estate.

---

We arrived back at the World Tree Estate and Elrena went to the table for a snack.

Bima: Whoa is this where you all live?

Me: Yep. Our estate is a 100 mile wide tree that's over 100 miles high and the foliage is 1,000 miles wide.

Bima: Wow! That's amazing!

Nico: It sure is. Wow she's a Garuda.

Me: Yep.

Miia: Bima!

Bima: Miia!

They went and hugged.

Miia: It's awesome having you here.

---

Later we were over in a junkyard and we were searching for useful stuff.

Laney: Hey guys look at this!

We went over to Laney and we saw an Autobot Stasis Pod.

Me: Whoa it's an Autobot Stasis Pod.

Beachcomber rubbed the frost off and he recognized who was inside it.

Beachcomber: Hey, I recognize who's in this stasis pod, man. That's Road Rocket!

Me: Looks like we found another one of your comrades.

Optimus Prime: It will be good to see Road Rocket again.

Nico: It sure will.

We opened his pod and got him out and then, The first thing Road Rocket did after coming out of stasis was tackle Cybertron Ransack to the ground and start punching him.

Road Rocket: Die, Decepticon Scum!

Cybertron Ransack: Oh, c'mon! Not the face!

Optimus Prime: Don't! Road Rocket! Stop! It's me, Optimus Prime! You're safe now!

Road Rocket: Optimus? Is that you? What's with the new look?

Optimus Prime: It's a long story my friend.

Me: We mean you no harm Road Rocket.

Nico: Besides the war on Cybertron is over and the Decepticons are now under new leadership. I am Nicolas Chan and I'm now the new leader of the Decepticons. Megatron is dead and the Decepticons are now on the road to Redemption ever since we destroyed Unicron.

Nico showed his badge for his leadership.

Road Rocket: Wow! That's amazing.

Me: We are Team Loud Phoenix Storm and we are the most powerful force ever known to the entire universe. We killed both Megatron and Unicron.

Road Rocket: Wow! That's incredible!

Laney: Yeah it's shocking huh?

Road Rocket: Yeah. Sorry about the mixup. I've been in stasis for a long time.

Ransack: No worries.

We later went back to the estate and we were talking to Road Rocket about our adventures.

Road Rocket: So, the war's pretty much over? Who won?

Kid Icarus Pandora: The Autobots, of course.

Road Rocket: Well, the war was fun while it lasted.

Maria: Are you kidding? All war brings is pain and suffering!

Road Rocket: (chuckles) Oh, c'mon! I actually liked cracking a few skulls in the war.

Murray: Welcome to the skullsmashing party.

Me: But Maria is right. As veterans of wars ourselves we have seen the terrible things that happen from war: Death, Destruction, Chaos, Pain, Suffering, Sadness, everything and it's not pretty.

Nico: Yeah.

Lincoln: It's terrifying and awful.

We told him everything that has happened and more.

Road Rocket: Whoa that's intense.

Nico: Yep.

Road Rocket: Why haven't you guys included any Decepticons in the Masters of Evil?

Mandy: We haven't thought of that actually. But we'll make a note to recruit some Decepticons as new Masters of Evil members in the future.

Me: Yeah.

Later I was checking the computer for any signs of villain activity and the scans picked up that the HELLFIRE CLUB was on the move!

Me: Oh no.

Hood Sickle: Now, wonder which villains are still active right now?

Me: Well the news is not good. I'm afraid the Hellfire Club is starting to make its move.

We gasped.

Maria: Oh man! I better call Selene, Magneto and his Brotherhood.

Me: Okay.

Bronze Kneecap, Count Vertigo, Overdrive, Tar Pit, El Oso, Black Spider, Enchantress and Cavalier then appeared.

Bronze Kneecap: Can me, Count Vertigo, Overdrive, Tar Pit, El Oso, Black Spider, Enchantress, and Cavalier help you guys out this time?

Me: You all sure can and from the looks of things we're gonna need all the help we can get. The Hellfire club is starting to move.

Tar Pit: Uh oh!

Selene, Magneto, Toad, Avalanche, Blob, Pyro, Juggernaut and Black Tom then appeared.

Selene: Is it true guys? Are my former comrades making their move?

Me: Yeah they sure are. And Thomas Samuel Eamon Cassidy A.K.A. Black Tom. We haven't faced you yet.

Black Tom: I joined the Masters of Evil.

Me: Yeah and Frederick J. Dukes A.K.A. Blob, looks like you're back in action.

Nico: And Mortimer Toynbee A.K.A. Toad. We all heard you were dead when we first fought.

Toad: Yeah but it's great to be back.

Nico: It sure is.

Avalanche: So the Hellfire Club is on the move.

Me: Yep and scans show that something big is going on. But it doesn't say what their plans are.

Future Maria: First, we'll need to collect evidence of their crimes.

Magneto: I agree with Maria's future self. The Hellfire Club is very powerful not only in terms of strength and power. But they have a strong position in the eyes of the public.

Me: That's right and from what I heard Erik they gave you and the Brotherhood as well as all of the X-Men a really hard time.

Nico: Yeah like in the comics and on TV.

Dark Phoenix then appeared.

Dark Phoenix: And lets not forget that they drove me insane.

Me: Right we have one piece of evidence but that's not enough. We'll need to use cutting edge technology for this. We better head over to S.H.I.E.L.D.

Eli: Good idea.

Éclair: What is S.H.I.E.L.D.?

Me: S.H.I.E.L.D. is a very ultra powerful organization. Its name stands for Strategic Hazard Intervention Espionage Logistics Directorate.

Éclair: Wow!

Black Widow: Me and Hawkeye are affiliated with S.H.I.E.L.D..

Me: And we know director Nick Fury. Lets get over there and form our plan.

Nico: Okay.

We went over to the S.H.I.E.L.D. Helicarrier.

---

S.H.I.E.L.D. HELICARRIER

---

We went into the S.H.I.E.L.D. Helicarrier and Nick Fury saw us.

Nick Fury: Team Loud Phoenix Storm and Masters of Evil welcome.

Me: Sorry to come in like this Director Fury but we have a huge problem. The Hellfire Club is on the move.

Selene: My former comrades in the Hellfire Club have something big planned and whatever it is we have to stop it and destroy them.

Me: Yeah.

El Oso: Señor Fury, are there any files on the Hellfire Club?

Nick Fury: As a matter of fact there are.

He gave us files on all of them. He gave us files on Sebastian Shaw, Harry Leland, Jason Wyngarde, Donald Pierce, Tessa, Shinobi Shaw, Trevor Fitzroy, Madelyne Pryor, Sat-yr-9, Sunspot, and Azazel.

Sebastian Shaw

Sebastian Hiram Shaw is a mutant and an enemy of the X-Men. He possesses the ability to absorb kinetic energy and transform it into raw strength. He is the leader of the New York branch of the Hellfire Club, an exclusive secret society bent on world domination, although to the public, he is a legitimate businessman and ordinary human. He once funded the mutant-hunting Sentinel program to keep it under his thumb.

He was portrayed by Kevin Bacon in the live action film, X-Men: First Class and serves as the film's main antagonist.

The Black King of the Manhattan's clandestine Hellfire Club, Sebastian Shaw led a campaign against the X-Men, kidnapping Jean Grey in the process. Although he has been defeated time and again by the heroes, Shaw nevertheless continues to utilize his kinetic energy redirection powers to challenge his foes.

Although born poor, Sebastian Shaw's brilliant mind for business helped him become a millionaire by the age of 20. He became head of Shaw Industries and was invited to join the Hellfire Club, an elite club for the wealthy and powerful. Shaw joined the club's secret Council of the Chosen, which schemed to achieve world domination. Seizing control of the club and becoming the Black King, he changed its name to the Inner Circle and teamed with fellow mutant Emma Frost, the White Queen in secretly creating mutant-hunting Sentinels.

Powers

Shaw is a mutant with the unique ability to absorb kinetic energy and other forms of energy like electricity, although to a lesser degree, and use this energy to augment his strength, speed, stamina and recuperation capabilities to superhuman levels. He absorbs the energy of any blow he is struck by, including not only physical strikes, but also bullets, and less successfully, concussive energy beams; notably Cyclops' optic blasts.

By absorbing enough blows from an opponent, Shaw can surpass the strength level of said opponent and then over power them. Whether it is possible for him to reach Hulk-level strength (or surpass it) is unknown, but he has, in the past, been known to over power Colossus who is close to 100 ton strength level. He is capable of absorbing the cutting, piercing and thrusting energy from a blade which makes it exceedingly difficult to cut or stab him with sharp edged weapons.

While Shaw is highly resistant to injury, especially kinetic ones, even he can be damaged by powerful enough blows. In the "Torn" story arc, Shaw is savagely beaten by Colossus (Shaw's plan was to allow the armored Russian to repeatedly hit him to up his strength and then turn it back on him) and while he did become immensely powerful from all the absorbed blows and won the fight, afterward, he was seen riddled with bruises and holding an ice pack over his right eye. Because of this, it would stand to reason that with enough physical punishment, even Shaw could possibly be killed during a fight, but, so far, no one has caused him any more damage from a physical fight than moderate bruising.

Without any absorbed kinetic energy Shaw is merely a strong ordinary human in excellent physical condition, but regularly works to keep his strength at a superhuman level. For example, in one instance, he was shown to spend time hitting a wall after waking in order to build up his power reserves before starting the day. It is not known how long these power levels can be maintained without absorbing more kinetic energy. If Shaw is captured and bound so he could not move at all, he would be helpless. (But even the slightest give could start to increase his strength, such as friction from rubbing against his bonds.)

Shaw also can forgo sleep if he receives enough kinetic energy. Often he will have his mercenaries pummel him so that he need not sleep for some time. As a way of aiding himself in combat, Shaw is adept at taunting, and will not let enemies realize his power until they have hit him one too many times. Members of the X-Men have learned the best way to defeat him is to remove him from the field of battle. The most dramatic example of which was when Rogue threw him hundreds of feet directly up into the air and away from the fight, essentially temporarily defeating him. It is not known if other human limits apply to Shaw, such as, among other things, whether he can be hurt or killed from drowning or from a lack of air.

Shaw is, however, vulnerable to being incapacitated, or being attacked psionically. During the "Dark Phoenix" story arc where the X-Men first encountered Shaw and the Hellfire Club, after realizing that direct physical battle was not working, Storm dramatically lowered the temperature of the room to sub-arctic conditions, temporarily causing Shaw to flee and recuperate. While it did not take Shaw out of the battle for long, it was just enough to turn the tide of their battle. Shaw has also been overloaded by being struck by lightning and by falling a great distance when his gravity was increased.

In the early 1990s, Shaw was given a son in the comics, Shinobi Shaw, who manifested powers very similar to those of Harry Leland, another Hellfire potentate, and who, for a time at least, appeared to have killed Sebastian. With his father's return, Shinobi, presumably in fear of his life, faded back into the shadows.

Other key traits are his successful business acumen and his access to sophisticated weaponry. He not only prides himself on his power and the connections it allows him, but on knowing his opponents and how best to defeat them, whether in battle or in business. He also possesses technology that can block telepathic intrusions by Professor X.

Harry Leland the Black Bishop

Henry Leland attained the rank of "Black Bishop", of the Lords Cardinal of the New York branch of the The Hellfire Club. Thanks to his allegiance to Sebastian Shaw the (Black King), Leland possesses the mutant ability to increase the mass of an object or person, making it extremely heavy.

Little was known of Leland's past before encountering the X-Men, however it is known that was a corporate lawyer, and that he encountered his later teammate, Emma Frost before she was inducted into the Hellfire Club. At the time, Emma was homeless and using her powers during a Hellfire Club meeting to gain information about stocks, Leland took an interest in her but came on too strongly, which made Emma run away. Shortly after, he accompanied Sean Cassidy and his NYPD partner to an incident behind the club which involved Emma. Emma, having met and repaired the fractured mind of the Dark Beast with her powers, mind-wiped all three men into forgetting the incident and that they had ever met.

Later, Leland first encountered the X-Men when they invaded the

New York headquarters of the Hellfire Club. Leland caused Wolverine to become super-heavy and fall through the club's floor into a sub-basement. In the rematch, Wolverine attacked Leland from above. At that moment, Leland foolishly used his mass-increasing powers against his opponent a second time, resulting in Wolverine crashing through the floor again, only this time with Leland beneath him as Wolverine intended. All evidence to the contrary, Leland somehow survived this incident.

Alongside most of the rest of the Hellfire Club's Inner Circle, Leland later battled the X-Men in New York's Central Park. Leland used his power to sink Colossus hundreds of feet underground. When the robot mutant hunter Nimrod attacked the assembled mutants, the X-Men and the Club joined forces to battle Nimrod. Against considerable resistance by the robot, Leland increased Nimrod's gravity to move it towards the ground and thus vulnerable to attack. Overweight and in poor health, the effort caused Leland to have a heart attack. Then, at the X-Men's leader Storm's urging, Leland increased the gravity of his teammate Sebastian Shaw (who had been sent hurtling towards outer space by Nimrod), causing Shaw to crash into Nimrod's body on the ground. Having accomplished this task, Leland succumbed to his heart condition and died.

At a later date, the supervillain Black Talon revived Leland's body, as well as the bodies of three other deceased mutants, as a zombie; his motives for doing such were unspecified. After She-Hulk's defeat of the Talon and his X-Humed, Leland was reburied. Precautions were taken to ensure that he never come back, among them filling his mouth with salt and sewing his lips together.

Nevertheless, Leland was resurrected again by Selene Gallio and Eli Bard using the Transmode virus. When Selene was killed, Leland's body cease to be.

Donald Pierce

Donald Pierce is the White Bishop of the Hellfire Club and the leader of the Reavers, a group of cybernetic mutants. He is an enemy of X-Men, mostly of Wolverine and a supervillain in the X-Men comics.

Hellfire Club

An industrialist, Donald Pierce first appeared as a high-ranking member of the Hellfire Club Inner Circle, where he held the position of White Bishop, during that organization's first direct encounter with the X-Men. During this conflict, he battled Wolverine, Nightcrawler, and Colossus, and when Wolverine nearly severed his arm, it was discovered that he was a cyborg. The Hellfire Club Inner Circle was eventually defeated and Donald Pierce's whereabouts were unknown for several years.

Reavers

Pierce later appeared with Lady Deathstrike and three other cybernetically-enhanced mercenaries (Cole, Macon, and Reese) who had been fatally wounded by Wolverine during the Hellfire's first skirmish with the X-Men. All five characters were consumed by their desire for revenge against the X-Men, and Wolverine in particular. To that end Pierce created an army of cyborgs out of low-life thugs and a few mercenaries. He named his army "The Reavers".

After rescuing their captive Tyger Tiger from the Reavers, the X-Men expelled the cyborgs from their Australian Outback headquarters, and appropriated the base for themselves (though Pierce was not present during this encounter, and was not yet revealed as the Reavers' creator). The Reavers set out to defeat the X-Men, mounting a return to their old headquarters, this time with Pierce and Deathstrike present, but after the X-Men had escaped through the Siege Perilous they only managed to capture Wolverine who they tortured and crucified, Jubilee saved him from the cross. At one point Pierce created two super intelligent sentient androids (Elsie Dee and Albert) to kill Wolverine, but they developed ethics and turned on Pierce and abandoned the Reavers.

A few years later, a member of the Upstarts, Trevor Fitzroy, sent Sentinels to destroy the Reavers because they were a threat to mutants and Pierce (as the Hellfire Club's former White King) was worth a lot of points in the deadly game the Upstarts played. Of the Reavers, only Lady Deathstrike and Cylla escaped the Sentinels and it appeared that Pierce had been destroyed. The rest of the Reavers were completely wiped out. Despite his apparent death, Pierce resurfaced to trouble the X-men once again. He recently started an anti-mutant hate group and enlisted several members. He revealed a plot to take militant terrorist actions against mutants and was thwarted by the X-Men. He was beaten by Wolverine in hand-to-hand combat even though he is several times stronger than Logan. It is revealed that little to no human tissue remains in Donald, which shows how he was able to survive the slaughter in Australia.

Pierce recently tried to take over Sebastian Shaw's new Hellfire Club, launching an attack and slashing Shaw's chest. Though Shaw was left critically injured and later needed to be hospitalized, he was able to punch off Pierce's head.

Young X-Men and Death

Pierce resurfaced, impersonating Cyclops and gathering a team of Young X-Men in order to assassinate Sunspot, the new Black King of the Hellfire Club. He was defeated by the combined forces of the Young X-Men and the New Mutants and imprisoned by the X-Men. He befriended Dust whom he promised to heal from her deadly cell degradation if she would free him from his imprisonment. The plot however failed, and Pierce remained a prisoner of the X-Men. It was later revealed that Pierce had been in contact with Bastion, keeping him informed of developments in the X-Men's headquarters on Utopia.

By order of Bastion, Pierce blew up the Black Birds, and was killed by Cyclops.

Sage A.K.A. Tessa

Sage's exact country of origin remains unrevealed, but she claims to have come from a war-torn region. By the time she reaches young adulthood, she is living by herself in Afghanistan. Although she tries to keep out of the conflicts between the rebels and the government, she is willing to use her guns and other weapons on anything that poses a threat. One day, she hears a call from a cave which is considered haunted by the locals. The voice (in her head) guides her deeper into the cavern, where she finds Charles Xavier, who is trapped underneath a pile of debris. His legs have been crushed during his battle with the alien Lucifer. Xavier senses that Sage is a mutant, and explains the meaning of her abilities. Although Sage says that this was about the same time he located Beast; in other accounts he found Sage first.[ volume & issue needed ][2]

Sage helps Xavier and tries to get him to a hospital, but during their journey down the mountain, they come across a United Nations relief convoy under attack by robbers, who have raped and killed the UN workers. Sage exacts revenge on their behalf and kills the robbers, though she later despises herself for being so brutal.

Hellfire Club

Years later, Sage meets up again with Xavier, who at the time is recruiting the original X-Men. Instead of being chosen for the first X-Men class, she is instead sent to spy on the Hellfire Club as Tessa, and to keep watch on Sebastian Shaw, something which returns to haunt her in the following years.

While working at the Hellfire Club she encounters Psylocke, Jean Grey, and Emma Frost, who at this point is the White Queen. While she is able to successfully warn Psylocke away from the Hellfire Club, Tessa is later remorseful that she is unable to similarly prevent the corruption of Phoenix into the Black Queen. This transformation is a key factor in the creation of Dark Phoenix.[ volume & issue needed ]

Sometime during Tessa's time with the Hellfire Club, Sebastian Shaw and Emma Frost dare the man known as Elias Bogan to wager in a game of poker. Though he holds no official rank in the Inner Circle, the telepathic Bogan is one of the Club's most important and powerful members; his patronage guarantees success in the organization. By the terms of the wager, if Shaw lost, Frost would "belong" to Bogan, but if Bogan's agent lost, then his fortune would be turned over to Shaw. Thanks to Tessa's advice and analytical skills, Bogan loses the game and is forced to honor the wager. Having never lost before, Bogan harbors a grudge against Tessa.

During the X-Men's initial conflicts with the Hellfire Club, Tessa primarily maintains a background role and is seen as only Shaw's unusually intelligent assistant. Hints of her more complex role are indicated when she and Xavier are kidnapped by Donald Pierce, a renegade member of the club, with grudges against both organizations. Based on the interactions between Xavier and Tessa, it is unclear whether he is helping to maintain her cover or whether he feels as if he has lost his agent, since the interaction between the two is kept impersonal. The two are rescued by the nascent team of New Mutants, and Tessa takes Pierce into custody on behalf of the Hellfire Club.

Tessa's next notable interaction with Xavier's students happens months later when the X-Men and Hellfire Club are hunting down Rachel Summers after her attempted murder of Selene, the newly installed Black Queen. In the middle of their fight, both teams are taken by surprise by Nimrod, a mutant-hunting robot from the future. Recognizing the more immediate threat, the two groups join forces and are able to severely damage Nimrod. The X-Men and Hellfire Club each sustain heavy losses and are forced to flee the scene quickly. Tessa offers Storm and the X-Men temporary sanctuary with the Club, which later results in Magneto and Storm jointly accepting the role of White King in the Inner Circle.

After the Hellfire Club

Magneto becomes more actively involved with the Hellfire Club after the X-Men's supposed death in Dallas at the climax of the Fall of the Mutants. Tensions between Magneto and Sebastian Shaw grow until, finally, Magneto ousts Shaw from the group. Although Tessa remains with the Hellfire Club after his departure, her role diminishes. Shortly thereafter, the Upstarts begin to hunt down mutant leaders, starting with former and current leaders of the Inner Circle. Shinobi Shaw seemingly murders his father, Sebastian; Emma Frost is put into a coma. Tessa continues to serve as Shinobi's assistant, much as she had his father, and she also begins to use her telepathic skills more openly. After Tessa prevents Shinobi from solidifying his hold on the Hellfire Club, however, the younger Shaw ceases to work with her.

Sebastian Shaw returns after a period of recuperation with the extradimensional Holocaust at his side. Seeking assistance in controlling this powerful mutant, Shaw calls Tessa back into his service. Her minor telepathic abilities are able to keep him in check since most telepaths in his native reality had been killed and he had not developed psychic defenses. The two lose Holocaust, though, when Onslaught decides he needs that mutant for his own purposes. Selene and her new amnesiac thrall Madelyne Pryor join with Shaw to regain their roles in the Hellfire Club. Suspicious of Pryor, Tessa attempts to telepathically probe her while she is sleeping, unwittingly reawakening Madelyne's memories of her tragic life and first death with the X-Men. Tessa is quickly overwhelmed and nearly killed. The only thing that stays Madelyne's hand is that Tessa's murder would have caused unnecessary complications. Instead, Pryor merely removes all memory of the conflict.

Shinobi Shaw

Shinobi Shaw was the illegitimate son of Sebastian Shaw. Rejected and abandoned by his father at an early age, Shaw is suspected of having attempted to assassinate him in Interlaken, Switzerland. Apparently believing to have succeeded for a time, Shaw tried to take control of his father's empire and his network of social and political connections, including, it appears, his position as a leading member of the Hellfire Club's Inner Circle.

Shinobi inherited his father's business and wealth. Shaw was also a member of the Upstarts, a group of young mutants organized by the mutant Gamesmaster who wanted to lead the next generation of would-be conquerors. Shinobi received "points" for killing his father.

Shaw attempted to revive the Hellfire Club's Inner Circle with the X-Men known as Archangel and Psylocke, who refused his offer. Shaw's next contest with the Upstarts involved assassinating the surviving New Mutants and Hellions, and was thwarted by the combined effort of X-Force and the New Warriors.

Although Shaw briefly managed to obtain the assistance of several mutant associates, his frequent violent conflicts with other superhumans ultimately resulted in his failure to establish himself as his father's successor. Once he learned that his father was alive, Shaw, presumably in fear of retaliation for his assassination attempt, deserted all of his inherited positions and returned to a more secretive mode of life.

As a result of the Scarlet Witch's actions, nearly all of the mutants in the entire world have been stripped of their powers. Shinobi was among the 198 mutants who have still retained their powers. Shinobi was killed by his father and he, along with many other deceased mutants, has been resurrected by Selene and Eli Bard with the Transmode Virus.

Trevor Fitzroy

Trevor Fitzroy was the bastard son of Anthony Shaw, a wealthy man in the apocalyptic future of Earth-1191. As a youth, Fitzroy was not in control of his powers. He had a relationship of sorts with Ruby Summers, and managed to save her life, as well as those of the time-displaced Jamie Madrox and Layla Miller, when they were attacked by Sentinels but was killed in the process. Ruby begged Layla to save him using her power to bring people back from the dead but the terrible consequence of Layla's powers were that those she resurrected came back without souls.

Fitzroy joined the Academy for Xavier's Security Enforcers (XSE) and engaged in a relationship with Shard. He turned out to be a criminal though and was removed from the Academy. His wealthy father tried to protect his son for a while, but when Fitzroy was caught for murder, even he could no longer protect him. Fitzroy was captured and arrested by Bishop, Shard's brother and a XSE officer.

Fitzroy himself thought that he was merely a teleporter, but a secret group of XSE agents, known as the Xavier's Underground Enforcers (XUE) discovered that Fitzroy had the ability to travel through time. The XUE recruited Shard and freed Fitzroy. They hoped to change the past to create a better present, but Shard stopped them, when she was reminded how dangerous Fitzroy was. Fitzroy was returned to prison.

From prison, Fitzroy escaped to the present time with his minion Bantam. There, he became involved with a group known as the Upstarts, a competition set up by Selene to eliminate her rivals within the Hellfire Club. Lead by the Gamesmaster, the Upstarts had to kill other mutants to receive points. The Upstart with the most points would win the prize; control over the Hellfire Club and the other competitors. To enter the competition, one had to kill a member of the Hellfire Club's Inner Circle (though later members didn't have to.) As part of this "game," Fitzroy unleashed Sentinels on the Reavers and their leader Donald Pierce, killing them all. Pierce escaped and arrived at the Hellfire Club, followed by the Sentinels. The Sentinels killed Pierce (though as a cyborg, he was rebuilt later) and then killed most of the the Hellions and put their leader, Emma Frost, into a coma. The X-Men, who had been negotiating with Frost, fought Fitzroy. Fitzroy was forced to open a large time portal, allowing prisoners from his own time to escape to the present. The prisoners attacked the X-Men, but stopped when three figures stepped through the portal: Bishop and fellow XSE agents Randall and Malcolm came to the present and went after Fitzroy, eventually killing the escaped criminals. Malcolm and Randall were killed though and Bishop would remain in the present and join the X-Men.

Fitzroy turned on Selene and captured her, but she managed to escape later. He also brought in Sienna Blaze to compete in the Upstart competition. Fitzroy clashed with the X-Men a second time when he tried to kill Forge, but managed to escape again. When the Gamesmaster declared that the new target for the Upstart competition would be former members of the New Mutants and Hellions, Fitzroy attacked X-Force, demanding they turned over Rictor and Warpath. X-Force leader Cable tricked Fitzroy into trying to absorb his life-energy, but as Cable's arm was inorganic, Fitzroy's powers used his own life-energy to open a portal, seemingly killing him.

Why the portal didn't drain his own life is still unknown. Fitzroy reappeared under the thrall of Selene as the White Rook of the Hellfire Club. He sometimes fights in an omnium mesh bio-armor, which is extremely powerful, nearly indestructible, and may possibly be activated on his mental command.

Fitzroy increased his power levels substantially and journeyed to a future timeline in which Earth was reduced to medieval technology levels. There Fitzroy set himself up as the Chronomancer and took over, using time-jumping robots with futuristic weapons to keep control. Then he had Shard brought to that time, where he kept her captive, but before his goons got her, they transported Bishop to Fitzroy's realm as well. Bishop, however, remained on the loose, and Fitzroy began to modify Shard to make her human again. His powers increased dramatically, to the point where he could freeze people in a type of stasis and open many more portals than before. In addition, his energy powered the Chronotroopers and his entire fortress. In the final battle, Fitzroy used Shard as bait for Bishop, and he captured his rival when Shard betrayed him. Fitzroy tortured Bishop mentally and physically before leaving him to "assume his destiny as Master of Time."

Fitzroy's plan was to become Time itself, a feat so ambitious that the Watcher came to observe. Unfortunately, Bishop had been freed by his companion Link, and arrived to stop Fitzroy from entering the giant portal he had created. A fight ensued, and Fitzroy emerged victorious and headed for the portal again. Bishop, drained of energy had no chance until Shard arrived and turned herself into energy again, forcing Bishop to absorb her and blast her at Fitzroy. Bishop missed, but Fitzroy hesitated enough that Bishop caught him and held him half in, half out of the portal until it closed on itself, cutting Fitzroy in half.

Madelyne Pryor

Madelyne Jennifer Pryor is Cyclops's first wife, Cable's mother, and a clone of Jean Grey created by Mister Sinister. After Cyclops abandoned her and her son, she was tricked and seduced by demons to harness great demonic power.

She was created by Paul Smith and Chris Claremont.

Madelyne always bore a striking resemblance to the (then) presumed deceased Jean Grey. Numerous individuals mistook her for Jean reborn. To make matters more suspicious, Madelyne's mind was closed to Professor X and she was the sole survivor of a mysterious plane crash, which occurred at the exact moment the Dark Phoenix committed suicide on the Moon, or so she thought.

In reality, she was a clone of Jean created by Mister Sinister. Mr. Sinister found that a union between the X-Men, Scott Summers (Cyclops) and Jean Grey (Marvel Girl), would produce a powerful mutant. Sinister hoped he could control such a mutant and use it to defeat Apocalypse.

At the time, Jean, actually the Phoenix, was acting reckless, so Sinister created a clone of her. Sinister's plot was to produce a child from the union of Madelyne and Scott, whom he believed would become a genetically superior mutant. To Sinister's disappointment, Madelyne had no life and did not develop any mutant abilities at puberty as he had hoped. Sinister left Madelyne in her incubation tube as a failed experiment.

It was at the moment of the Dark Phoenix's death that a spark of the Phoenix Force was accidentally bestowed on Madelyne's body and renewed Sinister's interest. After Dark Phoenix died on the moon, the Phoenix sought to return the "borrowed" portion of Jean's soul to her body which was in suspended animation. Jean instinctively rejected the Phoenix and it wandered the globe, lost. Eventually, it became attracted to Madelyne, since she was an exact genetic clone of Jean. The Phoenix Force searched for the next best thing, giving a spark of itself to Madelyne, granting her a life force and some of Jean's memories.

Scott Summers

Madelyne met Scott in Alaska, while he was being introduced to his grandparents. From the moment of their first meeting, Scott was immediately attracted to Madelyne for her physical resemblance to Jean. Mister Sinister had also played a part as matchmaker, by giving Madelyne a personality he knew Scott would like and placing her where they were sure to meet, as a pilot for his grandparents. Sinister also gave Madelyne the name "Pryor" as a pun on her "prior existence" as a cell sample taken from Jean. Scott was amazed how much Madelyne was like Jean, even after being tricked for a short time, by Mastermind, into thinking she was Dark Phoenix.

After a whirlwind romance, Scott proposed to Madelyne on the deck of the Starjammer and Madelyne and Scott were married on the grounds of the X-Mansion.[5] During their honeymoon in the Caribbean, Scott and Madelyne were attacked by a shark and a giant squid. This prompted Scott to choose retirement, realizing he would rather start a family than face a life of endless battles among the X-Men and the Starjammers.

Anodyne

Early in their marriage, Scott and Madelyne were flying a geological survey team across Alaska, when they ran into a mysterious storm that forced them to crash-land. Through Loki's Firefountain, all non super powered humans aboard the plane (including Madelyne) were endowed with mystical powers. As Anodyne, Madelyne could heal virtually any injury, illness, and physical-defect. Madelyne also used mystical healing powers to allow Cyclops to function without his protective lenses. When it was discovered that Loki's intentions were never altruistic and that his gift was badly flawed, as the cost of those powers was the loss of individual creativity and imagination, everyone went against him. His plans ended, Loki was ordered by Those Who Sit Above in Shadow to restore everyone to their original state. Loki spitefully removed all the powers he had granted and everyone who Anodyne had cured were also regressed back. During the incident, Madelyne revealed she was pregnant.

Motherhood

Scott returned to the X-Men after learning that Magneto joined. While he went on missions, Madelyne was left at the mansion. Madelyne felt that she and Scott were drifting apart after getting calls from other X-Men about her well-being but not her husband. While Scott was battling Fenris at the trial of Magneto, Madelyne gave birth to her son in the kitchen of the mansion, who she named Nathan Christopher Charles Summers - Nathan from an implanted suggestion by Mister Sinister in Madelyne, Christopher from Scott's father, and Charles from his father-figure.

Scott battled Storm for undisputed leadership of the X-Men. Maddie inadvertently used her mutant powers for the first time to influence the outcome of the battle, and after he lost, Madelyne convinced Scott to move with her back to a cabin in Alaska and live out their lives there, a subconscious suggestion implanted by Sinister - the remote location made it easier for him to study and if need be abduct the child.

Abandoned

During their time away, their marriage became strained and

Madelyne resented the fact that Scott was rarely home and that he continued to miss Jean. Madelyne was also upset at the fact that Scott only married her because of her resemblance to Jean and that he only left to be with her and the baby because he lost in his bid to run the X-Men. Scott became very distant, even leaving Madelyne in the middle of the night. When the real Jean Grey was revealed alive, Scott abandoned Madelyne and baby Christopher to be with Jean and help found X-Factor in New York, despite her threats of him not being welcome back. Madelyne was heart-broken that Scott had left their family.

Maddie was hired to fly a cargo to San Francisco for a large sum of money and, at the last minute, decided to take Christopher with her. Mister Sinister, reacting quickly to Jean's return, aimed to eliminate Madelyne before the truth of her creation was revealed, and sent his Marauders to kill her and kidnap her son. Maddie used her latent psychic powers to defend herself, but lost baby Christopher to her enemies. Maddie was shot multiple times and left for dead, then taken to a hospital in San Francisco, as a "Jane Doe". Though the doctors thought she was a hopeless case, Madelyne pulled through and awoke months later from a coma after having dreams of surviving a plane crash and the flamebird of the Phoenix. There was no record of Maddie or the baby left in existence, as Sinister had erased them all.

Death of the X-Men

Upon waking, Maddie called the X-Men and was confused why Scott left her and took the baby. When the Marauders returned to finish the job, the X-Men were present and protected her. As Madelyne felt abandoned, by Scott, Alex Summers, Scott's brother, was alone too, due to the fact that his lover, Polaris, was being controlled by the Marauder, Malice, and the two comforted each other.

In Dallas, Texas the X-Men battled the Adversary and gave their life to imprison the Adversary. Forge required the essences of nine souls to seal the portal and, with only eight X-Men present at the time, Madelyne agreed to be the missing piece and the group was transformed into pure energy. The entire incident was recorded by a news crew providing Madelyne with the chance to tell Scott she loved him and to find their missing son. However, the Omniversal

Guardian, named Roma, restored the X-Men to life. After being resurrected, the X-Men decided to use the opportunity to go underground and keep their rebirth secret.

The X-Men resurfaced in Australia, where they defeated the Reavers and claimed their base and teleporter, Gateway, a mute, mutant aborigine with the ability to create gates with his bull roarer. Roma appeared and presented them with the Siege Perilous, a gem that created a portal which granted any person who walked through it judgment and a new chance at life, with a new career, home, and so forth and had magically made them invisible to any sort of mechanical perception. While the X-Men would go on missions, Maddie would stay at the base and familiarize herself with the computer systems and, while watching the news, Madelyne saw Scott with Jean. Finally, Maddie learned the reason why Scott had abandoned her and she fell unconscious. In her dreams, Maddie was approached by the demon, S'ym, who toyed with her self doubt and tempted her with great power. Madelyne slowly lost herself to the dark side of her personality and manifested a black tattered uniform.

After Storm abruptly left in the middle of the night, Maddie tracked her to the Savage Land and the X-Men departed. After responding to a fake emergency call from the Press Gang, Maddie flew a plane for the Australian Flying Doctors and was ambushed and taken to Genosha, with Jennifer Ransome and an infant. While in captivity, the demon, N'Astirh, attempted to contact Maddie, but she told him to try later. The scientists of Genosha could not decide if Maddie was a mutant or human and, when the Genegineer came to check on her, Madelyne's latent powers had killed all the Magistrates investigating her and destroyed her observation lab; they also mentally attacked a representation of Dr. David Moreau himself, but, when asked what happened, Maddie had no memory. Madelyne had broke herself out of her cell and was cradling the captured infant, when the X-Men arrived to rescue her. Lonely and angry, Madelyne instigated an affair with her brother-in-law, Alex.

Goblin Queen

After sleeping with Alex, Maddie agreed to help the demons S'ym and N'Astirh create a link between Earth and the extra-dimensional

Otherplace, in exchange for locating the Marauders, to have the X-Men make them pay,and baby Christopher. Later, Madelyne and Alex had Gateway teleport them to New York's Rainbow Room, where they shared a romantic evening. After returning home, Madelyne had Gateway teleport her to the gravesite of Jean, where she cursed Jean for her troubles and Scott for lying to her. While at the gravesite, Jean's parent showed, to show their respects, and Maddie turned them to demons. N'Astirh appeared and took Madelyne to the State Home for Foundlings in Nebraska, Scott and Alex's childhood orphanage, and, in the basement, revealed a laboratory and an incubation tube with her name on it. In the lab, Mr. Sinister revealed himself and bound Madelyne, explaining her existence as Jean's clone to her. After being told that he would experiment on her, Madelyne used her considerable power to break free of Mr. Sinister's bonds and N'Astirh presented her with her son, whom she began calling Nathan. As the Goblin Queen, Madelyne descended into madness after Sinister revealed she was only a tool modeled after Grey[2] and returned to New York, where she battled X-Factor, blaming Jean and Scott for the misery in her life, and instigated a battle between the X-Men and X-Factor, having the X-Men under her demonic influence and believing that X-Factor was attempting to kidnap Nathan. When Scott attempted to assist Madelyne, Alex interjected, stating that Scott forfeited every right to Madelyne when he walked-out on her. When N'Astirh appeared and attempted to take Madelyne, Scott saved Jean and Alex rode-off to rescue Madelyne and the baby. After arriving at the Empire State Building, Maddie revealed herself as the Goblin Queen and asked if Alex would join her. Alex agreed to become her Goblin Prince. The Goblin Queen, briefly attacked Phoenix, an alternate reality daughter of Scott and Phoenix, who believed the Goblin Queen to be Jean.

After the defeat of N'Astirh, the Goblin Queen captured Jean and another battle was instigated between the X-Men and X-Factor. Dazzler and Longshot were influenced the most, being told that they were stars in the center stage and ordered to attack Death. Death was delivered to the Goblin Queen, where she began to corrupt him as well kissing him and connecting their pasts of being used by Apocalypse and Mr. Sinister. The Goblin Queen attempted to sacrifice baby Nathan and the other nine mutant babies atop the Empire State Building to finish N'Astirh's work and permanently open a gateway between Earth and Limbo, to spite Scott.[13] The Goblin Queen locked herself, Nathan, and Jean inside a psionic barrier, where she explained her origins as Jean's clone. Both X-Factor and the X-Men's combined efforts seemed to be futile in an effort to break through the telekinetic bubble. Pryor-Summers and Grey fought one-on-one, with Madelyne unleashing a psionic force, intending to destroy both herself and her opponents. X-Factor and the X-Men protected each other and Madelyne was the only one affected, but, as she lay dying, she pulled Jean into her mind to die with her. Jean would have succumbed, were it not for the Phoenix leaving Madelyne at that time and returning to Jean. Jean was able to resist and, as Madelyne died, Jean recovered the part of her soul the Phoenix Force had mistakenly given to Madelyne.

Years past, in which Scott and Jean married and her son Nathan traveled to and from the future and became the man called Cable.

Resurrected and Impersonated

Later the powerful Nate Grey traveled to this world from Earth-295. His mind looked for a companion, and discovered the spirit of Madelyne Pryor on the astral plane. X-Man subconsciously gave the echo of Madelyne's psyche a new form. Madelyne remembered very little of her past. In Paris, she was lured away from Nate by Selene, who slowly took her to New York and met with Sebastian Shaw, suggesting a revival of the Inner Circle of the Hellfire Club. Selene presented Madelyne as Black Rook. She proved her value by winning a battle against the London Club's Red Rook Scribe, pulling the parasitic mutant Mountjoy out of the woman's body.

One night, Tessa attempted to probe Madelyne's mind, but was discovered. Madelyne angrily defeated Tessa and proved to be telepathic too, making Tessa forget the incident. Madelyne's memory was fully restored at last. She searched for Nate Grey but met Threnody instead, who revealed to her that even though she was walking around and breathing, she was actually still dead. Angered, she murdered Threnody.

She then found Nate with Jean Grey. In a battle, Nate chose to side with Jean over her. Nate and Jean discovered that Madelyne was a psionic ghost, subconsciously given form by Nate. Nate tried to reabsorb her, only to find that he couldn't, as she had become independent.

Madelyne returned to Sebastian Shaw, with whom she began a physical relationship with. This was of great concern to Selene and Tessa.

While Cable was in the middle of his Askani meditation, his mother appeared to him on the Astral Plane. She explained her life story to him and proposed they join forces to destroy all mutants and rule the world together. After a heated discussion, in which Cable refused to side with her, they decided to meet at a neutral contact point in Alaska. Cable emerged from his meditation and formed an uneasy truce with his mother.

Madelyne later returned to Nate Grey's side, now with the ability to teleport. Nate didn't want her around at first, but he eventually started to come around to her. When Nate was attacked by Strikesquad: Gauntlet, a group of operatives wearing psi-shielded armor, Madelyne was buried alive by one of them. She managed to escape by teleporting, yet, as the battle had taken a lot out of Nate, her body rapidly became drained and withered. In no shape to carry out her plans, she departed Nate's side.

Later, a Jean Grey from an alternate universe posed as Madelyne to Nate for a short time, but the impostor eventually revealed herself. Nate Grey finally discorporated while fighting a being called the Harvester and was never seen again.

Sisterhood of Mutants

Madelyne seemingly returned again, identified by Scott at a Dazzler concert. Recently she formed a female version of The Brotherhood known as the Sisterhood of Mutants. She had recruited Martinique Wyngarde, her half-sister Regan, Chimera, Spiral and Lady Deathstrike, promising to resurrect a person of their choosing. But first they needed a test, so she had them steal a coffin in Tokyo, containing Psylocke's old body in which Kwannon died in and the real Psylocke. Using a magical ritual, they resurrected her old body and placed her mind in it. Explaining the procedure's real purpose afterward, the Red Queen reveals her promised resurrections to be untried and uncertain; this causes some of her members to react violently against her, but she convinces them to continue following her. The Sisterhood then commences a surprise raid on the X-Men's base, quickly neutralizing several of the main X-members. Recovering from the initial attacks, the X-Men force the Sisterhood (now including a brainwashed Psylocke) to retreat; but the entire battle is only a distraction that has enabled the Red Queen to steal something kept by Wolverine: a lock of hair from Jean.

While Mastermind and Lady Mastermind confronted Emma, Storm, Dazzler and Karma, Madelyne and the rest of the Sisterhood raced to the grounds of the Xavier Institute where Jean was buried. Domino was already there and held the Sisterhood off until the other X-Men arrived. During the battle, Madelyne unearthed Jean's coffin. Cyclops warned her not to take possession of the body inside, but she did so regardless. Madelyne then collapsed in agony. Cyclops revealed that he knew Madelyne would come to Jean's gravesite and had Domino remove her coffin and replace it with someone else's, knowing nothing less than Jean's body could contain her. Madelyne discorporated into nothingness.

Avengers vs. X-Men

Mister Sinister created a group of Madelyne Pryor clones in order to take away the Phoenix Force energies from the Phoenix Five (consisting of the Phoenix Force-empowered Cyclops, Colossus, Emma Frost, Magik, and Namor).Unlike the original Madelyne, none of the six appears to had the chance to show indications of individual personalities or free will, but instead appeared to follow Sinister completely. The Madelyne Pryor clones joined Mister Sinister's other clone creations in fighting the Phoenix Five and managed to defeat each one, one by one. They also were able to siphon some of the energy from the Phoenix Force, but they all were immediately killed by the entity itself. |

Lady Deathstrike's Sisterhood

Lady Deathstrike formed an all new Sisterhood initially compromised of Lady Deathstrike, Typhoid Mary, and the Enchantress (Amora). The sentient bacteria Arkea possessed Lady Deathstrike's assistant, Reiko and joined. As Arkea feared being killed by the X-Men, she wanted powerhouses to join the Sisterhood.

She first had Amora resurrect Selene Gallio, the Black Queen. Then using the genetic material of Jean Grey, she modified the dead body of Ana Cortes to resemble Jean Grey genetically. To complete this she had Amora summon Madelyne from beyond the grave to complete the resurrection. Ana Cortes had contacted the X-Men before her suicide, and the X-Men attacked the Sisterhood. Madelyne telepathically defeated Rachel Grey.

Storm offered Madelyne and Selene a deal, essentially letting them go free as they were only after Arkea at the moment. As Madelyne and the other members of the Sisterhood didn't particularly care for Arkea, they allowed the X-Men to kill her without putting up much resistance. All Arkea samples perished. Meanwhile, Madelyne declared that she would create an all new Sisterhood and departed, accompanied by Selene.

Sat-Yr-9

Opul Lun Sat-Yr-Nin is a supervillainess from Marvel comics. She was a dictator who ruled her world with her lover Kaptain Briton. Opul later met Briton's counterpart, Earth-616's Captain Britain, when he was transported to Earth-839. Briton, who had been transported to Earth-616, was killed by Britain's sister, Elizabeth Braddock, when he attempted to rape her.

History

When Sat-Yr-9 went mad and started slaughtering her subjects, Roma sent Captain UK on a mission to capture her leading to her being overthrown and imprisoned.

Escaping through a dimension gateway that had been opened byon Earth-616, Sat-Yr-9 killed a businesswoman named Courtney Ross, and took her place. Coincidentally, Ross was Captain Britain's ex-girlfriend. As Ross, she tried to create a rift between Captain Britain and his current girlfriend Meggan Puceanu.

Sat-Yr-9 also knew about Jamie Braddock's reality warping powers before anyone else including himself did (since she knew about the reality warping powers of Jamie's alternate reality counterpart) and arranged things so that Jamie's powers would be unlocked, at the expense of driving him insane. Courtney had intended to use Jamie and his great powers as a living weapon against difficult adversaries.

Courtney used Jamie's powers to change her right-hand man, Nigel Frobisher, into a duplicate of the London crime lord, the Vixen, while changing Vixen herself into a fox. With Frobisher as Vixen, Sat-Yr-9 took over the Vixen's crime syndicate.

With her powerbase built, Courtney attacked Excalibur, revealing her true identity to them. Sat-Yr-9 tried to enslave Captain Britain, against Frobisher's advice. Frobisher rebelled and was killed by Sat-Yr-9. Excalibur managed to defeat Jamie and Sat-Yr-9 and her troops were forced to flee. Captain Britain swore to avenge Courtney's death, but was unable to track Sat-Yr-9 down.

As of late, she has joined the Hellfire Club as its White Queen, with Viper, a former HYDRA assassin, as her self-proclaimed "White Princess" and bodyguard. She has been seen publicly appearing as Courtney Ross again, trying to convince Captain Britain that she somehow is the real Courtney Ross. So far Captain Britain remains unconvinced, but hasn't moved against her.

Sunspot

Sunspot ( Roberto da Costa ) is a fictional superhero appearing in American comic books published by Marvel Comics. The character is most commonly associated with X-Men-related groups the New Mutants and X-Force.

A mutant from Brazil, Sunspot possesses the ability to absorb and channel solar power. He is idealistic and impulsive, but is considered a close friend of many of his teammates. He was an important member of the X-Men's 1980s-era junior team and its reincarnation X-Force. He later retired his career as Sunspot and garnered a massive fortune, allowing him to buy out the organization Advanced Idea Mechanics, rebranding it Avengers Idea Mechanics, which he operates under the codename Citizen V .

In film, actor Adan Canto portrayed the character in X-Men: Days of Future Past . Henry Zaga portrayed the character at a younger age, in The New Mutants .

Origin

Sunspot, or Roberto da Costa, is Afro-Brazilian, the son of wealthy Afro-Brazilian businessman Emmanuel da Costa and his white American mother archaeologist Nina da Costa. In New Mutants #7, his father is described as a very driven man, who "grew up [… ] a barefoot houseboy", "by age 20 [… ] a millionaire [and] by 30, an economic and political force to be reckoned with." Emmanuel constantly pushes his son to reach for both his physical and intellectual limits. Thanks to his father's encouragement, Roberto rose to the position of star soccer player at school and was considered by recruiters for the Olympic Games.

When Roberto was playing a soccer game with his team, racist members of the opposing team assaulted him, and Roberto responded by initiating a fight on the field. While taking a brutal beating, his mutant powers manifested, suddenly transforming him into a creature of solid black solar energy. Surprised and terrified, people abandoned the stadium, and only his girlfriend Juliana refused to abandon him.

New Mutants

Within a matter of days, a mutant-hating faction led by Donald Pierce and employing Hellfire Club mercenaries kidnap Juliana, luring Roberto into a trap. He engages the kidnappers, but is eventually defeated when his power reserve runs out. Other mutants named Karma and Psyche rescue him. In the course of the following battle, Juliana sacrifices her life for Roberto, jumping in front of a bullet meant for him.

After the rescue, Roberto joins Karma and Psyche in pursuit of Donald Pierce. The three are joined by Wolfsbane, and after the battle by Sam Guthrie, a.k.a. Cannonball, one of Pierce's misguided mutant hirelings, despite initial reservations by the others. Professor X offers to train the five teenagers in controlling their nascent mutant powers, which they accept and thus become the founding members of the group known as the New Mutants, a group of junior X-Men. Although Professor Xavier's intentions are for them to only be students, over the course of the New Mutants ongoing series, they grow into superheroes, and they travel to such locations as space, Asgard, and the Amazon, as well as the past and the future. During his tenure with the New Mutants, he and Sam become best friends.

Sunspot was at one point injected with the drug that helped create Cloak and Dagger, and he briefly became a monster. Sunspot was later reunited with his parents, and then with the New Mutants he visited Nova Roma. He then encountered the White Queen and her Hellions for the first time. He was later abducted and forced to serve as one of the Gladiators. On another adventure with the New Mutants, he visited the land of Asgard. Alongside the New Mutants, he later fought Warlock's father, the Magus. He also battled Cameron Hodge and the Right. Alongside the New Mutants he battled Freedom Force. He also fell in love with the alien Gosamyr.

X-Force

When the time traveling antihero Cable takes over the New Mutants and turns them into the paramilitary group X-Force, Sunspot parts ways with the team. During this time Sunspot is tutored by Gideon of the Externals, an old business partner of Roberto's father (who has since died). Suspecting Sunspot to be a fellow External, he takes Sunspot under his wing. Gideon ends up experimenting on Sunspot, granting him new powers such as flight and the ability to fire blasts of solar energy. For a time Sunspot becomes lost in a space-time continuum after interfering with the teleportation powers of Locus. During this time, a villain called Reignfire comes onto the scene, showing a remarkable similar appearance to Sunspot.

Reignfire

The villain Reignfire first appears before Sunspot's mysterious disappearance in X-Force #28 (1993), when he assumes command of the Mutant Liberation Front. Dani Moonstar, who had infiltrated the MLF, sees Reignfire without his mask and believes him to be Sunspot, and in a battle with X-Force, Reignfire even removes his mask to reveal himself as Sunspot. The moment was interrupted by the Age of Apocalypse and when reality is restored, Cable 'heals'

Sunspot of this persona dominating his body, transferring some of his Askani knowledge into Sunspot, allowing Sunspot to speak the Askani language and know of their meditation techniques. In an incident where X-Force reconnected with former teammate Skids, it is discovered that Reignfire is actually a protoplasmic mutant symbiote injected with Sunspot's blood. Reignfire is seemingly permanently defeated when Sunspot leeches him of his powers, reducing him to his original protoplasmic state which is then claimed by S.H.I.E.L.D.

X-Force Roadtrip

Roberto later joins the rest of X-Force on an extended road trip, separating themselves from Cable. Along the way, they meet several problems, including Roberto's money being tied up in litigation, forcing the team into doing a variety of odd jobs. One included providing protection for a small businessman being hassled by elements of the mob. During this time, Roberto has a short fling with Sam's girlfriend Tabitha Smith, a teammate.

Hellfire Club

Later during his X-Force career, Roberto is approached by Selene of the Hellfire Club. She offers Roberto his deceased father Emmanuel's seat in the Club's Inner Circle, as the seats are inherited. She promises Roberto that she will resurrect Juliana if he joins and he agrees. Selene keeps her part of the bargain, but only to a certain extent. She does bring back the spirit of Juliana, but inserts it into the body of a comatose girl. Possibly because he felt obliged to fulfill his promise, Roberto decides to stay, becoming Selene's Black Rook. Roberto attempts to contact the resurrected Juliana, but seeing she has no memory of her previous life, he decides to leave her alone.

With no explanation given, Roberto next surfaces in the title X-Treme X-Men as the head of the Los Angeles branch of X-Corporation, along with former New Mutant Magma and former Hellion Empath. Roberto's ties to the Hellfire Club are not however severed, as Sebastian Shaw approaches, having taken over the position of Hellfire Club's Lord Imperial and wanting Roberto as his Black King. Shaw claims that he is trying to turn the Club into a force of good, so Roberto accepts, though he keeps his involvement with Shaw a secret.

Soon after, Shaw is injured in battle by Donald Pierce. His injuries make him incapable of overseeing the Hellfire Club. Roberto takes over as Lord Imperial.[ volume & issue needed ] At his side is Sage who leaves the X-Men to make sure Roberto is not corrupted by the power he wields.[ volume & issue needed ] After the events of M-Day, Cyclops calls for the shutting down of all branches of the X-Corporation to better pool the resources of the X-Men.[ volume & issue needed ] In Endangered Species, Sebastian Shaw seems to be thinking of reclaiming his place and to be quite mad at Sunspot.[ volume & issue needed ]

Secret Invasion

During the Secret Invasion storyline, Sunspot is among the several X-Men helping to fight off Skrulls during their invasion of San Francisco.

Young X-Men

Sunspot, who remains Lord Imperial of the Hellfire Club, is revealed by Cyclops to belong to the newest incarnation of the Brotherhood of Evil Mutants along with Danielle Moonstar, Cannonball, and Magma. However, while battling members of Cyclops' new team of X-Men alongside Cannonball, there is much confusion after Rockslide makes reference to the two mutants' membership in the Brotherhood. During the course of the battle, Sunspot is seriously wounded by Wolf Cub, who slashes Roberto's face and stomach with his claws. It is eventually revealed that "Cyclops" is in reality Donald Pierce, the former White King of the Hellfire Club, who is posing as the X-Men leader using an image inducer. Pierce's reasons for recruiting these "X-Men" is currently unknown, but it appears that his primary focus is to eliminate the Lord Imperial and utilized the ruse that Sunspot and his allies formed a new Brotherhood in order to convince the former Xavier students to attack their former teachers and allies.

Later on, Sunspot leaves the Hellfire Club and joins the X-Men in San Francisco as noted by Sebastian Shaw who is currently looking for a replacement. Cyclops later asks Sunspot and Danielle Moonstar to help train the Young X-Men and both accepted.

Reforming the New Mutants

After receiving an anonymous tip in Colorado about a young mutant endangering a small town, Dani and Shan are sent to investigate and calm the locals. During their mission, Magik reappears back at the X-Men's base in San Francisco after teleporting off into the future after the events of "X-Infernus". Upon her return she informs Sam and Roberto that Shan and Dani are in trouble and it will result in their deaths. Sam assembles a team consisting of himself, Sunspot, Magma, and Magik to go find them. While searching for them, Sam and Roberto come across a tied up and comatose Shan in the back of a bar, while Magik and Magma are tricked into freeing Legion from a box, who apparently has Shan's personality imprisoned inside of him. Roberto and Sam approach Karma's body but when Roberto gets too close he almost gets pulled into Legion's mind. After they leave the bar, they find they're surrounded by police; Roberto and Sam fly away to the jail to find Dani.

When they arrive, Legion is trying to kill Dani. After Roberto and Sam repel him, Legion comes back and Sunspot fights him. Cannonball soon joins him and they fend him off and regroup. During the fight, Legion takes on Magma, Cannonball, and Roberto, who gets seriously injured when Legion slashes him with a shard of metal.

New Avengers

After the events of Avengers vs. X-Men, Roberto and Sam are shown retired, no longer wishing to protect those that fear and hate them. The two are then offered membership in the Avengers by Captain America and eagerly accept, realizing that this may be a chance to save the world without suffering from the stigma they did while serving as X-Men. As revealed in a storyline that takes place eight months in the future, Roberto engages in a hostile takeover of the violent company Advanced Idea Mechanics and gets rid of the troublesome upper management. He re-tools this into Avengers Idea Mechanics, hiring various superheroes as a new Avengers team consisting of Hawkeye, Songbird, Squirrel Girl, Hulking, Wiccan, Power Man and White Tiger. S.H.I.E.L.D. sends two operatives, Dum Dum Dugan and Hawkeye to keep on eye on the team. Despite orders to spy on the new A.I.M., both men reveal their mission as they have come to respect Sunspot. His new team has annoyed the Maker, the Ultimate Universe's version of Reed Richards. The Maker's various plans cause trouble for the Avengers that bounces up and down the time stream.

U.

Following the deal that would get the Avengers Idea Mechanics to merge with the U.S. government as the American Intelligence Mechanics, Sunspot began to lead the U. under the alias of Citizen V. Their first mission takes place at the Secret Empire's floating volcanic island base. Red Hulk crash-landed into the floating volcanic island base, hard enough to destroy it. They're later approached by a future version of Danielle Cage as Captain America, who tells them that her nemesis, the Golden Skull, came to their timeline to steal all the wealth. In Miami, Florida, the team crash a charity gala only to discover that the wealthy CEO's were kidnapped and replaced by robots. During the battle, the team manages to defeat and capture the Golden Skull, who was wearing a golden armored suit. Danielle then goes back to her timeline with the Golden Skull as her prisoner. Sunspot then sends Red Hulk to confront and defeat an out-of-control American Kaiju, who was attacking Europe.

During the "Opening Salvo" part of the Secret Empire storyline, Captain America, whose memory was altered by Red Skull's clone using the powers of Kobik, has a meeting with Roberto da Costa and tells him that he is no longer in charge of the team. Roberto then sees footage of the supervillain attacks in Manhattan, deep space, and in Europe. At the beginning of the takeover, Roberto assembles the team until he is attacked by one of his scientists who has allied with Hydra. He's later seen in a prison cell, nearly dead, by Red Hulk and Toni Ho. While adjusting to prison life, Toni manages to heal Roberto just in time when Hydra soldiers show up at their cell. Roberto then manages to use his powers to defeat the guards and free Red Hulk from the nanites controlling him, allowing them to take control of the prison. In the aftermath of the event, Roberto, during a meeting with the team's new congressional liaison in the White House, resigns from his position despite the objections from the senator. He then meets Izzy Kane, Cannonball's wife, who tells him that Cannonball, who went missing in action during the takeover and was presumed dead, is still alive on another planet.

While travelling through space, Smasher and the U. are attacked by space pirates known as warpjackers. After a brief fight, the pirates tell them that Glenbrook is actually a planet named Kral X and that its ruler, Ritchie Redwood, is ruthless. Arriving in Kral X, the heroes manage to help Cannonball and the planet's rebels in overthrowing Ritchie. After restoring order to the planet, the heroes head home.

War of the Realms

After the Age of X-Man removes most X-Men members to an alternate reality, Sunspot reappears to assist Mirage and the remaining X-Men repel Malekith's invasion of Midgard. In a ploy to allow Magik to teleport the invading horde to Limbo, he breaks a cursed amulet blocking her powers, and in doing so, is vaporized, joining the fallen Valkyries in their journey to the afterlife.

Azazel

Azazel is the biological father of the hero known as Nightcrawler but far from being a paternal benefactor, he is instead a demonic antagonist who seeks world domination and fear - this of course made him an instant enemy of the X-Men.

Azazel claimed he was one of the oldest mutants, leader of a group of demonic-looking mutants called the Neyaphem. He even claimed that he once battled Mephisto and others for the title of "Satan". Thousands of years ago, the Neyaphem held war against the Cheyarafim, a group of xenophobic mutants with angelic appearances. The Cheyarafim were victorious, and banished the "demons" to a separate plane of existence, known as the Brimstone dimension.

Azazel was the only one who was able to breach the dimensional void for brief periods of time due to his teleportation powers, though he could use no other power, as he was still a prisoner. Attempting to find a way to permanently return to Earth, he began mating with strong women who had strange abilities, at least with looks and abilities other women didn't have, because his children are linked to his dimension, and successfully birthing a Neyaphem takes a great physical strain. Eventually, the mutant warlord met Mystique in Germany, when she was married to a rich castle lord named Baron Christian Wagner. Mystique was introduced to Azazel, whom Christian knew as a business partner, and the two were instantly attracted to one another, and although she was hesitant to betray Christian, she gave in to Azazel and they became intimate. Not much later, Mystique became pregnant with Nightcrawler.

Sometime before his son's birth, Azazel learned that the Cheyarafim were close to locating him. Azazel knew that without his full power, the Cheyarafim would surely kill Mystique and their unborn child as well as him. Though it pained him to be separated from Mystique, as he had come to truly love her, Azazel made it appear that she was a tool and that he had no feelings for her, then left. He was assured that Mystique and his son would be alright and find some way to survive.

Azazel sired several dozen other children, who were all mysteriously called to gather and sacrifice themselves on the island known as the Isla Des Demonas to open a portal and bring his army to earth to destroy both the Cheyarafim and what he calls "Normal" mutants, mutants who's bodies where not mutated and where not seen as monsters and demons. In addition to Nightcrawler, another son of Azazel's was the Genoshan called Abyss. They all joined each other in their zombie-like state and opened a portal to Azazel's dimension. A group of X-Men had followed Kurt to see where he was going and jumped into the portal. Once inside, Azazel took great sadistic pleasure in toying with the team, having them believe that he was actually Satan.

In the end, the X-Men defeated Azazel and his army and banished him to an unknown oblivion. The X-Men were able to escape along with two of Azazel's children who survived: Abyss and Kiwi Black. The whereabouts of Azazel have yet to be revealed.

If he survived this, it is unknown if he kept his powers or not, although Kiwi Black and Abyss are both depowered.

Me: Wow! Selene you were not kidding about these guys. Your former comrades really pack a wallop.

Nico: And we're gonna be in for one helluva battle.

Eli: We have to get them to talk and then broadcast their plans.

Ets: Yeah.

Quick Man: No way they'll willingly tell us their crimes. One of us is gonna have to catch them in the act.

Me: We'll have to plant a microphone that's nearly invisible and listen in on their conversation.

Nico: I think I know how we can do it.

Lisa Loud: With this.

She pulled out a tiny nanoscopic microphone that was no bigger than the point of a pin.

Me: Wow is that a microphone?

Lincoln: Where is it? I don't see it.

Lisa Loud: The Microphone is only 1/10 of an inch in size.

Me: Wow. As tiny as a pin point.

Lisa Loud: Precisely.

Me: But getting into their base is not gonna be easy.

Black Spider: Who's gonna plant that thing in their base?

Quicksilver: I will.

Luxord: I can stop time for your to do it.

Me: Awesome. They won't suspect a thing with time stopped.

Nico: Good thinking.

Me: Lets do it.

Luxord stopped time for a few seconds and Quicksilver used his powerful superspeed and went into the Hellfire Club HQ in New York City and planted it into Shaw's room and came back.

Quicksilver: It's done.

Luxord resumed time.

Lisa pulled out her audio tranceiver and receiver and we were in.

Me: We're in.

May: Aren't the Stepford Cuckoos part of the Hellfire Club too?

Nico: Yes they are.

Me: They are a problem.

Mystique: I remember the Stepford Cuckoos all too well.

Maria: Can they use the Phoenix Force as well? If that's the case, they'll also have fire powers.

Me: I remember them and lets see here.

I looked up their info and it showed that they have a Telepathic hive-like super-mind, telekinesis, flawless diamond form impervious to destruction or emotion.

Horsea: What does it say?

Me: It says that they have a Telepathic hive-like super-mind, telekinesis, flawless diamond form impervious to destruction or emotion.

Nico: Whoa! So we have to kill all three of them at once.

Maria: I can Hakai them from existence.

Kairi Yano: Considering how powreful the Hellfire Club members are, I've got no choice but to make a deal with the devil.

Tar Pit: (eyes widen) You're not thinking of asking the Gangler boss Dogranio Yaboon for help, are you?

Kairi Yano: (shocked) What?! No! I was talking about asking Zamigo Delma for help.

We gasped in shock!

Me: Kairi are you out of your mind!?

Nico: He killed so many of your friends by freezing them in ice!

Eli: Yeah he is a cold-blooded snake!

Kairi: I know it's wrong but I don't have a choice.

Me: Well if you have your reasons then go for it.

?: Someone call?

We turned and we saw ZAMIGO DELMA!

---

Zamigo Delma is the secondary antagonist of Kaitou Sentai Lupinranger VS Keisatsu Sentai Patranger. He is also the personal archenemy of Kairi Yano/Lupin Red and the entire group of Lupinrangers as a whole.

He is a trusted Gangler Monster minion of Dogranio Yabon, formerly regarded as a successor of the Interdimensional Crime Group Gangler's leadership until Zamigo renounced the chance to pursuit his own goals. He is responsible for the foundation of Lupinrangers and the apparent death of their loved ones.

He was portrayed by Jingi Irie.

Zamigo is a mysterious Ganglar Monster with ice abilities and often works alone. He is responsible for the formation of Lupinrangers, since he froze their loved ones during a rampage, making them to gather Lupin Collections in order to save them.

Zamigo acts mostly cold and distant towards his companions and often comments "so cold" on anything he finds tasteless. However, when facing Lupinrangers, he shows more of a flip side of his distant personality, revealing himself to be a pure sadist and showing no remorse in encasing Lupinrangers' loved once in ice, only referring his devastating rampage as something as easy as breathing.

It was revealed later in the series that Zamigo was resposible for multiple missing incidents and kidnappings, and he also skinned his victims off-screen to make human disguise for fellow Ganglar Monsters. Among them, there were Shiho Ichinose, the former Pat Green, whom he skinned and sold it to a Gangler Monster named Narizma Shibonz, who used it as a disguise to frame Noël Takao to be a Ganglar spy.

Zamigo later allowed Goche Ru Medou to implant a third safe on his lower back, giving him access to the power of the "Évade-toi de l'autre côté" that was previously in Goche's possession. During the final battle, using the Lupinrangers' loved ones as incentive, Zamigo challenges Lupin Red to a final duel within Dogranio's safe to endure no one would interfere before Lupin Blue and Yellow followed.

During his final struggle with Zamigo, Lupin Red armed himself with the Lupin Magnum after Zamigo's Lupin Collection is stolen. Then, Lupinrangers locked Zamigo's golden safes by the power of some Trigger Machines that Keiichiro lent to the Lupinrangers by Noël's request, unable to make Zamigo summon his ice pistol once more. Seizing the chance, Lupinrangers unleashed their ultimate attack on Zamigo, killing him. As he laid dying, Zamigo shattered into ice pieces and blue pedals, while commenting his final battle was fun and biding Lupinrangers farewell. Zamigo's death released his hostages back to the location where they were initially frozen.

Me: Zamigo Delma. I remember you all too well.

Nico: Looks like Vypra brought you back.

(THE GOOD THE BAD AND THE UGLY THEME PLAYS)

Zamigo Delma: Indeed she did.

Kairi Yano and Keiichiro couldn't believe they were making this decision. Right now, in front of them was the revived Zamigo Delma. Coconuts was next to the two Reds to make sure everything went smoothly.

Zamigo Delma: Well, well, well. Lupin Red. It's been a long time.

Kairi Yano: (sighs) Zamigo, I can't believe I'm saying this but… I need your help.

Zamigo Delma: Help? You and your friends are powerful enough on your own.

Keiichiro: There is a Mutant organization that is planning to either conquer or destroy the world. And while we can't ignore your crimes, we also can't deny the fact that those ice guns of yours will come in handy against the Hellfire Club. So, if you help us, you'll be pardoned for your crimes and you might even get a spot in the Masters of Evil.

Zamigo Delma (shrugs): Well, Vypra is more interesting then the old boss Dogranio. And she pretty much has the majority of the Ganglers in her service. But there's one more additional condition.

Coconuts: Name it.

Zamigo Delma: Grant me access to my safes. I can't use my ice guns without them. (Kairi Yano gives him a look) Hey, look at it this way. If I do try to pull a fast one on you all, we're all dead anyway.

Me: (Snaps fingers) Done.

Zamigo Delma: Like that?

Me: When you have the powers of a god you can do anything.

Zamigo Delma: So I see.

We were still waiting for the microphone to record any of the Hellfire Club's plans.

DC Enchantress: (to Zamigo Delma) You know what we also can't deny? How badass those ice guns are. And the fact that you look like Clint Eastwood.

Zamigo Delma: (Laughs) That is true.

Me: I looked like Clint Eastwood when we faced Evil Trouble Shoes.

I spun around and I was in my western outfit.

Me: (Imitating Clint Eastwood) What do you think?

Zamigo Delma: Very well made. You look just like him.

Me: (Smokes a peppermint stick) (Blows mint smoke) Nice impression.

Zamigo Delma: Nice one.

Gantu: Hold on. I think I hear Sebastion Shaw saying something!

I reverted back and we listened in.

Shaw: (On microphone) Now we can discuss our plans.

Donald Pierce: Which are what my lord?

Shaw: To destroy the entire universe with our newest weapon. We call it the Hellfire Dimension Destroyer Ray.

We gasped.

Shaw: It has the power to obliterate an entire galaxy in an instant.

Me: Whoa man.

Cavalier: Those fiends! We must show this to the authorities immediately!

Me: Indeed. Now we know what they are gonna do.

Nico: But we can't launch a frontal attack on them while they still have their powers.

Me: And I know just how we can get rid of their powers. Nico are you thinking what I'm thinking?

Nico: Contingency Plans that Talon used against us?

Me: Bingo.

Zamigo Delma: (confused) I don't get it. Usually, charging in with an entrance usually works for all of you.

Overbite: Well, if we do that here, the Hellfire Club will be able to slaughter us until there's nothing left!

Me: Overbite is right. When dealing with a situation like this we have to come up with a plan. If they were able to overwhelm the X-Men and the Brotherhood of Mutants with ease then they can do the same to us.

Nico: That's right.

Me: Our recklessness nearly got us killed many times before in the past and it was because we had Dark Orbs in us without even knowing it.

Laney: Now we are more smart and strategic.

Nico: Yep.

Bima: Wow that's rough.

Papi: No kidding.

Me: Lisa, Ed, I'll need you two to make a powerful poison that will take effect immediately and neutralize their powers.

Ed Cowart: We're on it.

Lisa Loud: Affirmative.

Lisa and Ed got to work.

Overdrive: Before we head out there, I need a vehicle to take control of.

Nick Fury: You can use one of our SHIELD Tanks.

Overdrive: Wow thanks!

Me: Awesome.

Lisa Loud and Ed Cowart came back and they had the poison ready.

Ed Cowart: Here J.D.

Me: Awesome.

He handed me a beaker full of a glowing red liquid.

I filled up 20 auto injectors full of the poison.

Me: There.

Selene: Me and Octopunch will get them with the poison.

Me: Okay. When you give them the poison we'll give our entrance.

Octopunch: Right.

Me: Lets go. (Eyes Glow Red) Get ready Hellfire Club, you will pay for every one of your crimes in blood.

We went to the headquarters of the Hellfire Club.

---

At 840th Avenue in New York City, we waited outside for Selene and Octopunch.

Sebastion Shaw: Ah, Selene. So nice of you and your Decepticon friend to drop by. Do you need anything?

Selene said nothing and just tossed the insanity chip onto the table.

Selene: I found this on Dark Phoenix!

Donald Pierce: We had no choice. You were the one who left us.

Octopunch: That doesn't mean you can go behind Selene's back and do shit like this!

Sebastion Shaw, having had enough, growls and throws a dagger at the two. They both dodge it and Octopunch fires his harpoon gun at Shaw. Shaw avoids it and Harry Leland ends up getting hit instead.

Skewering him through the wall.

Selene: You will pay for your crimes.

Selene then hit them with numerous darts full of the poison and stripped them of their powers!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion blasted through the windows of the Hellfire Club HQ and a phoenix cry was heard and then the fire turned into ice blasts and they hit a Donald Pierce and Azazel and killed them and we landed.

Me: Sebastian Shaw, so we meet at last.

Shaw: Team Loud Phoenix Storm. Didn't expect you all to come in.

Me: You will pay for every one of your crimes Shaw.

Count Vertigo fired a vertigo ray at Shaw, making him dizzy.

Count Vertigo: Even your powers can't resist mine. Now, tell us where the Destroyer Ray is!

Shaw: Never!

Me: Then we do this the hard way!

Anko: Yeah!

Bima: And it will hurt!

Papi: Bad!

Shaw then grabbed me.

Shaw: You won't think so when I have your energy.

But I smirked in amusement.

Shaw: What!? What's happening? You should be weak.

Me: Your powers are gone.

Ed Cowart: We used a powerful poison on you to destroy your powers.

Vince: You are completely helpless against us now.

Stewie: Guys, take the battle to another planet so no one gets hurt! That will make sure no one's guarding the Destroyer Ray while me and Brian stay behind to destroy it!

Me: Right and I know just the one.

I snapped my fingers and we were on a rainy swamp planet and we were in a giant force field dome.

Nico: Whoa! Look at this planet.

Gwen: Wow we're on the planet Scalpasc.

Ben: This is Spittor's home planet.

Vince: Wow so this is Scalpasc.

Shanan: We're 12,123 light-years from home.

Me: And I put up this force field dome to protect us from the planet's poisonous atmosphere.

Nico: Good thinking.

Copperhead, Scorpion, Hank Scorpio, Taskmaster, Dayu, Biowulf, Top, Vulkanus, Whiplash (He-Man 2002) and Count Marzo then then appeared.

Me: Copperhead, Scorpion, Hank Scorpio, Taskmaster, Dayu, Biowulf, Top, Vulkanus, Whiplash and Count Marzo.

Hank Scorpio: Good seeing you all out here.

Biowulf: You said it.

Hank Scorpio: You guys haven't been to an Omnitrix Alien's home planet in a while.

Taskmaster: And it's Scalpasc this time.

Copperhead: A swamp with poisonous, noxious fumes? (smirks) I like it!

Scorpion: So do I!

Me: I figured you guys would but the air is poisonous so I put up a force field to protect us.

Nico: Yep.

?: That's smart thinking.

A figure came out and it was FIREOR from episode 5 of Lightspeed Rescue!

Fireor is a gargoyle-themed fire samurai demon who serves as the primary antagonist of the episode "A Matter of Trust" and minor antagonist of the episode "Sorcerer of the Sands".

Baby Impus created his very first demon card, a samurai-like monster named Fireor. After Jinxer summoned him, Loki attacked him and was defeated by Fireor. Impressed by his power, Diabolico sent him to steal the fuel cell. There, he fought the Lightspeed Rangers (with Dana being absent to help a friend of her father who secretly had the Power Cell) with an army of Batlings to aid him in battle. Carter fought the monster and was quickly outmatched. Fireor managed to steal the case, but found, much to his surprise it was empty. He deduced that the power cell was with Dana, so he created a circle of fire above the city, which is drawing on the sun's power to roast the citizens of Mariner Bay, and started to shoot fireballs at the city. The Rangers found him on top of a tower and he sent an army of Batlings to battle the Rangers. The Rangers took the battle with Fireor onto the ground and were quickly outmatched, but before he could finish them, Dana came to the rescue. Fireor escaped into an old building with the Lightspeed Rangers following him. The Rangers had the upper hand until Fireor used the power of the sun on them, knocking them out, only for it to turn out to be a trick by the Rangers, who held him down long enough for his own fireball to destroy him. Fireor was enlarged by Jinxer and the Rangers summoned the Lightspeed Megazord to battle him. Fireor had the upper hand until the Megazord used the Ladder Arms to get the upper hand. Fireor was then destroyed by the Lightspeed Megazord Sabre.

Dana Mitchell: Fireor!

Fireor: Been a long time rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were sent to steel a powerful fuel cell and you used the sun's power to roast the citizens of the city and destroy it with fireballs.

Fireor: That's right J.D. You have a really good memory.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Fireor: Not only is this my first battle but I also chose my first archenemy.

Dana Mitchell: Already?!

Fireor: Yep and I picked Wheeler.

Wheeler: Wow! I'm honored.

Fireor: And it's not just me.

A ring of leaves portal then appeared and out of it came HAWK'S EYE!

---

Hawk's Eye is one of the Amazon Trio who serve Zirconia.

Hawk's Eye was originally a hawk, until he was turned into a human by Zirconia.

As one of the Amazon Trio, he arrived on Earth with the Dark Moon Circus. Zirconia sent them to capture Pegasus.

Unlike Tiger's Eye, Hawk's Eye always targeted older women. The exception was when he and Tiger's Eye competed over who got to extract Mina's dream mirror. Whenever Sailor Moon attacked him, he would send a female Remless to kill her.

Hawk's Eye was the last character Sailor Moon attacked with Moon Spiral Heart Attack. He blocked it easily.

While targeting Mina, Hawk's Eye pretended he was a man named Charlie.

He attempted to find Pegasus five times. The Remless he sent were Cannonball, Buranko, Gittanko, Autobiko, and Elephanko.

Zirconia eventually revealed to the trio that they had a queen, Queen Nehelenia, and that they were originally a tiger, a hawk, and a fish, and would be changed back if they did not find Pegasus soon. When Zirconia thought Serena was the holder of Pegasus, he sent Hawk's Eye after her. He extracted her dream mirror, but before he could look into it, Fish Eye tried to stop him. As Tiger's Eye held her back, she revealed to him that Serena was Sailor Moon.

Then, Mr. Magic Pierrot appeared, sent by ParaPara to kill the trio, on Zirconia's orders. After destroying Serena's dream mirror, he directed an attack at Fish Eye, but Hawk's Eye jumped in front of her and took the hit. Before dying, he gave the green orb that gave them their power to Fish Eye and Tiger's Eye.

After both were killed giving up their power to rebuild Serena's dream mirror and allow her to transform and destroy Mr. Magic Pierrot, all three of them reverted to their original forms. Pegasus revived them in their human forms, gave them dream mirrors, and took them to live in Elysion.

Hawk's Eye: Hawk's Eye, Present!

Natilee: Hawk's Eye it's great to see you!

Hawk's Eye: You too Natilee.

Natilee: I take it you heard about how I killed Nehelenia and Zirconia?

Hawk's Eye: I sure did and we are forever grateful.

Me: They deserved it. Lets do it.

Eli fired a wave of earth by punching the ground and it formed into the meanest dinosaur that ever lived from 68 million years ago: Tyrannosaurus Rex!

Tyrannosaurus is a genus of coelurosaurian theropod dinosaur. The species Tyrannosaurus rex, often called T. rex or colloquially T-Rex, is one of the most well-represented of the large theropods. Tyrannosaurus lived throughout what is now western North America, on what was then an island continent known as Laramidia. Tyrannosaurus had a much wider range than other tyrannosaurids. Fossils are found in a variety of rock formations dating to the Maastrichtian age of the upper Cretaceous period, 68 to 66 million years ago. It was the last known member of the tyrannosaurids, and among the last non-avian dinosaurs to exist before the Cretaceous-Paleogene extinction event.

Like other tyrannosaurids, Tyrannosaurus was a bipedal carnivore with a massive skull balanced by a long, heavy tail. Relative to its large and powerful hind limbs, Tyrannosaurus forelimbs were short but unusually powerful for their size and had two clawed digits. The most complete specimen measures up to 12.3 meters (40 feet) in length though T. rex could grow to lengths of over 12.3 m (40 ft), up to 3.66 m (12 ft) tall at the hips, and according to most modern estimates 8.4 metric tons (9.3 short tons) to 14 metric tons (15.4 short tons) in weight. Although other theropods rivaled or exceeded

Tyrannosaurus rex in size, it is still among the largest known land predators and is estimated to have exerted the strongest bite force among all terrestrial animals. By far the largest carnivore in its environment, Tyrannosaurus rex was most likely an apex predator, preying upon hadrosaurs, armored herbivores like ceratopsians and ankylosaurs, and possibly sauropods. Some experts have suggested the dinosaur was primarily a scavenger. The question of whether Tyrannosaurus was an apex predator or a pure scavenger was among the longest debates in paleontology. Most paleontologists today accept that Tyrannosaurus was both an active predator and a scavenger.

Hunter: (German Accent) INFERNO STYLE NINJA ART: SPINOSAURUS!

Hunter fired a wave of black fire and it formed into the largest and meanest carnivorous dinosaur that ever lived from 112 million years ago in Egypt: Spinosaurus!

Spinosaurus (meaning "spine lizard") is a genus of spinosaurid dinosaur that lived in what now is North Africa during the upper Albian to upper Turonian stages of the Cretaceous period, about 112 to 93.5 million years ago. This genus was known first from Egyptian remains discovered in 1912 and described by German paleontologist Ernst Stromer in 1915. The original remains were destroyed in World War II, but additional material has come to light in the early 21st century. It is unclear whether one or two species are represented in the fossils reported in the scientific literature. The best known species is S. aegyptiacus from Egypt, although a potential second species, S. maroccanus, has been recovered from Morocco. The contemporary spinosaurid genus Sigilmassasaurus has also been synonymized by some authors with S. aegyptiacus, though other researchers propose it to be a distinct taxon. Another possible junior synonym is Oxalaia from the Alcântara Formation in Brazil.

Spinosaurus was among the largest of all known carnivorous dinosaurs, nearly as large as or even larger than other theropods such as Tyrannosaurus, Giganotosaurus and Carcharodontosaurus. Estimates published in 2005, 2007, and 2008 suggested that it was between 12.6 to 18 meters (41 to 59 ft) in length and 7 to 20.9 metric tons (7.7 to 23.0 short tons) in weight. New estimates published in 2014 and 2018, based on a more complete specimen, supported the earlier research, finding that Spinosaurus could reach lengths of 15 to 16 meters (49 to 52 ft). The latest estimates suggest a weight of 6.4 to 7.5 metric tons (7.1 to 8.3 short tons). The skull of Spinosaurus was long, low and narrow, similar to that of a modern crocodilian, and bore straight conical teeth with no serrations. It would have had large, robust forelimbs bearing three-fingered hands, with an enlarged claw on the first digit. The distinctive neural spines of Spinosaurus, which were long extensions of the vertebrae (or backbones), grew to at least 1.65 meters (5.4 ft) long and were likely to have had skin connecting them, forming a sail-like structure, although some authors[who?] have suggested that the spines were covered in fat and formed a hump. Spinosaurus's hip bones were reduced, and the legs were very short in proportion to the body. Its long and narrow tail was deepened by tall, thin neural spines and elongated chevrons, forming a flexible fin or paddle-like structure.

Axel Adell: (Swedish Accent) ICE STYLE NINJA ART: WOOLLY MAMMOTH!

Axel fired a wave of ice and it formed into the famous and widely known ancestral elephants from 800,000 years ago: The Woolly Mammoth.

---

The woolly mammoth (Mammuthus primigenius) is an extinct species of mammoth that lived during the Pleistocene until its extinction in the Holocene epoch. It was one of the last in a line of mammoth species, beginning with Mammuthus subplanifrons in the early Pliocene. The woolly mammoth began to diverge from the steppe mammoth about 800,000 years ago in East Asia. Its closest extant relative is the Asian elephant. The appearance and behaviour of this species are among the best studied of any prehistoric animal because of the discovery of frozen carcasses in Siberia and Alaska, as well as skeletons, teeth, stomach contents, dung, and depiction from life in prehistoric cave paintings. Mammoth remains had long been known in Asia before they became known to Europeans in the 17th century. The origin of these remains was long a matter of debate, and often explained as being remains of legendary creatures. The mammoth was identified as an extinct species of elephant by Georges Cuvier in 1796.

The woolly mammoth was roughly the same size as modern African elephants. Males reached shoulder heights between 2.7 and 3.4 m (8.9 and 11.2 ft) and weighed up to 6 metric tons (6.6 short tons). Females reached 2.6-2.9 m (8.5-9.5 ft) in shoulder heights and weighed up to 4 metric tons (4.4 short tons). A newborn calf weighed about 90 kg (200 lb). The woolly mammoth was well adapted to the cold environment during the last ice age. It was covered in fur, with an outer covering of long guard hairs and a shorter undercoat. The colour of the coat varied from dark to light. The ears and tail were short to minimise frostbite and heat loss. It had long, curved tusks and four molars, which were replaced six times during the lifetime of an individual. Its behaviour was similar to that of modern elephants, and it used its tusks and trunk for manipulating objects, fighting, and foraging. The diet of the woolly mammoth was mainly grasses and sedges. Individuals could probably reach the age of 60. Its habitat was the mammoth steppe, which stretched across northern Eurasia and North America.

The woolly mammoth coexisted with early humans, who used its bones and tusks for making art, tools, and dwellings, and the species was also hunted for food. It disappeared from its mainland range at the end of the Pleistocene 10,000 years ago. Isolated populations survived on St. Paul Island until 5,600 years ago and on Wrangel Island until 4,000 years ago. After its extinction, humans continued using its ivory as a raw material, a tradition that continues today. With a genome project for the mammoth completed in 2015, it has been proposed the species could be revived through various means, but none of the methods proposed are yet feasible.

Dana: ICE STYLE NINJA ART: SABER-TOOTH CAT!

Dana fired a wave of ice and it formed into the ancestral cats of 42 million years ago: The Saber-Toothed Cats!

---

A saber-toothed cat (alternatively spelled sabre-toothed cat) is any member of various extinct groups of predatory mammals that are characterized by long, curved saber-shaped canine teeth which protruded from the mouth even when closed. The saber-toothed cats have been found almost worldwide from the Eocene epoch to the end of the Pleistocene epoch 42 million years ago (mya) - 11,000 years ago (kya). The first saber-toothed cat fossil in Canada was found in Medicine Hat, Alberta.

One of the best-known genera is Smilodon, species of which, especially S. fatalis, are popularly, but incorrectly, referred to as "saber-toothed tigers". However, usage of the word cat is in some cases a misnomer, as many species referred to as saber-toothed "cats" are not closely related to modern cats (Felidae). Instead, many are members are classified into different families of Feliformia, such as Barbourofelidae and Nimravidae; the oxyaenid "creodont" genera Machaeroides and Apataelurus; and two extinct lineages of metatherian mammals, the thylacosmilids of Sparassodonta, and deltatheroideans, which are more closely related to marsupials. In this regard, saber-toothed cats can be viewed as examples of convergent evolution. This convergence is remarkable due not only to the development of elongated canines, but also a suite of other characteristics, such as a wide gape and bulky forelimbs, which is so consistent that it has been termed the "saber-tooth suite."

Of the feliform lineages, the family Nimravidae is the oldest, entering the landscape around 42 mya and becoming extinct by 7.2 mya. Barbourofelidae entered around 16.9 mya and were extinct by 9 mya. These two would have shared some habitats.

Lana: ICE STYLE NINJA ART: WOOLLY RHINOCEROS!

Lana fired a wave of ice and it formed into the Ice Age ancestors of modern day Rhinoceroses from 3.6 Million years ago: The Woolly

Rhinoceros!

---

The woolly rhinoceros (Coelodonta antiquitatis) is an extinct species of rhinoceros that was common throughout Europe and northern Asia during the Pleistocene epoch and survived until the end of the last glacial period. The woolly rhinoceros was a member of the Pleistocene megafauna.

The woolly rhinoceros was covered with thick and long hair, which allowed it to survive in the extremely cold, harsh mammoth steppe. It also had a massive hump reaching from its shoulder. It fed mainly on herbaceous plants that grew in the steppe.

Mummified carcasses preserved in permafrost and many bone remains of woolly rhinoceroses have been found. Images of woolly rhinoceroses are found among cave paintings in Europe and Asia.

Killer Frost: ICE STYLE NINJA ART: IRISH ELK!

Killer Frost fired a wave of ice and it formed into the largest deer ever known that lived 2.5 million years ago: The Irish Elk.

---

The Irish elk (Megaloceros giganteus) also called the giant deer or Irish deer, is an extinct species of deer in the genus Megaloceros and is one of the largest deer that ever lived. Its range extended across Eurasia during the Pleistocene, from Ireland to Lake Baikal in Siberia. The most recent remains of the species have been carbon dated to about 7,700 years ago in Siberia.

Although abundant skeletal remains have been found in bogs in Ireland, the animal was not exclusive to Ireland nor closely related to either of the living species currently called elk: Alces alces (the European elk, known in North America as the moose) or Cervus canadensis (the North American elk or wapiti). For this reason, the name "giant deer" is used in some publications, instead of "Irish elk". Although one study suggested that the Irish elk was closely related to the red deer (Cervus elaphus), most other phylogenetic analyses support that their closest living relatives are fallow deer (Dama dama).

Maggie: ICE STYLE NINJA ART: SHORT-FACED BEAR!

Maggie fired a wave of ice and it formed into the Ice Age bear from 1.8 million years ago: The Short-Faced Bear.

---

The short-faced bear (Arctodus sp.) is an extinct bear genus that inhabited North America during the Pleistocene epoch from about 1.8 Mya until 11,000 years ago. It was the most common early North American bear and was most abundant in California. There are two recognized species: the lesser short-faced bear (Arctodus pristinus) and the giant short-faced bear (Arctodus simus), with the latter considered to be one of the largest known terrestrial mammalian carnivores that has ever existed. It has been hypothesized that their extinction coincides with the Younger Dryas period of global cooling commencing around 10,900 BC.

Khalyaka: (India Accent) EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: TARBOSAURUS BABAAR!

Khalyaka fired a wave of earth and it formed into the terrible theropod of 70 million years ago: Tarbosaurus!

---

Tarbosaurus (meaning "alarming lizard") is a genus of tyrannosaurid theropod dinosaur that flourished in Asia about 70 million years ago, at the end of the Late Cretaceous Period, considered to contain a single known species, Tarbosaurus bataar. Fossils have been recovered in Mongolia, with more fragmentary remains found further afield in parts of China.

Although many species have been named, modern paleontologists recognize only one, T. bataar, as valid. Some experts see this species as an Asian representative of the North American genus Tyrannosaurus; this would make the genus Tarbosaurus redundant. Tarbosaurus and Tyrannosaurus, if not synonymous, are considered to be at least closely related genera. Alioramus, also from Mongolia, has previously been thought by some authorities to be the closest relative of Tarbosaurus, though this has since been disproven with the discovery of Qianzhousaurus and the description of the Alioramini.

Like most known tyrannosaurids, Tarbosaurus was a large bipedal predator, weighing up to 5 metric tons (5.5 short tons) and equipped with about sixty large teeth. It had a unique locking mechanism in its lower jaw and the smallest forelimbs relative to body size of all tyrannosaurids, renowned for their disproportionately tiny, two-fingered forelimbs.

Tarbosaurus lived in a humid floodplain criss-crossed by river channels. In this environment, it was an apex predator, probably preying on other large dinosaurs like the hadrosaur Saurolophus or the sauropod Nemegtosaurus. Tarbosaurus is represented by dozens of fossil specimens, including several complete skulls and skeletons. These remains have allowed scientific studies focusing on its phylogeny, skull mechanics, and brain structure.

Lynn: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: APATOSAURUS!

Lynn fired a wave of Earth and it formed into the famous sauropod from 158 million years ago: Apatosaurus!

Apatosaurus is a genus of herbivorous sauropod dinosaur that lived in North America during the Late Jurassic period. Othniel Charles Marsh described and named the first-known species, A. ajax, in 1877, and a second species, A. louisae, was discovered and named by William H. Holland in 1916. Apatosaurus lived about 152 to 151 million years ago (mya), during the late Kimmeridgian to early Tithonian age, and are now known from fossils in the Morrison

Formation of modern-day Colorado, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Wyoming, and Utah in the United States. Apatosaurus had an average length of 21-22.8 m (69-75 ft), and an average mass of 16.4-22.4 t (16.1-22.0 long tons; 18.1-24.7 short tons). A few specimens indicate a maximum length of 11-30% greater than average and a mass of 32.7-72.6 t (32.2-71.5 long tons; 36.0-80.0 short tons).

The cervical vertebrae of Apatosaurus are less elongated and more heavily constructed than those of Diplodocus, a diplodocid like Apatosaurus, and the bones of the leg are much stockier despite being longer, implying that Apatosaurus was a more robust animal. The tail was held above the ground during normal locomotion. Apatosaurus had a single claw on each forelimb and three on each hindlimb. The Apatosaurus skull, long thought to be similar to Camarasaurus, is much more similar to that of Diplodocus. Apatosaurus was a generalized browser that likely held its head elevated. To lighten its vertebrae, Apatosaurus had air sacs that made the bones internally full of holes. Like that of other diplodocids, its tail may have been used as a whip to create loud noises.

The skull of Apatosaurus was confused with that of Camarasaurus and Brachiosaurus until 1909, when the holotype of A. louisae was found, and a complete skull just a few meters away from the front of the neck. Henry Fairfield Osborn disagreed with this association, and went on to mount a skeleton of Apatosaurus with a Camarasaurus skull cast. Apatosaurus skeletons were mounted with speculative skull casts until 1970, when McIntosh showed that more robust skulls assigned to Diplodocus were more likely from Apatosaurus.

Apatosaurus is a genus in the family Diplodocidae. It is one of the more basal genera, with only Amphicoelias and possibly a new, unnamed genus more primitive. While the subfamily Apatosaurinae was named in 1929, the group was not used validly until an extensive 2015 study. Only Brontosaurus is also in the subfamily, with the other genera being considered synonyms or reclassified as diplodocines. Brontosaurus has long been considered a junior synonym of Apatosaurus; its type species was reclassified as A. excelsus in 1903. A 2015 study concluded that Brontosaurus is a valid genus of sauropod distinct from Apatosaurus, but not all paleontologists agree with this division. As it existed in North America during the late Jurassic, Apatosaurus would have lived alongside dinosaurs such as Allosaurus, Camarasaurus, Diplodocus, and Stegosaurus.

Laney: FOREST STYLE NINJA ART: DIPLODOCUS!

Laney fired a wave of trees and leaves and it formed into the famous sauropod from 154 million years ago: Diplodocus!

Diplodocus is a genus of diplodocid sauropod dinosaurs whose fossils were first discovered in 1877 by S. W. Williston. The generic name, coined by Othniel Charles Marsh in 1878, is a neo-Latin term derived from Greek διπλός (diplos) "double" and δοκός (dokos) "beam", in reference to the double-beamed chevron bones located in the underside of the tail, which were then considered unique.

This genus of dinosaurs lived in what is now mid-western North America at the end of the Jurassic period. It is one of the more common dinosaur fossils found in the middle to upper Morrison Formation, between about 154 and 152 million years ago, during the late Kimmeridgian age. The Morrison Formation records an environment and time dominated by gigantic sauropod dinosaurs, such as Apatosaurus, Barosaurus, Brachiosaurus, Brontosaurus, and Camarasaurus. Its great size may have been a deterrent to the predators Allosaurus and Ceratosaurus: their remains have been found in the same strata, which suggests that they coexisted with Diplodocus.

Diplodocus is among the most easily identifiable dinosaurs, with its typical sauropod shape, long neck and tail, and four sturdy legs. For many years, it was the longest dinosaur known.

May: ICE STYLE NINJA ART: LEAELLYNASAURA!

May fired a wave of ice and it formed into the Australian dinosaur from 118 million years ago: Leaellynasaura!

Leaellynasaura is a genus of small herbivorous ornithischian dinosaurs from the Albian stage of the Early Cretaceous (dated to between 118 and 110 million years ago), first discovered in Dinosaur Cove, Australia. The only known species is Leaellynasaura amicagraphica. It was described in 1989, and named after Leaellyn Rich, the daughter of the Australian palaeontologist couple Tom Rich and Patricia Vickers-Rich who discovered it. The specific name, amicagraphica, translates to "friend writing" and honours both the Friends of the Museum of Victoria and the National Geographic Society for their support of Australian paleontology.

Lori: WIND STYLE NINJA ART: ALLOSAURUS!

Lori fired a wave of wind and it formed into the vicious theropod from 155 million years ago: Allosaurus!

Allosaurus is a genus of carnivorous theropod dinosaur that lived 155 to 145 million years ago during the late Jurassic period (Kimmeridgian to late Tithonian). The name "Allosaurus" means "different lizard" alluding to its unique concave vertebrae (at the time of its discovery). It is derived from the Greek ἄλλος (allos) ("different, other") and σαῦρος (sauros) ("lizard / generic reptile"). The first fossil remains that could definitively be ascribed to this genus were described in 1877 by paleontologist Othniel Charles Marsh. As one of the first well-known theropod dinosaurs, it has long attracted attention outside of paleontological circles.

Allosaurus was a large bipedal predator. Its skull was large and equipped with dozens of sharp, serrated teeth. It averaged 9.5 meters (31 ft) in length, though fragmentary remains suggest it could have reached over 12 m (39 ft). Relative to the large and powerful hindlimbs, its three-fingered forelimbs were small, and the body was balanced by a long and heavily muscled tail. It is classified as an allosaurid, a type of carnosaurian theropod dinosaur. The genus has a complicated taxonomy, and includes three valid species, the best known of which is A. fragilis. The bulk of Allosaurus remains have come from North America's Morrison Formation, with material also known from Portugal. It was known for over half of the 20th century as Antrodemus, but a study of the copious remains from the Cleveland-Lloyd Dinosaur Quarry brought the name "Allosaurus" back to prominence and established it as one of the best-known dinosaurs.

As the most abundant large predator in the Morrison Formation, Allosaurus was at the top of the food chain, probably preying on contemporaneous large herbivorous dinosaurs, and perhaps other predators. Potential prey included ornithopods, stegosaurids, and sauropods. Some paleontologists interpret Allosaurus as having had cooperative social behavior, and hunting in packs, while others believe individuals may have been aggressive toward each other, and that congregations of this genus are the result of lone individuals feeding on the same carcasses.

Leni: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: OMEISAURUS!

Leni fired a wave of water and it formed into one of the largest dinosaurs from 173 million years ago: Omeisaurus!

---

Omeisaurus (meaning "Omei lizard") is a genus of sauropod dinosaur from the Middle Jurassic Period (Bathonian-Callovian stage) of what is now China. Its name comes from Mount Emei, where it was discovered in the lower Shaximiao Formation of Sichuan Province.

Like other sauropods, Omeisaurus was herbivorous and large. It measured 20.2 metres (66 ft) long, and weighed 9.8 tonnes.

Luna: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: SUCHOMIMUS!

Luna fired a wave of water and it formed into the ferocious spinosaurid dinosaur from 125 million years ago: Suchomimus!

Suchomimus (meaning "crocodile mimic") is a genus of spinosaurid dinosaur that lived between 125 and 112 million years ago in what is now Niger, during the Aptian to early Albian stages of the Early Cretaceous period. The animal was named and described by palaeontologist Paul Sereno and colleagues in 1998, based on a partial skeleton from the Erlhaz Formation. Suchomimus's long and shallow skull, similar to that of a crocodile, earns it its generic name, while the specific name Suchomimus tenerensis alludes to the locality of its first remains, the Ténéré Desert.

Suchomimus was 9.5 to 11 metres (31 to 36 feet) long and weighed between 2.5 to 5.2 tonnes (2.8 to 5.7 short tons), although the holotype specimen may not have been fully grown. Suchomimus's narrow skull was perched on a short neck, and its forelimbs were powerfully built, bearing a giant claw on each thumb. Along the midline of the animal's back ran a low dorsal sail, built from the long neural spines of its vertebrae. Like other spinosaurids, it likely had a diet of fish and small prey animals.

Some palaeontologists consider the animal to be an African species of the European spinosaurid Baryonyx, B. tenerensis. Suchomimus might also be a junior synonym of the contemporaneous spinosaurid Cristatusaurus lapparenti, although the latter taxon is based on much more fragmentary remains. Suchomimus lived in a fluvial environment of vast floodplains alongside many other dinosaurs, in addition to pterosaurs, crocodylomorphs, fish, turtles, and bivalves.

Stella: SCORCH STYLE NINJA ART: OURANOSAURUS!

Stella fired a wave of fire and it formed into the Iguanodont from 100 million years ago: Ouranosaurus.

---

Ouranosaurus is a genus of herbivorous iguanodont dinosaur that lived during the Aptian stage of the Early Cretaceous of modern-day Niger. Ouranosaurus measured about 7 to 8.3 metres (23 to 27 ft) long. Two rather complete fossils were found in the Elrhaz Formation, Gadoufaoua deposits, Agadez, Niger, in 1965 and 1970. The animal was named in 1976 by French paleontologist Philippe Taquet; the type species being Ouranosaurus nigeriensis. The name is a combination of the Arabic word for "courage" and the country of discovery, although ourane is also the Tuareg name for the desert monitor.

Becca Chang: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: TITANOBOA!

Becca fired a wave of water that formed into the Colombian giant snake from 60 million years ago: Titanoboa!

---

Titanoboa (/tiˌtɑːnoʊˈboʊə/) is an extinct genus of very large snakes that lived in what is now La Guajira in northeastern Colombia. They could grow up to 12.8 m (42 ft) long and reach a weight of 1,135 kg (2,500 lb).

Fossils of Titanoboa have been found in the Cerrejón Formation, and date to around 58 to 60 million years ago. The giant snake lived during the Middle to Late Paleocene epoch, a 10-million-year period immediately following the Cretaceous-Paleogene extinction event.

The only known species is Titanoboa cerrejonensis, the largest snake ever discovered, which supplanted the previous record holder, Gigantophis.

Syd: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: OPHTHALMOSAURUS!

Syd fired a wave of water and it formed into the Ichthyosaur from 165 million years ago: Ophthalmosaurus!

---

Ophthalmosaurus (meaning "eye lizard" in Greek) is an ichthyosaur of the Middle Jurassic period (165-160 million years ago), named for its extremely large eyes. It had a graceful 6 m (19.5 ft) long dolphin-shaped body, and its almost toothless jaw was well adapted for catching squid. Major fossil finds of this genus have been recorded in Europe and North and South America.

Girl Jordan: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: ELASMOSAURUS!

Girl Jordan fired a wave of water and it formed into the huge long-necked plesiosaurus from 80.5 million years ago: Elasmosaurus!

Elasmosaurus is a genus of plesiosaur that lived in North America during the Campanian stage of the Late Cretaceous period, about 80.5 million years ago. The first specimen was discovered in 1867 near Fort Wallace, Kansas, US, and was sent to the American paleontologist Edward Drinker Cope, who named it E. platyurus in 1868. The generic name means "thin-plate reptile", and the specific name means "flat-tailed". Cope originally reconstructed the skeleton of Elasmosaurus with the skull at the end of the tail, an error which was made light of by the paleontologist Othniel Charles Marsh, and became part of their "Bone Wars" rivalry. Only one incomplete Elasmosaurus skeleton is definitely known, consisting of a fragmentary skull, the spine, and the pectoral and pelvic girdles, and a single species is recognized today; other species are now considered invalid or have been moved to other genera.

Measuring 10.3 meters (34 ft) long, Elasmosaurus would have had a streamlined body with paddle-like limbs, a short tail, a small head, and an extremely long neck. The neck alone was around 7.1 meters (23 ft) long. Along with its relative Albertonectes, it was one of the longest-necked animals to have lived, with the largest number of neck vertebrae known, 72. The skull would have been slender and triangular, with large, fang-like teeth at the front, and smaller teeth towards the back. It had six teeth in each premaxilla of the upper jaw, and may have had 14 teeth in the maxilla and 19 in the dentary of the lower jaw. Most of the neck vertebrae were compressed sideways, and bore a longitudinal crest or keel along the sides.

The family Elasmosauridae was based on the genus Elasmosaurus, the first recognized member of this group of long-necked plesiosaurs. Elasmosaurids were well adapted for aquatic life, and used their flippers for swimming. Contrary to earlier depictions, their necks were not very flexible, and could not be held high above the water surface. It is unknown what their long necks were used for, but they may have had a function in feeding. Elasmosaurids probably ate small fish and marine invertebrates, seizing them with their long teeth, and may have used gastroliths (stomach stones) to help digest their food. Elasmosaurus is known from the Pierre Shale formation, which represents marine deposits from the Western Interior Seaway.

SpongeBob: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: LIOPLEURODON!

SpongeBob fired a wave of water and it formed into the ferocious marine reptile from 166 million years ago: Liopleurodon!

---

Liopleurodon (/ˌlaɪoʊˈplʊərədɒn/; meaning 'smooth-sided teeth') is a genus of large, carnivorous marine reptile belonging to the Pliosauroidea, a clade of short-necked plesiosaurs. The two species of Liopleurodon lived from the Callovian Stage of the Middle Jurassic to the Kimmeridgian stage of the Late Jurassic Period (c. 166 to 155 mya). It was the apex predator of the Middle to Late Jurassic seas that covered Europe. The largest species, L. ferox, is estimated to have grown up to 6.4 metres (21 ft) in length.

The name "Liopleurodon" (meaning "smooth-sided tooth") derives from Ancient Greek words: λεῖος leios, "smooth"; πλευρά pleurá, "side" or "rib"; and ὀδόν odṓn, "tooth".

Salar: (Arabic Accent) FIRESTORM STYLE NINJA ART: GALLIMIMUS!

Salar fired a massive wave of fire and it formed into a herd of the ostrich-like egg-eaters from 70 million years ago: Gallimimus!

---

Gallimimus (/ˌɡælɪˈmaɪməs/ GAL-i-MY-məs) is a genus of theropod dinosaur that lived in what is now Mongolia during the Late Cretaceous period, about seventy million years ago (mya). Several fossils in various stages of growth were discovered by Polish-Mongolian expeditions in the Gobi Desert of Mongolia during the 1960s; a large skeleton discovered in this region was made the holotype specimen of the new genus and species Gallimimus bullatus in 1972. The generic name means "chicken mimic", referring to the similarities between its neck vertebrae and those of the Galliformes. The specific name is derived from bulla, a gold capsule worn by Roman youth, in reference to a bulbous structure at the base of the skull of Gallimimus. At the time it was named, the fossils of Gallimimus represented the most complete and best preserved ornithomimid ("ostrich dinosaur") material yet discovered, and the genus remains one of the best known members of the group.

As an ornithomimid, Gallimimus would have been a fleet (or cursorial) animal, using its speed to escape predators; its speed has been estimated at 42-56 km/h (29-34 mph). It may have had good vision and intelligence comparable to ratite birds. Gallimimus may have lived in groups, based on the discovery of several specimens preserved in a bone bed. Various theories have been proposed regarding the diet of Gallimimus and other ornithomimids. The highly mobile neck may have helped locate small prey on the ground, but it may also have been an opportunistic omnivore. It has also been suggested that it used small columnar structures in its beak for filter-feeding in water, though these structures may instead have been ridges used for feeding on tough plant material, indicative of a herbivorous diet. Gallimimus is the most commonly found ornithomimosaur in the Nemegt Formation, where it lived alongside its relatives Anserimimus and Deinocheirus. Gallimimus was featured in the movie Jurassic Park, in a scene that was important to the history of special effects, and in shaping the common conception of dinosaurs as bird-like animals.

Andropov: (Russian Accent) ICE STYLE NINJA ART: ELASMOTHERIUM!

Andropov fired a wave of ice and it formed into the ancestral big-horned rhinoceros of the Ice Age from 2.6 million years ago: Elasmotherium!

Elasmotherium is an extinct genus of large rhinoceros endemic to Eurasia during the Late Pliocene through the Pleistocene, existing from 2.6 Ma to at least as late as 39,000 years ago in the Late Pleistocene. A more recent date of 26,000 BP is considered less reliable. It was the last surviving member of Elasmotheriinae, a distinctive group of rhinoceroses that had separated from the ancestry of living rhinoceroses by at least 35 million years ago according to fossils and estimated around 47.4 million years ago based on molecular clock.

Four species are recognised, which were largely confined to the Pontic-Caspian steppe, the Caucasus and Central Asia. The best known, E. sibiricum, known as the Siberian unicorn, was the size of a mammoth and is thought to have borne a large, thick horn on its forehead. Like all rhinoceroses, elasmotheres were herbivorous. Unlike any other rhinos and any other ungulates aside from some notoungulates, its high-crowned molars were ever-growing. Its legs were longer than those of other rhinos and were adapted for galloping, giving it a horse-like gait.

Golova: (Russian Accent) ICE STYLE NINJA ART: CAVE LION!

Golova fired a wave of ice and it formed into the Ice Age lions of 500,000 years ago: Cave Lions!

---

Panthera spelaea, also known as the "Eurasian cave lion", "European cave lion", or "steppe lion", is an extinct Panthera species that evolved in Europe probably after the third Cromerian interglacial stage, less than 600,000 years ago. Phylogenetic analysis of fossil bone samples revealed that it was highly distinct and genetically isolated from the modern lion (Panthera leo) occurring in Africa and Asia. Analysis of morphological differences and mitochondrial data support the taxonomic recognition of Panthera spelaea as a distinct species that diverged from the lion about 1.9 million years ago. Nuclear genomic evidence suggests a more recent split approximately 500,000 years ago, with no subsequent interbreeding with the ancestors of the modern lion. The oldest known bone fragments were excavated in Yakutia and radiocarbon dated at least 62,400 years old. It became extinct about 13,000 years ago.

Matthias: (German Accent) FOREST STYLE NINJA ART: LEPTICTIDIUM!

Matthias fired a wave of wood and leaves and it formed into a swarm of the ancestor of the Elephant Shrew that lived 50 million years ago: Leptictidium!

Leptictidium (a Latinized diminutive of the name of its close relative Leptictis, which means "graceful weasel" in Ancient Greek) is an extinct genus of small mammals that were likely bipedal. Comprising eight species, they resembled today's elephant shrews. They are especially interesting for their combination of characteristics typical of primitive eutherians with highly specialized adaptations, such as powerful hind legs and a long tail which aided in locomotion. They were omnivorous, their diet a combination of insects, lizards and small mammals. One of the first branches to split from basal eutherians, they appeared in the Lower Eocene, a time of warm temperatures and high humidity, roughly fifty million years ago. Although they were widespread throughout Europe, they became extinct around thirty-five million years ago with no descendants, probably because they were adapted to live in forest ecosystems and were unable to adapt to the open plains of the Oligocene.

Eustreptospondylus (/juːˌstrɛptoʊspɒnˈdaɪləs/ yoo-STREPT-o-spon-DY-ləs; meaning "true Streptospondylus") is a genus of megalosaurid theropod dinosaur, from the Oxfordian stage of the Late Jurassic period (some time between 163 and 154 million years ago) in southern England, at a time when Europe was a series of scattered islands (due to tectonic movement at the time which raised the sea-bed and flooded the lowland).

Fiona: WIND STYLE NINJA ART: ORNITHOCHEIRUS!

Fiona fired a wave of wind and it formed into the ostrich-like dinosaur from 92.5 million years ago: Ornithocheirus!

Ornithocheirus (from Ancient Greek "ὄρνις", meaning bird, and "χεῖρ", meaning hand) is a pterosaur genus known from fragmentary fossil remains uncovered from sediments in the UK and possibly Morocco.

Several species have been referred to the genus, most of which are now considered as dubious species, or members of different genera, and the genus is now often considered to include only the type species, Ornithocheirus simus. Species have been referred to Ornithocheirus from the mid-Cretaceous period of both Europe and South America, but O. simus is known only from the UK, though a specimen referred to O. cf. simus is also known from Morocco.

Because O. simus was originally named based on poorly preserved fossil material, the genus Ornithocheirus has suffered enduring problems of zoological nomenclature.

Fossil remains of Ornithocheirus have been recovered mainly from the Cambridge Greensand of England, dating to the beginning of the Albian stage of the early Cretaceous period, about 110 million years ago. Additional fossils from the Santana Formation of Brazil are sometimes classified as species of Ornithocheirus, but have also been placed in their own genera, most notably Tropeognathus.

Becky: PHOENIX STYLE NINJA ART: COELOPHYSIS!

Becky fired a wave of fire and it formed into one of the first ever dinosaurs from 216 million years ago: Coelophysis!

Coelophysis (/sɛˈlɒfɪsɪs/ seh-LOF-ih-sis traditionally; /ˌsɛloʊˈfaɪsɪs/ SEL-o-FY-sis or /ˌsiːloʊˈfaɪsɪs/ SEE-lo-FY-sis are heard more commonly in recent decades) is an extinct genus of coelophysid theropod dinosaur that lived approximately 216 to 196 million years ago during the latter part of the Triassic Period in what is now the southwestern United States and also in South Africa and Zimbabwe.

Coelophysis was a small, slenderly-built, ground-dwelling, bipedal carnivore, that could grow up to 3 m (9.8 ft) long. Coelophysis is one of the earliest known dinosaur genera. Scattered material representing similar animals has been found worldwide in some Late Triassic and Early Jurassic formations.

The type species C. bauri, originally given to the genus Coelurus by Edward Drinker Cope in 1887, was described by the latter in 1889. The names Longosaurus and Rioarribasaurus are synonymous with Coelophysis. Another dinosaur genus, Megapnosaurus, has also been considered to be a synonym. This primitive theropod is notable for being one of the most specimen-rich dinosaur genera.

Inostrancevia is an extinct genus of carnivorous therapsids, containing the largest members of the family Gorgonopsidae, predators characterized by long, saber-tooth-like canines. The various species inhabited northern Russia during the Upper Tatarian (Vyatskian), a Russian regional stage equivalent to the Wuchiapingian stage of the Late Permian period, dating from approximately 265 to 252.3 million years ago. It is known from several skulls and two almost-complete skeletons.

Muttaburrasaurus was a genus of herbivorous ornithopod dinosaur, which lived in what is now northeastern Australia sometime between 105 and 103 million years ago during the early Cretaceous Period. It has been recovered in some analyses as a member of the iguanodontian family Rhabdodontidae. After Kunbarrasaurus, it is Australia's most completely known dinosaur from skeletal remains. It was named after Muttaburra, the site in Queensland, Australia, where it was found.

Paige: PHOENIX STYLE NINJA ART: CRYOLOPHOSAURUS!

Paige fired a wave of fire and it formed into the Antarctic dinosaur from 193 million years ago: Cryolophosaurus!

---

Cryolophosaurus (/ˌkraɪoʊˌloʊfoʊˈsɔːrəs/ or /kraɪˌɒloʊfoʊˈsɔːrəs/; "CRY-oh-loaf-oh-SAWR-us") is a genus of large theropods known from only a single species Cryolophosaurus ellioti, known from the early Jurassic period of Antarctica. It was about 6.5 metres (21.3 ft) long and 465 kilograms (1,025 lb) in weight, making it one of the largest theropods of its time. Individuals of this species may have grown even larger, because the only known specimen probably represents a sub-adult. Cryolophosaurus is known from a skull, a femur and other material, the skull and femur of which have caused its classification to vary greatly. The femur possesses many primitive characteristics that have classified Cryolophosaurus as a dilophosaurid or a neotheropod outside of Dilophosauridae and Averostra, whereas the skull has many advanced features, leading the genus to be considered a tetanuran, an abelisaurid, a ceratosaur and even an allosaurid. Since its original description, the consensus is that Cryolophosaurus is either a primitive member of the Tetanurae or a close relative of that group.

Cryolophosaurus possessed a distinctive "pompadour" crest that spanned the head from side to side. Based on evidence from related species and studies of bone texture, it is thought that this bizarre crest was used for intra-species recognition. The brain of Cryolophosaurus was also more primitive than those of other theropods.

Cryolophosaurus was first excavated from Antarctica's Early Jurassic, Sinemurian to Pliensbachian aged Hanson Formation, formerly the upper Falla Formation, by paleontologist Dr. William Hammer in 1991. It was the first carnivorous dinosaur to be discovered in Antarctica and the first non-avian dinosaur from the continent to be officially named. The sediments in which its fossils were found have been dated at ~194 to 188 million years ago, representing the Early Jurassic Period.

Lateefa: (Arabic Accent) DESERT STYLE NINJA ART: VELOCIRAPTORS!

Lateefa fired a wave of sand and it formed into the deadly carnivorous dinosaurs from 78 million years ago: Velociraptor!

---

Velociraptor (/vɪˈlɒsɪræptər/; meaning "swift seizer" in Latin) is a genus of dromaeosaurid theropod dinosaur that lived approximately 75 to 71 million years ago during the latter part of the Cretaceous Period. Two species are currently recognized, although others have been assigned in the past. The type species is V. mongoliensis; fossils of this species have been discovered in Mongolia. A second species, V. osmolskae, was named in 2008 for skull material from Inner Mongolia, China.

Smaller than other dromaeosaurids like Deinonychus and Achillobator, Velociraptor nevertheless shared many of the same anatomical features. It was a bipedal, feathered carnivore with a long tail and an enlarged sickle-shaped claw on each hindfoot, which is thought to have been used to tackle and disembowel prey. Velociraptor can be distinguished from other dromaeosaurids by its long and low skull, with an upturned snout.

Velociraptor (commonly shortened to "raptor") is one of the dinosaur genera most familiar to the general public due to its prominent role in the Jurassic Park motion picture series. In real life, however, Velociraptor was roughly the size of a turkey, considerably smaller than the approximately 2 m (6 1⁄2 ft) tall and 80 kg (180 lb) reptiles seen in the films (which were based on members of the related genus Deinonychus). Today, Velociraptor is well known to paleontologists, with over a dozen described fossil skeletons, the most of any dromaeosaurid. One particularly famous specimen preserves a Velociraptor locked in combat with a Protoceratops.

Nataša fired a wave of earth and it formed into the state dinosaurs of Utah from 139 million years ago: Utahraptor!

Utahraptor (meaning Utah's predator) is a genus of large dromaeosaurid dinosaur that lived in North America during the Early Cretaceous period. It was a heavy-built, ground-dwelling, bipedal carnivore. It contains a single species, Utahraptor ostrommaysi, which is the largest-known member of the family Dromaeosauridae.

In 2018, it was proposed that Utahraptor be the Utah state dinosaur, an act that was approved by the Senate. Initially Utahraptor would have replaced another dinosaur, Allosaurus, as the state's official fossil, but it was decided that Utahraptor would be another symbol of the state.

Suwailim: (Egyptian Accent) DESERT STYLE NINJA ART: PROTOCERATOPS!

Suwailim fired a wave of sand and it formed into the Ceratopsian from 75 million years ago: Protoceratops.

---

Protoceratops (/ˌproʊtoʊ'sɛrətɒps/; from Greek proto-/πρωτο- "first", cerat-/κερατ- "horn" and -ops/-ωψ "face", meaning "first horned face") is a genus of sheep-sized (1.8 m long) herbivorous ceratopsian dinosaur, from the Upper Cretaceous Period (Campanian stage) of what is now Mongolia. It was a member of the Protoceratopsidae, a group of early horned dinosaurs. Unlike later ceratopsians, however, it was a much smaller creature that lacked well-developed horns and retained some basal traits not seen in later genera.

Protoceratops had a large neck frill which was likely used as a display site to impress other members of the species. Other hypotheses about its function include protection of the neck and anchoring of jaw muscles, but the fragility of the frill and the poor leverage offered by possible attachment sites here makes these ideas implausible. Described by Walter W. Granger and W.K. Gregory in 1923, Protoceratops was initially believed to be an ancestor of the North American ceratopsians. Researchers currently distinguish two species of Protoceratops (P. andrewsi and P. hellenikorhinus), based in part by their respective sizes.

In the 1920s, Roy Chapman Andrews discovered fossilized eggs in Mongolia that were interpreted as belonging to this dinosaur, but which turned out to be those of Oviraptor. However, it wouldn't be until 2011 that a genuine Protoceratops nest was discovered, with the remains of the neonates inside suggesting parental care in this dinosaur.

Woya: WIND STYLE NINJA ART: PTERANODON!

Woya fired a wave of wind and it formed into the famous pterosaur from 86 million years ago: Pteranodon!

Pteranodon (/tɪˈrænədɒn/; from Greek πτερόν (pteron, "wing") and ἀνόδων (anodon, "toothless")) is a genus of pterosaur that included some of the largest known flying reptiles, with wingspans over 7 meters (23 feet). They lived during the late Cretaceous geological period of North America in present-day Kansas, Alabama, Nebraska, Wyoming, and South Dakota. More fossil specimens of Pteranodon have been found than any other pterosaur, with about 1,200 specimens known to science, many of them well preserved with nearly complete skulls and articulated skeletons. It was an important part of the animal community in the Western Interior Seaway.

Pteranodon was a pterosaur, meaning that it is not a dinosaur. By definition, all dinosaurs belong to one of the two groups within Dinosauria, i.e. Saurischia or Ornithischia. As such, this excludes pterosaurs. Nonetheless, Pteranodon is frequently featured in dinosaur media and are strongly associated with dinosaurs by the general public. While not dinosaurs, pterosaurs such as Pteranodon form a clade closely related to dinosaurs as both fall within the clade Avemetatarsalia.

Leyati: WIND STYLE NINJA ART: ARGENTAVIS!

Leyati fired a wave of wind and it formed into the largest prehistoric bird ever to grace the skies from 9 million years ago: Argentavis Magnificens.

Argentavis magnificens was among the largest flying birds ever to exist, quite possibly surpassed in wingspan only by Pelagornis sandersi, which was described in 2014. A. magnificens, sometimes called the Giant Teratorn, is an extinct species known from three sites in the Epecuén and Andalhualá Formations in central and northwestern Argentina dating to the Late Miocene (Huayquerian), where a good sample of fossils has been obtained.

Edwayl: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: BASILOSAURUS!

Edwayl fired a wave of water and it formed into the one of the first whales of the Eocene epoch from 41.3 million years ago: Basilosaurus!

---

Basilosaurus (meaning "king lizard") is a genus of large, predatory, prehistoric archaeocete whale from the late Eocene, approximately 41.3 to 33.9 million years ago (mya). First described in 1834, it was the first archaeocete and prehistoric whale known to science. The first fossils were discovered along the Gulf Coast of the United States, along with a few fossils in the eastern U.S., attributed to the type species B. cetoides. They were originally thought to be of a giant reptile, hence the suffix "-saurus", Ancient Greek for "lizard". The animal was later found to be an early marine mammal, which prompted attempts at renaming the creature, which failed as zoological nomenclature dictates using the original name given. Fossils were later found of the second species, B. isis, in 1904 in North Africa, more specifically the countries of Egypt, Jordan, Tunisia and Morocco. Basilosaurus has a possible record in Seymour Island in Antarctica.

Basilosaurus is considered to have been common in the Tethys sea. It was one of the largest, if not the largest, animals of the Paleogene. It was the top predator of its environment, preying on sharks, large fish and other marine mammals, namely the dolphin-like Dorudon, which seems to have been their predominant food source.

Basilosaurus was at one point a wastebasket taxon, before the genus slowly started getting reevaluated, with many species of different Eocene cetacean being assigned to the genus in the past, however they are invalid or have been reclassified under a new or different genus, leaving only 2 confirmed species. Basilosaurus may have been one of the first fully aquatic cetaceans (sometimes referred to as the pelagiceti). Basilosaurus, unlike modern cetaceans, had various types of teeth-such as canines and molars-in its mouth (heterodonty), and it probably was able to chew its food in contrast to modern cetaceans which swallow their food whole.

Rusty: DESERT STYLE NINJA ART: PARACERATHERIUM!

Rusty fired a wave of sand and it formed into the one of the ancestral rhinoceroses from 34 million years ago: Paraceratherium!

---

Paraceratherium is an extinct genus of hornless rhinoceros. It is one of the largest terrestrial mammals that has existed and lived from the early to late Oligocene epoch (34-23 million years ago). Its remains have been found across Eurasia between China and the Balkans. It is classified as a member of the hyracodont subfamily Indricotheriinae. Paraceratherium means "near the hornless beast", in reference to Aceratherium, the genus in which the type species A. bugtiense was originally placed.

The exact size of Paraceratherium is unknown because of the incompleteness of the fossils. The shoulder height was about 4.8 metres (15.7 feet), and the length about 7.4 metres (24.3 feet). Its weight is estimated to have been about 15 to 20 tonnes (33,000 to 44,000 lb). The long neck supported a skull that was about 1.3 metres (4.3 ft) long. It had large, tusk-like incisors and a nasal incision that suggests it had a prehensile upper lip or proboscis (trunk). The legs were long and pillar-like. The lifestyle of Paraceratherium may have been similar to that of modern large mammals such as the elephants and extant rhinoceroses. Because of its size, it would have had few predators and a slow rate of reproduction. It was a browser, eating mainly leaves, soft plants, and shrubs. It lived in habitats ranging from arid deserts with a few scattered trees to subtropical forests. The reasons for the animal's extinction are unknown, but various factors have been proposed.

The taxonomy of the genus and the species within has a long and complicated history. Other genera of Oligocene indricotheres, such as Baluchitherium, Indricotherium, and Pristinotherium, have been named, but no complete specimens exist, making comparison and classification difficult. Most modern scientists consider these genera to be junior synonyms of Paraceratherium, and it is thought to contain at least three discernible species; P. bugtiense, P. transouralicum, and P. huangheense. The most completely-known species is P. transouralicum, so most reconstructions of the genus are based on it. Differences between P. bugtiense and P. transouralicum may be due to sexual dimorphism, which would make them the same species.

Entelodon (meaning "complete teeth", from Ancient Greek ἐντελής entelēs "complete" and ὀδών odōn "tooth", referring to its "complete" eutherian dentition), is an extinct genus of entelodont artiodactyl endemic to Eurasia. Fossils of species are found in Paleogene strata ranging in age from the Houldjinian (37.2-33.9 mya) until the Rupelian epoch of the early Oligocene (33.9-28.4 mya).

Hyaenodon ("hyena-tooth") is the type genus of the Hyaenodontidae, a family of extinct carnivorous fossil mammals from Eurasia, North America, and Africa, with species existing temporally from the Eocene until the middle Miocene, existing for about 26.1 million years.

The various species of Hyaenodon competed with each other and with other hyaenodont genera (including Sinopa, Dissopsalis, and Hyainailurus), and played important roles as predators in ecological communities as late as the Miocene in Africa and Asia and preyed on a variety of prey species such as primitive horses like Mesohippus and early camels. Species of Hyaenodon have been shown to have successfully preyed on other large carnivores of their time, including a nimravid ("false sabertooth cat"), according to analysis of tooth puncture marks on a fossil Dinictis skull found in North Dakota.

Mollie: LIGHTNING STYLE NINJA ART: GIGANOTOSAURUS!

Mollie fired a wave of lightning and it formed into the ferocious theropod from 98 million years ago: Giganotosaurus!

Giganotosaurus (/ˌdʒaɪɡəˌnoʊtə'sɔːrəs/ JY-gə-NOH-tə-SOR-əs) is a genus of theropod dinosaur that lived in what is now Argentina, during the early Cenomanian age of the Late Cretaceous period, approximately 98 to 97 million years ago. The holotype specimen was discovered in the Candeleros Formation of Patagonia in 1993, and is almost 70% complete. The animal was named Giganotosaurus carolinii in 1995; the genus name translates as

"giant southern lizard" and the specific name honors the discoverer, Rubén D. Carolini. A dentary bone, a tooth and some tracks, discovered before the holotype, were later assigned to this animal. The genus attracted much interest and became part of a scientific debate about the maximum sizes of theropod dinosaurs.

Giganotosaurus was one of the largest known terrestrial carnivores, but the exact size has been hard to determine due to the incompleteness of the remains found so far. Estimates for the most complete specimen range from a length of 12 to 13 m (39 to 43 ft), a skull 1.53 to 1.80 m (5.0 to 5.9 ft) in length, and a weight of 4.2 to 13.8 t (4.6 to 15.2 short tons). The dentary bone that belonged to a supposedly larger individual has been used to extrapolate a length of 13.2 m (43 ft). Some researchers have found the animal to be larger than Tyrannosaurus, which has historically been considered the largest theropod, while others have found them to be roughly equal in size, and the largest size estimates for Giganotosaurus exaggerated. The skull was low, with rugose (rough and wrinkled) nasal bones and a ridge-like crest on the lacrimal bone in front of the eye. The front of the lower jaw was flattened, and had a downwards projecting process (or "chin") at the tip. The teeth were compressed sideways and had serrations. The neck was strong and the pectoral girdle proportionally small.

Part of the family Carcharodontosauridae, Giganotosaurus is one of the most completely known members of the group, which includes other very large theropods, such as the closely related Mapusaurus and Carcharodontosaurus. Giganotosaurus is thought to have been homeothermic (a type of "warm-bloodedness"), with a metabolism between that of a mammal and a reptile, which would have enabled fast growth. It may have been relatively fast moving, with a calculated maximal running speed of 14 m/s (50 km/h; 31 mph). It would have been capable of closing its jaws quickly, capturing and bringing down prey by delivering powerful bites. The "chin" may have helped in resisting stress when a bite was delivered against prey. Giganotosaurus is thought to have been the apex predator of its ecosystem, and it may have fed on juvenile sauropod dinosaurs.

Luan: JUNGLE STYLE NINJA ART: GIGANTOPITHECUS!

Luan fired a wave of leaves and grass and it formed into one of the first apes from 2 million to 300,000 years ago: Gigantopithecus!

---

Gigantopithecus is an extinct genus of ape from the Early to Middle Pleistocene of southern China, represented by one species, G. blacki. Potential identifications have also been made in Thailand, Vietnam, and Indonesia. The first remains of Gigantopithecus, two third molar teeth, were identified in a drugstore by anthropologist Ralph von Koenigswald in 1935, who subsequently described the ape. In 1956, the first mandible and over 1,000 teeth were found in Liucheng, and numerous more remains have since been found in at least 16 sites. Only teeth and 4 mandibles are known currently, and other skeletal elements were likely consumed by porcupines before they could fossilise. Gigantopithecus was once argued to be a hominin, a member of the human line, but it is now thought to be closely allied with orangutans, classified in the subfamily Ponginae.

Gigantopithecus has traditionally been restored as a massive, gorilla-like ape, potentially 200-300 kg (440-660 lb) when alive, but the paucity of remains make total size estimates highly speculative. The species may have been sexually dimorphic, with males much bigger than females. The incisors are reduced and the canines appear to have functioned like cheek teeth (premolars and molars). The premolars are high-crowned, and the fourth premolar is very molar-like. The molars are the largest of any known ape, and have a relatively flat surface. Gigantopithecus had the thickest enamel by absolute measure of any ape, up to 6 mm (a quarter of an inch) in some areas, though was only fairly thick when tooth size is taken into account.

Gigantopithecus appears to have been a generalist herbivore of C3 forest plants, with the jaw adapted to grinding, crushing, and cutting through tough, fibrous plants; and the thick enamel functioning to resist foods with abrasive particles such as stems, roots, and tubers with dirt. Some teeth bear traces of fig family fruits. It primarily lived in subtropical to tropical forest, and went extinct about 300,000 years ago likely due to climate change and the retreat of preferred habitat, and potentially archaic human activity by Homo erectus. Gigantopithecus has become popular in cryptozoology circles as the identity of the Tibetan yeti or the American bigfoot, humanlike monsters in local folklore.

Fletcher: (Scottish Accent) ICE STYLE NINJA ART: DIRE WOLVES!

Fletcher fired a wave of ice and it formed into a pack of the first wolves from 125,000 to 9,500 years ago: the Dire Wolves!

---

The dire wolf (Canis dirus, "fearsome dog") is an extinct species of the genus Canis. It is one of the most famous prehistoric carnivores in North America, along with its extinct competitor, the sabre-toothed cat Smilodon fatalis. The dire wolf lived in the Americas during the Late Pleistocene and Early Holocene epochs (125,000-9,500 years ago). The species was named in 1858, four years after the first specimen had been found. Two subspecies are recognized: Canis dirus guildayi and Canis dirus dirus. The dire wolf probably evolved from Armbruster's wolf (Canis armbrusteri) in North America. The largest collection of its fossils has been obtained from the Rancho La Brea Tar Pits in Los Angeles.

Dire wolf remains have been found across a broad range of habitats including the plains, grasslands, and some forested mountain areas of North America, and in the arid savannah of South America. The sites range in elevation from sea level to 2,255 meters (7,400 ft). Dire wolf fossils have rarely been found north of 42°N latitude; there have been only five unconfirmed reports above this latitude. This range restriction is thought to be due to temperature, prey, or habitat limitations imposed by proximity to the Laurentide and Cordilleran ice sheets that existed at the time.

The dire wolf was about the same size as the largest modern gray wolves (Canis lupus): the Yukon wolf and the northwestern wolf. C. d. guildayi weighed on average 60 kilograms (132 lb) and C. d. dirus was on average 68 kg (150 lb). Its skull and dentition matched those of C. lupus, but its teeth were larger with greater shearing ability, and its bite force at the canine tooth was the strongest of any known Canis species. These characteristics are thought to be adaptations for preying on Late Pleistocene megaherbivores, and in North America its prey are known to have included horses, ground sloths, mastodons, bison, and camels. As with other large Canis hypercarnivores today, the dire wolf is thought to have been a pack hunter. Its extinction occurred during the Quaternary extinction event along with most of the American megafauna of the time, including a number of other carnivores, that occurred soon after the appearance of humans in the New World. Its reliance on megaherbivores has been proposed as the cause of its extinction, along with climate change and competition with other species, but the cause remains controversial. Dire wolves lived as recently as 9,500 years ago, according to dated remains.

Alex fired a wave of fire and it formed into the largest dinosaur that ever lived from 96.2 million years ago: Argentinosaurus!

Argentinosaurus is a genus of giant sauropod dinosaur that lived during the Late Cretaceous period in what is now Argentina. Although it is only known from fragmentary remains, Argentinosaurus is one of the largest-known land animals of all time, if not the largest, with length estimates ranging from 30 to 39.7 metres (98 to 130 ft) and weight estimates from 50 to 100 tonnes (55 to 110 short tons). It was a member of Titanosauria, the dominant group of sauropods during the Cretaceous.

The first Argentinosaurus bone was discovered in 1987 by a farmer on his farm near the city of Plaza Huincul. A scientific excavation of the site led by the Argentine palaeontologist José Bonaparte was conducted in 1989, yielding several back vertebrae and parts of a sacrum-fused vertebrae between the back and tail vertebrae. Additional specimens include a complete femur (thigh bone) and the shaft of another. Argentinosaurus was named by Bonaparte and the Argentine palaeontologist Rodolfo Coria in 1993; it contains a single species, A. huinculensis. The generic name Argentinosaurus means "Argentine lizard", and the specific name huinculensis refers to its place of discovery, Plaza Huincul.

The fragmentary nature of Argentinosaurus remains makes their interpretation difficult. Arguments revolve around the position of the recovered vertebrae within the vertebral column and the presence of accessory articulations between the vertebrae that would have strengthened the spine. A computer model of the skeleton and muscles estimated this dinosaur had a maximum speed of 7 km/h (5 mph) with a pace, a gait where the fore and hind limb of the same side of the body move simultaneously. The fossils of Argentinosaurus were recovered from the Huincul Formation, which was deposited in the middle Cenomanian to early Turonian ages (around 96 to 92 million years ago) and contains a diverse dinosaur fauna including the giant theropod Mapusaurus.

Megatherium (/mɛɡəˈθɪəriəm/ meg-ə-THEER-ee-əm from the Greek mega [μέγας], meaning "great", and therion [θηρίον], "beast") is an extinct genus of ground sloths endemic to South America that lived from the Early Pliocene through the end of the Pleistocene. It is best known for the elephant-sized type species M. americanum, sometimes called the giant ground sloth, or the megathere, native to the Pampas through southern Bolivia during the Pleistocene. Various other smaller species belonging to the subgenus Pseudomegatherium are known from the Andes. Megatherium is part of the sloth family Megatheriidae, which also includes the similarly elephantine Eremotherium, which was native to tropical South America and southern North America. Only a few other land mammals equaled or exceeded M. americanum in size, such as large proboscideans (e.g., elephants) and the giant rhinoceros Paraceratherium. Megatherium was first discovered in 1788 on the bank of the Luján River in Argentina. The holotype specimen was then shipped to Spain the following year wherein it caught the attention of the esteemed paleontologist Georges Cuvier, who was the first to determine, by means of comparative anatomy, that Megatherium was a sloth. Megatherium became extinct around 12,000 years ago during the Quaternary extinction event, which also claimed most other large mammals in the New World. The extinction coincides with the settlement of the Americas, and a kill site where a

M. americanum was slaughtered and butchered is known, suggesting that hunting could have caused its extinction.

Lang Yan: (Chinese Accent) BAMBOO STYLE NINJA ART: DWARF PANDA!

Lang punched the ground and a bunch of bamboo grew in seconds and they formed into the ancestor of the Giant Panda from 2 million years ago - the Dwarf Panda!

Ailuropoda microta is the earliest known ancestor of the giant panda. It measured 1 m (3 ft) in length; the modern giant panda grows to a size in excess of 1.5 m (5 ft). Wear patterns on its teeth suggest it lived on a diet of bamboo, the primary food of the giant panda. The first discovered skull of the animal in a south China limestone cave is estimated to be 2 million years old. The skull found is about half the size of a modern-day giant panda, but is anatomically very similar. This research suggests that the giant panda has evolved for more than 3 million years as a completely separate lineage from that of other bears.

Two individuals are currently known, a partially complete adult and a nearly complete juvenile. These specimens come from the Oxfordian stage of the Chinese Shishugou Formation.

Brock: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: DOEDICURUS!

Brock fired a wave of earth and it formed into the ancestral armadillo from 2 million to 7,000 years ago: DOEDICURUS!

Doedicurus, or Dædicurus, is an extinct genus of glyptodont from South America containing one species, D. clavicaudatus. Glyptodonts are a member of the family Chlamyphoridae, which also includes some modern armadillo species, and they are classified in the order Xenarthra alongside sloths and anteaters. Being a glyptodont, it was a rotund animal with heavy armor and a carapace. Averaging at an approximate 1,400 kg (3,100 lb), it was one of the largest glyptodonts to have ever lived. Though glyptodonts were quadrupeds, large ones like Doedicurus may have been able to stand on two legs like other xenarthrans. It notably sported a spiked tail club, which may have weighed 40 or 65 kg (88 or 143 lb) in life, and it may have swung this in defense against predators or in fights with other Doedicurus at speeds of perhaps 11 m/s (40 km/h; 25 mph).

Doedicurus was likely a grazer, but its teeth and mouth, like those of other glyptodonts, seem unable to have chewed grass effectively, which may indicate a slow metabolism. Doedicurus existed during the Pleistocene. Before this, South America had been isolated from the rest of the world, but the formation of the Isthmus of Panama allowed North American fauna to invade South America in the Great American Interchange, including big cats, bears, elephants, camels, and horses. Doedicurus seems to have inhabited the relatively cold and humid Chaco-Pampean plains of northeastern Patagonia. It may have been the latest-surviving glyptodont, with remains suggested to date to 8,000-7,000 years ago during the middle Holocene, though these dates have been questioned. It may have gone extinct due to some combination of human hunting and climate change.

Carnotaurus /ˌkɑːrnoʊˈtɔːrəs/ is a genus of large theropod dinosaur that lived in South America during the Late Cretaceous period, between about 72 and 69.9 million years ago. The only species is Carnotaurus sastrei. Known from a single well-preserved skeleton, it is one of the best-understood theropods from the Southern Hemisphere. The skeleton, found in 1984, was uncovered in the Chubut Province of Argentina from rocks of the La Colonia Formation. Carnotaurus is a derived member of the Abelisauridae, a group of large theropods that occupied the large predatorial niche in the southern landmasses of Gondwana during the late Cretaceous. The phylogenetic relations of Carnotaurus are uncertain; it might have been closer to either Majungasaurus or Aucasaurus.

Carnotaurus was a lightly built, bipedal predator, measuring 7.5 to 9 m (24.6 to 29.5 ft) in length and weighing at least 1.35 metric tons (1.33 long tons; 1.49 short tons). As a theropod, Carnotaurus was highly specialized and distinctive. It had thick horns above the eyes, a feature unseen in all other carnivorous dinosaurs, and a very deep skull sitting on a muscular neck. Carnotaurus was further characterized by small, vestigial forelimbs and long, slender hindlimbs. The skeleton is preserved with extensive skin impressions, showing a mosaic of small, non-overlapping scales approximately 5 mm in diameter. The mosaic was interrupted by large bumps that lined the sides of the animal, and there are no hints of feathers.

The distinctive horns and the muscular neck may have been used in fighting conspecifics. According to separate studies, rivaling individuals may have combated each other with quick head blows, by slow pushes with the upper sides of their skulls, or by ramming each other head-on, using their horns as shock absorbers. The feeding habits of Carnotaurus remain unclear: some studies suggest the animal was able to hunt down very large prey such as sauropods, while other studies find it preyed mainly on relatively small animals. Carnotaurus was well adapted for running and was possibly one of the fastest large theropods.

Timmy Turner: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: DIMETRODON!

Dimetrodon (/daɪˈmiːtrədɒn/ (About this soundlisten) or /daɪ ˈmɛtrədɒn/, meaning "two measures of teeth") is an extinct genus of non-mammalian synapsid that lived during the Cisuralian (Early Permian), around 295-272 million years ago (Ma). It is a member of the family Sphenacodontidae. The most prominent feature of Dimetrodon is the large neural spine sail on its back formed by elongated spines extending from the vertebrae. It walked on four legs and had a tall, curved skull with large teeth of different sizes set along the jaws. Most fossils have been found in the southwestern United States, the majority coming from a geological deposit called the Red Beds of Texas and Oklahoma. More recently, fossils have been found in Germany. Over a dozen species have been named since the genus was first erected in 1878.

Dimetrodon is often mistaken for a dinosaur or as a contemporary of dinosaurs in popular culture, but it became extinct some 40 million years before the first appearance of dinosaurs. Reptile-like in appearance and physiology, Dimetrodon is nevertheless more closely related to mammals than to modern reptiles, though it is not a direct ancestor of mammals. Dimetrodon is assigned to the "non-mammalian synapsids", a group traditionally called "mammal-like reptiles". This groups Dimetrodon together with mammals in a clade (evolutionary group) called Synapsida, while placing dinosaurs, reptiles and birds in a separate clade, Sauropsida. Single openings in the skull behind each eye, known as temporal fenestrae, and other skull features distinguish Dimetrodon and mammals from most of the earliest sauropsids.

Dimetrodon was probably one of the apex predators of the Cisuralian ecosystems, feeding on fish and tetrapods, including reptiles and amphibians. Smaller Dimetrodon species may have had different ecological roles. The sail of Dimetrodon may have been used to stabilize its spine or to heat and cool its body as a form of thermoregulation. Some recent studies[citation needed] argue that the sail would have been ineffective at removing heat from the body due to large species being discovered with small sails and small species being discovered with large sails, essentially ruling out heat regulation as its main purpose. The sail was most likely used in courtship display with methods such as threatening rivals or showing off to potential mates.

Nantan: WIND STYLE NINJA ART: AUSTRALOPITHECUS AFARENSIS!

Nantan fired a wave of wind and it formed into one of our human ancestors on our evolutionary chain from 3 million years ago: Australopithecus Afarensis!

---

Australopithecus afarensis is an extinct species of australopithecine which lived from about 3.9-2.9 million years ago (mya) in the Pliocene of East Africa. The first fossils were discovered in the 1930s, but major fossil finds would not be discovered until the 1970s. In the 1972-1977 expedition in Hadar, Ethiopia, the International Afar Research Expedition led by anthropologists Maurice Taieb, Donald Johanson, and Yves Coppens unearthed several hundreds of hominin specimens, the most significant being the exceedingly well-preserved skeleton AL 288-1 ("Lucy") and the site AL 333 ("the First Family"). Beginning in 1974, Mary Leakey led an expedition into Laetoli, Tanzania, and recovered notably fossil trackways. In 1978, the species was first described, but this was followed by arguments for splitting the wealth of specimens into different species given the wide range of variation which had been attributed to sexual dimorphism (normal differences between males and females). A. afarensis probably descended from A. anamensis and possibly gave rise to Homo, though the latter hypothesis is not without dissent.

A. afarensis had a tall face, a delicate brow ridge, and prognathism (the jaw jutted outwards). The jawbone was quite robust, similar to that of gorillas. The living size of A. afarensis is debated, with arguments for and against marked size differences between males and females. Lucy measured perhaps 105 cm (3 ft 5 in) in height and 25-37 kg (55-82 lb), but she was rather small for her species. In contrast, a presumed male was estimated at 165 cm (5 ft 5 in) and 45 kg (99 lb). A perceived difference in male and female size may simply be sampling bias. The leg bones as well as the Laetoli fossil trackways suggest A. afarensis was a competent biped, though somewhat less efficient at walking than humans. The arm and shoulder bones have some similar aspects to those of orangutans and gorillas, which has variously been interpreted as either evidence of partial tree-dwelling (arboreality), or basal traits inherited from the human-chimp last common ancestor with no adaptive functionality.

A. afarensis was probably a generalist omnivore of both C3 forest plants and C4 CAM savanna plants-and perhaps creatures which ate such plants-and was able to exploit a variety of different food sources. Similarly, A. afarensis appears to have inhabited a wide range of habitats with no real preference, inhabiting open grasslands or woodlands, shrublands, and lake- or riverside forests. Potential evidence of stone tool use would indicate meat was also a dietary component. Marked sexual dimorphism in primates typically corresponds to a polygynous society and low dimorphism monogamy, but the group dynamics of early hominins is difficult to predict with accuracy. Early hominins may have fallen prey to the large carnivores of the time, such as big cats and hyenas.

Brachiosaurus (/ˌbrækiəˈsɔːrəs/) is a genus of sauropod dinosaur that lived in North America during the Late Jurassic, about 154-153 million years ago. It was first described by American paleontologist Elmer S. Riggs in 1903 from fossils found in the Colorado River valley in western Colorado, United States. Riggs named the dinosaur Brachiosaurus altithorax; the generic name is Greek for "arm lizard", in reference to its proportionately long arms, and the specific name means "deep chest". Brachiosaurus is estimated to have been between 18 and 21 meters (59 and 69 ft) long; weight estimates range from 28.3 to 58 metric tons (31.2 and 64 short tons). It had a disproportionately long neck, small skull, and large overall size, all of which are typical for sauropods. Atypically, Brachiosaurus had longer forelimbs than hindlimbs, which resulted in a steeply inclined trunk, and a proportionally shorter tail.

Brachiosaurus is the namesake genus of the family Brachiosauridae, which includes a handful of other similar sauropods. Most popular depictions of Brachiosaurus are in fact based on Giraffatitan, a genus of brachiosaurid dinosaur from the Tendaguru Formation of Tanzania. Giraffatitan was originally described by German paleontologist Werner Janensch in 1914 as a species of Brachiosaurus, B. brancai, but moved to its own genus in 2009. Three other species of Brachiosaurus have been named based on fossils found in Africa and Europe; two are no longer considered valid, and a third has become a separate genus, Lusotitan.

The type specimen of B. altithorax is still the most complete specimen, and only a few other specimens are thought to belong to the genus, making it one of the rarer sauropods of the Morrison Formation. It is regarded as a high browser, possibly cropping or nipping vegetation as high as 9 meters (30 ft) off the ground. Unlike other sauropods, it was unsuited for rearing on its hindlimbs. It has been used as an example of a dinosaur that was most likely ectothermic because of its large size and the corresponding need for sufficient forage, but more recent research suggests it was warm-blooded. Among the most iconic and initially thought to be one of the largest dinosaurs, Brachiosaurus has appeared in popular culture, notably in the 1993 film Jurassic Park.

Anthropornis is a genus of giant penguin that lived 45-33 million years ago, during the Late Eocene and the earliest part of the Oligocene.[1] It reached 1.8 m (5 ft 11 in) in height and 90 kg (200 lb) in weight. Fossils of it have been found in the La Meseta Formation on Seymour Island off the coast of Antarctica and in New Zealand. By comparison, the largest modern penguin species, the emperor penguin, is just 1.2 m (3 ft 11 in) tall.

The type species, Anthropornis nordenskjoldi, had a bent joint in the wing, probably a carryover from flying ancestors.

Eloá: (Brazilian Accent) JUNGLE STYLE NINJA ART: GASTORNIS!

Eloá fired a wave of leaves and grass and it formed into the terror bird of 56 million years ago: Gastornis!

---

Gastornis is an extinct genus of large flightless birds that lived during the late Paleocene and Eocene epochs of the Cenozoic era. The genus is currently thought to contain three or four distinct species, known from incomplete fossil remains, found in western-central Europe (England, Belgium, France and Germany). More complete specimens are known from a fourth, North American species, which had previously been classified in the distinct genus Diatryma. Many scientists now consider Diatryma to be so similar to the other species of Gastornis that it should also be included in that genus. A fifth species, also previously classified in its own genus, is known from China.

Gastornis species were very large birds, and have traditionally been considered to be predators of small mammals. However, several lines of evidence, including the lack of hooked claws in known Gastornis footprints and studies of their beak structure have caused scientists to reinterpret these birds as herbivores that probably fed on tough plant material and seeds.

Haiku: DARK STYLE NINJA ART: TITANIS TERROR BIRD!

Haiku fired a wave of darkness and it formed into the ferocious giant terror bird of 5 million years ago: Titanis!

---

Titanis is an extinct genus of giant flightless terror birds that inhabited North America during the early Pliocene to early Pleistocene epochs. The generic name, Titanis, refers to the titans, Ancient Greek gods that preceded the Twelve Olympians, in allusion to the bird's size. The specific name, T. walleri, honors the holotype's collector, Benjamin I. Waller, an avocational underwater archaeologist. Titanis was thought to be carnivorous and most likely preyed on the many small mammals of the time period. This giant flightless bird was one of the most efficient predators of its time in North America.

caronycteris is an extinct genus of microchiropteran (echolocating) bat that lived in the early Eocene, approximately 52.2 million years ago, making it the earliest known definitive bat. Four exceptionally preserved specimens, among the best preserved bat fossils, are known from the Green River Formation of North America. There is only one thoroughly described species of bat in the genus, I. index, although fragmentary material from France has also been tentatively placed within Icaronycteris as the second species I. menui. I. sigei is based on well-preserved fragments of dentaries and lower teeth found in Western India.

Lola: FIRESTORM STYLE NINJA ART: BAJADASAURUS!

Lola fired a wave of fire and it formed into the newly discovered dinosaurs from 140 million years ago: Bajadasaurus!

---

Bajadasaurus is a genus of sauropod dinosaur from the Early Cretaceous epoch (late Berriasian to Valanginian stages) of northern Patagonia, Argentina. It was first described in 2019 based on a single specimen found in 2010 that includes a largely complete skull and parts of the neck. The only species is Bajadasaurus pronuspinax. The genus is classified as a member of the Dicraeosauridae, a group of comparatively small and short-necked sauropods that lived from the Early or Middle Jurassic to the end of the Early Cretaceous.

Bajadasaurus sported bifurcated, extremely elongated neural spines extending from the neck vertebrae. Similar elongated spines are known from the closely related and more completely known Amargasaurus. Various possible functions have been proposed for these spines in Amargasaurus, with the 2019 description of Bajadasaurus suggesting that they could have served as passive defense against predators in both genera. The skull was gracile and equipped with around 44 teeth that were pencil-shaped and restricted to the front of the jaws. The eye openings of Bajadasaurus were exposed in top view of the skull, possibly allowing the animal to look forwards while feeding. Bajadasaurus was discovered in sedimentary rocks of the Bajada Colorada Formation, and its environment resembled a braided river system. It shared its environment with other dinosaurs including the sauropod Leinkupal and different theropods.

Lily: OCEAN STYLE NINJA ART: MOSASAURUS!

Lily fired a wave of water and it formed into the marine reptile from 87 million years ago: Mosasaurus!

Mosasaurus (/ˌmoʊzəˈsɔːrəs/; "lizard of the Meuse River") is the type genus of the mosasaurs, an extinct group of aquatic squamate reptiles. The genus lived from about 82 to 66 million years ago during the Campanian and Maastrichtian stages of the Late Cretaceous. The earliest fossils known to science were found as skulls in a chalk quarry near the Dutch city of Maastricht in the late 1700s, which were initially thought to have been the bones of crocodiles or whales. One particular skull discovered at around 1780, and which was seized during the French Revolutionary Wars for its scientific value and transported to Paris, was famously nicknamed the "great animal of Maastricht". In 1808, naturalist Georges Cuvier concluded that it belonged to a giant marine lizard with similarities to monitor lizards but otherwise unlike any animal known today. This concept was revolutionary at the time and helped support the then-developing ideas of extinction. However, Cuvier did not designate a scientific name for the new animal; this task was completed by William Daniel Conybeare in 1822 when he named it Mosasaurus in reference to its origin in fossil deposits near the Meuse River. The relationships between Mosasaurus and modern reptiles are controversial and scientists continue to debate whether its closest living relatives are monitor lizards or snakes.

Traditional interpretations have estimated the maximum length of Mosasaurus to be up to 17.6 meters (58 ft), making it one of the largest mosasaur genera. Its skull, which was either broad or slender depending on the species, was equipped with robust jaws capable of swinging back and forth and strong muscles capable of powerful bites using dozens of large teeth designed for cutting prey. Its tail was long and ended in a paddle-like fluke that bent downwards. Mosasaurus was a predator that had excellent vision to compensate for its poor sense of smell, and a high metabolic rate that suggests it was warm-blooded, an adaptation found in other mosasaurs but no other squamates. The classification of Mosasaurus was historically problematic due to an unclear diagnosis of the type specimen. As a result, over fifty different species have been attributed to the genus in the past. A rediagnosis of the type specimen in 2017 helped resolve the taxonomy issue and confirmed at least five species to be within the genus and another five species still nominally classified within Mosasaurus are planned to be reassessed in a future study. Each species was variable with unique anatomical features differentiating them from the robustly-built M. hoffmannii to the slender and serpentine M. lemonnieri.

Fossil evidence suggests that Mosasaurus inhabited much of the Atlantic Ocean and the seaways adjacent to it. Continents that have recovered Mosasaurus fossils include North America, South America, Europe, Africa, Western Asia, and Antarctica. This distribution encompassed a wide range of oceanic climates including tropical, subtropical, temperate, and subpolar climates. Mosasaurus was a common large predator in these oceans and a dominant genus positioned at the top of the food chain. Scientists believe that its diet would have included virtually anything; it likely preyed on bony fish, sharks, cephalopods, birds, and other marine reptiles including sea turtles and other mosasaurs. It likely preferred to hunt in open water near the surface. From an ecological standpoint, Mosasaurus probably had a profound impact in the structuring of marine ecosystems; its arrival in some locations such as the Western Interior Seaway in North America has been marked with a complete turnover of faunal assemblages and diversity. Mosasaurus faced competition with other large predatory mosasaurs such as Prognathodon and Tylosaurus-which are known to feed on similar prey-though they were able to coexist in the same ecosystems through niche partitioning. There were conflicts among them, as an attack on Mosasaurus by Tylosaurus has been documented. Several discovered fossils illustrated deliberate attacks on Mosasaurus individuals by another of the same species. Infighting likely took place in the form of snout grappling, similarly seen in modern crocodiles today.

It is known from numerous species which ranged in time from 160 to 145 million years ago, from the Oxfordian age of late Jurassic Period in China. The largest species, which according to Gregory S. Rainbow Dash: WIND STYLE NINJA ART: HAAST'S EAGLE!

Rainbow Dash fired a wave of wind and it formed into the one of the ancestral eagles from 1.8 million to 700,000 years ago: The Haast's Eagle!

---

The Haast's eagle (Hieraaetus moorei, synonym Harpagornis moorei) is an extinct species of eagle that once lived in the South Island of New Zealand, commonly accepted to be the pouakai of Maori legend. The species was the largest eagle known to have existed, with an estimated weight of 15 kilograms (33 lb) nearly double that of the Harpy eagle at 9 kilograms (20 lb). Its massive size is explained as an evolutionary response to the size of its prey, the flightless moa, the largest of which could weigh 230 kg (510 lb). Haast's eagle became extinct around 1400, after the moa were hunted to extinction by the first Māori.

Shrek: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: DEINOSUCHUS!

Shrek fired a wave of water and it formed into one of the first crocodiles from 82 million years ago: Deinosuchus!

---

Deinosuchus (/ˌdaɪnəˈsjuːkəs/) is an extinct genus of crocodilian related to the modern alligator that lived 82 to 73 million years ago (Ma), during the late Cretaceous period. The name translates as

"terrible crocodile" and is derived from the Greek deinos (δεινός), "terrible", and soukhos (σοῦχος), "crocodile". The first remains were discovered in North Carolina (United States) in the 1850s; the genus was named and described in 1909. Additional fragments were discovered in the 1940s and were later incorporated into an influential, though inaccurate, skull reconstruction at the American Museum of Natural History. Knowledge of Deinosuchus remains incomplete, but better cranial material found in recent years has expanded scientific understanding of this massive predator.

Although Deinosuchus was far larger than any modern crocodile or alligator, with the largest adults measuring 12 meters (39 ft) in total length, its overall appearance was fairly similar to its smaller relatives. It had large, robust teeth built for crushing, and its back was covered with thick hemispherical osteoderms. One study indicated Deinosuchus may have lived for up to 50 years, growing at a rate similar to that of modern crocodilians, but maintaining this growth over a much longer time.

Deinosuchus fossils have been described from 10 U.S. states, including Texas, Montana, and many along the East Coast. Fossils have also been found in northern Mexico. It lived on both sides of the Western Interior Seaway, and was an opportunistic apex predator in the coastal regions of eastern North America. Deinosuchus reached its largest size in its western habitat, but the eastern populations were far more abundant. Opinion remains divided as to whether these two populations represent separate species. Deinosuchus was probably capable of killing and eating large dinosaurs. It may have also fed upon sea turtles, fish, and other aquatic and terrestrial prey.

Lincoln: ICE STYLE NINJA ART: GORGOSAURUS!

Lincoln fired a wave of ice and it formed into the Theropod from 76.6 million years ago: Gorgosaurus!

---

Gorgosaurus (/ˌɡɔːrɡəˈsɔːrəs/ GOR-gə-SOR-əs; meaning "dreadful

lizard") is a genus of tyrannosaurid theropod dinosaur that lived in western North America during the Late Cretaceous Period (Campanian), between about 76.6 and 75.1 million years ago. Fossil remains have been found in the Canadian province of Alberta and possibly the U.S. state of Montana. Paleontologists recognize only the type species, G. libratus, although other species have been erroneously referred to the genus.

Like most known tyrannosaurids, Gorgosaurus was a bipedal predator weighing more than two metric tons as an adult; dozens of large, sharp teeth lined its jaws, while its two-fingered forelimbs were comparatively small. Gorgosaurus was most closely related to Albertosaurus, and more distantly related to the larger Tyrannosaurus. Gorgosaurus and Albertosaurus are extremely similar, distinguished mainly by subtle differences in the teeth and skull bones. Some experts consider G. libratus to be a species of Albertosaurus; this would make Gorgosaurus a junior synonym of that genus.

Gorgosaurus lived in a lush floodplain environment along the edge of an inland sea. It was an apex predator, preying upon abundant ceratopsids and hadrosaurs. In some areas, Gorgosaurus coexisted with another tyrannosaurid, Daspletosaurus. Although these animals were roughly the same size, there is some evidence of niche differentiation between the two. Gorgosaurus is the best-represented tyrannosaurid in the fossil record, known from dozens of specimens. These plentiful remains have allowed scientists to investigate its ontogeny, life history and other aspects of its biology.

Scutosaurus ("Shield lizard") was a genus of parareptiles. It was an armor-covered pareiasaur that lived around 265-254 million years ago in Russia, in the later Permian period. Its genus name refers to large plates of armor scattered across its body. It was a large anapsid reptile that, unlike most reptiles, held its legs underneath its body to support its great weight. Fossils have been found in the Sokolki Assemblage Zone of the Malokinelskaya Formation in European Russia, close to the Ural Mountains.

Bart: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: DINOGORGON!

Bart fired a wave of earth and it formed into the Gorgonopsid from 259 million years ago: Dinogorgon!

---

Dinogorgon is a genus of gorgonopsid from the Late Permian of South Africa and Tanzania. The generic name Dinogorgon is derived from Greek, meaning "terrible gorgon", while its species name rubidgei is taken from the surname of renowned Karoo paleontologist, Professor Bruce Rubidge, who has contributed to much of the research conducted on therapsids of the Karoo Basin. The type species of the genus is D. rubidgei.

Dinogorgon is part of the gorgonopsian subfamily Rubidgeinae, a derived group of large-bodied gorgonopsians restricted to the Late Permian (Lopingian). The Rubidgeinae subfamily first appeared in the Tropidostoma Assemblage Zone, and reached their highest diversity in the Cistecephalus and Daptocephalus assemblage zones of the Beaufort Group in South Africa.

Homer: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: EDAPHOSAURUS!

Homer fired a wave of earth and it formed into Dimetrodon-like synapsid from 303.4 million years ago: Edaphosaurus!

Edaphosaurus (/ˌɛdəfoʊ'sɔːrəs/, meaning "pavement lizard" for dense clusters of teeth) is a genus of extinct edaphosaurid synapsids that lived in what is now North America and Europe around 303.4 to 272.5 million years ago, during the late Carboniferous to early Permian periods. American paleontologist Edward Drinker Cope first described Edaphosaurus in 1882, naming it for the "dental pavement" on both the upper and lower jaws, from the Greek edaphos ἔδαφος ("ground"; also "pavement") and σαῦρος (sauros) ("lizard").

Edaphosaurus is important as one of the earliest-known, large, plant-eating (herbivorous), amniote tetrapods (four-legged land-living vertebrates). In addition to the large tooth plates in its jaws, the most characteristic feature of Edaphosaurus is a sail on its back. A number of other synapsids from the same time period also have tall dorsal sails, most famously the large apex predator Dimetrodon.

However, the sail on Edaphosaurus is different in shape and morphology. The first fossils of Edaphosaurus came from the Texas Red Beds in North America, with later finds in New Mexico, Oklahoma, West Virginia, and Ohio. Fragmentary fossils attributed to Edaphosaurus have also been found in eastern Germany in Central Europe.

Tabby: FOREST STYLE NINJA ART: DILOPHOSAURUS!

Tabby fired a wave of leaves and water and it formed into the theropod from 193 million years ago: Dilophosaurus!

Dilophosaurus (/daɪˌloʊfəˈsɔːrəs, -foʊ-/ dy-LOHF-o-SOR-əs) is a genus of theropod dinosaurs that lived in what is now North America during the Early Jurassic, about 193 million years ago. Three skeletons were discovered in northern Arizona in 1940, and the two best preserved were collected in 1942. The most complete specimen became the holotype of a new species in the genus Megalosaurus, named M. wetherilli by Samuel P. Welles in 1954. Welles found a larger skeleton belonging to the same species in 1964. Realizing it bore crests on its skull, he assigned the species to the new genus Dilophosaurus in 1970, as Dilophosaurus wetherilli. The genus name means "two-crested lizard", and the species name honors John Wetherill, a Navajo councilor. Further specimens have since been found, including an infant.

Footprints have also been attributed to the animal, including resting traces. Another species, Dilophosaurus sinensis from China, was named in 1993, but was later found to belong to the genus Sinosaurus. It was designated as the state dinosaur of Connecticut based on tracks found there.

At about 7 m (23 ft) in length, with a weight of about 400 kg (880 lb), Dilophosaurus was one of the earliest large predatory dinosaurs and the largest known land-animal in North America at the time. It was slender and lightly built, and the skull was proportionally large, but delicate. The snout was narrow, and the upper jaw had a gap or kink below the nostril. It had a pair of longitudinal, plate-shaped crests on its skull, similar to a cassowary with two crests. The mandible was slender and delicate at the front, but deep at the back. The teeth were long, curved, thin, and compressed sideways. Those in the lower jaw were much smaller than those of the upper jaw. Most of the teeth had serrations at their front and back edges. The neck was long, and its vertebrae were hollow, and very light. The arms were powerful, with a long and slender upper arm bone. The hands had four fingers; the first was short but strong and bore a large claw, the two following fingers were longer and slenderer with smaller claws; the fourth was vestigial. The thigh bone was massive, the feet were stout, and the toes bore large claws.

Dilophosaurus is a member of the family Dilophosauridae along with Dracovenator, a group placed between the Coelophysidae and later theropods. Dilophosaurus would have been active and bipedal, and may have hunted large animals; it could also have fed on smaller animals and fish. Due to the limited range of movement and shortness of the fore limbs, the mouth may instead have made first contact with prey. The function of the crests is unknown; they were too weak for battle, but may have been used in visual display, such as species recognition and sexual selection. It may have grown rapidly, attaining a growth rate of 30 to 35 kg (66 to 77 lb) per year early in life. The holotype specimen had multiple paleopathologies, including healed injuries and signs of a developmental anomaly. Dilophosaurus is known from the Kayenta Formation, and lived alongside dinosaurs such as Megapnosaurus and Sarahsaurus.

Dilophosaurus was featured in the novel Jurassic Park and its movie adaptation, wherein it was given the fictional abilities to spit venom and expand a neck frill, as well as being smaller than the real animal.

The American lion (Panthera atrox), also known as the "North American lion", or "American cave lion", is an extinct pantherine cat that lived in North America during the Pleistocene epoch and the early Holocene epoch, about 340,000 to 11,000 years ago. Its fossils have been excavated from Alaska to Mexico. Genetic analysis has shown that the American lion and the Late Pleistocene Eurasian cave lion (Panthera spelaea) are sister lineages. It was about 25% larger than the modern lion, making it one of the largest known felids.

Camarasaurus (/ˌkæmərəˈsɔːrəs/ KAM-ər-ə-SAWR-əs) was a genus of quadrupedal, herbivorous dinosaurs. It was the most common of the giant sauropods to be found in North America. Its fossil remains have been found in the Morrison Formation of Colorado and Utah, dating to the Late Jurassic epoch (Kimmeridgian to Tithonian stages), between 155 and 145 million years ago.

Camarasaurus presented a distinctive cranial profile of a blunt snout and an arched skull that was remarkably square. It likely travelled in herds, or at least in family groups.

The name means "chambered lizard", referring to the hollow chambers in its vertebrae (Greek καμαρα (kamara) meaning "vaulted chamber", or anything with an arched cover, and σαυρος (sauros) meaning "lizard").

Pachyrhinosaurus (meaning in Greek "thick-nosed lizard", from Παχυ (pachy), thick; ρινό (rinó), nose; and σαυρος (sauros), lizard) is an extinct genus of centrosaurine ceratopsid dinosaur from the Late Cretaceous period of North America. The first examples were discovered by Charles M. Sternberg in Alberta, Canada, in 1946, and named in 1950. Over a dozen partial skulls and a large assortment of other fossils from various species have been found in Alberta and Alaska. A great number were not available for study until the 1980s, resulting in a relatively recent increase of interest in Pachyrhinosaurus.

Three species have been identified. P. lakustai, from the Wapiti Formation, the bonebed horizon of which is roughly equivalent age to the upper Bearpaw and lower Horseshoe Canyon Formations, is known to have existed from about 73.5-72.5 million years ago. P. canadensis is younger, known from the lower Horseshoe Canyon Formation, about 71.5-71 Ma ago and the St. Mary River Formation. Fossils of the youngest species, P. perotorum, have been recovered from the Prince Creek Formation of Alaska, and date to 70-69 Ma ago. The presence of three known species makes this genus the most speciose among the centrosaurines.

Kiba: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: POSTOSUCHUS!

Kiba fired a wave of earth and it formed into the rauisuchid from 221 million years ago: Postosuchus!

---

Postosuchus, meaning "Crocodile from Post", is an extinct genus of rauisuchid reptiles comprising two species, P. kirkpatricki and P. alisonae, that lived in what is now North America during the Late Triassic. Postosuchus is a member of the clade Pseudosuchia, the lineage of archosaurs that includes modern crocodilians (the other main group of archosaurs is Avemetatarsalia, the lineage that includes non-avian dinosaurs and their descendants, birds). Its name refers to Post Quarry, a place in Texas where many fossils of the type species, P. kirkpatricki, were found. It was one of the apex predators of its area during the Triassic, larger than the small dinosaur predators of its time (such as Coelophysis). It was a hunter which probably preyed on large large bulky herbivores like dicynodonts and many other creatures smaller than itself (such as early dinosaurs).

The skeleton of Postosuchus is large and robust with a deep skull and a long tail. The total body length is about 4 to 5 metres (13 to 16 ft). The extreme shortness of the forelimbs relative to the hind limbs, the very small hands, and measurements of the vertebrae suggest that Postosuchus may have been committed to bipedal locomotion.

Rock Lee: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: MOSCHOPS!

Rock Lee fired a wave of earth and it formed into the therapsid from 265 million years ago: Moschops!

---

Moschops (Greek for "calf face") is an extinct genus of therapsids that lived in the Guadalupian epoch, around 265-260 million years ago. They were heavily built plant eaters, and they may have lived partly in water, as hippopotamuses do. They had short, thick heads and might have competed by head-butting each other. Their elbow joints allowed them to walk with a more mammal-like gait rather than crawling. Their remains were found in the Karoo region of South Africa, belonging to the Tapinocephalus Assemblage Zone. Therapsids, such as Moschops, are synapsids, the dominant land animals in the Permian period, which ended 252 million years ago.

Tenten: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: ANKYLOSAURUS!

Tenten fired a wave of earth and it formed into the armored dinosaur from 68 million years ago: Ankylosaurus!

Ankylosaurus is a genus of armored dinosaur. Its fossils have been found in geological formations dating to the very end of the Cretaceous Period, about 68-66 million years ago, in western North America, making it among the last of the non-avian dinosaurs. It was named by Barnum Brown in 1908; the only species in the genus is A. magniventris. The genus name means "fused lizard", and the specific name means "great belly". A handful of specimens have been excavated to date, but a complete skeleton has not been discovered. Though other members of Ankylosauria are represented by more extensive fossil material, Ankylosaurus is often considered the archetypal member of its group, despite having some unusual features.

Possibly the largest-known ankylosaurid, Ankylosaurus is estimated to have been between 6 and 8 meters (20 and 26 ft) long and to have weighed between 4.8 and 8 metric tons (5.3 and 8.8 short tons). It was quadrupedal, with a broad, robust body. It had a wide, low skull, with two horns pointing backward from the back of the head, and two horns below these that pointed backward and down. Unlike other ankylosaurs, its nostrils faced sideways rather than towards the front. The front part of the jaws was covered in a beak, with rows of small, leaf-shaped teeth farther behind it. It was covered in armor plates, or osteoderms, with bony half-rings covering the neck, and had a large club on the end of its tail. Bones in the skull and other parts of the body were fused, increasing their strength, and this feature is the source of the genus name.

Ankylosaurus is a member of the family Ankylosauridae, and its closest relatives appear to be Anodontosaurus and Euoplocephalus. Ankylosaurus is thought to have been a slow-moving animal, able to make quick movements when necessary. Its broad muzzle indicates it was a non-selective browser. Sinuses and nasal chambers in the snout may have been for heat and water balance or may have played a role in vocalization. The tail club is thought to have been used in defense against predators or in intraspecific combat. Ankylosaurus has been found in the Hell Creek, Lance, Scollard, Frenchman, and Ferris formations, but appears to have been rare in its environment. Although it lived alongside a nodosaurid ankylosaur, their ranges and ecological niches do not appear to have overlapped, and Ankylosaurus may have inhabited upland areas. Ankylosaurus also lived alongside dinosaurs such as Tyrannosaurus, Triceratops, and Edmontosaurus.

Massospondylus (/ˌmæsoʊˈspɒndɪləs/ mas-oh-SPON-di-ləs; from Greek, μάσσων (massōn, "longer") and σπόνδυλος (spondylos, "vertebra")) is a genus of sauropodomorph dinosaur from the Early Jurassic Period (Hettangian to Pliensbachian ages, ca. 200-183 million years ago). It was described by Sir Richard Owen in 1854 from remains discovered in South Africa, and is thus one of the first dinosaurs to have been named. Fossils have since been found at other locations in South Africa, Lesotho, and Zimbabwe. Material from Arizona's Kayenta Formation, India, and Argentina has been assigned to this genus at various times, but the Arizonan and Argentinian material are now assigned to other genera.

The type species is M. carinatus; seven other species have been named during the past 150 years, but only M. kaalae among these is still considered valid. Early sauropodomorphs systematics have undergone numerous revisions during the last several years, and many scientists disagree where exactly Massospondylus lies on the dinosaur evolutionary tree. The family name Massospondylidae was once coined for the genus, but because knowledge of early sauropodomorph relationships is in a state of flux, it is unclear which other dinosaurs-if any-belong in a natural grouping of massospondylids; several 2007 papers support the family's validity.

Although Massospondylus was long depicted as quadrupedal, a 2007 study found it to be bipedal. It was probably a plant eater (herbivore), although it is speculated that the early sauropodomorphs may have been omnivorous. This animal, which was 4-6 metres (13-20 ft) long, had a long neck and tail, with a small head and slender body. On each of its forefeet, it bore a sharp thumb claw that was used in defense or feeding. Recent studies indicate that Massospondylus grew steadily throughout its lifespan, possessed air sacs similar to those of birds, and may have cared for its young.

Haku: ICE STYLE NINJA ART: AMERICAN MASTODON!

Haku fired a wave of ice and it formed into the ancestral elephant of the Great Ice Age from 5.3 million to 10,000 years ago: The American Mastodon!

---

A mastodon (Greek: μαστός "breast" and ὀδούς, "tooth") is any proboscidean belonging to the extinct genus Mammut (family Mammutidae) that inhabited North and Central America during the late Miocene or late Pliocene up to their extinction at the end of the Pleistocene 10,000 to 11,000 years ago. Mastodons lived in herds and were predominantly forest-dwelling animals that lived on a mixed diet obtained by browsing and grazing, somewhat similar to their distant relatives, modern elephants, but probably with greater emphasis on browsing.

M. americanum, the American mastodon, and M. pacificus, the Pacific mastodon, are the youngest and best-known species of the genus. Mastodons disappeared from North America as part of a mass extinction of most of the Pleistocene megafauna, widely believed to have been caused by overexploitation by Clovis hunters.

Sasuke: LIGHTNING STYLE NINJA ART: COMPSOGNATHUS!

Sasuke fired a wave of lightning and it formed into the fast carnivore from 150.8 million years ago: Compsognathus!

---

Compsognathus (/kɒmp'sɒgnəθəs/; Greek kompsos/κομψός; "elegant", "refined" or "dainty", and gnathos/γνάθος; "jaw") is a genus of small, bipedal, carnivorous theropod dinosaur. Members of its single species Compsognathus longipes could grow to around the size of a turkey. They lived about 150 million years ago, during the Tithonian age of the late Jurassic period, in what is now Europe. Paleontologists have found two well-preserved fossils, one in Germany in the 1850s and the second in France more than a century later. Today, C. longipes is the only recognized species, although the larger specimen discovered in France in the 1970s was once thought to belong to a separate species and named C. corallestris.

Many presentations still describe Compsognathus as "chicken-sized" dinosaurs because of the size of the German specimen, which is now believed to be a juvenile. Compsognathus longipes is one of the few dinosaur species whose diet is known with certainty: the remains of small, agile lizards are preserved in the bellies of both specimens. Teeth discovered in Portugal may be further fossil remains of the genus.

Although not recognized as such at the time of its discovery, Compsognathus is the first theropod dinosaur known from a reasonably complete fossil skeleton. Until the 1990s, it was the smallest-known non-avialan dinosaur, with the preceding centuries incorrectly labelling them as the closest relative of Archaeopteryx.

Fu: ARTHROPOD STYLE NINJA ART: BRONTOSCORPIO!

Fu fired a wave of energy and it formed into the Silurian early scorpions from over 423 million years ago: Brontoscorpio!

---

Brontoscorpio anglicus is a species of fossil scorpion. Its remains were discovered in Upper Silurian-aged sandstone from Trimpley, Worcestershire, and the species was described on the basis of an incomplete single free finger of a pedipalp, almost 10 centimetres (3.9 in) long. The complete animal is estimated to have been at least 90 centimetres (35 in) long.

The remains were found in terrestrial sediments, but it is believed, that due to its size, Brontoscorpio had to enter the water to molt. Possibly it lived a semi or fully aquatic life.

Shino fired a wave of energy and it formed into the Carboniferous Trilobite from 345 million years ago: Arthropleura!

Arthropleura (Greek for jointed ribs) is a genus of extinct millipede arthropods that lived in what is now northeastern North America and Scotland around 345 to 295 million years ago, from the Viséan stage of the lower Carboniferous Period to the Asselian stage of the lower Permian Period. The larger species of the genus are the largest known land invertebrates of all time, and would have had few, if any, predators.

Zabuza: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: SARCOSUCHUS!

Zabuza fired a wave of water and it formed into the largest crocodilian dinosaur ever known from 133 million years ago: Sarcosuchus!

---

Sarcosuchus (/ˌsɑːrkoʊˈsuːkəs/; meaning "flesh crocodile") is an extinct genus of crocodyliform and distant relative of living crocodylians that lived during the Early Cretaceous, from the late Hauterivian to the early Albian, 133 to 112 million years ago of what is now Africa and South America. It was one of the largest crocodile-line reptiles, reaching an average estimate of 9 m (30 ft) and 3.5 metric tons (3.9 short tons), but estimated to grow up to 9.5 m (31 ft) in body length and weigh up to 4.3 metric tons (4.7 short tons). It is known from two species, S. imperator from the early Albian Elrhaz Formation of Niger and S. hartti from the Late Hauterivian of northeastern Brazil, other material is known from Morocco and

Tunisia and possibly Libya and Mali.

The first remains were discovered during several expeditions led by the French paleontologist Albert-Félix de Lapparent, spanning from 1946 to 1959, in the Sahara. These remains were fragments of the skull, vertebrae, teeth, and scutes. In 1964, an almost complete skull was found in Niger by the French CEA, but it was not until 1997 and 2000 that most of its anatomy became known to science, when an expedition led by the American paleontologist Paul Sereno discovered six new specimens, including one with about half the skeleton intact and most of the spine.

Kabuto: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: PARASAUROLOPHUS!

Kabuto fired a wave of water and it formed into a herd of beautiful hadrosaurs from 76.5 million years ago: Parasaurolophus!

---

Parasaurolophus (/ˌpærəsɔːˈrɒləfəs, -ˌsɔːrəˈloʊfəs/; meaning "near crested lizard" in reference to Saurolophus) is a genus of herbivorous ornithopod dinosaur that lived in what is now North America and possibly Asia during the Late Cretaceous Period, about 76.5-73 million years ago. It was an herbivore that walked both as a biped and as a quadruped. Three species are universally recognized: P. walkeri (the type species), P. tubicen, and the short-crested P. cyrtocristatus. Additionally, a fourth species, P. jiayensis, has been proposed, although it is more commonly placed in the separate genus Charonosaurus. Remains are known from Alberta (Canada), New Mexico and Utah (United States), and possibly Heilongjiang, (China). The genus was first described in 1922 by William Parks from a skull and partial skeleton found in Alberta.

Parasaurolophus was a hadrosaurid, part of a diverse family of Cretaceous dinosaurs known for their range of bizarre head adornments. This genus is known for its large, elaborate cranial crest, which at its largest forms a long curved tube projecting upwards and back from the skull. Charonosaurus from China, which may have been its closest relative, had a similar skull and potentially a similar crest. Visual recognition of both species and sex, acoustic resonance, and thermoregulation have been proposed as functional explanations for the crest. It is one of the rarer hadrosaurids, known from only a handful of good specimens.

Finn: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: LAMBEOSAURUS!

Finn fired a wave of water and it formed into a heard of hadrosaurs from 76 million years ago: Lambeosaurus!

Lambeosaurus (/ˌlæmbioʊˈsɔːrəs/ LAM-bee-o-SAWR-əs; meaning "Lambe's lizard") is a genus of hadrosaurid dinosaur that lived about 75 million years ago, in the Late Cretaceous period (Campanian stage) of North America. This bipedal/quadrupedal, herbivorous dinosaur is known for its distinctive hollow cranial crest, which in the best-known species resembled a hatchet. Several possible species have been named, from Canada, the United States, and Mexico, but only the two Canadian species are currently recognized as valid.

Material relevant to the genus was first named by Lawrence Lambe in 1902. Over twenty years later, the modern name was coined in 1923 by William Parks, in honour of Lambe, based on better preserved specimens. The genus has a complicated taxonomic history, in part because small-bodied crested hadrosaurids now recognized as juveniles were once thought to belong to their own genera and species. Currently, the various skulls assigned to the type species L. lambei are interpreted as showing age differences and sexual dimorphism. Lambeosaurus was closely related to the better known Corythosaurus, which is found in slightly older rocks, as well as the less well-known genera Hypacrosaurus and Olorotitan. All had unusual crests, which are now generally assumed to have served social functions like noisemaking and recognition.

Jake the Dog: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: TSINTAOSAURUS!

Jake fired a wave of water and it formed into a herd of hadrosaurs from 70 million years ago: Tsintaosaurus!

Tsintaosaurus (/tʃɪŋdaʊˈsɔːrəs/; meaning "Qingdao lizard", after the old transliteration "Tsingtao") is a genus of hadrosaurid dinosaur from China. It was about 8.3 metres (27 ft) long and weighed 2.5 tonnes. The type species is Tsintaosaurus spinorhinus, first described by Chinese paleontologist C. C. Young in 1958.

A hadrosaur, Tsintaosaurus had a characteristic 'duck bill' snout and a battery of powerful teeth which it used to chew vegetation. It usually walked on all fours, but could rear up on its hind legs to scout for predators and flee when it spotted one. Like other hadrosaurs, Tsintaosaurus probably lived in herds.

Flame Princess: FIRE STYLE NINJA ART: CARCHARODONTOSAURUS!

Flame Princess fired a wave of fire and it formed into theropod from 100 million years ago: Carcharodontosaurus!

Carcharodontosaurus /ˌkɑːrkəroʊˌdɒntoʊˈsɔːrəs/ is a genus of carnivorous carcharodontosaurid dinosaurs that existed during the Cenomanian stage of the mid-Cretaceous Period in Northern Africa. It is currently known to include two species: C. saharicus and C. iguidensis, which are among the larger theropods, nearly as large as or even larger than Tyrannosaurus, Giganotosaurus, and Spinosaurus.

The genus Carcharodontosaurus is named after the shark genus Carcharodon, itself composed of the Greek karchar[os] (κάρχαρος, meaning "jagged" or "sharp") and odōn (ὀδών, "teeth"), and the suffix -saurus ("lizard").

Mario: (Italian Accent) WATER STYLE NINJA ART: CORYTHOSAURUS!

Mario fired a wave of water and it formed into the hadrosaur from 77 million years ago: Corythosaurus!

---

Corythosaurus /ˌkɒrɪθoʊ'sɔːrəs/ is a genus of hadrosaurid "duck-billed" dinosaur from the Upper Cretaceous Period, about 77-75.7 million years ago. It lived in what is now North America. Its name means "helmet lizard", derived from Greek κόρυς. It was named and described in 1914 by Barnum Brown. Corythosaurus is now thought to be a lambeosaurine, related to Nipponosaurus, Velafrons, Hypacrosaurus, and Olorotitan. Corythosaurus has an estimated length of 9 metres (30 ft), and has a skull, including the crest, that is 70.8 centimetres (27.9 in; 2.32 ft) tall.

Corythosaurus is known from many complete specimens, including the nearly complete holotype found by Brown in 1911. The holotype skeleton is only missing the last section of the tail, and part of the forelimbs, but was preserved with impressions of polygonal scales. Corythosaurus is known from many skulls with tall crests. The crests resemble the crests of the cassowary and a Corinthian helmet. The most likely function of the crest is thought to be vocalization. As in a trombone, sound waves would travel through many chambers in the crest, and then get amplified when Corythosaurus exhaled. A Corythosaurus specimen has been preserved with its last meal in its chest cavity. Inside the cavity were remains of conifer needles, seeds, twigs, and fruits: Corythosaurus probably fed on all of these.

The two species of Corythosaurus are both present in slightly different levels of the Dinosaur Park Formation. Both still co-existed with theropods and other ornithischians, like Daspletosaurus, Brachylophosaurus, Parasaurolophus, Scolosaurus, and Chasmosaurus.

Luigi: (Italian Accent) ARTHROPOD STYLE NINJA ART: MEGANEURA!

Luigi fired a wave of energy and it formed into a swarm of the Carboniferous dragonflies from 305 million years ago: Meganeura!

---

Meganeura is a genus of extinct insects from the Carboniferous period (approximately 300 million years ago), which resembled and are related to the present-day dragonflies. With wingspans ranging from 65 cm (25.6 in) to over 70 cm (28 in), M. monyi is one of the largest-known flying insect species. Meganeura were predatory, with their diet mainly consisting of other insects.

Wing venation of Meganeura monyi, redrawn after Brongniart (1893, Pl. XLI)

Fossils were discovered in the French Stephanian Coal Measures of Commentry in 1880. In 1885, French paleontologist Charles Brongniart described and named the fossil "Meganeura" (large-nerved), which refers to the network of veins on the insect's wings. Another fine fossil specimen was found in 1979 at Bolsover in Derbyshire. The holotype is housed in the National Museum of Natural History, in Paris.

Mei Terumi: OCEAN STYLE NINJA ART: MEGALODON!

Mei fired a wave of water and it formed into the largest and most meanest shark ever to swim the ocean and the ancestor of the Great White Shark from 23 million years ago.

---

Megalodon (Carcharocles megalodon), meaning "big tooth", is an extinct species of shark that lived approximately 23 to 3.6 million years ago (mya), during the Early Miocene to the Pliocene. It was formerly thought to be a member of the family Lamnidae and a close relative of the great white shark (Carcharodon carcharias). However, it is now classified into the extinct family Otodontidae, which diverged from the great white shark during the Early Cretaceous. Its genus placement is still debated, authors placing it in either Carcharocles, Megaselachus, Otodus, or Procarcharodon. This is because transitional fossils have been found showing that Megalodon is the final chronospecies of a lineage of giant sharks originally of the genus Otodus which evolved during the Paleocene.

While regarded as one of the largest and most powerful predators to have ever lived, megalodon is known from fragmentary remains, and its appearance and maximum size are uncertain. Scientists differ on whether it would have more closely resembled a stockier version of the great white shark, the basking shark (Cetorhinus maximus) or the sand tiger shark (Carcharias taurus). Most estimates of megalodon's size extrapolate from teeth; with maximum length estimates up to 18 meters (59 ft) and average length estimates of 10.5 meters (34 ft). Estimates suggest their large jaws could exert a bite force of up to 110,000 to 180,000 newtons (25,000 to 40,000 lbf). Their teeth were thick and robust, built for grabbing prey and breaking bone.

Megalodon probably had a major impact on the structure of marine communities. The fossil record indicates that it had a cosmopolitan distribution. It probably targeted large prey, such as whales, seals and sea turtles. Juveniles inhabited warm coastal waters and fed on fish and small whales. Unlike the great white, which attacks prey from the soft underside, megalodon probably used its strong jaws to break through the chest cavity and puncture the heart and lungs of its prey.

The animal faced competition from whale-eating cetaceans, such as Livyatan and other macroraptorial sperm whales and possibly smaller ancestral killer whales. As the shark preferred warmer waters, it is thought that oceanic cooling associated with the onset of the ice ages, coupled with the lowering of sea levels and resulting loss of suitable nursery areas, may have also contributed to its decline. A reduction in the diversity of baleen whales and a shift in their distribution toward polar regions may have reduced megalodon's primary food source. A 2019 study reviewed newer evidence suggesting that competition from the modern great white shark may have also contributed to the extinction of megalodon, coupled with range fragmentation resulting in a gradual, asynchronous extinction as a result of cooling oceans around 3.6-4 million years ago, far earlier than previously assumed. The extinction of the shark appeared to affect other animals; for example, the size of baleen whales increased significantly after the shark had disappeared.

Carol: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: STEGOSAURUS!

Carol fired a wave of Earth and it formed into the awesome dinosaur from 155 million years ago: Stegosaurus!

Stegosaurus (/ˌstɛɡəˈsɔːrəs/), from Greek stegos (στέγος), which means roof, and sauros (σαῦρος), which means lizard, is a genus of herbivorous thyreophoran dinosaur. Fossils of this genus date to the Late Jurassic period, where they are found in Kimmeridgian to early Tithonian aged strata, between 155 and 150 million years ago, in the western United States and Portugal. Of the species that have been classified in the upper Morrison Formation of the western US, only three are universally recognized; S. stenops, S. ungulatus and S. sulcatus. The remains of over 80 individual animals of this genus have been found. Stegosaurus would have lived alongside dinosaurs such as Apatosaurus, Diplodocus, Brachiosaurus, Allosaurus, and Ceratosaurus; the latter two may have preyed on it.

These were large, heavily built, herbivorous quadrupeds with rounded backs, short fore limbs, long hind limbs, and tails held high in the air. Due to their distinctive combination of broad, upright plates and tail tipped with spikes, Stegosaurus is one of the most recognizable kinds of dinosaurs. The function of this array of plates and spikes has been the subject of much speculation among scientists. Today, it is generally agreed that their spiked tails were most likely used for defense against predators, while their plates may have been used primarily for display, and secondarily for thermoregulatory functions. Stegosaurus had a relatively low brain-to-body mass ratio. It had a short neck and a small head, meaning it most likely ate low-lying bushes and shrubs. One species, Stegosaurus ungulatus, is the largest known of all the stegosaurians (bigger than related dinosaurs such as Kentrosaurus and Huayangosaurus).

Stegosaurus remains were first identified during the "Bone Wars" by Othniel Charles Marsh at Dinosaur Ridge National Landmark. The first known skeletons were fragmentary and the bones were scattered, and it would be many years before the true appearance of these animals, including their posture and plate arrangement, became well understood. Despite its popularity in books and film, mounted skeletons of Stegosaurus did not become a staple of major natural history museums until the mid-20th century, and many museums have had to assemble composite displays from several different specimens due to a lack of complete skeletons. Stegosaurus is one of the better-known dinosaurs, and has been featured in film, postal stamps, and many other types of media.

Beast Boy: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: TRICERATOPS!

Beast Boy fired a wave of earth and it formed into the fierce dinosaur from 68 million years ago: Triceratops!

---

Triceratops is a genus of herbivorous ceratopsid dinosaur that first appeared during the late Maastrichtian stage of the late Cretaceous period, about 68 million years ago (mya) in what is now North America. It is one of the last known non-avian dinosaur genera, and became extinct in the Cretaceous-Paleogene extinction event 66 million years ago. The name Triceratops, which literally means "three-horned face", is derived from the Ancient Greek words τρί- (tri-) meaning "three", κέρας (kéras) meaning "horn", and ὤψ (ōps) meaning "face".

Triceratops has been documented by numerous remains collected since the genus was first described in 1889 by Othniel Charles Marsh. Specimens representing life stages from hatchling to adult have been found. As the archetypal ceratopsid, Triceratops is one of the most popular dinosaurs, and has been featured in film, postal stamps, and many other types of media.

Bearing a large bony frill and three horns on the skull, and its large four-legged body possessing similarities with the modern rhinoceros, Triceratops is one of the most recognizable of all dinosaurs and the best-known ceratopsid. It was also one of the largest, up to 9 meters (29.5 ft) long and 12 metric tons (13 short tons) in weight. It shared the landscape with and was probably preyed upon by Tyrannosaurus, though it is less certain that the two did battle in the fanciful manner often depicted in museum displays and popular images. The functions of the frills and three distinctive facial horns on its head have long inspired debate. Traditionally, these have been viewed as defensive weapons against predators. More recent interpretations find it probable that these features were primarily used in species identification, courtship and dominance display, much like the antlers and horns of modern ungulates.

Triceratops was traditionally placed within the "short-frilled" ceratopsids but modern cladistic studies show it to be a member of the Chasmosaurinae which usually have long frills. Two species, T. horridus and T. prorsus, are considered valid today, from the seventeen species that have ever been named. Research published in 2010 concluded that the contemporaneous Torosaurus, a ceratopsid long regarded as a separate genus, represents Triceratops in its mature form. This view was immediately disputed with examination of more fossil evidence needed to settle the debate.

Linka: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: TOROSAURUS!

Linka fired a wave of earth and it formed into the ceratopsian from 68 million years ago: Torosaurus!

---

Torosaurus ("perforated lizard", in reference to the large openings in its frill) is a genus of herbivorous ceratopsid dinosaur that lived during the late Maastrichtian stage of the Cretaceous period, between 68 and 66 million years ago, though it is possible that the species range might extend to as far as 69 million years ago. Fossils have been discovered across the Western Interior of North America, from Saskatchewan to southern Texas.

Torosaurus possessed one of the largest skulls of any known land animal. The frilled skull reached up to 2.77 metres (9.1 ft) in length. From head to tail, Torosaurus is thought to have measured about 8 to 9 m (26 to 30 ft) long and weighed four to six tonnes. Torosaurus is distinguished from the contemporary Triceratops by an elongate frill with large openings (fenestrae), long squamosal bones of the frill with a trough on their upper surface, and the presence of five or more pairs of hornlets (epoccipitals) on the back of the frill. Torosaurus also lacked the long nose horn seen in Triceratops prorsus, and instead resembled the earlier and more basal Triceratops horridus in having a short nose horn. Three species have been named, Torosaurus latus, T. gladius and T. utahensis. T. gladius is no longer considered a valid species, however.

In 2010, the validity of Torosaurus was disputed. A study of fossil bone histology combined with an investigation of frill shape concluded that Torosaurus probably represented the mature form of Triceratops, with the bones of typical Triceratops specimens still immature and showing signs of a first development of distinct Torosaurus frill holes. During maturation, the skull frill would have been greatly lengthened and holes would have appeared in it. In 2011, 2012 and 2013 however, studies of external features of known specimens have claimed that morphological differences between the two genera preclude their synonymy. The main problems are a lack of good transitional forms, the apparent existence of authentic Torosaurus subadults, different skull proportions independent of maturation and the assertion that hole formation at an adult stage is not part of a normal ceratopsian maturation sequence.

Paula: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: NASUTOCERATOPS!

Paula fired a wave of earth and it formed into the ceratopsian from 75.9 million years ago: Nasutoceratops!

---

Nasutoceratops is an extinct genus of ceratopsian dinosaur. It is a basal centrosaurine which lived during the Late Cretaceous Period (late Campanian, about 76.0-75.5 Ma). Fossils have been found in southern Utah, United States. Nasutoceratops was a large, ground-dwelling, quadrupedal herbivore with a short snout and unique rounded horns above its eyes that have been likened to those of modern cattle. Extending almost to the tip of its snout, these horns are the longest of all the members of the centrosaurine subfamily. The presence of pneumatic elements in the nasal bones of Nasutoceratops are a unique trait and are unknown in any other ceratopsid. Nasutoceratops, Diabloceratops, and Machairoceratops are the only three centrosaurine dinosaurs from the American southwest.

Centrosaurus (/ˌsɛntroʊ'sɔːrəs/ SEN-tro-SAWR-əs) is a genus of herbivorous ceratopsian dinosaurs from the Late Cretaceous of Canada. Their remains have been found in the Dinosaur Park Formation, dating from 76.5 to 75.5 million years ago.

Hulk: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: STYRACOSAURUS!

Hulk fired a wave of earth and it formed into the ceratopsian from 75.5 million years ago: Styracosaurus!

Styracosaurus (/stɪˌrækə'sɔːrəs/ sti-RAK-ə-SOR-əs; meaning "spiked lizard" from the Ancient Greek styrax/στύραξ "spike at the butt-end of a spear-shaft" and sauros/σαῦρος "lizard") is a genus of herbivorous ceratopsian dinosaur from the Cretaceous Period (Campanian stage), about 75.5 to 75 million years ago. It had four to six long parietal spikes extending from its neck frill, a smaller jugal horn on each of its cheeks, and a single horn protruding from its nose, which may have been up to 60 centimetres (2 feet) long and 15 centimetres (6 inches) wide. The function or functions of the horns and frills have been debated for many years.

Styracosaurus was a relatively large dinosaur, reaching lengths of 5.5 metres (18 feet) and weighing nearly 3 tonnes. It stood about 1.8 meters (5.9 feet) tall. Styracosaurus possessed four short legs and a bulky body. Its tail was rather short. The skull had a beak and shearing cheek teeth arranged in continuous dental batteries, suggesting that the animal sliced up plants. Like other ceratopsians, this dinosaur may have been a herd animal, travelling in large groups, as suggested by bonebeds.

Named by Lawrence Lambe in 1913, Styracosaurus is a member of the Centrosaurinae. One species, S. albertensis, is currently assigned to Styracosaurus. Another species, S. ovatus, named in 1930 by Charles Gilmore was reassigned to a new genus, Rubeosaurus, by Andrew McDonald and Jack Horner in 2010.

She-Hulk: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: PACHYCEPHALOSAURUS!

She-Hulk fired a wave of earth and it formed into the ramming dinosaur from 70 million years ago: Pachycephalosaurus!

Pachycephalosaurus (/ˌpækɪˌsɛfələˈsɔːrəs/; meaning "thick-headed lizard," from Greek pachys-/παχύς- "thick", kephale/κεφαλή "head" and sauros/σαῦρος "lizard") is a genus of pachycephalosaurid dinosaurs. The type species, P. wyomingensis, is the only known species. It lived during the Late Cretaceous Period (Maastrichtian stage) of what is now North America. Remains have been excavated in Montana, South Dakota, Wyoming and Alberta. It was a herbivorous creature which is primarily known from a single skull and a few extremely thick skull roofs, though more complete fossils have been found in recent years. Pachycephalosaurus was one of the last non-avian dinosaurs before the Cretaceous-Paleogene extinction event. Another dinosaur, Tylosteus of western North America, has been synonymized with Pachycephalosaurus, as have the genera Stygimoloch and Dracorex in recent studies.

Like other pachycephalosaurids, Pachycephalosaurus was a bipedal herbivore with an extremely thick skull roof. It possessed long hindlimbs and small forelimbs. Pachycephalosaurus is the largest-known pachycephalosaur. The thick skull domes of Pachycephalosaurus and related genera gave rise to the hypothesis that pachycephalosaurs used their skulls in intra-species combat. This hypothesis has been disputed in recent years.

Rarity: CRYSTAL STYLE NINJA ART: PLATEOSAURUS!

Rarity fired a wave of crystal and it formed into the protosauropod from 214 million years ago: Plateosaurus!

---

Plateosaurus (probably meaning "broad lizard", often mistranslated as "flat lizard") is a genus of plateosaurid dinosaur that lived during the Late Triassic period, around 214 to 204 million years ago, in what is now Central and Northern Europe and Greenland, North America. Plateosaurus is a basal (early) sauropodomorph dinosaur, a so-called "prosauropod". As of 2011, two species are recognised: the type species P. engelhardti from the late Norian and Rhaetian, and the slightly earlier P. gracilis from the lower Norian. However, others have been assigned in the past, and there is no broad consensus on the species taxonomy of plateosaurid dinosaurs. Similarly, there are a plethora of synonyms (invalid duplicate names) at the genus level.

Discovered in 1834 by Johann Friedrich Engelhardt and described three years later by Hermann von Meyer, Plateosaurus was the fifth named dinosaur genus that is still considered valid. Although it had been described before Richard Owen formally named Dinosauria in 1842, it was not one of the three genera used by Owen to define the group, because at the time, it was poorly known and difficult to identify as a dinosaur. It is now among the dinosaurs best known to science: over 100 skeletons have been found, some of them nearly complete. The abundance of its fossils in Swabia, Germany, has led to the nickname Schwäbischer Lindwurm (Swabian lindworm).

Plateosaurus was a bipedal herbivore with a small skull on a long, flexible neck, sharp but plump plant-crushing teeth, powerful hind limbs, short but muscular arms and grasping hands with large claws on three fingers, possibly used for defence and feeding. Unusually for a dinosaur, Plateosaurus showed strong developmental plasticity: instead of having a fairly uniform adult size, fully grown individuals were between 4.8 and 10 metres (16 and 33 ft) long and weighed between 600 and 4,000 kilograms (1,300 and 8,800 lb). Commonly, the animals lived for at least 12 to 20 years, but the maximum life span is not known.

Despite the great quantity and excellent quality of the fossil material, Plateosaurus was for a long time one of the most misunderstood dinosaurs. Some researchers proposed theories that were later shown to conflict with geological and palaeontological evidence, but have become the paradigm of public opinion. Since 1980 the taxonomy (relationships), taphonomy (how the animals became embedded and fossilised), biomechanics (how their skeletons worked), and palaeobiology (life circumstances) of Plateosaurus have been re-studied in detail, altering the interpretation of the animal's biology, posture and behaviour.

Azula: LIGHTNING STYLE NINJA ART: KENTROSAURUS!

Azula fired a wave of lightning and it formed into the stegosaur from 152 million years ago: Kentrosaurus!

---

Kentrosaurus (/ˌkɛntroʊˈsɔːrəs/ KEN-tro-SAWR-əs) is a genus of stegosaurian dinosaur from the Late Jurassic of Tanzania. The type species is K. aethiopicus, named and described by German palaeontologist Edwin Hennig in 1915. Often thought to be a "primitive" member of the Stegosauria, several recent cladistic analyses find it as more derived than many other stegosaurs, and a close relative of Stegosaurus from the North American Morrison Formation within the Stegosauridae.

Fossils of K. aethiopicus have been found only in the Tendaguru Formation, dated to the late Kimmeridgian and early Tithonian ages, about 152 million years ago. Hundreds of bones were unearthed by German expeditions to German East Africa between 1909 and 1912. Although no complete skeletons are known, the remains provided a nearly complete picture of the build of the animal.

Kentrosaurus generally measured around 4.5 metres (15 ft) in length as an adult, and weighed about one tonne (1.1 tons). It walked on all fours with straight hindlimbs. It had a small, elongated head with a beak used to bite off plant material that would be digested in a large gut. It had a, probably double, row of small plates running down its neck and back. These plates gradually merged into spikes on the hip and tail. The longest spikes were on the tail end and were used to actively defend the animal. There also was a long spike on each shoulder. The thigh bones come in two different types, suggesting that one sex was larger and more stout than the other.

Miragaia (named after Miragaia, the parish in Portugal and geologic unit where its remains were found) is a long-necked stegosaurid dinosaur. Its fossils have been found in Upper Jurassic rocks in Portugal. Miragaia has the longest neck known for any stegosaurian, which included at least seventeen vertebrae.

Meowth: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: BRONTOTHERIUM!

Meowth fired a wave of earth and it formed into the early ancestors of the Rhinoceros from 38 million years ago: Brontotherium!

Megacerops ("large-horned face", from méga- "large" + kéras "horn" + ōps "face") is an extinct genus of the prehistoric odd-toed ungulate (hoofed mammal) family Brontotheriidae, an extinct group of rhinoceros-like browsers related to horses. It was endemic to North America during the Late Eocene epoch (38-33.9 mya), existing for approximately 4.1 million years.

Andrewsarchus (/ˌændruːˈsɑːrkəs/) is an extinct genus of mammal that lived during the middle Eocene epoch in what is now Inner Mongolia, China. Only one species is usually recognized, A. mongoliensis, known from a single skull of great size discovered in 1923 during the expeditions to central Asia by the American Museum of Natural History (AMNH). Generally classified as a mesonychid since its original description, most recent studies classify it as an artiodactyl, in one study specifically, as a member of the clade Cetancodontamorpha, closely related to entelodonts, hippos and whales.

James (Pokemon): EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: LYSTROSAURUS!

James fired a wave of earth and it formed into the Dicynodont from 255 million years ago: Lystrosaurus!

---

Lystrosaurus (/ˌlɪstroʊˈsɔːrəs/; 'shovel lizard'; proper Greek is λίστρον lístron 'tool for leveling or smoothing, shovel, spade, hoe') was a herbivorous genus of dicynodont therapsids from the late Permian and Early Triassic epochs (around 250 million years ago). It lived in what is now Antarctica, India, China, Mongolia, European Russia and South Africa. Four to six species are currently recognized, although from the 1930s to 1970s the number of species was thought to be much higher. They ranged in size from that of a small dog to 2.5 meters long.

Being a dicynodont, Lystrosaurus had only two teeth (a pair of tusk-like canines), and is thought to have had a horny beak that was used for biting off pieces of vegetation. Lystrosaurus was a heavily built, herbivorous animal, approximately the size of a pig. The structure of its shoulders and hip joints suggests that Lystrosaurus moved with a semi-sprawling gait. The forelimbs were even more robust than the hindlimbs, and the animal is thought to have been a powerful digger that nested in burrows.

Lystrosaurus survived the Permian-Triassic extinction, 252 million years ago. In the Early Triassic, they were by far the most common terrestrial vertebrates, accounting for as many as 95% of the total individuals in some fossil beds. Researchers have offered various hypotheses for why Lystrosaurus survived the extinction event and prospered in the early Triassic.

Star Butterfly: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: DEINOTHERIUM!

Star fired a wave of earth and it formed into one of the first ever ancestors of the elephant from 24 million years ago: Deinotherium!

Deinotherium ("terrible beast" derived from the Ancient Greek δεινός, deinos meaning "terrible" and θηρίον, therion meaning "beast") was a large prehistoric relative of modern-day elephants that appeared in the Middle Miocene and survived until the Early Pleistocene. During that time, it changed very little. In life, it probably resembled modern elephants, except it had downward-curving tusks attached to the lower jaw.

Marco Diaz: WOOD STYLE NINJA ART: DINOFELIS!

Dinofelis is a genus of extinct sabre-toothed cats belonging to the tribe Metailurini. They were widespread in Europe, Asia, Africa and North America at least 5 million to about 1.2 million years ago (Early Pliocene to Early Pleistocene). Fossils very similar to Dinofelis from Lothagam range back to the Late Miocene, some 8 million years ago.

Kitten: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: MACRAUCHENIA!

Kitten fired a wave of earth and it formed into the ancestor of the llama from 7 million years ago: Macrauchenia!

Macrauchenia ("long llama", based on the now superseded Latin term for llamas, Auchenia, from Greek "big neck") was a large, long-necked and long-limbed, three-toed native South American mammal in the order Litopterna. The genus gives its name to its family, the Macraucheniidae or "robust litopterns". Like other litopterns, it is not closely related to any living mammal, being most closely related to the group containing horses, rhinos and tapirs (the Perissodactyla), from which litopterns diverged approximately 66 million years ago. The oldest fossils in the genus date to the late Miocene, around seven million years ago, and M. patachonica disappears from the fossil record during the late Pleistocene, around 20,000-10,000 years ago. M. patachonica is one of the last and best known member of the family and is known primarily from the Luján Formation in Argentina, but is known from localities across southern South America. Another genus of macraucheniid Xenorhinotherium was present in northeast Brazil and Venezuela during the Late Pleistocene. The type specimen was discovered by Charles Darwin during the voyage of the Beagle. In life, Macrauchenia may have resembled a humpless camel, though the two taxa are not closely related. It fed on plants in a variety of environments across what is now South America. Among the species described, M. patachonica and M. ullomensis are considered valid; M. boliviensis is considered a nomen dubium; and M. antiqua (or M. antiquus) has been moved to the genus Promacrauchenia.

Tuddrussel: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: ALBERTOSAURUS!

Tuddrussel fired a wave of earth and it formed into the theropod from 71 million years ago: Albertosaurus!

Albertosaurus (/ælˌbɜːrtəˈsɔːrəs/; meaning "Alberta lizard") is a genus of tyrannosaurid theropod dinosaurs that lived in western North America during the Late Cretaceous Period, about 70 million years ago. The type species, A. sarcophagus, was apparently restricted in range to the modern-day Canadian province of Alberta, after which the genus is named, although an indeterminate species ("cf. Albertosaurus sp.") has been discovered in the Corral de Enmedio and Packard Formations in Mexico. Scientists disagree on the content of the genus, with some recognizing Gorgosaurus libratus as a second species.

As a tyrannosaurid, Albertosaurus was a bipedal predator with tiny, two-fingered hands and a massive head that had dozens of large, sharp teeth. It may have been at the top of the food chain in its local ecosystem. While Albertosaurus was large for a theropod, it was much smaller than its larger and more famous relative Tyrannosaurus rex, growing 9 to 10 m (30 to 33 ft) and possibly weighing 2.5 tonnes (2.8 short tons) or less.

Since the first discovery in 1884, fossils of more than 30 individuals have been recovered, providing scientists with a more detailed knowledge of Albertosaurus anatomy than is available for most other tyrannosaurids. The discovery of 26 individuals at one site provides evidence of pack behaviour and allows studies of ontogeny and population biology, which are impossible with lesser-known dinosaurs.

Larry 3000: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: EDMONTOSAURUS!

Larry fired a wave of earth and it formed into the Iguanodont from 73 million years ago: Edmontosaurus!

---

Edmontosaurus (/ɛdˌmɒntəˈsɔːrəs/ ed-MON-tə-SAWR-əs) (meaning "lizard from Edmonton") is a genus of hadrosaurid (duck-billed) dinosaur. It contains two known species: Edmontosaurus regalis and Edmontosaurus annectens. Fossils of E. regalis have been found in rocks of western North America that date from the late Campanian stage of the Cretaceous Period 73 million years ago, while those of E. annectens were found in the same geographic region but in rocks dated to the end of the Maastrichtian stage of the Cretaceous, 66 million years ago. Edmontosaurus was one of the last non-avian dinosaurs, and lived alongside dinosaurs like Triceratops, Tyrannosaurus, Albertosaurus and Pachycephalosaurus shortly before the Cretaceous-Paleogene extinction event.

Edmontosaurus included some of the largest hadrosaurid species, measuring up to 12 metres (39 ft) long and weighing around 4.0 metric tons (4.4 short tons). Evidence does exist in the form of two fossilized specimens housed at the Museum of the Rockies for an even greater maximum size of 15 m (49 ft) and weighing 9.07 metric tons (10.00 short tons) for Edmontosaurus annectens. Several well-preserved specimens are known that include not only bones, but in some cases extensive skin impressions and possible gut contents. It is classified as a genus of saurolophine (or hadrosaurine) hadrosaurid, a member of the group of hadrosaurids which lacked large, hollow crests, instead having smaller solid crests or fleshy combs.

The first fossils named Edmontosaurus were discovered in southern Alberta (named after Edmonton, the capital city), in the Horseshoe Canyon Formation (formerly called the lower Edmonton Formation). The type species, E. regalis, was named by Lawrence Lambe in 1917, although several other species that are now classified in Edmontosaurus were named earlier. The best known of these is E. annectens, named by Othniel Charles Marsh in 1892; originally as a species of Claosaurus, known for many years as a species of Trachodon, and later as Anatosaurus annectens. Anatosaurus and Anatotitan are now generally regarded as synonyms of Edmontosaurus.

Edmontosaurus was widely distributed across western North America. The distribution of Edmontosaurus fossils suggests that it preferred coasts and coastal plains. It was a herbivore that could move on both two legs and four. Because it is known from several bone beds, Edmontosaurus is thought to have lived in groups, and may have been migratory as well. The wealth of fossils has allowed researchers to study its paleobiology in detail, including its brain, how it may have fed, and its injuries and pathologies, such as evidence for tyrannosaur attacks on a few edmontosaur specimens.

Skipper: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: DICYNODON!

Skipper fired a wave of earth and it formed into the dicynodont therapsid from 253.8 to 251 million years ago: Dicynodon!

---

Dicynodon ("two dog-teeth") is a genus of dicynodont therapsid that flourished during the Upper Permian period. Like all dicynodonts, it was herbivorous. This animal was toothless, except for prominent tusks, hence the name. It probably cropped vegetation with a horny beak, much like a tortoise, while the tusks may have been used for digging up roots and tubers.

Many species of Dicynodon have been named, and the genus is considered a wastebasket taxon. A 2011 study of the genus found most of the species to represent a paraphyletic grouping, with the only valid members of Dicynodon being D. lacerticeps and D. huenei. A 2019 study named a new species D. angielczyki, but simultaneously transferred D. huenei to the genus Daptocephalus.

Private fired a wave of earth and it formed into the dicynodont from 259.8 million years ago: Diictodon!

Diictodon was a genus of pylaecephalid dicynodont. These mammal-like synapsids lived during the Late Permian period, approximately 255 million years ago. Fossils have been found in the Cistecephalus Assemblage Zone of the Madumabisa Mudstone of the Luangwa Basin in Zambia and the Tropidostoma Assemblage Zone of the Teekloof Formation, Tapinocephalus Assemblage Zone of the Abrahamskraal Formation, Dicynodon Assemblage Zone of the Balfour Formation, Cistecephalus Assemblage Zone of the Middleton or Balfour Formation of South Africa and the Guodikeng Formation of China. Roughly half of all Permian vertebrate specimens found in South Africa are those of Diictodon. This small herbivorous animal was one of the most successful synapsids in the Permian period.

Ischigualastia is an extinct genus of dicynodonts (a group of synapsids), that lived during the Carnian age of the Late Triassic Period. The genus was found in and named after the Ischigualasto Formation (Cancha de Bochas Member) of the Ischigualasto-Villa Unión Basin in northwestern Argentina. It has been placed in the family Stahleckeriidae.

Numbuh 1 fired a wave of earth and it formed into one of the first ever known dinosaurs from 231 million years ago: Eoraptor!

Eoraptor (/ˈiːoʊˌræptər/) was one of the earliest-known dinosaurs, living approximately 231 to 228 million years ago, during the Late Triassic in Western Gondwana, in the region that is now northwestern Argentina. It was a small, lightly-built, basal saurischian dinosaur. It is known from several well-preserved skeletons. When first described in 1993, it was considered to be the earliest or one of the earliest known dinosaurs. Eoraptor has heterodont dentition, which suggests that it was omnivorous and that the feeding strategy had evolved early on in dinosaurs.

Liberty: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: TORVOSAURUS!

Liberty fired a wave of earth and it formed into the theropod dinosaur from 158 million years ago: Torvosaurus!

Torvosaurus (/ˌtɔːrvoʊˈsɔːrəs/) is a genus of carnivorous megalosauroid theropod dinosaur that lived approximately 153 to 148 million years ago during the Late Jurassic Period (Kimmeridgian to Tithonian) in what is now Colorado and Portugal. It contains two currently recognized species, Torvosaurus tanneri and Torvosaurus gurneyi.

In 1979 the type species Torvosaurus tanneri was named: it was a large, heavily built, bipedal carnivore, that could grow to a length of about 10 m (33 ft). T. tanneri was among the largest carnivores of its time, together with Epanterias and Saurophaganax (which could be both synonyms of Allosaurus). Specimens referred to Torvosaurus gurneyi were initially claimed to be up to twelve metres long, but later shown to be smaller. Based on bone morphology Torvosaurus is thought to have had short but very powerful arms.

Lyra: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: THRINAXODON!

Lyra fired a wave of earth and it formed into the cynodont from 251 million years ago: Thrinaxodon!

Thrinaxodon is an extinct genus of cynodonts, most commonly regarded by its species T. liorhinus which lived in what are now South Africa and Antarctica during the Early Triassic. Thrinaxodon lived just after the Permian-Triassic mass extinction event, its survival during the extinction may have been due to its burrowing habits.

Similar to other synapsids, Thrinaxodon adopted a semi-sprawling posture, an intermediary form between the sprawling position of pelycosaurs (not unlike current Crocodylia) and the more upright posture present in current mammals. Thrinaxodon is prevalent in the fossil record in part because it was one of the few carnivores of its time, and was of a larger size than similar cynodont carnivores.

Lee: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: CHASMOSAURUS!

Lee fired a wave of earth and it formed into the ceratopsian from 76.5 million years ago: Chasmosaurus!

---

Chasmosaurus (/ˌkæzmoʊˈsɔːrəs/ KAZ-mo-SAWR-əs) is a genus of ceratopsid dinosaur from the Upper Cretaceous Period of North America. Its name means 'opening lizard', referring to the large openings (fenestrae) in its frill (Greek chasma meaning 'opening' or 'hollow' or 'gulf' and sauros meaning 'lizard'). With a length of 4.3-4.8 metres (14.1-15.7 ft) and a weight of 1.5-2 tonnes (1.7-2.2 short tons), Chasmosaurus was a ceratopsian of average size. Like all ceratopsians, it was purely herbivorous. It was initially to be called Protorosaurus, but this name had been previously published for another animal. All specimens of Chasmosaurus were collected from the Dinosaur Park Formation of the Dinosaur Provincial Park of Alberta, Canada. C. russelli comes from the lower beds of the formation while C. belli comes from middle and upper beds.

Po: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: PROTEROSUCHUS!

Po fired a wave of water and it formed into the Permian reptile from 252 million years ago: Proterosuchus!

---

Proterosuchus is an extinct genus of archosauriform reptiles that lived during the Early Triassic. It contains three valid species: the type species P. fergusi and the referred species P. alexanderi and P. goweri. All three species lived in what is now South Africa. The genus was named in 1903 by the South African paleontologist Robert Broom. The well-known genus Chasmatosaurus is a junior synonym of Proterosuchus.

Proterosuchus was a mid-sized quadrupedal reptile with a sprawling stance that could reach a length of up to 3.5 meters (11 ft). It had a large head and distinctively hooked snout. It was a predator, which may have hunted prey such as Lystrosaurus. The lifestyle of Proterosuchus remains debated; it may have been terrestrial or it may have been a semiaquatic ambush predator similar to modern crocodiles.

Proterosuchus is one of the earliest members of the clade Archosauriformes, which also includes crocodilians, pterosaurs, and dinosaurs, including birds. It lived in the aftermath of the Permian-Triassic extinction event, the largest known mass extinction in Earth's history.

Fluttershy: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: EUCHAMBERSIA!

Fluttershy fired a wave of earth and it formed into the therapsid from 256 million years ago: Euchambersia!

---

Euchambersia is a genus of therocephalian therapsid that lived during the Late Permian, approximately 255 million years ago, in what is now South Africa. The genus contains a single species, Euchambersia mirabilis, named by paleontologist Robert Broom in 1931 from a skull missing the lower jaws; a second skull, belonging to an immature individual, was later described. It is a member of the family Akidnognathidae, which historically has also been referred by as the synonymous Euchambersiidae (named after Euchambersia).

Euchambersia was a small and short-snouted therocephalian, possessing large canines as is typical of the group. However, it is notable among therocephalians for possessing ridges on its canines and a large indentation in the side of the skull. Under the erroneous assumption that the canines are grooved instead of ridged, it has been proposed that these structures supported a venom delivery mechanism. More recently, the internal structure of the skull of Euchambersia has been used as stronger evidence in favour of the hypothesis that it was venomous; other possibilities, such as the indentation supporting some sort of sensory organ, still remain plausible.

Jimmy Neutron: WIND STYLE NINJA ART: RHAMPHORHYNCHUS!

Jimmy fired a wave of wind and it formed into the flying reptiles from 150.8 million years ago: Rhamphorhynchus!

---

Rhamphorhynchus (/ˌræmfəˈrɪŋkəs/, "beak snout") is a genus of long-tailed pterosaurs in the Jurassic period. Less specialized than contemporary, short-tailed pterodactyloid pterosaurs such as Pterodactylus, it had a long tail, stiffened with ligaments, which ended in a characteristic soft-tissue tail vane. The jaws of Rhamphorhynchus housed needle-like teeth, which were angled forward, with a curved, sharp, beak-like tip lacking teeth, indicating a diet mainly of fish; indeed, fish and cephalopod remains are frequently found in Rhamphorhynchus abdominal contents, as well as in their coprolites.

Although fragmentary fossil remains possibly belonging to Rhamphorhynchus have been found in England, Tanzania, and Spain, the best preserved specimens come from the Solnhofen limestone of Bavaria, Germany. Many of these fossils preserve not only the bones but impressions of soft tissues, such as wing membranes. Scattered teeth believed to belong to Rhamphorhynchus have been found in Portugal as well.

Kick Buttowski: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: SEYMOURIA!

Kick fired a wave of earth and it formed into the Permian seymouriamorph from 275 million years ago: Seymouria!

Seymouria is an extinct genus of seymouriamorph from the Early Permian of North America and Europe. Although they were amphibians (in a biological sense), Seymouria were well-adapted to life on land, with many reptilian features-so many, in fact, that Seymouria was first thought to be a primitive reptile. It is primarily known from two species, Seymouria baylorensis and Seymouria sanjuanensis. The type species, S. baylorensis, is more robust and specialized, though its fossils have only been found in Texas. On the other hand, Seymouria sanjuanensis is more abundant and widespread. This smaller species is known from multiple well-preserved fossils, including a block of six skeletons found in the Cutler Formation of New Mexico, and a pair of fully grown skeletons from the Tambach Formation of Germany, which were fossilized lying next to each other.

For the first half of the 20th century, Seymouria was considered one of the oldest and most "primitive" known reptiles. Paleontologists noted how the general body shape resembled that of early reptiles such as captorhinids, and that certain adaptations of the limbs, hip, and skull were also similar to that of early reptiles, rather than any species of modern or extinct amphibians known at the time. The strongly-built limbs and backbone also supported the idea that Seymouria was primarily terrestrial, spending very little time in the water.[9] However, in the 1950s, fossilized tadpoles were discovered in Discosauriscus, which was a close relative of Seymouria in the group Seymouriamorpha. This shows that seymouriamorphs (including Seymouria) had a larval stage which lived in the water, therefore making Seymouria not a true reptile, but rather an amphibian which was closely related to reptiles. Though no longer considered the most primitive reptile, Seymouria is still an important transitional fossil documenting the acquisition of reptile-like skeletal features prior to the evolution of the amniotic egg, which characterizes amniotes (reptiles, mammals, and birds).

Kendall Perkins: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: HYNERPETON!

Kendall fired a wave of water and it formed into the Devonian creature from 365 million years ago: Hynerpeton!

Hynerpeton (/haɪˈnɜːrpətɒn/; from Hyner, Pennsylvania and Ancient Greek ἑρπετόν herpetón, "creeping animal," meaning "creeping animal from Hyner") is an extinct genus of early four-limbed vertebrate that lived in the rivers and ponds of Pennsylvania during the Late Devonian period, around 365 to 363 million years ago. The only known species of Hynerpeton is H. bassetti, named after the describer's grandfather, city planner Edward Bassett. Hynerpeton is known for being the first Devonian four-limbed vertebrate discovered in the United States, as well as possibly being one of the first to have lost internal (fish-like) gills.

This genus is known from few remains discovered at the Red Hill fossil site in Hyner, Pennsylvania. The most notable fossil is a large endochondral shoulder girdle consisting of the cleithrum, scapula, and coracoid (but not the interclavicle and clavicles), all connected into one shoulder bone. The inner surface of this shoulder bone possesses an array of depressions believed to have been attachment points for a unique set of powerful muscles around the chest. This may have given Hynerpeton improved mobility and weight-bearing abilities compared to other Devonian limbed vertebrates such as Ichthyostega and Acanthostega. The cleithrum (upper blade of the shoulder) is fused to the scapulocoracoid (lower plate of the shoulder, in front of the shoulder socket), unlike in most tetrapods, but the shoulder girdle is independent of the skull, unlike in most fish.

Early four-limbed vertebrates are sometimes referred to as tetrapods (using a trait-based definition of the term), although animals like Hynerpeton, Ichthyostega, and Acanthostega are placed outside the crown group Tetrapoda by the vast majority of paleontologists. From a cladistic (relations-based) point of view, a more accurate term would be "stem-tetrapod" or "stegocephalian", indicating that they were part of the lineage of animals that would lead to true tetrapods such as modern amphibians (Lissamphibia), reptiles, mammals, and birds.

Hynerpeton hails from the Red Hill fossil site, which, during the Late Devonian, was a warm floodplain inhabited by a diverse ecosystem of aquatic fish and terrestrial invertebrates. Hynerpeton was one of several genera of four-limbed vertebrates known from the site, although it was the first to be discovered. It has been theorized that animals like Hynerpeton were able to use their amphibious lifestyle to find shallow pools where they could spawn, isolated from predatory fish which inhabited the deeper rivers.

Juandissimo: (Spanish Accent) WATER STYLE NINJA ART: TIKTAALIK!

Juandissimo fired a wave of water and it formed into the Devonian Sarcopterygian from 375 million years ago: Tiktaalik!

Tiktaalik (/tɪkˈtɑːlɪk/; Inuktitut ᑎᒃᑖᓕᒃ [tiktaːlik]) is a monospecific genus of extinct sarcopterygian (lobe-finned fish) from the Late Devonian Period, about 375 Mya (million years ago), having many features akin to those of tetrapods (four-legged animals).

Unearthed in Arctic Canada, Tiktaalik is technically a fish, complete with scales and gills - but it has the flattened head of a crocodile and unusual fins. Its fins have thin ray bones for paddling like most fish, but they also have sturdy interior bones that would have allowed Tiktaalik to prop itself up in shallow water and use its limbs for support as most four-legged animals do. Those fins and a suite of other characteristics set Tiktaalik apart as something special; it has a combination of features that show the evolutionary transition between swimming fish and their descendants, the four-legged vertebrates - a clade which includes amphibians, reptiles, birds and mammals.

It and similar animals may possibly be the common ancestors of the broad swath of all vertebrate terrestrial fauna: amphibians, reptiles, birds, and mammals.

The first well-preserved Tiktaalik fossils were found in 2004 on Ellesmere Island in Nunavut, Canada.

Chloe fired a wave of water and it formed into the Devonian Shark from 382.7 million years ago: Stethacanthus!

Littlefoot: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: HYBODUS!

Littlefoot fired a wave of water and it formed into the Jurassic Shark from 260 to 66 million years ago: Hybodus!

---

Hybodus ("humped tooth") is an extinct genus of Chondrichthyans. First appearing towards the end of the Permian period, and disappearing during the Late Cretaceous, during the Triassic, Jurassic, and Cretaceous periods the hybodonts were especially successful and could be found in shallow seas across the world. For reasons that are not fully understood, the hybodonts became extinct near the end of the Late Cretaceous period.

Patrick: OCEAN STYLE NINJA ART: LIVYATAN!

Patrick fired a wave of water and it formed into the first ancestral sperm whale from 9 million years ago: Livyatan!

---

Livyatan is an extinct genus of sperm whale containing one species: L. melvillei. The genus name was inspired by the biblical sea monster Leviathan, and the species name by Herman Melville, the author of the famous book Moby-Dick about a white bull sperm whale. It is mainly known from the Pisco Formation of Peru during the Tortonian stage of the Miocene epoch, about 9.9-8.9 million years ago (mya); however, isolated teeth from other locations such as Chile, Argentina, South Africa, and Australia implies that either it or a close relative survived into the Pliocene, around 5 mya, and was present throughout the Southern Hemisphere. It was a member of a group of hyper-predatory macroraptorial sperm whales (or "raptorial sperm whales") and was likely an apex predator, preying on whales, seals, and so forth. Characteristic of raptorial sperm whales, Livyatan had functional, enamel-coated teeth on the upper and lower jaws, as well as several adaptations for hunting large prey.

Livyatan's total length has been estimated to be about 13.5-17.5 m (44-57 ft), similar to the modern sperm whale (Physeter macrocephalus), making it one of the largest predators to have ever existed. The teeth of Livyatan measured 36.2 cm (1.2 ft), and are the largest biting teeth of any known animal, excluding tusks. It is distinguished from the other raptorial sperm whales by the basin on the skull, and how it spans the entire length of the snout. The spermaceti organ, contained in that basin, is thought to have been used in echolocation and communication, or for ramming prey and other sperm whales. The whale may have interacted with the large extinct shark megalodon (Carcharocles megalodon), competing with it for a similar food source. Its extinction was likely caused by a cooling event at the end of the Miocene which resulted in a drop in food populations. The formation where the whale has been found has also preserved a large assemblage of marine life, such as sharks and marine mammals.

Dawn (Total Drama): FOREST STYLE NINJA ART: DRYOSAURUS!

---

Dryosaurus (/ˌdraɪoʊˈsɔːrəs/ DRY-o-SAWR-əs; meaning 'tree lizard', Greek δρῦς (drys) meaning 'tree, oak' and σαυρος (sauros) meaning 'lizard'; the name reflects the forested habitat, not a vague oak-leaf shape of its cheek teeth as is sometimes assumed) is a genus of an ornithopod dinosaur that lived in the Late Jurassic period. It was an iguanodont (formerly classified as a hypsilophodont). Fossils have been found in the western United States and were first discovered in the late 19th century. Valdosaurus canaliculatus and Dysalotosaurus lettowvorbecki were both formerly considered to represent species of Dryosaurus.

Mike (Total Drama): FOREST STYLE NINJA ART: ORNITHOLESTES!

Mike fired a wave of wood and leaves and it formed into the theropod dinosaur from 154 million years ago: Ornitholestes.

---

Ornitholestes (meaning "bird robber") is a small theropod dinosaur of the late Jurassic (Brushy Basin Member of the Morrison Formation, middle Kimmeridgian age, about 154 million years ago) of Western Laurasia (the area that was to become North America).

To date, Ornitholestes is known only from a single partial skeleton with a badly crushed skull found at the Bone Cabin Quarry near Medicine Bow, Wyoming, in 1900. It was described by Henry Fairfield Osborn in 1903. An incomplete hand was later attributed to Ornitholestes, although it now appears to belong to Tanycolagreus. The type (and only known) species is O. hermanni. The specific name honors the American Museum of Natural History preparator Adam Hermann.

Fuzzy Lumpkins: FOREST STYLE NINJA ART: OTHNIELIA!

Fuzzy fired a wave of wood and leaves and it formed into the neornithischian dinosaur from 155 million years ago: Nanosaurus A.K.A. Othnielia!

---

Nanosaurus ("small or dwarf lizard") is the name given to a genus of neornithischian dinosaur that lived about 155 to 148 million years ago, during the Late Jurassic-age. Its fossils are known from the Morrison Formation of the south-western United States. The type and only species, Nanosaurus agilis, was described and named by Othniel Charles Marsh in 1877. The taxon has a complicated taxonomic history, largely the work of Marsh and Peter M. Galton, involving the genera Laosaurus, Hallopus, Drinker, Othnielia, and Othnielosaurus, the latter three now being considered to be synonyms of Nanosaurus. It had historically been classified as a hypsilophodont or fabrosaur, types of generalized small bipedal herbivore, but more recent research has abandoned these groupings as paraphyletic and Nanosaurus is today considered a basal member of Neornithischia.

Magnolia: FOREST STYLE NINJA ART: DAKOTARAPTOR!

Magnolia fired a wave of wood and leaves and it formed into the theropod dinosaur from 66 million years ago: Dakotaraptor.

---

Dakotaraptor is a potentially chimaeric genus of large dromaeosaurid theropod dinosaur that lived in North America during the Late Cretaceous period. The remains have been found in the Maastrichtian stage of the Hell Creek Formation, dated to the very end of the Mesozoic era, making Dakotaraptor one of the last surviving dromaeosaurids. The remains of D. steini were discovered in a multi-species bonebed. Elements of the holotype and referred specimens were later found to belong to trionychid turtles, and further analysis of potential non-dromaeosaurid affinities of the holotype and referred material have not yet been conducted. Phylogenetic analyses of D. steini place it in a variety of positions in the Dromaeosauridae.

The type species is Dromaeosaurus albertensis, which was described by William Diller Matthew and Barnum Brown in 1922.

Goku: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: DEINONYCHUS!

Goku fired a wave of earth and it formed into the deadly pack-hunting theropods from 115 million years ago: Deinonychus!

---

Deinonychus (/daɪ'nɒnɪkəs/ dy-NON-i-kəs; from Greek: δεινός deinós, 'terrible' and ὄνυξ ónux, genitive ὄνυχος ónuchos 'claw') is a genus of dromaeosaurid theropod dinosaur with one described species, Deinonychus antirrhopus. This species, which could grow up to 3.4 meters (11 ft) long, lived during the early Cretaceous Period, about 115-108 million years ago (from the mid-Aptian to early Albian stages). Fossils have been recovered from the U.S. states of Montana, Utah, Wyoming, and Oklahoma, in rocks of the Cloverly Formation, Cedar Mountain Formation and Antlers Formation, though teeth that may belong to Deinonychus have been found much farther east in Maryland.

Paleontologist John Ostrom's study of Deinonychus in the late 1960s revolutionized the way scientists thought about dinosaurs, leading to the "dinosaur renaissance" and igniting the debate on whether dinosaurs were warm-blooded or cold-blooded. Before this, the popular conception of dinosaurs had been one of plodding, reptilian giants. Ostrom noted the small body, sleek, horizontal posture, ratite-like spine, and especially the enlarged raptorial claws on the feet, which suggested an active, agile predator.

"Terrible claw" refers to the unusually large, sickle-shaped talon on the second toe of each hind foot. The fossil YPM 5205 preserves a large, strongly curved ungual. In life, archosaurs have a horny sheath over this bone, which extends the length. Ostrom looked at crocodile and bird claws and reconstructed the claw for YPM 5205 as over 120 millimetres (4.7 in) long. The species name antirrhopus means "counter balance", which refers to Ostrom's idea about the function of the tail. As in other dromaeosaurids, the tail vertebrae have a series of ossified tendons and super-elongated bone processes. These features seemed to make the tail into a stiff counterbalance, but a fossil of the very closely related Velociraptor mongoliensis (IGM 100/986) has an articulated tail skeleton that is curved laterally in a long S-shape. This suggests that, in life, the tail could bend to the sides with a high degree of flexibility. In both the Cloverly and Antlers formations, Deinonychus remains have been found closely associated with those of the ornithopod Tenontosaurus. Teeth discovered associated with Tenontosaurus specimens imply they were hunted, or at least scavenged upon, by Deinonychus.

Daspletosaurus (/dæsˌpliːtəˈsɔːrəs/ das-PLEET-o-SAWR-əs; meaning "frightful lizard") is a genus of tyrannosaurid dinosaur that lived in western North America between about 77 and 74 million years ago, during the Late Cretaceous Period. The genus Daspletosaurus contains two species. Fossils of the earlier type species, D. torosus, have been found in Alberta, while fossils of the later second species, D. horneri, have been found only in Montana. A possible third species, also from Alberta, awaits formal identification. Daspletosaurus is closely related to the much larger and more recent tyrannosaurid Tyrannosaurus rex. Like most tyrannosaurids, Daspletosaurus was a multi-tonne bipedal predator equipped with dozens of large, sharp teeth. Daspletosaurus had the small forelimbs typical of tyrannosaurids, although they were proportionately longer than in other genera.

As an apex predator, Daspletosaurus was at the top of the food chain, probably preying on large dinosaurs like the ceratopsid Centrosaurus and the hadrosaur Hypacrosaurus. In some areas, Daspletosaurus coexisted with another tyrannosaurid, Gorgosaurus, though there is some evidence of niche differentiation between the two. While Daspletosaurus fossils are rarer than other tyrannosaurids', the available specimens allow some analysis of the biology of these animals, including social behavior, diet and life history.

Gohan: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: SINOCERATOPS!

Gohan fired a wave of earth and it formed into the ceratopsian from 73.5 million years ago: Sinoceratops!

---

Sinoceratops /ˌsaɪnoʊˈsɛrətɒps/ is an extinct genus of ceratopsian dinosaur that lived approximately 73 million years ago during the latter part of the Cretaceous Period in what is now Shandong province in China. It was named in 2010 by Xu Xing et al. for three skulls from Zhucheng, China. The name of its type species

Sinoceratops zhuchengensis means "Chinese horned face from Zhucheng", after the location of its discovery.

Sinoceratops was a medium-sized, averagely-built, ground-dwelling, quadrupedal herbivore. It could grow up to an estimated 6 m (19.7 ft) length and 2 metres (6.6 ft) height, and weigh up to 2 tonnes (2.0 long tons; 2.2 short tons). It was the first ceratopsid dinosaur discovered in China, and the only ceratopsid known from Asia. All other centrosaurines, and all chasmosaurines, are known from fossils discovered in North America, except for possibly Turanoceratops. Sinoceratops is also significant because it is one of the largest known centrosaurines, and is much larger than any other known basal members of this group.

Sinoceratops was discovered in the Xingezhuang Formation, which was deposited during the late Cretaceous. It lived alongside leptoceratopsids, saurolophines, and tyrannosaurines. The most common creature in the formation was Shantungosaurus, to which most of the material has been assigned. The animals living alongside Sinoceratops and Shantungosaurus were Zhuchengceratops, Zhuchengtitan, and Zhuchengtyrannus.

Me: WOLF FIRE STYLE NINJA ART: AMPHICOELIAS!

I fired a blast of blue fire and it formed into one of the largest sauropod dinosaurs ever discovered from 150 million years ago: Amphicoelias!

Amphicoelias (/ˌæmfɪˈsiːliəs/, meaning "biconcave", from the Greek ἀμφὶ, amphi: "on both sides", and κοῖλος, koilos: "hollow, concave") is a genus of herbivorous sauropod dinosaur that lived approximately 150 million years ago during the Tithonian (Late Jurassic Period) of what is now Colorado, United States. An herbivore, Amphicoelias was moderately sized at about 25 m (82 ft) long-roughly the same length as Diplodocus, to which it was related. Its hindlimbs were very long and thin, and its forelimbs were proportionally longer than in relatives.

The namesake fossil of the type species Amphicoelias altus, American Museum of Natural History 5764, is uncertain in included material. When described by Edward Drinker Cope shortly after its discovery in 1877, Amphicoelias was noted to include many back vertebrae, a single pubis, and a femur. However, after purchase and cataloging of the material by the AMNH, Henry Fairfield Osborn and Charles Mook described that the specimen had only two vertebrae, a pubis, femur, tooth, scapula, coracoid, ulna and a second femur. The additional material, not mentioned by Cope, was found close in proximity to the holotype and was similar to Diplodocus, a relative of Amphicoelias. Their assignment was questioned by subsequent authors Emanuel Tschopp et al. in an analysis of Diplodocidae.

During the description of Amphicoelias altus in 1877, Cope additionally named A. latus, for a femur and tail vertebrae. Following its description, Osborn and Mook in 1921 reidentified the material as a specimen of Camarasaurus, an assignment followed by other authors who reviewed the material. A year later 1878, Cope named the third species of Amphicoelias, A. fragillimus for a gigantic dorsal vertebra that was subsequently lost. Measuring approximately 2.7 m (8.9 ft) if reconstructed based on Diplodocus, early estimates for the length of the animal in life were between 40 and 60 m (130 and 200 ft) long. Due to the incomplete nature, such lengths-the longest of any known dinosaur and sauropod-were largely ignored. In 2018, Kenneth Carpenter renamed Amphicoelias fragillimus as the new genus Maraapunisaurus, and reclassified it from Diplodocidae to Rebbachisauridae.

Sonic: WIND STYLE NINJA ART: EUDIMORPHODON!

Sonic fired a wave of wind and it formed into the flying reptile from Italy that lived 210 million years ago: Eudimorphodon!

---

Eudimorphodon was a pterosaur that was discovered in 1973 by Mario Pandolfi in the town of Cene, Italy and described the same year by Rocco Zambelli. The nearly complete skeleton was retrieved from shale deposited during the Late Triassic (mid to late Norian stage), making Eudimorphodon one of the oldest pterosaurs known.

It had a wingspan of about 100 centimetres (3.3 ft) and at the end of its long bony tail may have been a diamond-shaped flap like in the later Rhamphorhynchus. If so, the flap may have helped it steer while maneuvering in the air. Eudimorphodon is known from several skeletons, including juvenile specimens.

Aylene C: FIRE STYLE NINJA ART: HEILONGJIANGOSAURUS!

Aylene fired a wave of fire and it formed into the stegosaur from 76 million years ago: Heilongjiangosaurus!

---

Heilongjiangosaurus" (meaning "Heilongjiang lizard") is the informal name given to an as-yet undescribed genus of duckbilled dinosaur from the Late Cretaceous. It possibly was a lambeosaurine, and may in fact be the same animal as Charonosaurus. The fossils were found in Maastrichtian-age rocks in Heilongjiang, China. As a nomen nudum, it is unclear what material it was intended to be based on, but might be connected to the nomen nudum "Mandschurosaurus" jiainensis, informally named in a 1983 publication.

The "type species" is "H. jiayinensis", and it was coined in 2001 in a faunal list by Li and Jin.

Cera: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: OJOCERATOPS!

Cera fired a wave of earth and it formed into the ceratopsian from 68 million years ago: Ojoceratops!

---

Ojoceratops ( meaning "Ojo Alamo horned face") is a genus of ceratopsian dinosaur which lived in what is now New Mexico, United States. Ojoceratops fossils have been recovered from strata of the Ojo Alamo Formation (Naashoibito Member), dating to the late Cretaceous period (probably Maastrichtian age, 68 million years ago). The type species is Ojoceratops fowleri. It is very similar to its close relative Triceratops, though it is from an earlier time period and has a more squared-off frill. Nick Longrich, in 2011, noted that the squared-off frill is also found in some true Triceratops specimens and that Ojoceratops is probably a junior synonym of Triceratops, while Holtz (2010) noted that it is probably ancestral to Triceratops and possibly synonymous with the contemporary Eotriceratops.

Ducky: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: GRYPOSAURUS!

Ducky fired a wave of earth and it formed into the hadrosaur from 80 million years ago: Gryposaurus!

Gryposaurus (meaning "hooked-nosed (Greek grypos) lizard"; sometimes incorrectly translated as "griffin (Latin gryphus) lizard") was a genus of duckbilled dinosaur that lived about 80 to 75 million years ago, in the Late Cretaceous (late Santonian to late Campanian stages) of North America. Named species of Gryposaurus are known from the Dinosaur Park Formation in Alberta, Canada, and two formations in the United States: the Lower Two Medicine Formation in Montana and the Kaiparowits Formation of Utah. A possible additional species may extend the temporal range of the genus to 66 million years ago.

Gryposaurus is similar to Kritosaurus, and for many years the two were thought to be synonyms. It is known from numerous skulls, some skeletons, and even some skin impressions that show it to have had pyramidal scales projecting along the midline of the back. It is most easily distinguished from other duckbills by its narrow arching nasal hump, sometimes described as similar to a "Roman nose," and which may have been used for species or sexual identification, and/or combat with individuals of the same species. A large bipedal/quadrupedal herbivore around 9 meters (30 feet) long, it may have preferred river settings.

Tropeognathus (meaning "keel jaw") is a genus of large pterosaurs from the late Early Cretaceous of South America. This genus is considered to be a member of the Ornithocheiridae, a diverse group of pterosaurs known for their keel-tipped snouts and large size. Tropeognathus is regarded as the largest pterosaur found in the Southern Hemisphere, only rivaled by the huge azhdarchids. The type and only species is Tropeognathus mesembrinus. Fossil remains of Tropeognathus have been recovered from the Romualdo Formation, which is a Lagerstätte located in the Santana Group of the Araripe Basin in northeastern Brazil.

Spike: (Through translator) EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: DRAVIDOSAURUS!

Spike fired a wave of earth and it formed into the Dravidanidu dinosaur from 90 million years ago: Dravidosaurus!

Dravidosaurus (meaning "Dravidanadu lizard", Dravidanadu being a region in the southern part of India where the remains were discovered) is a controversial genus of prehistoric reptile. It was first described as the last surviving stegosaurian, the group of "plated" dinosaurs. With an estimated length of three metres (10 ft), it would have also been the smallest member of the group. More recent studies, however, have shown that the bones actually belonged to a plesiosaurian marine reptile, and that none of the remains are demonstrably dinosaurian in origin.

Dravidosaurus lived in the Late Cretaceous period (Coniacian stage) of what is now India. It is only known from disassociated remains that were originally described as comprising a partial skull, a tooth, a sacrum, an ilium, an ischium, a dermal plate, and a spike. The badly weathered remains were discovered in marine deposits near Ariyalur in the state of Tamil Nadu in South India. They were in 1979 named by P.M. Yadagiri and Krishnan Ayyasami as the type species Dravidosaurus blanfordi, the specific name honouring William Thomas Blanford. The holotype partial skull is catalogued as GSI SR Pal 1, while other specimens are catalogued GSI SR Pal 2-7.

In 1991, Sankar Chatterjee visited the site and claimed, without presenting concrete morphological evidence, that Dravidosaurus was based on plesiosaurian pelvic and hindlimb elements, the species being a nomen dubium. However, this claim was rejected by Galton and Upchurch (2004), who noted that the skull, tooth and plate of Dravidosaurus are certainly not plesiosaurian as illustrated. Galton and Ayyasami (2017) reaffirmed the stegosaurian classification of Dravidosaurus, claiming the remains do not look like plesiosaurian pelvic and hindlimb elements. They announced that stegosaurian remains from the Dravidosaurus type locality are under study by one of the original describers of Dravidosaurus.

Kronosaurus (/ˌkrɒnoʊˈsɔːrəs/ KRON-o-SAWR-əs; meaning "lizard of Kronos") is an extinct genus of short-necked pliosaur. With an estimated length of 9 to 10.9 meters (30 to 36 ft), it was among the largest pliosaurs, and is named after the leader of the Greek Titans, Kronos. It lived in the Early Cretaceous period (Aptian to Late Albian). Fossil material has been recovered from the Toolebuc Formation (middle to late Albian) and Wallumbilla Formations (Aptian) of Queensland and New South Wales in Australia, and from the upper Paja Formation (late Aptian) in Boyacá, Colombia, and assigned to two species.

We all fired elemental blasts that formed into said creatures from over the course of millions of years.

Neptune Crusaders and the Water Skylanders: NEPTUNE AQUA BLAST SUPERSTRIKE!

Mandy, Beachcomber, Pandora and Ransack used the Earth and Velocitron Cyber Planet keys and they enhanced Mandy's powers, Beachcomber's Agility, Pandora's powers and Ransack had his seat turned into a powerful cannon.

Mandy and Beachcomber: DARKNESS AGILITY SPEED STRIKE!

Kid Icarus Pandora and Cybertron Ransack: DARKNESS SPEEDING BLAST!

They fired waves of water and energy and darkness.

Selene, Magneto, Me, Eli, Nico, Professor X, Dark Phoenix, Jean Grey as Phoenix, Carmen, Maria, Eli and Nunnally: ELEMENTAL JUSTICE SUPERBLAST!

We fired a wave of elemental energy.

Me and my Harem: PLANET FINAL SMASH: PLANETARY DRAGON FIST!

Using the energy of the Solar System planets we each brought forth a planet dragon which attacked the Hellfire Club.

Lincoln and his harem: ELEMENTAL FINAL SMASH: ELEMENTAL TIGER BARRAGE!

They fired elemental energies which formed elemental tigers which attacked the Hellfire Club.

Me, Lincoln and our harems: ULTIMATE FINAL SMASH: ELEMENTAL PLANET PHOENIX BOMB!

We summoned a massive Universal Elemental Phoenix and it and all our techniques and powers slammed into the Hellfire Club and exploded with incredible and unbelievable power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion was so massive, so powerful and so devastating that it could be seen for light-years away from the planet. When the smoke cleared, Shaw was the only one left in a huge and smoldering and flaming crater!

Shaw got up and he was bleeding REALLY profusely and he had a massive hole in his chest that left his heart, ribs, lungs and heart completely exposed to the open and he was bleeding bad!

Nico: WHOA! He is roughed up good.

Tara: Brutal.

Zamiko went up to him.

Sebastion Shaw: (to Zamigo) What are you going to do? Shoot me with those ice guns of yours! We all know that they only transport people somewhere!

Zamigo: True. But you actually won't get the privelage.

Zamigo shot an icicle from his gun at Sebastion, stabbing him through the throat.

Zamigo: (to us) Vypra gave an upgrade. My guns have the option of functioning like Captain Cold's guns now.

Me: That was awesome!

The spirits of the Hellfire Club then appeared.

Me: You all will never be welcome on Earth.

I held out my hand to them.

Me: HAKAI!

They glowed purple and were being obliterated.

Sebastion Shaw: DAMN YOU TO HELL J.D. KNUDSON! (FADES)

We powered down.

Me: Lets head back to Earth.

We teleported back to Earth and we saw the entirety of the Hellfire Club HQ totally on fire and we saw Stewie and Brian standing in front of it.

20 Minutes Earlier

---

At the Hellfire Club HQ, Stewie and Brian were searching for the destroyer ray.

Stewie: Alright. If I were a Destroyer Ray, where would I hide?

Brian: How about right here?

He went and pushed a button and a door opened up and the Destroyer Ray was in a room.

Stewie: Whoa! It's a 4th Dimensional Energy Tachyon Particle Cannon.

Brian: I'm amazed that they have this kind of technology.

Stewie: Alright, Brian. We'll need to do a combo attack to destroy this thing.

Brian: You got it.

Stewie and Brian: FAMILY GUY ULTRA BLAST!

They fired a wave of energy and obliterated the ray in a massive explosion.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The entire HQ exploded in a massive explosion of fire and destroyed it completely.

We arrived just as they came out. We looked at the burning headquarters of the Hellfire Club.

Dayu: A fitting end for the Hellfire Club, don't you think?

Jean Grey: It sure is.

Vulkanus: No one sing that Hellfire song!

Biowulf: Relax. None of us were thinking about doing that.

Top: I'm just glad the Hellfire Club's done for.

Me: Thank goodness.

Zamigo: Well, Lupin Red. It's been fun fighting you. But we have to move on to other opponents.

Kairi Yano: That's fine. Now I just need to find an archenemy of my own.

Coloratura: And I will gladly volunteer.

Applejack: Are you sure Rara?

Coloratura: I am sure A.J.

Me: We owe you big time for helping us Zamigo and a deal is a deal.

We shook hands.

Zamigo: Thanks J.D.

Me: We've seen the last of the Hellfire Club and they are now nothing more than a forgotten memory.

Nico: Yep.

Me: Lets go celebrate our victory with an awesome dinner at Lynn's Table.

Selene: Good idea.

Nico: I'm starving.

But then we saw Stan Lee.

Stan Lee: Well done true believers!

Me: Wow! Thanks Stan. We haven't seen you in a while.

Stan Lee: Still working on Comics even though I'm 98 years old.

Me: Yeah but you still have a great mind for comics. EXCELSIOR!

Stan Lee: EXCELSIOR!

Jean Grey: (To the viewers) We have dealt with the Hellfire Club and they will never terrorize the world again. I hope you all liked this adventure.

Me: We all have. Lets go guys.

We went back to Gotham Royal York and had an awesome dinner at Lynn's Table and we later went to sleep.

THE END

---

Another awesome adventure done.

The Hellfire Club of Marvel's X-Men were the most ruthless and most dangerous enemies that the X-Men have ever faced and now they are dead. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Etstheclarencefan, Drako1234658, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Nflemingful and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next girl from Daily Life With A Monster Girl is Fii the Phoenix and she is gonna be in the Urborg Volcano of the MTG World. And the next chapter is gonna be for where we go after The Abominable Snowman of Pasadena in the Goosebumps Series and we're going to thaw that frozen freak of nature out.

See you all tomorrow.

The Lost Yeti In Pasadena

In a volcanic region of the mountains of the world of Magic The Gathering, me and Erica McConnell were flying over the mountains.

Me: Wow! Look at these mountains.

Erica: They are amazing. Wow.

We then arrived at the Urborg Volcano.

Me: Wow! The Urborg Volcano.

Erica: It's magnificent.

Me: It sure is.

Erica McConnell: Let's heat things up!

Erica concentrated and groaned as she got bigger.

She turned into ENTEI!

She was infernal hot!

Me: Lets roll!

Erica Entei: YEAH!

We went into the volcano and it was intensely hot and I was sweating like there was no tomorrow.

Me: WHEW! Man this is hot.

Erica Entei: Hey what's that up there.

We saw on a plateau in the middle of a lake of molten lava tied to a pole was the 16th Girl and she was a Harpy Phoenix!

Me: Whoa she's a Phoenix!

Erica Entei: She's a phoenix? She looks more like a Harpy.

Me: I guess harpies have different breeds like Garuda's are part of them.

Erica Entei: That does make sense.

We went to the plateau and McWolf came out.

McWolf: Boy is it hot in here or is it just me?

Me: We're in the heart of a volcano McWolf. What did you expect?

McWolf: I knew that. Whew. I picked a really hot location this time huh?

Erica Entei: I'll say.

We jumped him and ticked him all over.

We went over and cut the girl free.

Fii: Oh thank you. Wow! J.D. Knudson, leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Me: That's right and it's a pleasure to meet you.

Fii: Same here. My name is Fii and I'm a Phoenix as you might know.

Erica Entei: Pleased to meet you. I'm Erica McConnell and I'm also an Entei.

Fii: Pleasure to meet you.

Me: The phoenix is one of my favorite creatures and I chose it as my team symbol for a reason. The Phoenix represents Fire, Immortality, Reincarnation, Resurrection, Rebirth and Renewal.

Fii: Very awesome spiritual meaning.

Me: Yep.

Erica: I'm gonna revert back now.

Me: Okay.

I put on my blind man glasses and she reverted back.

Erica, while human, was naked.

Erica: (covers herself) I can't believe I'm naked in a volcano!

Fii: This must happen to her a lot.

Me: You have no idea.

I gave her some new cloths and she puts them on.

Erica: Thanks J.D.

Fii: But being in a volcano for me is not so bad. I am a Phoenix after all.

Me: I like fire too.

Fii: Awesome.

Me: Lets head back home.

We went back to the World Tree Estate.

---

At the World Tree Estate, everyone was sitting on the couch and reading books and playing card games.

We came in and Erica went and sat down.

Me: Here we are.

Fii: Wow! So this is where you live.

Me: Yep.

Nico: Wow she's a Phoenix but she looks more like a harpy.

Me: Yeah there are different breeds of harpies.

Miia: Fii!

Fii: Miia!

They went and hugged.

Miia: It's great you're with us.

Bima: Awesome having you with us Fii.

Fii: Same here and it's great to see you girls.

Papi: It will be awesome having you on our adventures and J.D. is an awesome guy.

Me: Aww girls.

---

Later in the junkyard we were looking for some stuff. We were searching all over.

I found an old jewelry box.

Me: Hey look at this old jewelry box. Still in really good shape.

I blew some dirt off of it.

Varie: I could use that for my jewelry.

Lana found an old 1950 Merc.

Lana: Hey look at this old car! I can fix this up no problem.

Nico: We'll have to take it to our garage.

Merrick found something big. Merrick found a huge TV and entertainment system with huge speakers and everything. The TV was an 120 inch Big Screen Television and it had Powerful Surround Sound Speakers and everything.

Merrick Baliton: (sees the huge TV) Holy shit!

Noel: (approaches his fellow Sixth Ranger) Is something wrong, Merrick?

He saw the huge TV system too and it was GINORMOUS!

Noel: Sacre Bleu! Guys come over here!

We came and we saw it!

Me: WHOA! That is a ginormous TV Set.

Nico: Wow! Look at the size of it!

He-Man: Alright. Who bought the huge TV? I'm not mad. I just want to know.

Rocko: (Australian Accent) Uh that was my TV actually.

Me: Wow! This TV must've cost a fortune.

Rocko: It was an accidental buy. I was going for a sensible television priced at $89.95 and I accidentally ended up buying this huge television and accessories all for over $7,500.00.

Heffer: But it was really cool.

Me: WHOA! That TV is huge.

Mindwipe: (to Heffer) Why the Hell would you order a huge TV?!

Heffer: It wasn't my doing! The computer system at that store must've had a glitch or something.

Filburt: But we got rid of it because Heffer sat too close and it sucked out his brain.

Me: EW! With a TV this big you would go blind and not have your brain sucked out.

Fii: Yeah that is crazy.

Lola: But this TV is still in good shape.

Me: Lets take it back to the Estate and get her fixed up and set up.

We took the TV and the car Lana found back to the Estate and put the old car in the garage.

We got the TV fixed up with all the modern 21st Century technology and more.

Cosmos: Where are we even gonna put the TV?

Maria: We can always put it in Lincoln's room.

Lincoln: I don't think I would like having a TV this big.

Me: Yeah and I don't think we can fit this whole thing in there. This is a 120 inch Television.

Lana: No kidding.

Fii: But it has everything in it.

Me: We'll put it in the living room. It's big enough to have a movie theater in it.

Nico: Good idea. We needed a new TV anyway.

Our old TV was a REALLY old TV and it was falling apart.

We moved the whole thing and set it up and got the remote for it and then we saw it play an awesome show on TV and we saw that it had over 10,000 Channels and even had 5,000 movie channels all on it. We also saw that it had all the educational shows, all the cooking shows and more. We hooked up all our video game systems to it and Lisa installed a video game button junction box that can turn on our games with a button press and we also had a cabinet for all our movies and more. The TV also had snack and popcorn dispensers. It was a whole movie theater at home.

Later we were watching TV and playing games and more and we were having fun. Nico was searching through his Goosebumps

Books for our next target.

William: How about this time, we go meet a monster who's not that dangerous?

Nico: I was just about to think that. Lets see.

Nico looked through his books and he saw one.

Nico: Aha! This is our next target. The Abominable Snowman of Pasadena.

Me: That was an interesting one.

Laney: Hard to imagine that they had a yeti from Alaska be brought down to a suburb of Los Angeles, California.

Fluttershy: Goodness. Poor thing must've been really lost.

Me: Yeah and he just wants to go home.

Lana: I didn't know that Yeti's could live in Alaska.

Nico: They usually don't. They are normally found in the Himalayan Mountains in Nepal.

Me: Yeah.

Fii: But it will be awesome to see a Yeti.

Me: Yep.

Lola: Lets get ready.

Hank Scorpio, Copperhead, Scorpion, Taskmaster, Dayu, Vulkanus, Biowulf, and Top then appeared.

Hank Scorpio: Can me, Copperhead, Scorpion, Taskmaster, Dayu, Vulkanus, Biowulf, and Top go with you guys this time?

Me: You sure can. We're going to Pasadena, California to meet Jordan and Nicole Blake and we're going to help them sort things out with a Yeti that is lost and wants to go home.

Scorpion: Let me guess: The Abominable Snowman of Pasadena.

Me: Bingo. And we'll have to get those two and their family out of the sweltering heat.

Fii: If it's hot I don't mind.

Me: Yep.

Hank Scorpio: WHOA! Where did you guys get this ginormous TV?

Me: We found it in the junkyard. Rocko accidentally bought a huge TV for over $7,500.00 when he was gonna get one for $90.00.

Copperhead: Oops.

Miia: Yeah that was crazy.

Lola: Yeah but it's cool.

Me: Lets get moving.

We were off to Pasadena, California.

PASADENA, CALIFORNIA

We were walking through the suburbs of Pasadena, California and it was a scorcher. It was 95˚Fahrenheit and it was blistering hot. It was hot enough to cook an egg on the sidewalk.

Me: WHEW! Man is it hot down here.

Zoey Hanson: I'll say.

Trixie: The Great and Powerful Trixie is feeling hot right now!

Sunset Shimmer: It sure is hot down here.

Me: It's 95˚ Fahrenheit here. But it's better than facing the smoldering and incinerating heat of a volcano that appeared out of the La Brea Tar Pits and threatened to burn all of Los Angeles to the ground under a flood of molten lava.

Laney: Yeah that was intense.

Twilight Sparkle: Right what happened back then?

Me: That was an incredible adventure.

I went over the events of chapter 845 and it was intense.

When I was finished everyone that hadn't heard it was shocked!

Copperhead: I've heard about that! That was something!

Taskmaster: Yeah hard to imagine that a volcano would appear right in the middle of the La Brea Tar Pits.

Me: Yeah it was something. But thanks to Nicole's Volcanology and Seismic Monitors and quick thinking we saved Los Angeles from an infernal doom.

Nico: We sure did.

Lana: Yeah that was intense.

Muscle Man: (sweating) Hey, guys. You know who else sweats in hot temperatures? My mom!

We laughed at his joke.

Me: Good one Muscle Man.

Because of the heat, Scorpion saw Spidey as a talking steak.

Spiderman: Scorpion, why are you looking at me like that?

Scorpion: (drools) Just thinking about how tasty you are, Web Head.

Me: Mac he's not a steak and we're not in the middle of the desert, we're in the middle of the city. It's just hot out because this is normally how it gets down here in Pasadena.

Nico: That's right. It's a nice place too.

Me: We're here guys.

We arrived at Jordan and Nicole Blake's house.

Me: First me and Erica had to go through the sweltering heat of the Urborg Volcano in the world of Magic The Gathering, now we are going through a scorching heatwave here in Southern California.

Nico: I know.

We went up and knocked on the door.

Jordan and Nicolel Blake then answered.

Juandissimo: Hola! Are you Jordan and Nicole Blake?

Jordan Blake: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's such an honor.

Nicole Blake: We love all your adventures!

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you guys. We came to help you guys with a certain Yeti and help you guys get him back home.

Jordan Blake: Wow! Come on in guys.

We went in and we saw that they were really sweating.

Me: Whew! Man it's hot in here as it is outside.

Jordan Blake: Yeah and we are so hot.

Me: Well at least it's not inside a volcano.

Jordan: Dayu, how come you're not sweating.

Dayu: I'm a Nighlok. And I've been near the Sanzu River before. So I don't really sweat.

Me: I don't think I've ever seen Nighlok's sweat even once.

Nico: But man you guys look really hot.

Jordan Blake: Yeah and we need to move someplace cooler.

Nicole Blake: We can't take this heat anymore!

Dana: Let me help you guys out.

Dana flared up her cold aura and cooled the place down and it was good.

Nicole Blake: Ahh! That feels great!

Jordan Blake: Yeah that cold is great!

Laney: That was clever.

Me: It sure was. Smart thinking Dana.

Dana: Thanks.

Me: Do you guys have air conditioning?

Nicole Blake: We do but our air conditioner is busted.

Laney: That's a shame.

Block Man: I don't think robots like me sweat either.

Me: I don't think so either.

Lola: Yeah.

Mandy: I don't sweat. I burn.

Copperhead: (to the Blake kids) Are your parents home, by any chance?

Nicole Blake: They went off on business and won't be back till tonight.

Me: Well when we help with the Yeti that your father found we'll talk to them.

Nico: Yeah.

Me: By the way how did you find a Yeti like that?

Jordan Blake: Our father found him frozen in a block of ice.

Me: That is very coincidental. The Caveman that lives in our Paleozoic World was found frozen in a block of ice I saw it.

Nico: Crazy and we haven't been to Paleozoic World in a while.

Varie: No we sure haven't.

Twilight Sparkle: What's Paleozoic World like?

Me: You'll love it Twilight. It's an amusement park full of prehistoric creatures that are from all of Earth's history dating back to 710 million years.

Twilight Sparkle: WOW! That's amazing!

Sunset Shimmer: That would be cool to see.

Fluttershy: It sure would.

Roscoe: I don't blame you two for wanting to move somewhere else. I'm sweating up a storm here!

Desoto: Same with me!

Me: Yeah I don't blame you guys either.

Nico: Whew! I'm frying like an egg.

Shaggy: Like did you say an egg?

Me: Shaggy it's just an expression.

Shaggy: Oh sorry.

Me: It means we're so hot that it feels like we're frying like one.

Shaggy: Oh.

Jordan Blake: Shaggy sure likes food.

Me: You have no idea. He and Scooby are like living garbage disposals.

Nico: Yeah they eat everything.

Lola: You should see how much they ate when we were in Salem, Massachusetts.

Me: Yeah. I have known Shaggy and Scooby since Elementary School and they have the biggest appetites I have ever seen.

Laney: Yep.

Nicole Blake: Wow.

Biowulf: Jaclyn Deforest actually dealt with a snow creature as well. But it was freezing where she lived before.

Jaclyn Deforest: It's true. And I lived in the Arctic.

Me: Up in Nunavut, Canada. We faced a Snowman Creature.

Mothra: And that's where they met me.

Me: Yeah that was a great adventure.

Nico: Yep.

Sonata Dusk: Guys, you might want to check the news!

We saw the Yeti going on a rampage and he was tearing some of the city apart!

Me: OH NO! He's gone crazy!

Laney: We got to stop it!

Nico: WHOA!

Me: Lets go guys!

Shaggy: Like, no way are me and Scoob going near that thing!

Top: You know what? That might be for the best. After all, unlike the Hellfire Club, the Abominable Snowman is friendly.

May: How about you two get the civilians to safety instead?

Shaggy: Uh uh! No way!

Scooby Doo: Not on your life!

Nico: Not even for some of my new Spaghetti and Meatball flavored Scooby Snax?

Shaggy: Uh uh! Like no way!

Scooby Doo: Forget it!

Me: Okay you two chickens!

I grabbed them by Shaggy's shirt and Scooby's collar and lifted them up.

Me: You guys are the biggest chickens I've ever seen.

Shaggy and Scooby clucked like chickens.

Me: Somebody shoot me. All you too need are feathers and a beak.

Nico: You two have yellow streaks as big as your heads going down your backs.

We saw that they DID have Yellow Streaks.

Me: (Sighs) They literally love to show that they mean it. Lets get going!

I carried them out.

Shaggy: Like I hate being part of this team.

Me: Oh you guys are cowards.

Crankcase: How about I try some of those Scooby Snax you mentioned?

Poromon: I want to try them as well!

Nico: Sure.

Nico handed them some of them and they were tasty!

Poromon and Crankcase: MMMM! MMMM! MMMMMMM!

They turned into rockets and went into the sky and exploded like fireworks and came back down and landed in Nico's arms.

Poromon: Those were awesome!

Crankcase: Yeah boss you make great Scooby Snax.

Me: They are Nico's ideas after all.

Nico: Yep.

Jordan Blake: How come Shaggy and Scooby are so scared?

Me: Oh these two are the biggest chickens I've ever known. They are the biggest cowards ever. Whenever there's a mystery or an adventure that involves something scary like monsters, ghosts, creatures of legend, anything like that, they react with fear in their own way.

Eli: They get so scared that they wet their pants.

Scooby: HEY!

We went and saw the Snowman and he was A YETI! HE WAS COMPLETELY OUT OF HIS MIND!

Vulkanus: (to the Snowman) Hey! What the Hell's your problem?!

The Snowman's response? He roared and punched Vulkanus, knocking him down.

Maria: This is gonna be harder then we thought.

Danny Phantom: I think I know what it is! Something is causing him to go on a rampage. Sam remember when Frostbite had an icicle stuck in him and it caused him to go crazy?

Sam Manson: I remember that!

Me: It might be something stuck in his mouth.

Ty Lee: (to the Snowman) Look, why don't we all calm down and talk about this?

The Snowman grabbed Ty Lee and slammed her into the ground four times.

SMASH SMASH SMASH SMASH!

She was brutally mangled up!

Then the Yeti punched me in the face.

POW!

And he sent me flying and I crashed into a car and it exploded!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

I was mangled up and burned all over.

Then he grabbed Nico and threw him into a building and it crashed completely onto him and smashed him into the ground. Nico popped up out of the rubble all mangled up.

Nico: (Stupid Talk) Hey if you find any teeth laying around they're mine.

Taskmaster: Look, we can't help you if you don't tell us what's wrong!

The Snowman tried to punch Taskmaster but he avoided it.

Taskmaster: Maybe Shaggy and Scooby had the right idea.

I came up to the yeti and I had a bone sticking out of my right leg and blood was pouring out of it.

Me: This monster wants to fight…

(BONES CRACKING AND CRUNCHING)

I healed instantly and I was 100% better in seconds.

Me: Then we'll give it a fight.

Laney tied the Yeti up with her vines.

Vypra, Aqueduct, Evil Star, Evil Seed, Mirror Master, Dai Gui, Firepower, Roxy Rocket, Bane and Vexen then appeared.

Me: Vypra, Aqueduct, Evil Star, Evil Seed, Mirror Master, Dai Gui, Firepower, Roxy Rocket, Bane and Vexen.

Bane: (Spanish Accent) What happened to you amigos?

Me: Mr. Furry here practically beat us into the ground!

Vexen: Geez!

Vypra: It really is hot out here.

May: Tell us something we don't know.

Evilseed: Man, the Snowman really roughed you guys up, didn't he?

Maria: He did. He might not be dangerous as Queen Beryl but he's still strong like the Hulk.

Dai Gui: We can see that.

Evil Star: (to Sora) Might want to use your Cure Spell on everyone's that's beaten up. Especially Nico and Ty Lee.

Sora: Got it!

He used Curaga and we all were healed up.

Nico: Thanks Sora.

Sora: You're welcome.

Me: We got to find out what's wrong with him or he will trash the whole city. He's out of his mind with pain from something.

Eli: Yeah and we got to find out what it is.

Ets: Yeah no kidding.

?: He sure did a number on you all.

A figure came out and it was ELECTROPEDE from episode 11 of Time Force!

---

Electropede is a millipede-themed mutant, who can control and absorb electricity. He is the main antagonist of the episode "Uniquely Trip".

Like all other mutants, Electropede was created in the result of a chemical accident. Electropede was incredibly greedy and selfish mutant. This mutant was very hungry for electric power, having a powerful appetite that he wanted to be sated. He loved to absorb energy to make himself more powerful. Before the events of the season, he was captured by Time Force Rangers and frozen in the Cryo-Prison. In the eleventh episode, Electropede was released by Frax to attack the city. Electropede attacked Silver Hills and started to absorb electricity from an energy station. Then he encountered the Power Rangers. Electropede could breathe with poison gas and shoot with electric blasts from his claws. When he first fought the Rangers, he absorbed the energy from their blasters, making them helpless against him. The Rangers couldn't defeat him because of his shell and his energy field. The Rangers's weapons were useless against the wicked mutant, because he could absorb any form of energy. Only Trip recognized his weakness. In the second battle, the Rangers eventually defeated Electropede with the aid of Trip's newest weapon, the Electro Booster. A blast on inverse mode completely drained Electropede of his power. But, just as the Rangers orders Electropede to surrender quietly, Frax appeared and fired at his DNA patch, enlarging him. In the giant battle, Electropede tried to battle with Megazords, using his energy impulses. But he was finally defeated and frozen by the Shadow

Force Megazord.

---

Trip: Electropede!

Electropede: Been a long time rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were sent to absorb the electrical energy of all the electric power plants in Silver Hills.

Electropede: That's right. Really good memory.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Vypra: Didn't I tell you?

Electropede: And you weren't kidding.

Me: I wonder how much electricity you can eat.

Electropede: Try me out.

Me: Okay.

I fired a massive blast of lightning and it hit him and he absorbed it like it was nothing.

Me: WHOA! That was not even my strongest level of electricity for my lightning powers and you sucked it in like nothing.

Laney: Wow! He is a true energy leach.

Me: Yep.

Electropede: (to Trip) Why were you so upset when you first fought me, Green Ranger?

Trip: (sighs) Well, at the time, I thought I wasn't contributing anything useful to the team.

Electropede: That's not true! After all, weren't you smart enough to make that device that defeated me before?

Me: Yeah Trip and I remember seeing that and you are EXTREMELY useful to the team.

Nico: Yeah man you are very useful to the team.

Trip: Thanks guys.

?: He sure is useful.

A figure came out and it was INJECTOR!

Sailor Venus: Injector!

Injector: Been a long time Venus.

Shanan: I didn't expect the Negamoon to have a Shartrypanian in their ranks.

Qin: What are Shartrypanians?

Shanan: They are known as the Syringe needle warriors of the Sombrero Galaxy. They come from the planet Trypanis. It's a city planet located in the Sombrero Galaxy. The Shartrypanians are the most dangerous warriors of that planet because they use syringe needles and scalpels to kill.

Nico: Whoa! That's lethal.

Goku saw her needle arm and then freaked out!

Goku: (Screams) A NEEDLE!

I grabbed Goku!

Me: MASTER GOKU CALM DOWN!

Goku: NO I HATE NEEDLES! GET ME OUTTA HERE! GET ME OUTTA HERE!

Me: MASTER GOKU CONTROL YOURSELF!

Goku: I'D RATHER BE SICK THAN GET A NEEDLE!

Me: MASTER GOKU!

Poliwag: Are you kidding me? Goku, the guy who beat the crap out of Frieza before, is afraid of needles?

Eddy: Says one of the mascots who ran off because of said needles.

Poliwag: Touché.

Nico: Kakarot can't help it. He has been terrified of needles ever since the day Planet Vegeta was destroyed.

Me: Yeah he can't stand getting shots and he thinks he's gonna get poisoned from them.

Fii: That's crazy.

Miia: No kidding.

Me: One of these days Master Goku we're gonna have to figure out a way to help you get over your fear of needles.

Nico: Maybe we can use the same method that we did to Leni to help her get over her fear of Spiders.

Eli: That just might work.

Me: Yeah.

Brittney: Wait guys! I sense an evil force inside of the Yeti!

Nico: What kind of Evil Force?

Brittney: Only one way to find out!

Brittney fired a wave of dark energy and pulled out the evil force and it took form. It was ARACHNOTAUR, THE SPIDER GOD OF ANGER!

---

Arachnotaur is the secondary antagonist of The Grim Adventures of Billy and Mandy: The Wrath of the Spider Queen. He is a Spider god of anger from the Spider Planet in Galaxy Omega 9.

He was voiced by Dee Bradley Baker.

He was imprisoned by the Galactic Council until he was accidentally released from his cosmic prison by Billy. Billy was at the school café and eventually chose the chocolate milk carton, which contained Arachnotaur in it, but it will be the perfect opportunity to be released from the carton. When Billy accidently smacked the carton off of Jeff's hands, the seal ripped open and inadvertently released Arachnotaur from its prison. Arachnotaur then possessed Jeff's mind and pitted them against each other.

Billy later arrived to help Jeff, and revealed to the spider that he was being mind-controlled. Arachnotaur then exited Jeff's body and showed himself, revealing that he wanted to teach Jeff the power of anger. Billy tells Arachnotaur that he would defeat the Spider God with the power of "passive resistance" until he eventually gets tired and goes away.

---

We gasped in shock!

Nico: Oh man! Arachnotaur!

Arachnotaur: Long time Nicolas Chan!

Me: You know him Nico?

Nico: Ugly story!

Shanan: I might have known you were behind this Arachnotaur!

Eli: What is Arachnotaur known for?

Nico: He's the Spider God of Anger. He is essentially the ultimate personification of anger and hatred.

Me: Geez!

Arachnotaur: And I hate you all incredibly!

All our auras flared up with incredible force and power! It was as if we absorbed negative energy from over 716 Novemdecillion Kisenian Blossoms and it was INTENSELY POWERFUL! Our auras looked like we were enveloped in rainbow fire.

Me: WHOA! That was powerful!

Miia: Why do I suddenly feel incredibly powerful all of a sudden?

Rachnera: Yeah that was intense.

Me: It's what happens whenever someone hates us to an incredible level. It makes us more powerful.

Rukia: It's true. We get more powerful when we absorb negative energy from hatred.

Me: Yep and Arachnotaur's hatred and anger is Intense. Lets get it on!

We went at them.

Princess Celestia: The phoenix is also my pet bird Philomena.

Spotlight: And J.D., Spike and all the Loud Kids have Phoenixes too.

Fii fired waves of fire and knocked down Injector.

---

We regrouped and Varie was looking over Goku and he was crying from the amount of pain he was in.

Varie: I think this is why Master Goku is terrified of needles.

Goku had blood pouring out of his butt and Varie was healing him.

Big Chill: (to the Abominable Snowman) I know we got off on the wrong foot before. But, you want to help me take revenge on the guy who took you over?

The Yeti came up to us all saw.

Fluttershy: Oh it's okay. It's not your fault.

She smashed her fist into Billy's face and sent him crashing into a concrete wall!

CRASH!

Me: OOH! That's gonna leave a mark.

Mandy: That was for releasing Arachnotaur.

Me: It was an accident Mandy.

Laney: Yeah.

Mirror Master: You think we can keep the Snowman around as muscle?

Firepower: As tempting as that sounds, we can't. We have to let it go back its' natural habitat.

Roxy Rocket: Firepower's got a point.

Aqueduct: Now, why don't I cool us all off with my powers as promised?

Nicole Blake: We'd like that.

He fired waves of water into the air and it formed into a fountain and we were cooled off by it.

Nico: That feels good.

Laney: Yeah!

Me: Lets take our friend back home.

Fluttershy: And he belongs in Nepal.

Me: Yep.

We then put on our fur parkas and we teleported all the way to the Himalayan Mountains in Nepal and the Yeti saw his kind and we waved to him goodbye and he waved back and said thank you to us.

Jordan Blake: (To the viewers) This was an intense adventure and it will be good to get out of the heat.

Me: Yeah it was for us.

We later went back home and we later had the Blake Family move out of California to get away from the scorching heat and the Blake Family moved to Gotham Royal York and they were happier there and out of the heat. We then went and got some dinner at the Burpin

Burger and we enjoyed the rest of the day by watching TV on our ginormous TV. Jordan and Nicole Blake were now part of the Goosebumps Monster Busters. We later went to bed.

THE END

---

Another awesome Goosebumps Book down.

The Abominable Snowman of Pasadena was a strange and good one. But thank goodness we got that Yeti back home. Also Arachnotaur is from the 2nd Grim Adventures of Billy and Mandy Movie: Wrath of The Spider Queen and he was a villain that got away. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Nflemingful, Etstheclearencefan, Drako1234658 and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next girl is Emeth the Golem and we're going to rescue her from the Citadel of Steam in the World of Magic The Gathering. And the next chapter is for the Are You Afraid Of The Dark? Villain, Judge Day and we're going to sentence that terrible Judge to the Electric Chair! That Judge picked the wrong court dates with anyone.

See you all tomorrow.

Sentencing the Judge of Evil to Death

In the world of Magic The Gathering, me and Alexandra Kemphur were flying over the mountains and then we saw a huge palace made entirely out of steampunk technology.

Me: Wow! So this must be the Citadel of Steam.

Alexandra: Yeah it's amazing.

Me: Wow.

Alexandra Kemphur: Time for my turn!

Alexandra concentrated and groaned as her boobs shrank into her chest.

She grew a horn out of her head and her skin turned purple and she turned into a NIDOKING!

Me: YEAH!

We walked around the citadel and it was a Steampunk paradise.

Me: Wow. Look at this place. Steam Smythe would love this place.

Alexandra Nidoking: Boy he sure would.

Me: Yeah and it is like the floating steampunk city of Columbia in Bioshock Infinite.

Alexandra Nidoking: Yeah. It's amazing.

We went into a room and we saw a girl chained to a wall and it was a Golem from Czech Myth.

Me: Wow she's a Golem from Czech Myth.

Alexandra Nidoking: She's beautiful.

McWolf: (SCREAMS AND HIS HAIR FALLS OFF)

McWolf grew his hair back.

McWolf: How did you guys find me in here?

Me: You pick really good spots for us to search and also I figured you were here because it was on the card.

I pulled out a card for the Citadel of Steam.

McWolf: Boy they sure made a lot of good cards.

Me: They sure did.

Alexandra Nidoking: Yeah and they are awesome.

We jumped McWolf and tickled him and then we cut the girl free.

Emeth: Whew. Thanks. Wow! You're J.D. Knudson, Leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: That's right.

Alexandra Nidoking: And my name is Alexandra Kemphur and I'm a Nidoking also.

Emeth: Pleasure to meet you both.

Me: Same here.

Emeth: And yes I am a Golem from Czech Myth.

Me: That is amazing. We saw a Golem on our worldwide adventure before we formed the team.

Emeth: Wow! That's so cool!

Me: Yep.

Alexandra: I'm gonna revert back now.

Me: Okay.

I put on my blind man glasses and Alexandra reverted back.

Alexandra was human again. But naked.

Alexandra: (covers herself) I don't know which is more weird about my transformations. The fact that I turn into a Nidoking or the fact that I turn into a boy. I have to start thinking some girl thoughts!

Me: Yeah that's crazy.

Emeth: Sorry that must be really painful for you.

Alexandra: Yeah.

I gave her some new clothes and Alexandra put them on.

Me: Leni's gonna run out of materials to make clothes if we keep this up.

Emeth: With the number of clothes that you guys use up for changing like that I can tell.

Me: Yeah. But Miia and the girls will be so happy to see you Emeth.

Emeth: I can't wait to see them too. Also I'm confused, how can a girl turn into a Male Pokemon?

Me: It's complicated.

Alexandra: Yeah.

We went back to the World Tree Estate.

---

Back at the World Tree Estate, Lincoln and Nicole were playing video games on our new ginormous TV and the graphics were absolutely amazing. Everyone but Laney were watching as she was reading a book. Vince and Carol were making out.

We came back and Alexandra sat on the couch.

Emeth: Wow! Is this where you all live?

Me: Yep it's home sweet home.

Nico: Wow she's a Golem.

Me: Yep we found her in the Citadel of Steam.

Sakura H.: Sounds like a place that Steam Smythe would love.

Me: We thought so too.

Emeth: It's awesome to meet you all.

Miia: Emeth!

Emeth: Miia!

They hugged!

Emeth: It's awesome seeing you here.

Miia: Same here.

Splash Woman then came in frantic!

Splash Woman: Guys, we have a problem!

Nico: Have Goche and Baron Nero attacked again?

Splash Woman: Um… it's best if you see for yourselves.

We went over and we saw that OUR MASCOTS WERE HUMAN! Horsea was a blue hair girl with pink overalls, Manaphy was a blue hair girl with blue pigtails and she had a blue dress, Poliwag was a blue hair boy with his tail and he had a blue shirl with a black spiral and he blue shorts, Poromon was a pink hair boy with a red feather on his head and he had a pink shirt with yellow shorts, Tentacool was a blue hair girl with dreadlocks that looked like tentacles and she had a red jewel embedded in the middle of her forehead and she had a blue dress and sandals and Jirachi was a yellow hair boy with a yellow and black Kimono.

Me: WHOA!

Eli: WOW! Our Mascots are human!

Manaphy: WHAT!?

Ets: Yeah you guys are now full-fledge humans!

Isaribi: Would anyone like to tell me WHAT THE FUCK IS GOING ON?!

Me: Somehow our mascots turned into humans!

I formed a mirror and our mascots looked at themselves and they were shocked at how they looked!

Poliwag: What happened to me!?

Manaphy: Oh wow! I look awesome!

Jirachi: Yeah I look great as a human.

Poromon: Me too!

Horsea: This is amazing!

Tentacool: But how did this happen?

Me: I don't know but you guys look amazing.

Manaphy: Mama how did this happen?

May: I don't know Manaphy but it's like I now have a real daughter now.

Videl Chan: And like I have an official sister. Same with Poromon and Poliwag as my brothers.

Nico: That is cute.

Videl Chan hugged her brothers and sister.

Manaphy: I do like it because we get full hugs now.

Poromon: This is neat.

Me: Whatever did this really was interesting.

Cybertron Crumplezone: Aw man! We gotta find a way to get you guys back to normal!

Nico: We'll think of something.

Me: I think they look more cute and awesome this way. Also I can give them the ability to turn human at will.

Xerneas: It's not that bad guys. I am the legendary Pokemon of Life and I have the power to turn into human form.

Jirachi: Wow! I wonder what we can do as humans.

Me: We can show you.

Max (Pokemon): Yeah it will be awesome.

Lincoln: And the vest place for us to start is one of my favorite places.

Me: Lets head for the arcade.

Shaggy: Like, the 6 of you can't seriously be ok like this! What about all the good times you all had in your original forms?

Poromon: You're just being your cowardly self as usual, Shaggy.

Outback: Actually, Shaggy has a point. And we don't know if you guys still have your natural abilities.

Tentacool: Hmm. Lets find out.

She tried to fire a beam of energy from the red jewel on her forehead but nothing happened.

Jirachi tried to make a wish come true but nothing happened.

Me: Uh oh. You guys don't have your powers.

Manaphy: Oh no!

Horsea: We don't have our powers!

Me: Oh no.

Manaphy then broke down crying.

May then comforted her.

May: Manaphy it will be okay.

Me: Come on guys I can give you guys your powers when you finish enjoying what it's like to be part of us.

Horsea: Really?

Me: Yeah remember who you are talking to?

Horsea: Oh right.

Jirachi: Awesome.

Roxas: Look, it doesn't matter whether our mascots are human are not. Right now, we have to focus on our next mission.

Me: And I have a feeling I know what it involves.

Brittney: Dad's right. I know what caused all of our mascots to turn human. I'm sensing incredible supernatural energy coming from Ireland.

Me: Then we got to get over there and investigate.

Roxy Rocket, Vypra, Aqueduct, Evil Star, Evil Seed, Mirror Master, Dai Gui the Demon Sorcerer of Earth, and Firepower then appeared.

Roxy Rocket: Can me, Vypra, Aqueduct, Evil Star, Evil Seed, Mirror Master, Dai Gui, and Firepower go with you guys?

Me: You all sure can.

Vypra: Your mascots look cuter this way as humans.

Me: Yeah we think so too.

Brittney: But whoever did this must be "Thanked" and destroyed.

Evilseed: Well said.

Red Hood: Where are we heading first?

Me: First lets give the mascots a chance to have fun in our shoes like us.

Lincoln: We're going to the arcade.

Me: It'll give them a chance to see how fun it is to have fun like us.

Jirachi: Yeah!

Manaphy: It will be fun.

Vypra: If you insist.

Evil Star: (to Shaggy and Scooby) Guys, I know you two can be cowardly most of the time. But right now, we need you guys to keep the mascots safe.

Shaggy: Like you can count on us!

Scooby Doo: YES SIR!

Scrappy: That's my Uncle Scooby!

Crystal: Like yeah!

Me: Besides, if Shaggy and Scooby can take care of a bunch of campers as a Camp Counselor and look out for a bunch of Ghoul Girls then he can do the same for the mascots.

Shaggy: Likes thanks for that J.D.

Me: You're welcome.

Sinnertwin: Okay. If anyone asks, we'll say that they're our new interns.

Me: Noted.

We went into the arcade and the mascots all had fun playing video games and it was awesome as they were having fun and raking in the tickets. They were raking in the tickets and playing the games REALLY WELL!

Nico: Wow you guys are doing well.

Laney: They sure are.

Éclair: They sure are having fun.

Emeth: Boy no kidding.

Miia: They sure are piling up the tickets.

After 45 minutes they were done.

Aqueduct: Okay. Whoever did this is probably making his next move, right?

Me: I agree with you on that Peter. Besides we had our fun.

Manaphy: Yeah and it was great!

Horsea: I didn't know playing video games like this as humans could be so much fun.

Jirachi: And we get to eat awesome food like you guys.

Tentacool: Yeah it's great.

Me: Glad you guys had fun. Well there's many more we can do. Lets head over to Ireland now.

Nico: Right!

Me: Lets fly!

We were off to Ireland.

---

BELFAST, IRELAND

We were over in the town of Belfast, Ireland and it was a beautiful place.

Chan Lee: Ireland looks nice as always.

Me: It sure does.

Natilee: (Irish Accent) You said it lads. It's beautiful.

Nico: I always love Ireland.

Me: Yep.

Brittney: Here's where the supernatural energies are coming from.

We saw that we were in front of an abandoned courthouse.

Jessie K.: It's the old Crumlin Road Courthouse. It was shut down in the 1960's due to its small size for trials.

Me: Wow. Looks like it hasn't been touched in a long time.

Nico: Yeah.

Brittney: The supernatural energies are coming from inside it.

Me: I've got a really bad feeling about this.

Mirror Master: Let's ask some witnesses if they saw any strange activity lately.

Me: Good idea.

We went and asked some people and they said that some people just vanished for no reason and they said that they never came back somehow.

Slugfest (to a woman): Can you tell us if you saw any shady figures lately?

Woman (Irish Accent) Ah yes I have. They took some people into that courthouse over there. They charged him with getting candy and it's punishable by death.

Me: WHAT!? That's madness!

Brittney: There's only one monster I know that's responsible for these kinds of miscarriages of justice: JUDGE DAY!

Me: Who is he?

Brittney: The most corrupt and most hated judge ever known.

Brittney told us about him.

---

Biography

Judge Day is The Judge of The Court of Wisdom, a court that exists in the cyberworld of the computer game "Wisdom Game, The Ultimate Journey of Knowledge". His appearance was concealed by a mask and a powered wig.

He was very committed to following the rules of wisdom (such as honesty, intergrity, responsibility). Often he would go through with making decisions, by consulting a magical sphere named the "The Wisdom Glass", which he considered a higher power and whose judgement always had to be rightfully carried out.

When his court sensed that two boys from the real world Jimmy Miller and Allan Price stole copy of the computer game. He was chosen to be the judge, when they were lured and teleported to the cyberworld to stand on trial for stealing Wisdom.

When Jimmy Miller stated that he stole the computer game, he was considering many different sentences to give to Jimmy. Sentences such as:

Make him pay for the Computer Game.

Write a 10,000 word essay about the evils of stealing.

To just simply be let go, with a warning.

He consulted the Wisdom Glass for the answer, and it chose for Jimmy to be executed. He announced to Jimmy that for stealing the computer game, The Wisdom Glass has decided his punishment was to be execution by guillotine.

Allan, ran back in just before the sentence was carried out. He rightfully confessed to him, that he was the one who stole the computer game, but it stole it by accident.

He was very proud of Allan for having the bravery and courage to to tell the truth and take responsibility for his actions. He applauded him for finally learning what wisdom was all about.

Although he was proud of him, he then chose for Allan to be executed instead because..

The judgement of the Wisdom Glass needed to be carried out.

For not confessing in the first place.

For letting his friend take the rap for him when he was the innocent one.

Jimmy then grabbed the Wisdom Glass and threatened to smashed it, if they both were released and free to go. He was horrified over the idea of it being smashed and reluctantly let them both go.( Soon it was dropped and smashed by accident by The Court Jester)

Later just as the two boys thought they had gotten away with it, they got a big surprise. In Allan's limousine, the Limo driver Trevor was wearing his mask. It seemed he was either possessing Trevor, or leads a double life as Trevor.

He told them that the Judgement of The Wisdom Glass needed to be carried out. Then he forced the doors jammed shut, and drove them back to the cyberworld to have their sentences carried out.

---

When she was done we were shocked!

Me: That's insane!

Nico: Yeah he's a vigilante judge!

Batman: This reminds of the time Two Face ended up with a third persona called the Judge.

Dai Gui: Was it really called that?

Batman: Indeed it was.

Me: Harvey Dent was really fucked up at the time.

Nico: Yeah! I hope that doesn't happen to him now.

Me: And it looks like we're gonna have to go inside the courthouse to stop him.

Shaggy: Like, no way me and Scoob are going in there. Besides, this way, we can keep the mascots safe!

Nico: How about if I give you two my new M&M Scooby Snax?

Sunstorm: What kind are they?

Nico: The milk chocolate kind. I'm still working on the peanut and peanut butter kinds.

Shaggy: M&M's!? Like oh boy!

Me: I'm also helping him on inventing Mint-Chocolate and Mocha Kit Kat Flavor and Peanut-Butter Cup as well as Crispy M&M's flavor.

Scooby Doo: Oh boy!

Shaggy: Like we'll do it!

Nico gave them some snax and they loved them!

Shaggy and Scooby: MMMM! MMMM! MMMMMMMM!

They turned into rockets and went up into the sky and they turned into balloons that said "Try Nico's New And Improved Scooby Snax

With His Flavors! You'll Love Them!"

They came back down.

Nico: Good huh?

Shaggy: Like yeah they were!

Me: Lets go.

Shaggy: We'll still keep the mascots close to us.

Firepower: Good. The last thing we want is for the Judge to harm them.

Me: We know they are in good hands Shaggy. When this is done we'll give you the biggest pizza we can make.

Mary K.: Courtesy of me.

Shaggy: LIKE OH BOY!

Me: Shh. Come on.

We went up to the courthouse.

Muscle Man: Hey, guys. You know who else prefers the mascots in their original forms?

Misfire: I know the answer to this one.

Muscle Man: My mom!

We laughed at his joke!

Manaphy: Good one!

Evil Seed: Seriously though. Don't you 6 miss your original forms?

Manaphy: We do. But we like being like this.

Poliwag: We want to change at will like all the Gene-Slammers do.

Tentacool: It's fun being like you. And it gives us abilities we can't normally do.

Me: If that is what you all want then who am I to not accept?

Jirachi: Awesome!

Me: But you will also have your powers like you do as Pokemon and Digimon.

Poromon: We would like that.

Me: Okay. (Snaps Fingers)

I gave them their powers.

Jirachi: Awesome.

Tentacool: Yeah!

We went into the courthouse and we saw that it was a really run down and old place.

Me: Wow. No one has been in here for years.

Nico: Wow.

Emeth: It sure is creepy.

Lola: Yeah.

Me: Shh. (Whispering) I hear something.

We heard voices and we got closer to a courtroom and we saw JUDGE DAY! And he had a kid on trial.

Judge Day: You have been found guilty of stealing candy. Therefore I hereby sentence you to Death!

Before he slammed his gaval a laser blast blasted it out of his hand and we faced him!

Me: This is a miscarriage of justice!

Nico: This boy bought that candy!

Judge Day: Team Loud Phoenix Storm. Welcome.

Me: You are gonna pay for condemning innocent people to death!

May: Yeah!

Manaphy: You make us sick!

Judge: I see the 6 of you are enjoying my little… present.

Carnivac: What are you talking about?

Judge: (laughs) Who do you think made your pets human in the first place?

Brittney: I had a feeling you were behind all this "Your Honor" and you will pay for it!

Nico: Big time!

Me: But we should be thanking you. Because you helped us out.

Judge: What!? What do you mean?

Me: In addition to making them human, you gave them something greater.

Judge: And what's that?

Me: You gave them the ability to do things that humans can do like us.

Vypra: As leader of the Masters of Evil, you're going down hard!

Me: You are hereby stripped of your title as Judge!

Nico: You give all judges everywhere a bad name!

Eli: Yeah what they said!

Ets: It's Time for a serious buttkicking!

Me: Yeah!

Then Onyx, Swordsman, Jet, Rojo, Multiplex, Dirty Bubble, Pinky and Brain, Waffle Woman, Misty Tredwell and Carly Atlas appeared.

Me: Onyx, Swordsman, Jet, Rojo, Multiplex, Dirty Bubble, Pinky and Brain, Waffle Woman, Misty Tredwell and Carly Atlas.

Carly: Yep it's us.

Pinky: Good to see you guys! Zort!

Waffle Woman: So that's what the 6 of you look like as humans.

Rojo: So, is it true that the Judge made you that way?

Poliwag: He sure did!

Onyx: Well, at least he did one thing good.

Jet: But you guys want to return to normal, right?

Poromon: Actually, yes. We want to become our normal selves again!

Me: I gave them the power the transform at will and they have the ability to do normal every day things as humans. And they can even go on roller coasters and all that at our amusement park and all that.

Nico: Wow!

Me: And they got to have fun at the arcade and all that.

Lincoln: It's true.

Laney: It sure was fun.

Nico: Yep.

Rojo: Awesome. We have a new recruit for you all.

We heard Indian Snake Charming Music play and we saw on a magic carpet, playing said music was THE SALAMI SWAMI!

---

The Salami Swami is a one-time villain from the Cartoon Network animated series The Powerpuff Girls, only appearing in the episode "Slave the Day".

Before making an appearance in the actual series, The Salami Swami made a cameo in the What a Cartoon pilot episode "Meat Fuzzy Lumpkins", where he was one of the meat-themed criminal suspects of turning The Mayor into a piece of meat. He was not the criminal, however, as the true culprit was Fuzzy Lumpkins.

The Salami Swami was reused in the series' episode "Slave the Day". In this episode, The Salami Swami played a minor role, when he robbed an art museum. The Powerpuff Girls came in to stop him, and he played his magic flute, summoning a bunch of sausage links to attack them. Big Billy came in to help them, and he ate all of his sausage links, rendering him powerless. The Powerpuff Girls congratulated him on helping them out, but Big Billy quickly undid his good deed, by continuing to attack the already powerless Salami Swami, by smacking him with the museum's priceless paintings. Big Billy smashed The Salami Swami over the head with these paintings, tearing holes in them, and ruining their value. This successfully knocked The Salami Swami out cold, but at the cost of him destroying the priceless artifacts that they were originally trying to save.

Blossom: The Salami Swami!

Me: Oh wow! I heard he uses Sausages to commit crimes.

Nico: Sounds like my kind of criminal.

Kole: I'll face this one.

Starfire: It will be interesting to see how you fair against him Kole.

Kole: It sure will.

?: This will be interesting to see.

A figure came out and it was LAWNMOWER ORG from episode 14 of Wild Force!

---

Lawnmower Org is (as his name applies) a lawnmower-themed Org and is one of the main villains of the seven-part Zen-Aku story arc episode, he serves as the primary villain of the episode "Identity Crisis", the fifth episode of the Zen-Aku story arc.

Lawnmower Org was one of the ancient Orgs that work for Master Org 3,000 years ago. He took the form of a lawnmower and attacked a soccer field. He was about to give chase to some kids until the Rangers interfered. Toxica and Jindrax came in to aid Lawnmower Org in battle. While Toxica took on Cole and Alyssa, Jindrax took on Taylor and Max, leaving Lawnmower Org to face Danny. The Org was able to overpower him and was about to finish him off until the other Rangers came to help him. Cole was about to finish off the Org with the Lion Blaster until Zen-Aku came in to battle the Rangers. Lawnmower Org foolishly tried to talk Zen-Aku out of it, only for him to be destroyed by Zen-Aku's Crescent Blade, because he started to feel his true self and remember his true past in his mind.

Merrick: Lawnmower Org!

Lawnmower Org: Been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were sent to attack a soccer field and you were destroyed by Zen-Aku.

Lawnmower Org: That's right J.D. You have a great memory.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Lawnmower Org: (to Merrick) I remember you. You're the one who destroyed me in my own lawn!

Merrick: Technically, it was Zen Aku who did that.

Lawnmower Org: But you were still the one who was corrupted into him. I didn't even get the chance to grow giant!

Me: And Merrick met Animus for the first time.

I pulled out the crystals for the Black Lion, Water Buffalo, Condor, Jaguar and Sawshark zords.

Me: Hard to imagine. But it was awesome seeing that. I'll never forget.

Nico: That was really cool.

Lola: Yeah it sure was.

Éclair: That must've been really cool.

Laney: It sure was.

Emeth: I've heard about all the stuff on the Power Rangers and that must've been so awesome.

Me: It sure is Emeth. You will love watching all the Power Rangers series.

?: That is most amusing.

Another figure came out and it was the Chemical X mutated Orangutan that Mojo Jojo made, OJO TANGO!

Ojo Tango is a minion of Mojo Jojo in The Powerpuff Girls Movie. He was an orangutan from the Townsville Zoo. Blossom destroyed the Orango-tank Ojo is in, which causes an explosion that defeats him. He was voiced by Kevin Michael Richardson.

Jared: Ojo Tango!

Ojo: Yes it is I, Ojo Tango, Simian Supreme!

Nico: Who is he?

Jared: He's one of the minions of Mojo Jojo. He was an Orangutan that Mojo infused with Chemical X and me, Laney and the Powerpuff Girls defeated him. Mojo Jojo had a massive army of apes and monkeys of many kinds with him as his minions. He infused them all with Chemical X and they were part of his army in his first ever plot to take over the world and he was gonna be called King of The Planet of The Apes. But that title was already taken.

Ojo: I suppose that title was already spoken for.

Nico: How many monkeys did he have with him?

Jared: Hundreds. Maybe thousands.

Laney: It was a lot.

Jared: Yep.

Emeth: I'll face this one. It will be good to face him.

Me: Go for it Emeth.

Jared: I guess since Mojo Jojo is now part of the Masters of Evil we're gonna have all of his minions part of it too.

Vypra: You got that right Jared.

Me: Awesome. Lets get them.

Mistmane: That's what we have been hearing. And I heard that the Scooby Snax Secret Recipe is so widely coveted by many of the factories.

Gill Grunt: You heard right. Many rival factories have been sending spies to get the secret recipe.

Echo: Yeah it's that coveted.

Françoise: But with Team Loud Phoenix Storm protecting it, no way in hell are those dirtbags getting it.

Nurse Joy: No way, no how.

Officer Jenny: And you can be sure of that.

Rojo: That's for sure! Nico is doing a great job at the factory. Lets do it!

Gari: Yeah it completed its task and then kept on killing people. Endangering the people it was charged with protecting.

Pinkie Pie: Yeah and he's like an evil version of The Punisher!

They laughed at her joke.

Eddy: (LAUGHS) Good one Luan!

Dirty Bubble: That was a good one. Lets do it!

He flew at them and they blasted him all over with energy and water and wind and smashed him down.

Nokama: A water victory!

Rainbow Dash: That was AWESOME!

Battle 8: Superman, Princess Celestia, Light Skylanders, Ren, Stimpy, CatDog, Catilla and Carnivac VS Pinky and The Brain

Pinky and the Brain were next.

Brain: (to Superman) I know you like the mascots' human look. But you need to remember that the Judge forced these forms on them. They weren't given a choice.

Superman: But it is their choice if they want to stay that way or not.

Princess Celestia: That's right and they were given the power to shift between forms. They can stay human at home and when doing everyday things.

Spotlight: Yeah that is amazing.

Ren: It sure is. I think they look awesome this way.

Stimpy: Me too Ren.

Cat: The Judge really did us a big favor and helped us give them the ability to turn the mascots into humans.

Dog: Boy he sure did Cat.

Pinky: Egad! They look awesome.

Brain: Indeed. Lets do it!

The two mice in a robot suit went at them and Superman and the group blasted them all over with energy and light blasts and smashed them down.

Superman: A great victory!

Princess Celestia: That was amazing!

Cat: Yeah it was!

Dog: HI HO DIGGETY!

Battle 9: Persephone, Twilight Sparkle, Luster Dawn, Star Swirl, Magic Skylanders, Snake Man and Acid Man VS Misty Tredwell

Misty Tredwell was next.

Misty Tredwell: I can't wait to give that judge a piece of my mind for hurting innocent people.

Persephone: Me too. He is a monster. And he gives all good judges everywhere a really bad name.

Twilight Sparkle: Yeah he sure does.

Luster Dawn: He makes me sick looking at him.

Star Swirl: Yeah he sure does.

Spyro: I'll say. What a jerk!

Voodood: Yeah!

Misty Tredwell: Yeah you got that right. Lets do it!

She fired waves of green fire and they dodged it and fired waves of magic and green fire and smashed her down.

Persephone: That was a flaming victory.

Twilight Sparkle: Yeah!

Battle 10: Haiku, Starlight Glimmer, Cozy Glow, Trixie, Clover the Clever, Undead Skylanders, Astro Man and Galaxy Man VS Carly Atlas

Carly Atlas was next.

Carly Atlas: The mascots look amazing this way. If our mascots could turn human they would feel the same way.

Haiku: That would be really interesting to see.

Starlight Glimmer: Yeah it sure would.

Cozy Glow: I would love to see how MegaSeadramon, Seadramon, and Gazimon would look as humans.

Trixie: Me too. That would be really amazing to see.

Clover: It sure would.

Hex: Yeah I think so too.

Cynder: You said it.

Carly Atlas: Yep. Lets do it!

She fired a wave of orange fire at them and they dodged the blast and they fired waves of fire and bones and energy and smashed her down.

Haiku: A victory in flames.

Starlight Glimmer: That was awesome!

Trixie: A grand performance by The Great and Powerful Trixie!

Battle 11: Kole VS The Salami Swami

The Salami Swami was next.

He had sausages ready to go at her.

Kole: I hope you know that I love meat as much as you do.

He tweeted his flute and sent the salami at her and she bit them all over and fired beams of light and knocked him down.

Battle 12: Wild Force Rangers, Megaforce Rangers, Jungle Fury Rangers, J.D. Knudson, Nico, Laney, Lola, Lana, Lucy Loud and Lily VS Lawnmower Org

The Lawnmower Org was next.

Me: Get ready to get a serious weed-whacking!

Nico: Yeah! After I get his treasure!

Nico teleported behind him and cracked his safe open and in it was a sword and it had the symbol for the Constellation of Phoenix the Firebird, a constellation in the Southern Hemisphere. It was a sword with a gold hilt that had red jewels of fire and the blade was shaped like fire.

Nico: Wow! This sword is interesting.

Lawnmower Org: It's called Phoenixcaliber. It's the Sword of The Constellation Phoenix The Firebird.

Nico: Wow! And I know someone who would like this one. J.D. has the exact same symbol on this sword. It's his birthmark.

Nico teleported back and he handed me the sword.

Me: Thanks Nico.

Nico: You're welcome.

Suddenly my birthmark on my neck started glowing and then swirls of fire and energy spun around me as my energy was increasing fast. Suddenly I was enveloped in a massive flash of light and then a massive vortex of fire exploded high into the sky and it went out of the infinitely vast web of galaxies and formed into a powerful phoenix made of pure fire and the fire turned into rainbow fire and the phoenix screeched with powerful justice and absorbed the energies of the explosions of stars and even stardust and cosmic radiation. Suddenly the phoenix went back to Earth and then I was inside a dome of rainbow fire and when it faded I was forever changed. My clothes were still rainbow fire and my crest in the middle of my forehead now had the symbol of Phoenix The Firebird added to it. My sword was now a fusion of of the Sword of Harmony and the Phoenixcaliber sword and I was now a SUPER ANGEL-EBONWU-PHOENIX-HARMONY 500,000,000,000 PHOENIX FRIENDSHIP ELEMENTAL!

Nico: WHOA! J.D. you look incredible!

Lily: WOW! J.D. transformed!

Lana: He ascended to new heights!

Lola: He's more powerful than ever!

Nico: Wow! J.D. how do you feel?

Nico: One thing at a time man but yeah you're right. Wow! Your power is unreal.

Lola: Yeah it's amazing!

Me: Lets test this power.

I fired a tiny beam of rainbow fire energy and it hit Lawnmower Org and he exploded in an instant!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Lawnmower Org was dead from that one little shot of energy!

Me: WHOA!

Nico: WHOA! You just killed him like he was nothing!

Me: This form is more powerful than I thought. WHOA!

Cole: Wow! What power! He destroyed him like he was nothing.

Taylor Earhardt: No kidding that was amazing!

Me: Wow. This forms power is incredible. If I can do that to Lawnmower Org with just a tiny energy beam then who knows what could happen if I did a full-fledge energy blast on a monster like say Father.

Nico: Yeah.

Me: Sorry guys I'll let you have your shot.

I snapped my fingers and Lawnmower Org was brought back.

Lawnmower Org: WHOA! What happened? What hit me?

Me: That was me. Sorry about that I'm still getting used to this.

Cole: JUNGLE BLASTER!

Jungle Fury Rangers: CLAW CANNON!

Troy Burrows: Rangers that's a Super Mega Win.

Battle 13: Emeth the Golem VS Ojo Tango

---

Ojo Tango was next.

Emeth: Time to smash a monkey.

Ojo Tango: Bring it on.

She went at him and smashed him all over the place and knocked him down.

---

We regrouped and we were facing JUDGE DAY!

Me: You will pay for your crimes Judge!

My Dark Orb detector then found a Dark Orb inside him.

Me: There's a dark orb in him.

Nico: I sense it.

The Judge just used his Dark Orb to turn the mascots back to normal.

Jirachi: Yay! We're back to normal!

Manaphy: All right!

Judge: (to the mascots) I never should've turned you human in the first place!

Horsea: Let us THANK you!

Mascots: CUTIE ATTACK!

They jumped the Judge and pulverized and blasted him all over and then they saw that there was a Dark Orb inside him.

Jirachi: He has a dark orb in him!

Nico came and got the Dark Orb out of the Judge.

Nico: Got it.

Nico crushed it and we got a massive power increase.

Troy: Let's show you what true justice is!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: SPD!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the SPD Rangers.

Me: Judge Day in the Name of Team Loud Phoenix Storm, you are hereby sentenced to Death!

We went at him and pulverized him and smashed him all over with incredible fury!

Frafdo blasted and smashed the Judge into pulp all over.

Nico: Yeah that was powerful!

Varie: That was so awesome!

Emeth: Looks like that judge won't be bothering anyone anymore.

Multiplex: You can say that we judged him!

Swordsman: (laughs) You said it!

Dirty Bubble: (to the mascots) Sorry that you guys had to give up your human forms.

Tentacool: It's okay.

Manaphy: But like J.D. said, we have the ability to shift between forms now.

Pinky: So, will you guys go back to human now?

Poromon: (smiles) No. I think we'll stay as we are for a while.

Me: Wise choice.

Jirachi: But we'll turn human when we are at home and doing our every day stuff.

Lola: That's a great choice.

Holly: (Icelandic Accent) And the cool part is that you all have your powers again.

Laney: That's right.

Me: Lets head home.

Emeth: (To the viewers) Moral of this story is to always stick with who you really are and not as something else.

Me: Yep.

We went back home and we had an awesome dinner and later went to bed.

Meanwhile in Japan, a team of Digimon Warriors and their partners are getting ready for a great battle. They were the Digimon Data Squad that was met earlier.

Marcus: With Team Loud Phoenix Storm helping us, Kurata will pay for his crimes 100-fold.

Thomas: Yeah he will pay.

Yoshi: And it won't be pretty. He will pay in blood. Big time.

Agumon (Data Squad): Yeah!

Marcus: Lets get him guys!

Data Squad: DNA CHARGE!

In a flash of light their Digimon digivolved.

THE END

Another awesome chapter done.

Judge Day from Are You Afraid Of The Dark was a bad judge in capital letters and it was good that we tore him apart. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Drako1234658, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next girl is gonna be Rei the Ghost and we're going to meet her at Solidarity, the Flying Castle and tomorrow is Fathers Day and the First Day of Summer. We're going to have a great Fathers Day and witness Princess Celestia raise the sun for the first day of Summer at the Summer Sun Celebration. It will be really interesting seeing it. Also next will be where we meet Marcus and his friends from Digimon Data Squad and we're going to kill Dr. Kurata and we're going to make that Genocidal Monster Pay for his crimes against both the human world and the Digital World. He will rue the day he messed with us!

See you all tomorrow

The Genocidal Digimon Mad Scientist

HAPPY FATHERS DAY AND SUMMER SOLSTICE 2021 EVERYONE!

---

In the world of Magic The Gathering, me and Sophie Necturn were flying over the plains and we saw an amazing and beautiful flying island that had an amazing castle and it looks like it was never touched for a long period of time.

Me: Wow! So this is Solidarity, the Flying Castle.

Sophie: It's amazing.

We landed.

Me: Wow! McWolf picked an amazing location.

Sophie Necturn: Time to see who we're rescuing this time!

Sophie concentrates and groans as she began to hunch forward.

And her clothes ripped and she turned into GROUDON!

Me: YEAH!

We walked into the castle on the island. It was filled with beautiful birds, butterflies, flowers, trees, plants and more.

Me: Wow! This island and this whole castle is beautiful.

Sophie Groudon: Boy it sure is. I wouldn't mind coming here to clear my head when I need to cool down.

Me: Me neither. McWolf picked an amazing resting island and this castle is breathtaking.

Sophie Groudon: Yeah he sure did.

We went into a room and locked inside a jar was a Ghost!

Me: Whoa the girl is a ghost this time.

Sophie Groudon: Yeah.

McWolf: I didn't expect the next goil to be a ghost either.

Me: No kidding. Lets get it on.

We jumped him and tickled him all over.

We grabbed the jar and I opened it and out came the girl.

Rei: Whew! Cramped in there but thank you for getting me out. Wow! You're J.D. Knudson, Leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm!.

Me: That's right. It's a pleasure to meet you.

Rei: My name is Rei and yes I'm a ghost.

Me: Pleasure to meet you. This is Sophie Necturn and yes she's also a Groudon.

Sophie Groudon: Pleasure to meet you Rei.

Rei: Same here.

Sophie: I'm gonna revert back myself.

Me: Okay.

I put on my blind man glasses and Sophie started reverting back.

Sophie was human again. But naked.

Sophie: (covers herself) Good thing no kids are around to look at me!

Me: Yeah.

Rei: Boy this must happen to her a lot.

Me: You have no idea and you don't have a shirt on yourself.

Rei: I know sorry.

I gave Sophie some clothes.

Sophie: Thanks J.D.

She put them on.

Me: When we head back, our friends Shaggy and Scooby are gonna be scared seeing you Rei.

Rei: How come?

Me: They are extremely phobic of ghosts.

Rei: Right! I heard about their mysteries and how they bust the bad guys and that is awesome.

Me: Yeah and they love to eat.

We laughed.

We went back to the World Tree Estate.

---

Back at the World Tree Estate we went in and Sophie sat on the couch to rest.

Rei: Oh wow! This is so awesome.

Me: It sure is.

Shaggy and Scooby saw Rei and they were shaking in fright!

Shaggy: ZOINKS!

Scooby jumped into his arms.

Me: Guys it's okay. Rei is not like any ghost you all faced. Rei is actually a friendly ghost.

Scooby Doo: Really?

Rei: Yeah it's all right you two. I'm not like the ghosts you all faced. I'm like Casper.

Shaggy: Wow. Like we encountered a friendly ghost ourselves on Halloween.

Me: I remember that. Mr. Boo was awesome.

Nico: Wow.

Miia: Rei!

Rei: Miia!

Miia went to hug her but she went through her.

Miia: Oops sorry. I forgot you're a ghost.

Rei: That's okay.

---

Later at 4:45 in the morning we were up and early. Also today was June 20th, 2021 and it was also Fathers Day and the First Day of Summer.

Poromon, Manaphy, Poliwag, Horsea, Jirachi, and Tentacool: Happy Father's Day, everybody!

Me: Same to you guys.

Nico: Yeah this is awesome.

Eli: Wonder why we're doing it so Early in the morning.

Me: Oh I forgot to tell you. Fathers Day is also the First Day of Summer and I got you all up early for a special event that's also taking place in Equestria.

Twilight Sparkle: It's called the Summer Sun Celebration. It's a very special annual event where Princess Celestia raises the Sun on the first day of Summer.

Nico: Wow!

Ets: That's gonna be awesome to see.

Éclair: It will be interesting to see that.

Emeth: It sure will.

Me: This is gonna be so cool to see.

We went to Canterlot and at the crack of Dawn we were all going to see Princess Celestia raise the sun for the first day of Summer as we enter the Summer Equinox and enter the Longest Days and Shortest Nights. It was like a carnival for the first day of the Summer Season.

---

The Summer Sun Celebration is a yearly-event within Equestria, mainly to commemorate Celestia.

Layout

The first Summer Sun Celebration was celebrated not long after Nightmare Moon's defeat and banishment, the event mainly commemorating Celestia's defeat over her foe. Upon Season 6, Celestia made known that the summer sun celebration no longer presented the defeat of Nightmare Moon, but instead the return of her dear sister.

The exact process itself, both prior and after Luna's return, had the sun and moon being moved side-by-side: the sun rising as the moon fell as a visual representation to Nightmare Moon's defeat. First the moon would be lowered, and then Celestia would fly up alongside the sun, and use her magic to bring forth the next morning from there. According to Pinkie Pie the last summer sun celebration had Twilight Sparkle fly in and release a magical flair when the moon and sun line up.

History

Nightmare Moon made her return on the 1,000th year of the Summer Sun Celebration, almost halting the event altogether until Celestia returned, and subsequently raised the sun. It was almost stopped again when Celestia and Luna were captured by the Plunder Vines, but once again went on without another hitch once they were freed, and when the Mane Six had come back, Twilight becoming involved in it.

Season 6

The celebration became a focus in Waving the Red Cape, when Celestia had to make a magical shield around Canterlot in order to keep Solitaire from destroying it as the event was being prepared. This Summer Sun Celebration was to now commemorate the return of Luna instead of the fall of Nightmare Moon.

---

Me: It's an honor to be at the Summer Sun Celebration.

Twilight Sparkle: Glad you all could attend.

Nico: I've never seen an event like this. This is gonna be cool.

Me: We're the first ever humans ever to see this.

Laney: This is gonna be so awesome.

Then the Fanfare played and we saw Princess Celestia come to the altar where she was gonna raise the sun for the first day of Summer. Her horn glowed and she flew into the air as the Sun came up and the symbol for the summer sun with her in it illuminated and the Summer Season began!

We cheered wildly!

Me: Wow! That was awesome!

Nico: Yeah it sure was!

Eli: That was amazing!

Rei: That was awesome seeing the sun rise like that.

Ets: No kidding that was so awesome!

Princess Celestia came to us.

Princess Celestia: It's an honor to have you all here with us.

Me: We're honored to be here princess. The Summer Season is now officially on.

Princess Celestia: It sure is. Happy Father's Day to you all.

Me: Thanks Princess.

---

Later we got the day started.

Lincoln: I'm gonna head to the gym to work out.

Maria: Can me and Brittney come with you?

Lincoln: Sure.

Me: I'll go too. I want to get a good workout in too.

Rei: May I get one in too?

Me: You sure can Rei.

Miia: We'll all join.

Rei: Sorry I scared you bad Shaggy.

Shaggy: Like that's okay.

Me: Rei's not that kind of a ghost Shaggy.

Shaggy: I know.

Me: Lets head to the gym.

We went to the gym.

We got to work doing our exercising and all that. Lincoln went to lift up weights. But then he was having trouble lifting it.

Brittney and Maria looked at Lincoln concerned. For some reason, he was having trouble lifting a weight.

Brittney: Lincoln, are you okay?

Lincoln: I'm honestly not sure. Normally, I wouldn't have any trouble lifting weights like this one!

Me: Well you are part cyborg remember?

Lincoln: Yeah I know.

Lincoln barely lifted it off the ground.

Me: (Groans) You'll be okay Lincoln.

Rei: Wow! J.D. is strong.

Miia: He sure is Rei. He is strong enough to lift up a whole mountain.

Me: (Groans) Yeah.

Lincoln barely got the weight off the floor and then it was starting to fall onto him.

Lincoln: (Straining) Guys help!

Lynn: Uh oh!

Lynn went over and lifted the weight and put it back.

Lincoln: (Pants) Thanks Lynn.

Lynn: Something is definitely wrong with your powers bro.

Me: Hmm.

Eli: Yeah something is up.

Ets: Yeah it's weird.

Edd was looking Lincoln over and he was running some tests on him. He put voltage meters and more on him.

Horri Bull: Well, Dr. Double D? What's the diagnosis?

Double D: It's not good. Lincoln's isn't just starting to lose his strangth. He's starting to lose his powers.

Me: Uh oh!

Rei: What do you think is causing that?

Me: Hmm? I have a hunch but it might have something to do with his emotions. But I might be wrong.

Pipes: I've never seen Lincoln's power level so low before.

Static: This reminds me of the time I had the same problem.

Me: Really Virgil this happened to you too?

Static: It sure did. When sunspots appeared on the sun they affected my powers.

Me: Then it must be electromagnetic radiation from space that is affecting them.

Lisa Loud: That might be a logical assumption.

Nico: Well we don't know.

Me: Hmm. Something is affecting his powers somehow.

Then we heard ghostly wailing and laughing.

?: (Laughing and wailing) HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA! WHOOOOOOOOHAHAHAHAHA!

Shaggy's hair stood up.

Me: Rei is that you?

Rei: No that's not me. I may be a ghost but that is not from me.

Me: That ghostly wail and laugh is REALLY familiar to me and I know it from somewhere.

Vince: It sure was an ominous laugh.

Eli: Yeah it was.

Ultra Humanite: Not to worry, Lincoln. You can still go on the next mission with us. There might be some new heroes for you to meet.

Lincoln: I know and I'm still excited for it.

Me: First we'll give you a temporary charge for where we're going. Eli can you use your Force Lightning to charge Lincoln up for the time being?

Eli: I sure can. One charge coming up.

ZZZZZAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAPPPPPPP!

Eli fired a blast of Force Lightning and it hit Lincoln and charged him up.

Static Shock: That's clever. I'll have to call on you once I run out of energy.

Eli: Noted.

Nico: Yeah.

Me: Anyway lets get showered up and get ready for our mission.

We went to the showers and cleaned ourselves up and we were dressed up and ready to go.

Then Dirty Bubble, Onyx, Swordsman, Jet, Rojo, Multiplex, Pinky, Brain, and Waffle Woman then appeared.

Dirty Bubble: Can me, Onyx, Swordsman, Jet, Rojo, Multiplex, Pinky, Brain, and Waffle Woman go with you guys? It'll make up for Lincoln losing his powers for some strange reason.

Me: You all sure can and we better call Electro in just to be on the safe side.

Nico: Good idea.

THUNDERCLAP!

Electro appeared in a flash of lightning.

Electro: Someone call?

Me: Perfect Max. Lincoln's powers are starting to fizzle out on him so we need a backup Lightning power user for our entrance just in case.

Lincoln: Yeah.

Electro: Count me in.

Me: Lets head out!

We were off to Japan!

TOKYO, JAPAN

We arrived in Tokyo, Japan yet again and we saw a bunch of people fighting a powerful Digimon! It was MERUKIMON!

Wood Man: Who's the Digimon fighting those heroes? I haven't seen him before.

Zhuqiaomon: That's Merukimon. He's one of the Olympus 12 and he's a very powerful and dear friend to the Digimon Sovereign.

Me: Wow. I've heard about him.

Tai: We've never seen a Digimon like him.

I used my watch and it had a Digimon Analyzer in it.

Me: He's a Mega Level Digimon and he has deadly lightning attacks. Maybe we can jumpstart Lincoln with his lightning.

Nico: It's worth a shot.

Me: Lets go!

Lincoln tried to do an entrance but he failed as he fellt to the ground.

Lincoln: (gets up) Don't tell me I can't even do entrances now!

Electro: (Merukimon sees them) Forget the entrance! Just start fighting now! (shoots lightning at him)

Rojo: Right! (to Ed Grant and Disk Wars Hulk) You two keep Lincoln safe and out of harm's way!

Ed Grant: RIGHT!

Disk Wars Hulk: Hulk can do!

Me: Don't worry Lincoln we'll think of something! Until then. (ECHOING) BLAZING HELIX!

I fired a helix chain blast of fire and it slammed into Merukimon and smashed him down with incredible force.

Nico: (Echoing) CRIMSON LIGHTNING!

Nico fired a stream of blood red lightning and smashed Merukimon all over.

Varie: (Echoing) LIGHTNING WHIP!

Varie fired a stream of lightning and it grabbed Merukimon and she smashed him into the ground all over.

Lincoln got away from Ed Grant and went at Merukimon.

Merukimon: (sees Lincoln) So, you must be Lincoln Loud. I'm guessing you're gonna try and stop me, right?

Lincoln: I won't try! I WILL stop you! (throws brick at him but he dodges it.)

Merukimon: (laughs) C'mon, Loud! Where's that lightning of yours that I've always heard about? What's with the makfeshift weapons?

Lincoln growls, grabs a crowbar, and swung at Merukimon but he barely feels the hit.

Merukimon: (smirks) You know what? I think I'll call it a day. (to the rest of us) How about you all resume this battle with me when your white haired buddy is feeling 100%?

Zhuqiaomon: Merukimon stop this madness at once!

Merukimon: Zhuqiaomon! It's good to see you again my friend.

Zhuqiaomon: You too my friend. Now why are you attacking the people of the human world?

Merukimon: Because the humans are killing my friends!

Me: WHAT!? That's preposterous!

Nico: Oh no! I know who's doing all this!

Merukimon: You must be the famous Nicolas Chan. I've heard so many good things about you and how you destroyed MaloMyotismon.

Nico: Nice to know that word about that has gotten out.

Merukimon: Now who is responsible for it?

Nico: His name is Dr. Akihiro Kurata!

Me: What do you know about him Nico?

He went over his history!

---

Professor Akihiro Kurata (simply known as Akihiro Kurata, Professor Kurata or Kurata) was the main antagonist in the first half of Digimon

Savers/Data Squad and the titular group's sworn enemy, and Marcus and Keenan's arch-nemesis. One of the few human antagonists in the series, Kurata hated all Digimon and vowed to destroy them along with the Digital World itself.

He was the first genuinely evil human villain in the franchise as well as one of the most arguably evil Digimon villains ever.

He was voiced by Masami Kikuchi in the Japanese version and Brian Palermo in the English version.

Kurata was once a member of the missing Dr. Spencer Daimon's exploration team, searching for the Criers lost son, Keenan, but during their mission along the way, Kurata was attacked by a Lynxmon, but Spencer drove it away and chastised Kurata that using a gun is the coward's way. That is explained why Kurata is afraid of Digimon and thinks they are a threat to mankind, also foreshadowing his true nature.

Kurata later returns to the Digital World with several human minions and begun his reign of terror by destroying countless innocent Digimon with his own creations, the Gizumon, including Keenan Crier's (the mission's target) foster mother, Frigimon. Then Merukimon arrived on the scene and destroys the Gizumons, and attacked Kurata, forcing the evil scientist to retreat back to the Real World.

Digimon Savers/Data Squad

Some time after the incident, Kurata disguised his true nature by organizing another expedition to the Digital World, right after Keenan's rescue by Marcus (Spencer's son), Thomas and Yoshino and their respective partners. Throughout the expedition, they defeat Merukimon's henchman, Gotsumon, and manage to reach his castle.

When reaching the Infinity Ridge, Merukimon tells Marcus and other DATS members the shocking truth about Keenan's tragic past, how he lost his foster mother, Frigimon, and how Kurata was the real enemy and is responsible for the massacre attack in the Digital World. After the horrible events from the past were revealed, Kurata took his revenge on Merukimon by sending a Gizumon AT and shot through his chest, wounding him.

Marcus attempts to attack Kurata, but was blocked by Gizumon AT. Kurata then threatens to prosecute the Data Squad members for treason if they challenged his story about Merukimon attacking him first. Marcus provokes to Kurata that he was a dirty coward, and he only wanted to destroy Digimon instead of dealing with them. Kurata Digivolved Gizumon AT into Gizumon XT. During the battle, Merukimon explains to Keenan that he doesn't hate all humans, not even Marcus. He sacrifices himself to severely damage Gizumon XT, and Merukimon in return, took a fatal blast at Gizumon XT, killing him, and also destroying his Digi-Egg. After learning about not to hate all humans, only with evil in their hearts, Keenan, infuriated by Merukimon's death, took his revenge by Digivolving Falcomon into Crowmon for the first time and destroyed the first Gizumon XT, but Kurata managed to escape in a portal through a Digital Gate.

When the Data Squad members returned to DATS headquarters, Director Hashiba dismisses them as traitors and erases their memories and imprisoning their partner Digimon, allowing Kurata to take over DATS. After Marcus and the others recovered their memories and reunited their partner Digimon and defeated a Gizumon AT, Kurata destroyed DATS headquarters by blowing it up with a bomb and escaped to the Digital World.

Later, when the DATS were trying to stop Kurata from destroying peace in the Digital World, they encountered Kurata's henchmen, the Bio-Hybrids, a trio of human that each have the ability to Digivolve themselves into a Digimon. When Marcus and Keenan were about to take their revenge on Kurata, he opened up a huge Digital Gate to send ElDradimon to the Real World.

When the DATS returned to the Real World, Kurata had another trick up his sleeve. He invented the Gizumon Javelin, a secret weapon formed by Gizumon XTs. While Kouki distracts Marcus and ShineGreymon, he bides his time completing his javelin. Just as ShineGreymon and Marcus were about to save ElDradimon, they realized too late as Kurata was able to succeed in destroying ElDradimon permanently in order to collect just enough to awaken Belphemon.

Afterwards, while Thomas returned to his father's mansion to reunite with him and his sister, Relena, Kurata blackmails him into joining forces with him to cure his sister's mysterious disease. Thomas was forced to betray the Data Squad by his father. After Thomas and MirageGaogamon were forced to flee from ShineGreymon's rampage, Kurata takes him to his laboratory to show Belphemon, and explains his real plan about making the Digital World his backyard.

Kurata then unleashes Belphemon and watches him destroy the city buildings. When Thomas betrayed Kurata and destroyed the device. Upon his betrayal Kurata became furious and decides to get revenge on Thomas by transforming himself into data and to merge with Belphemon to become his Rage Mode and control him better. While inside Belphemon, Kurata was still able to talk through Belphemon.

During the battle with Kurata (while controlling Belphemon), his face emerged from his chest, more mutated and uglier than ever, getting in better control of Belphemon. Angry at Marcus for ruining his schemes, he rants about hating him for foiling his plans for becoming a world ruler. When Marcus tells Kurata off, stating that it was a lame reason to become a world ruler, he goes into a mental breakdown and Belphemon absorbs all the city lights to make him grow and swallow some space devices, giving them both a new attack, which can rip through the space continuum.

During Belphemon's new attacks, Kurata continues ranting and raving at Marcus. Kurata tries to blast away Marcus at close range, but the attack was immediately stopped by MirageGaogamon, Rosemon, and Ravemon. Thinking that all hope is lost, Marcus begs to ShineGreymon to give him more power, and him and ShineGreymon shared their bond and newfound strength became the true Burst Mode. Kurata was terrified when Belphemon's attacks met his match for ShineGreymon's new Burst Mode form and looks on in horror as ShineGreymon approaches him. Marcus then emerged from ShineGreymon's hand, and Kurata attempts to beg for mercy, but Marcus punched him right in the face, while ShineGreymon did the same punch at Belphemon's head. After Belphemon was defeated, Kurata reverts back to his human form and was helplessly floating in the air.

Refusing to admit defeat, he opened the gate to the Digital World, but it caused the Real World to be put in danger. Shocked at this, Kurata struggled and screamed for help but was pulled into the gap between the two worlds and vaporized by a white light killing the evil scientist for good.

However, his actions led King Drasil, the Digital World's ruler to view humanity as a threat as well.

When Nico was finished we gasped in shock and horror!

Me: Oh shit! Things weren't bad enough, now we have a Genocidal Madman out to annihilate every single Digimon out there and rule over the world with an iron fist!

Nico: Yeah!

Eli: That monster!

Ets: Yeah!

Me: This guy must be really bad news.

Merukimon: I didn't know he was responsible for it.

Me: Well now we know who we're up against and now we're going to kill him and make sure he stays dead for good.

Marcus: You and me both. It's an honor to meet you all. My name is Marcus Damon.

Thomas: I'm Thomas H. Norstein.

Yoshi: I'm Yoshino Fujieda. But you can call me Yoshi.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you all. And these three must be your Digimon. You have an Agumon too Marcus.

Marcus: Yep. He's an awesome partner.

Data Squad Agumon: It's awesome.

Marcus: (sees Tentacool) Hey, Tentacool. Thanks for keeping our presence a secret.

Tentacool: No problem, Marcus!

Me: So you guys helped us take down a bunch of trolls in Kameo's world.

Yoshi: Yeah we wound up there by accident.

Me: Well we owe you guys one.

Nico: Yeah.

Thomas: Think nothing of it.

Gaomon: Just doing our job sir.

Ino: You know Yoshi, I noticed that you and I have the same sounding voice.

Yoshi: That is very coincidental.

Nico: I was just about to point that out.

Lola: That's awesome.

Merukimon: Sorry about the misunderstanding with you all. I apologize for attacking you.

Nico: It's all right.

Marcus: Lets take you all to meet my mom. We have so much to tell you.

Me: Okay.

We went to the Damon residence and it was a nice place and we met Sarah Damon and Marcus's little sister Kristy.

Marcus: I'm home mom and I have guests.

We came in and Sarah Damon saw us.

Sarah Damon: It's an honor to meet the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Stickybeard: It be our pleasure, Mrs. Damon.

Maria: (to Kristy) Hey, kiddo. Are you staying out of trouble?

Kristy: You bet and I love you guys. You're my heroes.

Me: We got a lot of fans. But it's awesome meeting you and your family Mrs. Damon.

Sarah Damon: Same here.

Merukimon: Sorry about the mixup with you all Marcus.

Marcus: No worries.

Poromon: But Marcus is amazing like that.

Marcus (to Poromon): You're a weird Digimon, you know that?

Poromon: What do you mean?

Marcus: Well, you have a Pokemon as a girlfriend, you hardly ever Digivolve, you like fighting bad guys bigger then you, you say bad words a lot, and you use powers that a In Training Level Digimon don't normally use.

Waffle Woman: (laughs) That's nothing. You should've seen him when he and the other mascots turned human a few days ago.

Poromon: It's true.

Me: Show him.

The Mascots glowed and turned into their human forms.

Marcus: Whoa! That is awesome!

Manaphy: Yeah we have the power to shift through forms.

Jirachi: Yep and we like it.

Me: It's really cool.

Rei: I think so too.

Me: Also Marcus we're really sorry about what happened to your father. That must've been really rough having to go through all that while your father was in the Digital World for a while.

Marcus: Yeah it was.

Me: Dr. Spencer Damon is widely known all over for helping Digimon all over.

?: That's right.

Dr. Spencer Damon came in.

Dr. Spencer Damon: It's an honor to meet the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: And it's an honor to meet you Dr. Damon.

Dr. Spencer Damon: You too J.D.

Tai: And I thought I was the only one that had an Agumon.

Apeface: How are we supposed to tell which Agumon belongs to who?

Eddy: I got an idea! (puts an army hat on Data Squad Agumon) Now all Marcus' Agumon needs is to take hats in a dignified and sophisticated manner

Patrick Star: Yeah! Like this! [talks like a weenie] May I take your hat, sir? May I take your hat, sir?

Data Squad Agumon: Don't make me strangle you two.

Me: Now that is funny. But we can tell that Marcus's Agumon is who because he has a red band on his arm and Tai's Agumon has nothing.

Tai: That's right.

Apeface: That's easy.

I took the helmet off.

Nico: There.

Thomas: Lets take you all to our special base for you all to meet our teammates.

Me: What's your organization called?

Yoshi: It's called D.A.T.S.

Me: D.A.T.S.?

Thomas: It stands for Digital Accident Tactics Squad.

Yoshi: It's a government organization established to maintain the peace between the Real World and the Digital World, transporting any Digimon back to the Digital World.

Me: That's interesting.

Jeri: I never heard about that.

Nico: Reminds me a little bit about Hypnos.

Yoshi: Hypnos?

Me: It was originally an organization used to control the growth of Digimon and prevent them from entering our World.

I went over their history.

---

Hypnos (ヒュプノス in Japanese) is a temporarily evil organization in Digimon Tamers and the first main villains of the show. The headquarters are located in Shinjuku, Tokyo, where many sightings of Digimon have been confirmed.

The original purpose of the organization was to overlook any dangerous digital activity, but after it was considered a violation of privacy, the organization was kept a secret. However, after Digimon (then named "Wild Ones") started to emerge in the Real World, the organization quickly changed it's objective to prevent Digimon from emerging, and if it does emerge, to capture and study it. Behind the scenes, the corporation's leader Mitsuo Yamaki didn't want to just capture the Digimon, but to destroy them before they could get really dangerous.

Role in the anime Initial objective

The organization is initially dangerous in the first half of the season, tracking down Digimon who tried to enter the Real World and halting their actions, almost like a sleep mode (hence the name). However, after Yamaki and some henchmen captured a DarkLizardmon to study it, something went wrong and it got free, not only becoming a full threat but proving the organization's system isn't really perfect. Yamaki, fueled with anger, tries a new, dangerous program called the "Juggernaut" ("Shaggai" in the Japanese version) that opens a rift between both worlds and begins sucking all Digimon in the area. But one of the Digimon Devas, Mihiramon, uses the rift to enter the Real World and openly mocks Yamaki's attempt to capture him, causing him to leave in frustration.

The Devas' attack

During the Devas' attacks, Yamaki summoned the Digimon program's creators, the "Monster Makers" (or "Wild Bunch"), to help him in destroying the Devas and the Tamers' partners, but soon his mind changed and the programs were left aside, so the corporation could work on a way of transportation after Calumon is kidnapped by Makuramon. They manage to create an "Ark" which also serves as a spaceship to travel back and forth between both worlds, which is used by the Tamers to travel into the Digital World and save Calumon.

Facing the D-Reaper

After the malevolent program called the D-Reaper invades the Real World, Hypnos' personnel begins to help the Tamers to fight it. Also, it was thanks to the Juggernaut Program that the Tamers managed to help the Digimon Sovereigns in reverting the D-Reaper to it's original, harmless form.

Arsenal

The corporation has many digital weapons to deal with Digimon, but two of these were revealed in the story:

Yuggoth

Almost an energy blast, it automatically locks on and strikes a Digimon with the intent of deleting it, but it is a weaker program and is easily overpowered later in the season. The program is later downloaded in Gallantmon's vehicle, Grani.

Juggernaut

The most powerful weapon of Hypnos, a massive digital vortex that opens a rift between both worlds and sucks nearby Digimon, sending them back, but it also causes the entrance of the Deva Mihiramon. The program is later downloaded into MegaGargomon, who uses it to reverse the D-Reaper's vortex and causing a reverse time flow, which sucks the program back into the Digital World and reverses it into a harmless form.

* * *

Marcus: Wow that's amazing.

Me: It sure was. But thanks to us over the years we met and know lots of awesome Digimon and we know many Digidestined and their Digimon.

Yoshi: Wow! That's incredible!

Lalamon: It sure is! Wow!

Muscle Man: Hey, guys. You know who else loves making friends with Digimon?

Thomas: I can't really think of anyone else.

Muscle Man: My mom!

We laughed at his joke!

Me: (Laughs)

Thomas: I don't get it.

Gaomon: Me neither sir.

Me: That's okay. We don't get it either but it's funny.

Yoshi: (Laughs) That was funny.

Me: Yeah. Can you show us D.A.T.S. headquarters?

Marcus: I sure can.

We then went to D.A.T.S. Headquarters. We arrived and we saw that it was an amazing place.

Blast Off: Hi. Is this the D.A.T.S. headquarters?

Commander Sampson: Team Loud Phoenix Storm it's an honor to meet you.

Me: You must be Commander Sampson. It's a pleasure to meet you sir.

Commander Sampson: It sure is. We heard so much about all your adventures.

Nico: We get that a lot.

Joe: It's an honor.

Gomamon: Yeah it sure is.

Onyx: (to Commander Sampson) You surprised that there are more Digidestined in the world?

Commander Sampson: Indeed I am.

Me: Turns out we know many Digidestined from all over the world. Ever heard of the incident where there were Digimon loose all over the world?

Commander Sampson: As a matter of fact I remember that all too well.

Nico: That's where I got to meet Digidestined from all over the world.

Me: And we met some of the International Digidestined.

Commander Sampson: That's amazing.

Yoshi: I didn't know you guys know so many Digidestined.

Me: Yeah we know lots of people. Also have you all heard about the Battle with MaloMyotismon?

Thomas: How can I forget about that. That was awful.

Nico: And it was a battle from my past.

Me: A very powerful battle.

Merukimon: Now, can someone explain to me about what happened in the battle out there?

Jessica Shannon: Oh, I'll tell you what happened! (glares at Ed Grant and Disk Wars Hulk) These two let Lincoln go into combat when he doesn't have his powers!

Ed Grant: (sheepishly) Oh, c'mon! At least he improvised!

Disk Wars Hulk: (defensively) Hey, me and Ed tried to stop Lincoln. But he said he wasn't gonna sit on the sidelines and do nothing!

Hikaru: (to Lincoln) You already lost your powers. Were you trying to lose your life as well?!

Disk Wars Thor: (puts hand on Hikaru's shoulder) Calm yourself, Hikaru. Lincoln did his best to fight an enemy even though he currently has no powers. (smile) I would call that bravery in the face of battle.

Lincoln: (depressed) You don't have to defend me, Thor. I know I'm pretty much useless at this point.

Akira: Lincoln, don't say that! You're not useless!

Disk Wars Iron Man: Yeah! I mean, look at me. I don't have powers and yet, I find a way to kick butt. (smirks) And look good while doing it.

Hotlink: (facepalms) Now isn't the time for bragging, Tony.

Chris Taylor: Look, I hate to break up the pity party. But Kurata sicced Merukimon on the human world for a reason.

Disk Wars Captain America: Chris is right. Neither blame or praise will modify past events.

Me: Now guys Lincoln just needs some help! We have to be there for him because his powers are going out for some reason.

Nico: Yeah and also Kurata did not sic Merukimon on him.

Commander Sampson: Kurata is back!?

Me: Yeah and we think he's gonna try to continue what he started in the past.

Nico: And I have a chance to end him for good. I'm gonna get that monster for his crimes and then eat his heart in front of him as I enjoy watching him die.

Me: And then we'll Super Hakai him.

Yoshi: Super Hakai?

Me: It means destroy him and erase him from existence forever. It's a powerful and deadly technique that obliterates an enemy until not even his soul is left. It erases them from existence forever until they are a forgotten memory.

Nico: We discovered a very powerful way to destroy our most hated enemies and make sure they never return by Super Hakaiing them from existence. It destroys everything that they have, their body, soul and heart and they are erased from existence forever. Never to return as if they were never even born to begin with.

Yoshi: Whoa!

Jet: (sees Lincoln walking out of the room) Lincoln, are you seriously going after Kurata when you don't have your powers right now?!

Lincoln: (angrily) No! But I AM going on patrol. At least I won't be useless there! (storms out)

May: Maybe we should give Lincoln some space for a while.

Thomas: No offense, J.D. But I think you're starting to lose control of your team.

Me: None taken and no Lincoln is just desperate. Something happened with Lincoln. Tai, Agumon, you better go with Lincoln to help him out.

Tai: Right.

Agumon: Lets go.

They left.

Noel: J.D., with all due respect, if you feel that leadership is becoming too much for you, perhaps it's time to name your successor. Might I suggest Nico?

Me: Noel, I appreciate the concern. But I'm not going to retire and let Nico be leader! I've been leader of this team for a few years now and that's how it's going to be!

Kairi Yano: No one's asking you to retire. But all we're saying is that it might be a good idea to pass the torch of leadership to Nico.

Keiichiro: You can still be second in command. That way, you get to stay on the team and you and Nico still get to lead all of us.

Me: I appreciate that but I'm okay. Besides Lincoln just needs some time to think.

Nico: J.D. is right. Lets just let him think on some things.

Me: Yeah.

Brain: Pinky, are you pondering what I'm pondering?

Pinky: Are you pondering that Lincoln needs a hug?

Brain: He needs more then a hug, Pinky. He needs to be at full strength again. And I think I know how.

Lisa: I might now what you're thinking, Brain. (to me) J.D., you and I know there's only one way Lincoln will ever be at 100% power again. One of us needs to sacrifice his or her powers and transfer them to Lincoln.

Nico: What?! Who among us would be willing to make that sacrifice?!

Stacy: I'll do it.

Ripster: Sis, are you sure you want to sacrifice your lightning powers to help Lincoln?

Stacy: He, J.D., and the others helped me, you, and the rest of our family get our humanity back. Now, it's time for me to return the favor. Besides, I only need my Shredgirl form to kick ass.

Me: Sorry Stacy but it's too risky. We need you and everyone at full strength when we face Kurata.

Eli: J.D. is right. Lincoln is about to come back to full strength.

Ets: How can you tell?

Eli: The Force is telling me that Lincoln's power will come back stronger than ever.

Rei: Are you sure?

Eli: The Force is never wrong.

Me: Wait I sense it too. Lincoln's powers are starting to come back. Slow but sure.

Nico: Yeah I can feel it.

Ets: I do too.

Rei: Wow.

Lisa: I'll need a few people to help me with the procedure. (looks at Patrick and Ed) No. Too much brawn and not enough brain.

Ratchet: Me and Hook will help you with this, Lisa.

Hook: Yep. We're familiar with medical procedures like this one.

Dive Man: So, does this mean Lincoln will like skateboarding now and will turn into a sawshark? Because that would honestly be a little weird.

Me: Lisa belay that idea. Lets just give Lincoln some time.

Lisa Loud: Hairless apes one, science zero.

Nico: J.D. is right lets give him some time.

Me: And Lisa please don't call us that again.

Lisa Loud: Sorry.

---

Lincoln was out on Patrol and then Tai and Agumon came.

Tai: Hey, Lincoln. Nice day we're having, huh?

Lincoln: Tai, if you and Agumon are trying to cheer me up, you two aren't doing a good job.

Agumon: C'mon, Lincoln. You don't need powers to kick ass!

Lincoln: And how would you know?! You've never lost your powers before!

Tai: Well, I never even had powers to lose before I met you guys. All I needed to fight evil Digimon was my courage and heart.

Agumon: Tai's right! True strength doesn't come from superpowers. True strength comes from the heart!

Lincoln realized that Agumon and Tai were right. Before I came along he had to do all kinds of amazing things with his friends and sisters and he had to do all kinds of stuff that was scary before and he helped many people and overcame his fears. It was because of his courage and his brave heart that he has an amazing harem and an amazing family!

Lincoln: (Smiles) You're right!

Lincoln started having his powers come back.

* * *

Me: Before we go after Kurata lets show you our powers with our usual battles as we call them. Our frenemies in the Masters of Evil will be here any second.

Nico: Yep.

Kitty, Comic Book Guy, Greiger, Whirlwind, Tchang Zu, King Shark, Knightbrace, Jack O Lantern, Duskmon and Myotismon then appeared.

Me: Kitty, Comic Book Guy, Greiger, Whirlwind, Tchang Zu, King Shark, Knightbrace, Jack O Lantern, Duskmon and Myotismon.

Whirlwind: Good to see you all here.

Knightbrace: We heard about Lincoln having a tough day with his powers.

Me: Yep.

Marcus: I didn't know you guys had Digimon as members too.

Greiger: Hey, our members don't just include humans, you know.

Comic Book Guy: After the power transfer procedure, we can have the usual battles in any room that's suitable.

Lincoln: Actually, we can have the usual battles now.

We saw Lincoln, Tai, and Agumon walk in.

Knightbrace: Lincoln, are you sure about this? You still don't have your powers back.

Lincoln: (smiles at Tai and Agumon) Well, two certain people told me that true strength comes from the heart, not from superpowers.

Kitty: Alright. But just take it easy for now.

Me: But I couldn't have said it better myself.

Eli: And Lincoln's powers are building up again.

Ets: Yep.

Rei: It's gonna be awesome seeing your usual battles with you.

Me: You'll love them Rei.

?: HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA! WWWWWOOOOOOOOOOOOHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA!

Me: There's that scary laugh that I know.

Nico: And I think HE is the cause of it!

We saw a ghostly phantom! It was THE PHANTOM OF VASQUEZ ISLAND!

Shaggy: ZOINKS! It's the Phantom of Vasquez Island!

Qin: Whoa man! This guy is gonna be rough.

Twilight Sparkle: What was he known for?

Qin: He was really a former magician named Bluestone the Great. He was wanted in 6 states.

Rainbow Dash: Wow! That's too many to be wanted in.

Me: He was after the Vasquez Treasure.

Qin: Yep and he got 50 years in prison for his crimes.

Me: Yep.

Phantom: You all will not escape me.

?: He sure is annoying huh?

A figure came out and it was Lothor's General, CHOOBO from Ninja Storm!

---

Choobo was the lieutenant and later general of Lothor's army. He wielded a staff and could summon energy spheres to trap his enemies. He was also a source of comic relief (along with Marah and Kapri).

Sometimes, he used monsters based off animals.

In the episode "Snip it, Snip It Good", Choobo showed signs of having a crush on Tori Hanson when he addressed that she "sure is pretty".

In the four-part episode "Return of Thunder", He was promoted to general when he captured the Thunder Rangers and brainwashed them to fight the Wind Rangers again. However, he failed to destroy the Rangers, so he was banished from Lothor's ship.

He swore revenge, and stole a Scroll of Empowerment, which gave him great strength and powers. He was defeated by the Thunderstorm Megazord, but saved by Lothor and (as punishment for stealing the Scroll of Empowerment and disrespecting his master's orders) shrunk down to be Marah's new pet.

In the episode "Good Will Hunter", Lothor later restored him to normal accidentally.

He is also the one who reveals Shimazu and Vexacus's plans to Lothor.

In the final part of the two-part series finale episode "Storm Before the Calm", he escaped with some Kelzaks when Lothor's flagship was blown up and during the rescue of Cam Watanabe by the Thunder Rangers. He later reappeared with them when Lothor calls them near of the Abyss of Evil for the final battle.

During the final battle between the Ninja Storm Rangers and Lothor's forces, Choobo was defeated by Shane as the Red Battlized Ranger, although it wasn't quite clear if he was completely destroyed as he was only seen falling down after being blasted by the Battilizer's lasers.

---

Shane Clarke: Choobo!

Choobo: Been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were Lothor's general of his army.

Choobo: That's right J.D. Good memory on you.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Choobo: I may have been gone for a long time! But I'm still tough enough to take you Rangers on!

Tori: Well, you're not as dangerous as Lothor. So, there's no harm in keeping you around like the others.

Shane: But one of us has to test his new transformation somehow. And you just signed up.

Choobo: I think I'm familiar with your Battlizer at this point.

Dustin: (laughs) Who said anything about a Battlizer, dude?

Me: Besides we have many more tricks than just our battleizers.

Nico: We sure do. And J.D. I called in Lord Drakkon so that you can relieve some stress.

Me: Thanks man.

Lord Drakkon then appeared.

Lord Drakkon: Here to help you.

Me: Thanks. Oh Commander Sampson do you have a Training Room we can use here?

Commander Sampson: Follow me guys.

We followed him.

We got to a training room and it was like our simulator.

---

Battle 1: Boris, Starlight Glimmer, Cozy Glow, Trixie, Clover the Clever, Undead Skylanders, Joe & Gomamon, Cora Mennington, Jenna McCay, Clawful and Ultra Humanite VS Greiger of the Killer Whale

---

Greiger was first.

Greiger: (to Boris) Powers or not, Lincoln's still a hero.

Boris: That's a fact.

Starlight Glimmer: That's right! Linky has done so much for many of us.

Cozy Glow: And he is a hero for many people.

Trixie: And that makes him amazing and powerful.

Clover: You said it.

Hex: I agree. He's awesome and amazing.

Cynder: You said it.

Joe: Lincoln is a great guy.

Gomamon: And he has great skills in many things.

Cora Pennington: Yes he does.

Jenna: Yep.

Greiger: You got that right. Lets do it!

Greiger fired waves of indigo fire and they dodged the blasts and fired waves of indigo fire and energy and bones.

Joe: Lets get him!

Gomamon Digivolved!

Gomamon: GOMAMON DIGIVOLVE TO…

He turned into Ikkakumon!

Ikkakumon: IKKAKUMON!

He was ready for action!

Ikkakumon: (Echoing) HARPOON TORPEDO!

He fired a torpedo horn and the blasts hit Greiger and smashed him down.

Boris: That was fun!

Starlight Glimmer: That was epic!

Trixie: And awesome victory for The Great and Powerful Trixie!

---

Battle 2: Whitney, Fluttershy, Tree Hugger, Pip-Squeak, Mage Meadowbrook, Life Skylanders, Mimi & Palmon, Clyde, Luxord, Wood Man and Plant Man VS Comic Book Guy

Comic Book Guy was next.

Comic Book Guy: (to Whitney) Lincoln's not the first hero to lose his powers. Lots of heroes like Spider Man and Superman have had at least 1 moment where they've temporarily lost their powers.

Whitney: Same with Static Shock. He told us that the Sun messed around with his powers like that.

Fluttershy: Yeah it sure did. That was crazy.

Tree Hugger: It was crazy dudes.

Pip-Squeak: (British Accent) Yeah it sure was. That was crazy.

Stealth Elf: It sure was. Poor guy.

Tree Rex: Yeah that was nuts.

Mimi: Boy it sure was.

Palmon: You said it.

Clyde: That is crazy.

Luxord: Indeed it is.

---

Belphemon is the one of the main antagonists of the first half of in Digimon Savers/ Digimon Data Squad, but a minor villain in Digimon World Data Squad . He started out when his Digi-Egg was discovered by Akihiro Kurata, then he collected enough data to unleash the demonic creature.

He was voiced by Masami Kikuchi in the Japanese version, and Kyle Hebert in the English dubbed version.

Digimon Data Squad

Years ago, Belphemon was one of the Seven Great Demon Lords who unleashed destruction in the Digital World. He was defeated by unknown circumstances and was turned into a Digi-Egg, then was sealed in a treasure chest in the ruins somewhere. During his adventure in the ruins, Akihiro Kurata found and discovered Belphemon's Digi-Egg. The evil scientist took it to his laboratory and put the Digi-Egg in a testing tube in order to resurrect Belphemon.

After succeeding in permanently deleting some Digimon and collecting their data to give to Belphemon in his Sleep Mode form, the demonic creature was unleashed and starts to attack the Real World. After Thomas betrayed Kurata, the wicked scientist became so furious, that now he is unable to control Belphemon with a device, he transforms himself into data to merge with Belphemon in order to use complete control over him. Then Belphemon transformed into his Rage Mode form, and comes face to face with the members of DATS and their Digimon partners. MirageGaogamon begins to fight Belphemon, but he was too strong. Keenan Digivoled Falcomon to his Mega form Ravemon, and manages to damage Belphemon a bit. Furiously, Belphemon swallowed up Kurata's conscious and violently begins to destroy buildings in the Real World.

During the battle, Kurata's mutated head appears from his chest, allowing him to control Belphemon much better, and angrily wanting revenge for Marcus Daimon for foiling his plans. After being told off by Marcus, Kurata gets pushed over the edge and orders Belphemon to consume the city lights to make him grow, and destroyed Miki and Megumi's van and swallowed the space obslation devices, giving Belphemon a new attack, allowing him to rip holes through the space continuum. ShineGreymon attempts to destroy Belphemon and Kurata with a powerful Glorius Burst attack, but Belphemon and Kurata were still standing. Belphemon easily defeated RookChessmon and BishopChessmon, reverting both of them back to the two PawnChessmon, and attacked Miki, Megumi, Keenan and Yoshi. During the battle, Kurata and Belphemon attempt to destroy Marcus at close range, but MirageGaogamon, Rosemon and Ravemon stopped their attack. With the combined friendship and power between Marcus and ShineGreymon, ShineGreymon Digivolved to his Burst Mode form, and he and Marcus Daimon punched Kurata's face on Belphemon's chest, defeating Belphemon for good and reverting Kurata back to his human self.

Digimon World Data Squad

Belphemon is a member of the Seven Great Demon Lords. He was the first one that DATS encountered. Belphemon was created by the Code Key Sloth and someone that was slothful. Despite being Mega Level, Belphemon was defeated by DATS.

Kurata: WHO THE HELL DO YOU THINK YOU ARE!? FIRST THE DAMON FAMILY AND NOW YOU J.D.!? WHY!? WHY MUST PEOPLE LIKE YOU ALWAYS INTERFERE IN EVIL'S GLORIOUS PLANS!? WHY! I HATE YOU J.D. KNUDSON! I HATE YOU ALL MORE THAN ALL OF LIFE ITSELF! I WISH YOU WOULD JUST DIE! I'VE NEVER HATED ANYONE AS MUCH AS YOU! I HATE YOU SO MUCH! I HATE HATE! HAAAAAAATTTTEEE HAAAAAAAAAATTTTTEEEEEE! HAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAATTTTTTTTEEEEEEEEE!

All of our auras flared up with incredible force and it was as powerful as 712 Millinillion or 712 to the 3003rd power Kisenian Blossoms and his hatred towards me and everyone on the team was so powerful that it made all the other power ups feel like small match flames in comparison.

Me: You can hate us all you want but all you're doing is just making us more powerful!

Marcus: Why do I suddenly feel so strong?

Nico: It's what happens when someone hates us like this.

Kurata: WHY MUST IT ALWAYS BE YOU!? WHY MUST DO-GOODERS LIKE YOU STAND IN THE WAY OF MY PLANS TIME AFTER TIME AFTER TIME AGAIN AND AGAIN!? I'M GETTING SO SICK OF PEOPLE LIKE YOU STICKING THEIR GODDAMN NOSES IN WHERE THEY DON'T BELONG! IF IT HADN'T BEEN FOR PEOPLE LIKE YOU EVIL WOULD REIGN SUPREME AND PEOPLE LIKE ME WOULD TRIUMPH!

Me: SHUT YOUR FUCKING TRAP! YOU'RE GIVING US ALL HEADACHES! I don't give a flying fuck what you think about anything Kurata! Right now we're going to make sure that you pay for your crimes! You did all this just so you could become a world ruler! Like I will ever let someone as fucked up in the head as you do that!

Marcus: That's right! No one from the Digital World or Earth will allow you to be world leader!

Me: And you will die before we let that happen!

Kurata: (ENRAGED SCREAMING!) IIIIIIII HHHHAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAATTTTTTTTTTTTTTTEEEEEEEEEEEE YYYYYYOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOUUUUUUUU!

SaberLeomon couldn't believe his eyes. Different kinds of Autobots were in front of him along with a teenage girl.

Animated Ratchet: Just our luck! The Space Bridge sent us to the wrong Earth.

Sari: Well, at least it's better then being on Cybertron while Sentinel is in charge of it.

Animated Jazz: And it looks like we're not alone.

Animated Bulkhead: Um… do you guys think maybe it's friendly?

SaberLeomon: This doesn't concern you Autobots. Get out of my way!

Animated Bumblebee: Does that answer your question?

Animated Optimus: Sorry to disappoint you. But anything that involves villains attacking innocents IS our concern. Autobots, transform and roll out!

They went at SaberLeomon and kicked and punched him all over the place.

Earthworm Jim: EAT DIRT DIGITAL MURDERER! (BLASTS KURATA AND BELPHEMON ALL OVER!) HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA!

Ed Cowart: EAT DIRT MONSTER OF EARTH AND DIGIMON! (BLASTS KURATA AND BELPHEMON ALL OVER) HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA!

Ets: Take this! TECH STYLE NINJA ART: GEARS OF THE MATRIX!

He fired waves of energy and data and they smashed into Belphemon and Kurata and smashed him all over.

Pinkie Pie, Featherweight, Maud Pie, Marble Pie, Limestone Pie, Somnambula and the Tech Skylanders: PARTY ROCK GEAR SMASHERS!

They fired waves of confetti, gears and rocks.

We fired waves of energy and elements and they formed into said Digimon.

Horri Bull, Maria, Brittney and Pipes used the Earth Cyber Planet keys and they enhanced Horri Bull's Tail Flamethrower, Maria's water powers, Brittney's darkness powers and Pipes' strength 100-fold.

Horri Bull and Maria: MAELSTROM FLAMETHROWER SUPERBLAST!

Brittney and Pipes: DARKNESS METEOR BLAST!

Horri Bull fired a way of fire from his tail and Maria fired a wave of water and Brittney fired a massive blast of darkness and Pipes threw a massive boulder.

The Digidestined, Nico, Frontier Digidestined, Tamers, Marcus and team, Eli and Lincoln: SUPER DIGIMON OMEGA BLAST!

They all fired a massive elemental blast and the blasts combined into a deadly blast.

Me and my Harem: DIGIMON FINAL SMASH: 8 LEGENDARY DIGIMON SMASH!

We summoned the mega forms of the 8 Digimon of the Digidestined from Digimon Adventure 1!

Lincoln and his harem: DIGIMON FINAL SMASH: SUSANNOMON STRIKE!

They summoned Susanoomon which he used Celestial Blade to slice and dice Belphemon all over

Me, Lincoln and our harems: ULTIMATE DIGIMON FINAL SMASH: DIGIMON CREST KAMEHAMEHA!

We each fired a Kamehameha with each of the Digimon Crests which then merged into a gigantic rainbow Kamehameha which Explodes on contact with Belphemon and Kurata!

In Space Rangers: ASTRO MISSILE BLAST!

The In Space Rangers fired the huge missile and the blasts all hit Belphemon and Kurata and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Belphemon was down and Nico then ripped out Belphemon's beating black heart and it was huge!

Nico: Whoa!

Nico started eating it.

Maria: So, how does his black heart taste?

Nico: (sheepishly) Actually, Belphemon's heart is actually a little too big. I don't think I'll be able to finish it.

Eli: I'll eat it with you.

Me: Me too.

We ate his heart.

Yoshi: EW!

Belphemon was obliterated and destroyed forever and banished to the Warp.

SaberLeomon was defeated.

SaberLeomon: Don't think this is over!

With that, SaberLeomon got out of there.

Animated Bumblebee: That was pretty fun!

Animated Jazz: It sure was.

Animated Bulkhead: (sadly) Just wish Prowl were here to see it.

Animated Ratchet: Sure we can't give Team Loud Phoenix Storm a hand, Prime?

Animated Optimus: As much as I'd like to Ratchet, we need to go back to our world. And by that, I mean Earth.

They then saw Jirachi, who witnessed the whole thing.

Sari: (To Jirachi) Hey, Jirachi. Can you keep this a secret from your Trainer until the time is right?

Jirachi: I sure can. You guys were so awesome!

Sari: Thanks.

They left.

Me: One more thing to tie up.

We went up to Kurata who was laying on the ground and then I walked up to him.

Me: You are now gonna pay for your crimes.

I reached into his chest and ripped out his beating black heart and he gasped as I was eating his heart and he died when I was finished.

Me: Blech! That was gross but it was worth it.

I then fired a Super Hakai blast and obliterated him and he was gone forever as if he was never born at all.

Me: Good riddance.

We powered down.

Marcus: Thanks for helping us out today.

Tchang Zu: Anything to help Digidestined heroes.

Jack O Lantern: And now, Kurata won't hurt anyone again. He's honestly the first truly evil human villain that's tried to hurt Digimon.

King Shark: Not to mention that Lincoln has his powers back.

Whirlwind: (to Lincoln) They were never really gone, were they? They were just adapting to your new transformation.

Lincoln: Yeah and I look incredible.

Nico: You sure do.

SaberLeomon saw that we won.

SaberLeomon: Damn Digidestined! I'll get you next time!

Baron Nero: Oh, you'll have plenty of opportunities to get even with the Digidestined.

SaberLeomon saw Baron Nero and Mr. Mind approaching him.

Mr. Mind: But only if you stick with me.

SaberLeomon: Who are you two?!

Baron Nero: I am Baron Nero.

Mr. Mind: And I am Mr. Mind. And we have a little proposition for you.

SaberLeomon: I'm listening.

I sensed a psychic presence and looked and I saw Baron Nero and with him was an inchworm villain that I know all too well! It was MR. MIND!

Me: (In my head) Oh no! Mr. Mind! I had a feeling that Goche and Baron Nero were working for him. So that's what he's doing. He's gathering recruits to combat us in the future. But I can't let the team know that it's him.

Marcus: (To the viewers) This was an epic adventure. We took down the worst ever human villain known to the Digital World and us. Now he is gone forever.

Me: Yep and he is now nothing but a forgotten memory.

Nico: Good riddance.

Me: Lets go home.

We all went back home and Marcus and his friends and family were now part of the team and we went to dinner at Lynn's Table and we later went to bed. It was an awesome way to close out Fathers Day and the First Day of summer.

THE END

Wrath of The Volcanic Lava Demon

In the world of Magic the Gathering, me and Bebe Bolton were flying over the beautiful and reflective Quicksilver Sea and it was really beautiful.

Me: Wow! The Quicksilver Sea. This is amazing.

Bebe: Boy it sure is. Wow. The water is really beautiful.

Me: It sure is.

We flew and saw a beautiful formation and it was the Seat of The Synod and it was incredible.

Me: Wow! The Seat of The Synod. Looks like McWolf chose that place for the next rescue.

Bebe: I've been waiting for my turn!

Bebe concentrated and groaned as her hands started trembling.

Me: Here we go!

Her hands turned blue and purple and she turned into her Street Shark form!

Me: YEAH!

We went into the Seat of the Synod and it was an incredibly amazing and incredible formation in the Quicksilver Sea.

Me: Wow! It's amazing that this place is here in the middle of the Quicksilver Sea.

Bebe: Boy it sure is. The cards of Magic The Gathering are showing us incredible locations that we have never seen before.

Me: Yeah.

We saw that it was really beautiful and amazing.

Me: Wow. So advanced and unique.

Bebe: Yeah.

We went into a room and we saw a girl chained to the wall and she was a Yeti.

Me: Wow she's a Yeti.

Bebe: She's not like the one that we met last week.

Me: No this one is more beautiful.

McWolf came out.

McWolf: Strange seeing you all here.

Me: You picked a great spot McWolf. Do you collect the Magic the Gathering Cards yourself?

McWolf: As a matter of fact I do. Vypra got me into it and she is giving me the ideas to use for the rescues.

Me: Wow. She sure is doing a good job in helping you out.

McWolf: Yep.

We jumped him and tickled him all over and he was laughing hysterically.

We freed the girl.

Miti: Whew! Thanks. Wow you're J.D. Knudson, leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: That's right and this is Bebe Bolton. She's a Tiger Shark Gene-Slammer.

Bebe: Pleasure to meet you.

Miti: Same here and my name is Miti and yes I'm a Yeti.

Me: Pleasure to meet you. We have had an encounter with a Yeti last week and he was tearing up Los Angeles, California in a rage because of a god of anger.

Miti: Wow that's crazy and yes I've heard about that. That was crazy.

Me: It sure was.

Bebe: I'm gonna revert back now.

Me: Okay.

I put on my Blind Man glasses and she reverted back.

Bebe was human again. But topless.

Bebe: (covers her boobs) Can someone rub my back? Specifically the spot where my fin popped out?

Miti: I'll be happy to.

Miti rubbed her back.

Miti: Sorry if I'm too strong. Yetis are strong creatures.

Bebe: That's all right.

I gave Bebe a new shirt.

Bebe: Thanks J.D.

She put it on.

Miti: I heard from McWolf that you were rescuing Miia and her friends.

Me: Yep and it's awesome seeing the worlds that they are in.

Miti: It will be awesome to see Miia and the girls again.

Me: They are back at the World Tree Estate. Lets head home.

We went back to the World Tree Estate.

---

Back at the World Tree Estate, everyone was playing card games and reading books and watching TV.

We came back and Bebe went to the gym for some skating practice.

Miti: Wow so this is where you all live.

Me: Yep.

Nico: Wow! She's a Yeti.

Me: Yep.

Miia: Miti!

Miti: Miia!

They hugged.

Miia: It's awesome having you with us.

Miti: It sure is. And I'm gonna love it.

Me: And just in time too. Twilight, I have an awesome treat for you and your friends and our new recruits.

Twilight Sparkle: What is it?

Me: Follow me guys.

We were off.

---

We were over at our favorite amusement park.

Me: Welcome to Paleozoic World, guys!

Twilight and everyone were amazed.

Sunset Shimmer: Wow! This is so amazing!

Rainbow Dash: AWESOME!

Scootaloo: Wow! It's cool here.

Me: Yep. And we have over 710 Million years of creatures from the past to see.

Rarity: My word!

Applejack: Wow!

Kurama: You must be wondering how Paleozoic World came to be.

Fluttershy: Yeah how is this all possible?

Me: This whole park started out as Jurassic Park which was the Brain Child of world famous billionaire theme park architect John Hammond. He made this whole park when he discovered a perfectly preserved mosquito with dinosaur blood inside it and it was perfectly preserved inside Amber or fossilized tree sap. He had a huge number of top dog geneticists and researchers successfully bring the dinosaurs back to life after being extinct for over 66 million years.

Laney: We all thought that was amazing and extremely awesome.

Eli: Yeah and it is so amazing to see!

Ets: No kidding.

Pinkie Pie: But wasn't the park located on an island near Costa Rica?

Me: Yes it was. But we had to move everything on the island here to Lake Huron.

Nico: The reason was because the island that Jurassic Park was on, Isla Nublar was going to explode. Mount Sibo, a volcano on Isla Nublar destroyed the entire island and sank it into the ocean.

Starlight Glimmer: Man that's terrible!

Me: Yeah it sure was. But we got all the dinosaurs and creatures and everyone out of there just in time.

Nico: Yep.

Eli: Thank goodness.

We walked around the park and showed everyone around. We saw all the creatures from the Cambrian, Ordovician, Silurian, Devonian, Carboniferous, Permian, Triassic, Jurassic, Cretaceous, Tertiary and Quaternary periods.

Data Squad Agumon: I like the T Rex here!

Cybertron Dirt Boss: (Laughs) You should. After all, you look just like one!

Me: There's many more dinosaurs here though.

Lana: Wait till you all see my favorite part of this place.

Lana showed us her favorite part and we saw Owen Grady taming a pack of Velociraptors.

Twilight Sparkle: Who is that with those velociraptors?

Me: That's Owen Grady. He used to be part of the Navy and now he is the Alpha Leader of the Velociraptors here. Velociraptors act very much like wolves do and Owen is very skilled in taming them.

Lana: Yep and I know how to tame Velociraptors too.

Eli: Same with me and I know how to tame a Tyrannosaurus too.

Nunnally: Yep and we should know because we saw it ourselves.

Sena: Wow! That is incredible.

Rai: I didn't know Eli can do that?

J.D. 3: Who do you think taught him.

Sena: This is amazing!

Seth (Di Gata): Yeah it sure is. I didn't know the Earth has so many awesome creatures.

Me: Yep.

Kairi Yano: We've actually seen dinosaurs like these before.

Swerve: Really? When?

Keiichiro: Well, these dinosaurs serve as zords to Super Sentai teams themed after dinosaurs. Like the Ryusoulgers, who we teamed up with before.

Me: I remember seeing all those. They were awesome.

Nico: Yep and like here in America we have several Dinosaur Zords.

Eli: Yep.

Ets: Wow.

Ėclair: This is amazing that you all have an awesome amusement park like this.

Me: It's a very popular spot and also we have an awesome carnival too. We call it Phoenix Land. You'll love it when we show it to you all in the future. Also we have our own waterpark being built in the future.

Nico: I can't wait to see it.

Eli: Yeah that will be fun!

Ėclair: Yeah.

Miti: Oh boy!

Rei: That will be awesome to see.

We went back home.

Later we were getting ready for our next mission.

Gabriel: Who's up for a trip to Ponyland?

Megan Williams: I am. It will be great to see it again.

Firefly: Same here. I can't wait.

Me: We haven't seen much of Ponyland since we first met you and Firefly, Megan. It will be cool to see it.

Princess Celestia: And learn more about Equestria before it was called that.

Me: Yeah.

Kitty, Comic Book Guy, Greiger, Whirlwind, Tchang Zu, King Shark, Knightbrace, and Jack O Lantern then appeared.

Knightbrace: Can me, Kitty, Comic Book Guy, Greiger, Whirlwind, Tchang Zu, King Shark, and Jack O Lantern go with you guys?

Me: You all sure can. When we went to Ponyland we didn't have enough time to look at all the sights of it because we were busy preparing for the War.

Sena: Yeah but now we're going to.

Megan Williams: You guys will love it.

Miti: I can't wait to see what it's like.

Rei: It's gonna be pretty I'll bet.

Me: Yep.

We opened a portal and we went through it.

---

We arrived in Ponyland and it was beautiful.

Wolfgang: (Australian Accent) Well, here we are at Ponyland.

Me: Yep and it's as beautiful as when we were here the first time.

Megan Williams: It sure is.

Firefly: We'll show you all around.

Kitty: This place is like a retro version of Equestria.

Nico: It sure does.

Megan Williams: It does doesn't it. But it is amazing.

Firefly: Lets show you all around.

We walked around and we saw that it was a land full of magic and it was a place where Unicorns, Pegasi, Flutter Ponies, ponies, sea ponies, dragons and many creatures great and small live in harmony.

Me: Wow. This place is amazing.

Sunset Shimmer: Boy it sure is. I think this is really amazing here.

Princess Cadance: It's really something seeing a retro Equestria like this.

Me: It sure is.

Clown Man: Are there retro version of Twilight and the others too?

Megan Williams: Well there's Buttons, Fizzy, Galaxy, Gusty, Mimic and Ribbon. They are the Unicorns. Heart Throb, Locket, Firefly, Lofty, Masquerade, North Star, Surprise, Twilight, Whizzler and Wind Whistler. They are the Pegasus Ponies. And Cherries Jubilee, Cupcake, Gingerbread, Knightshade, Lickety Split, Magic Star, Posey, Shady, Sundance, Sweet Stuff and Truly. They are the Earth Ponies. Forget-Me-Not, Honeysuckle, Lily, Morning Glory, Peach Blossom and Rosedust. They are the Flutter Ponies. Beachcomber, Ripple, Sealight, Sea Shimmer, Seawinkle, Surf Rider, Sun Shower, Water Lily and Wave Dancer. They are the Sea Ponies. And lastly the Princesses. They are Princess Primrose, Princess Royal Blue, Princess Serena, Princess Sparkle, Princess Starburst and Princess Tiffany.

Me: Wow! So many you all know.

Firefly: Yeah it's cool.

Greiger: We would've asked them for help in the war. But they probably would've been too busy with their own lives.

Megan Williams: Yeah they would have been.

Me: And Grogar has been destroyed forever.

Nico: Good riddance.

Me: Yeah. But I'm sure that Ponyland has its share of major enemies too. Now that we destroyed all of Equestria's major and minor enemies we still have all of Ponyland's too.

Megan Williams: Yeah we sure do.

Varie: We'll gladly help you destroy them.

Megan Williams: Thanks guys.

Me: And we'll have to recruit some of your friends from here into the Knights of The Friendship Table.

Firefly: That would be great.

Totally Spies Alice: Why don't we meet your friends now?

Megan Williams: Good idea. In fact I hear them coming.

We saw a bunch of ponies coming and we saw all the Earth Ponies, Flutter Ponies, Pegasus Ponies and Unicorns that Megan told us about. We met Buttons, Fizzy, Galaxy, Gusty, Mimic and Ribbon the Unicorns, Heart Throb, Locket, Firefly, Lofty, Masquerade, North Star, Surprise, Twilight, Whizzler and Wind Whistler the Pegasus Ponies, Cherries Jubilee, Cupcake, Gingerbread, Knightshade, Lickety Split, Magic Star, Posey, Shady, Shady, Sundance, Sweet Stuff and Truly the Earth Ponies and lastly Forget-Me-Not, Honeysuckle, Lily, Morning Glory, Peach Blossom and Rosedust the Flutter Ponies!

Galaxy: Megan, Firefly!

Locket: Wow! You're back!

Megan Williams: It's great to see you all again.

Whirlwind: Hi. You must be Megan's friends. I'm-

Locket: A villain about to go to jail along with your 7 buddies over there.

Whirlwind: (narrows his eyes) You'll never take us alive.

Me: Whoa whoa whoa easy guys.

Megan Williams: It's okay everyone. These are our frenemies in the Masters of Evil.

Me: They give us a really good time in our usual battles and we have fun with them whenever the holidays come around as well as help us on all kinds of awesome adventures.

Knightshade: Wow that's amazing.

Magic Star: Wait a second. You're all Team Loud Phoenix Storm! We heard so many incredible things about you all.

Nico: Yep that's us.

Heart Throb: Wow!

Galaxy: And who are the new ponies witih you all?

Me: That's a strange story.

Twilight Sparkle: My name is Twilight Sparkle and I am the Princess of Friendship.

Me: Twilight Sparkle and her friends are all from Equestria, that's Ponyland set 1,000 years into the future from this world.

I went over everything in our adventures with Twilight Sparkle and friends and how we met them in chapters 1177 on up.

Forget-Me-Not: Wow! That's incredible.

Strike Man: We also had a big war against the modern Equestria enemies.

Me: Yeah and it was one of the most devastating battles we've had.

I went over what happened during the events of chapter 1375 and it was an epic adventure.

Galaxy: Wow! That's incredible!

Forget-Me-Not: That's incredible. It's amazing you all went through all that.

North Star: No kidding. That is intense.

Sundance: Yeah no kidding.

Nico: It sure was something.

Me: Yep and we got rid of all of Equestria's enemies and before the war I destroyed Grogar.

Galaxy: You destroyed Grogar!? But that's impossible!

Me: No it's not. All it took was the combined power of the Elements of Harmony and the power to destroy 100,000 planets to do it. Grogar is now nothing more than a forgotten memory.

Bubbles (MLP): Wow!

Glory: That's amazing.

Maria: While we're talking about scumbags, we should get started on finding out who Goche and Baron Nero's secret boss is?

May: Right! (to Comic Book Guy) You're the comic book expert. Who do you think it is?

Comic Book Guy: Well, there are a few evil masterminds smart enough to be Goche and Baron Nero's boss. Said masterminds are Baron Zemo, Mr. Sinister, Dr. Doom, and Mr. Mind.

Yuma: It might also be Don Thousand. He's still on the loose after all.

Marinette: And let's not forget Lila Rossi. I know she's still in prison but what if that's another one of her lies?!

Nico: Those are good suspects. But we'll have to get more evidence in order to prove the identity of the TRUE mastermind.

Me: I agree with Nico. Also Dr. Doom is dead remember? He blew himself up when we met the Fantastic 4.

Eli: Wow.

Ets: I heard about that.

Twilight Sparkle: I didn't know that happened.

Me: Yeah it did.

Nico: But we didn't Banish him to The Warp.

Galaxy: What's the Warp?

Me: It's an interdimensional plane that is full of an incredibly powerful and strong psychic energy that nothing can escape it.

Forget-Me-Not: Wow!

Firefly (MLP): Yeah it's crazy.

Itasis: (to Megan's friends) Would you girls be interested in joining the team? If you don't want to, that's fine.

Twilight Sparkle: We are all part of a branch team called the Knights of The Friendship Table.

Me: It's a team I made where the friends of Equestria fight to protect everyone human or pony from all of Equestria's biggest enemies.

Firefly: And it's a really amazing and awesome team.

Galaxy: What do you think guys?

They thought it would be really interesting.

Forget-Me-Not: We would be honored to join.

Buttons: Yeah it would sound like fun.

Me: Awesome!

King Shark: I don't think we have to worry about your enemies though. They probably are in hiding after they heard about the war.

Me: I'm not sure about that.

Eli: Yeah I sense some pretty nasty ones here.

Megan Williams: One of the nastiest of them all was Lavan.

Me: Who is he?

Megan Williams: He's a lava demon.

Me: What can you tell us about him?

Megan told us about Lavan.

---

Lavan is one of the antagonists in the 1986 My Little Pony 'n Friends cartoon series. He is the main antagonist in the four-part Season 2 premiere "The Quest of the Princess Ponies". He is a malevolent lava demon, and the king of his people.

He was voiced by James Earl Jones, who also played Darth Vader in Star Wars: A New Hope, Thulsa Doom in Conan the Barbarian, Ommadon in The Flight of Dragons, The Emperor of the Night in Pinocchio and the Emperor of the Night, and the Levram Wizard in the 2003 Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles TV series.

Lavan kidnaps the Princess Ponies and steals their magic wands, since they contain all the magic in Ponyland. He tried to use them to transform himself into an all-powerful crystal being. It did not work so well at first, upsetting the balance of Pony Land.

He then kidnapped the six Princess Ponies (except Princess Tiffany who flew away) and ordered his minions to throw the Princess Ponies into a lava pit, but they escaped. Lavan began his crystal transformation but was informed by his henchman Sludge that they escaped.

Lavan attacked him, and later found Spike, the Princess Ponies, and his enemy Gnash, and imprisoned them in the dungeon, from which they were released by Sludge, who was tired of Lavan's abuse.

While Lavan's abuse of the wands began turning Pony Land to crystal, Lavan completed his crystal transformation. When the Princess Ponies found the wands, drained of power, Lavan attacked them, but they escaped after Princess Tiffany and Megan arrived.

They found the Heart of Pony Land, which was used to recharge the wands, but Lavan attacked them. Sludge knocked him into the lava, from which he emerged again only to be frozen by Gnash. By the time he broke free, the Princess Ponies had their wands back. Working together, they used their magic to send Lavan's rainbow beam back at him, destroying him.

When she was finished we were horrified!

Me: Whoa man! So he's a monster made of pure lava.

Nico: Like the Titan, Kronos.

Eli: Yeah.

Cozy Glow: Looks like this guy is gonna be too hot to handle.

Nan Que: Like when Slade got those intense fire powers. Sorry Tara.

Tara: No worries but yeah like that.

Me: Yeah that's crazy.

Hunch: Shouldn't be too hard. Just need to use lots of water to cool him down. Should be easy.

Megan Williams: Defeating him is not that easy. We need to freeze him with powerfully cold temperatures.

Me: Temperatures of Absolute zero would work.

Galaxy: What's Absolute Zero?

Me: -459.67˚ Fahrenheit.

Laney: That is really cold.

Nico: Yep.

Lola: Wow.

Me: You'll all love seeing our powers in action.

Jack O Lantern: Just leave the entrance to me this time. (takes out a pumpkin bomb)

Me: Yeah. We're gonna have to face him in his own environment and I know just the place.

Miti: Let me guess? The Urborg Volcano?

Me: Bingo.

Megan Williams: Awesome.

Me: Lets get him guys.

Windsweeper: Where's Lavan right now though?

Megan Williams: He lives in the volcanoes near Grogar's old lair.

Me: Oh boy. Lets go guys.

Nico: This is gonna be good.

Me: Lets head out. (Eyes Glow Red) It's time to cool down a lava demon!

We were off to the volcanoes.

---

In the volcanoes near Grogar's old lair, Lavan was thinking on his next plan to get the Magic Wands from The Princesses.

Lavan: There has to be a way to get those wands.

But then pumpkins grew in his lair.

Lavan: Huh?

Suddenly…

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The pumpkins exploded in a massive fiery explosion and a Phoenix Cry was heard and we jumped out and we landed and we were ready for a fight as we saw LAVAN THE LAVA DEMON!

Me: Lavan the Lava Demon.

Nico: Time to cool you down for good.

Lavan: Team Loud Phoenix Storm! And the Ponies are all with you!?

Galaxy: We just joined.

Tchang Zu: Sorry, but we're going to finish this quick!

Tchang Zu just fired a lightning blast at Lavan, causing an explosion and seemingly killing him.

Tchang Zu: His spirit should be appearing anytime now. There's no way he could've survived that.

Lavan: Don't be so sure my brother!

He reformed and he was back.

Me: So it's Total Obliteration then. Also has anyone ever told you that your voice sounds like James Earl Jones?

Lavan: Who's that?

Me: A very famous actor known for doing Darth Vader in Star Wars and Mufasa in The Lion King.

Mufasa: And this guy makes my voice look bad.

Me: Yeah.

Lavan: Interesting.

Chemistro, Bonz, Nergal, Titania, Duff Killigan, Rex Goodwin, Raven Branwen, Dr. Polaris, P'andor and Pyro then appeared!

Me: Chemistro, Bonz, Nergal, Titania, Duff Killigan, Rex Goodwin, Raven Branwen, Dr. Polaris, P'andor and Pyro.

P'andor: (Russian Accent) Pretty hot place to be in huh?

Me: You said it. But I like it.

Fii: I don't mind it.

Nan Que: Me neither. It's awesome.

Rex Goodwin: This is our first time at Ponyland.

Bonz: It sure is.

Chemistro: (to Megan's friends) It's really nice to meet you guys.

Galaxy: Same here. Think we can get archenemies like Twilight and the others?

Nergal: That might be possible.

Me: Well the trouble is finding them. But there are lots of them to choose from.

Nico: Yep.

?: (FEROCIOUS ROAR)

We heard a roar and a figure came out and it was THE APE MAN OF THE FORBIDDEN MOUNTAIN!

Shaggy: ZOINKS! It's the Ape Man!

Me: The Ape Man of Forbidden Mountain.

Qin: This guy is one overgrown gorilla.

Twilight Sparkle: What was he known for?

Qin: He was really the stunt man of Daphne's uncle John's movie, Carl and he wanted to sabotage the movie because he didn't get the lead part.

Sunset Shimmer: Geez that's bad.

Qin: Yep and he got 25 years for attempted murder and assault and menacing.

Me: Yep.

?: Crazy crime huh?

A figure came out and it was SQUIDROSE from episode 33 of Dino Thunder!

---

Squidrose is a chameleon/balsam/pharmacy prescription monster, with form of squids. He appears in the episode In your Dreams.

After having calamari for dinner, Tommy dreams (under Elsa's influence) that he fights as the Black Ranger against Squidrose. Squidrose takes the Black Ranger's staff, and in the process causes him to into Super Dino Mode and destroys him. But when Squidrose grows, the other Dino Rangers show up fashionably late and form the Thundersaurus Megazord to defeat him.

---

Tommy Oliver: Squidrose!

Squidrose: Nice day huh?

Me: I remember you! Tommy fought you in his dreams after eating some calamari.

Squidrose: That's right. Good memory on you.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Squidrose: (to Tommy Oliver) Did you really have a dream of fighting me after you ate calamari?

Tommy Oliver: Don't ask.

Me: I remember seeing that. That was weird. I'll never look at squid the same way again after that. No offense Squidward and Squilliam.

Squilliam: None taken.

Squidward: But yeah that is weird.

Nico: Yeah.

Me: Lets get it on!

---

Paige looked at Lavan and swirls of lava and fire swirled around her.

Paige: It ends here for you Lavan.

The heat coming off of Paige was unbelievable as we felt her energy level rising fast.

Suddenly there was a massive flash of white light and then a massive earthquake shook the lands and a massive vortex of lava and fire exploded high into the sky and it formed into a deadly dragon and it roared ferociously and rained down embers of fire and they all hit Lavan and burned him all over with temperatures over 95,000˚ Fahrenheit! It also absorbed the cosmic energies of stars and the heat from supernova explosions. The dragon faded and standing in a ring of super white hot fire was Paige and she was forever changed!

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI BY JO BLANKENBURG PLAYS AT 1:40)

She looked like she was 21 years old and her hair was now glowing a powerful incandescent red and she had a dragon rising out of a volcano emblazoned on her forehead and she had earrings in the shape of a dragon and her clothes were made entirely out of pure lava and she had wings that were made entirely out of pure fire and lava and the heat coming off of her was mind-boggling. Maria: Muscle Man, the Lava Lizards here called your mom this word on this piece of paper. (shows paper to him)

Muscle Man read it.

Muscle Man: "Your mom is an ugly and repulsive whore!?" WHAT DID YOU SAY ABOUT MY MOM!? WHAT DID YOU SAY ABOUT MY MOM!?

He then roared in rage and smashed and pulverized the Lava Lizards all over the place!

Paige went at Lavan and punched him in the face and it didn't burn her but it SEVERELY burned Lavan REALLY BAD!

Her punch was equal in temperature to that of the core of a Class O Blue Giant Star! She fired a massive blast of white hot fire and burned him all over with incredible power and ferocious heat! It was like she was a living nuclear inferno!

Becky: My little sister is now a full fledge woman.

His evil spirit then appeared.

Tchang Zu: I think I can have my crack at him.

Tchang Zu went up to him.

Tchang Zu: You are no brother of ours. (Holds hand out to him) HAKAI!

He banished Lavan to the Warp and we were back in Ponyland.

Dr. Polaris: (to Megan's friends) So, did you like your first mission with us?

Glory: We sure did!

Bubbles: This was so much fun!

Morning Glory: No kidding. It was awesome.

Me: Glad you all had fun. We'll have to see if the princesses of Ponyland can help out too.

Nico: Good idea.

Me: Lets head home and show everyone where we live.

Nico: Good idea.

Ponyland was merged with the Equestria sector.

Paige: (To the viewers) This was a volcanically hot adventure. Hope you all loved it as much as we did.

Me: I did.

We went back home and showed Megan's friends around and then we went to dinner and later to bed.

---

Lavan from the 1986 My Little Pony show was a strange one. The first of the 1986 Series villains to be destroyed. But it was cool that James Earl Jones voiced him. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Etstheclarencefan, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Nflemingful, Drako1234658 and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next Girl is gonna be Eris the Elf and she will be in the creepy Vault of Whispers of the world of Magic The Gathering. Also the next chapter will rock your world as we meet Puffy AmiYumi from Hi Hi Puffy AmiYumi and help them take down one of their dangerous enemies. We're going after the mad demon drummer Crazy Styx and we're going to make that monster pay for his crimes.

See you all tomorrow.

Japanese Rock Star Mayhem and Action

In the world of Magic The Gathering, me and Olga Orromov were flying over a terrifying swamp and it was a creepy place.

Me: Wow. This is one creepy swamp.

Olga: No kidding. It's terrifying.

We arrived at a very forbodding and very scary mountain and it was really The Vault of Whispers.

Me: Wow the Vault of Whispers.

Olga: It sure is creepy.

Me: Yeah.

Olga: Well, I know the drill by now.

Olga concentrated and groaned as her hair fell out.

And she grew many tentacles and she turned into JELZAP!

Me: YEAH!

We went into the Vault of Whispers and it was the creepiest place we've ever seen.

Me: This is One creepy and horrifying place.

Jelzap: No kidding. Talk about spooky.

Me: Wow it looks like no one has been in here for years.

Jelzap: It's scary and creepy.

We walked on and we got to a room and the door was sealed tight.

Me: This door is locked up tight.

Jelzap: I got this.

She fired a focused lightning beam and cut a hole in the door and I kicked the whole down.

Me: Clever.

Jelzap: Thanks.

We saw a girl chained to the wall and she was an Elf.

Me: Wow she's an Elf.

Jelzap: Wow. I've read a lot about them.

Me: Me too.

McWolf came out.

McWolf: Pretty creepy place I picked for the rescue huh?

Me: No kidding McWolf. But it is a really good place for one.

McWolf: Yeah it sure is.

We jumped McWolf and tickled him all over. Then we went over and cut the girl free.

Me: Are you all right?

Eris (DLWAMG): Yeah thanks to you. Wow! You're J.D. Knudson, Leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: That's right. Pleasure to meet you.

Jelzap: My name is Olga Orromov and I'm a Sea Wasp Gene-Slammer. In this form I'm called Jelzap.

Eris (DLWAMG): Pleasure to meet you. My name is Eris and yes I'm an elf.

Me: Pleasure to meet you Eris.

Jelzap: I'm gonna revert back.

Me: Okay.

I put on my blind man glasses and Olga reverted back.

Olga was human again. And topless.

Olga: (covers her boobs) I'm glad no perverts are here to take a peek at my breasts!

I gave her a shirt.

Me: And thank goodness that Nicole isn't here to beat the living s out of me too.

Olga: Thanks J.D.

She put it on.

Eris (DLWAMG): I am forever grateful for you all and I heard that you all are saving my friends and Miia.

Me: We sure are Eris.

Olga: But these adventures in saving Miia and friends is awesome.

Me: Yep.

We went back to the World Tree Estate.

---

Back at the World Tree Estate, everyone was having breakfast when me, Olga and Eris came in.

Olga went to join for breakfast.

Eris (DLWAMG): Wow! So this is where you all live.

Me: Yep. It's our big home.

Nico: Wow! She's an elf.

Eris (DLWAMG): Yep. Pleasure to meet you Nico.

Miia: Eris!

Eris (DLWAMG): Miia!

They hugged.

Miia: It's awesome having you with us.

Eris (DLWAMG): Same here.

---

Later we were at school.

Wood Man: Another good day at school.

Me: Yep. So far things have been going good.

Nico: They sure have.

Eris (DLWAMG): It sure is nice.

Then I suddenly sensed a huge energy increase.

Me: Whoa! Do you guys feel that?

Nico: Yeah I sense a huge energy surge.

Eris (DLWAMG): I feel it too. What could that be.

I then heard something and I saw that my Geode was glowing.

Me: Weird my geode is reacting to something.

Eli and Nico saw that their geodes were reacting too.

Nico: Something is causing our geodes to glow like this. Lets go find Twilight and the girls. Maybe they might know.

Me: Right lets go.

We found Twilight and the rest of the Mane 9 minus Sunset.

Me: Hey girls.

Twilight Sparkle: Hey J.D.

Me: Are you girls having problems with your powers?

Fluttershy: I think we are.

Trixie: Yeah what's causing it?

George of the Jungle: (sees the Mane 7) You guys are overreacting. George doesn't see anything wrong.

Twilight Sparkle: We don't know what it is yet.

Me: Yeah something is up. Yesterday my powers caused me to make an incredibly huge money tree that was overflowing with cash, gold and priceless jewels grow in front of a poor house and it made that family filthy rich beyond their wildest dreams.

Nico: I caused a huge burger tree to grow right in front of a local homeless shelter.

Eli: I caused a massive number of flowers made of crystals and jewels to grow all over the city wherever I walked.

Me: That's weird.

Skullgrin: So, you girls think you're losing control of your powers?

Pinkie Pie: I don't think so.

Fluttershy: Somehow our powers are growing all supercharged and all that.

Tailgate: I'm sure this is just a temporary thing.

Me: Maybe. What problems did you girls have?

Sunset Shimmer: [groans] Well, the earmuffs don't work. I'm now hearing everything everyone's thinking without even touching them!

Is anyone else experiencing a sudden… uh… surge in their powers today?

Me: Yeah I'm having one.

Nico: Same with me.

Eli: And me.

Me: What about you girls?

Rest of the Mane 9: Uh… eh…

Sunset Shimmer saw into their thoughts and she saw that it was happening to them too.

[birds chirping]

Fluttershy had EVERY animal in the pet shops and the city follow her.

Twilight Sparkle: Whoooooaaaaa!

Twilight Sparkle was riding her bike and her magic made her fly into the air like in the movie E.T.

[clang!]

Applejack accidentally ripped her entire locker door off.

Applejack: Uh…

[clang!]

She tried to put it back on but to no avail.

Pinkie Pie was eating her lunch when her apple exploded.

[boom!]

[splat!]

It got applesauce all over Vinyl Scratch and others.

Pinkie Pie: Huh?

OOPS.

Trixie was doing her magic when suddenly hundreds of rabbits came out of her hat and scurried all over the place.

Trixie: (Screams)

Starlight Glimmer was looking for books to read in the library and when she found one, they all came and buried her in a huge pile of them.

Starlight Glimmer: (Groans)

Sunset Shimmer: So you have! Sorry. I just heard all of your thoughts. Can't help it.

Eli: Weird.

Twilight Sparkle: Fascinating. I wonder what's causing it.

Me: Yeah this is mega freaky.

Rainbow Dash came in fast.

[zoom!]

Rainbow Dash: [quickly] Hi, guys! I just ran here from the soccer field in three seconds! Wait, hold on!

[zoom!]

She left and came back.

[zoom!]

Rainbow Dash: [quickly] Forgot my backpack! [chomp] Yuck! This needs mustard.

[zoom!]

She left and came back again.

[zoom!]

Rainbow Dash: [quickly] Super speed is where it's at, am I right?! It's like, I can't stop because I've been getting so much done!

[geodes shimmering]

We saw all our geodes shimmering.

Twilight Sparkle: Okay. I may have a theory about what's going on with our magic.

Me: What is it?

Twilight went and did a huge equation.

Twilight Sparkle: Our geodes are all connected. So the more each of us use our magic for everyday tasks, the more all of our powers become supercharged and go… haywire!

Me: That explains what that energy increase that I sensed earlier was.

Nico: Yeah and why our powers were going haywire. That is too weird.

Eli: Very strange.

Trixie: I had no idea.

Sunset Shimmer: Since Rainbow was using her super speed for everything, all of us experienced an uncontrollable boost.

Rest of the Equestria Girls: Ohhhhh.

They looked at her with a glare.

Rainbow Dash: [laughing nervously] Whoopsies.

George of the Jungle: George understand now.

Nico: So do I. That is interesting.

Starlight Glimmer: We had no idea that this was happening to us.

Me: Hey she didn't know this was going to happen. Cut her some slack.

Eli: Yeah Rainbow Dash had no idea this would affect us in some sort of way.

Starlight Glimmer: That's all right. But thank goodness we were able to figure it all out.

Applejack: That's true.

Eris (DLWAMG): But at least we found out what was causing it.

Rarity: Well, so long as we use it in moderation, our magic should stay under control?

Pinkie Pie: And our geodes will go all glowy if it's about to get whack-a-doodle-doo?

Twilight Sparkle: It seems that way.

Sunset Shimmer: We'll have to keep that in mind.

Me: Noted. Lets get to class.

We went to class.

* * *

Later we were getting ready for our next mission.

Guts Man: Where are we going this time?

Me: You guys are in for an awesome treat. We're going to meet the famous Japanese Pop Band, Puffy AmiYumi!

Luna, Sam, Girl Jordan and Maria squealed like giddy fangirls!

Maria: Oh wow! I love Puffy AmiYumi!

Luna: They rock!

Sam S.L.: Yeah they do! I love all their songs and they are awesome!

May: They are amazing.

Rex Goodwin, Chemistro, Bonz, Nergal, Titania, Duff Killigan, Raven Branwen, and Dr. Polaris then appeared.

Rex Goodwin: Can me, Chemistro, Bonz, Nergal, Titania, Duff Killigan, Raven Branwen, and Dr. Polaris go with you all?

Me: You all sure can. We're going to meet Puffy AmiYumi in Japan.

Titania: AWESOME! I love Puffy AmiYumi.

Nergal: Who are they?

Me: They are a famous Japanese Pop Band. You guys will love them. I love all their songs and all that.

Kairi Yano: We know them. They are widely known all over the country.

Right Suzuki: And we saw them perform many times all over.

Touma: You guys will love seeing them perform. They do a really amazing job.

Me: And I heard rumors flying around that they do amazing adventures. Lets head out.

We were off to Japan.

---

TOKYO, JAPAN

---

We were back in Tokyo, Japan yet again.

Hook: Is this where you said they would be?

Me: Yep. Ami and Yumi are both from Japan and they perform whereever.

Eli: It will be so awesome to meet them. They are what lead me to listen to Japanese Pop Music.

Eris (DLWAMG): That is amazing.

Dina: I can't wait to see what they are like.

Nico: I know it's gonna be awesome.

Laney: It sure is.

Lana: But where do we find them?

Me: Follow me.

We went to a music stage and we saw their bus.

Tentacool: I have an idea on how to get their attention.

Bonz: What do you have in mind?

Tentacool walked up to where Ami and Yumi were. And then, she jumped on Yumi's head.

Yumi: (Ami and Kaz are starting at her) What is it? Do I have something on my face?

Kaz: Try on your head.

Yumi felt her head and that's when she picked up Tentacool.

Yumi: What the? Is this a new kind of hat?

Ami: It's no kind of hat I've ever seen.

Tentacool: I'm not a hat and my friends came to meet you.

Yumi dropped Tentacool.

Yumi: It talks!

Me: I see you all met Tentacool.

They saw us.

Ami: Oh wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Yumi: It's an honor to meet you!

Me: (Speaking in Japanese) 有名な大貫亜美さんと吉村由美さんにお会いできて光栄です。アメリカからずっとお会いできました。(It's an honor to meet the famous Ami Onuki and Yumi Yoshimura, we came all the way from America to meet you.)

Yumi: (Speaking Japanese) 皆様にお会いできて光栄です。皆様のご来場を光栄に思います。(It's an honor to meet you all too. We are honored that you all came.)

Me: It's awesome meeting you.

Ami: (to the Masters of Evil members) I know the 8 of you are bad guys. But, are any of you guys fans of us?

Chemistro: Well, at least you're not threatening to send us to jail,

Yumi: Oh, we're still calling 911 on you. But first, we want to know if you want any autographs before that happens.

Titania: Just me. I'm a huge fan of you.

Me: And second of all the Masters of Evil are not here to fight you. They are our frenemies and they usually do usual battles with us. We get a good thrill out of it.

Nico: We've essentially reformed them into Anti-Villains.

Laney: It's true.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja. Und we have a lot of fun with them.

Chemistro: It's true. Sorry for the scare. Titania is a huge fan of yours and she loves all your songs.

Me: So do we. Maria, Luna, Sam and Girl Jordan the most. They love you guys.

Ami: We are so honored.

Yumi: Thank you guys.

Maria: You're welcome.

Me: We also saw how you did a charity concert for those that lost their lives in the 2004 Indian Ocean Tsunami.

Yumi: Yeah that was terrible.

Kaz: Boy it sure was.

Kaz (Chaotic): You know Kaz you and I have the same name.

Kaz: That is interesting.

Me: Yeah it sure is.

Broccoli Guy: Maria, Luna, Sam and Girl Jordan basically squealed when J.D. announced we were meeting you guys.

Me: (Laughs) Yeah they sure did.

Luna: We just love you dudes.

Girl Jordan: You're so awesome.

Yumi: We're glad.

Mr. Krabs: Also Kaz we have something to tell you about this obsession with Money you have.

Kaz: Yes?

Mr. Krabs: Look, lad. It's best to get off this money obsession while you still can. Because sooner or later, you're gonna do something you'll regret.

Nico: Mr. Krabs is talking about a comic where another version of him caused Patrick to go on a killing spree.

Me: Here this is it.

I pulled out the comic.

Me: It's a comic Nico found on the Internet.

Yumi: "Bikini Bottom Horror." I know that comic. That was horrible that all that happened in there.

Kaz read it and he saw that Patrick lost his marbles because of Mr. Krabs making Krabby Patties out of a newly regenerated Patrick that he imprisoned and tortured by making him into KRabby Patties out of his arms and cooking them. YUCK! His greed made Mr. Krabs and many people of Bikini Bottom pay the ultimate price.

Kaz: (Gasps in horror) All that happened in this comic!?

Me: Yeah it was horrible.

Mr. Krabs: Nico was really paranoid as a result when he saw that whole comic and he was afraid that Patrick and meself were gonna end up like in that comic.

Me: Yeah. It was scary.

Nico: Yeah and I was actually gonna go after Patrick because the comic showed him as a bigger threat.

Mr. Krabs: Oh sorry.

Me: Yeah.

Laney: It was terrible.

Yumi: No kidding.

Ami: But thank goodness you guys didn't.

Me: Yeah that was a crazy comic. But this comic shows that when you take greed too far it can lead to disastrous and catastrophic consequences.

Ami: That's true.

Nico: Yeah.

Lana: Love your bus guys.

Yumi: Thanks.

Rainbow Dash: It's as nice as our bus for the Rainbooms.

Ami: Yep.

Sour Sweet: Can we go see the inside of your bus?

Yumi: Sure.

Kaz was in a state of shock at what he saw. He had no idea that greed can lead to incredibly disasterous and catastrophic consequences.

Ami picked up Kaz and took him into the bus and we followed them and we saw that their bus was like an awesome mansion on wheels.

Me: WOW! Your bus is as nice as our Vanzilla 2.0 Bus.

Yumi: Yep it's home sweet home.

Kairi Yano: I'm gonna go take a nap. But wake me up when something happens or if you guys spot any sign of Goche and Baron Nero.

Nergal: Got it! (To Ami and Yumi) Wanna try some of my pizza in the meantime?

Ami: You bet! How good is Nergal's pizza?

Me: Some of the best ever.

Nergal: Oh yes. Made with the finest ingredients in all of the Underworld. (Demonic Voice with Fire in His Eyes) AND BAKED IN THE FIERY FURNACE OF THE CENTER OF THE EARTH!

Me: But he and Grim make amazingly great pizza. They own an awesome pizza shop that's now part of Lynn's Table.

Lynn Sr.: That's my restaurant.

Me: We endorse it and we have several restaurants working with it now.

Laney: Yep we sure do.

Yumi: That's awesome.

Nergal got to making pizza.

Submaurader saw some drumsticks that weren't on the floor before.

Submarauder: Weird. Who left these drumsticks here?

Maria picked the drumsticks up.

Maria: I have no idea. They're probably not that important.

Nico: Maybe they are Ami's.

Me: Maybe.

Raven took the drumsticks.

Raven Branwen: Hey, Ami. You left your drumsticks lying around.

Ami: Oh thanks Raven.

She took the drumsticks and then she felt something strange.

Me: Ami are you okay?

Ami: I feel great!

Me: Can you show us your drum playing?

Ami: I'll do better than that.

She got on her drums and she was REALLY playing them and thrashing them and REALLY going at them.

Nico: Whoa!

She was doing all kinds of tricks and really doing all kinds of crazy moves on them.

Brittney: (In her head) I've seen that style before but where?

Divebomb: Why do I feeling that we just met one of Ami and Yumi's bad guys?

Me: I got that same feeling too.

Brittney saw Ami put her drumsticks in an X formation and Brittney knew immediately that it was a familiar presense!

Brittney: (Gasp) Guys! Private Meeting in Yumi's room now!

We went to Yumi's room.

Me: What's a matter Brittney?

Brittney: Ami is in terrible danger. Those drumsticks she has are the drumsticks of Crazy Styxx.

Nico: Who is Crazy Styxx?

Brittney: A very bad drummer from a long time ago.

Kaz: You would not like this guy.

Brittney told us about him.

---

The Crazy Styxx is a character from the semi-anime series Hi Hi Puffy AmiYumi. He made his debut in the series's fourth episode, Ami Goes Bad.

The Crazy Styxx was once the greatest drummer of his time, as Kaz Harada put it. Sadly, the Crazy Styxx's concerts came to a tragic end when his mechanism wore down, causing the Crazy Styxx to be launched into the wall, which presumably destroyed his body. (Kaz mentions that "the Crazy Styxx vanished in a pyrotechnic accident.") Though his body was nowhere to be seen, the Crazy Styxx's drumsticks managed to survive the wreckage, landing in a cross pattern to signal their owner's death. The Crazy Styxx injected his own spirit into his drumsticks, which were later bought by Ami as she tried to prove her worth as a rockstar. Because of this, Ami falls under the fallen drummer's control. The Crazy Styxx forces her to destroy various locales to avenge his death. Yumi later finds out about what he had forced Ami to do, so she decides to free her. Kaz tags along since the Crazy Styxx is too powerful.

Yumi and Kaz manage to wrench the drumsticks from Ami's grasp, and she reverts back to her normal self. The Crazy Styxx attacks the gang with his drumsticks for freeing her, but the duo duck and the reckless ghost presumably destroys himself in the fire at a hotel the possessed Ami rented out.

When she was done we were shocked and horrified!

Me: Whoa man!

Twilight Sparkle: Ami was possessed by this guy before?

Shaggy: ZOINKS! Like we have a ghost!?

Scooby Doo: Rikes!

Me: Oh man! I've heard all about Crazy Styxx and how he was killed in a concert tragedy. But I didn't expect him to return from the dead.

Nico: Yeah that's crazy.

Duff Killigan: Okay. So, we've just goto get those drumsticks away from Ami. Shouldn't be a problem.

Brittney: It's not that simple Duff. Crazy Styxx will make Ami destroy everything and everyone in his path and many innocent people are gonna be in terrible danger because of it. They will give her terrible powers and he will have her use those powers to destroy everything that he comes into contact with.

Laney: But why? Why does he want to destroy everything.

Brittney: Before he died, he vowed that he would come back from the dead and destroy everything and everyone that wronged him through someone of his choosing.

Maria: (Gasp) Oh no! I gave Ami his sticks!

Yumi: Wait. You held onto those sticks? How come you weren't affected then?!

Beastbox: Because Maria has already been bad before.

Me: Yeah. But right now we have to stop Crazy Styxx. We can take the battle to another planet to make sure that no one gets hurt and then Brittney can use an exorcism incantation to get Crazy Styx out of Ami.

Laney: And then we can destroy him.

Luna: That monster will pay for hurting Ami like this.

Me: Lets get that psycho.

We went to face him.

Titania: Hey, Ami. Listen, those drumsticks are actually the same ones that turned you evil before. So, it's time for you to let them go. What do you say?

Ami: (laughs evilly) I'm having a blast right now!

Titania: I'm sure you are. But I'm not kidding. Please give us those drumsticks right now.

Ami: Make me, Grandma!

Titania: (Gets mad) What did you just call me?! Fine! I'll just take those drumsticks from you myself!

Titania went at her.

Brittney: Titania no!

Ami fired a blast of energy from her drumsticks and smashed Titania down.

Me: Whoa!

Titania: (Stupid Talk) Anyone get the number of that truck?

Me: Ami you have to get rid of those sticks now.

Crazy Styxx: (Through Ami) Ami is not here J.D. Knudson.

Me: Crazy Styxx!

Brittney: Let her go you mohawk freak son of a fucking bitch!

Ets: Yeah or we'll make you!

Crazy Styxx: Come and try it you fuckwads!

Dr. Polaris: That's it, Ami! You give us no choice!

Dr. Polaris used his magnetism powers to bring a washing machine close to use.

Dr. Polaris: If you're not giving us those drumsticks, I'll just spincycle you until you're back to normal!

Lazlo: That sounds like something Lumpus would have done.

Slinkman: I was just about to point that out Lazlo.

Me: Where did you even get a washing machine like that?

Dr. Polaris: Don't ask.

Eli used the force and pulled Ami over and threw her in and turned it on and washed and cleaned her.

Magma Man: Ami! We know you're in there somewhere!

Ami: (breaks free for a second) Guys! Help me!

I teleported and grabbed the Drumsticks.

Crazy Styxx: LET GO YOU FUCKING BASTARD!

Me: Not a chance! Eli take us to Velocitron!

Eli: Right!

Eli snapped his fingers and we were on the Speed Planet, Velocitron!

Ransack: We're back home on Velocitron!

Crumplezone: I guess J.D. chose it for our battle!

Me: Brittney now!

Brittney chanted a powerful Exorcism Incantation and I pulled the sticks out of Ami's hands and threw them into the air and Brittney fired a beam of darkness and out of the sticks came CRAZY STYXX! Crazy Styxx resembled a crazy-looking man. One of the Crazy Styxx's eyes floated near his head, possibly due to poor drawing. His outfit was a white shirt with green shorts. His shoes are unseen. He was in a big ball and he had his drumset and sticks ready!

Crazy Styxx: You ruined everything!

Me: Crazy Styxx you will pay for your crimes!

Nico: Yeah!

He then rolled away!

Ransack: You're not getting away that easily! Ransack, transform!

He turned into his motorcycle form. All the Velocitron Autobots and Decepticons transformed and so did the Earth, Gigantion and Cybertron Autobots and Decepticons.

Me: Time to bring our cars and horses to this!

I pressed a remote and a portal opened up and our cars and Rapidash came.

I got on my Rapidash.

Rainbow Dash: This is gonna be awesome!

Applejack: YEEHAW! Lets get him!

Me: YEAH!

Crazy Styxx: You'll never take me alive!

He went down the track.

Me: Lets ride! HYAH!

Optimus Prime: Autobots Transform and Roll Out!

Nico: Decepticons Transform and Rise up!

We went after him!

Motormaster: Does he think he can outrun us? Stunticons are the Kings of the Road!

Me: Yeah!

Nico: He's not gonna get away from us that easily.

Eli: But this is awesome! It's like we're in a race.

Override: It sure feels like it.

Lori Jimenez: Just like old times huh sis?

Override: It sure feels like it.

Scattershot: Lets slow him down! CYBER KEY POWER!

He used the Autobot Cyber Planet Key and more missile launchers popped out and he fired missiles and lasers and they hit Crazy Styxx all over and blasted him all over in powerful explosions.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

But Crazy Styxx was not gonna give up.

Crazy Styxx: YOU'LL NEVER TAKE ME ALIVE!

Me: You're already dead you freak!

I fired energy blasts and they hit him on the sides.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMM!

He was still running.

Me: Rapidash Hyper Beam!

He charged up a Hyper Beam and fired a powerful blast of energy and it hit Crazy Styx and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Crazy Styx was down and he got up and we were ready to fight him!

Nico: Nice shot J.D.!

Me: Yeah!

Girl Jordan: You are finished!

Trap Jaw, Number 7, Key, INSTIGATOR, Speed Demon, Titanium Man, Radioactive Man, Girder, Beast Man and Unicorn then appeared!

Me: Trap Jaw, Number 7, Key, INSTIGATOR, Speed Demon, Titanium Man, Radioactive Man, Girder, Beast Man and Unicorn.

Titanium Man: Wow that was some chase.

Beast Man: Yeah it was.

Number 7: It was very difficult to find you guys.

May: Sorry. After teleporting here, we had to chase Crazy Styxx all over the place.

INSTIGATOR: (to Ami and Yumi) It's really nice to meet you guys.

Ami: Same here!

Trap Jaw: You two should meet the Hex Girls one of these days.

Titanium Man: (sees the washing machine) Guys, why is there a washing machine here?

Dr. Polaris was whistling and nervous.

Nico: Don't ask.

Me: But this is the first time we've ever been to Velocitron. It's a ginormous race track.

Eli: It sure is.

INSTIGATOR: It sure is cool. Also it would make a great competition for a future race.

Me: It sure would. Bobbie Fletcher will have to see if that will happen.

?: (FEROCIOUS ROAR!)

A figure came out and it was THE CAT CREATURE!

Shaggy: ZOINKS! It's the Cat Creature!

Qin: Oh man! This is the cat creature that Daphne's aunt supposedly turned into.

Twilight Sparkle: Who is he?

Qin: He was really Dr. B.B. Bell. A hypnotic psychologist and jewel thief. He was after the priceless jewels in New York City and he was gonna make Daphne's aunt believe that she was the cat creature by planting the jewels in her room.

Nico: Sick bastard.

Fluttershy: Yeah.

Qin: And he was busted and he got 30 years for aggravated theft and destruction of private and public property. He stole millions of dollars in jewels and jewelry and he was also ordered to pay all the money the jewels were worth as restitution.

Eli: Good.

Eris (DLWAMG): I'll face this monster.

?: Go for it.

A figure came out and it was BLOBGOBLIN from episode 28 of SPD!

Blobgoblin is a blob-like monster. This creature is a monster unlike anything the Rangers have ever seen, which is drawn by Morgana to pilot a giant robot against the Rangers and their Megazords. However the robot is destroyed by the Omegamax Megazord and he is contained by the Omega SPD Ranger.

Sam the Omega Ranger: Blobgoblin!

Blobgoblin: Been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were made by Morgana to pilot a giant robot against the rangers.

Blobgoblin: That's right. Good memory J.D.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Blobgoblin: This is probably my first time fighting you Rangers in a normal battle.

Z Delgado: I know. You might not have a solid body but we can still make fighting you work.

Me: Yep we sure can.

Kate Lloyd was shaking in fear and fright.

Me: Uh oh.

I went over and comforted her.

Yumi: What's wrong with her?

Me: Kate went through a horrifying ordeal with a shapeshifting alien monster called The Thing.

I went over everything that happened and told them everything about it.

The Thing is the titular main antagonist and the alias given to the hostile alien creature featured in the 1938 short story Who Goes There? by the late John W. Campbell, that (compared to the deviated story of the 1951 film The Thing from Another World ) was made into a 1982 live-action film by John Carpenter, followed by a prequel released in 2011.

Initially appearing as a single being, every cell in The Thing's body is autonomous and independent, capable of creating more of said monsters through assimilation, parasitism, and infection. In addition, every spawned monster looks radically different and none of them have a definite shape that can be called a "true form". Ultimately, the Thing's true body and form are a mystery as it most appears as whomever it impersonates.

In the 1951 film, it was played by the late James Arness. In the 1982 film, it was played by the late wolfdog actor Jed and its vocal sound effects were provided by Alan Howarth.

Description and Traits

In nature, the Thing is basically an ambush predator, isolating a potential victim or threat to consume and assume its form. In certain cases, usually when exposed or the person it assimilated is fatally inflicted, the Thing will discard all caution and defend itself by manifesting features that may be of its natural form, including tendrils, claws, and mouths. However, the Thing's most dangerous aspect is its cells, each a functional life form that can become independent from the main body when severed by force or separate to facilitate assimilation and self-preservation. For this reason, it is necessary to destroy the body down to the cellular level, with incineration being an effective method.

Behavior and Intelligence

The Thing has only assimilation and self-preservation in mind, as it will selfishly save itself or even attack other forms of its manifestation/progeny in order to avert attention and suspicion. When The Thing is left alone with a suitable target, it will begin to split open and fire out tendrils, which grab the target and begin to assimilate it. In certain cases after discovery or high chance of discovery, The Thing will sometimes perform "divide and conquer" tactics, as in the case of the assimilated Edward which split up into three separate forms: One on his hand quickly detached and animated itself before engaging and assimilating Jonas, another limb scuttled away soon after detaching for potential assimilation in a safer location, and the main body of the Edvard thing killed Derek and successfully assimilated Adam Finch, resulting in a form of The Thing named Split-Face. This is also performed, albeit much less successfully, by the Norris-Thing. When exposed, Things will react depending on how big they are compared to the threat. Smaller Things will generally attempt to escape and ambush prey when the individual is more vulnerable. However, a larger Thing will usually attack prey head-on and attempt to overwhelm any hostiles instead of escaping, although if it has not completely lost its cover, it will attempt to flee.

The Thing's intelligence depends on the size of their manifestations: Smaller ones are quite stupid, dimwitted, nonsensical, and reckless while the larger ones (especially those that imitate a human) are quite cunning, manipulative, and formidably calculating. For example, Norris's mutated head foolishly let itself seen by MacReady and his friends while scuttering away from them, resulting in its incineration. Because The Thing can acquire the memories and knowledge of those who it previously assimilated, they can use said memories and knowledge for their advantage, though only larger manifestations of The Thing are more capable of doing so: the Thing Beast who had assimilated Sander was capable of taking control of the UFO which brought it to Earth while the assimilated Blair, on the other hand, built a makeshift UFO and was aware of how dynamite works as when ambushing Macready; it disposed of the detonator before revealing itself to confront him. However, this does not always apply to all larger manifestations of Thing Beasts: Rapture-type Thing Beasts (see below) have no intention of hiding themselves from view, as well as not manifesting useful appendages that supposedly give them advantage in battle like legs, and their chosen forms act primarily with little intelligence. A plausible explanation of this is likely that Rapture-type Thing Beasts' own overconfidence against their foes is so great that they believe mobility to evade their foes' attacks is unnecessary due to their formidable but stationary form.

When exposed, The Thing would attack anyone on sight to save itself. This somewhat serves as their psychological weakness due to their aggressive mood blinding them from serious threats that their foes unexpectedly posed on them: The Thing who manifested from assimilated Juliette recklessly attempted to kill Kate and the others as soon as it unveiled its true form which ironically led to its incineration. Should it survive the ordeal from its foes/preys and manage to hide, The Thing would regain its composure in order to use their original intelligence once again: When Split-Face Thing confronted Sam, it hesitated upon noticing his flamethrower.

The Thing's ability to interact with plant-based life-forms is largely unknown. Its only interaction with plant-based life was in the form of wood/clothing fibers. It cannot absorb these as noted by MacReady, which could suggest an inability to absorb plant cells or dead cells. The Things themselves are also remarkable Master Manipulators to a certain degree, not only because they incite paranoia among their foes and victims alike but are also not shown eating or drinking beyond living humans or dogs, and it also leaves the bodies of killed humans or dogs untouched even though there is usable biomass, implies that it understands that potential hosts will react strangely to the presence of someone they know to be deceased. Possible other reasons why it is never seen assimilating fresh corpses are either that it is only able to assimilate living victims or is aware that missing dead bodies would arouse suspicion.

In another feat of reasoning, a Thing destroyed a test that would have lead to its exposure, demonstrating awareness of biology and medical practices that would have exposed it. Interestingly, the second time this same method was proposed as a test, the Thing had seemingly preempted the idea, despite the fact that the Thing that had arrived at the second base was spawned long before the first test was thought of and was in a non-human form. This led to the theory of shared consciousness between Things, especially as the second sabotage was far harder to pull off covertly while sowing seeds of misdirection that exposed its presence.

Biography The Thing (1982) and The Thing (2011)

The depiction of The Thing from these two modern movies is a lot more faithful to the original novella description than the 1951 counterpart.

Its origin is a mystery, the Thing itself crash-landed in a spacecraft within the icy fields of Antarctica 100,000 years ago and was frozen attempting to escape. However, in 1982, the spacecraft and the Thing were found by a team of American and Norwegian explorers/ researchers under Dr. Sander Halvorson from Thules station, who hired Columbia University paleontologist Kate Lloyd to take a sample of the creature's blood as it was brought to the base in a block of ice. But later that evening, the Thing bursts from the ice and kills Lars' Alaskan Malamute, Jed while ingesting Henrik before it was burned alive. However, an autopsy of the scorched alien corpse reveals that its cells are still alive and in the process of assimilating Henrik.

When Kate realizes the Thing already might have had assimilated others, she places the base on quarantine to weed out the Thing based on those who still have metal fillings in their teeth and such, after her initial plan of weeding out the monster through blood sample tests had been sabotaged by The Thing. Due to The Thing's ability to imitate, emulate, mimic and appear exactly like any of the research members, paranoia began to set in. Eventually, the majority of the research team were infected and incinerated before Sander, having been infected, made a run for the spaceship. Kate and Sam Carter, the only two surviving crew members, chased Sanders to the alien UFO where Kate and Carter got separated. Kate eventually managed to pursue and kill the monster and heavily damage the ship beyond any repair. After reuniting with Carter, Kate resolved herself to catch him off guard and incinerated him when she discovered that the earring he previously wore was missing and pointed to the wrong ear when confronted. When Carter was set aflame he emitted an inhuman scream, another evidence that Carter was The Thing. After this, Kate was left all alone, leaving her fate unknown.

Meanwhile, back at the Thules station, Lars' dog (having been infected and lying low until the time was right) made its way to an American Antarctic research station with Lars attempting to kill it before he was shot by Lt. Garry, the station commander. Helicopter pilot R.J. MacReady and Dr. Copper fly to the Norwegian's camp, finding the charred remains of the various Things included the burnt yet preserved corpse that was the station's commander Edvard Wolner after it assimilated Sander's assistant Adam Finch.

After the two-faced corpse was brought to the base, the Americans realize the Thing's presence too late when Lar's dog was placed in a kennel with the station's sled dogs and attempted to assimilate them all. After Childs incinerated the creature, with the team finding the ruins of the spacecraft; the autopsy done by Blair confirmed the Thing's nature as he later proceeded to trap everyone on the base and kill the remaining dogs so no one could leave until the Thing was truly dead before being locked in a tool shed by the others as they devised a way to weed out the Thing by using its autonomous cells to weed out the assimilated. By the time that McReady and the other normal humans remained, they learned that Blair got assimilated and was building a small escape craft. Realizing that the Thing might also intentionally freeze itself to wait for a rescue team in the spring, MacReady resolved to kill it with dynamite around the complex. After the Blair-Thing was killed, with Garry and Nauls killed off prior, MacReady found Childs with both thinking that the other got assimilated before seeing no point in distrusting each other as they would die of frost within hours.

In Video Games

In the 2002 videogame " The Thing ", which serves as a sequel for the 1982 film and set 3 months after the events of the film, it is revealed that The Thing is still alive and waiting for more victims to absorb and kill. This time, there are more numerous manifestations of this alien lifeform at once and worse, everything becomes more complicated as most of them have been captured as a means of being repurposed into bioweapons by Gen Inc. Things went wrong, however, following their escape: Whitley, the mastermind behind the experiment to modify The Thing into bioweapons, has injected himself with Cloud virus, a viral agent based on the Thing's cells with which he plans to infect the whole planet. Fortunately, Blake (the protagonist of the game) foils his plan and destroys him with the help of MacReady, the sole survivor of the 1982 film, before he has a chance to infect the rescue team.

In the videogame, The Thing was regarded more like a viral organism that has the ability to replicate the original biological entity, including their clothing. This is likely due to the fact that in said game, The Thing had further developed its ability which intrigued Gen Inc. enough to begin experimenting on it.

Variants In-Game Scuttlers

A form of Thing that has assimilated and formed from mutilated body parts (often from those whom are already assimilated by the Thing's cells). These autonomous small Things' primary transformation involves manifesting teeth, arachnid-like limbs, and also a pair of strong hind legs that enable them to leap toward the non-assimilated lifeforms. Aside from leaping, they could either attack by biting or spitting digestive fluid as a projectile. They could be crippled easily with a few shots from guns before being finished by a single blast from a flamethrower. They were inspired by a mutated form of Norris's head after he was mutated by the Thing's cells.

Scuttler Pods

A form of Thing that is basically a fleshy, blob-like biomass that is immobile but dangerous due to manifesting Scuttlers as means of defense. Their prime weakness is the inability of moving combined with having no alternate means of defense. They can be destroyed by blasts from flamethrowers and a variety of firearms.

Walkers

Form of Thing that manifests as a humanoid monster with a deformed torso, deformed claw hands, and insectoid legs that were formerly humanoid ones. Their early forms were brutish, muscular monsters with a huge, transparent hole in their torso.

Imitations

Imitations are a form of Thing that was previously introduced in the films. They perfectly assumed their victim's appearance and were able to transform to their mutated form when their potential victims lowered their guard. For the game incarnations, they tend to retain some elements of their hosts' appearance like clothes that are still intact though their limbs are a in mutated state, similar to the mutated Palmer in the 1982 film.

Dog Beasts

Thing beast that is similar to the mutated form of Lar's dog as both formerly had assimilated dogs. Unlike the latter, Dog Beasts still retain their limbs (though said bodyparts also mutated to the point where they could support their weight as well as enable them to run at tremendous speed).

Ruptures

They are a form of huge Thing that takes up an entire room or even be part of the room integrated into the architecture. Typically, they have human forms embedded in them and attack with tentacles, teeth and fluids. They are immobile and confined to the location in which they are met, which made them vulnerable due to the inability of avoiding their enemies' attacks.

History

Discovery (2011 Film)

In a deleted scene of the 2011's The Thing prequel, it was to be hinted that the crashed UFO'S original aliens (the Pilots), first discovered the Thing whilst on a planet zoological expedition, and stored it for examination. Eventually the Thing manages to escape and attacks them one by one. In an attempt to destroy the Thing, the surviving alien pilot tries to crash the space ship into earth, but is then later killed and assimilated by the thing. The thing manages to survive the crash and escapes the space craft, only to end up freezing due to the frozen climate.

The Original Thing is first encountered by the Norwegian crew at Thule Station during the winter of 1982 when they discovered the frozen corpse of a creature that seemed to have briefly survived the crash of what appeared to be an extraterrestrial space vessel 100,000 years ago.

After the creature was transported back to base in a block of ice, Dr. Sander Halvorson ordered them to retrieve a tissue sample, against Kate's protests. Later, while the others celebrated, the helicopter co-pilot Derek witnessed the creature burst free from the block of ice. The team split up into groups to search for the alien. Olav and Henrik discovered it hiding under one of the buildings. The Thing grabbed Henrik and pulled him into its body. The others converge on the scene and set the creature on fire. In the chaotic aftermath, the lone dog of the team was found dead in a bloody heap in its kennel, a massive hole torn in the wire mesh.

During an autopsy, Kate and Adam discovered that the cells of the Thing appeared to be absorbing and imitating Henrik's cells. Meanwhile, Derek, pilot Sam Carter, Griggs, and Olav prepared to leave the base in the only helicopter to bring back help. Just as they prepared to take off, Kate discovered bloody, discarded metal tooth fillings and large amounts of blood in the showers. She ran outside to flag down the departing helicopter, fearing the Thing may have imitated someone on board. When Carter decided to land, Griggs transformed and killed Olav, causing the helicopter to spin wildly out of control and crash in the mountains, presumably killing all onboard.

In the rec room, Kate told the rest of the crew her theory on the nature of the creature: It is perfectly capable of imitating any life form and that it may have done so with members of their camp, but cannot imitate inorganic material much as metal, hence why it spit out the tooth fillings. Most of the team members either did not believe her or accused her of turning them against each other out of paranoia. After everyone else lefts, Juliette told Kate that she believed her and that she saw Colin leave the shower holding a towel. Juliette told Kate that she knew where they kept the vehicle keys, and that they could take them to prevent anyone else from leaving; however, when the two went to retrieve them, Juliette transformed and attempted to kill Kate. Kate escaped, running past Karl, who was killed by the Juliette-Thing. Lars arrived with a flamethrower and burned the Thing as it was assimilating Karl.

As they burned the remains outside, Carter and Derek returned, both half-frozen and barely alive. While some of the team believed they were Things and should be burned, Kate convinced them to simply lock them up until a test could be prepared. Adam and Sander were in the lab preparing a potential test, but when both left for a short while, the lab was engulfed in flames in an apparent sabotage. Tensions rose as accusations by both the Norwegians and the Americans were made, but Kate proposed another, much simpler test to single out those who might be the Thing from those who definitely aren't. She used a flashlight to inspect the teeth of all the other team members to see who had visible fillings and who didn't. This test singled out Adam, Sander, station commander Edvard, and Colin as possible Things. Peder sent Lars and Jonas out to bring back Carter and Derek, but they had tunneled under the floor of the storage shed and into a neighboring building. While Lars leaned in the doorway of the other building, they grabbed him and pulled him inside. Jonas ran back and pleaded with Peder to help him rescue Lars, but Kate ordered him to guard the prisoners.

During the argument, Carter and Derek forced their way inside, armed with Lars' flamethrower. Edvard pushed Peder to burn both of them, assuming that they had killed Lars. When Peder took aim, Derek shot him, puncturing his flamethrower's tank and causing an explosion that killed Peder if the bullets hadn't and knocked Edvard unconscious. While Edvard was being carried back to the rec room, he transformed into the Thing, killing Jonas and Derek and assimilating Adam while Sander and Colin fled. Carter and Kate headed off to hunt it down. The Thing, which was now in the form of a creature with the faces of both Edvard and Adam, found and killed Sander. The monster managed to separate Carter from Kate and trapped him in the kitchen. Just as it was about to kill him, Kate arrived and torched the monster.

Kate and Carter saw the Sander-Thing driving off in one of the Snowcats and gave chase in the remaining vehicle. They followed it out to the wreck of its ship, which had been opened up and restarted, slowly preparing to take off. Kate and Carter were separated once again and Kate encountered the Thing. She barely managed to stay out of its reach, and when it finally caught her, she destroyed it by throwing a thermal grenade into one of its mouths while Carter arrived and distracted it with a flamethrower. She and Carter escaped and made it back to the Snowcat. As they prepared to leave, Kate noticed that Carter was missing his left ear piercing and determined that he was a Thing. Despite his protests, she burned him and destroyed the Snowcat. Kate slowly climbed into the remaining Snowcat and stared blankly into the night.

The next morning, a Norwegian helicopter pilot, Matias, arrived at the Norwegian camp and found the facility burned and deserted, as well as the charred remains of the two-faced Thing. Colin had gone into the radio room and committed suicide by slitting his wrists and throat prior to Matias' arrival. Lars, who had survived hiding in the building where Derek and Carter attacked him, shot at Matias but recognized that he was human after checking his fillings. At that moment, the Thing in the form of Lars' Alaskan Malamute bolted out of a ruined building and ran away. Lars fired at it, then ordered Matias to take off in pursuit.

Escape (1982 Film)

The American Antarctic research station, U.S. Outpost 31 was alerted by the gunfire and explosions caused by the Lars' attempts to kill the Thing. The Alaskan Malamute made its way into the camp as the science station's crew looked on in confusion. Through reckless use of an incendiary grenade, the helicopter was destroyed and Matias was killed in the explosion. Lars fired at the dog with his rifle, grazing Bennings, one of the American researchers.

Lars was subsequently shot and killed by Garry, the station commander. Not knowing what to make of the incident, the station crew adopted the dog. Unable to contact the outside world via radio, helicopter pilot R.J. MacReady and Dr. Copper risked a flight to the Norwegian camp only to find it destroyed, its personnel missing or dead. Finding evidence that the Norwegians had dug something out of the ice, the pair returned to the station with the partially-burned remains of a hideous creature which bore some human features. An autopsy of the cadaver by Dr. Blair was inconclusive, save to find that the creature had what appeared to be a normal set of internal organs.

At Bennings' request, the station's wrangler, Clark, kenneled the stray with the rest of the station's sled dogs. Noises from the kennel caused Clark to return, finding almost the entire sled team in the process of being messily assimilated by the stray dog, which had transformed into a monster. MacReady summoned the rest of the crew to the kennel with the fire alarm. MacReady fired several shotgun shells into the creature to no avail. He soon after ordered Childs to incinerate the creature with a flamethrower. A subsequent autopsy by Blair revealed that the stray dog was an alien capable of absorbing and perfectly imitating other life-forms. Realizing the implications of this, Blair quickly became withdrawn and suspicious of the rest of the crew.

A second helicopter expedition discovered the alien spacecraft unearthed by the Norwegian research team, revealing that the creature had awakened after being buried within the ice for many thousands of years. Bennings and Windows quarantined the burnt remains of both the dog-creature and the Norwegian cadaver in the storage room, but in the process Bennings was left alone. Moments later, Windows discovered Bennings in the process of being replicated. The crew burned the Bennings replica before its transformation was complete. Determining that all life on Earth would be assimilated in just over three years if the creature were to reach another continent, Blair went berserk, destroying the helicopter and radio equipment and killing the remaining sled dogs, thus containing further contamination. The team overpowered him and confined him in the tool shed. With all contact to the outside world cut off, the crew wondered how to determine who was still human. Paranoia quickly set in as the first attempt to develop a test using uncontaminated blood samples stored in a refrigerator was foiled as the blood samples have been destroyed by an unknown saboteur.

Fuchs, attempting to continue Blair's research, went missing shortly afterwards during a power failure. While searching for Fuchs' body, MacReady came under suspicion and was locked outside in a severe blizzard. Somehow finding his way back to camp without a guide line, MacReady broke into a storage room and threatened the rest of the crew with dynamite. In the course of the standoff, Norris suffered a heart attack. When Dr. Copper attempted to revive him with a defibrillator, Norris' body transformed and killed Copper. Norris' head detached from his body, sprouted legs and attempted to escape as the others burned the rest of the body, leading MacReady to theorize that every piece of the alien was an individual animal with its own survival instinct. In an altercation that preceded a test proposed by MacReady, Clark tried to stab MacReady with a scalpel, causing MacReady to shoot and kill him in self-defense.

The rest of the crew complied with the test; blood samples were drawn from each member of the team and jabbed with a hot wire to see whose blood would react defensively. Palmer, the backup pilot, was soon unmasked as an imitation, and managed to kill Windows before being set alight and blown up with dynamite by MacReady. MacReady then torched Windows' body with a flamethrower as it began to transform. Confirming that MacReady, Childs, Garry, and Nauls were still human, the surviving crew set out to administer the test to Blair, only to find that he had escaped. After they discovered that Blair had been constructing a small flying craft of alien design underneath the tool shed and witnessed Childs inexplicably abandoning his post at the main gate, the facility lost power. Realizing that the creature now wants to freeze again so a future rescue team will find it, the remaining crew acknowledged that they would not survive and set about destroying the facility with dynamite and Molotov cocktails in hopes of killing the creature. While setting explosives in the underground generator room, Garry was killed by the infected Blair. Nauls followed the sounds of the creature and was never seen again.

Alone, MacReady prepared to detonate the charges when the creature, larger then ever, emerged from beneath the floor. MacReady killed it with a stick of dynamite, which set off the rest of the charges and destroyed the entire facility. MacReady then wandered alone in the flaming rubble. He encountered Childs, who claimed to have seen Blair and gotten lost while chasing him in the storm. With the polar climate closing in around them, they acknowledged the futility of their distrust, sharing a drink as the camp burned.

Aftermath (2002 Video Game)

A U.S. army helicopter arrived at the destroyed remnants of U.S. Outpost 31 with Bravo Team three months after the destruction of the outpost. Bravo Team consisted of Blake, North, Burrows, and Weldon. The team explored the outpost and stumbled upon R.J. MacReady's Tapes. Soon after that, the team discovered the craft that the Blair-Thing was attempting to build as well. They stubbled into the infirmary and found the remains of a person. Blake found the documents that Blair wrote about the Thing and eventually found the frozen remains of Childs. The team rigged the remains of the outpost with C4 charges and left the outpost via helicopter. After losing contact with Alpha Team, who were assigned to investigate the nearby Norwegian Outpost, Blake insisted on being dropped off there to assist Alpha Team and help survivors, as he was the only one that could speak Norwegian.

He arrived at the ruins of the outpost and met up with Carter and Cruz, he also faced Thing Beasts along the way. He then encountered Pierce who was paranoid at the time, Pierce ordered Blake to collect blood test kits to discover whether he was human or an imitation, Blake's test proved that he was human, but the test on the others proved that they were imitations, Blake and Pierce killed the imitations and proceeded to the next facility. Blake lost Pierce in the snow, and then met up with Pace, who was throwing grenades at him, and Williams, who was in the mess hall. Blake and the others secured themselves in an abandoned post where they were ambushed by the Thing beasts. After fending them off, he spotted the Radio Man that had attacked Pace and Williams earlier, but the Norwegian locked himself in the warehouse. Blake eventually reunited with Pierce who committed suicide shortly afterward. Blake found the Radio Man, however he was already mutating into a Thing Beast and Blake was forced to kill it. Blake then rescued Faraday, a researcher working for Gen Inc that was researching the Thing and its use as a bio-weapon. Blake and his group were ambushed by military soldiers that were under the command of Whitley who revealed that he was behind the research project on the Thing. Its purpose was to create a bio weapon called the Cloud virus. Blake tried to subdue Whitley but was sedated and brought to the research facility.

Faraday studied Blake's DNA and concluded that he seemed to have some sort of immunity to the Thing after such a long period of exposure. Whitley demanded that Faraday use him as a test subject of the Cloud virus, but he refused as both Whitley's physical and mental conditions were not suitable for a test subject. Whitley killed Faraday and took a Cloud virus sample with him. Blake woke up in the now overrun research facility and fought his way through both the Thing Beasts and Whitley's troops. He escaped the facility before it was destroyed by the time bomb that was likely set by Whitley. Blake then preceeded into Whitley's Transit Hangar and later discovered that Whitley intends to fly the Thing out of Antarctica, Blake then destroyed Whitley's cargo planes in the airstrip in order to prevent him from flying the Thing anywhere. Blake then went into Gen Inc's underground weapon laboratory, however the laboratory was set to self destruct. Luckily, Blake managed to reach the surface via elevator and chased Whitley through the test field and fought his way through Whitley's elite soldiers. Blake cornered Whitley and shot a couple of fuel barrels near him but the explosions didn't harm him as he had already injected himself with the B4 strain of the Cloud virus, he then revealed that a rescue team was on its way to save him and he intended to infect the entire world with the Thing, he then fled as Blake continued to pursue him. Blake headed to the heliport a recently arrived helicopter, Blake requested help from the helicopter pilot who agreed to help him in confronting the now mutated Whitley. Blake managed to kill the creature and their helicopter escaped the Antarctic. He asked the pilot for his name, who revealed himself to be R.J. MacReady.

When I was finished everyone that hadn't heard about The Thing gasped in shock and horror!

Ami: Oh man! That's terrible!

Yumi: No kidding! That's awful!

Sena: No kidding! That is terrible.

Galaxy: Whoa man!

Me: Yeah. It was a nightmare that will forever be with Kate and everyone it came into contact with.

Blobgoblin: Look, I may look similar to the Thing. But I'm not like that hideous monster! Plus, he's too gross even for me!

Me: Yeah that's a relief. The Thing was made of Blood, Guts and Gore and it was really a monster made of 10,000,000+ Lifeforms all formed into one. But that whole ordeal forever scarred Kate bad. And not just her but everyone in Outpost 31.

Blobgoblin: Boy I can't even begin to imagine the kind of horror that Kate went through during that time.

Applejack: It was a horrible sight and a terrible fright.

Me: And we made sure that nothing of that gruesome horror was left. Otherwise people would use that monstrosity as a weapon for Biological Warfare.

Yumi: Whoa.

Kaz: And where did it terrorize people?

Me: Down in Antarctica. It was horrifying. Kate I know you're scared but you can face your fears.

Kate Lloyd: Okay.

Me: I do but I never played it. I heard it's awesome.

Blobgoblin: Yep. Kate can use that sword.

Me: Sweet.

I measured the sword and it was 6 feet long.

Me: Wow a six foot long sword.

I teleported and gave the sword to Kate.

Kate: This sword is for me?

Me: It's a sword from Monster Hunter, Kate. I know you scared after everything that happened because of the Thing. But you can use this sword to destroy monsters like the Thing forever.

Kate took the sword.

Kate: Thanks J.D.

Me: You're welcome. Lets get him!

Blobgoblin: I understand.

She blasted him all over with numerous dragons of pure water and they smashed him all over with the devastating force of a thousand pile drivers and they brutally smashed him into the ground. She then smashed him all over with incredible fury as she pulverized him into the ground with incredible merciless fury! She then kicked him into the air and teleported and smashed him with a powerful punch that slammed him into the ground. Girl Jordan then fired a massive volley of water dragons and energy blasts at him and smashed him all over into the ground with incredible fury and power! Ami: Thanks so much for helping us!

Radioactive Man: It was our pleasure.

Girder: Now, what should we do with these drumsticks?

Key: We should make sure no one else gets their hands on them.

Grim: (Jamaican Accent) They will be going into my trunk.

Me: Good thinking and Billy don't you dare get them out of his trunk.

Mandy: Or else!

Muscle Man: Hey, Yumi. You know who else loves you and Ami's songs? My Mom!

We laughed at his joke.

Yumi: I'm glad she does.

Yumi: Oh. I don't get it. But thanks for the compliment.

Ami: It was so awesome helping you all.

Me: We all had a lot of fun.

Yumi: (To the Viewers) Don't pick up supernatural sticks from an unknown source.

Ami: (To the Viewers) Especially if they are those of an evil drummer like Crazy Styxx.

Me: Yeah good advice. Lets head home.

We were back on Earth and we went to Lynn's Table for dinner and then we got ready for bed.

THE END

---

Another awesome adventure complete.

Hi Hi Puffy AmiYumi was a great show! It was based on the famous Japanese Pop Star duo Puffy AmiYumi with Ami Onuki and Yumi Yoshimura and they are so awesome! They did the intro themes for Teen Titans and many shows and did so much around the world and more. Also this is the first chapter of Etstheclarencefan's week of ideas. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Etstheclarencefan, Nflemingful, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Drako1234658 and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is number 2 of Ets's ideas and it's the second of the Kipo And The Age Of The Wonderbeasts Series and we're gonna go after Dr. Emilia and we're going to make that heartless witch pay for her crimes against the world of Mutes and Humans in General. She will rue the day she crossed us. Also the next girl for Daily Life With A Monster Girl is Sala the Salamander, the Fire Elementals from Alchemical Myth and we're going to save her from The Great Furnace in the World of Magic The Gathering.

See you all tomorrow.

The Genocidal Mute Destroyer

In the World of Magic The Gathering, me and Cammy were flying over the mountains and we were at a place called the Great Furnace and it was a huge place.

Me: Wow! So this is the Great Furnace.

Cammy: It sure looks big.

Me: Yeah McWolf picked a really hot place.

Cammy: Time to see how you're getting for your harem this time!

Cammy concentrated and groaned as her muscles increased.

Me: YEAH!

Cammy turned into her Whale Shark Gene-Slammer Form!

We went into the Great Furnace and it was a pumping and hot place.

Me: Wow it sure is hot in here.

Cammy: Yeah it sure is. I like it.

Me: It sure looks like a perfect place for me and a bunch of fire power users.

Cammy: Yeah.

I looked at the card for the Great Furnace.

Me: "Kuldotha, wellspring of molten metal, temple of the goblin horde."

Cammy: Whoa that sounds ominous.

Me: Yeah.

We went into a room and we saw a girl that was on fire and locked in a cage.

Me: Wow she's a Salamander, the Fire Elementals of Alchemical Myth.

Cammy: Wow. So like Dina, she governs fire.

Me: Yep. Dina is a Water Elemental called an Undine.

McWolf came out.

McWolf: Pretty hot place huh?

Me: No kidding. It's a furnace. I should be sweating like a pig in here.

McWolf: I'm already sweating. Lets get it on.

McWolf threw anvils at us and we dodged them.

Cammy: (Echoing) SEISMIC SLAM!

KRASMASH!

She smashed the ground with a powerful punch and knocked McWolf down and we tickled him all over. He was laughing hysterically.

We went over to the cage and opened it.

Sala: Oh thanks. Cramped in there. Wow! You're J.D. Knudson, Leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Me: That's right. And you are?

Sala: My name is Sala and yes I am a Salamander, the Fire Elementals from Alchemy.

Me: Pleasure to meet you.

Cammy: I'm Cammy Bolton of the Bolton Siblings. I'm also half whale shark in this form. Long story.

Sala: Pleasure to meet you. Thank you all for saving me. I heard you all are saving Miia and my friends.

Me: You heard right.

Cammy: I'm gonna revert back now.

Me: Okay.

I put on my blind man glasses and Cammy reverted back.

Cammy was human again but topless.

Cammy: (covers her boobs and laughs) No offense, Sala. But I think I might be hotter then you right now!

Sala: (Laughs) That's funny but none taken.

I gave Cammy a shirt.

Cammy: Thanks J.D.

She put it on.

Sala: That must happen a lot to you all.

Me: You have no idea. Lets head back home.

We went back to the World Tree Estate.

---

Back at the World Tree Estate, everyone was playing board games and playing video games on TV.

Nicole was playing Super Smash Bros with Eli, Lincoln and Lily.

Lily: You're going down bro.

Lincoln: Not this time.

Nicole: We'll see about that.

Eli: You and what army.

Nicole beat all three of them.

Eli: Aw man!

Lily: The Goddess of Video Gaming wins again.

Lincoln: Yep.

Me, Cammy and Sala came in and Cammy went to the gym to train.

Sala: Wow! So this is where you live.

Me: Yep.

Nico: Wow she's a Salamander, the Fire Elementals from Alchemical Myth.

Me: Yep.

Miia: Sala!

Sala: Miia!

They hugged.

Sala: It's awesome being part of the team.

Miia: I was just about to say the same thing.

---

Later we were over on Neptune's Largest Moon, Triton at 2.8 billion miles away from Earth and I was showing everyone an awesome new prison we just built.

Flame Man: Are we installing something in this prison?

Me: Yes we are. Here on Neptune's Largest Moon, Triton we have just installed our newest prison. It's the Triton Cryo Prison.

Nico: Cool a Cryo Prison.

Eli: This is gonna be interesting.

Ets: Like in the movie Demolition Man.

Me: Yep.

Sala: This is gonna be interesting to see.

Laney: I've always wondered how a Cryo-Prison works ever since the one in Los Angeles was destroyed.

Me: You're in for a real treat guys.

Mimi Tasogare: So, what made you guys decide to install this prison?

Me: Just an idea. After the Cryo-Prison in Los Angeles was shut down and I rescued my sister Elaine from it and killed Simon Phoenix, I thought why not reopen a Cryo-Prison but on a place that people would never expect. So I opened a Cryo Prison here on Neptune's largest moon, Triton.

Nico: Wow that's cool.

Twilight Sparkle: Boy it sure is.

Sunset Shimmer: This is amazing.

We went into the freezing room and we were greeted by a man in a fur parka and he had brown hair.

James Smithers: Welcome everyone. Glad to have you here boss.

Me: Same here. Everyone this is the Cryo-Prison Warden, James Smithers. He looks up to me like a mentor and he is also the man in charge of the facility.

James Smithers: It's an honor.

Nico: Same here.

Me: Everyone would you like to see a demonstration of how we freeze the criminals here?

Fluttershy: That would be interesting.

Rarity: Indeed it would.

Sala: Yeah!

Me: All right! Lets do it!

James Smithers: You got it boss.

Bomb Burst: How are we gonna find a criminal to lock up in here?

Me: He'll be coming in right now.

They brought a very nasty man in and he had red hair and a nasty scar over his left eye and he had scars all over.

Me: This is the man we're going to demonstrate the freezing process on. His name is Ronald Mason Schwarz. He's also known as Ron the Nihilistic. He was sentenced to spend eternity here in the Cryo-Prison for a huge number of crimes.

Starlight Glimmer: What did he do?

Me: You wouldn't believe it Starlight. Ron committed 70 murders, 500 rapes and sadomasochistic acts of torture, burned down 293,000 buildings, blew up numerous houses and government buildings and so on.

Everyone gasped in shock!

Nico: WHOA! This guy is a monster!

Eli: He's lucky we didn't banish him to the Warp.

Me: I know.

Eli: Yeah.

James Smithers: Ron the Nihilistic, you've been sentenced to Eternal subzero rehabilitation for the crimes you have committed. You will be placed in Cryostasis for the duration of your sentence. During which your behavior will be altered through synaptic suggestion.

Me: Eternity means he will be here till the end of time.

Nico: Whoa.

Me: You should consider yourself lucky that we're sparing you death.

Ronald Schwarz: There's no way I'm being frozen.

Broadside: Would you rather go to the Warp instead?

Ronald Schwarz: (gets frightened) No. Being frozen is fine.

Me: Good. Now here's how we do it. First we put these probes on his head and chest to not only monitor his brain activity but also his heart. They are also going to essentially be reprogrammed while they are frozen. It's called Synaptic Suggestion.

Lisa Loud: Very ingenious.

Me: Now comes the fun part.

We put him in a tank and he was naked and the tank hatch closed and he ducked as it closed completely and then Smithers put a tube on the tank and cryogenic fluid poured into the tank and filled it up.

Me: We fill up the tank with special cryofluid. And here's the cool part.

I went over to a cabinet and pulled out a rod and it had a blue ball in it.

Me: This rod is gonna freeze him. This little blue ball right here is a ball of pure absolute zero. It has a temperature of -459.67˚ Fahrenheit.

Laney: Wow!

Cozy Glow: That's cold.

I put the rod into a slot on the tank and the rod let the blue ball go and it flowed down into the tank and then in a flash of blue light it froze the water in the tank solid and froze Ron in a block of ice.

Me: There it is. He's frozen solid in ice forever.

Nico: Wow! That is cold.

Eli: It sure is.

Me: It flash froze him at 1˚ Kelvin or -457.87˚Fahrenheit. This bastard is not gonna be getting out of that ice block anytime soon.

Nico: Wow.

The block of ice with him in it came out and it was put on the floor. I picked it up and brought it over.

Eli tapped it and the ice was cold and solid as a rock.

Eli: Wow that is REALLY cold.

Ets: No kidding.

Me: Yep. He's now frozen in time forever. You think that's cool, wait till you see where we put people like him.

We put him on a crane and we took him to a freezer.

At the door to the freezer there were several fur parkas.

Me: Better put these on just in case. It's really cold in here.

Everyone did so and we went in and I turned on a light and it was a huge freezer full of criminals frozen in ice.

Me: This is where we keep the worst ever criminals that were sentenced to Eternity in cryostasis.

Ets: It's like a freezer in here.

Nico: Wow! It's really cold in here.

Me: It's -100˚ Fahrenheit in here.

Nico: Whoa! No wonder no one goes in here. It's Lake Vostok Temperatures in here.

Me: Yep. It's so cold that you wouldn't last over 15 minutes in here.

Eli: Good thing we can live in temperatures like this.

Me: Yep. You would freeze to death in here in minutes.

Sala: Wow that's cold.

Rei: No kidding.

We went out of the room and it was cold.

Nico: Wow. Mr. Freeze would love a room like that if he wasn't cured.

Me: He sure would.

We later went back home to Earth.

---

Later back on Earth we were watching Cartoons.

Breach: What do you guys say we go back to Kipo's world?

Me: Good idea. I have a feeling that there are more enemies that we missed.

Nico: Also I'm worried about her. I hope she's okay.

Ets: I have a feeling that she is dealing with that monster Dr. Emilia.

Me: Who is she?

Ets: I'll tell you about her when we find Kipo.

Me: Okay.

Key, Trap Jaw, Number 7, INSTIGATOR, Speed Demon, Titanium Man, Radioactive Man, and Girder then appeared.

Key: Can me, Trap Jaw, Number 7, INSTIGATOR, Speed Demon, Titanium Man, Radioactive Man, and Girder go with you guys?

Me: You all sure can. We're heading over to Kipo's world to help her out.

Radioactive Man: I wonder if she'll need help taking one of her enemies down.

Ets: That's what we are gonna do.

Sala: And we'll be ready.

Me: Lets go.

Eric and Sarah Sharp then came.

Eric Sharp: (Weakly) Wait guys. We want to go too.

Me: Eric, Sarah, you're still too weak from being separated from the Aparoids.

Nico: Yeah you still need rest to get back up to your strength.

Sarah Sharp: I know Nico. But we want to see Sam fight and see how far she has come.

Me: Well if that's what you want.

We went through a portal to Kipo's world.

---

EARTH - POST GREAT MUTE OUTBREAK - 23RD CENTURY.

---

We arrived in the world of Kipo in the 23rd Century.

Number 7: We haven't been here for a while.

Me: No we sure haven't.

Eli: My goodness what happened here?

Me: It was because of an apocalyptic event called the Great Mute Outbreak.

Emma (ELGVTWD): As long as the world is not infested with zombies.

Me: No there are no zombies here.

Nico: But there are many kinds of monsters.

Applejack: Man this is terrible. Where is everyone?

Me: All the surviving humans are all underground. Lets go find Kipo.

We walked around the place and it was scary and creepy.

Rainbow Dash: Man this is creepy.

Me: Yeah it was creepy when we first came here. Hard to imagine that the world Kipo grew up in can turn into this in just over 200 years.

Fluttershy: What year is this world set in?

Me: It said sometime in the 23rd Century. 200 years from our time.

Nico: Yeah we were shocked that the world became like this.

Eli: Boy no kidding.

Ets: I was shocked too myself. I've been here before too.

Me: Wow! So that must mean that Kipo and her friends know you too Ets.

Ets: Yep. And I helped them take down one of her most dangerous enemies: Kwat of The Mod Frogs.

Me: I think I remember seeing her when we killed Mrs. Sartori.

Ets: Wow! You guys did me a huge favor.

Me: What can you tell us about Kwat?

Ets: You would not like her.

He went over her history.

---

Kwat, along with Harris accompany Jamack when he realizes that Kipo is from a burrow. A chase soon ensues and Kwat along with Harris and Jamack track Kipo and Wolf to a nearby abandoned house where they end up being just outside the room the duo are hiding in.

Explosion Berries

Kwat, Harris, and Jamack look for the duo but can't seem to find them, (mostly because Jamack insists on checking the same closet 7 times). They get close, only for Benson to walk in the door and convince them that he has Explosion Berries. The frogs all run out of the door in a hurry. Kwat reappears later in the episode when Wolf and Kipo are chasing Benson and Dave. The Mod Frogs capture Benson and Dave, but Wolf and Kipo run onto a Mega Turtle, which brings them away from the Frogs. While they are going back to the frog base, Wolf and Kipo intercept them, and get captured. They turn them in the Mrs. Satori, but Kipo grabbed some fur from a Mega Bunny nest. The Mega Bunny mother shows up and destroys the Mod Frogs territory.

Mute-Eat-Mute World

She and Harris battle with Jamack in the sky on dragonflies during the time he had Kipo and was taking her to Scarlemagne. Later, She along with Harris, Mrs. Sartori and several other mute faction corner Kipo and her friends. However, Jamack arrives and is able to distract them long enough to attach Mega Bunny fur to several of them. The Mega Bunny comes bursting out of the ground which sends nearly all the mutes flying into the air.

All That Glitters

Kwat, Harris and Mrs. Sartori fight with Kipo for destroying their home but they are defeated. As punishment, Scarlemagne had them executed by encasing all three of them in molten gold.

---

When he was done we were shocked and amazed.

Me: Wow!

Ets: Yep and I keep the gold statue of Kwat and Harris in my room.

Me: Nice.

Eli: Good trophy.

Nico: The Mod Frogs are no more.

Drill Man: I hope Kipo's okay.

Eli: I hope so too.

Me: Kipo is a strong girl and she is not the kind of girl to go down easily.

Ets: Yeah she is.

Sala: But we'll find her.

Eli: I sense something.

Me: What is it?

Eli: It's Kipo. The Force is telling me that she's that way! (Points to the Northwest)

Me: Lets go.

We ran and flew fast.

Leslie: I wonder if Kipo changed since the last time we saw her.

Me: I'm sure she has. She has probably gotten stronger with everything we taught her over the last year.

Nico: Yeah.

Éclair: I can't believe that the world changed so terribly this way.

Me: Yeah we were shocked ourselves.

Applejack: Were we with y'all when we went here last?

Me: I think so but I can't remember.

Nico: No you all weren't with us when we were here the first time Applejack.

Me: Right I remember. That was before when the War With the Royal Defenders broke out.

R.D. Me: That's right.

Titanium Man: There she is!

We saw her fighting some of Dr. Emilia's men.

Me: Lets get them!

We unsheathed our swords.

Sam S.L.: Leave this to me!

Sam flew at them and slashed the men with one powerful lava slash and incinerated them in an instant!

Kipo: Sam!

Sam S.L.: Been a while Kipo.

They hugged.

Kipo: Yeah it has.

Me: Long time no see Kipo.

Kipo: It's awesome having you all here and thank goodness you all came.

Me: Glad we could come and help out.

Nebula: How've you been, Kipo?

Kipo: Not good. Dr. Emilia is sending her men after me to capture me to use as a weapon to kill all the mutes.

We gasped.

Me: Ets, What can you tell about Emilia?

Ets: Right she is the leader of a resistence movement that is designed to kill all the Mutes.

He went over her history and it wasn't good!

---

Dr. Emilia is the main antagonist of the 2020 Netflix original series Kipo and the Age of Wonderbeasts. She is a manipulative and remorseless scientist who wants to end the Mutes' existence. She is the unseen overarching antagonist of the first season, the secondary antagonist of the second season, and the main antagonist of the third and final season.

She was voiced by Amy Landecker.

Biography

She and her brother, Liam, were residents of the DNA Burrow. Both of them were constantly pushed by their strict father to succeed in their work to reclaim the world from the Mutes. After they ventured to acquire some Mute DNA for experiments, Liam met Brad and Amy, two mute rats. Liam began to have second thoughts and Emilia killed him in order to prevent him from spreading his ideals about the Mutes. When she returned home, Emilia lied to residents, claiming that Liam was killed by mutes and not herself.

Emilia and among other scientists kept working on to finding a "cure" to the mute mutagen, so they could turn all of them back into animals. Emilia tasked Lio and Song Oak to isolating the mutagen. The two scientists succeeded when they turned a mandrill named

Hugo into an intelligent Mute but keep it a secret from Emilia when they realized the consequences if their breakthrough were to become known. However, Emilia found out and later discovered that Hugo possessed mind-controlling pheromones when he splashed some on a another scientist in self-defense. Emilia then imprisoned Hugo, forcing him to run on a treadmill to harvest his pheromones and used them as a leverage to force Lio and Song to further their research in developing a mute "cure". After Lio and Song had a baby named it Kipo, Emilia confronts the couple about infusing Kipo's DNA with mute jaguar DNA. She attempted to kill Kipo but failed after Lio manage to escape with his infant daughter while Song stayed and transformed into a six-armed, giant mega monkey. Emilia used her supply of pheromones that she harvested from Hugo to take control of Song and used her as a weapon.

Emilia spent years tracking down Kipo while trying to find a solution to turn all mutes back into their original selves and restore the human race. She leads a group of human followers to help her with her goals. She manages to find Kipo and convince her to come back with her to her headquarters and plans to use her to defeat Hugo, now called Scarlemagne and kill her. After Kipo and her friends find out Emilia's true nature, they blow up a nectar bomb to trap and Emilia's followers in a tunnel from reached to Scarlemagne's coronation. Emilia engages in battle with Dave, Benson, and Mandu and waited for Kipo who she helped the humans under Scarlemagne's control. Emilia convinces the human group to follow her to archive her goal of revert all of the Mutes back to their original selves.

For months, Kipo and her friends search for Emilia and eventually realize that she and her followers had been hiding on a cruise ship. Kipo tries to band all humans and mutes together to stop Emilia. However, due to the distrust in the mute community, Emilia makes things worst by kidnapping Mutes and manipulating the other humans into believe everything she says and helping her attack the mutes. Emilia tries to kill Kipo but Mandu appears and bites Emilia's arm, causing her to fall into the burrow and become imprisoned by a mute fungus named Fun Gus. Kipo (reluctantly) and her friends decide that this would be a fitting punishment for her.

When he was finished we were horrified!

Me: Oh man! She is not reclaiming the world for us. She wants to destroy everything.

Nico: Yeah.

Eli: That is awful!

Ets: Yeah and we're going to make sure she pays for her crimes.

Nico: Yeah.

Kipo: But enough about me. Did you guys take out the Royal Defenders?

Girder: J.D. and the others did. Some of us weren't there at the time.

Me: But we did take them down. But as our adventures progressed we found out some very surprising revelations about them. We found out that they were corrupted and turned evil because of the Chaos Sorcerer, Sindri Myr.

I told her everything and she was shocked.

Kipo: Oh man! That's rough! So they did all that against their wills.

RD Me: In a way yes. After Ben in my universe turned into Alien X and reset the whole universe I was freed and I went to J.D.'s universe to join him and free my friends from Sindri Myr's influence.

Laney: We were shocked when we heard about this.

Applejack: Yeah it was crazy.

Rainbow Dash: We had no idea that they were corrupted like that.

Nico: It was quite a shock.

Kipo: Wow.

Spittor: But the battle in that war still was intense. Dark and Eddy even did a combined blast.

Me: Yeah they sure did and the war was one of the most epic battles we've seen.

Nico: It sure was.

Kipo: Wow. I see you managed to recruit everyone that the Royal Defenders had in your universe.

Me: Yep we sure did. And we had lots of amazing adventures with them.

Everyone that joined us introduced themselves.

Kipo: Oh wow! It's awesome to meet you all.

Twilight Sparkle: Same here Kipo.

Rainbow Dash: It's awesome meeting you.

Kipo: Likewise.

Wolf: Awesome having you all join the team.

Radioactive Man: J.D. and Lincoln have been getting new additions to their harems lately.

Me: We sure have. We got a lot of them too.

Miia: My name is Miia and I'm a Lamia.

Rachnera: I'm Rachnera and I'm an Arachne

Cerea: Name's Cerea and I'm a Centaur.

Nan Que: I'm Nan Que and I'm a Vermillian Bird.

Froze: My name is Froze and I'm a Fenrir.

Miti: My name is Miti and I'm a Yeti.

Mero: I'm Mero and I'm a Mermaid.

Jelli: I'm Jelli and I'm a Slime.

Rosti: I'm Rosti and I'm a Jack Frost.

Papi: I'm Papi and I'm a Harpy.

Fii: I'm Fii and I'm a Phoenix.

Dina: I'm Dina and I'm an Undine.

Riado: I'm Riado and I'm a Dryad.

Eris (DLWAMG): I'm Eris and I'm an Elf.

Rei: I'm Rei and I'm a Ghost.

Sala: My name is Sala and I'm a Salamander.

Kalolo: I'm Kalolo and I'm a Jackalope.

Anura: I'm Anura and I'm a Bullywag.

Lato: I'm Lato and I'm a Dragonewt.

Bima: My name is Bima and I'm a Garuda.

Kipo: Pleasure to meet you all.

Benson (Kipo): Wow! They are smoking hot.

Me: Yeah. They are.

We laughed.

Sword Man: Sala actually joined J.D.'s harem this morning.

Me: Salamanders are the Fire Elementals of Alchemical Myth.

Sala: That's right.

Éclair: And I'm recently part of J.D.'s harem too. It's a long story with me.

Kipo: What happened?

Éclair went over her 400 year history and it was amazing and dark.

Kipo: Oh man. That's rough.

Me: But it was to save her life.

Kipo: Wow.

Trap Jaw: Éclair met us when she landed on the Angry Birds island.

Maria: And she woke up right when we were making battle plans.

Me: But she came out of a pillar of fire. She is also immortal like me.

Kipo: Wow.

Nico: I know we were shocked too.

Sakura Avalon: Yeah.

Muscle Man: Hey Kipo you know who else likes Mutes?

Nico: I know this one.

Muscle Man: MY MOM!

We laughed at his joke.

Kipo: I don't get it.

Me: We don't either but it's funny.

Muscle Man: Hey, Kipo. You know who else is happy to see you again? My mom!

We laughed at his joke.

Me: That's a good one

Kipo: Oh I get it.

Me: But also earlier in January and February in 2021 we went through a horrific ordeal we call the 20 Days of Darkness.

Flurry Heart: You would not like what happened during that time. It was shortly after when my baby sisters were born.

Flurry Heart told her everything that happened from January 23rd to February 11th, 2021 and how it affected Nico and us greatly. When she was done, Kipo was shocked!

Kipo: Oh man! That's terrible!

Me: Yeah it sure was. And it was all because of an Organization that was out to destroy the entire universe. The name of that organization was called Organization XIII and they were out to destroy the entire universe and because of them they brought back a douchebag monster that Nico faced in his past and he made Nico do terrible things against his will.

Nico: Yeah it was awful.

Salem: But I became Nico's Guardian Angel after all that.

Kipo: Wow. That's big.

Me: It was. And I hope we never go through everything like that again.

Kipo: I know you all won't.

Retrax: We should probably get your friends before going after Emilia.

Me: Good idea.

Kipo: I agree. She has gone too far this time and we have to stop her.

Me: Lets head out.

Speed Demon: I'll use my speed to find where she is.

Me: Okay but radio us and don't engage until we get there.

Speed Demon: Right.

ZOOM!

He ran off.

Leanbow: Does Emilia truly believe that by doing these dishonourable things that she's doing us a favour?

Me: Obviously not. From what Kipo has told us about her adventures, Mutes are people too. And Kipo lets not forget is Half Mute herself.

Kipo: That's right.

Éclair: What Emilia is doing is unforgivable.

Sala: Yeah she has no respect for the rights of all creatures.

Nico: I guess living in a Post-Apocalyptic World warped her mind to the brink.

Me: Yep. Lets go.

We went off and found Kipo's friends and Speed Demon found Dr. Emilia in the abandoned city of San Diego.

Dr. Emilia: I don't know who you are but stay out of our way.

Speed Demon: Not a chance bitch. You will pay for your crimes when my friends all get here.

Dr. Emilia: And who are your friends?

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off and blew a huge building apart and a phoenix cry was heard and we landed.

Me: Dr. Emilia, I presume?

Dr. Emilia: The famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

INSTIGATOR: Did you really think you were safe from us? Think again!

Me: Yeah! You are gonna pay for your crimes Emilia. No one is gonna be destroying Mutes on our watch!

Nico: That's right!

Drakkon, Beetle, Griffin, Vulture, Robo Blaze, Whiger, Whiplash, Titanium Titan, Dr. Viktor and Bane then appeared.

Me: Drakkon, Beetle, Griffin, Vulture, Robo Blaze, Whiger, Whiplash, Titanium Titan, Dr. Viktor and Bane.

Bane: (Spanish Accent) Looks like we all arrived in time.

Drakkon: It feels good to be back here!

Robo Blaze: You said it.

Vulture: This is actually my first time here.

Whiger: (glares at Emilia) And as always, there's someone trying to fuck things up!

Nico: And she will pay for her crimes.

Kipo: You will not kill Mutes. They are people too!

Emilia: You don't have a choice. I made the antidote.

Me: (Pulls out the cure) You mean this?

Emilia: How did you get that?

Me: None of your business.

I threw it into the air and fired an energy blast and obliterated it!

Emilia: NO! That was our only hope to being able to take back this planet.

Me: This planet belongs to all of us.

Kipo: And there's no place in it for monsters like you!

Emilia: I've been working my whole life to undo the Great Mutant Outbreak and erase the monsters who stole our world. And now it's all going to be undone by some wide-eyed 13 year-old girl?

Ets: And her friends too.

Me: Yeah! And you are never gonna be part of it Emilia.

A figure then appeared and it was CAMERAN!

Shanan: Cameran. How are you liking Earth as your home?

Cameran: It's a great planet. I have a job as a nature photographer.

Me: That's a great choice of a job.

Shanan: I think it's great that you like Earth. I'm sorry that Queen Beryl destroyed your home planet.

Cameran: That's all right and I joined the Masters of Evil to be Sala's archenemy.

Sala: I'm honored.

?: That's awesome.

A figure came out and it was TAXI CAB MONSTER from episode 7 of Mystic Force!

---

The Taxi Cab Monster is a taxi shape shifting beast and is one of the many creatures of the Underworld. This monster serves Necrolai. He serves as the secondary antagonist of the episode "Fire Heart" (with Necrolai being the main antagonist).

The Taxi Cab monster works for Necrolai. This taxi-like monster first appeared in Briarwood and stole the map to the Fire Heart from a scientist. He then delivered the map to Necrolai in a parking garage, but Nick and Vida showed up to put a stop to them. The Taxi monster then turned into his true monster form and fought the Red and Pink Rangers. But the two Rangers were quickly defeated, and when the others showed up, Necrolai assisted the monster, allowing them both to escape. The Taxi then accompanied Necrolai and some Hidiacs into the Cimmerian Forest in search of the Fire Heart. Once Nick and Vida found the Fire Heart Scroll, Necrolai stole it from them and had the Taxi attack them. The Red Ranger managed to defeat the monster's vehicle form, thanks to the Mystic Speeder. Then together, Nick and Vida defeated and destroyed the Taxi monster with their combine attacks. However, Koragg cast his spell, reviving and enlarging the beast. The Rangers morphed into their Mystic Titan forms and battled the Undead Vehicle. After forcing the Taxi Monster out of his human form with the Mystic Sprite's Ball Attack, this monster was finally destroyed with the Titan Megazord's Mystic Spell Seal.

Nick Russell: Taxi Cab Monster!

Taxi Cab Monster: Been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! You and Necrolai were sent to get the map that will lead to Fire Heart from a scientist.

Taxi Cab Monster: Mistress Vypra was not kidding about your memory J.D.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Sideswipe: (to Taxi Cab Monster) It's amazing how you can use magic and turn into a vehicle.

Taxi Cab Monster: (laughs) I know, right? But you and your fellow Cybertronians have probably used your share of magic since meeting J.D. and the others.

Sideswipe: You got that right.

Me: Yeah we do and they share everything with us.

Sideswipe: But we don't use magic, we Cybertronians use extremely advanced technology.

Taxi Cab Monster: Oh sorry.

Me: Lets get the battles underway.

---

1. J.D. Knudson, Twilight Sparkle, Luster Dawn, Princess Cadance, Star Swirl, Magic Skylanders, Zeo Power Rangers, Breach and Ace VS Lord Drakkon

---

Lord Drakkon was first.

Drakkon: (to me) Kipo's world hasn't changed since the last time we visited it.

Me: Yeah it sure hasn't. But now it's come under fire because of Emilia's genocidal views on Mutes.

Twilight Sparkle: Yeah that's horrible. She wants to annihilate all the Mutes so that Humans can take back the world.

Luster Dawn: That's awful! Mutes are people too! She's no better than Trask.

Princess Cadance: That's a good comparison. She has no love for anyone.

Star Swirl: Yeah that's sick.

Spyro: What she has done makes her a monster.

Star Strike: You got that right.

Tommy Oliver: Yeah no kidding.

Adam Park: She is a monster.

Lord Drakkon: You said it. Lets do it.

Zeo Rangers: IT'S MORPHIN TIME!

Sunburn: They sure are. And what she is doing makes her no better than Trask.

Rainbow Dash: That is a more awesome approach and it is less violent.

Scootaloo: You said it. But what Emilia is doing is downright evil and she will pay for it.

Magma Gloom: You got that right. She is a genocidal scientist.

Whirlwind: She has no honor.

Thunderbolt: No she doesn't.

Vulture: You said it. Who is this with Marinette and Joan?

Pinkie Pie: Yeah those dirtbags are monsters!

Emilia: I'm what this world needs to protect it from monsters like Mutes.

Sam S.L.: You will never learn will you? We are the true protectors of Earth from monsters like you.

Suddenly a massive flash of light exploded out of Sam and she was then enveloped in a massive torrent of magma, lava, fire and rocks and her power and energy levels were skyrocketing with incredible power as it went high into the sky. The heat coming off of the magma and lava was intense and it formed into a beautiful hula girl as she danced in the sky. When the torrent of lava faded, Sam was forever changed.

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI BY JO BLANKENBURG PLAYS AT 1:35!)

Sam now looked like she was 21 years old and she had the body of a goddess and she had longer blond hair with neon orange and red highlights and streaks in her hair and she had a volcano with a hula girl in front of it emblazoned in the middle of her forehead. She had earrings that looked like volcanoes on and she had a volcano on her shirt that was now pitch black and her clothes were now made of pure lava and fire and she had a sleeveless trench coat made of pure fire and magma and it had incredibly intense heat. Her wings were now made of pure intensely hot lava and magma and her eyes had intense fire in them and they were glowing neon red. Her aura was now neon red and she had lava and fire swirling around it and the heat coming from it was unbelievable! She was now a SUPER ANGEL 10,000,000,000 VOLCANIC HAWAIIAN PELE SCORCH!

Me: Sam how do you feel?

Sam S.L.: (Divine Echoing Volcanic Voice) I feel incredible guys. This power is more than enough to take her down.

Me: Wow.

Eric and Sarah couldn't believe how powerful their own daughter has become. She has become a mighty force of nature the likes of which no one has ever seen.

Eric Sharp: Wow. Sam looks amazing.

Sarah Sharp: My little girl is now a full-fledge woman.

Luna Loud: She is amazing huh.

Me: Show no mercy on that bitch Sam.

Sam S.L.: With pleasure.

Sam went at Emilia and kicked her in the face with devastating force and Emilia screamed in pain as the kick left a nasty white hot burn mark on her face. Sam fired a massive blast of lava and fire and burned Emilia all over the place with intense heat and fire and then she punched her in her stomach and burned her bad.

Nico: WHOA! Look at how she is thrashing her.

Luna Loud: Incredible dudes.

Eric and Sarah had tears of joy come down their faces and they were proud of Sam.

She mercilessly pulverized and smashed Emilia all over and left nasty and powerful burns all over her and smashed Emilia into the ground.

Sam walked up to her and as she was walking, Sam was leaving scorching hot fiery and flaming footprints of incredible white hot heat in the ground.

Sam S.L.: You will never harm anyone as long as I'm present.

Emilia: I will never stop until we take back our planet!

Benson (Kipo): Since you're trying to kill people who are part animal, we know just how to stop you!

Troy: You read my mind, Kipo!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

She was knocked down.

Kipo: It's over, Emilia. You're done!

Emilia: I will never be done! This world is our rightful home! Mutes are not welcome here!

Me: Mutes ARE welcome here. Monsters like you are NEVER welcome here.

I snapped my fingers and cured her.

Me: And I think you will enjoy a nice long stay in our newest Cryo Prison.

We tied her up.

Whiplash: For a minute, I thought you were gonna kill Emilia.

Maria: We were at first. But then, we decided to put her in our Cryo Prison.

Titanium Titan: Good call.

May: (glares at the boys) Don't get any ideas about peeking at her when we get her clothes off!

Griffin: (blushes) Of course we won't!

Beetle: Does it really matter as long as she's frozen?

We laughed.

Me: Don't worry guys. We have a female section for the Cryo-Prison.

Griffin: That's a relief.

Nico: Yeah.

Me: Lets go home.

Kipo: (To the viewers) That's the end of a genocidal monster and the world of Mutes and Humans can work together to rebuild into a better society.

Me: Yes it can and we'll gladly help you out Kipo.

Kipo then hugged me.

Kipo: Thanks J.D.

Me: You're welcome.

We went back home and Emilia was sentenced to Eternity in the Triton Cryo Prison. The world of Kipo was made a separate world and we set up a trade route and huge restoration project to rebuild Kipo's world. We then went to dinner and went to bed.

THE END

---

Another awesome fanfiction done.

This is the second chapter of Kipo And The Age Of Wonderbeasts and it was also the 2nd chapter of Ets's week of ideas. What Dr. Emilia did was terrible! NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Nflemingful, Drako1234658, vinjedi1995, Darkhai, Etstheclarencefan and ninjakingofhearts gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next girl is Keros and we are going to find her at Fort Qo'lomasi in the world of Magic The Gathering. This is gonna be a good one. Also the next chapter is the 2nd Hilda chapter and we're gonna go after that bad Nightmare girl Marra and we're going to send that monster back to the Dream

World and make sure she never comes back.

See you all tomorrow.

Wrath of The Nightmare Entities

In the world of Magic The Gathering, Me and Abigail Florence the Falcon Gene-Slammer were flying over the coastline and it was a beautiful sight.

Me: Wow! The coastline of the world of Magic The Gathering is beautiful.

Abigail: Boy it sure is.

Me: But finding the girl is gonna be tough.

Abigail Florence: With my Gene Slammed form, I can fly to find the next girl.

Abigail concentrated and groaned as her shirt got very tight.

And it ripped and she turned into SWIFTCLAW!

Me: YEAH! Lets fly!

We were flying and we arrived at a beautiful house called Fort Qo'lomasi and it was a beautiful place.

Me: Wow so this is Fort Qo'lomasi. It's beautiful.

Swiftclaw: It sure is beautiful. McWolf picked a beautiful place this time.

Me: He sure did.

We went in and it was beautiful and it was full of flowers and all that.

We went into a room and we saw a centaur girl with a horn on her head.

Me: Wow she's a Unicorn Centaur.

Swiftclaw: Must be a breed of centaur.

McWolf came out.

McWolf: Picked a beautiful place for you guys this time.

Me: You sure did McWolf. It's a pretty one.

We jumped him and tickled him all over. We went over and cut the Unicorn free.

Keros: Whew thanks guys. Wow! You're J.D. Knudson, leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: That's right.

Keros: My name is Keros and yes I am a Unicorn Centaur.

Swiftclaw: My name is Abigail Florence. But in this form I'm called Swiftclaw.

Keros: Pleasure to meet you.

Swiftclaw: I'm gonna revert back.

Me: Okay.

I put on my blind man glasses and she reverted back.

Abigail was human again but topless.

Abigail: (covers her boobs) We should probably get out of here now. We're supposed to be seeing some old stuff today.

Me: Yeah but first.

I gave her a shirt.

Abigail: Oh thanks J.D.

Me: You're welcome.

She put it on.

Keros: That must happen to you a lot.

Abigail: Yeah it does. Been that way since I became a Gene-Slammer.

Me: Long and ugly story.

Keros: Wow. I'll have to hear it later.

Me: Lets head home.

We went back to the World Tree Estate.

---

Back at the World Tree Estate, everyone was waiting for me to get back so we can clean out our attic.

We got back just in time.

Me: We're back.

Nico: Perfect timing. Wow you have a Unicorn Centaur with you guys.

Me: Yep.

Miia: Keros!

Keros: Miia!

They hugged.

Cerea: It's awesome having you with us.

Twilight Sparkle: Wow I didn't know that you guys have unicorn Centaurs too.

Cerea: We have many breeds of Centaurs. I'm what you would call an Earth Pony Centaur. Keros is what you would call a Unicorn Centaur.

Rainbow Dash: Are there Pegasus Centaurs?

Cerea: Yes there are.

Megan Williams: Cool! I hope there are Flutter Pony Centaurs too.

Me: That would be interesting. Lets head up to the attic guys.

We went up to the attic and we were looking at a bunch of stuff.

Nico: Wow look at all this stuff.

Me: Yeah we have a lot of it huh?

We got to looking through our stuff.

Maria found a box of old records.

Maria: Look at this box of old records.

Maria found a record.

Maria: Look at this. Queen, News of the World. Check it out.

As soon as Maria showed Lori, Lola, and Lynn the album, they scared in fear.

Lynn: What the hell is that?! A killer robot monster?!

Lucy: No, it's News of the World. It's an album by the band Queen. See?

Lori: No, Lucy! You literally keep that thing away from us! Is it… Is it looking at us?! Can it see us?!

Leni: (laughing): Man, you're really scared of this thing, huh?

Lola: Does it eat little girls?!

Lana (grins) I don't know. Maybe, if it's hungry.

With that, Lola, Lynn, and Lori ran out of the room.

Maria: Boy they were scared of this huh?

Me: What were they scared of?

Maria: Oh this old Record of Queen that I found.

I looked at it.

Me: Queen, News of the World. Wow! I remember that album.

Stewie: I remember seeing that old record. I was scared shitless when I saw that robot on it.

Brian: Boy I remember that. I tormented Stewie with it and scared him all over.

Me: Wow.

Nico: I didn't know you were scared of the robot on this record Stewie.

Lana: He sure looks like an awesome robot.

Lisa Loud: Boy he sure looks amazingly well built.

Me: Yeah.

We continued cleaning up.

---

Lola woke up the next morning.

Lola: Good morning, Mr. Sprinkles. Please tell me you set the timer on the coffeemaker because I completely forgot- (sees the album and screams in horror before falling off the bed)

CRASH!

Lana was laughing at this while at the door.

Lola: (glares at Lana) I'm gonna get you for this!

Lana: (Lola hides behind her) Good morning. Thought I'd help you wake up.

Lola: God, why does he look sad?! He's already destroyed mankind!

What else could he want?!

Zuko: (chuckles) Maybe he's taken an interest in you.

Lana: He might have and I bet he's coming for you too.

Lola: (SCREAMS)

May: Hey, guys! I got a couple of scratch-off lottery tickets.

Lynn: Can I do one? I love scratchers!

Boarmon: Well, all right, maybe just one.

Lynn scratched off another square.

Lynn: Cherry. (scratches off another square) Another cherry. Oh, come on, one more, one more!

Lynn scratches off another square, revealing the album. Lynn screams in horror as she runs out of the room.

Boarmon: (laughs) Thanks, May.

May: Yeah, you're welcome. That was fun!

Brian: This is definitely like what happened with you Stewie.

Stewie: Yeah déjà-vu.

Maria: No kidding.

Keros: This is funny though.

Me: Yeah. What did you get May?

May: I won $500,000.00.

Me: Wow!

Nico: Way to go May.

Me: That's just small change compared to the amount of money we have.

Laney: It sure is.

Lori went into her room and she saw a jack in the box in her room.

Lori: What is this?

Lori picked up the jack in the box and turned the crank as Pop Goes the Weasel played.

Lori: (is hesitant at first) No. I literally have to be brave enough to continue.

Lori finished turning the crank as an ordinary jack in the box came out.

POP GOES THE WEASEL!

Lori: (sighs in relief) What was I so worried about?

Lori turned only to see the Album on her wall as she screamed in horror as Leni laughed nearby.

Lori: (to Leni) He's bleeding, man! He's bleeding, and nobody's doing anything about it! I'll tell you what the news of the world is. We're in a lot of f trouble!

Sixshot: (laughs) Maybe he'll go away if you fall down the stairs.

Lori went and tumbled down the stairs!

CRASH! BLAM! CRASH! SMASH! CRASH!

They laughed.

Lori: (In Pain) Ow.

Me: Ouch.

Varie took Lori to the infirmary.

Punch: (to us) You think they've suffered enough? Because Stewie told me what happened before the truth came out.

Maria: Yeah I think they suffered enough.

Me: I agree and it was not funny to begin with.

Nico: Yeah and I love the band Queen. But this has gone on for too long.

Applejack: I agree.

Keros: This has to stop.

Miia: Yep.

We went and got the girls together.

Nico: You girls can relax. It's only an album.

Me: Yeah it's an old record that we had in our attic. There was a whole box full of records.

I went to an old record player that my dad has and I played the record and it played News of The World by Queen.

Me: See it's a harmless song.

Lori: Whew.

Leni: Sorry Lori we were trying to teach you a lesson.

Lucy Loud: Yeah we're sorry guys.

Laney: Stewie told us that Brian did the same thing to him.

Lola: Really? This happened to you Stewie?

Stewie: It sure did Lola.

Brian: Yeah I got him good.

Nico: He sure did. That was good.

Stewie: Yep.

Blast Man: (puts record in pocket) Let's keep this just in case. If what Stewie said is true, it could come in handy.

Me: I heard that it gave a former eating contest champion that tried to kill Chris Griffin a heart attack and killed him.

Nico: Wow that was weird.

Lola: Yeah it sure is.

Me: Anyway lets get ready for our next mission. We're going to Trollberg.

Titanium Titan, Lord Drakkon, Beetle, Griffin, Vulture, Robo Blaze, Whiger, and Whiplash then appeared.

Titanium Titan: Can me, Drakkon, Beetle, Griffin, Vulture, Robo Blaze, Whiger, and Whiplash go with you guys?

Me: You all sure can.

Beetle: Hard to imagine that the Trinity of Violence is scared of Queen.

Me: Yeah and it scared Stewie bad.

Beetle: And I'm a huge fan of Queen.

Griffin: Same here. They rock.

Me: I'm more of a fan of the band The Doors myself. I love their song Riders on The Storm.

Lincoln: I love that song!

Laney: Me too.

Lola: That song is great.

Me: Yep. Lets head out.

We were off.

LONDON, ENGLAND

Thundercracker: Here we are back in London.

Me: Yep.

Hilda: (British Accent) It will be good to go back to Trollberg.

Me: Can't wait. I wonder how the town has been since we were there the first time.

Nico: Looks like we'll find out soon.

We went to Trollberg and we saw that everything was peaceful and more.

Robo Blaze: Everything seems peaceful so far.

Me: It sure does.

Hilda: But it's great to be back home.

Luna Loud: It sure is awesome here dudes.

Hilda: I missed this place.

Luna Loud: It sure is pretty dudes.

Bounce Man: Well, there doesn't seem to be any trouble here. So, we shouldn't be staying for long.

Me: I don't know about that. Something is not right. It's quiet. Too quiet.

Nico: Yeah I don't like it. Something isn't right.

Eli: I've got a really bad feeling about this.

Ets: Yeah and it's not good.

Eli: I sense that something is going on in peoples sleep.

Natilee's scepter sensed a disturbance.

Natilee: Uh oh. Something is going on.

Me: I don't like it.

Whiplash: What's that over there?

We saw what looked like glowing green mist.

Me: That mist looks evil.

Lana: Is this Freddy Krueger's work?

Me: Freddy Krueger was banished to the Warp remember?

Lana: Oh yeah.

Natilee: Oh no! I know what's going on here.

Me: What is it?

Natilee: This is the work of the Marras.

Me: The Nightmare Entities of Slavic and Germanic Folklore?

Natilee: That's them.

Hilda: Kelly is behind this!

Hunter: (German Accent) Mein Gott. I heard about the Marras und how dangerous they are.

Eli: They are monsters.

Blackarachnia: Well, there's no one else who's behind this. Most of the other nightmare bad guys are in the Warp.

Me: What can you tell us about Kelly, Hilda?

Hilda: She is bad news to the core.

She went over her history.

---

At some point between the events of "Chapter 9: The Ghost" and "Chapter 12: The Nisse", after Frida broke up her friendship with Hilda and David, Kelly met Frida and offered to become her friend.

Kelly and Frida quickly got close. Kelly nicknamed Frida "Fri-Fri", the two created their own greeting, and hung out together to watch their favorite shows. Kelly, however, took advantage of Frida, since she was planning to eventually turn Frida into a Marra as well. To this end, she actively kept Frida from reconciling with her old friends. When in "Chapter 12" Hilda and David came to Frida's house to tell her about the upcoming Sparrow Scouts camp, Kelly also visited Frida, and the two decided to hang out together instead of with David and Hilda. Later, when Hilda came to Frida's house again, Kelly convinced Frida not to open the door, stating it was probably not for her anyway, and thus Frida never even knew that the visitor at the door was Hilda. It's possible that she also blocked Frida from being with the Sparrow Scouts, since when Frida began to get second thoughts about skipping Sparrow Scout camp, Kelly used her powers to enter Frida's room and reminded her of their plans for that night.

So, while the scouts were on camp, Kelly took Frida to a gathering of the Marra in the Huldrawood. There, Frida participated in the Marra's nighttime ritual; listen to other Marra telling stories about the nightmares they gave their victims, and then absorb the magic flames of the campfire. David and Hilda discoverd this while looking for Tontu, and tried to take her back, but Frida decided to stay with them. Kelly told them that she might make a good marra soon. Although Kelly tried to scare him, David stood up for Frida and called her out for joining the Marra.

But while he was talking, the Black Hound appeared, scaring Kelly and the other marra. It was now that Kelly showed her true colors, and pushed Frida towards the Black Hound for her to get eaten so Kelly herself could escape. Frida only survived thanks to Hilda and David.

Later, when Hilda, David, and Frida were collecting donations from people in the neighborhood, Frida crossed paths with Kelly once again when they approached Kelly's house. Kelly was surprised to see Frida still alive, and disgusted to see she was a Sparrow Scout again. Kelly's mother gave Frida a box of donations, including Kelly's old toy rabbit Fluff-Bun. Kelly panicked to see her beloved toy about to be given away, but was afraid to show her feelings towards it in front of Frida. Frida, seeing how much Kelly loved Fluff-bun, decided to let her keep it. She then told Kelly "It's never a good idea to throw away your real friends." As Frida and the others left, Kelly was stunned and looking at them, but then smiled and continues to snuggle her toy.

---

When she was done we were horrified!

Me: So she's part of a cult of Marra's.

Hilda: And they live in the Huldrawood over there.

Me: Then we got to stop them.

Natilee: It's not gonna be that easy dad. Marra's feed off of peoples fears as they sleep in order to get stronger. They are also very dangerous in the dream world and they are also criminals in the world of dreams.

Princess Luna: She's right.

Eli: Wow so not even the dream world is safe from criminals.

Nico: Yeah.

Me: That is unusual. I always thought that the dream world is a way to escape the day.

Drakkon: And Doctor Destiny controls dreams so this is no surprise to him.

Natilee: Well that's because John is the exception.

Beetle: First, we need to make sure no one's suffering from nightmares!

Natilee: I'll check.

Natilee used her dream powers and saw that many of the kids were being terrorized by nightmares.

Princess Luna: These kids will not be terrorized again.

Princess Luna used her powers and destroyed the nightmares.

Me: That was close. Now we have to get rid of those Marra's.

Then we heard pounding and it was coming from a pshack and we went over and opened it and inside it was KELLY!? WHAT THE FUCK IS GOING ON!?

Me: What the?

We untied her.

Hilda: Kelly?

Kelly: (British Accent) Yes it's me. That monster assumed my form and my identity.

Me: How do we know this isn't a trick?

Kelly: Because that monster Marra assumed my form and stole my identity.

Sunset Shimmer: I'll be the judge of that.

She touched her and Sunset's eye's glowed and she saw that Kelly was telling the truth! She saw that a marra locked Kelly in this shack and assumed her form!

Sunset Shimmer: She's telling the truth! A marra did steal her form and name.

Me: Oh man! Now it's personal.

Hilda: And we can enlist the help of a witch that I know.

Slash Man: How did the Marra even lock you in that shack anyway?

Kelly: They took me from my bed and locked me in there.

Me: How long were you in there?

Kelly: They kept me in there for over a month.

Me: Whoa you must be really hungry.

Kelly: Yeah I'm starving. The Marra's have been feeding me little food.

Nico: I got some food.

Nico formed a burger tree and we fed her.

Kelly: Thanks guys.

Eli: Who is the witch you are going to enlist help from Hilda?

Hilda: Her name is Kaisa and she knows all kinds of magic spells. You guys will like her.

Brittney: She would make a great addition to the Goths of Darkness.

Ets: Yeah.

Nico: Kelly we're sorry that you were thrown in there.

Kelly: It's okay. But thank you guys for rescuing me.

Me: You're welcome.

Whiger: I knew something was wrong. Hilda told me that you've committed crimes but you're not a bad person.

Me: That's because the Kelly that she met when she came here is an imposter.

Nico: Yeah and we have to destroy her and her friends.

Me: Normally it would be against our code but she is not part of the human race.

Natilee: And also these Marra have been on the Dream World's most wanted list for a long time. But we can't go after them directly. We need to come up with a plan.

Ember McLain: So, where will we find Kaisa?

Hilda: Follow me.

We followed Hilda and we went to the Library and we saw Kaisa.

Kaisa: (British Accent) Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's an honor.

Brittney: Pleasure to meet you Kaisa.

Nico: She definitely would be perfect for the Goths of Darkness.

Laney: Yeah.

Hilda: Kaisa we need your help to take down the Marra's.

Me: We found out that the REAL Kelly here had her identity stolen by a Marra that assumed her form and she and her evil friends are wanted fugitives from the Dream World.

Natilee: That's right. As Guardian of Dreams, me and Princess Luna have to keep the world of Dreams safe.

Vulture: Me and Griffin will take to the air to find the Marra.

Me: Right and don't let them see you. They feed off of fear and get stronger.

Griffin: Right.

They flew off.

Kaisa: We'll show those monsters what for.

Star Man: (to Kelly) How long were you in that shack for?

Kelly: A month.

Me: Geez.

Kaisa: That monster that assumed Kelly's form has gone too far.

Nico: Yeah she has.

Hilda: Lets get them.

Griffin: Um.. guys? We found her.

Me: In the forest right?

Griffin: Yeah and she has 6 others with her.

Me: All the marra.

Natilee: Lets give them a nightmare like no other.

Lincoln: And I know just the nightmare.

Me: You mean?

Lincoln: Yeah. Remember that nightmare I told you all about when we met Johnny Test?

Natilee pulled out her sketchpad.

Natilee: Of course. That's brilliant.

Yakumo: Let me help make that nightmare.

Natilee: Perfect. It will make for the perfect ambush.

Ra's Al Ghul: To which nightmare are you referring to?

Natilee: That's right you haven't seen this nightmare before. Many of you haven't.

Natilee showed them the nightmare on her sketch pad and it showed Lincoln waking up in some kind of crazy dimension where the whole place was changing all over the place in a horrific manner and all of his family was naked and sinking in quicksand and Lincoln was too scared to do anything about it and the whole dimension was changing shape and showing all kinds of horrible shapes and terrain.

When they saw it many of us gasped in shock!

Éclair: That's horrifying.

Rei: No kidding. Whoa.

Keros: That is a scary nightmare.

Cerea: Yeah no kidding.

Me: Believe it or not I had that exact same nightmare.

Nico: Yeah I remember that.

Laney: That was terrifying.

Me: It sure was. Lets do it.

We went to the forest and we saw the cult of the Marras.

Me: Targets sighted.

Yakumo: Here we go.

Yakumo formed a powerful illusion and it was that of the nightmare that Lincoln had and the Marra saw themselves in the same world and it was horrifying.

Marra 1: What is this place!?

Marra 2: I don't know!

Marra 3: It has to be an illusion!

POW!

They were being punched and kicked all over by the Masters of Evil.

Marra: No! You're not real! You're just an illusion created by this nightmare!

Drakkon: Oh really? If I were an illusion, would I do… this?! (punches the Marra)

POW BIFF SMASH BLAM KICK KROW BAM!

They were smashed all over the place until they were a broken and battered mess. But then…

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The illusion broke and a massive green fire explosion blasted out of the sky and it had the Celtic Triquetra and bagpipe music was heard and it was followed by a phoenix cry and then we landed.

Natilee: Marra, by order of the Dream World, I, Natilee McFinnigan Knudson hereby sentenced to death!

Laney: YEAH!

Princess Luna: You have tormented peoples dreams for far too long.

Nico: Welcome to Your Worst Nightmare!

Marra: Team Loud Phoenix Storm!? What are you doing here?

Me: We're here to destroy you!

Éclair: You will pay for everything you've done.

Keros: And it won't be pretty.

Villamax, Krusty, See More, Mercurymon, Katnappe, Vanitas, Dark Spicer, Pied Piper, Kalin and Webstor then appeared.

Krusty: HEY HEY KIDDIES! (Goofy Laughter)

Me: Villamax, Krusty, See More, Mercurymon, Katnappe, Vanitas, Dark Spicer, Pied Piper, Kalin and Webstor. Strange seeing you all here when we're giving there monsters their most feared nightmare.

Krusty: So, this isn't a dream, right?

William: No, Krusty. This is real. The Marra was just messing with people's dreams.

Katnappe: Krusty was just making sure.

Vanitas: But at least we know it wasn't really Kelly.

Dark Spicer: (to Kaisa) Here's your warning: Your ass is about to be kicked!

Kaisa: We'll see about that little boy.

Brittney: And Darkness will come to you.

?: (Electronic Evil Laughter)

A figure came out and it was THE PHANTOM VIRUS!

Shaggy: ZOINKS! It's the Phantom Virus!

Me: Not this techno clod again.

Twilight Sparkle: Wow! He looks dangerous!

Me: Yep and we faced him a while back.

I went over his history.

---

The Phantom Virus is the main antagonist of the Scooby-Doo franchise's 9th feature film Scooby-Doo and the Cyber Chase, and the PlayStation video game version of the same name. He is an anthropomorphic computer virus who was created by Bill McLemore to try and deliberately destroy a fellow college student's project to achieve a lot of money.

He was voiced by Gary Anthony Sturgis, who also played Ebon in Static Shock, The Destructinator in Wishology, and Trogaar in Teen

Titans .

A laser for transferring material items into the virtual world was mysteriously and improperly used to extract the Phantom Virus into the real world of the university's lab, escaping to the greater campus. There, it would wreak havoc and chaos, starting with attacking Eric.

Once the Mystery Inc. gang are accidentally transferred into the game by accident, they compete with the virus through ten levels and conquer various monsters in different locations within the game. In order to defeat the virus, the gang must find the Scooby Snacks box in each level and progress to the end.

During the final level, which is in a city with a carnival, the Virus assembles the Creeper, Jaguaro, the Gator Ghoul, the Tar Monster, and Old Iron Face (old enemies from Mystery Inc.'s past) to destroy the Mystery gang until the Virus is destroyed when Scooby grabs the last box of Scooby Snacks, along with the monsters he assembled.

It was revealed by clues left by the virus that a student at a university named Bill McLemore made the virus because his baseball video game project was not picked by Professor Kaufman, so he exacted revenge on the Professor and his favored student Eric Staufer (whose video game design was chosen) by creating the Phantom Virus. Bill ends up getting foiled and arrested. Whether the virus did this out of betrayal or programming is currently unknown.

There were several suspects as to who created the virus - including Professor Kaufman and Officer Wembley.

---

Twilight Sparkle: Whoa that's crazy!

Nico: Yeah it was.

Lola: Yeah it was an awesome adventure.

Me: I had Eric and Professor Kaufman come over and we used the Simulator to go into Eric's game and save Mystery Inc. We had an amazing and awesome adventure in that game.

Laney: Yeah we sure did.

Carol: It was amazing.

Nico: We followed the whole game and beat the villains and retrieved the Scooby Snax at each level.

Lord Drakkon: That must've been fun.

Me: It sure was.

Dark Spicer: Wow. I have 2 new ultimate aliens for you all to see and here's the first one.

He turned into the first one and it was a red version of Ultimate Spidermonkey and he looked like a gorilla that had spines all over him and he had 8 spider legs coming out of his back and he had blades on his legs.

Ultimate Widowchimp: Meet Ultimate Widowchimp!

Shanan: An Evolved Hybrid Arachnichimp. Very well made.

Poison Ivy: Am I the only one who's noticed that this kind of alien, regular or Antitrix, is an mixture of Spidey and Doc Ock?

Ultimate Widowchimp: I know, right? With a bit of gorilla mixed in. (fires web blast from mouth at Poison Ivy)

Lola fired a blast of fire and destroyed the webs.

Lola: Nice try Spiderape.

Dark Spicer reverted back.

Dark Spicer: And here's the 2nd one.

He went into his next form and he looked like a green version of Cannonbolt and he had spines and blades on his back and arms and had deadly swords on his legs.

Ultimate Rollburn: Just call this form… Ultimate Rollburn!

Shanan: An Evolved Hybrid Arburian Pelurota. Very interesting.

Bowser Jr: My shell is spiked too, you know!

Ultimate Rollburn: I remember. But size isn't always everything! (rolls fast at Bowser Jr)

Me: Oh no you don't!

Announcer: CHEESE MAGISWORD!

Me: RICOTTA RAMP!

I formed a ramp of Ricotta and Dark Spicer rolled on it and smashed head on into the Marra.

Nico: STEEERIKE!

Keros: Boy it sure was.

We went back home and we went to Lynn's Table and went to dinner and later to bed. The Dream World was a much safer place without the Marra causing problems.

THE END

---

Another awesome adventure done.

This is the second chapter for Hilda from 2018. It was awesome and the Marras were monsters and were evil. So I wanted to have a twist with it and show that the Marras kidnapped the real Kelly and left her in a shack and assumed her identity. This is the 3rd chapter of Etstheclarencefan's week of ideas. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Drako1234658, Etstheclarencefan, ninjakingofhearts and Nflemingful all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next girl we're going to rescue is Nancy the Leanan Sídhe of Celtic Myth and we're going to rescue her from Castle Garenbrig in the world of Magic The Gathering. Also the 4th chapter of Etstheclarencefan's week of ideas is next and that's gonna be where we battle Trina the Robot from the Big Hero 6 Series.

The Bad Disney Android

Me: Yeah it sure is.

Yuna: Time to rescue the next girl.

Yuna concentrated and groaned as she held her stomach in pain.

Me: Here we go.

A lure came out of her forehead and she turned into her Viperfish Gene-Slammer form! She turned into Lightlure!

Lightlure: All right!

We went into Castle Garenbrig.

Me: Wow so this is Castle Garenbrig.

Lightlure: Looks like no one has been here for years.

Me: Well the card said that Without Garenbrig's strength, the realm would succumb to the wilds.

Lightlure: Sounds about right.

It got dark as we went into the castle.

Me: Man I can't see anything in here.

Lightlure: Allow me.

She activated her lure and it was like a lantern.

Me: That's right, Viperfish have a bioluminescent lure on them.

Lightlure: I guess I should be glad that Dr. Paradigm made me into a Viperfish.

We went into a room and we saw a small fairy in a jar. It was a Leanan Sídhe, the fairies of Celtic Myth over in Ireland.

Me: Wow she's a Leanan Sídhe from Celtic Myth.

Lightlure: Wow. Never saw a small one like her before.

Me: Yeah.

McWolf came out.

Me: Pretty dark place for you to pick for a rescue.

McWolf: Yeah it sure is dark huh?

Me: Lets get it on.

We went at him and tickled him all over the place and he was laughing hysterically. We went over and I opened the jar and the fairy came out and flew to me.

Nancy: Thank you. It was cramped in there. Wow! You're J.D. Knudson, the leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: That's right. And this is Yuna Orromov. She is half Viperfish.

Lightlure: Pleasure to meet you.

Nancy: Same to you. My name is Nancy and yes I am a Leanan Sídhe from Celtic Myth.

Me: Awesome.

I held out my hands and she stood on them.

Me: Glad we saved you.

Lightlure: I'm gonna revert back now.

Me: Okay.

I put on my blind man glasses and Yuna Reverted back.

Yuna was human again. But topless.

Yuna: (covers her boobs) The downside is that now, we won't be able to see here.

Me: Can't you just use the lure to light the way?

Yuna: Hmm let me see.

She concentrated and then just the lit lure popped out of her forehead.

Yuna: I CAN do that.

Nancy: That's much better.

I gave her a shirt.

Yuna: Thanks J.D.

She put it on.

Nancy: Who needs a flashlight when you can just have Yuna do that.

Me: Yeah no kidding.

Yuna: It's clever. Lets get out of this dark hole.

We left and went back home.

---

Back at the World Tree Estate everyone was watching TV and reading books and having breakfast. Me, Yuna and Nancy came in and Yuna went and joined everyone.

Me: This is where we live Nancy.

Nancy: Oh wow! You guys live in a huge tree.

Me: Yeah we sure do.

Nico: Wow she's a Leanan Sídhe from Celtic Myth.

Me: Yep.

Nancy: My name is Nancy and it's a pleasure to meet you Nico.

Nico: Likewise.

Miia: Nancy it's great to see you.

Nancy: Same to you Miia. It's awesome that J.D. and friends are rescuing all of us.

Miia: It sure is.

Nico: Oh it's time for me to go to work.

Me: Oh right we were gonna show Twilight and friends where you work at the Scooby Snax Factory.

Shaggy: Oh boy! (Laughs) Like, I can't wait to see what flavor Scooby Snax you come up with this time Nico.

Scooby Doo: Me roo.

Me: Lets head out!

We went to the Scooby Snax Factory.

---

We arrived at the Scooby Snax Factory.

Bai Tza: Welcome to the Scooby Snax factory, girls!

Twilight Sparkle: Wow so this is where Nico works.

Me: Yep he is the flavor creator here at the factory.

Nico: Yep and the pay is really good. I make up the flavors for the Scooby Snax.

Eli: Wow.

Sunset Shimmer: Wasn't Mystery Inc. here a while back?

Me: They sure were. Shaggy won a contest to go on a tour of the factories in Munchville, Ohio and they chose the Scooby Snax Factory. But the factory was haunted by a monster made out of a Scooby Snack Batter. The monster was Penelope Bailey and she was haunting the factory to scare off intruders.

Fluttershy: What kind of intruders?

Nico: The Scooby Snax recipe is so incredibly coveted that rival factories from all over the area want it so badly. They send thieves and spies to infiltrate this factory to get it and even have spies work here undercover and go after the recipe.

Eli: Wow that's nuts.

Ets: Yeah it sure is.

Me: It's like the bitter rivalry between Mr. Krabs and Plankton.

Mr. Krabs: Boy that takes me back lads.

Nico: Yeah it sure does.

Penelope Bailey came in.

Penelope Bailey: It's great to see you all again.

Luna: Long time no see, Penelope!

Penelope Bailey: It's great to see you all too.

Nico: Nicolas Chan reporting for duty ma'am.

Penelope Bailey: Glad you are here. How about you show everyone your latest flavor?

Nico: Yes ma'am.

We went with Nico to the flavor lab.

Nico: First we have to go through there.

We went into the sanitation room.

Nico: Sorry guys but we have to do this because the Scooby Snax Factory takes sanitation protocols very seriously.

Me: I understand.

We were drenched in water.

Me: Well there goes my shower for the day.

Then we were blown by a huge high powered fan to dry us off and it felt like we were blown through the dry cycle of a car wash.

Me: WHOA! That felt like a Category 5 Hurricane.

Velma: Yeah that was strong.

Lola: It sure was.

We came out and went to Nico's laboratory.

Nico: Here we are guys.

Octane: A lot has happened the last time we saw you. Such as the fact that the Masters of Evil are now our friends. But they're still criminals.

Maria: And to think that group started out with 6 members.

Me: Yeah and it has hundreds now.

Penelope Bailey: That is amazing.

We went into the lab and there were lots of chemicals, beakers, test tubes, an awesome chemistry set and equipment and more and Nico came out with a box of his latest flavor of Scooby Snax.

Nico: This is my latest flavor of Scooby Snax. Blue Raspberry.

Me: Ooh that sounds like my kind of flavor.

Shaggy: Like oh boy! Do they turn your tongue blue?

Nico: Yep they sure do. I tried one and it turned my tongue and teeth blue. Try one.

Me, Shaggy and Scooby tried one and we saw that our tongue and teeth were blue as the ocean!

Me: Wow! Like what happened when I had a pretty patty.

Shaggy: (Laughs) That's funny and they taste really well.

Scooby: (Laughs) Reah.

But then the power went out!

Me: Uh oh the power's out.

Eli: I sense an intruder here!

Nico: Oh no! We got a spy here!

Me: Lets get them!

We went to the vault where they keep the Secret Recipe.

When we got there we saw a couple of thieves trying to break into it.

Me: Hold it right there!

Sandstorm: (to the thieves) Bet you didn't expect us to be back here again, did ya?

Thief 1: You will not stop us!

A growl was heard.

Me: Oh we aren't the ones who will stop you. (Points above them) THEY will.

They looked up and saw Sissi and the Scooby Snax Batter Monster ready to get them!

Penelope Bailey gasped!

Penelope Bailey: The monster is real!?

Me: It's okay Penelope. He's now a member of our frenemies the Masters of Evil and he is really tasty too.

Sissi and the monster jumped down and Sissi kicked the woman thief in the face and the monster threw globs of batter at the male thief.

SPLAT SPLAT SPLAT SPLAT!

Sissi legswept the male thief and kicked him in the back and jumped into the and dealt a spinning axe kick to his stomach and smashed him down.

Sissi landed and we cheered for them.

Me: WAY TO GO GUYS!

Eli: That was awesome!

Penelope Bailey: Wow! Sissi did really well.

Me: She and her friends have had a lot of self taught training before we met them.

Ulrich: It's true. We got lots of practice and training in.

Nico: Yep.

Starlight Glimmer: We should keep some of Snax for future missions.

Me: That's a good idea Starlight. We'll need a ton of them to keep our chicken friends going.

Sissi: Lets see who these spies work for.

Sissi pulled off their shirts and we saw that they were REALLY working for the Burger Fries Puffs Factory.

Shaggy: Like, they are spies for the Burger Fries Puffs Factory.

Eli: Those are delicious.

Shaggy: Like yeah they are.

Cozy Glow: We need to install cameras and laser turrets around the vault.

Laney: From the looks of things I would say that the factories train them REALLY well.

Nico: You're not kidding on that and like Russia, I give them really good credit for training their employees well.

Twilight Sparkle: You guys weren't kidding when you said it was like what happened with Plankton and Mr. Krabs.

Mr. Krabs: Aye lass. It's amazing.

Me: And lets not forget that we still have that Naked Mr. Krabs still out there.

Laney: Yeah.

---

Later we just got back and we were getting ready for our next mission.

Krusty, Villamax, See More, Mercurymon, Katnappe, Vanitas, Dark, and Pied Piper then appeared.

Krusty: HEY HEY KIDDIES! (Goofy Laughter)

Bart: That's my hero.

Krusty: Can me, Villamax, See More, Mercurymon, Katnappe, Vanitas, Dark, and Pied Piper go with you guys this time?

Me: You all sure can. And we just got back from seeing how Nico works at the Scooby Snax Factory.

Dark Spicer: That's awesome.

Pied Piper: Where are we going this time?

Me: To San Fransokyo. We're going to show Twilight and Friends around the city and see if we can bust anymore bad guys there.

Katnappe: Ooh!

Nico: It will be awesome to see Hiro and team again.

Laney: It sure will.

Me: Yep. Lets head out.

We were off to the San Fransokyo section.

---

We were over in San Fransokyo.

Scrap Shooter: Well, here we are at San Fransokyo, see.

Twilight Sparkle: Wow! This is amazing!

Sunset Shimmer: It looks like a fusion of San Francisco, California and Tokyo, Japan.

Me: That was my first reaction too.

I went over the history of the city.

---

San Fransokyo (portmanteau on San Francisco and Tokyo) is the central location of Disney's 2014 animated feature film Big Hero 6. San Fransokyo is an alternate history San Francisco, created after the 1906 earthquake.

Long before the city was conceived, San Fransokyo initially was a spot of land in California where Japanese immigrants flocked to in the late 1800s. But history was changed when the 1906 earthquake struck the land and caused unspeakable devastation. What many did not know was that the earthquake was caused by none other than the renowned artist Lenore Shimamoto. Shimamoto was finishing an ambitious project-an energy amplifier-she created as a revolutionary power source, but the effects yielded a massive star that created the disaster known as the "Great Catastrophe". Filled with guilt, Shimamoto hid her work away praying that no one would find it and continue her research. The events of the earthquake, ironically, inspired the city to be reborn, for San Francisco was rebuilt by Japanese immigrants using techniques that allowed movement and flexibility in a seismic event. After the city was finished being rebuilt, it was renamed San Fransokyo due to it being a city made greater than it was before from Japanese and American architecture combined. The modern-day San Fransokyo is a center for vast cultures besides the dominant Eastern and Western themes, being something of a melting pot. Among some of the city's most famous residents is Big Hero 6, a group of high-tech superheroes that regularly protect San Fransokyo from turmoil of all kinds. The team first appeared to stop an attack on Krei Tech, and in doing so garnered widespread media attention. However, there has been a presence of superheroes and villains as far back as the 1970s.

Layout

The layout of the city is a high-tech hybrid of artistic and technological architecture and a fusion of both San Francisco, California and Tokyo, Japan. Built on the coast of the Pacific Ocean (presumably in California), the city is designed to withstand the risk of further earthquakes. Animators added an extra spin to the Painted Lady houses of San Francisco by adding Japanese touches to them, such as the Japanese like roof tops, koinoibori flags, Japanese lanterns, signature cats etc. San Fransokyo prides itself for its extensive focus on science and innovation. Esteemed universities such as the San Fransokyo Institute of Technology, are responsible for grooming some of the most significant figures in the scientific field, such as Alistair Krei. In fact, a large quantity of the buildings and technology in the city were constructed by Alistair and his company Krei Tech. Art has also been an important part of the city's culture as far back as the early 19th century, especially the work of Lenore Shimamoto.

Conversely, behind San Fransokyo's bright aesthetic is the underworld of illegal bot-fighting, mercenaries, and crime syndicates-commonly based in the dark, grungy alleys of the city.

---

Twilight Sparkle was amazed.

Twilight Sparkle: Wow! That's incredible.

Nico: I know. Hard to imagine that an event like the 1906 San Francisco Earthquake can result in this.

Me: I know. We were shocked ourselves.

Villamax: Are Hiro and the others around here?

Me: They are and I have a feeling that they are about to show up.

Then we heard a bank alarm and we saw robbers.

Me: Looks like we got a 211 in progress!

Rainbow Dash: It's Hero Time!

Ben: Hey! That's my line!

Me: Lets get them!

We went at the bank robbers!

The robbers were stealing money from the San Fransokyo bank and just as they came out…

KABLAM!

We smashed their faces in!

They got up and then Hiro and the others came.

Hiro: Hey guys!

Me: Good to see you again Hiro.

Honey Lemon: Talk about perfect timing.

Go Go: I'll say.

We punched and pulverized the robbers and got the money they stole back. They stole $27,399.00 in cash.

Me: There.

Everyone cheered wildly for us and all of Big Hero 6.

Hiro: It's awesome seeing you guys again.

Me: Same to you Hiro. Sorry we couldn't visit every now and then. We've been so busy saving the universe and saving many planets.

Hiro: That's all right but it's great having you guys here.

Bruiser Cruiser: Quick question. When was the last time we saw you guys?

Me: Last time we were here was when we rescued Abigail from that Pocket Dimension and stopped professor Callahan from going on that rampage to kill Krei.

Nico: Right I remember that!

Twilight Sparkle: That must've been awesome.

Me: It sure was.

I went over the events of Chapter 634 and it was awesome.

Twilight Sparkle: Wow! That was amazing.

Rarity: Indeed it was darling.

Me: Its been about 2 years I think.

Go Go: That sounds right.

Wasabi: Yeah it does.

See More: You guys have been catching up on the entirety of our adventures, right?

Hiro: We sure have. It's amazing that you guys have expanded so much and got so many awesome frenemies in the Masters of Evil.

Me: Yeah. No kidding. But they are awesome. Also I take it you heard that Professor Callahan is now in their ranks.

Hiro: I sure did.

Me: Well we'll consider his induction into our frenemies his application for parole.

Honey Lemon: Good way to put it.

Baymax: A most ingenious method of release for him.

Me: Thanks Baymax.

Wasabi: You guys have many more members now.

Laney: Yeah we grew our forces quite a lot.

Eli: And we have tons of new members.

Hiro: Wait a second? Eli is that you?

Eli: Been a long time Hiro.

Hiro: Yeah it has! How have you been?

Eli: I'm now a member of Team Loud Phoenix Storm and I'm helping everyone take down some of their enemies.

Honey Lemon: That's awesome little dude.

Go Go: Yeah it is! (See's Eli's scar) (Gasp) Eli you have a scar!?

Me: Yeah he does. Big story behind that.

J.D. 3: Eli got shot while defending Maria Robotnik in my universe before we merged.

Wasabi: Wow! He's a true hero.

Hiro: Wow!

Go Go: He's a hero.

Me: Yep. My caveman self calls it his mark of valor.

Papillon: Also, we're planning to visit an earlier version of you guys in the future.

Me: What she means is we're gonna go through the whole adventure we had with you guys when we first met again later on.

Hiro: That's gonna be awesome.

Go Go: Yeah it is!

Eli: It will be awesome to go through all that now that I'm here.

Ets: It sure will be.

Vanitas: So, what's been going on with you guys?

Hiro: Busting bad guys all over.

Go Go: They've been coming at us all over like wildfire and we were busting them like crazy.

Wasabi: The city's crime rate is through the roof.

Me: Join the club. They just keep coming.

Baymax: You all must have been experiencing late night crime fighting sprees as well.

Me: That's putting it mildly. One time, the War for Equestria was about to begin and we were busting criminals and killing bad guys and monsters all over and we were so tired that we were reverting back to our reckless selves. We were so tired that we didn't even realize it until after the war was over.

Nico: Yeah that was nuts.

Hiro: Wow that's crazy. But yeah I know that feeling.

Me: Yeah. How has Abigail been doing?

Hiro: She's doing great.

Lola: That's awesome.

Lana: It sure is.

Fu: We're happy for her.

Nico: Yep.

Ashi: Who's the most recent villain of yours that's active?

Hiro: Her name is Trina the Android.

Me: What can you tell us about her?

Go Go: The news is not pleasant about her.

Go Go went over her history and it was not pretty.

---

Trina is a recurring antagonist of the Disney XD animated TV series Big Hero 6: The Series. She is an android built by Obake. She serves as the main antagonist of the Season 2 finale "Legacies".

She was voiced by Christy Carlson Romano, who also portrayed Jennifer Stone from Cadet Kelly.

Obake created Trina to lure Hiro to his side. After he found out about Hiro's bot fighting days, he sent her out to pose as a bot fighter.

Trina created her own bot to take control other competitors' bots so she could steal money and jewelry to attract Big Hero 6's attention (especially Hiro's), in the process also framing the bot's owners, specifically the ones that Mr. Yama had fought, thus making it seem as if he was the thief.

Bot Fight

Trina makes her debut appearance in the episode "The Bot Fighter"/

Obake's Lair

In "Countdown to Catastrophe", Baymax (under Obake's control) takes Hiro to Obake's lair. When he briefly sees Trina, he becomes shocked seeing head detached from her body revealing she's robot. Trina teases Hiro for not figuring it out himself, declaring that it's "so pathetic, it's cute".

Survival

It is revealed in "Internabout", Trina and Noodle Burger Boy survived the destruction of Obake's lair. She is stored in a crate and dragged out of the bay by Noodle Burger Boy to an abandoned warehouse. She asks him to help her reassemble herself, but Noodle Burger Boy refuses, saying he has to to return "home" and leaves the warehouse.

Trina sees Noodle Burger Boy as little brother and becomes determined to find him. Trina upgrades herself with a deadly mech suit and a new mohawk. She tests out her new form on Big Hero 6, and successfully beats them. She heads to the Noodle Burger factory, where she stops Hiro from removing Obake's chip from Noodle Burger Boy's system.

When she was finished we were shocked!

Me: WHOA! She's an android out to kill you!

Nico: Not good!

Android 18: And I thought I was the only one built for destruction.

Me: And she wants to also replace all of humanity with robots and avenge her father!? And I thought H.A.R.D.A.C. was the only one with that kind of ambition.

Twilight Sparkle: That's awful.

Me: No kidding. She is bad news.

Sakura H.: We have to stop her.

Katnappe: If she is like HARDAC, she might have a robot making source somewhere.

Me: Maybe and we have to destroy it and any robots she has with her.

Dark Spicer: Leave that to me as Trojanware.

Me: Awesome.

Go Go: Her hideout is in an abandoned warehouse on the wharf.

Me: Then we'll stakeout there and wait. I have a plan.

Nico: Lay it on me.

Heat Man: First, let's head to Fred's place. No one will find us there.

Me: Right.

We went to Fred's home and we formed our plan. Our plan was a simple one. Dark Spicer was gonna turn into Trojanware and integrate with Trina and make her destroy her robots and then when it's just her the Big Hero 6 and us will do an entrance from the Big Hero 6 and we don't move until Dark gives us the signal.

Nico: That's a great plan.

Lincoln: Yeah it sure is.

Fred: Good idea hiding out here, Heat Man. I mean, it's not like they know where we live.

Just then, we heard knocking on the door.

Pied Piper: You were saying?

Eli: That's a pizza delivery man.

Me: I am hungry.

Eli: Let me go check.

Eli went over and saw that it was indeed the Pizza Delivery man.

Pizza Man: Pizza Delivery.

Eli: Thank you.

Eli took the pizzas and gave him some money.

Eli gave us the pizza and it was three meat.

We had the pizza and we were hungry.

May: For a minute, I thought Trina found us.

We heard knocking again.

Jindrax: Now what? (opens to door)

Eli used the force and sensed that it was just Fred's mom.

Eli: It's your mom.

Fred: Oh come in!

Fred's mom, Mrs. Frederickson came in.

Mrs. Frederickson: Hello everyone.

Fred: Hello mom.

Me: Hello Mrs. Frederickson. Sorry to come in like this but we're forming a plan to take down Trina the Robot.

Mrs. Frederickson: That's okay. But it's an honor to have the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm here.

Me: It's a pleasure.

Muscle Man: You know who else likes smashing robots?

Outback: I know the answer to this one!

Muscle Man: MY MOM!

We laughed at his joke.

Muscle Man: And you know who else thinks we're safe in here and that we should be less paranoid about Trina finding us?

Mercurymon: Go ahead and tell us the answer.

Muscle Man: My mom!

We laughed at his joke.

Hiro: I don't get it.

Me: We don't either. But Muscle Man's jokes are funny.

Nancy: Yeah they sure are.

Rei: I like them.

Me: Now that we're full lets go get her.

We went to the abandoned warehouse and I looked into it with my binoculars and saw that Trina the Robot was in there.

Me: She's in there all right.

Chop Shop: Dark, go ahead and attack Trina. We'll wait for your signal.

Dark Spicer: Right.

He turned into Trojanware and snuck into the warehouse and he turned into a moving puddle and crept towards Trina.

Trina the Robot: Those monsters on Big Hero 6 will pay for their crimes to me.

Henchman 1: You said it boss.

Then Dark latched onto Trina and merged with her.

Trina the Robot: WHAT'S HAPPENING TO ME!?

Her arms started moving on their own and then she fired particle disintegrator beams and killed her robot henchmen and smashed them apart in powerful fist punches.

Dark then made her fire an energy ball into the air and it was the signal!

Me: Now!

We went at the warehouse!

Suddenly Dark let go and then there were 6 elemental energy balls for the Big Hero 6 and then…

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion blasted into the Warehouse and a phoenix cry was heard and we appeared.

Me: Trina.

Courtney: At least you aren't like the Trina that I hate.

Trina the Robot: Team Loud Phoenix Storm!?

Me: That's right! You give all robots everywhere a bad name.

Nico: And we're going to shut you down forever!

Trojanware: Oh, it would be so easy to make you self destruct right now!

Trina the Robot: I will not let you do that to me!

Me: We'll take it from here Dark. Well done.

Dark got off of her.

Me: It's over for you Trina. You're finished.

Lola: You will never replace all of us with robots.

Batman: HARDAC already tried that and it failed.

Nico: You will pay for your crimes just like your father will.

Trina the Robot: Humans are parasites and they will pay for THEIR crimes!

Me: We'll see about that!

I transformed and went Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix-Harmony 500,000,000,000 and I snapped my fingers and we were on the planet Pyros, Heatblast's home planet.

Me: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice) Pyros is perfect for a monster like you.

Dark Spicer: (to Trina) Here's your warning: Your ass is about to be kicked!

Me: And it's not gonna feel good.

Nico: YEAH!

Shiva, Captain Boomerang, Crimson Dynamo, Billy Numerous, P'andor, Diabolico, Ghost, Gearhead, Angel and Xiao Fung the Demon Sorcerer of Wind then appeared.

Me: Shiva, Captain Boomerang, Crimson Dynamo, Billy Numerous, P'andor, Diabolico, Ghost, Gearhead, Angel and Xiao Fung.

Billy Numerous: Hot place for y'all.

Applejack: Hoowee it sure is.

Diabolico: We saw all of Trina's destroyed robots.

Billy Numerous: Did you guys destroy all of them?

Dark Spicer: Actually, it was me.

Captain Boomerang: That's even better!

Ghost: You used Trojanware, right?

Me: He sure did and now we're going to sock it to Trina. She wants to wipe out the entire human race and replace us all with Robots.

Billy Numerous: What!? That's insane!

Laney: Yeah it sure is.

Nancy: And we have to destroy her to make sure she doesn't do so.

?: I wouldn't count on that fleshwalker.

Lincoln and Danny got a ghost sense and a giant flower came out and it bloomed and out came another version of Sam Manson and she was in a green dress like Poison Ivy's and she had a black spike hair scrunchy and she had green gloves and her eyes were glowing green and she had a dangerous ghostly glow around her! It was Sam when she was under the control of Undergrowth!

Me: Oh no!

Sam Manson: Is that me!?

Laney: That is you Sam. This is what you were like when you were under the control of Undergrowth!

Nico: Not good! I remember seeing that. That was brutal and intense.

Undergrowth Sam: Join us J.D. Knudson. The growth is family.

Me: Sorry to disappoint you but I already got a family.

Nancy: I'll face her.

?: That is gonna be interesting to see.

A figure came out and it was CROCOVILE from episode 19 of Jungle Fury!

Crocovile is a Rinshi, who holds the spirit of the Crocodile. He serves Dai Shi. He serves as the main antagonist of the episode "Path of the Rhino".

Crocovile served Dai Shi. Crocovile was a powerful Rinshi, one of the most powerful in Dai Shi's army. Camille summoned him for Grizzaka, who sent him to Ocean Bluff to gather the fears of people. Crocovile attacked the city and encountered the Power Rangers. He fought only with Theo, Lily and RJ. The Jungle Fury Rangers couldn't defeat him. His body was invulnerable for their strikes. Casey arrived, but even together they couldn't defeat the monster, who soon left. Later he returned to the city and again encountered the Rangers. He battled Theo, Lily and RJ once more and was winning. However, Casey arrived and used his Strike Rider to attack Crocovile. Then Dominic first morphed into the Jungle Fury Rhino Ranger and battled Crocovile. Camille summoned an army of Rinshi, but Dominic quickly defeated them and then clashed with Crocovile himself. After the fight, Crocovile was defeated by Dominic's Rhino Blade and destroyed with his Rhino Blade Super Slash.

---

Dominic: Crocovile!

Crocovile: Long time rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were one of the most powerful Rinshi out of Dai Shi's army and you were sent to gather fear for Grizzaka. Also that was the first time Dominic used his Rhino Ranger Power.

Crocovile: That's right. Good memory on you.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Crocovile: I know I remind you guys of Killer Croc. But he's already in our ranks, isn't he?

Me: Yes he is. And he's Keiko Yukimura's archenemy.

Crocovile: That's cool.

Me: It sure is. Lets get it on guys!

We went at them for our usual battles.

1. Musa, Fluttershy, Tree Hugger, Pip-Squeak, Mage Meadowbrook, Life Skylanders, Stormy Weather, Weather Vane, Lincoln, Linka, Storm, Starlight Glimmer and Thorax VS Diabolico

Diabolico was first.

Diabolico: (to Musa) You and the rest of the Winx Club are definitely going to get along with Nancy.

Musa: We sure are and she is amazing at everything with nature and all that.

Fluttershy: She sure is and she's a great charmer with animals like me.

Tree Hugger: She is so far out dudes.

Pip-Squeak: (British Accent) I like her. She is a pretty fairy.

Diabolico: Indeed she is. Does Equestria have any fairies?

Mage Meadowbrook: I don't think we've ever seen fairies in Equestria other than the Breezies. They are essentially the only kinds of fairies we know.

Stealth Elf: Yes and Seabreeze and his friends are amazing.

Camo: (Spanish Accent) Si they sure are.

Stormy Weather: Fluttershy got to see the Breezies and they are amazing.

Weather Vane: They sure are. Seabreeze is awesome.

Lincoln: He sure is and his Swedish Accent is awesome.

Linka: It sure is and J.D. knows it really well.

Storm: I'll saw.

Starlight Glimmer: Breezies are really amazing.

Thorax: Yeah they are.

Diabolico: I agree with you completely. Lets do it.

He fired blasts of energy and they dodged it and they fired waves of energy and leaves and lightning and magic and they smashed him down.

Musa: ROCK ON!

Fluttershy: That was fun.

---

2. Ben Tennyson, Rainbow Dash, Scootaloo, Magma Gloom, Flash Magnus, Air Skylanders, Itachi, Sasuke, Mikoto Naori, Shisui, Izumi, Naruto Uzumaki, Scrap Shooter and Grinnade VS Billy Numerous

---

Billy Numerous was next.

Billy Numerous: (to Ben) Who did J.D. rescue this time? And which alien are you going to use today?

Ben: Her name is Nancy and she's a Leanan Sídhe from Irish Myth and I'm also going to be using Wildvine.

Rainbow Dash: Nancy is really awesome. She has amazing love for nature like Fluttershy does.

Scootaloo: Yeah and she wants to be amazingly devoted to J.D. It's part of her nature.

Magma Gloom: That is really something.

Flash Magnus: Thank goodness Crocker isn't here or else he would go after Nancy.

Whirlwind: Yeah he sure would. Given how screwed up he is.

Blades: You said it.

Itachi: I agree. Crocker wanted to use fairies to destroy the world.

Sasuke: He was insane.

Mikoto: He sure was. And he was a monster.

Naori: Hard to imagine that he hated kids and wanted to go after fairies like that since March 15th, 1973.

Shisui: J.D. should have banished him to the Warp instead of committed him to an insane asylum or take out his brain.

Izumi: Yeah that guy was a total nutcase.

Naruto: You are not kidding about that.

Billy Numerous: I agree. Lets do it!

He formed 500 clones and Ben turned into Wildvine and Naruto made 500 clones and they went at Billy Numerous and smashed and pulverized and blasted him all over with air, fire, energy and plant bombs and smashed him all down.

Ben: AWESOME!

Rainbow Dash: That was AWESOME!

Somnambula: (Egyptian Accent) Yeah that is an amazing movie.

---

Ghost was next.

Ghost: (to Ariel) I didn't know that Eli knew Hiro and his friends before.

Ariel: It was before his universe merged with ours. He helped the Big Hero 6 take down Yokai once before and saved Abigail.

Lady Shiva was next.

Lady Shiva: (to Kim) Heard that spies that aren't like you tried to steal the Scooby Snax recipe this morning.

Kim: You heard right and they are actually thieves that work for a rival factory. But We made sure they didn't get the recipe.

Rarity: Indeed we did darling and those spies had better thing twice before messing with us.

Sweetie Belle: It's amazing that the secret recipe for the Scooby Snax is so badly coveted by other factories.

Thunder Terror: It's in every way like the brutal rivalry of Mr. Krabs of the Krusty Krab and Plankton of The Chum Bucket. Plankton has tried SO MANY times to steal the Krabby Patty Secret Formula and they ALL Failed.

Mistmane: Yeah that is a lot of attempts at that recipe. I wonder how many attempts the Scooby Snax Recipe has had.

Gill Grunt: Well there's a huge difference: The Krabby Patty Secret Recipe was coveted by just one restaurant owner and now it's two because of that naked Krabs from another universe. The Scooby Snax Secret Recipe is coveted by many factories.

Echo: That is a big difference.

Batman: That is a crazy rivalry.

Robin: Geez no kidding.

Batgirl: Yeah that sure is crazy.

Lady Shiva: That is a really huge difference. Lets do it.

Tornado Bolt: The blue raspberry flavored Scooby Snax were awesome. I love how they turned J.D.'s tongue and teeth blue.

Pepperdance: Yeah that was awesome. Like how they were sucking on a lollipop and how they had their tongues turn blue.

Cayenne: That was awesome.

Gusty: That was amazing seeing that.

Eruptor: It sure was cool. It was like what happened when J.D. and the Loud Kids had those Pretty Patties and they had their tongues turn different colors.

They laughed.

P'andor: That is indeed amusing and interesting.

Radioactive Man: It sure was interesting.

Steela Oresdotter: (Norwegian Accent) Yeah that was crazy.

Flashwing: That was REALLY nuts. Lola took a huge beating out of it.

Bash: But H.A.R.D.A.C. didn't look at us getting powers.

Crimson Chin: That's good he missed that out.

Cleft: Yeah thank goodness.

Golden Gut: (Japanese Accent) I'm glad everyone is okay.

Crimson Dynamo: Me too. Lets do it.

Twilight Sparkle: But the craftsmanship of Trina from J.D.'s point of view is amazing. His data eyes analyzed Trina and it was amazing.

Luster Dawn: Yeah it sure is amazing.

Princess Cadance: I don't know what Trina's dad was thinking when he made her. She is a monster.

Flurry Heart: Yeah no kidding.

Star Swirl: Making a robot daughter is playing with fire.

Spryo: You got that right.

Splat: Yeah but she has to be stopped no matter what.

Batch: Yeah she has no right to walk among us.

Gluko: You said it.

Mondo: She is not a robot, she's a monster.

Rockna: Yeah you said it!

Spectra: Trina has no right to call herself human.

Gearhead: You got that right. Lets do it!

He had the plane and truck go at them and they dodged them and blasted him all over the place with magic, lightning, energy and light and smashed him down.

Thor: Thou did well.

Twilight Sparkle: That was amazing!

9. Skyla, Princess Celestia, Light Skylanders, Mallow, Erika, Syd Chang, Sam Manson, Laney, Luminous and Nightshade VS Angel

Xiao Fung: That's terrible.

Ulrich: It is.

Ulrich went over his history.

---

Undergrowth is a character who first appeared in the Danny Phantom episode " Urban Jungle ". Undergrowth regards plants over all life. To him, they are his "children". He sees humans as fragile, temporary lives that won't last long; "Humans are merely a temporary weed in the garden of life… a weed that can be removed." He prefers using humans to do his dirty work by using mind vines to take control of humans and grow to enormous sizes. He also does not appear to have the basic ghost powers (aside from intangibility and flight); he is one of the few ghosts that can easily regenerate lost body parts and from being blown or shattered into pieces.

He was voiced by Mark Hamill, who also played The Joker in Batman: The Animated Series, the Skeleton King in Super Robot Monkey Team Hyper Force Go!, Maximus in the Fantastic Four animated series, the Hobgoblin in Spider-Man: The Animated Series, Kavaxas in Tales of the Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles, Stickybeard in Codename: Kids Next Door, Flint in Disney's Buzz Lightyear of Star Command, Niju in Balto II: Wolf Quest by Universal Pictures, Solomon Grundy in the DC Animated Universe, Fire Lord Ozai in Avatar: The Last Airbender, Trickster in The Flash, Dictatious Maximus Galadrigal in Trollhunters, ShiverJack in Disney's Jake and the Never Land Pirates, Agent Goodman in Disney's Recess: School's Out, Popsicles in the 2016 reiteration of The Powerpuff Girls, and Alvin the Treacherous in the How to Train Your Dragon series.

Biography

After Vlad Plasmius became Mayor of Amity Park, he started a "beautification campaign" that involved cutting down trees and plants for new buildings, Angered that the people of Amity Park were destroying his children for urbanization, he attacked and used mind vines to turn everyone into his slaves including Danny's Family, Tucker and Sam. With Sam turned into his "daughter", he had her attack Danny, however, with his currently uncontrolled new ice power, manages to escape into the Ghost Zone searching for Frostbite to help him . Sometime later, Danny returned, having finally mastered his ice power thanks to Frostbite. Using it, he managed to destroy Undergrowth's new plant world by freezing his roots causing the giant plant to shrink thus defeating Undergrowth as well a freeing everyone under his control . Undergrowth was reduced to a shrub but was planning to take over again only to be destroyed by Tucker's lawn mower. He was perhaps one of the most powerful ghosts in the series ties with Vortex but surpassed by Dark Danny.

He makes a cameo in Boxed- Up Fury in which Walker's goons post a bounty of a $3 million dollar reward for capturing him

He makes on last cameo appearance in the series finale Phantom Planet in which Danny attempts to fight him again but is easily defeated by him and rips his clothes off, moments later he is defeated by the Master's Blasters fighting team. Later, he along with all the other ghosts in the series with the exceptions of Vlad Plasmius (who was in space regretting his actions) and Dark Danny (who refused to help or was still trapped in the Fenton Thermos) appear to help Danny turn the earth intangible so the Disasteroid can pass through it harmlessly, saving the earth and the Ghost Zone as well.

---

When he was done everyone was shocked!

Princess Luna: My goodness. Thank goodness that Danny and everyone are all right.

Snowdrop: Yeah that must've been one crazy time for everyone.

Gari: No kidding. That plant was terrifying.

Blackout: No kidding. He was a nightmare.

Brittney: He sure was and the battle with him is where Sam got her powers.

THE END

---

Another adventure done.

This was number 4 of Etstheclarencefan's ideas for the week and it was awesome! Trina the Robot of the Big Hero 6 series was a ruthless android that needed to be destroyed. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan, Drako1234658 and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next girl from Daily Life With A Monster Girl is gonna be Fal the Griffin and she will be in the Ancient Den of the world of Magic The Gathering. The 5th chapter of Ets's week of ideas is for Legend Quest and we're going to see if the legend of the Fenrir is real and destroy it. I know it's not right but the Fenrir is a monster in Norse Myth that will destroy the world if we don't stop it. We're also going to meet Leo San Juan and his friends and help them.

See you all tomorrow.

A Sick Ben and An Evil Wolf

Over in the plains of the world of Magic The Gathering, me and Holly were flying over an ancient city.

Me: Wow what a city.

Holly: (Icelandic Accent) It sure is amazing.

We arrived at the Ancient Den and landed.

Holly: Unlike the others, I'm not gonna grow. I'm gonna shrink!

Holly concentrated and groaned as she got smaller.

Me: And she has the power to grant wishes.

Her clothes fell off and she was now in her Jirachi form.

I picked up her clothes for safe keeping till she turns back.

Me: Here we go.

We went into the Ancient Den and it was an interesting place.

Me: Wow! So this is the Ancient Den. It's amazing that it was here all this time.

Holly: It sure is amazing.

Me: This was the lair of Taj-Nar, Throne of the Raksha Golden Cub and destined leader of the Leonid Prides.

Holly: Wow.

Me: This is amazing.

We went into the main room and we saw the next girl that McWolf got and she was a Griffon.

Me: Wow she's a Griffon.

Holly: Wow amazing.

McWolf came out.

McWolf: Nice place for a rescue huh?

Me: It sure is.

We jumped him and tickled him all over the place. We got the girl free.

Fal: Oh thanks guys. Wow! You're J.D. Knudson, leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: That's right.

Fal: My name is Fal and I'm a Griffon yes.

Me: Pleasure to meet you and this is Holly. She's a Jirachi.

Holly: Pleasure to meet you. I'm gonna revert back.

Me: Okay.

I put on my Blind Man glasses and Holly reverted back.

Holly was human again. But naked.

Holly: (covers herself) I don't know why I didn't just wished for you to be free.

Fal: I think McWolf wanted me to be saved by you guys.

Me: She's right on that.

I gave Holly back her clothes.

Holly: Thanks J.D.

Fal: That must happen all the time.

Holly: Yeah it sure does.

Me: Lets head back so we can talk.

We went back to the World Tree Estate.

---

Back at the World Tree Estate, everyone was watching TV and having breakfast.

We came back and Holly went to get some breakfast.

Fal: Wow! So this is the World Tree Estate that I heard about.

Me: Yep. It's home.

Miia: Fal!

Fal: Miia!

Mia and Fal hugged and almost instantly Fal became friends with Gallus and Gilda.

---

Later we were watching TV.

Nico: Guys Ben is sick!

Me: What!?

We went to Ben's work and he was sick as hell.

Me: Whoa man! Ben you look horrible.

Kevin Levin: (to Ben) Another day of you being sick, huh?

Ben: (Sneezes)

Me: Sorry you're sick Ben.

Nico: Yeah I heard you got sick several times on some of your hero adventures.

Gwen: Yeah the worst was when Clancy tried to nuke San Francisco.

Me: The Bug Guy tried to nuke the city? Crazy.

Ben: (Groans) I don't think I'm gonna make it.

Riley: You'll be all right Ben.

Billy Numerous: Yeah it's rough getting sick. Sorry this happened to you.

Ben: It's all right.

Eli: But you will pull through.

Max: Don't worry guys. All Ben needs is a dose of my San Ju Yen Pien Cold remedy.

Me: What's that Max?

Max: It's a remedy that I learned over in China.

Me: Wow.

Max went into the kitchen and greenhouse to make it.

Blitzwing: You better not make me sick.

Nico: Don't worry Blitzwing, I don't think Cybertronians can get sick.

Max came back with his remedy.

He gave it to Ben.

Ben: I forgot how awful this smells.

Me: Hoowee! You aren't kidding.

Kevin Levin: Is that really supposed to smell like that?

Max: It smells worse than it tastes. Or is that the other way around?

Ben drank it and it tasted really awful.

Me: Ew.

Keiichiro: I still think Ben should go with us on the next mission.

Maria: In his condition?! No way!

Keiichiro: When I was poisoned by Togeno Aves before, that didn't stop me from accomplishing the mission to defeat him with Sakuya and Tsukusa.

May: But Ben's sick, not poisoned!

Keiichiro: I know that. But do you really think this will stop him from coming with us anyway?

Sky Lynx: He has a point.

Me: Yeah I agree with May and Maria. Ben is too sick to do anything. But from what Gwen told me, he was able to stop Clancy from Nuking all of San Francisco and he even helped Tetrax bring back the planet Petropia when he was sick. Ben is a really strong willed guy.

Riley: Wow that's amazing!

Eli: Wow! Girl Jordan you got sick before and saved Carol Ferris right?

Girl Jordan: I sure did. I showed that I was really strong willed when I was sick.

Applejack: That shows that you've got a big spirit.

Rainbow Dash: And that is awesome.

Me: Oh right we got to get ready for our next mission.

Killer Frost: (to Ben) If you die on the next mission, I'm not going to your funeral.

Me: Louise that was totally uncalled for!

Killer Frost: Sorry.

Me: Lets get ready guys. And Riley keep an eye on Ben okay?

Riley: Right!

Killer Frost: Sorry about that, Ben. I know that was cold of me. (chuckles) Pun intended, of course.

Ben: (Laughs weakly) I get it.

Luan: That was a good one.

Me: That was funny. You know who else likes cold puns? Muscle Man's Mom!

We laughed at my joke.

Muscle Man: (Laughs) That was a good one!

Killer Frost: But seriously, Ben, I really am sorry.

Ben: I know and I accept your apology.

Me: Good.

Ghost, Shiva, Captain Boomerang, Crimson Dynamo, P'andor, Diabolico, and Gearhead then appeared.

Ghost: Can me, Shiva, Captain Boomerang, Crimson Dynamo, Billy, P'andor, Diabolico, and Gearhead come with you guys? (to Ben) Geez, Ben. You don't look so good.

Billy Numerous: I said the same thing to him earlier.

Me: Yeah he caught a cold when he was helping people in Iceland.

Gwen T.: But Ben is a strong guy.

Me: Yeah. You all can come with us. But some of you will have to help Ben with his cold.

Diabolico: Okay.

We were off to Iceland.

NORTHERN ICELAND

We were in Northern Iceland and it was freezing cold.

Francis: This must be our destination.

Me: Yep. We're right by Ólafsfjörður.

Nico: Hard name to pronouce.

Holly: I've been here before. It's an interesting area.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja und it's beautiful.

Fal: Boy it sure is. And the Aurora is beautiful.

Me: You said it.

Ben sneezed and he was shivering.

P'andor: (to Ben) (Russian Accent) Ben, stay close to my body. My heat will keep you warm.

Ben: Thanks P'andor.

We heard a REALLY scary howl.

Me: Whoa what was that?

Nico: Sounded like a wolf.

Eli: I've never heard a wolf sound like that.

Ets: Me neither. That was creepy.

We then heard a rustling in the bushes.

Xion: Alright! Who's there?!

We looked around and we saw a boy from Mexico and with him was a girl that was glowing?

Me: Hola amigo.

Leo: Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's an honor.

Teo: Same here.

Leo: I'm Leo San Juan.

Teo: I'm Teodora Vicenta de la Purísima Concepción de la Inmaculada Trinidad Villavicencio but you can call me Teo.

Don Andrés: And I'm Don Andrés.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you all.

Leo: Same to you J.D.

Captain Boomerang: Sorry, mate. Thought you were the one that made that howl.

Leo: That's all right. We were on the trail of our old friend the Fenrir.

Me: A Fenrir, the World Eater of Norse Myth?

Froze: One of my kind is here? Weird.

Me: That's right and Iceland is one of the countries that was inhabited by the vikings centuries ago. Many of the Norse Legends come from Norway, Sweden, Finland and Iceland.

Slugslinger: By "old friend", you mean "old enemy", right?

Leo: Yeah. He is a huge problem.

Froze: Sounds like it.

Me: Looks like this Fenrir has been terrorizing this part of Iceland and I can tell that Ben got sick from here protecting the inhabitants.

Nico: Yeah.

Eli: And the Force is telling me that the Fenrir is in a cave in that area to the east.

Me: Then that's where we're heading. After this we'll take Ben to the hot springs here.

Diabolico: First, why don't you tell us about Fenrir?

Leo: Okay.

He went over its history.

---

Fenrir, the Eater of Worlds, is a major recurring character in Legend Quest and arguably serves as the secondary antagonist of the series, though initially appears as an unlikely ally to Leo and others.

In the distant past, Fenrir was regarded as the rival of Quetzalcoatl, though through mysterious circumstances, he has since been chained away to guard Yggdrasil. In the past, Fenrir has devoured entire worlds for unknown reasons. During "Fenrir", he encountered Leo San Juan and the rest of Team Legend in their quest to find Yggdrasil. He had decide to "aid" the team though it was made apparent that his motivations were not altruistic and were in nature, devious. Fenrir would prove to be one of the teams greatest enemies in spite of being an "ally".

When he was done we were shocked.

Me: Whoa! So this Fenrir is a rival of the legendary Feathered Serpent, Quetzalcoatl.

Nico: That's crazy.

Me: No kidding.

Laney: Yeah that's crazy.

Brawl: Why not let Fenrir and Quetzalcoatl kill each other? It would make our jobs much more easier.

Nico: Brawl, these are legendary creatures we're facing.

Me: Yeah and Fenrir is a dangerous monster that wants to destroy the world. He's not called the Eater of Worlds for show.

Fal: I've heard about the legendary Fenrir.

Froze: Same with me and he is what I am.

Leo: Wow.

Me: Yep.

Crimson Dynamo: Look, I know I'm still a criminal. But I know you guys wouldn't let those two kill each other and endanger civilians in the process.

Me: You got that right Yuri and what those two are doing is absolutely terrible!

Ed Grant: We'll lock up Fenrir in a DISK for this.

Laney: Have you ever used your DISK's on Mythological creatures before?

Jessica: No we sure haven't.

Mollie: First times for everything.

Me: Yep. And it will see if the DISK's can trap creatures like the Fenrir.

Leo: Wait. You're not gonna kill him?

Wind Man: Well, we can't kill him when one of us is sick and not at full strength.

Ben: That's me.

Me: Yeah. Ben is incapacitated with a cold after he was trying to protect people here from it.

Teo: Oh sorry Ben.

Ben: (Sniffles) It's okay.

Gearhead: I'll need to take control of a vehicle for the battle.

Gear: I'll need to take control of a vehicle for the battle.

Me: Hmm.

I found a car that was abandoned.

Me: That car will work.

Gearhead: Perfect.

Tempest Shadow: Now, let's find where Fenrir is.

Me: Right.

Eli: Follow me.

We followed Eli and we went into a scary cave.

Laney: Teo are you really a ghost?

Teo: No I'm actually out of my body. My real body is in a coma.

Me: Why what happened?

Teo told us about what happened to her.

---

Teodora Vicenta de la Purísima Concepción de la Inmaculada Trinidad Villavicencio (although often only referred to as Teodora Villavicencio ), occasionally affectionately referred to as " Teo ", and less affectionately as " Lady Teodora ", " Miss Teodora " and "

Paris Hilton Wannabe ",[5] as well as " Duchess of 'You'll See Now' ", " Marquise of 'Whew' " and "La Condesa vicinity" by herself, is a main character in La Leyenda and Legend Quest and a core member of Team Legend. While each of the main cast went through changes in the transition from Legend Quest, Teodora arguably went through the most changes, next to arguably Alebrije. Everything from her design to her personality, and most of all, her backstory were radically changed.

In the La Leyenda movies, Teodora was the ghost of a girl killed in 1755 by La Nahuala, a fate she shared with her entire family, as well as a native girl named Xóchitl and was force to haunt the Old Manor from there after. Teodora was more ladylike, given her rich upbringing. She owned a puppy named Chichi and was often dismissive of her friends. She called Leo a "scum-bag" and referred to Alebrije & Don Andrés as "hillbillies". She was generally more of a bratty character, refusing to help Leo after he accidentally destroyed her perfume. She did however, have a softer side. She loved her friends, Xóchitl and Leo San Juan, even kissing the boy on the cheek after he saved her from Nahuala.

Teodora would generally serve as the comedic relief of the series, always teasing her friends, putting them and making exaggerated demands. For the most part, her friends just play along with and don't let her antics boy them. Although truly not a bad person, Teodora doesn't know how to read the atmosphere of a situation and can insult her friends at the worst of times.

Teodora has a good heart underneath her bratty personality however. She truly loves her friends despite her constant name calling and teasing, and even sung a duet about how much she loved Alebrije as a friend. Even though they constantly bicker, Teodora will show worry, care and even warmth towards Leo under life or death situations, such as when Leo was getting beaten within an inch of his life by La Llorona or Leo was about to be executed by a firing squad. Even though she may have to be bribed prior, Teodora is willing to risk her neck for her friends, such as being used as bait for La Llorona or helping fend off the aforementioned witches vine monsters.

In Legend Quest, Teodora was instead reworked into a girl who was sent into a coma by an oncoming truck that she didn't notice because she was busy on her phone. After her hospitalization, Teodora was given a spirit form by Catrina. Initially overjoyed, Teodora was singing and dancing sheer happiness. Later, Teodora was given the choice of being with her parents or saving the world alongside Leo San Juan. After making the hard choice of leaving her parents and joining the fight against Quetzalcoatl, Teodora became one of Leo's best friends, though pretended to be a ghost the whole time. Teodora is still "girly" in this version, though has picked up several tomboyish traits, such as her scrappy spirit and willingness to fight her way out of dilemma's.

Although burdened by her laziness, Teodora is arguably the second most logical member of Team Legend and can make very smart decisions and be quite clever when she puts in the effort. Due to her magical smartphone, Teodora can learn information about whatever monster they encounter or location they're forced to brave. However, she doesn't always put this amazing ability to its best of uses and usually just uses her phone to pass the time.

In the new Netflix version, she is pretty much the same however she does not pretend to be a ghost. She projects her consciousness into the past and is very similar to a ghost so everyone assumes she is one, which infuriates her. She is later revealed as a real girl in a later episode.

---

When she was finished with her story we were shocked!

Me: Oh man. Teo I'm sorry to hear about that. But we'll help you get better.

Lily: Yeah I can heal you when we are done here.

Lola: Lily can heal anyone.

Me: Lets focus.

Billy Numerous: I'll make an army of clones for the battle.

Me: Okay and we're gonna need a lot of them.

Naruto: I'll make an army too.

Me: Roger that.

We heard a roar and we saw THE FENRIR!

Me: The Fenrir!

Runabout: Ben, against our better judgement, go ahead and attack Fenrir first.

Ben: Okay. (Sniffles)

Ben turned into Heatblast and he had blue flames on him.

Me: Whoa Heatblast looks cold.

Nico: Yeah.

Heatblast fired waves of cold fire and froze the Fenrir all over.

Lori: Pyronites shoot ice fire and Ice? Literally freaky.

Shiva: After we see the next sick alien, we're going in there.

Me: Right.

Ben turned into Stinkfly and we smelled Flowers?

Me: (Sniffs) Flowers?

Nico: I guess Lepidopterrans smell like flowers when they are sick.

Stinkfly: Yeah weird.

He fired slime at the Fenrir and smashed it down.

Then he turned into Diamondhead and he was as fragile as glass and he shattered apart.

Me: Oh man! A cold turns Petrosapiens into glass.

Julie Yamamoto: That is weird.

I pressed the Omnitrix and we saw that Grey Matter was as dumb as a doornail.

Me: What the fuck!

Nico: Grey Matter is dumber than a sack of diapers.

Riley: Oh man.

I pressed the button again and we saw that Ghostfreak was ON FIRE!

Me: WHOA!

Laney: I guess Ectonurites burst into flames when they get a cold!

Me: I think we've seen enough.

Ben reverted back and sneezed.

Nico: Geez.

Lana: Those are freaky.

Vince: No kidding.

Bella: I didn't know that a cold could do that to different aliens like that.

Eli: Me neither. That's weird.

Lily: Yeah.

Vexen, Wrecking Crew, Puff, Brass Knuckles, Plastique, Firefly, Mammoth, King Hiss, Vypra and Vanitas then appeared.

Me: Vexen, Wrecking Crew, Puff, Brass Knuckles, Plastique, Firefly, Mammoth, King Hiss, Vypra and Vanitas.

Nico: Strange seeing all of you in this cold place.

Vypra: Yeah it sure is.

Vexen: Is this the same Fenrir from Norse Myth?

William: More or less.

Firefly: I bet he's just as deadly.

King Hiss: Ben, are you sick right now?

Ben: What was your first clue?

Wrecker: Are you guys nuts?! Bringing Ben on a mission when he's ill?!

Keiichiro: Well, if we had left him behind, he would've knocked Ratchet out before following us.

Thunderball: He's got a point, Wrecker.

Me: But you should have seen what happens to some of his aliens when he has a cold.

King Hiss: We saw them.

Thunderball: That is weird.

Nico: No kidding. We were shocked ourselves.

Lincoln: Hard to imagine.

Me: No ki- (SLIPS ON SOMETHING) WHOA!

CRASH!

I crashed to the ground.

Me: Ow.

I saw that the ground was covered in banana peels.

Me: What the? Banana peels? Where did they come from?

Luan: Those aren't mine. Even though it was apPeeling! (Laughs to Rimshot) Get it? But seriously these aren't mine.

?: They came from me.

We saw a Proboscis Monkey dressed up in Mojo Jojo's clothes.

Hacha Chacha: My name is Hacha Chacha, and here is my spiel: A diabolical plan with lots of appeal! Spreading out bananas, out far and wide, and fixin' up the folk for a slippery slide!

Me: Wow!

Jared: It's another one of Mojo Jojo's minions that he infused with Chemical X.

Laney: I remember this one. He acts just like the late Jimmy Durante.

Jared: He sure does and he has what it takes to be like him.

Hacha Chacha: Thank you very much. Hachachachacha.

We laughed.

Muscle Man: You know who else likes bananas and Jimmy Durante? My mom!

We laughed at his joke.

Me: That was funny!

?: Boy it sure was.

A figure came out and it was OIL BOT from episode 14 of RPM!

---

This oil-themed Attack Bot attacked the city in his giant form. The Rangers responded with the Zenith Megazord, but the Attack Bot had the advantage with his slippery oil making the Megazord lose its footing. He blasted the Megazord, causing the Rangers to have to separate back to their individual Zords.

Upon Doctor K's orders, the Rangers formed the High Octane & ValveMax Megazords. They used their Megazords' finishing attacks to destroy the Attack Bot.

---

Scott Truman: Oil Bot!

Oil Bot: Long time no see rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were sent to attack the city of Corinth in your giant form right off the bat.

Oil Bot: I sure was. Good memory on you J.D.

Vypra: Didn't I tell you he had a good memory?

Oil Bot: You sure did.

Nico: And he never missed an episode.

Oil Bot: I hope you guys don't mind fighting on oil.

Me: Not if you light it on fire and poison the air.

Nico: Yeah.

Me: Lets get it on.

Gem: "Get In Gear! RPM Ranger Gold!"

Gemma: "Get In Gear! RPM Ranger Silver!"

All: "Rangers, Get In Gear! Power Rangers RPM!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off behind them and they were ready for action!

Megaforce Rangers: LEGENDARY RANGER MODE! RPM!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the RPM Rangers too!

Nico: First lets crack his safes.

Lisa: With pleasure!

Nico and Lisa teleported and cracked Oil Bot's Safes and opened them and in them were two swords.

Nico pulled out a sword that had the Astrological symbol of the Sun on it and Lisa had a really interesting sword. It had Iroquois symbols on it. It was a 6'0" large double-edged silver sword with gold angel wings for the crossguard, a sky blue deer etched into the blade, and a gold deer's head for the pommel.

Nico: Wow these swords are amazing.

Oil Bot: The sword with the Sun Symbol on it is Taiyocalibur the Sword of The Sun.

Nico: I know who would like this.

Oil Bot: And that sword with Lisa is called the Sword of Ga-Oh, The Iroquois Sprit of The Wind.

Lisa: I most know who would like to have this. Lori was blessed by the Winds of Ga-Oh when she got her powers.

Oil Bot: That's good because there's a huge catch with that sword. The sword can only be wielded by someone who had gotten their powers from Ga-Oh through the divine blessing.

Lisa: Goodness.

Nico: That IS a big catch.

Nico and Lisa jumped back and Nico gave the sword of Taiyocalibur to Ino.

Ino: Thanks Nico.

Nico: You're welcome.

Lisa gave the sword of Ga-Oh to Lori.

Lori: Is this sword for me?

Lisa Loud: It sure is.

Lori: Thanks Lisa.

Lori then felt a massive energy increase after she took the sword and Ino got a sun with the symbol of the Sun in the middle of it emblazoned in the middle of her forehead.

Nico: Lets get him!

RPM and Megaforce Rangers: RPM ENFORCER!

They formed said weapons.

Nico: Here's my Engine Cell.

He pulled out a rainbow engine cell with the number 100,000 in whale form.

Nico: ENGINE CELL ACTIVATE!

Lisa Loud: FIRE!

They fired waves of energy and the blasts all hit Oil Bot and he exploded in a massive fiery explosion!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Oil Bot was destroyed!

Nico: Oil Bot you have failed this universe!

Dying For Pie and A Frog Tyrant

In Australia, me and Elaine Logan were flying over the beautiful Australian Outback.

Me: Boy it sure is nice to fly over someplace other than the worlds of Magic the Gathering and Spyro's world.

Elaine Logan: It sure is. But wow Australia is amazing.

Me: It sure is. And there are lots of amazing creatures here to see. Kangaroos, koala bears, emus, kiwi birds, everything.

Elaine Logan: Yeah they are amazing.

Me: Yep.

Suddenly we saw explosions and knew something big was going on.

Me: Whoa! Looks like we got a huge helluva battle going on.

Elaine Logan: Lets go help out.

We flew over and we saw Ty and his friend girlfriend Shazza and his brother Sly fighting frilled lizards.

Me: Lets get them!

We flew down and blasted the Frills with energy and lightning blasts.

Ty: (Australian Accent) Thanks for coming guys!

Me: Anytime Ty.

Elaine Logan: Looks like we got here just in time.

Sly: (Australian Accent) You sure did.

Shazza: (Australian Accent) Glad you all can help us.

Me: Glad we can help out. Who is causing all this?

Ty: This is the work of my archnemesis, Boss Cass.

Me: Boss Cass? You mean that Cassowary Crime Lord that is out to rule the world?

Shazza: That's him mate.

Me: Looks like we can stop him and rescue the girl that McWolf kidnapped.

Elaine: We'll worry about me being indecent later. Right now, we have to get the next girl to safety before taking Boss Cass out!

Elaine concentrated and began to shrink.

Me: YEAH!

She turned into her Uxie form and we busted in and there standing in front of us was BOSS CASS!

---

Boss Cass (also simply known as Cass ) is the main antagonist of the Ty the Tasmanian Tiger videogame series. He is a southern cassowary, a ruthless collector of all things that are shiny, and a freelance extortionist with aspirations of world domination. His main goal is to dominate the world. He also has hordes of reptiles, including Frill-necked Lizards and Blue Tongues at his disposal, as well as some other non-reptilian animals.

Boss Cass got out on the wrong side of the egg. He did not tiptoe around the shells either. He is infamously known as the first non-magpie to be elected Boss of the International League of Kleptomaniacs.

He was voiced by the late Clement von Franckenstein.

Ty the Tasmanian Tiger

Cass' greed knows no limits as well as his distaste of mammals, and his latest coup had been the stealing of the Sacred Talismans that control the portal into the Dreamtime. With this, he would banish all mammals into the Dreamtime, and rule all of Australia.

Several years prior to the beginning of the story, while travelling in a Robo Fluffy, a giant robotic yowie or yeti, Boss Cass makes his way to Rainbow Cliffs to place the last talisman to open the portal to the Dreamtime. Before he could do so, a family of thylacines battled the would-be dictator cassowary, and seemingly won. But Cass activated the Fluffy to place the final talisman, activating the portal and sucking all of the thylacines in. Luckily, one of the family members threw his boomerang to dislodge the talismans as he was drawn through the portal. In the process, this destroyed the portal and scattered the talismans throughout Australia.

To finish his goal, Cass sent out his army of reptiles to seek out the talismans and to prevent those who would dare stop him. Boss Cass even dispersed many despicable and repugnant motives, such as sending his lizards out to reek havoc on innocent lives, damaging the enviroment, and even recruiting some creatures to do his bidding, even through sheer force. In the outback, a Frill finds the Tasmanian Tiger Talisman, and Boss Cass orders his minions to move out.

At his evil lair, Cass' Crest, word gets out that one of the talismans (the Frog Talisman, which was in Bull the razorback's possession) was retrieved by the last Tasmanian tiger, Ty. After receiving this message from Ty's long-lost brother, Sly the Tasmanian Tiger, who was adopted by Cass and learned his malign ways, the evil cassowary sends out his reptile minions to stop Ty. But failed to do so.

After Ty defeated Crikey, a tiger shark and King of the Coral Reefs who was cybernetically enslaved by Boss Cass, and retrieved the Platypus Talisman, the Frill and Blue Tongue leaders come to inform that Ty is "kinda well… uh… good." The Frill leader then suggests a surrender, which he was thinking . But Cass furiously reminds the Frill, through comical slaps and pecks, that he is the BOSS and he does all of the thinking. He then tells the lizards to leave, kicking the Frill in the end. Sly decides to go and face Ty himself, for who knows Tasmanian tigers better than him. He does face Ty, but is for the first time ever beaten, but escapes.

Soon Ty finds the third talisman, being the Cockatoo Talisman, in the possession of Boss Cass' Robo Fluffy, which was given an artificial yeti skin. After the pelt is burned off, the robot is revealed to be piloted by one of Cass' henchmen, a female thorny devil, Fluffy. After Ty destroys the Robo Fluffy, the real Fluffy escapes, shortly after saying that if things were any different, she and Ty could have made a team. When Cass learns of Sly's failure, the villainous cassowary decides to let Ty retrieve the last two talismans (his and the Dingo Talisman), so that way he would use his most horrible creation to defeat Ty and steal back the talismans.

Ty reaches Cass' Crest and finds his girlfriend, Shazza the Dingo, with the Dingo Talisman. But before he can get it, another of Boss Cass' henchmen, Shadow the ghost bat captures both Shazza and the talisman, only to be defeated. Ty runs into Sly, and the two face off again, but Sly almost falls into a river of lava, only to be saved by Ty. Shocked by this Sly threatens Ty and runs off. Ty then enters a huge room, where he sees Boss Cass' ultimate creation, a gigantic super robotic yowie, Neo Fluffy X. As the robot marches out of Cass' Crest, Ty hops on, and faces Boss Cass in a final battle.

After weakening Neo Fluffy X, Ty is about to face Boss Cass, until Sly appears again. This time, he gives Ty the same boomerang the male thylacine (their father) lost after dislodging the talismans, the Doomerang; Sly had discovered that he is Ty's brother but just found himself on the wrong side. He wishes Ty the best of luck and disappears, angering Boss Cass further by the betrayal. With the Doomerang, Ty destroys the core of Neo Fluffy X, destroying it and all Boss Cass worked for. After Ty placed back the final talisman, the Tasmanian Tiger Talisman, he is happily reunited with his family. Boss Cass is then sent to Currawong Jail for his crimes.

Ty the Tasmanian Tiger 2: Bush Rescue

A year after his defeat, Boss Cass is released from Currawong Jail by Fluffy and her army of reptiles, just as Ty the Tasmanian Tiger and his team, called Bush Rescue, are about to stop them. Later on, the evil cassowary opens Cassopolis, a city for reptiles, and possesses diplomatic immunity, keeping him from being arrested as long as he is on 'Cassopolis business'. Little does anyone know, Boss Cass decides to pull a new scheme.

He sends Fluffy, who is now his new assistant after Sly's depature, to retrieve the Grid Processor from Currawong University. When Ty, who got a distress signal from Steele Springs, finds Fluffy there, she summons Patchy the Cybersaur (an Ankylosaurus with robotic enchancements on his head, tail, and back). Ty succeeds to defeat the dinosaur, but Fluffy escapes. She returns to Cassopolis with the Grid Processor, and Professor Karlos, a new henchman and evil uncle of Julius (a koala who works with Ty), places the processor into a horrible device called the Mammalian Manipulation Machine. As he activates it, the machine doesn't work very well. As revealed, Karlos still needs one more component. So Boss Cass sends Fluffy to retrieve another device: the Bio-Organic Micro Scanalyzer, which creates a holographic resonant image of the Deoxyribonucleic constituent of any tissue sample.

To cover her tracks, Fluffy starts a fire at an offshore oil rig. However, Ty finds her, but soon faces another monster sent by her, Buster, a creature formed by the joining together of thousands of yellow bug-like nanobots, which is soon defeated by Ty. Back at Cassopolis, Boss Cass and Karlos once again begin another demonstration of the Mammalian Manipulation Machine. The machine starts with Bio-Organic Micro Scanalyzer extracting the genetic information from the mammal prisoner Cass captured, then the Grid Processor calculates the attributes necessary for the Frill subject. This mixes the warm-blooded strength from the koala with the Frill's cold-blooded ferocity to create Uber Frill. With test completed successfully, Boss Cass decides to put his evil plan into action: to kidnap the entire population of Burramudgee to create an unstoppable army of uber reptiles.

Fluffy then steals a Shadow Drive, but Ty defeats her and recovers it, along with a Data N.U.T., which after Julius analyzes it, everyone at Bush Rescue discover about Cass' diabolical plan. Before they can react, Boss Cass begins a seige on Bush Rescue HQ and kidnaps Burramudgee's citizens. Ty defeats the new Uber Frills, and soon he, Shazza, and Sly, who becomes part of the team, go to stop Boss Cass, along with Patchy and Buster. Ty faces Boss Cass once again in the heart of a volcano. Cass summons a swarm of green nanobots, which transform into a long-arm robot. But Ty destroys it, and defeats Boss Cass. The villainous cassowary is then seen back at Currawong Jail carrying out lunch duty and serving food to all of his lizard minions, saying "This is so humiliating…" in disgust.

Ty the Tasmanian Tiger 3: Night of the Quinkan

Boss Cass returns as the secondary antagonist of the third installment. He escapes from prison yet again. He meets with Ty the Tasmanian tiger at Cassopolis, where they decide to team-up to stop the Quinkan, a mysterious and evil force that is trying to take over not only the Dreamtime, but also the entire universe. Cass also tells Ty that he would figure out where Shazza is taken as she is captured by the Quinkan, if he would do some tasks for Cass. Ty's first job is to retrieve a thunder egg to power a machine to destroy the Quinkan, which he has to get by beating the Redback Gang in a racing derby. Then, his next job is to activate the emergency back-up generators for Cassopolis after the Quinkan destroy the others. The third job would be for Ty to keep a Robo Bug from being destroyed by the Quinkan at Cossie Atoll. And finally, Ty is to recover a device from one of Cass' drop ships that crashed on Kaka-boom Island. Ty discovers it was underwater, but faces a mutant hermit crab, which has used the ship as a shell. Ty defeats the crab and recovers the device. Eventually, Cass comes good to his word and discovers that Shazza is being held hostage by a Dragonquin. Ty uses the Gunyip to defeat the beast and rescue Shazza afterwards.

Later on, when Ty faces the Quinking, the lord of the Quinkan and the main antagonist of the game, he finds the evil entity possessing Boss Cass. He reveals that Boss Cass foolishly summoned the Quinkan, believing that he would control them, only for them to use him as their unwilling pawn. The Quinking then takes the form of the most powerful being on the planet, Ty the Tasmanian tiger. After a long and staggering fight, Ty and the Quinking collapse in exhaustion. Boss Cass then appears with Fluffy, Shazza, and Sly captured. To see to it he rules Australia, Cass has both Ty and the Quinking at gunpoint with a laser gun. Boss Cass, being a "sporting man", gives the two a sporting chance by firing on the count of three. As Boss Cass fires, Fluffy sacrifices herself to save Ty by jumping in the line of fire and pushing him out of the way; the blast vaporizes her and the Quinking. Shocked over what transpired, Cass is sent back to jail by Sly, too saddened to fight back. With Cass back in prison and Fluffy remembered as a hero, Burramudgee returns to a state of peace with mammals and reptiles as allies, ending Cass's evil for good.

Boss Cass: (Australian Accent) So J.D. Knudson of Team Loud Phoenix Storm and my archnemesis Ty has come to stop me again.

Me: Not just stop you Cass. We're going to kill you!

Ty: (Australian Accent) This time you've gone too far Cass. We're taking you down for good!

Elaine Uxie: And it will not be pretty!

Shazza: That's right!

I fired an energy blast and Elaine fired an energy blast and Cass was obliterated in an instant!

Me: Good riddance.

Me: Ty, Sly, you better put these on because Elaine is gonna revert back.

I handed them blind man glasses.

Ty: Thanks mate.

We put them on and Elaine reverted back.

Elaine was human again. But naked.

Elaine: (covers herself) Thanks for coming with us, Ty.

Ty: No problem Elaine. Thank goodness J.D. has more pairs of these blind people glasses just in case.

Me: But now we've seen the last of Boss Cass.

I gave Elaine her clothes and she went and put them on.

We went into a room and we found the girl and we saw that she was a Mummy.

Me: Wow she's a mummy.

Elaine: A mummy? Aren't they like in Egypt?

Me: Yeah.

We went over and cut her free.

Mokunaii XI: Thank you. Wow you're J.D. Knudson, leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: That's right.

Mokunaii XI: My name is Mokunaii XI.

Me: Wow! You're from Egypt's 12th Dynasty. That was from 1800 B.C.

Mokunaii XI: That's right. And I'm over 3,800 years old.

Elaine: Wow!

Ty: That's incredible!

Me: No kidding. These are my friends Elaine Logan, Ty, his brother Sly, and Shazza.

Elaine: Hello there.

Ty: G'day. Pleasure to meet you.

Sly: Same to you.

Shazza: G'day. Pleasure.

Mokunaii XI: Same here.

McWolf: Sorry it wasn't me this time you were gonna take down.

Me: That's all right McWolf. But beating Boss Cass was more than enough for everyone.

Shazza: It sure was.

Me: Lets head home.

We went back to the World Tree Estate.

* * *

Back at the World Tree Estate, everyone was getting ready for a special holiday we made called Sister Appreciation Day. It was a holiday for sisters.

Me, Mokunaii XI and Elaine came in.

Me: Here we are.

Mokunaii XI: Wow! So this is where you all live.

Me: Yep.

Nico: Oh wow! She's a mummy?

Me: Yep.

Cody (OC): Wait a sec. You're Mokunaii XI! Daughter of the pharaoh King Sesostris III.

Me: He was the Pharaoh of Egypt back then.

Cody (OC): Yep.

Gabe (Goosebumps): Wow! that was back 3,800 years ago.

Eli: It sure is.

Pharaoh Atem: And one of my successors.

Mokunaii XI: Wow! So you are my father's predecessor Pharaoh, Atem, son of Pharaoh Akhenamkhanen.

Pharaoh Atem: That is right.

Mokunaii: That's amazing.

Eli: Wow! And Pharaoh Atem is my father.

Me: Long story on that.

Miia: Mokunaii!

Mokunaii XI: Miia!

They hugged.

Miia: It's awesome having you with us.

Mokunaii XI: It sure is.

Nico: How did you rescue her J.D.?

Me: This time McWolf didn't kidnap her. It was Boss Cass, the mortal enemy of Ty.

Nico: That evil Cassowary that was out to rule the world!?

Me: Yep. And me and Elaine killed him.

Nico: Wow! Good riddance.

Me: Yep. We saw the girls and their sisters so excited.

Merrick: What's got you girls excited?

Aerrow: Is it someone's birthday today?

Twilight: No. But I think it's still a special day.

Me: You got that right guys. It's Sister Appreciation Day and it's where the sisters exchange gifts for this awesome sister holiday.

Nico: That sounds cool.

Mokunaii XI: That is interesting.

Nico: But that's amazing that you guys took down Ty's evil archnemesis, Boss Cass.

Me: It sure was.

Eli: Good riddance to that bad chicken.

Ets: Yeah thank goodness.

Akira: Oh, man! Does this mean I had to get Hikaru a present as well?

Yusei: (laughs) Relax, Akira. It's Sister Appreciation Day, not Brother Appreciation Day.

Me: That's next later. Also I think this is very cute.

Nico: Me too. My sisters Alicia and Mindy are happy about it.

Eli: So are Tara and Gloria.

Lincoln: Starfire and Blackfire too.

Eli: All of your sisters are happy about it Lincoln.

Lincoln: They sure are. We all are.

Me: Same here.

The sisters and brothers gave their sisters gifts.

Ruby: (to Yang) Yang, here's a gift from me.

Scrappy Doo: Uncle Scooby, is it okay if I give you a gift as well?

Dante Vale: Well, I guess nephews can give their Uncles gifts too.

Me: That's fine with me.

Scooby Doo: Sure Scrappy. What is it?

Scrappy gave him a bunch of boxes of Nico's newest flavor of Scooby Snax: Vanilla Mint Ripple.

Nico: Vanilla Mint Ripple Scooby Snax. My newest flavor.

Scooby Doo: Roh boy!

Shaggy: Like, those are perfect for you Scooby.

Me: And here's my awesome gift to you Shaggy.

I gave him an awesome ginormous pizza that was the size of the Map Table in Twilight's Castle!

Shaggy: OH BOY! Like what a pizza!

Me: Me, Nico, Eddy, Lincoln and Mary K. made it for you.

Ruby's gift was a connecting locket. It was two lockets that would connect together.

Yang: Wow! Thanks sis.

Yangs gift was an awesome video game. It was Splatoon 2!

Ruby Rose: WOW!

Luan: Here's my gift Lori.

She opened her gift and Lori got an awesome locket and it was beautiful.

Lori: It's literally beautiful. Thanks Luan.

Rita: Hold it, Lori. Did you present your Sister Appreciation gift to Luan?

Lori: (sighs) No. But I'll buy her a gumball.

Mr. Krabs: Oh no no no no no lass. You know the rules.

Tracer: That's no good. You should've had your gift ready for today.

Vert: Why don't you make it a special gift for Luan?

Me: Yeah. You'll think of something for her.

Eli: Go for it Lori.

Lori: I'll be right back guys. I got to get Luan's gift.

Me: Take your time Lori. We have all day.

Lori went down to the surface.

Lori rushed outside. Once she was alone, she panicked.

Lori: "Oh, what do I do now? I forgot to buy Luan a gift. I have to get her something."

Suddenly, a truck stops near the estate. It looked like a food truck. Lori notices this. But the driver and the men looked like pirates. And the truck was full of pies.

Captain: "Now drive more carefully. One single bump and kaboom!"

Lori went up to them.

Lori: "Excuse me, I couldn't help but notice you were selling homemade pies. Those pies look delicious."

Driver: "Oh, those aren't homemade. They were made in a factory. A bomb factory. They're bombs."

Lori: "Gee, that's too bad. I wanted to buy one."

Captain: (CASH REGISTER DING) "Wait! Uh, we were just kidding about that bomb stuff. That'll be twenty five bucks please."

Lori: "So what flavor is it?"

Driver: "Cherry, Uh, cinnamon apple pie."

Lori: "Good enough for me."

She paid and got her pie. Lori walked back to estate.

Lori: "This is literally great. Luan loves pie."

She went inside and saw the family in the living room.

Lori: "Guys, where's Luan?"

Rita: "Well, she said she wanted to be prepared for the special surprise you got her. She's getting a blindfold."

Me: Wanted to be surprised.

Lola: "Is that a pie?"

Lana: "Yummy!"

Me: (Sniffs) Mmm! It smells great.

Nico: What flavor is it?

Lori: "Guys, this is for Luan."

Lynn Sr. took a small piece of the pie.

Lori: "Dad!"

Lynn Sr.: "I couldn't resist. Wait, this would go great with some milk."

He began walking to the kitchen but tripped over Lincoln's game console which cause him to drop the piece of pie. But then…

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

There was an explosion that blew up in our faces and we went flying into the park and we smashed into a mud puddle. We got burnt from the explosion. We were stunned for a moment and we all glared at Lori.

Doubledealer: Are you nuts, Lori? You could've killed us!

Randy Cunningham: I get that you hate the times we had to make you control your anger during most missions. But that doesn't justify you trying to blow us up!

Arkayna: (to Lola and Lynn) Did you two know about this?!

Lola: Don't look at us!

Lynn: We're just as shocked about this as you guys are!

I coughed smoke and I was covered in soot.

Me: (COUGH! COUGH!) Wow! That pie packs a big bang! But Lori what the hell was all that about!?

Eli: YEAH ARE YOU CRAZY!?

Lori: But guys! I literally had no idea! I can explain!

Me: Please do.

Nico: Yeah!

Lori told us that she bought the pie from pirates for $25.00 and she had no idea it was a bomb.

Mr. Krabs: $25.00!? A BOMB!?

All of us: IN THE WORLD TREE ESTATE!?

We rushed back to Lori's room and saw that the pie was gone!

Nico: That's where you left it!

Lori: It's literally not there!

Luan: Hey guys.

Luan came in and she licked her fingers.

Luan: Thanks for the pie Lori.

She walked away.

Tyler Bowman: (glares at Lori) So, you had to kill her. The girl gives you a locket and you kill her.

Zick: How the Hell are you gonna live with yourself?

Me: Lori what the Hell were you thinking!? That pie is lethal!

Laney: Yeah now you turned our sister into a bomb!

Lana: Yeah!

Lori: KILL HER!?

Lori thought about this.

Luan: Want to hear a funny joke?

Man: Sure.

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Luan exploded and a massive amount of blood, guts, organs and gore splattered all over a bunch of people and they screamed and fainted and hurled their guts out!

Thought ends.

Lori: (SCREAMS) NO NO! We got to get her to the infirmary!

Lisa Loud: Won't do any good. I've witnessed this before. When that pie goes up to bat, I mean hits her lower intestine, boom!

Lori grabbed Lisa.

Lori: You've seen this before?!

Lisa Loud: Eleven times as a matter of fact.

Me: Whoa!

Lily: This is very familiar.

SpongeBob: Yeah it sure is.

Me: We still have to do something.

Elita One: Guys, we should make Luan's final moments special. Why ruin her last day on earth? Our comedian sister deserves to enjoy her final hours.

Eli: Luan is not gonna die guys.

Me: How can you tell Eli?

Eli: The Force is telling me that she didn't eat the pie.

Me: She didn't?

Mokunaii XI: Then who did?

Me: Hmm. Maybe I can use Clockworks powers to replay time and find out that way.

Nico: That's right you did that for me with Ben when Rotwood and his gang framed me for causing all those jinx accidents.

Me: Yeah. It's worth a shot but lets do it.

Proto Man: (to Nico) Nico, I don't buy that Luan's really gonna die. But for now, we'll just let Lincoln and the rest of his sisters have this moment.

Nico: I agree with you on that.

Me: I do too. But lets just check and see who has the pie.

I activated my Omnitrix and used Clockwork's Time Review Powers and rewound the clock back to when we found out that the pie was a bomb and we saw a figure come in and it WAS NOT LUAN! It was one of The Masters of Evil but they had a black cloak on and their eyes were visible and he took the pie without anyone noticing.

Nico: So one of our friends has the pie.

Me: Smart thinking. But lets just play along with it till the time comes.

I deactivated the Time Rewind.

Laney: Looks like one of our frenemies saved Luan's life.

Me: Yeah no kidding. Now we got to get ready for our next mission.

King Hiss, Vexen, Wrecking Crew, Puff, Brass Knuckles, Plastique, Firefly, and Mammoth then appeared.

King Hiss: Can me, Vexen, Wrecking Crew, Puff, Brass Knuckles, Plastique, Firefly, and Mammoth go with you guys?

Me: You all sure can. But the Loud's are going through some hard times right now.

Vexen: Why is that?

Me: Lori thinks she accidentally gave Luan a pie that was really a bomb and they think that Luan ate it and she's going to explode at sunset.

They gasped!

Puff: Oh man!

They glared at Lori.

Lori was crying.

Lori: (CRYING HARD) I'M SORRY! I LITERALLY DIDN'T KNOW!

Brass Knuckles: Lori it's not your fault. You didn't know.

Firefly: Where did she get a pie like that?

Me: She bought it from pirates that made them in a factory.

Mammoth: You mean those pie-hurling bozo pirates that are well known around the city?

Me: Yeah I think that's them. But we'll talk about it later. Right now we're going to help Anne and her friends on the Island of Amphibia. She needs our help with something.

Lana: It will be awesome to see Anne again.

Nico: It sure will.

Cynder: I wonder how Anne's doing.

Me: We're about to find out. Lets get going.

We were off to the island of Amphibia.

---

AMPHIBIA

---

We arrived at the island of Amphibia.

Me: Here we are guys.

Firefly: Last time we saw Anne, it was before the war with the Royal Defenders.

Me: Yeah. That was almost a year ago.

Nico: No kidding. Time sure has flown by.

Lori was still crying. She had mascara dripping down her face and she was REALLY crying hard.

Bobby: Oh babe.

Lola: Poor Lori.

Lori: (Crying Hard) It's all my fault!

Luan: Lori what's all your fault?

Me: Nico you think we should tell her?

Nico: Yeah I think we should.

Vice: Look, let's save the explanations for later. I think I see Anne.

Me: No Vice. This is something we have to get off our chests or else it will haunt us forever.

Luan: What is it?

Me: (Sighs) Luan that pie that Lori got you? It was really a bomb.

Luan gasped!

Luan: That's what caused that explosion!?

Me: Yeah. Lori is crying because she thought you ate it and you're are going to explode at sunset.

Luan: But I never even saw or touched that pie let alone ate it.

Me: We know. And I think we were being overly dramatic. But we all thought that you were going to explode.

Luan: Even if I did see the pie, I would never eat it. I throw pies in peoples faces you know that.

Me: Yeah we do.

Nico: Yeah and they are tasty too.

Lola: Yeah.

Emma (ELGVTWD): They are good pies.

Miia: They sure are.

Luan: Thanks guys.

Anne: (Offscreen) HEY GUYS!

We saw Anne and she was coming to us.

Me: Hey Anne!

We hugged.

Me: Great to see you!

Vexen: How have you been, Anne?

Anne: Been doing really well. Wow you guys have grown in numbers a lot since we last saw you.

Me: That was almost a year ago when the war with the Royal Defenders was about to begin. Also we have so much to tell you ever since our last encounter.

Anne: Lay it on me.

We told her everything that happened ever since our first encounter as well as the War with The Royal Defenders and onward and she was amazed and shocked and thrilled about what went down.

Anne: Wow! You guys have been really busy.

Me: Yeah we sure have.

Ren Krawler and Linehalt were having a private conversation with Squidward, Lily, Mr. Krabs, and Spongebob.

Ren Krawler: Spongebob, did a similar pie incident happen to you before?

Spongebob: Yep. Squidward thought he gave me a pie that was a bomb like the one Lori bought.

Linehalt: Squidward, did you find the pie Lori bought in Luan's room?

Squidward: Actually, no! I checked and it wasn't there!

Ren Krawler: What?! Then someone else might've taken it.

Linehalt: It probably was one of the villains still out there. And that means he or she now has a bomb that they can throw at anyone or anything they wish!

Mr. Krabs: I just hope it was one of the Masters of Evil who took it.

SpongeBob: That's what I think too. But so far J.D. hasn't said anything about it.

Squidward: Yeah.

Ren Krawler: He knows something.

Lily: Yeah.

Plastique: So, Anne. Are any villains causing trouble at the moment?

Anne: Yes there are and that's why I called you all here. We need your help taking down the evil King Andrias Leviathan.

Me: What can you tell us about him?

Anne: I don't know anything but Marcy Wu here knows.

Marcy: It's an honor to meet you J.D.

Me: Same to you Marcy.

Marcy: King Andrias is the worst ever.

She went over his history and it was one of pure evil.

---

King Andrias Leviathan is the main antagonist of Amphibia. He is the king who, as his title states, rules over Amphibia[2] and lives in Newtopia. Marcy works directly for him, serving as a Newtopian Night Guard.

Before Amphibia

As seen by his title, King Andrias is the king of the land of Amphibia, which he has ruled for over a thousand years. He is the First of his name.

Meeting Marcy

He hired Marcy Wu and vowed to help her and her friends get home after the Calamity Box transported Anne Boonchuy, Sasha Waybright, and Marcy to the land of Amphibia.

King Andrias stands outside the palace, watching Anne and Marcy from afar before heading over to a chess-like board surrounded by other pieces. He then declares that the pieces are beginning to fall into place as he positions a figure that looks like Anne next to another figure that looks like Marcy, before announcing that the game is about to begin.

Meeting the Plantar

Andrias sends a "puzzlegram" but rather than sending a direct message, the king scatters clues across the area, which when combined form the true message. "Bring Me The Plantars," the message said when decoded.

The king extends a warm welcome to Anne and the Plantars. He requests to see the music box, which the Plantars do not have with them but Anne has a photograph of. Even though Andrias notes that the gems are gray rather than colored, he agrees to assist Anne and Marcy in returning home. Marcy would need to do some archive research in order to do so. Meanwhile, Andrias gives the Plantars a gold credit card, which they can use to buy whatever they want in Newtopia.

The Calamity Box

After searching through every book in the royal archives, Andrias and Marcy discover a hidden passageway leading to a secret wing of the archives; they decide to go down there and continue their quest. Anne, the Plantars, and Marcy meet with Andrias, who shows them a book with details about the music box; the three gems on the box must be charged at three separate temples in order for the box to be reactivated, but the book only reveals the location of one of the temples. Then, when Marcy is watching Anne depart with the Plantars, Andrias approaches her with a threatening proposal.

Suspicious Secrets

At the end of "The First Temple," after learning that Marcy and her companions had completed their quest successfully, Andrias goes into an underground chamber to tell an enigmatic figure, who he refers to as "My Lord".

True Intentions

Sasha and Grime attempted to stage a coup when the human girls and their friends came with the charged music box; thankfully for Leviathan, their efforts were in fruitless owing to Anne and her pals. Anne subdued Sasha despite her warnings about what she had learned about the King of Amphibia. With Andrias out of the dungeon, he ordered the royal newt guard to collect up and imprison all of the city's toad rebels. Anne ultimately passes the box over to Andrias, who states that Newtopia was once a much larger metropolis, but that the box was taken when he lost his friends, and that no one remembers how Amphibia used to be after 1,000 years. He assures everyone that now that he has the music box back, he would restore Newtopia to its former glory: not as a city of knowledge, but as a feared invading empire. The box gives the castle the ability to rise up into the sky from the city, high enough for everyone in Wartwood to view it. The old factories were then signaled to be reactivated, and they began building robotic minions for the huge newt king, which soared to his palace in seconds. Andrias announced to Anne and the others that now that he had the music box back, he would reign over all planets from his floating castle, with Earth being the first world he would invade.

When Anne and Sasha told the king that they would stop him, he decided to show his strength by destroying a toad tower with his castle's gigantic laser cannon. Marcy was perplexed when she told Andrias that this wasn't the plan they had discussed, only for Andrias to disclose that he had duped her. Andrias then decided to tell Anne and Sasha another secret: Marcy had deliberately got them stranded in Amphibia, startling them both. Marcy admits that she was aware of the Calamity Box's capabilities all along and that her parents were planning to move away and that she had hoped that the box would transport them to a world where all three human girls would always be together, before falling to her knees in tears of guilt while Leviathan ridiculed her for emptying her heart to him over Flipwart. This discovery hurts Anne, but she rallies her companions to battle Andrias and his freshly constructed Frog-bot army. During the conflict, both General Yunan and Lady Olivia defected from Andrias. Frobo is killed while defending Polly. When he tries to smash Polly, she sprouts a pair of legs and manages to avoid his fatal strike. She dashes to the box, but Leviathan grabs Sprig and threatens to throw him out the window unless the box is returned. Anne begs Andrias to put down Sprig after the group complies with his demand, but Andrias refuses and drops him anyways. To Andrias' surprise, Anne begins to glow blue, indicating that she is still connected to the Calamity Box's second gemstone; while he is distracted, Marcy flies on Joe Sparrow to save Sprig. After a tense battle, Anne loses control of her powers and passes out, demonstrating to Andrias that the human girl still lacks full control of her abilities. He musters enough strength to get up and walk up to Anne and the Planters, despite not being fully recovered. Marcy steals the box just as he is about to kill Anne and uses it to open a portal to Earth, where a reformed Sasha and Grime kept Andrias at bay and Anne the Planters and Frobo's head escaped through the portal. The portal closes as Andrias thrusts his flaming sword through Marcy.

When she was done we were HORRIFIED! He was gonna destroy the entire multiverse!

Me: WHOA MAN!

Nico: That guy needs to be killed at all costs!

Marinette: I'm gonna enjoy eating him.

Me: We all will. He will pay for his crimes big time.

Chomp Chest: Save some frog legs for me, Marinette!

Marinette: You bet!

Lana: Normally I don't like eating frogs but in this case I'll make an exception!

Fluttershy: What that frog is doing is pure evil.

Nico: And we'll make sure he suffers for it.

Laney: That's right!

Me: Yeah!

Wrecker: Maybe you should have the usual battles before we go after Andrias.

Maria: Why do you say that?

Thunderball: Most of you guys thought Luan was going to die.

Piledriver: That being said, wouldn't it be a good idea to spend some quality time with her during the battles?

Bulldozer: Wrecker, Thunderball, and Piledriver make good points.

Luan: Guys I'm fine! I'm not gonna die!

Me: Yeah guys quit being so paranoid on that. Luan is not gonna die.

Eli: Yeah it will take more than a bomb on the inside to kill her. Besides the Force told me she didn't eat the pie.

Me: That's right.

Dreadbane: We need to put it to a vote. Those of you who wish to have the usual battles now, raise your hand.

The Masters of Evil raised their hands.

Me: Okay that's 11. All oppose?

We all raised our hands.

Me: Sorry guys we'll have our battles after the battle with the King in the Gym.

Eli: That's right.

Me: Guys it's best you know. Luan did not eat the pie like she said.

I formed a hologram and revealed what happened and we saw what happened before Luan could find the pie.

Eli: See?

Luan: I told you!

Puff: Anne, are there still friends of yours that you need to find for the battle?

Anne: Yes everyone in the Toad village.

Sasha: We also have you guys.

Me: And we'll have to call in ALL of the Masters of Evil to help us out.

Nico: Good idea.

Eli: Yeah.

Maria: Here we go.

Luxord: Let's go to Toad Village first.

Me: Right.

We went to the Toad Village that Anne went to and we saw that it has grown a lot since.

Marcy Wu: Lot of things have changed since you guys came the first time.

Me: I know.

Brass Knuckles: I guess it's fair to fight frogs with toads.

Me: And toads are stronger than frogs.

Nico: Yep.

Lincoln: This is gonna be good.

We gathered a massive army of toad warriors and all of Anne's friends and we were off to King Andrias's castle. Clyde had an awesome entrance for us and he was gonna use the 10 Plagues of Egypt as his entrance.

---

At King Andrias's castle he was contemplating his next move when suddenly there was eerie singing.

Thus saith the Lord, thus saith the Lord

Thus saith the Lord, thus saith the Lord

Thus saith the Lord, thus saith the Lord

Thus saith the Lord, thus saith the Lord

Since you refuse to free my people

All through the land of Egypt

I send a pestilence and plague

Into your house, into your bed

Into your streams, into your streets

Into your drink, into your bread

Upon your cattle, on your sheep

Upon your oxen in your field

Into your dreams, into your sleep

Until you break, until you yield

I send the swarm, I send the horde

Thus saith the Lord

Once I called you brother

Once I thought the chance

To make you laugh

Was all I ever wanted

I send the thunder from the sky

I send the fire raining down

And even now I wish that God

Had chose another

Serving as your foe on his behalf

Is the last thing that I wanted

I send a hail of burning ice

On every field, on every town

This was my home

All this pain and devastation

How it tortures me inside

All the innocent who suffer

From your stubbornness and pride

I send the locusts on a wind

Such as the world has never seen

On every leaf, on every stalk

Until there's nothing left of green

I send my scourge, I send my sword

Thus saith the Lord

You who I called brother

Why must you call down another blow?

I send my scourge, I send my sword

Let my people go

Thus saith the Lord

Thus saith the Lord

You who I called brother

How could you have come to hate me so?

Is this what you wanted?

I send the swarm, I send the horde

Then let my heart be hardened

And never mind how high the cost may grow

This will still be so

I will never let your people go

Thus saith the Lord

Thus saith the Lord

I will not

Let your (my) people go

The 10 Plagues came at Andrias and his frog hordes and they were unleashed in full force on them. A wave of blood swept over them and drowned many of them and then massive swarms of frogs, flies, lice and locusts ate and destroyed many of the frogs all over the place and thunderstorms built and fireballs and burning hail rained down and incinerated many of Andrias's horde. Then came incurable boils and sores and the frog men screamed in excruciating pain. All of his horses and livestock died. Darkness covered his kingdom and then God's angels of death killed all of his firstborn men and all that. And then a massive fiery explosion appeared in the air.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

We landed and we were facing KING ANDRIAS!

Me: King Andrias the Terrible. So we meet at last.

Mammoth: End of the line, Andrias!

Squidward: Give us that pie bomb or you'll be sorry!

Ren Krawler: (facepalms) Smooth, Squidward.

Linehalt: We don't even know if he's the one who took the pie in the first place.

Me: Nevermind that. It's over for you Andrias. Your reign of terror ends right now!

Andrias: We'll see about that J.D. Knudson of Team Loud Phoenix Storm. You and your friends have come far and wide and have achieved so much but you will never be a match for my power.

Me: We'll see about that. You don't have any idea how far we have come.

Eli: That's right!

Beautiful Gorgeous, Riddler, Ragdoll, Trumbipulor, Kyd Wykkyd, Eccentro, Absorbing Man, Electro and Myotismon then appeared.

Me: Beautiful Gorgeous, Riddler, Ragdoll, Trumbipulor, Kyd Wykkyd, Eccentro, Absorbing Man, Electro and Myotismon.

Beautiful Gorgeous: Hope we're not interrupting anything.

May: Not at all. But we'll have the usual battles after we're done here.

Riddler: We know. We just came to give you this. (shows us the pie)

Maria: Wait. That's the pie bomb!

Ragdoll: We found it after that explosion and thought we should hold onto it until the time was right.

Trumbipular: You guys should be careful about leaving explosives out in the open! What if Goche and Baron Nero got ahold of it instead of us?!

Me: You do have a point there but thank you for saving Luan.

Riddler: You're welcome J.D.

Luan: And Lori?

Lori: Yeah?

POW!

Luan punched Lori in the face and gave her a nasty black eye!

Lori: OW!

Luan: That was for almost killing me!

Lori: I literally deserved that.

Nico: Ouch.

Me: Luan was that really necessary?

Luan: Sorry.

A figure came out and it was RHINOSAURUS back for round two.

Me: Rhinosaurus! Back for round 2?

Rhinosaurus: And to help Goku conquer his fear of needles.

Me: Right we need to do that.

Rhinosaurus: Goku, after this and before the battle with me, we're going into your dreams so you can conquer your fear of needles.

Goku: NO! I DON'T WANNA!

Rhinosaurus: I'm sorry, Goku. But this fear of yours has gotten out of hand. A guy like you shouldn't be afraid of a little thing like needles.

Vegeta: He's got a point, Kakarot.

Goku: Oh, c'mon! I'm sure you have a fear!

Vegeta: No I don't you stupid idiot!

Me: Master Vegeta calm down.

Nico: Kakarot this is for your own good. I know you're scared of needles but right now we have to get that fear out of you. One thing we Saiyans are known for is having no fear of anything. And your fear of needles has to have come from somewhere.

Me: That's right Master Goku. Let us help you get over it.

Goku: Okay.

Me: Leni got over her fear of spiders with Rhinosaurus's help so he can do the same with your fear of needles.

Goku: Okay then.

Rhinosaurus went into his head and he saw that Goku became fearful of needles when he was a baby and he was crying a lot before Planet Vegeta was destroyed. He hates needles and hospitals because he is afraid of surgeries that involve injections. Goku has hated since his birth. Goku appeared before Rhinosaurus and he saw his memories.

Goku: Hard to imagine I was like that when I was a baby.

Rhinosaurus: That is something. But Goku you have nothing to be afraid of. Doctors are not gonna poison you like you think they will. They are there to help you get better and not to kill you. All an injection feels like is comparable to a mosquito bite.

Goku: Really?

Rhinosaurus: Yeah everyone has to have them. Booster shots, vaccines, everything. Or else you stay sick. You don't want that do you?

Goku: Well no I guess not.

Rhinosaurus: And they are not poison Goku, they have medicine. It's just to help you.

Goku: Oh. Then I guess it's okay to get a shot.

Rhinosaurus: There we go!

They left his mind and Goku was reformed.

Rhinosaurus: There.

Me: Lets see if it worked.

Varie had a shot needle syringe and the needle shined and Goku just stared at it and he was unaffected by it.

Goku: That needle is no big deal.

Chichi, Gohan, Goten, Pan, Trunks, Krillin and me were thrilled.

Me: Wow! It sure did work!

Lincoln. Yeah it sure did! Nice job Rhinosaurus.

Rhinosaurus: Thanks guys.

Me: Lets tear these monsters apart!

We went at the army and King Andrias and blasted and pulverized and smashed them all over the place with incredible fury and power. We blasted them all over with fire, energy, elements and more.

Troy: Time for the finishing touches.

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Mighty Morphin!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Mighty Morphin Rangers!

Devon: Time for some serious buttkicking!

Tara: Can I transform with you guys?

Devon: You said can. Lets do it! IT'S MORPHIN TIME!

Beast Morpher Rangers: ACTIVATE BEAST POWER!

They transformed!

Devon: "Cheetah Beast Power, Red Ranger!"

Ravi: "Gorilla Beast Power, Blue Ranger!"

Zoey: "Jackrabbit Beast Power, Yellow Ranger!"

Nate: "Mantis Beast Power, Gold Ranger!"

Steel: "Scarab Beast Power, Silver Ranger!"

All: "Unleash The Beast!"

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off behind them and they were ready for action!

Tara walked up to Andrias.

Suddenly a massive earthquake was shaking the land and fire and rock and crystals were swirling around her.

Tara: Andrias I will never let you get away with everything you've done.

King Andrias: We'll see about that.

Tara: You will feel the wrath of the full force of the earth as I unleash it upon you.

Suddenly a massive flash of light erupted out of Tara and she was enveloped in a massive vortex of fire, hellfire, heat, lava, earth, crystal and rock and it exploded high into the sky and it formed into a powerful phoenix and dragon and her energy levels were rising fast at an incredible level! Volcanoes all over the remaining world of Amphibia were exploding simultaneously and the lava was flowing into the vortex. When the vortex faded, Tara was forever changed! She had longer blond hair and her butterfly baret was now made of lava and fire and her clothes were made of pure lava and fire and her wings were made of pure crystal, lava and fire and magma was dripping from her wings and the heat coming from her was incredible! She was now a SUPER ANGEL 10,000,000,000 VOLCANIC SCATH EARTHQUAKE!

Me: WHOA!

Nico: WOW! Tara looks incredible!

Gloria Markov: Wow! Sis you look awesome!

Beast Boy: Wow! Tara you look amazing!

Geoforce: Sis how do you feel?

Tara: (Divine Echoing Earthquake Voice) I feel amazing guys. This power will make sure that Andrias and his army suffers.

Nico: Wow!

The army of frogs came at her and she blasted them with a massive blast of incredibly intense flames and incinerated them in an instant. She then fired waves of crystal shards and clusters and they skewered many frogs all over and destroyed them.

Earthworm Jim: EAT DIRT FLY EATING TROLLS! (BLASTS ANDRIAS AND HIS ARMY ALL OVER) HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA!

Anne, Marcy Wu, Sasha, Fluttershy, Lana, me and Vypra: PREDATORS OF THE LAND, SEA AND SKY BLAST!

We fired waves of energy and elements and they formed into all the predators of the great powers of the animal kingdom.

Lincoln, Jessica, Nanami, Yuna, Minerva, R. Mika, Menat, Julie, Toph, Akko, Shantae, Entrapta, Perfuma, Frosta, Mai and Ibuki: PREDATOR FINAL SMASH: ALL YOU CAN EAT TOAD BUFFET!

They summoned the predators of the toads.

The blasts all hit the toads and King Andrias and exploded with incredible power and smashed them down.

Vypra: Marcy here.

She gave her the pie.

Marcy Wu: I know the perfect way to finish you! (throws the pie at Andrias)

William: (eyes widen) EVERYONE, HIT THE DECK!

We ducked and covered and then…

SPLAT!

KRAAABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The pie hit Andrias in his face and exploded with incredible power! The explosion was as powerful as a massive thermonuclear explosion and entire island we were on exploded with incredible force and power. When the explosion faded, there was a massive crater in the island and there was nothing left of Andrias and his kingdom. Nothing left of it remained but a huge crater as big as the whole island. Thank goodness it wasn't on the island of Amphibia.

When we got up we saw the crater.

Me: HOLY SHIT!

Nico: That was powerful!

Lola: WOW! Thank God that Luan didn't eat that pie.

Lana: YEAH!

Eli: Wow!

Suddenly it was raining frogs legs!

Me: Frogs Legs!

Marinette: ALL RIGHT!

We gathered all the frogs legs and we were eating them all over.

Anne: I'm just glad Andrias is gone now.

Deker: We all are.

Kyd Wykkyd: (to Lori) Now, what have we learned today, Lori?

Lori: Be careful about what you buy.

Eccentro: Just wanted to be sure.

Absorbing Man: I hope Brother Appreciation Day goes off without a hitch.

Me: Yeah.

We laughed.

Me: But we know you're serious about that. Also we need to find those pirates and take them down.

Nico: Yeah. They will rue the day that we got a pie bomb that nearly killed Luan.

Laney: Yeah!

Me: Lets get back home and have our usual battles.

Anne: Thanks for helping us guys.

Me: Anytime Anne. We've now seen the last of him.

Nico: Yep.

We went back home and we got ready in the gym for our usual battles.

Me: This is gonna be fun and Kairi we have your archenemy coming.

Kairi Yano: Who is it?

?: (Italian Accent) That-a would be me.

A figure came out and it was DON OCTAVIO!

---

Don Octavio is an anthropomorphic lion and the main villain while the Cooper Gang was in Venice. He planned to destroy Venice by sinking most of its landmarks but the Cooper Gang intervened and he is currently doing time in prison.

As a child, Octavio was in a world of fame, described as being popular in the neighborhood and famous for his singing. However, just when he was about to reach fame, music taste changed and opera was no longer popular, much to his dismay. With not much left, he held onto a few fans (members of some sort of mafia who recruited him into "the business") and then became an associate with a man known as Giovanni.

With the help of Giovanni, Octavio rose to the rank of a Don, becoming known as Don Octavio. Despite being a powerful boss, he had big plans to redeem opera in the streets of Venice. It apparently took several months to prepare. With the help of Giovanni, he secretly began pumping tar into the streets of Venice. The Venetian police caught on and Carmelita had to look into it, believing Don Octavio to be a prime suspect. Surprisingly, the Guru also knew of the pollution in Venice and spoke of it to Murray, telling him not to return until he'd made 'the black water run clear'. Sly and Bentley caught up with Murray and realized that Don Octavio was behind Venice's tar problem. As Octavio went around pumping more tar into the streets of Venice, he was secretly being photographed by Sly, so the Cooper Gang had evidence to have him thrown in jail. However, this effort was futile as Octavio had men on the inside of the police station and they picked up the photos which led to Octavio working out that the Cooper Gang was behind it. In order for his plot to work, he needed to take care of one of his biggest threats, Carmelita, as she was apparently trying to receive a warrant to search his opera house which would be a critical blow in his operation. He hired the 'Blue Viper Gondola' gang to take care of her but Sly and Bentley caught wind of what was going to happen and saved her life. They also took out his Ferris Wheel (which was being used to pump tar with the help of Giovanni).

Though the Cooper Gang had thwarted some of his operation, Octavio's plan was nearing its final stage and all he needed to do now was to advertise his upcoming opera recital. If the public didn't show up at it then he would sink the buildings in Venice until they agreed to his demands. The Cooper Gang attempted to take out his advertisements which gave Octavio the chance to confront Bentley and capture him. Sly chased Octavio across Venice until Octavio, realizing he couldn't shake Sly off his tail, threw Bentley at him, then fled inside his Opera House.

After this, the Cooper Gang managed to steal Octavio's Tar Pump Blueprints that he'd hidden behind paintings in three of his coffee houses. Realizing that his normal patrol wasn't enough, Octavio hired additional back-up who were similar to normal guards except with jetpacks. Sly and Bentley couldn't fight them head on and had to manipulate Carmelita and her mercenaries to take them out. After that, Bentley convinced Murray to take to the field and take out some of Octavio's tar pumps.

When the day of the Opera Recital arrived, Octavio was tricked into destroying his remaining tar drums by a disguised Sly, though it didn't matter as Octavio had already pumped out enough tar to start sinking buildings. Octavio then took to the stage but no one had shown up at the Opera Recital other than Bentley who challenged Octavio to a 'sing-off' which was just a scheme to swipe the controls to sink buildings out of Octavio's hand whilst Sly dropped a chandelier on Octavio's head.

As the sing-off reached its climax, Octavio moved closer to Bentley in a plot to kill him, but Bentley shouted "now!" and Sly dropped the chandelier on his head, Octavio stood in a state of shock. Unfortunately, Carmelita destroyed the chandelier and informed Sly, Bentley and the Don they were under arrest. One of Octavio's underlings pulled up in a gondola and Octavio quickly jumped in and escaped, followed by Sly and Bentley. As the chase continued in the waters of Venice, Octavio began to bomb the waters, in an attempt to shake off Sly and Bentley's gondola. Eventually, Octavio's gondola engine failed and he and his underling crashed into the stage, resulting in his underling's death. Sly and Bentley pulled up on the bank next to it and confronted Octavio, telling him to give them the demolition switch and then they'd all ditch the cops. Octavio first agreed, but when Murray said it was " so cool" that Octavio's gondola crashed into the opera stage he began sinking buildings. Bentley, infuriated by this, moved in closer to Octavio claiming him to be a monster, only to be kicked and sent flying. Sly backed up and asked for the help of Murray, who was on a rooftop above him. Octavio began to taunt Murray as Bentley asked for help. Murray leapt into battle and began fighting Octavio. Despite putting up a good fight, Octavio fell at the hands of Murray. Sly and Murray left him knocked out for the police to deal with then helped Bentley up from the floor. Octavio was left exhausted and captured by Carmelita.

According to Sly, he was sentenced to up to thirty years in jail. Ironically, he regained his long-wanted fame as most of his old fan base was already imprisoned.

---

Sly Cooper: Don Octavio!

Don Octavio: Been a long-a time Cooper. You did a really-a good job busting-a me.

Nicole: That was actually my doing but thanks for the compliment.

Don Octavio: You really-a had me going. Back in my-a day, we would beat people-a up for tricks like-a that.

Me: So we see.

Moaning was heard and a figure came out and it was THE MUMMY OF ANKHA!

Shaggy: ZOINKS! It's the Mummy of Ankha!

Qin: Looks like he is now part of the Masters of Evil.

Cody (OC): I remember him! He was the most feared ruler of Ancient Egypt back in its 14th Dynasty!

Jessie K.: That was back 3,700 years ago.

Qin: But the mummy was really Dr. Najim. He was after Ankha's most valuable treasure. A diamond scarab worth a fortune.

Laney: Wow!

Twilight Sparkle: What did he get?

THE END

---

Another awesome fanfic done.

This was number 6 of Etstheclarencefan's ideas. This chapter is a combination of 2 adventures. The first part is a land version of the SpongeBob Squarepants episode Dying For Pie and that's one of my all time favorites. That was so funny how SpongeBob and Squidward did all that stuff because they thought that SpongeBob was gonna explode. It aired on January 27th, 2001 and it was funny and awesome. The second part was for the 2nd adventure of Amphibia and King Andrias was the worst ever known! I'm glad we took him down. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, vinjedi1995, Darkhai, Etstheclarencefan, Drako1234658, Nflemingful and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. The next girl is gonna be Actia the Mothman and we're going to see her in the Okefenokee Swamp and we're also going to meet a famous legend there as well as help her take down some bad guys in the swamp. The final chapter of Ets's week of ideas is the second Glitch Tech chapter and we're going after the Chomp Kitty and also we're going to help Mika take him down. And I have just the Video Game for us to face it in.

See you all tomorrow.

A Game in The 9 Levels of Hell

Over the dark waters of the Okefenokee Swamp in Georgia, me and Kathleen Logan were flying over the most treacherous swamp ever known to the southeastern United States.

Me: Wow. The Okefenokee Swamp. The most treacherous swamp in the country.

Kathleen: It sure is dark and scary.

Me: Yeah. Home to alligators, poisonous snakes, quicksand, predatory birds and so much more. And a lot of legends live here too.

Kathleen: Deadly swamp.

Me: Yeah. My dad knows a movie from 1971 about a legendary girl that is said to live here.

Kathleen: What kind of girl?

Me: No idea. She is a very enigmatic figure. She lives in this swamp said to be looking for her family.

Kathleen: Wow. Very interesting.

Me: The Okefenokee Swamp holds many mysteries.

Kathleen: I have a feeling that someone besides McWolf and the girl of the day is here with us.

Kathleen concentrated and groaned as she began to shrink.

She turned into Mesprit and I picked up her clothes and held on to them.

Me: I have that same feeling too.

We flew on and we saw a girl with blond hair and a pink dress fighting a woman and a man who are trying to kill her and with her was a girl that had a grey sweather and she had red eyes and moth wings and antennae.

Me: Whoa! She's a Mothgirl.

Kathleen Mesprit: Wow I've never seen one like her before.

Me: Me neither and we actually saw the Mothman in West Virginia. We all thought it was just a legend.

Kathleen Mesprit: That's amazing.

Me: And that girl with her must be the Swamp Girl that I heard about. Lets help her out.

We flew down and punched the man and woman and kicked them down and the man got up and he pulled out a knife and went at me.

Then I pulled out my gun and then…

BANG!

I fired and shot the knife out of his hand and wounded him.

Me: You dirtbags get lost now!

Kathleen Mesprit: Yeah what he said!

They ran away.

Me: You two all right?

Actia: Yeah we are. Wow you're the famous J.D. Knudson!

Me: That's right. Pleasure to meet you.

Actia: My name is Actia and I'm a Mothgirl.

Me: Pleasure to meet you.

Kathleen: My name is Kathleen Logan and I'm also a Mesprit.

Actia: Pleasure.

Kathleen: I'm gonna revert back now.

Me: Okay.

I put on my blind glasses and she reverted back.

Kathleen was human again. But nake.

Kathleen: (covers herself) Do you want to come with us, Swamp Girl?

Swamp Girl: (Cajun Accent) I sure would like that.

Actia: She has been my friend ever since I lived here 6 days ago.

Me: That's amazing.

I gave Kathleen her clothes back and she went and changed into them.

Kathleen: Thanks J.D.

Me: You're welcome.

McWolf came out.

McWolf: Pretty good scene huh?

Me: It sure was and my dad loved the movie Swamp Girl from 1971.

Actia: That's a cool movie. I heard you guys found one of my kind in West Virginia.

Me: We sure did and we were amazed that the Mothman was real. We all thought it was just a legend.

Actia: That is amazing.

Me: By the way Swamp Girl do you have a name?

Swamp Girl: My name is Janeen and it's an honor to meet you J.D.

Me: Pleasure is ours. Lets get back home.

We did so and went back to the World Tree Estate.

---

Back at the World Tree Estate, everyone was getting ready for Brother Appreciation Day.

We came in and Actia and Janeen were amazed and Kathleen went to watch some TV.

Janeen: Wow is this where you live?

Me: Yep.

Actia: This is amazing. You all live so high up.

Me: Yeah we sure do.

Nico: Wow she's a Mothgirl. That's so cool and we saw a Mothman in West Virginia.

Actia: I heard about that. My name is Actia and it's awesome to meet you Nico.

Nico: Same here. Who is this with you too?

Me: This is Janeen. She's a legend that lived in the Okefenokee Swamp.

Nico: You mean like from the 1971 movie Swamp Girl?

Me: Yeah that's it.

Janeen: Pleasure to meet you Nico. I'm Janeen and I'm the Swamp Girl.

Nico: It's a pleasure.

May: You lived in the Okefenokee Swamp all by yourself?

Janeen: Yeah I was looking for my family.

Actia: I found her and we became friends 6 days ago.

May: Wow.

Miia: Actia!

Actia: Miia!

They hugged.

Actia: It's awesome to see you again.

Miia: Same here.

Sly the Tazmanian Tiger: (Australian Accent) Who's enjoying Brother Appreciation Day? Because I am!

Ty: (Australian Accent) You said it mate.

Me: Happy Brother Appreciation Day everyone.

Poromon: Poliwag I love you as a brother.

Poliwag: Thanks Poromon.

Jirachi: Does that make me a brother too?

Poromon: It sure does.

Actia: It's cool that you all are like family.

Me: Yep. Been that way for 5 years.

Janeen: That's great.

The doorbell rang.

Kairi Yano: I'll get it.

Kairi Yano answered the door and standing in the elevator were 2 couples.

Kairi Yano: Can I help you two?

Anderson's father: Hi. We're Anderson and Pablo's parents. We'd like to speak to J.D. Knudson.

Kairi Yano: What for?

Pablo's mother: We want to avenge our children for what he did to them!

Kairi Yano slammed the door on them.

Grim Reaper: (Jamaican Accent) Who was at the door mon?

Kairi Yano: Some girl scouts. I told them that we had enough cookies.

Me: I overheard them. They want to get revenge on me for what I did to Pablo and Anderson. I have a feeling it's not gonna be good.

Nico: I'll take care of them.

Me: No Nico. They want me. I'll face them. Let me handle this.

Nico: Be careful.

Me: Don't worry I will.

I went up to the elevator and opened it and saw them.

Me: Lets take this down to the surface so no one gets hurt and we damage my home.

Pablo's mom: Smart idea. By the way I'm Nina and this is my husband Lionel.

Anderson's mom: And I'm Ronalda and this is my husband Miguel.

Me: Pleasure.

Everyone was clamoring nervously.

Nico: Everyone, just calm down!

Hellbat: (to Me) C'mon, J.D. Let's get you to your room so you can relax. We'll let Edzilla throw these assholes out.

Me: No guys. It's me they want and no one else. Don't worry guys. I'll be just fine.

We went down to the surface.

Chromia: C'mon, guys. We shouldn't let those two ruin a special day.

Nico: Yeah you're right. Besides J.D. has gotten out of big scrapes worse than this.

Eli: Yeah that's my bro for you.

Ets: He'll be all right.

Nico: But we better go down just to be safe.

They did so.

Back on the surface, I was facing Pablo and Anderson's parents.

Me: Before we fight I want to tell you something about what happened with Taylor. I take it you heard about her mother and how her own father killed her right in front of her?

Pablo's Dad: I sure did! That was terrible!

Pablo's Mom: That poor girl went through hell.

Me: That is an understatement.

Anderson's dad: ENOUGH TALK! NOW YOU DIE!

He went at me and I kneed him in the stomach and then I punched him in the face and sent him crashing into the ground.

Pablo's dad came at me and he threw a punch at me and I grabbed his hand and crashed it and kicked him in the face and sent him crashing into the ground too.

Me: Now I have something you should know about your so called children.

Everyone came and the dad's got up.

Pablo's mom: Taylor thank goodness you are all right.

Taylor (Loud House): I am too.

N: (to Pablo and Anderson's parents) Before we force you out of here, it's only fair you hear from Taylor about what REALLY happened.

Me: That's right.

Taylor (Loud House: It wasn't J.D. that hurt your sons! It was them!

Anderson's dad: What are you talking about Taylor!?

Taylor went over everything they did and why and the parents found out that their OWN SONS, their own flesh and blood were monsters! All made because of them! Pablo and Anderson became the way they were because of their own actions and it was because of them that they because heartless sociopathic delinquent monsters!

Me: Now you know the truth. You only have yourselves to blame for all this.

Nico: That's right!

Eli: You made them this way.

Pablo's Mom and Anderson's mom dropped to the ground and sobbed hard.

Pablo's Mom: (Crying) I should have stopped this! But I was forced to let this go on!

Me: Forced? What do you mean?

Anderson's mom: It was because of our husbands.

They took off their sunglasses and we gasped in shock as we saw that they had REALLY nasty shiners on their eyes and their arms were covered in bruises.

Varie: Oh man! This is definitely the telltale signs of domestic abuse!

Varie went over and healed them up.

Nico: (To Anderson and Pablo's dads) You bastards make me sick! You give all loving fathers everywhere a really bad name!

Me: Yeah! Now we know why Anderson and Pablo became heartless sociopathic delinquent douchebags! It was because of you two! You caused all this to them with hurting them and their mothers!

Anderson's dad: That's right! I hate my son and I hate my wife!

Pablo's dad: Women are slaves and they are only good for being around the house!

KAPOW!

Sakura Haruno punched him in the face!

Sakura H.: YOU FUCKING CHAUVINISTIC PIG! You two have no right to call yourselves fathers!

Chief Wiggum, Lou and Eddie then appeared.

Chief Wiggum: Looks like we got here just in time. Cuff them boys!

Lou and Eddie cuffed the two fathers.

Chief Wiggum: Lionel and Miguel, you two are under arrest for assault and battery, domestic abuse, attempted murder and contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Me: Get them outta here.

Eddie: With pleasure.

Me: I think a nice long stay in the Triton Cryo-Prison will do you some good.

Pablo's Dad: YOU WILL PAY FOR THIS J.D.!

Anderson's Dad: WE WILL BE BACK AND WE WILL KILL YOU FOR THIS!

Chief Wiggum: You can add that to his list of charges.

Me: Yeah. I know this line is used quite a lot but, Tell it to the Judge bastards!

They were taken to the courthouse. Varie got Nina and Ronalda healed up and they filed for divorce and the so called fathers were sentenced to 198 years in the Cryo-Prison for their crimes.

---

Later we were getting ready for our latest mission.

Eccentro, Beautiful Gorgeous, Riddler, Deker, Ragdoll, Trumbipular, Kyd Wyykyd, and Absorbing Man then appeared.

Eccentro: Can me, Beautiful Gorgeous, Riddler, Deker, Ragdoll, Trumbipular, Kyd Wyykyd, and Absorbing Man go with you guys this time?

Me: You all sure can. We're going to see Miko and Glitch Tech.

Nico: Last time we saw them was before the war with the Royal Defenders broke out.

Twilight Sparkle: This will be our first time meeting her.

Me: You will love her Twilight. She has the same kind of hair style you have.

Twilight Sparkle: Wow!

Nicole: And she loves video games like me.

Me: Yep. Lets head out.

We were off to Glitch Tech HQ.

We arrived and it was doing great.

Teresa: I hope not much has changed since we were last here.

Me: Yeah. It has been a while. Almost a year.

Nico: I know.

Actia: Lots of things have happened since then.

Janeen Aran: Yeah they sure have.

Lola: I think it's awesome.

Me: Last time we were here was when the War With The Royal Defenders was about to begin.

Nico: I know.

Eli: Wow.

Muscle Man: Hey, guys. You know else loves video games?

Kyd Wykkyd: Besides Nicole?

Muscle Man: My mom!

We laughed at his joke.

Nicole: (Laughs) Good one!

Actia: I don't get it.

Janeen: That was funny.

Me: It was. We don't get it either but they are funny.

Miko: (Offscreen) Hey guys!

We saw Miko!

Me: Miko!

We went over and hugged.

Me: It's awesome to see you again.

Miko: It sure is.

Me: Last time we saw each other was when the War with The Royal Defenders broke out.

Miko: That feels like forever.

Laney: How have you been Miko?

Miko: Great Laney.

Nico: Awesome.

Miko: Remember when Bob Banter asked you guys that question regarding whether you'll be able to take down the Royal Defenders without killing them?

Jewel Man: I remember. That question wasn't part of his game show.

Miko: Well, you can answer "Yes" to his question the next time you see him.

Me: Yeah! And we'll tell him we did it by locking them up in prison.

Nico: Yep.

Miko: Wow! You guys have increased in numbers a lot.

Me: We sure have.

Twilight Sparkle: And Miko I love your hair. I'm Twilight Sparkle.

Miko: Pleasure to meet you.

Me: Lets introduce you to everyone.

We did so and everyone was happy to meet Miko.

Miko: It's awesome to meet you all and wow you guys have been REALLY busy since we first met.

Me: Yeah we sure have.

Eli: All that and more.

Ets: No kidding.

Actia: But it's awesome to meet you.

Miko: Same here. I'm glad you're all here. We're going after a renegade glitch.

Me: Which one?

Miko: It's called the Chomp Kitty.

She showed us a picture of it and it looked like a green cat with a big toothy grin that had sharp teeth and jaws that looked like a bear trap.

---

Like all glitches, Chomp Kitty originates from a game. "Chomp Kitty" was published 1993 by Hinobi Technology and is considered a classic game and part of the Chomp Kitty franchise. It seems to be a level-based platform runner.

The main gameplay consists of jumping and dodging (or destroying) enemies. Chomp Kitty can increase in size by eating "Power Pallets", seemingly making it more powerful.

"Chomp Kitty" is Five's favorite game, and he is really good at playing it.

---

Me: Whoa! I would not want a cat like that for a pet.

Rarity: Me neither. That cat would not be a good friend for Opalescence.

Sweetie Belle: Yeah.

Miko: I know. Freaky huh.

Me: Yeah.

Absorbing Man: What can I absorb when we get to the video game Chomp Kitty's in?

Miko: There's lots of things.

Laney: What video game are we going in?

Miko pulled out the case for DANTE'S INFERNO!

Me: WHOA! Dante's Inferno!

Nico: AWESOME!

Brittney: That is one of our favorites. We're going to traverse the circles of Hell and take down the most dangerous monsters ever known.

Lola: Yeah!

Me: And I have a feeling we're going to meet Dante Alighieri and help him save Beatrice from the evils of Hell and Lucifer.

Miko: Yep.

Ridley: Perhaps I can help too.

A girl named Ripley came out.

Ridley: My name is Ridley and it's an honor.

Me: Pleasure to meet you.

Ridley: It will be awesome working with you. As long as it's not that monster Mike Simms! I hate him!

Me: Why do you hate Mike Simms so much?

Miko: He and Mike have a massive and terrible rivalry and grudge.

Miko told us about it.

Mike Simms and his older brother Ryu are two new kids in the town of Bailley who have just moved in from Dabney. Mike was first mentioned by Ridley in the episode The Glitch Modder, where Ridley tells Miko that she plans on using her Chomp Kitty/Dragon mod against anyone who said she's a weirdo, especially get back at Mike Simms. It's currently unknown why Ridley antagonizes Mike. Perhaps the two used to be friends until Ridley accused Mike for ruining everything for her when really Mike was just trying to help. Or while some kids called Ridley weird, Mike was tempted into joining them in teasing Ridley just to look cool, falling into peer pressure. Maybe Mike's trolling habit could be because he might've been a victim of bullying.

In the episode Settling the Score, one day, Mike and Ryu show up in the Joystick Junior's arcade to troll and distract all the players causing them to mess up on their games, including Miko, much to her annoyance. Nix, the scorekeeper, tells Miko that he's heard that Ryu in his hometown beat the high score in three games each, but Miko was gonna say she couldn't care less about who has the highest scores as long as you have fun playing through and being a pro anyway. But Nix interrupts, informing Miko that her long running high scores in Sock Em' Rockers have just been beaten recently with the scores crowding her's, causing her to lose her cool. Why Miko was so attached to her high score in that game was because getting the high score was how she gained friends and popularity back when she was the new kid in town. So Miko immediately goes right to that game, and was able to gain a new high score, and everyone including Five cheer for her. Mike and Ryu show up to try and mess with her again, causing Miko to get angry while five pulls her back.

While Five and Miko were about to move on to find a new Glitch Tech mission, Nix tells them that Miko's new high score had just been beaten again. Miko gets upset and goes out to find Ryu and Mike, assuming Ryu beat her high score. But when she got to their house, it turns out Ryu's kid brother Mike was the one who beat her score. While Miko confronts Mike, dumfounded by the fact that a kid like him beat her high score, Mike tells her he could even beat his brother at any game. So, Miko challenges Mike to a Vs. mode dance off in Sock Em' Rockers. The winner gets to keep their high score in the game, while the loser is forced to retire from the game. Miko then has Five to hold on to her Glitch Tech bracelet while he and Ryu watch them.

After a few hours of competitive dancing, neither Miko nor Mike were willing to give in, so Five got bored and left to find some missions to do. Suddenly, Miko and Mike inadvertently cause the game to glitch and cause the monsters they were playing as to fight each other and wreck havoc outside of the house, which led to both the Bailley and Dabney Techs to put a stop to the glitches. Five tried to call Miko for help, but he still had her gauntlet with him. So he, with Alpha's help, goes right to a telephone wire to contact Miko and Mike to stop their dance off since their monsters were wrecking havoc. Mike was still too stubborn to give in, while Miko, who appears to be winning against Mike, is still determined to maintain her high score. Five informs Miko that a high score record does not define who she is, and she's already proven to be one the best gamers in town, and his best friend. So Miko stops to realize that Mike was simply just he new kid in town while he beat the high score just like herself as a kid. Miko realizes that Mike needs the high score more than her since even though Mike is a troll, he at least needs some friends and popularity just like she gained as a kid. So Miko leaves the game to let Mike win, so the Techs outside could be able to capture the glitches with ease.

Miko congratulates Mike, while Mike rejoices and rubs it in telling Miko she agreed to retire from Sock Em' Rockers. Miko was cool with that saying that she's already played that game long enough in the past to last the rest of her life. However, Mike changes his mind telling her that instead they can still play the game and challenge each other anytime since he and his brother just moved in. Miko agrees, and the two reconcile and become friends. Miko tells Mike she'll be in the arcade waiting for him one day, while Mike answers he'll be sure to kick her butt next time. While Miko and Five leave back home, Mike smiles happy to have found a friend in Miko.

* * *

Me: WHOA! That is a bad grudge.

Nico: Very unhealthy.

Laney: Yeah.

Ridley: Yeah I should let it go.

Me: Anyway lets get into the game and have some action and adventure.

Eye Five: Wow. I guess we can tell all the bad guys out there that we literally went to Hell.

Me: Yeah no kidding!

Ridley: This is gonna be good. We found a glitch in it.

Me: Oh boy. Something tells me we're going to have our usual battles after and before we take down each boss in each level. Maria you better call in the Masters of Evil that will fight us in each battle.

Maria: You got it.

Brittney: Also Miko, I know this game like the back of my hand. Played it over 1,000 times.

Miko: Wow! That's awesome!

Brittney: Yep. And the Divine Comedy is one of my favorite series by Dante Alighieri.

Lucy Loud: Same here.

Nico: Awesome.

Me: Lets get ready for a Hellraising Adventure!

We were off into the world of Dante's Inferno!

---

FLORENCE, ITALY - 1192 A.D.

---

We arrived in 12th Century Italy and we were at a church that was on fire.

Me: Here we are guys. 12th Century Italy.

Nico: Wow! Really scary time back then.

Me: Yeah the Crusades were going on back then.

Lana: Terrible time back then.

Me: For over 700 years from 718 A.D. to 1492.

Vince: Wow! That's 774 years.

Lori: That's literally terrible.

Lynn: What was the cause of the Crusades?

Me: It was a bunch of battles for the Holy City of Jerusalem in Israel. Christians and Muslims were fighting for it.

Varie: Terrible battles all those years ago.

We went further into the church as it was burning and then we got to a wall and then Loki, Leonard, KGBeast, Eris, Unicorn, Weather Wizard, Whiteout, Batroc, Control Freak and Vexen then appeared.

Me: Loki, Leonard, KGBeast, Eris, Unicorn, Weather Wizard, Whiteout, Batroc, Control Freak and Vexen.

Loki: Man, this place would make my former boss Bansheeera proud.

Leonard: You said it.

Whiteout: And it's hot too!

May: You know the drill by now, right?

Unicorn: We know. Each of us will meet you by each boss of this game.

Me: Right. And this is gonna be a dangerous one. We didn't have our usual battles in a scene like this on the planets of Dante's Inferno. Except it will be the 9 Circles of Hell. So this will make up for it.

Nico: Perfect.

Loki: This is gonna be awesome!

Eli: Yeah it is.

The Masters of Evil Teleported out and waited. We ran fast and went down into a crater and we were standing in front of THE GATES OF HELL!

The Gates of Hell (French: La Porte de l'Enfer ) is a monumental sculptural group work by French artist Auguste Rodin that depicts a scene from the Inferno, the first section of Dante Alighieri's Divine Comedy . It stands at 6 metres high, 4 metres wide and 1 metre deep (19.7×13.1×3.3 ft) and contains 180 figures. The figures range from 15 centimetres (6 in) high up to more than one metre (3 ft). Several of the figures were also cast as independent free-standing statues.

Me: The Gates of Hell.

Nico: Once we go in through those gates, there's no turning back.

Laney: Scary.

Miko: It sure is.

A figure then landed by us and it was DANTE ALIGHIERI!

Brittney: Dante Alighieri.

Dante Alighieri: How do you know my name?

Me: This is a pretty crazy story Dante.

We told him everything.

Dante Alighieri: That's incredible.

Me: It sure is. Dante we will gladly help you find and save Beatrice. The Devil will not get away with this. I swear it.

Dante Alighieri: Thanks J.D.

Me: Lets go.

We opened the gates and we saw souls falling down as balls of fire and we landed on a cliff and we were in HELL!

HELL

We were on the cliffs above the river Acheron.

Me: Here we are guys. Welcome to Hell!

We heard screaming everywhere and the pain and anguish the souls were in was bloodcurdling and horrific.

Laney: (Scared) It's scary!

Fluttershy: It sure is!

Dante Alighieri: Beatrice did not deserve this.

Me: No she didn't.

Miko: This is one scary place.

Ridley: It sure is.

Brittney: Follow me guys and stay close.

Me: Right.

We followed Brittney and we got to the sight of Charon's vessel.

Charon: Through me the way to the City of Woe. Through me the way to Everlasting Pain. Abandon All Hope Ye Who Enter Here.

Brittney: Those words are on the back of my shirt.

Brittney had the kanji for that line in a star on the back of her shirt.

私を通して悲しみの街への道、私を通して永遠の痛みへの道、ここに入るすべての希望あなたがたを捨てる

Lucy Loud: Wicked.

We walked onto Charon's vessel and we saw every sin that the souls have committed that brought them here.

Eli: I can see the sins they did.

Actia: It's horrible.

Me: Lucifer made them do this.

We rode on Charon and we got to the 1st Circle of Hell, Limbo.

LIMBO - 1ST CIRCLE OF HELL

We arrived at the 1st Circle of Hell and it was creepy.

Dante Alighieri: What is this place?

Brittney: The 1st Circle of Hell, Limbo. Here suffered those that did not sin but did not have the required faith. It's here that virtuous pegans and unbaptized babies reside.

Nico: Yeah. Creepy sight.

Salem: It sure is.

We walked through the forest and we saw a massive army of Unbaptized Babies and demons.

Me: Whoa man!

Lana: I will save these babies. HOLY STYLE: RIGHTEOUS MARTYRDOM!

Lana glowed in a powerful white light and grew white angel wings and she released a huge wave of white light that freed the unbaptized babies and demons and it sent their souls off to Heaven.

Nico: Wow! Awesome job Lana.

Dante Alighieri: How did you do that?

Me: We have many powers. It's a really long story.

We went into the Citadel of Limbo and in there we recognized a lot of very famous historical figures from thousands of years ago.

Jessie K.: I remember seeing them. They are the great rulers and philosophers of the golden age.

Me: That's right. Some of the most famous figures in history.

We met Hector, Chief of the Army of Troy.

---

Hector of Troy

In Greek mythology and Roman mythology, Hector (/ˈhɛktər/; Ἕκτωρ, Hektōr, pronounced [héktɔːr]) was a Trojan prince and the greatest fighter for Troy in the Trojan War. He acted as leader of the Trojans and their allies in the defense of Troy, "killing 31,000 Greek fighters." He was ultimately killed by Achilles.

As the first-born son of King Priam and Queen Hecuba, who was a descendant of Dardanus and Tros, the founder of Troy. In some accounts, his father was the god Apollo. He was a prince of the royal house and the heir apparent to his father's throne. He was married to Andromache, with whom he had an infant son, Scamandrius (whom the people of Troy called Astyanax).

During the European Middle Ages, Hector figures as one of the Nine Worthies noted by Jacques de Longuyon, known not only for his courage but also for his noble and courtly nature. Indeed, Homer places Hector as peace-loving, thoughtful as well as bold, a good son, husband and father, and without darker motives. James Redfield describes Hector as a "martyr to loyalties, a witness to the things of this world, a hero ready to die for the precious imperfections of ordinary life."

Next we met Electra, Julius Caesar, King Latinus, Orpheus and Pontius Pilate.

Electra

Electra is one of the most popular mythological characters in tragedies. She is the main character in two Greek tragedies, Electra by Sophocles and Electra by Euripides. She is also the central figure in plays by Aeschylus, Alfieri, Voltaire, Hofmannsthal, and Eugene O'Neill. Her characteristic can be stated as a vengeful soul in the libation bearers, because she plans out an attack with her brother to kill the evil Clytemnestra.

In psychology, the Electra complex is named after her.

Julius Caesar

Gaius Julius Caesar (/ˈsiːzər/ SEE-zər, Latin: [ˈɡaːɪ.ʊs ˈjuːlɪ.ʊs ˈkae̯sar]; 12 July 100 BC - 15 March 44 BC), better known by his nomen gentilicium and cognomen Julius Caesar, was a Roman statesman and military general who played a critical role in the events that led to the demise of the Roman Republic and the rise of the Roman Empire. He was also a historian and author of Latin prose.

In 60 BC, Caesar, Crassus and Pompey formed the First Triumvirate, a political alliance that dominated Roman politics for several years. Their attempts to amass power as Populares were opposed by the Optimates within the Roman Senate, among them Cato the Younger with the frequent support of Cicero. Caesar rose to become one of the most powerful politicians in the Roman Republic through a number of his accomplishments, notably his victories in the Gallic Wars, completed by 51 BC. During this time, Caesar became the first Roman general to cross both the English Channel and the Rhine River, when he built a bridge across the Rhine and crossed the Channel to invade Britain. Caesar's wars extended Rome's territory to Britain and past Gaul. These achievements granted him unmatched military power and threatened to eclipse the standing of Pompey, who had realigned himself with the Senate after the death of Crassus in 53 BC. With the Gallic Wars concluded, the Senate ordered Caesar to step down from his military command and return to Rome. Leaving his command in Gaul meant losing his immunity from being charged as a criminal for waging unsanctioned wars. As a result, Caesar found himself with no other options but to cross the Rubicon with the 13th Legion in 49 BC, leaving his province and illegally entering Roman Italy under arms. This began Caesar's civil war, and his victory in the war by 45 BC put him in an unrivaled position of power and influence.

After assuming control of government, Caesar began a program of social and governmental reforms, including the creation of the Julian calendar. He gave citizenship to many residents of far regions of the Roman Republic. He initiated land reform and support for veterans. He centralized the bureaucracy of the Republic and was eventually proclaimed "dictator for life" (Latin: "dictator perpetuo"), giving him additional authority. His populist and authoritarian reforms angered the elites, who began to conspire against him. On the Ides of March (15 March), 44 BC, Caesar was assassinated by a group of rebellious senators led by Gaius Cassius Longinus, Marcus Junius Brutus and Decimus Junius Brutus, who stabbed him to death. A new series of civil wars broke out and the constitutional government of the Republic was never fully restored. Caesar's adopted heir

Octavian, later known as Augustus, rose to sole power after defeating his opponents in the civil war. Octavian set about solidifying his power, and the era of the Roman Empire began.

Much of Caesar's life is known from his own accounts of his military campaigns and from other contemporary sources, mainly the letters and speeches of Cicero and the historical writings of Sallust. The later biographies of Caesar by Suetonius and Plutarch are also major sources. Caesar is considered by many historians to be one of the greatest military commanders in history. His cognomen was subsequently adopted as a synonym for "Emperor"; the title "Caesar" was used throughout the Roman Empire, giving rise to modern cognates such as Kaiser and Tsar. He has frequently appeared in literary and artistic works, and his political philosophy, known as Caesarism, inspired politicians into the modern era.

Latinus of Greece

Latinus (Latin: Latinus; Ancient Greek: Λατῖνος) was a figure in both Greek and Roman mythology. He is often associated with the heroes of the Trojan War, namely Odysseus and Aeneas. Although his appearance in the Aeneid is irreconcilable with his appearance in Greek mythology, the two pictures are not so different that he cannot be seen as one character.

In Hesiod's Theogony, Latinus was the son of Odysseus and Circe who ruled the Tyrsenoi, presumably the Etruscans, with his brothers Ardeas and Telegonus. Latinus is also referred to, by much later authors, as the son of Pandora II and brother of Graecus, although according to Hesiod, Graecus had three brothers, Hellen, Magnetas, and Macedon, with the first being the father of Doros, Xuthos, and Aeolus.

Orpheus

Orpheus (/ˈɔːrfiːəs, ˈɔːrfjuːs/; Ancient Greek: Ὀρφεύς, classical pronunciation: [or.pʰeú̯s]) is a legendary musician, poet, and prophet in ancient Greek religion. Some ancient Greek sources note Orpheus' Thracian origins. The major stories about him are centered on his ability to charm all living things and even stones with his music (the usual scene in Orpheus mosaics), his attempt to retrieve his wife Eurydice from the underworld, and his death at the hands of the maenads of Dionysus who tired of his mourning for his late wife Eurydice. As an archetype of the inspired singer, Orpheus is one of the most significant figures in the reception of classical mythology in Western culture, portrayed or alluded to in countless forms of art and popular culture including poetry, film, opera, music, and painting.

For the Greeks, Orpheus was a founder and prophet of the so-called "Orphic" mysteries. He was credited with the composition of the Orphic Hymns and the Orphic Argonautica. Shrines containing purported relics of Orpheus were regarded as oracles.

Pontius Pilate

Pontius Pilate was the fifth governor of the Roman province of Judaea, serving under Emperor Tiberius from 26/27 to 36/37 CE. He is best known today for being the official who presided over the trial of Jesus and ordered his crucifixion. Pilate's importance in modern Christianity is underscored by his prominent place in both the Apostles and Nicene Creeds. Due to the Gospels' portrayal of Pilate as reluctant to execute Jesus, the Coptic and Ethiopian Churches believe that Pilate became a Christian and venerate him as a martyr and saint.

Although Pilate is the best-attested governor of Judaea, few sources on his rule have survived. He appears to have belonged to the well-attested Pontii family, but nothing is known for certain about his life before he became governor of Judaea, nor of the circumstances that led to his appointment to the governorship. A single inscription from Pilate's governorship has survived, the so-called Pilate stone, as have coins that he minted. The Jewish historian Josephus and philosopher Philo of Alexandria both mention incidents of tension and violence between the Jewish population and Pilate's administration. Many of these involve Pilate acting in ways that offended the religious sensibilities of the Jews. The Christian Gospels record that Pilate ordered the crucifixion of Jesus at some point during his time in office; Josephus and the Roman historian Tacitus also appear to have recorded this information. According to Josephus, Pilate's removal from office occurred because he violently suppressed an armed Samaritan movement at Mount Gerizim. He was sent back to Rome by the legate of Syria to answer for this before Tiberius, who, however, had died before he arrived. Nothing is known for certain about what happened to him after this. On the basis of a mention in the second-century pagan philosopher Celsus and Christian apologist Origen, most modern historians believe that Pilate simply retired after his dismissal. Modern historians have differing assessments of Pilate as an effective ruler; while some believe he was a particularly brutal and ineffective governor, others argue that his long time in office means he must have been reasonably competent. According to one prominent post-war theory, Pilate was motivated by antisemitism in his treatment of the Jews, but this theory has been mostly abandoned.

In Late Antiquity and the Early Middle Ages, Pilate became the focus of a large group of New Testament apocrypha expanding on his role in the Gospels. In many of these, particularly the earlier texts from the Eastern Roman Empire, Pilate was portrayed as a positive figure. In some, he became a Christian martyr. In later, particularly Western Christian texts, he was instead portrayed as a negative figure and villain, with traditions surrounding his death by suicide featuring prominently. Pilate was also the focus of numerous medieval legends, which invented a complete biography for him and portrayed him as villainous and cowardly. Many of these legends connected Pilate's place of birth or death to particular locations around Western Europe.

Pilate has frequently been a subject of artistic representation. Medieval art frequently portrayed scenes of Pilate and Jesus, often in the scene where he washes his hands of guilt for Jesus's death. In the art of the Late Middle Ages and the Renaissance, Pilate is often depicted as a Jew. The nineteenth century saw a renewed interest in depicting Pilate, with numerous images made. He plays an important role in medieval passion plays, where he is often a more prominent character than Jesus. His characterization in these plays varies greatly, from weak-willed and coerced into crucifying Jesus to being an evil person who demands Jesus's crucifixion. Modern authors who feature Pilate prominently in their works include Anatole France, Mikhail Bulgakov, and Chingiz Aitmatov, with a majority of modern treatments of Pilate dating to after the Second World War. Pilate has also frequently been portrayed in film.

And we also met the famous Greek Philosophers Plato, Socrates and Aristotle.

Plato

Plato (/ˈpleɪtoʊ/; PLAY-toe Greek: Πλάτων Plátōn, pronounced [plá.tɔːn] in Classical Attic; 428/427 or 424/423 - 348/347 BC) was an Athenian philosopher during the Classical period in Ancient Greece, founder of the Platonist school of thought, and the Academy, the first institution of higher learning in the Western world.

He is widely considered the pivotal figure in the history of Ancient Greek and Western philosophy, along with his teacher, Socrates, and his most famous student, Aristotle. Plato has also often been cited as one of the founders of Western religion and spirituality.[4] The so-called Neoplatonism of philosophers like Plotinus and Porphyry influenced Saint Augustine and thus Christianity. Alfred North Whitehead once noted: "the safest general characterization of the European philosophical tradition is that it consists of a series of footnotes to Plato."

Plato was the innovator of the written dialogue and dialectic forms in philosophy. Plato is also considered the founder of Western political philosophy. His most famous contribution is the theory of Forms known by pure reason, in which Plato presents a solution to the problem of universals known as Platonism (also ambiguously called either Platonic realism or Platonic idealism). He is also the namesake of Platonic love and the Platonic solids.

His own most decisive philosophical influences are usually thought to have been along with Socrates, the pre-Socratics Pythagoras, Heraclitus and Parmenides, although few of his predecessors' works remain extant and much of what we know about these figures today derives from Plato himself. Unlike the work of nearly all of his contemporaries, Plato's entire body of work is believed to have survived intact for over 2,400 years. Although their popularity has fluctuated over the years, the works of Plato have never been without readers since the time they were written.

Socrates

Socrates (/ˈsɒkrətiːz/; Ancient Greek: Σωκρᾰ́της, romanized: Sōkrátēs, [sɔːkrátɛːs]; c. 470 - 399 BC) was a classical Greek (Athenian) philosopher credited as one of the founders of Western philosophy, and as being the first moral philosopher of the Western ethical tradition of thought. An enigmatic figure, he made no writings, and is known chiefly through the accounts of classical writers writing after his lifetime, particularly his students Plato and Xenophon. Other sources include the contemporaneous Antisthenes, Aristippus, and Aeschines of Sphettos. Aristophanes, a playwright, is the main contemporary author to have written plays mentioning Socrates during Socrates' lifetime, though a fragment of Ion of Chios' Travel Journal provides important information about Socrates' youth.

Plato's dialogues are among the most comprehensive accounts of Socrates to survive from antiquity, from which Socrates has become renowned for his contributions to the fields of ethics and epistemology. It is this Platonic Socrates who lends his name to the concepts of Socratic irony and the Socratic method, or elenchus. However, questions remain regarding the distinction between the real-life Socrates and Plato's portrayal of Socrates in his dialogues.

Socrates exerted a strong influence on philosophers in later antiquity and in the modern era. Depictions of Socrates in art, literature and popular culture have made him one of the most widely known figures in the Western philosophical tradition.

Aristotle

Aristotle (/ˈærɪstɒtəl/; Greek: Ἀριστοτέλης Aristotélēs, pronounced [aristotélɛːs]; 384 - 322 BC) was a Greek philosopher and polymath during the Classical period in Ancient Greece. He was the founder of the Lyceum and the Peripatetic school of philosophy and Aristotelian tradition. Along with his teacher Plato, he has been called the "Father of Western Philosophy".[citation needed] His writings cover many subjects - including physics, biology, zoology, metaphysics, logic, ethics, esthetics, poetry, theatre, music, rhetoric, psychology, linguistics, economics, politics and government. Aristotle provided a complex synthesis of the various philosophies existing prior to him, and it was above all from his teachings that the West inherited its intellectual lexicon, as well as problems and methods of inquiry. As a result, his philosophy has exerted a unique influence on almost every form of knowledge in the West and it continues to be a subject of contemporary philosophical discussion.

Little is known about his life. Aristotle was born in the city of Stagira in Northern Greece. His father, Nicomachus, died when Aristotle was a child, and he was brought up by a guardian. At seventeen or eighteen years of age, he joined Plato's Academy in Athens and remained there until the age of thirty-seven (c. 347 BC). Shortly after Plato died, Aristotle left Athens and, at the request of Philip II of Macedon, tutored Alexander the Great beginning in 343 BC. He established a library in the Lyceum which helped him to produce many of his hundreds of books on papyrus scrolls. Though Aristotle wrote many elegant treatises and dialogues for publication, only around a third of his original output has survived, none of it intended for publication.

Aristotle's views on physical science profoundly shaped medieval scholarship. Their influence extended from Late Antiquity and the Early Middle Ages into the Renaissance, and were not replaced systematically until the Enlightenment and theories such as classical mechanics. Some of Aristotle's zoological observations found in his biology, such as on the hectocotyl (reproductive) arm of the octopus, were disbelieved until the 19th century. His works contain the earliest known formal study of logic, studied by medieval scholars such as Peter Abelard and John Buridan. Aristotle's influence on logic also continued well into the 19th century.

He influenced Islamic thought during the Middle Ages, as well as Christian theology, especially the Neoplatonism of the Early Church and the scholastic tradition of the Catholic Church. Aristotle was revered among medieval Muslim scholars as "The First Teacher" and among medieval Christians like Thomas Aquinas as simply "The Philosopher". His ethics, though always influential, gained renewed interest with the modern advent of virtue ethics, such as in the thinking of Alasdair MacIntyre and Philippa Foot.

Me: Wow. The famous Greek Philosophers.

Plato: That's right J.D.

Me: I've always been fascinated in all of the famous quotes of the great Greek Philosophers.

Laney: Same here. My favorite quote from you Aristotle is this: "Anybody can become angry - that is easy, but to be angry with the right person and to the right degree and at the right time and for the right purpose, and in the right way - that is not within everybody's power and is not easy."

Aristotle: That's right Laney. That means that you must become angry only at the person you feel is causing you wrong and you must learn to channel that anger only when necessary.

Laney: I remember that.

Nico: That's very wise.

Eli: It sure is.

Ets: Uh guys! Look at this!

We went over to Ets and we saw a REALLY MANGLED UP SOUL!

Me: WHOA! So that's what happened to Fire Lord Sozin when I cursed him.

Dante Alighieri: What happened to him?

Me: Ugly story behind it.

I went over his history and it was NOT PRETTY. When I was finished he was shocked.

Dante Alighieri: GOOD LORD! He did all that?

Me: Yep and after I fought him, I cursed him with a fate worse than death and banished him here for all eternity. He is never allowed to enter the afterlife and he will remain here forever. Limbo is where he will stay forever.

Lola: Good riddance.

We then continued on and we saw another soul. It was the famous sultan of Syria and Egypt - Saladin.

---

Saladin

An-Nasir Salah ad-Din Yusuf ibn Ayyub (Arabic: صلاح الدين يوسف بن أيوب / ALA-LC: Ṣalāḥ ad-Dīn Yūsuf ibn Ayyūb; Kurdish: سەلاحەدینی ئەییووبی / ALA-LC: Selahedînê Eyûbî), known as Salah ad-Din or Saladin (/ˈsælədɪn/; 1137 - 4 March 1193), was the first sultan of Egypt and Syria and the founder of the Ayyubid dynasty. A Sunni Muslim of Kurdish ethnicity, Saladin led the Muslim military campaign against the Crusader states in the Levant. At the height of his power, his sultanate included Egypt, Syria, Upper Mesopotamia, the Hejaz, Yemen and other parts of North Africa.

He was originally sent to Fatimid Egypt in 1164 alongside his uncle Shirkuh, a general of the Zengid army, on the orders of their lord Nur ad-Din to help restore Shawar as vizier of the teenage Fatimid caliph al-Adid. A power struggle ensued between Shirkuh and Shawar after the latter was reinstated. Saladin, meanwhile, climbed the ranks of the Fatimid government by virtue of his military successes against Crusader assaults against its territory and his personal closeness to al-Adid. After Shawar was assassinated and Shirkuh died in 1169, al-Adid appointed Saladin vizier, a rare nomination of a Sunni Muslim to such an important position in the Isma'ili Shia caliphate. During his tenure as vizier, Saladin began to undermine the Fatimid establishment and, following al-Adid's death in 1171, he abolished the Fatimid Caliphate and realigned the country's allegiance with the Sunni, Baghdad-based Abbasid Caliphate.

In the following years, he led forays against the Crusaders in Palestine, commissioned the successful conquest of Yemen, and staved off pro-Fatimid rebellions in Upper Egypt. Not long after Nur ad-Din's death in 1174, Saladin launched his conquest of Syria, peacefully entering Damascus at the request of its governor. By mid-1175, Saladin had conquered Hama and Homs, inviting the animosity of other Zengid lords, the official rulers of Syria's various regions. Soon after, he defeated the Zengid army at the Battle of the Horns of Hama and was thereafter proclaimed the "Sultan of Egypt and Syria" by the Abbasid caliph al-Mustadi. Saladin made further conquests in northern Syria and Jazira, escaping two attempts on his life by Assassins, before returning to Egypt in 1177 to address issues there. By 1182, Saladin had completed the conquest of Muslim Syria after capturing Aleppo, but ultimately failed to take over the Zengid stronghold of Mosul.

Under Saladin's command, the Ayyubid army defeated the Crusaders at the decisive Battle of Hattin in 1187, and thereafter wrested control of Palestine-including the city of Jerusalem-from the Crusaders, who had conquered the area 88 years earlier. Although the Crusader Kingdom of Jerusalem continued to exist until the late 13th century, its defeat at Hattin marked a turning point in its conflict with the Muslim powers of the region. Saladin died in Damascus in 1193, having given away much of his personal wealth to his subjects. He is buried in a mausoleum adjacent to the Umayyad Mosque. Saladin has become a prominent figure in Muslim, Arab, Turkish and Kurdish culture, and he has often been described as being the most famous Kurd in history.

Nico: I take it you know Saladin, Dante?

Dante Alighieri: Yes and he was a noble Kurdish Sultan. I fought him and his forces in the Crusades under Richard the Lionheart.

Me: I remember reading about that. He spared Christian lives and that shows how strong his heart is.

We went on and then a bright light appeared and it was SAINT LUCIA OF SYRACUSE!

Lucia of Syracuse (283-304), also called Saint Lucia (Latin: Sancta

Lucia) or Saint Lucy, was a Christian martyr who died during the Diocletianic Persecution. She is venerated as a saint in the Roman Catholic, Anglican, Lutheran, and Eastern Orthodox churches. She is one of eight women (including Saint Mary) explicitly commemorated by Roman Catholics in the Canon of the Mass. Her traditional feast day, known in Europe as Saint Lucia's Day, is observed by Western Christians on 13 December. Lucia of Syracuse was honored in the Middle Ages and remained a well-known saint in early modern England.

All the details of her life are the conventional ones associated with female martyrs of the early 4th century. John Henry Blunt views her story as a Christian romance similar to the Acts of other virgin martyrs.

According to the traditional story, Lucy was born of rich and noble parents about the year 283. Her father was of Roman origin, but died when she was five years old, leaving Lucy and her mother without a protective guardian. Her mother's name Eutychia seems to indicate that she came from a Greek background.

Like many of the early martyrs, Lucy had consecrated her virginity to God, and she hoped to distribute her dowry to the poor. However, Eutychia, not knowing of Lucy's promise, and suffering from a bleeding disorder, feared for Lucy's future. She arranged Lucy's marriage to a young man of a wealthy pagan family.

Saint Agatha had been martyred 52 years before during the Decian persecution. Her shrine at Catania, less than 50 miles from Syracuse attracted a number of pilgrims; many miracles were reported to have happened through her intercession. Eutychia was persuaded to make a pilgrimage to Catania, in hopes of a cure. While there, St. Agatha came to Lucy in a dream and told her that because of her faith her mother would be cured and that Lucy would be the glory of Syracuse, as she was of Catania. With her mother cured, Lucy took the opportunity to persuade her mother to allow her to distribute a great part of her riches among the poor.

Eutychia suggested that the sums would make a good bequest, but Lucy countered, "… whatever you give away at death for the Lord's sake you give because you cannot take it with you. Give now to the true Savior, while you are healthy, whatever you intended to give away at your death."

News that the patrimony and jewels were being distributed came to Lucy's betrothed, who denounced her to Paschasius, the Governor of Syracuse. Paschasius ordered her to burn a sacrifice to the emperor's image. When she refused Paschasius sentenced her to be defiled in a brothel.

The Christian tradition states that when the guards came to take her away, they could not move her even when they hitched her to a team of oxen. Bundles of wood were then heaped about her and set on fire, but would not burn. Finally, she met her death by the sword thrust into her throat.

Absent in the early narratives and traditions, at least until the 15th century, is the story of Lucia tortured by eye-gouging. According to later accounts, before she died she foretold the punishment of Paschasius and the speedy end of the persecution, adding that Diocletian would reign no more, and Maximian would meet his end. This so angered Paschasius that he ordered the guards to remove her eyes. Another version has Lucy taking her own eyes out in order to discourage a persistent suitor who admired them. This is one of the reasons that Lucy is the patron saint of eye illnesses. When her body was prepared for burial in the family mausoleum it was discovered that her eyes had been miraculously restored.

Me: Wow! Saint Lucia of Syracuse!

Saint Lucia: It's good to see you again J.D.

Me: Same here.

Twilight Sparkle: Who is Saint Lucia?

Nico: A very famous Christian Martyr. She lived in the 3rd Century and she had her eyes gouged out for failing to marry her lover in an arranged marriage to Paschasius, the Governor of Syracuse.

Marinette: Wow! I've read a lot about her.

Me: Same here. And I still can't believe that would happen to her.

Saint Lucia: Thank you for your concern.

Me: You're welcome.

We continued on and we saw KING MINOS!

---

King Minos of Crete

In Greek mythology, Minos (/ˈmaɪnɒs, -nəs/; Greek: Μίνως, Minōs) was the first King of Crete, son of Zeus and Europa. Every nine years, he made King Aegeus pick seven young boys and seven young girls to be sent to Daedalus's creation, the labyrinth, to be eaten by the Minotaur. After his death, Minos became a judge of the dead in the underworld.

The Minoan civilization of Crete has been named after him by the archaeologist Sir Arthur Evans.

---

Dante Alighieri: My God. What is it?

Brittney: That's King Minos. He was once a king of Crete in Greek myth before he was boiled alive in his own bath. Now he forever judges the damned and sends them down to one of the 9 Circles below.

We went up to him.

King Minos: Who comes into my House of Pain?

Beautiful Gorgeous: (to Minos) Buddy, you're a king who's about to get knocked off his throne!

King Minos: How dare you so speak with the judge of the damned!

Jared: You are no Judge!

Jared fired waves of fire into his eyes and burned him badly!

Lola and Sam fired blasts of fire and lava at his stomach and Jared slashed off Mino's tail.

They fired energy blasts and they went into Minos and he exploded from the inside and splattered his blood and guts everywhere and he fell off the house.

Me: BLECH!

Nico: Yuck.

Loki then appeared.

Me: May, you and your group are up.

May: Right.

May and her group got ready for her battle.

Loki: (to May) I'm not kidding. If Bansheera wasn't pushing up daisies, she would love this place!

May: I believe you. It's hard to imagine no one liking a place like this.

Twilight Sparkle: You said it. And it's scary that there are so many evil souls down here.

Luster Dawn: Yeah it's horrifying.

Princess Cadance: How can people be so consumed with evil that it's that unbelievable?

Princess Amore: It shows that people will go to great lengths to get what they want.

Flurry Heart: It's sick.

Star Swirl: No kidding.

Spyro: But it's all because of Lucifer.

Muscle Man: Yeah he is the one that is spreading evil all over.

High Five Ghost: You got that right.

Loki: And I believe it. Lets do it!

Loki fired waves of lightning and they dodged it and fired waves of magic, ice fire and energy and smashed him down.

May: YEAH!

Twilight Sparkle: That was great.

Me: Looks like we have to go down into the circles.

Dante Alighieri: For Beatrice, I will help you all.

Me: Thanks brother.

Dante smiled when I called him that.

LUST - 2ND CIRCLE OF HELL

We were in the storms of the 2nd Circle of Hell, Lust and it was a terrifying and relentless storm level. Lightning flashed and struck all over the place and rains poured all over and winds blew incredibly fast.

Dante Alighieri: WHAT IS THIS PLACE!?

Brittney: This is the 2nd Circle of Hell, The Circle of Lust. To this torment are condemned the Carnal Damned. They are the great lustful of the world.

Nico: I don't like this place!

We saw a huge tower ahead.

Me: Lets head for that tower!

We went into the tower and it was terrifying.

Me: Wow. The Carnal Tower. Really scary.

Lori: This place is literally scary.

May: No kidding.

Sophie Casterwill: (British Accent) It sure is a place I would not want to visit.

Me: I know. Lets fly up to the top of that tower.

We flew up to the tower and we were confronted by MARC ANTONY AND CLEOPATRA!

---

Marc Antony

Marcus Antonius (14 January 83 BC - 1 August 30 BC), commonly known in English as Mark Antony or Anthony, was a Roman politician and general who played a critical role in the transformation of the Roman Republic from a constitutional republic into the autocratic Roman Empire.

Antony was a relative and supporter of Julius Caesar, and served as one of his generals during the conquest of Gaul and the Civil War. Antony was appointed administrator of Italy while Caesar eliminated political opponents in Greece, North Africa, and Spain. After Caesar's assassination in 44 BC, Antony joined forces with Marcus Aemilius Lepidus, another of Caesar's generals, and Octavian, Caesar's great-nephew and adopted son, forming a three-man dictatorship known to historians as the Second Triumvirate. The Triumvirs defeated Caesar's murderers, the Liberatores, at the Battle of Philippi in 42 BC, and divided the government of the Republic between themselves. Antony was assigned Rome's eastern provinces, including the client kingdom of Egypt, then ruled by Cleopatra VII Philopator, and was given the command in Rome's war against Parthia.

Relations among the triumvirs were strained as the various members sought greater political power. Civil war between Antony and Octavian was averted in 40 BC, when Antony married Octavian's sister, Octavia. Despite this marriage, Antony carried on a love affair with Cleopatra, who bore him three children, further straining Antony's relations with Octavian. Lepidus was expelled from the association in 36 BC, and in 33 BC disagreements between Antony and Octavian caused a split between the remaining Triumvirs. Their ongoing hostility erupted into civil war in 31 BC, as the Roman Senate, at Octavian's direction, declared war on Cleopatra and proclaimed Antony a traitor. Later that year, Antony was defeated by Octavian's forces at the Battle of Actium. Antony and Cleopatra fled to Egypt where, after a minor victory at the Battle of Alexandria, they committed suicide.

With Antony dead, Octavian became the undisputed master of the Roman world. In 27 BC, Octavian was granted the title of Augustus, marking the final stage in the transformation of the Roman Republic into an empire, with himself as the first Roman emperor.

Cleopatra VII

Cleopatra VII Philopator (69 BC - 10 August 30 BC) was the last active ruler of the Ptolemaic Kingdom of Egypt. A member of the Ptolemaic dynasty, she was a descendant of its founder Ptolemy I Soter, a Macedonian Greek general and companion of Alexander the Great. After the death of Cleopatra, Egypt became a province of the Roman Empire, marking the end of the second to last Hellenistic state and the age that had lasted since the reign of Alexander (336-323 BC).[note 7] Her native language was Koine Greek, and she was the only Ptolemaic ruler to learn the Egyptian language. [note 8]

In 58 BC, Cleopatra presumably accompanied her father, Ptolemy XII Auletes, during his exile to Rome after a revolt in Egypt (a Roman client state) allowing his daughter Berenice IV to claim the throne. Berenice was killed in 55 BC when Ptolemy returned to Egypt with Roman military assistance. When he died in 51 BC, the joint reign of Cleopatra and her brother Ptolemy XIII began, but a falling-out between them led to open civil war. After losing the 48 BC Battle of Pharsalus in Greece against his rival Julius Caesar (a Roman dictator and consul) in Caesar's Civil War, the Roman statesman Pompey fled to Egypt. Pompey had been a political ally of Ptolemy XII, but Ptolemy XIII, at the urging of his court eunuchs, had Pompey ambushed and killed before Caesar arrived and occupied Alexandria. Caesar then attempted to reconcile the rival Ptolemaic siblings, but Ptolemy's chief adviser, Potheinos, viewed Caesar's terms as favoring Cleopatra, so his forces besieged her and Caesar at the palace. Shortly after the siege was lifted by reinforcements, Ptolemy XIII died in the 47 BC Battle of the Nile; Cleopatra's half-sister Arsinoe IV was eventually exiled to Ephesus for her role in carrying out the siege. Caesar declared Cleopatra and her brother Ptolemy XIV joint rulers but maintained a private affair with Cleopatra that produced a son, Caesarion. Cleopatra traveled to Rome as a client queen in 46 and 44 BC, where she stayed at Caesar's villa. After the assassinations of Caesar and (on her orders) Ptolemy XIV in 44 BC, she named Caesarion co-ruler.

In the Liberators' civil war of 43-42 BC, Cleopatra sided with the Roman Second Triumvirate formed by Caesar's grandnephew and heir Octavian, Mark Antony, and Marcus Aemilius Lepidus. After their meeting at Tarsos in 41 BC, the queen had an affair with Antony. He carried out the execution of Arsinoe at her request, and became increasingly reliant on Cleopatra for both funding and military aid during his invasions of the Parthian Empire and the Kingdom of Armenia. The Donations of Alexandria declared their children Alexander Helios, Cleopatra Selene II, and Ptolemy Philadelphus rulers over various erstwhile territories under Antony's triumviral authority. This event, their marriage, and Antony's divorce of Octavian's sister Octavia Minor led to the Final War of the Roman Republic. Octavian engaged in a war of propaganda, forced Antony's allies in the Roman Senate to flee Rome in 32 BC, and declared war on Cleopatra. After defeating Antony and Cleopatra's naval fleet at the 31 BC Battle of Actium, Octavian's forces invaded Egypt in 30 BC and defeated Antony, leading to Antony's suicide. When Cleopatra learned that Octavian planned to bring her to his Roman triumphal procession, she killed herself by poisoning, contrary to the popular belief that she was bitten by an asp.

Cleopatra's legacy survives in ancient and modern works of art. Roman historiography and Latin poetry produced a generally critical view of the queen that pervaded later Medieval and Renaissance literature. In the visual arts, her ancient depictions include Roman busts, paintings, and sculptures, cameo carvings and glass, Ptolemaic and Roman coinage, and reliefs. In Renaissance and Baroque art, she was the subject of many works including operas, paintings, poetry, sculptures, and theatrical dramas. She has become a pop culture icon of Egyptomania since the Victorian era, and in modern times, Cleopatra has appeared in the applied and fine arts, burlesque satire, Hollywood films, and brand images for commercial products.

Me: Marc Antony and Cleopatra.

Marc Antony: So you are the deadly foes we heard about.

Thrust: (to Marc Antony) What's wrong? Never seen a giant robot before?

Marc Antony: You're soon about to become a dead one.

Heidi: You've overstayed your welcome Marc Antony. Ever since 30 BC!

Heidi unsheathed her scythe and slashed him all over and kicked him in the face! She slashed him all over and obliterated him.

Cleopatra: NO! ANTONY! (Cries) (To us) It wasn't supposed to be like this! We had a deal!

Me: We never agreed on anything!

Deker: (to Cleopatra) Do you think you scare me, Cleopatra? There's only two people formerly my associates that are more powerful then you!

Cleopatra: We'll see about that.

Eli: Yes we will and you give all the Pharaohs we know a bad name.

Pharaoh Atem: That's right.

Mokunaii XI: And you have done nothing that shows you are a good Pharaoh!

Ronnie Anne: And you will pay for it!

They fired energy blasts and fire blasts and smashed her down and Eli formed a scythe of energy and slashed her head off and killed her.

Me: Wow! That was intense.

Leonard then appeared.

Me: Lori it's your turn.

Lori: Okay.

Lori and her group went next.

Leonard: (to Lori) Is it hot in here or is it just me?

Lori: It's literally not just you Leonard. We're all hot. But this is the 2nd Circle of Hell so we should be cooled down by the rains of Lust.

Fluttershy: Yeah we should. But it's scary here!

Tree Hugger: It's gnarly dudes.

Pip-Squeak: (British Accent) No kidding. Hard to imagine it's that scary here.

Sweet Leaf: Yeah it sure is terrifying.

Mage Meadowbrook: It sure is wicked though.

Stealth Elf: It sure is.

Timon: Talk about your fixer upper. This place is Mook Central.

Pumbaa: Yeah it is.

Leonard: Good way to describe it. Lets do it!

Leonard and his pigs went at them and they smashed and blasted them all over with leaves and wind and smashed them all over and got more cold cuts for the homeless and Leonard was knocked down.

Lori: Literally a good battle.

Fluttershy: That was fun.

We then pressed on to the next circle.

GLUTTONY - THE 3RD CIRCLE OF HELL

We arrived in the 3rd Circle of Hell, Gluttony.

Me: This is the most repulsive and most disgusting of all the 9 Circles: Gluttony.

We saw the damned eating and eating and eating and more and they were even eating each other! It was brutal and horrible!

Nico: This is gross!

Laney: And disgusting.

Lola: Yeah!

Lana: I like it.

We walked around and we saw the damned being inundated with mud and filth and they are eating and eating like there was no tomorrow. It was so revolting.

Me: This is so disgusting! I can't believe that people are just that fucked up over food.

Nico: No kidding.

Ciacco: And I should know J.D. Because I was here before you freed me.

Me: I remember that. That was horrible.

Saint Lucia: What these shades could not satisfy in life, in death they will be denied for eternity.

Me: It's just so wrong. All because they couldn't control themselves.

Lincoln: I agree. It's so wrong on so many levels.

Lana: No kidding.

Lola: But it's still a revolting fate!

Lisa Loud: My thoughts exactly Lola.

Lily: This is terrible.

Me: Yeah.

We continued on and we saw the damned soul Clodia.

* * *

Clodia, born Claudia Pulchra ("Claudia the Beautiful"), was the wife of Quintus Caecilius Metellus Celer and sister of Publius Clodius Pulcher, a wealthy politician and first husband of Fulvia. Although born a patrician, she and her brother took on the plebeian equivalent of their names in honor of the lower social classes that Clodius championed, and her name was changed from Claudia to Clodia.

Clodia was married to her cousin Metellus, with whom she had a daughter. However, she had multiple affairs with other men, from her husband's best friend to their own slaves. She was later suspected of poisoning Metellus due to her hatred of him.

When she had another affair with a friend of the poet Catullus, it created a public scandal. In retaliation, Clodia levied a charge of attempted murder against her lover. During the trial, the rhetorician Cicero, an enemy of Clodia's family, condemned her as a whore, a gambler and a drunk, even accusing her of seducing her own brother. Due to his scathing words, Clodia's lover was acquitted. Nothing was known about her later life or death, but she was immortalized in Catullus's poem, Lesbia.

Lana absolved her because she believed that she was unjustly punished. Clodia went up to Heaven.

Luna: Nice job Lans.

Sam S.L.: Way to go little dudette.

Lana: Thanks guys.

We went on and then we came across CERBERUS, GUARDIAN OF GLUTTONY!

Me: Cerberus!

Ragdoll: (to Cerberus) Um… nice doggy?

Cerberus roared.

Lana: Time to put this bad dog down!

Tundra Man: Yeah!

Rarity: This is why I'm a cat person!

They fired waves of jewels and energy and water and they obliterated Cerberus in an instant.

Me: Good riddance.

Whiteout then appeared.

Me: You're up Squirrel Girl.

Squirrel Girl and her group went next.

Whiteout: (to Squirrel Girl) Compared to the other bosses, Chomp Kitty shouldn't be much of a problem.

Squirrel Girl: We'll find out when we face him. I have a feeling he's leading us to the 9th Circle.

Rarity: I have a feeling he is. And will someone get this repulsive filth off me!?

Sweetie Belle: Yeah I don't like this level. It's gross.

Thunder Terror: This is the most disgusting out of all of the 9 levels.

Mistmane: You are not kidding on that.

Sable Spirit: Yeah it's disgusting and it smells horrible.

Gill Grunt: It sure does.

Mr. Fantastic: Yeah.

Human Torch: You said it.

Whiteout: No kidding. Lets do it!

Whiteout fired waves of white energy and they dodged the blasts and they fired waves of acorns, jewels, water and rings and smashed her down.

Squirrel Girl: That was fun!

Rarity: Rapture darling that was grand!

Me: That was that.

Dante Alighieri: This is getting more evil by the minute.

Me: Yeah the deeper you go into Hell the worse it gets.

Nico: Yep.

We continued on.

---

GREED - THE 4TH CIRCLE OF HELL

---

We arrived in what looked like a factory. We saw Damned Souls being melted alive in molten gold and buried in huge piles of gold coins.

Me: Whoa! Look at all this gold!

Laney: Unbelievable.

Lola: So much of it. What would one man do with all of it?

Brittney: This is the 4th Circle, Greed.

Me: One of the big time cardinal sins.

Nico: Horrible.

Saint Lucia: What a mockery is made in the brief battle for possessions that make so short a life.

Me: No kidding.

Axel Adell: That is absolutely disgusting.

Nico: Yeah.

We walked up to a gold coin pile and I picked up some coins. The damned were being buried in different types of gold coins from all over the world from over the centuries.

Me: They are being buried in different types of gold coins from all over the centuries. Most of these coins we don't use anymore but they are still valuable.

Then a hand reached out and grabbed my arm. It was the hand of Gessius Florus!

Gessius Florus was the Roman procurator of Judea from 64 until 66. Born in Clazomenae, Florus was appointed to replace Lucceius Albinus as procurator by the Emperor Nero due to his wife Cleopatra's friendship with Nero's wife Poppaea. He was noted for his tensions against the Judean and Jewish population, and is credited by Josephus as being the primary cause of the Great Jewish Revolt.

Upon taking office in Caesarea, Florus began favoring local Greek population of the city over the Jewish population. The local Greek population noticed Florus' policies and took advantage of the circumstances. One notable instance of provocation occurred while the Jews were worshiping at their local synagogue and a Hellenist sacrificed several birds on top of an earthenware container at the entrance of the synagogue, an act that rendered the building ritually unclean. In response to this action, the Jews sent a group of men to petition Florus for redress. Despite accepting a payment of eight talents to hear the case, Florus refused to listen to the complaints and instead had the petitioners imprisoned.

Florus further angered the Jewish population of his province by having seventeen talents removed from the treasury of the Temple in Jerusalem, claiming the money was for the Emperor. In response to this action, the city fell into unrest and some of the Jewish population began to openly mock Florus by passing a basket around to collect money as if Florus were poor. Florus reacted to the unrest by sending soldiers into Jerusalem the next day to raid the city and arrest a number of the city leaders. The arrested individuals were whipped and crucified despite many of them being Roman citizens.

After the outbreak of the Great Jewish Revolt, Florus was replaced as procurator by Marcus Antonius Julianus.

---

Gessius: That is MY Gold!

Me: Gessius Florus!

Nico: He's the procurator that was known for starting the Great Jewish Revolt back in the 1st Century!

Lincoln: I remember that! That was terrible!

Whitney: No kidding.

Laney: It's hard to imagine that a war can start because of ones own greed.

Me: But anybody that loses themselves to gold has no right to live or keep it because their minds have been fucked around by it.

Axel Adell: That's right.

I punched Gessius in the face and he let go of my hand.

I blasted Gessius and destroyed him and banished him to the Warp.

Vexen then appeared.

Me: You're up Lana.

Lana: Awesome.

Lana and her group went to him.

Vexen: Hard to imagine that Hell is like this.

Lana: No kidding and it's full of numerous people from history that are interesting.

Princess Luna: But some of them have done so many evil things.

Snowdrop: Yeah it's absolutely horrible.

Gari: You're not kidding.

Blackout: Yeah it's sick. They are absolute wastes of life.

Mario: (Italian Accent) They sure-a are.

Luigi: (Italian Accent) You said it.

Vexen: I agree. Lets do it.

He fired waves of ice and they dodged it and fired waves of darkness and fireballs and ice and smashed him down.

Lana: AWESOME!

Princess Luna: A victory of the night.

Dante Alighieri: These damned remind me of my father.

Me: Your father was a total douchebag.

Eli: Yeah he was a freak.

A laugh was heard and then we saw ALIGHIERO ALIGHIERI!

---

Alighiero Alighieri is a major antagonist in the videogame Dante's Inferno . He serves as the boss of the Circle of Greed, as well as the father of Dante.

Life

Throughout Dante's childhood, Alighiero proved to be a sinful, lecherous and cruel glutton that often stole money from the poor to fund wild parties with his friends. He frequently had sex with women, excluding his wife Bella, and constantly badmouthed his son and his wife. Alighiero was also extremely abusive towards Bella, even driving her to commit suicide, though he told Dante she died of a fever.

Death

While his son was away at the Crusades, his fiancé, Beatrice, stayed with Alighiero while she waited for him to return. Soon before he died, Alighiero attempted to seduce Beatrice, stating that he was sure Dante was dead, but seconds later, an assassin burst into his house. Alighiero engaged him in a sword fight and was close to overpowering him, but as he pushed the assassin to the ground, Alighieri was stabbed in the eye with the golden cross he always wore, killing him.

Descent into the Inferno

Alighiero was sent to Hell upon his death, where he was condemned to the Fourth Circle, Greed, and transformed into a grotesque and obese Demon. After Dante arrived in the fourth circle during his descent into the Inferno, Alighiero taunted him about his failures and how he had made nothing of himself. He said that Dante was nothing like him and asked if the crusader was afraid that he wasn't a man like his father. However Dante said that he was afraid he was too much like his father and they finally battled, with the crusader emerging the victor. Alighiero then told Dante to go ahead and blame him for how he turned out, but the crusader only said that he pitied his father for being so full of greed and hate. Dante said that he refused to be damned like Alighiero and absolved him. Later his Soul aided the crusader, along with all the other souls he absolved on his journey, in imprisoning Lucifer once more, redeeming himself similar to his son.

---

Alighiero: There is no room to pity the damned here son.

Flame Man: (to Alighiero) You're one bad father.

Alighiero: We'll see about that.

Carly Atlas: You give all good fathers everywhere a bad name.

Dante Aligheri: Hard to imagine you are here father.

Alighiero: You think that you are a better man than me? That you are above reproach for your sins?

Dante Alighieri: I took up the Crusades. The priest absolved us!

Alighiero: And you actually believed him. No man can absolve you of your sins. But some damned can be rewarded in hell.

Alighiero jumped and landed in front of us.

Alighiero: Lucifer offered me 1,000 years free of torture and endless gold if I would kill you all.

Dante Alighieri: And where will you spend this gold father?

Carly Atlas: We only want to make sure you die.

Me: That's right you fuckwipe!

Carly kicked him in the face and smashed him down and Dante slashed and kicked him all over. Alighiero punched Dante's face with his huge cross and blood went flying all over. Dante got up.

Dante Alighieri: I ALWAYS DESPISED YOU!

I had my hand on Alighieri's back.

Me: So have I. HAKAI!

I obliterated Alighieri from existence forever!

Me: Good riddance to that monster father.

Lola: Yep.

Unicorn then appeared.

Me: You're up Sheila.

Sheila and her group went next.

Unicorn: (to Sheila) Hard to believe one small cat can cause all of this.

Sheila: I know and that cat is made of electronic energy.

Sunset Shimmer: Yeah and he is a monster.

Pepperdance: We have to destroy it.

Cayenne: And we will make sure we do.

Tornado Bolt: Yes we will.

Gusty the Great: You said it.

Unicorn: I know you will. But it's hard to imagine that this place is that scary.

Sunburn: You are not kidding about that.

Zarya Moonwolf: Yeah it sure is.

Arkayna: It's awful.

Unicorn: Yeah. Lets do it!

He went at them and they blasted him all over with fire and energy and smashed him down.

Sheila: YEAH!

Sunset Shimmer: That was great!

We continued on.

ANGER - 5TH CIRCLE OF HELL

We were in the 5th Circle of Hell, Anger and the air was flooded with negative energy and hatred and fury.

Me: Whoa.

Brittney: This is the 5th Circle of Hell, Anger. The very air is flooded with fury and rage.

Me: It sure is terrifying.

Suddenly we got a massive and incredibly strong negative energy increase and we were stronger and more powerful!

Me: WHOA! I forgot how strong the negative energy is here.

Dante Alighieri: Why do I feel stronger all of a sudden?

Eli: It's what happens to us whenever we absorb negative energy or when someone hates us.

We went over to the River Styx and we saw many souls of anger.

Me: Wow this place is awful.

Brittney: It sure is. In the Black Sludge of the River Styx do the damned here wish they were never born.

Lola: Stupid fools.

Nico: Yeah.

We walked onto the River Styx and we saw many souls. We saw Filippo Argenti, Hecuba, Boudica and many more.

---

Filippo Argenti

Filippo Argenti or Filippo Argente (13th century), a politician and a citizen of Florence, was a member of the Cavicciuoli branch of the aristocratic family of Adimari, according to Boccaccio. Filippo's children were Giovanni Argente and Salvatore Argente. Salvatore later travelled to Spain and established himself in Barcelona and his descendants in Valencia, where his grandson Salvatore was established in the small village of Navarres and changed the spelling of his surname to Argente. The Adimari family were part of the Black Guelph political faction.

Filippo is reputed to have received the nickname "Argenti" by having his horse shod with silver. He makes an appearance in the Decamerone, 9.8, where Boccaccio tells a story that involves his temper. The Firenze's storia talks about his silver hair. He was a very tall man, very burly, bizarre, and famous for his iron fists.[ citation needed ]

Filippo Argenti appears as a character in the fifth circle of Hell in the Inferno, the first part of Dante's Divine Comedy. He is among the wrathful in the river Styx, and accosts Dante as the latter crosses the Styx. Filippo is then torn into pieces by the other wrathful in the river Styx after this encounter with Dante and Virgil, and then turns on himself biting fiercely.

Early commentators recount various incidents to explain the antipathy between Dante and Filippo:

Filippo once slapped Dante

Filippo's brother had taken Dante's possessions after Dante's exile from Florence

Filippo's family had opposed Dante's return from exile

Hecuba

Hecuba was a queen in Greek mythology, the wife of King Priam of Troy during the Trojan War, She had 19 children, who included major characters of Homer's Iliad such as the warriors Hector and Paris and the prophetess Cassandra. Two of them, Hector and Troilus are said to have been born as a result of Hecuba's relationship with the god Apollo.

Boudica

Boudica or Boudicca (UK: /ˈbuːdɪkə, boʊˈdɪkə/, US: /buːˈdɪkə/), also known as Boadicea or Boudicea, and in Welsh as Buddug was a queen of the British Celtic Iceni tribe who led an uprising against the conquering forces of the Roman Empire in AD 60 or 61. According to Roman sources, shortly after the uprising failed, she poisoned herself or died of her wounds, although there is no actual evidence of her fate. She is considered a British folk hero.

Boudica's husband Prasutagus, with whom she had two children whose names are unknown, ruled as a nominally independent ally of Rome, and left his kingdom jointly to his daughters and to the Roman emperor in his will. However, when he died, his will was ignored, and the kingdom was annexed and his property taken. According to Tacitus, Boudica was flogged and her daughters raped. Cassius Dio explains Boudica's response by saying that previous imperial donations to influential Britons were confiscated and the Roman financier and philosopher Seneca called in the loans he had forced on the reluctant Celtic Britons.

In AD 60 or 61, when the Roman governor Gaius Suetonius Paulinus was campaigning on the island of Mona (modern Anglesey) on the northwest coast of Wales, Boudica led the Iceni, the Trinovantes, and others in revolt. They destroyed Camulodunum (modern Colchester), earlier the capital of the Trinovantes but at that time a colonia, a settlement for discharged Roman soldiers and site of a temple to the former Emperor Claudius. Upon hearing of the revolt, Suetonius hurried to Londinium (modern London), the 20-year-old commercial settlement that was the rebels' next target. He lacked sufficient numbers to defend the settlement, and he evacuated and abandoned Londinium. Boudica led a very large army of Iceni, Trinovantes, and others against a detachment of the Legio IX Hispana, defeating them, and burning Londinium and Verulamium.

An estimated 70,000-80,000 Romans and British were killed in the three cities by those following Boudica, many by torture. Suetonius, meanwhile, regrouped his forces, possibly in the West Midlands; despite being heavily outnumbered, he decisively defeated the Britons. The crisis caused Nero to consider withdrawing all Roman forces from Britain, but Suetonius's victory over Boudica confirmed Roman control of the province. Boudica then either killed herself to avoid capture (according to Tacitus), or died of illness (according to Cassius Dio).

Interest in these events was revived in the English Renaissance and led to Boudica's fame in the Victorian era. Boudica has remained an important cultural symbol in the United Kingdom.

We blasted those souls into the river of fire and into the Warp and then we got to a dock and we were facing PHLEGIAS THE BOATMAN!

Riddler: (to Phlegias) Riddle me this: What's big, not that scary, and about to be lying dead in a pool of his own blood?

Phlegias roared.

Tara: And that's you Phlegias!

They fired waves of energy, lightning and more and obliterated his head and lava poored out of his neck stump. He was dead in an instant.

Then KGBeast then appeared.

Me: Onewa it's your turn.

Onewa and his group were next.

KGBeast: (to Onewa) I can't believe Pablo and Anderson's parents picked today of all days to try and get revenge for their sons!

Onewa: I know and thank goodness that Taylor got through to them before things got nuts.

Applejack: Yeah those two families have no rights to call themselves parents.

Apple Bloom: Yeah especially after how they turned their own children into monsters.

Frozen Fright: No kidding. They give all loving parents everywhere a bad name.

Rockhoof: (Scottish Accent) Aye. That's a fact laddie.

Cocoa Axe: (Irish Accent) What they did makes them the true villains.

Steela Oresdotter: (Norwegian Accent) That's true.

Flashwing: They need serious reeducation after what they did.

Inspector Gadget: I agree with you on that.

Penny Gadget: Me too.

KGBeast: You said it. Lets do it!

KGBeast went at them and they fired waves of earth and apples and smashed him down.

Onewa: ALL RIGHT!

Applejack: YEEHAW! That was great!

We then pressed on and we were heading towards the City of Dis.

Dante Alighieri: (VOICEOVER) We moved toward the city, secure in our holy cause, and beheld such a fortress. And on every hand I saw a great plain of woe and cruel torment. Bitter tombs were scattered with flame made to glow all over, hotter than iron need be for any craft. And such dire laments issued forth as come only from those who are truly wretched, suffering and forever lost!

The City of Dis was one of the scariest cities we had ever seen!

HERESY - 6TH CIRCLE OF HELL

We arrived in the 6th Circle of Hell, Heresy.

Me: Whoa! So this is the City of Dis. It's really horrifying.

Nico: No kidding. It's scary.

Whitney: Yeah.

Hunter: (German Accent) Mein Gott, this is really scary.

Brittney: This is also the home of the 6th Circle of Hell, Heresy. Here in the 6th Circle you will see countless Heretics burning in eternal fire.

Me: Yeah. This is the circle for those that are believers of something else. Like cult leaders and all that.

Saint Lucia: That's right. It's a nightmare.

Me: And we should know. Because we've killed a lot of cult leaders.

Eli: We sure have. They are disgusting monsters.

Lola: Yeah they are.

Carol: And they deserve this.

We saw a familiar spirit and it was FARINATA DEGLI UBERTI!

Manente degli Uberti (1212 - 11 November 1264), known as Farinata degli Uberti, was an Italian aristocrat and military leader of the Ghibelline faction in Florence. He was considered to be a heretic by some of his contemporaries, including Dante Alighieri, who mentioned Farinata in his Inferno .

Farinata belonged to one of the most ancient and prominent noble families of Florence, his native city. He was the leader of the Ghibelline faction in his city during the power struggles of the time. He led the Ghibellines from 1239, but after the death of the Holy Roman Emperor Frederick II, in 1250, the Guelphs were able to reassert power in Florence, securing his exile from the city, along with his supporters. The exiles sought refuge in Siena, a Ghibelline stronghold. In response to the exile, Farinata allied himself with Frederick's illegitimate son, Manfred of Sicily, who was seeking to expand his alliances in order to secure himself on the throne of Sicily. In September 1260, Farinata led the Ghibelline forces to victory over the rival Guelphs at the Battle of Montaperti. As a result, he was able to capture Florence. The leading Guelph families were banished and the government of Florence was radically restructured to ensure Ghibelline dominance.

Farinata's allies wanted to ensure that Florence would never again rise to threaten them. Following the example of Roman ruthlessness towards its enemy Carthage, they voted to raze Florence utterly to the ground. Only Farinata stood out against them, declaring himself to be a Florentine first and a Ghibelline second, and vowing that he would defend his native city with his own sword. The Ghibellines thereupon took the lesser course of destroying the city's defences and the homes of the leading Guelphs, knocking down 103 palaces, 580 houses, and 85 towers.

When the Guelphs regained control of the city in 1266, they repeated in reverse the demolitions, by destroying every building belonging to the Uberti clan, which were in what is now Piazza della Signoria, decreeing as well that no building should ever be erected in that accursed space. This is why Palazzo Vecchio, begun in the 1290s, is not in the center of the piazza, but squeezed over to one side.

---

Farinata: Oh Tuscan who walks through this place speaking so decorously, know that I am Farinata.

Me: Farinata Degli Uberti, Cult Leader of the Ghibelline Faction in Florence.

Dante Alighieri: Farinata! Another hated man in life! What do you want spirit?

Farinata: Know this: The Damned can foresee the future but can never know the present. Your future Dante is filled with death and destruction. Beatrice will marry Lucifer and reign in Hell and you will be damned with us forever!

Me: I wouldn't count on it!

I fired a Hakai blast and banished him to the Warp.

Dante Alighieri: I never liked him.

Me: I don't anyone in Florence did.

Laney: Yeah.

Then Numerous Heretics then appeared!

Brittney: Heretics! Lets get them Goths.

The Goths of Darkness went to face them.

Trumbipulor: (to Heretics) I'm gonna enjoy flattening you!

Brittney: And destroying you all.

They slashed and blasted many Heretics all over.

They smashed and obliterated them into nothing.

Brittney: Good riddance to them.

Eris then appeared.

Me: Lane you're up.

Lane's group went up next.

Eris: (to Lane) I hope you all still enjoyed Brother Appreciation Day.

Lane: We all sure did and it was so fun.

Princess Celestia: Everyone sure enjoyed it.

Minuette: Boy they sure have.

Twinkleshine: Twilight got to enjoy it with her brother.

Lemon Hearts: She sure did.

Moondancer: Many of us liked it.

Lyra Heartstrings: It was so fun.

Spotlight: It shined far.

Discord: It sure did and it was fun.

Fluttershy: My brother Zephyr Breeze loved it.

Eris: That's good he did. Lets do it.

She fired golden apples and they dodged them and fired waves of light and energy and smashed her all over the place.

Lane: That LIGHTS up the fun! (Laughs to rimshot) Get it?

They laughed.

Suddenly there was a terrible earthquake!

Dante Alighieri: What's happening!?

Brittney: It's the Harrowing of Hell! Christ's death forever quakes this circle!

Me: Lets get outta here!

We went out of the circle and into the 7th Circle.

---

VIOLENCE - 7TH CIRCLE OF HELL

---

We were in the 7th Circle of Hell, Violence!

Saint Lucia: This circleis reserved for the violent.

Me: Whoa. We've killed thousands of people that are violent and all that. Some of history's most evil figures were all violent people.

Laney: I remember that.

Axel Adell: (Swedish Accent) Yep. Some of them were really bad.

We arrived at a huge blood river.

Saint Lucia: Those who have done violence against others forever boil in the blood they have shed.

Me: People like murderers and all that.

Nico: Yep.

Eli: And they deserve it.

Nunnally: Big time.

Actia: This is scary.

I went to the edge of the river of blood and I touched the top and it burned my hand!

Me: OW!

I pulled my hand back and the blood was scalding hot.

Me: It's scalding hot blood!

Eli: That's lethal.

Dante Alighieri: How shall we cross? It's impossible.

Me: Nothing is impossible. We fly across.

Nico: Hold on tight Dante.

Nico had Dante hold on to his waist and we flew across the river and as we flew we saw some of history's most evil violent figures. We saw Attila the Hun, Dionysius I of Syracuse, Alexander the Great and many others from history that were that dangerous and violent.

---

Attila the Hun

Attila (406-453), frequently called Attila the Hun, was the ruler of the Huns from 434 until his death in March 453. He was also the leader of a tribal empire consisting of Huns, Ostrogoths, Alans and Bulgars, among others, in Central and Eastern Europe.

During his reign, he was one of the most feared enemies of the Western and Eastern Roman Empires. He crossed the Danube twice and plundered the Balkans, but was unable to take Constantinople. His unsuccessful campaign in Persia was followed in 441 by an invasion of the Eastern Roman (Byzantine) Empire, the success of which emboldened Attila to invade the West. He also attempted to conquer Roman Gaul (modern France), crossing the Rhine in 451 and marching as far as Aurelianum (Orléans) before being stopped in the Battle of the Catalaunian Plains.

He subsequently invaded Italy, devastating the northern provinces, but was unable to take Rome. He planned for further campaigns against the Romans, but died in 453. After Attila's death, his close adviser, Ardaric of the Gepids, led a Germanic revolt against Hunnic rule, after which the Hunnic Empire quickly collapsed. Attila would live on as a character in Germanic heroic legend.

Dionysius I of Syracuse

Dionysius I or Dionysius the Elder (c.432-367 BC) was a Greek tyrant of Syracuse, in Sicily. He conquered several cities in Sicily and southern Italy, opposed Carthage's influence in Sicily and made Syracuse the most powerful of the Western Greek colonies. He was regarded by the ancients as an example of the worst kind of despot-cruel, suspicious and vindictive.

Alexander the Great

Alexander III of Macedon (July 356 BC - 10/11 June 323 BC), commonly known as Alexander the Great, was a king of the ancient Greek kingdom of Macedon. A member of the Argead dynasty, he was born in Pella-a city in Ancient Greece-in 356 BC. He succeeded his father King Philip II to the throne at the age of 20, and spent most of his ruling years conducting a lengthy military campaign throughout Western Asia and Northeastern Africa. By the age of thirty, he had created one of the largest empires in history, stretching from Greece to northwestern India. He was undefeated in battle and is widely considered to be one of history's most successful military commanders.

During his youth, Alexander was tutored by Aristotle until the age of 16. His father Philip was assassinated in 336 BC at Alexander's sister's wedding, and Alexander assumed the throne to the Kingdom of Macedon. After sacking the city of Thebes, Alexander was awarded the generalship of Greece. He used his authority to launch his father's pan-Hellenic project, which involved him assuming the leadership position to all the Greeks in their conquest of Persia.

In 334 BC he invaded the Achaemenid Empire (Persian Empire) and began a series of campaigns that lasted 10 years. Following his conquest of Asia Minor (modern-day Turkey), Alexander broke the power of Persia in a series of decisive battles, including those at Issus and Gaugamela. He subsequently overthrew King Darius III and conquered the Achaemenid Empire in its entirety. At that point, his empire stretched from the Adriatic Sea to the Indus River. Alexander endeavored to reach the "ends of the world and the Great Outer Sea" and invaded India in 326 BC, achieving an important victory over King Porus at the Battle of the Hydaspes. He eventually turned back at the Beas River due to the demand of his homesick troops, dying in Babylon in 323 BC; the city he planned to establish as his capital. He did not manage to execute a series of planned campaigns that would have begun with an invasion of Arabia. In the years following his death, a series of civil wars tore his empire apart.

Alexander's legacy includes the cultural diffusion and syncretism which his conquests engendered, such as Greco-Buddhism and Hellenistic Judaism. He founded more than twenty cities that bore his name, most notably Alexandria in Egypt. Alexander's settlement of Greek colonists and the resulting spread of Greek culture resulted in Hellenistic civilization, which developed through the Roman Empire into modern Western culture. The Greek language became the lingua franca of the region and was the predominant language of the Byzantine Empire up until its end in the mid-15th century AD. Greek-speaking communities in central and far eastern Anatolia survived until the Greek genocide and the population exchange in the 1920s. Alexander became legendary as a classical hero in the mould of Achilles, featuring prominently in the history and mythic traditions of both Greek and non-Greek cultures. His military achievements and enduring, unprecedented success in battle make him the measure with which many modern military leaders compare themselves. Military academies throughout the world still teach his tactics. He is often ranked among the most influential people in human history.

Me: These were some of history's most dangerous figures.

Nico: Yeah and some of them are that dangerous.

Laney: Yeah.

Dante Alighieri: The Damned here are worse off than the Styx.

Me: There were the kings of bloodshed and despoilment.

Nico: Wow.

We landed on the other side of the river and we saw that we were in front of a terrifying and gnarled forest and it was scary.

Eli: Whoa this forest looks scary.

Laney: I don't like this forest one bit.

Me: Me neither. This is the Wood of Suicides.

Bella Abati: I don't like this forest either.

Me: No one does.

Brittney: Yes. There are those that have done violence to themselves. This is the Wood of Suicides.

Saint Lucia: That's right.

Nico: That's awful.

Saint Lucia: Yes. When a soul takes its own life, Minos judges it to this planet. Here is sprouts. Shoots up like a sapling. No body. Only pain.

Me: That is sad.

Varie: Yeah.

Vince: It's just absolutely sick that people can forfeit their own lives like that.

Me: No kidding.

Eli: It's terrible.

We later came out of the forest and we saw that we were in fiery sandy ruins.

Dante Alighieri: Are we still in the 7th Circle?

Saint Lucia: Yes. This is the Abominable Sands. It is here that the damned did violence against God.

Me: This is home to the Blasphemers.

Lana: Terrifying place.

Nico: No kidding.

Naruto: This is bad.

Lincoln: Yeah.

Hunter: This is a scary place.

We heard a rumble and out came THE CRUSADERS!

Me: It's the Crusaders!

Dante Alighieri: Here!? Why are you being punished? Our cause was holy. We are absolved of sin.

Laney: It's hard to imagine that they did all their deeds in the name of God back during the Crusades.

Lana: Awful.

Lily: But wasn't it all done in the name God?

Me: That's what they said.

But then another soul came out and it was one that me and Dante know all too well: Francesco Portinari.

Francesco: The bishop lied. Did he not J.D. Knudson?

Me: Francesco Portinari. I still can't believe it.

Dante Alighieri: Francesco. Not you too.

Francesco: God never condones violence of any kind. There was no Holy War. Don't you understand? The priests lied!

Me: I've known that for years. I'm still reeling on the fact that you were sent here.

Francesco: IT WAS YOU! YOU DID THIS TO ME J.D.!

Me: Hey I wasn't there! I wasn't even born back 831 years ago! I keep telling you that!

Francesco: You don't deserve the life given to you. You don't deserve anything! And now you will join us here forever, where you BELONG!

He unsheathed his sword and went at me and I went at him and we clashed and it was a brutal clash! It was so powerful and so devastating that it was shaking the foundation of the planet!

Me: How can you be so blind Francesco!? Didn't my ancestors treat you like a brother?

Francesco: I AM NOT YOUR BROTHER! YOU'RE AN ANIMAL J.D.! A MONSTER! (ROARS!) I WILL NEVER LET YOU LIVE ANY LONGER!

I kicked him in the face and punched him in the stomach.

Livewire: (to Francesco) Hope you like 1 million volts of electricity!

She fired waves of lightning and electrocuted him all over.

Me: Francesco stop this!

I kicked him and we resumed our clash!

Me: Francesco is this what your sister would have wanted!? To see you fighting so savagely against an innocent soul!?

Francesco: DON'T YOU DARE TALK ABOUT BEATRICE! DANTE IS A MONSTER!

Me: He's not a monster Francesco!

I kicked him in the face and we clashed some more and I kicked his sword out of his hand and pinned him to the ground in an X-shape blade hold.

Me: Francesco listen! This is not something that your sister would have wanted! Your sister would want you to be with Dante and help him out when they would have gotten married! But Lucifer ruined those plans by making Dante spill the blood of 3,000 prisoners! It was because of Lucifer that you were executed! Lucifer did this! He made sure you would pay the price! Beatrice lost her life all because of a man that was out for revenge! Dante did all that because Lucifer made him do it.

Dante Alighieri: That's right brother. Lucifer made me do all that and because of him, Beatrice, my father, those prisoners, they were all murdered because of him!

Laney: Lucifer has tormented our world for eons and we're not going to allow him to do it anymore.

Eli: He will pay for all the pain and suffering he caused to so many people.

Me: That's right. Francesco, you have a chance to redeem yourself. You can put aside your hatred towards me and Dante and help us take down the true monster: Lucifer.

Francesco: (Growl) Oh you're right.

I helped him up and I snapped my fingers and resurrected him.

I gave him back his sword and made it indestructible and unbreakable.

Me: We got to save Beatrice.

Weather Wizard then appeared.

Me: Shane your group is up.

Shane: Okay.

Weather Wizard was next.

Weather Wizard: (to Shane) Actia would get along good with Kitten.

Shane Clarke: Yeah she sure would and her father was Killer Moth.

Pinkie Pie: Yeah that is really amazing!

Maud Pie: (Monotonously) I think it is amazing too.

Marble Pie: It sure is amazing that there are many girls based on so many legends.

Featherweight: It sure is cool.

Somnambula: (Egyptian Accent) They are really interesting to learn from.

Sprocket: They most certainly are.

Dustin: You said it.

Tori Hanson: Yep.

Weather Wizard: Yes indeed. Lets do it!

Ninja Storm Rangers: NINJA/THUNDER/SAMURAI STORM! RANGER FORM! HA!

The Ninja Storm Rangers transformed!

Shane: "Power of Air! Red!"

Tori: "Power of Water! Blue!"

Dustin: "Power of Earth! Yellow!"

Hunter: "Crimson Thunder!"

Blake: "Navy Thunder!"

Cam: "Green Samurai Power!"

All: "Ninja Storm!"

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off behind them and they were ready and the group all went at Weather Wizard and blasted him all over with gears, rocks and energy blasts and smashed him down.

Shane Clarke: All right!

Pinkie Pie: BEST USUAL BATTLE EVER!

We continued and we went to the 8th Circle.

---

FRAUD - 8TH CIRCLE OF HELL

---

We arrived in the Circle of Fraud, home of the liars!

Me: The Circle of Fraud and it's home to the liars.

Nico: Wow! I forgot how dangerous this one is.

Me: Yeah and it's divided into 10 parts.

---

Panderers & Seducers

Description:

The first ditch of the Malebolge contained the panderers and seducers. Those punished here influenced others to commit sin for their own gain, and include those who prostituted themselves and others with evil intention. Their punishment was to march around the edge of the circle, being whipped by horned demons to keep them moving, similar to how they drove others in life with their seductive ways. The panderers and pimps are driven to the right, the seducers are driven to the left.

Famous Damned Souls:

Among the shades here is the Greek hero Jason, who seduced both Queen Hypsipyle of Lemnos and Princess Medea of Colchis. Both Medea and Hypsipyle were manipulated into saving Jason's life, betraying loved ones when Jason was in danger. After he had children by both women, he abandoned them, despite making a sacred vow each time to remain loyal to the woman he was with at the time. This duplicitous behavior disgusted the gods, who cursed Jason for the rest of his life.

Also found here is Venedico Caccianemico, the leader of the Guelphs of Bologna. He is said to have sold his own sister, Ghisolabella Caccianemico, to Obizzo II d'Este, the Marquess of Ferrara. Caccianemico also reveals to Dante that he is not the only Bolognese panderer present, stating there are so many they outnumber children learning to speak, but he is soon silenced by a demon wielding a whip.

Flatterers

Description:

The second ditch contained the flatterers. Those punished here are those who, like the panderers and seducers, convinced others to sin for their own gain, this time by using words. They are immersed forever in a river of human excrement, which represented the words that they produced.

Famous Damned Souls:

Among those found here was Thais the Harlot, who teased and seduced hundreds of men with her beauty. She married the general Ptolemy I Soter, later Pharaoh of Egypt, but was never made his queen and died in obscurity.

Also found here is Alessio Interminelli of Lucca, one of the White Guelph faction, though his particular sin of flattery is not elaborated upon. He laments when Dante stares at him longer than the other sinners, though Dante explains the reason is due to him recognizing Interminelli and having known him when he was alive.

Simony

Description:

The third level of the Malebolge contained the Simonists (sinners guilty of selling positions within the church hierarchy and religious property for personal gain). They are punished by being forced upside down into baptismal fonts and having their feet set aflame, which was a corruption of baptism itself as the Simonists themselves corrupted the church. The heat of the flames burned according to the guilt of the sinner. When another soul was sent to this level of the Malebolge, it took the place of one of the others. The one that it replaced disappeared forever, shoved further down into the font to suffocate.

Famous Damned Souls:

This group of sinners was named after Simon Magus, a sorcerer who attempted to first "buy" the Holy Spirit from St. Peter, then tried to challenge the saint with his magic, which ultimately led to Simon Magus's death. Found here are several corrupt popes and cardinals, including Pope Nicholas III, who mistook Dante for Pope Boniface VIII in the poem (hinting that Boniface is destined for Hell upon his own death). Nicholas is present here for his acts of nepotism, while Boniface will be damned for not only being the cause of Dante's exile, but for multiple acts of betrayal and warfare as pope. Pope Clement V is also prophesied to join Nicholas and Boniface for moving the Holy See to Avignon in France, and thus pandering to the whims of the French monarchy.

Diviners

Description:

The fourth ditch was devoted to the diviners and fortune-tellers. Astrologists, seers, sorcerers and others who attempted to pervert God's laws to divine the future are punished here. Their heads are twisted around to face backwards and they are forced to walk backwards around the circumference of their circle for all time. As punishment for attempting to see the future, they now could only look behind them. The point is further expounded by the fact that tears continually stream from their eyes, blurring their vision. While this mainly was poetic justice for trying to see into the future, it also represented the twisted nature of magic in general.

Famous Damned Souls:

The blind prophet Tiresias resided in this ditch for his sins, along with his daughter, Manto. According to the game, Tiresias was not only guilty of trying to foresee the future, but also for using magic to change his gender from male to female, and back again. Also found here are Aruns (an Etruscan seer who foresaw the war between Caesar and Pompey), Michael Scot (famous Scottish mathematician and magician who was highly honored among royalty), Asdente (a Parma cobbler who made prophesies against Frederick II) and Guido Bonatti (an astrologer of Forli who claimed to have brought about the victory at Montaparti for the Senese).

Politicians

Description:

The fifth level of the Malebolge was the home of the Politicians (extortionists, blackmailers, grafters and unscrupulous businessmen). These were sinners who used their positions in life to gain personal wealth or other advantages for themselves, robbing the rights of others. They are punished by being thrown into a river of boiling pitch and tar, which represented the sticky fingers and dark secrets of their business. In addition, should any of the politicians try to escape the pitch, a horde of demons (the "Malebranche", meaning "evil claws") armed with grappling hooks and barbs stood guard over them, ready to tear them to pieces and push them back into the tar.

Hypocrites

Description:

The sixth level was the punishment for the hypocrites. They are forced to wear heavy lead robes as they are marched around the circumference of their circle. The robes are golden and resembled a monk's cowl, but are lined with heavy lead, symbolically representing hypocrisy: As they degraded others for sin but glorified themselves, they committed the sins that crippled them in the afterlife with their heaviness.

Famous Damned Souls:

Among those found here are Catalano dei Malavolti (a Guelph, and governor of Bologna and Florence) and Loderingo degli Andalo (a prominent Ghibelline and co-govenor of Florence with Catalano). Despite being political enemies, the two together founded the Knights of St. Mary, also called the Jovial Friars, which was sanctioned by Pope Clement IV. The order was meant to promote peace between the warring factions, but in truth it degenerated into a self-serving organization.

Caiaphas, the Pharisee who insisted on the execution of Jesus, was crucified in this circle, staked to the ground so the ranks of the lead-weighted hypocrites marched across him, as he is deemed the greatest hypocrite of all. His father-in-law, Annas, shares Caiaphas's fate.

Thieves

Description:

The seventh ditch was the home of the thieves. This ditch is guarded by the centaur Cacus, who wields a fire-breathing dragon on one shoulder (in Greek Mythology, Cacus was originally a fire-breathing monster that was slain by Hercules after stealing the hero's cattle). The bolgia was filled with serpents, dragons and other vengeful reptiles that tortured the thieves endlessly. The bites of some of the snakes caused the thieves to spontaneously combust, only to regenerate their bodies for further torment in a few moments. Other thieves had their very essence traded with snakes and lizards that bit them, transforming their bodies into twisted snake-like versions of themselves, trading their identity with every bite. As thieves stole other people's possessions in life, their very identity became subjected to theft in the Malebolge.

Famous Damned Souls:

Some notable thieves are included in the passage, with their fates being the most explicit and harshest of all the thieves. They are as follows:

Vanni Fucci, a Black Guelph who was so brutal in his pillaging of enemy homes he was called la Bestia ("The Beast"). He was also responsible for stealing a reliquary from the Cathedral of Pistoia, resulting in an innocent man nearly being executed for the crime. Fucci is turned to ashes and resurrected multiple times. When he attempts to curse God for this, one of the serpents of the ditch coils itself around his throat to silence him before he is deprived of his human form once again.

Agnello Brunelleschi, another Black Guelph and a famous thief who committed his crimes in disguise. He is blended with the six-legged reptile that is Cianfa.

Cianfa Donati, a political advisor, although his crime of theft is not elaborated on. He attacks and is blended with Agnello into a six-legged reptile.

Buoso Donati (or Buoso degli Abati), another of the Black Guelphs. His circumstances of thievery are not elaborated on. He exchanges shapes with the four-legged Francesco (no relation to the brother of Beatrice in the game).

Francesco de Cavalcanti, also called Guercio ("one-eyed"). Although his circumstances for theft are not disclosed, he was reportedly killed in the village of Gaville, and this murder resulted in a massive, violent fight between the villagers and his family, which brought about the death of many people. He exchanges shapes with Buoso.

Evil Advisors

Description:

The eighth level was the home of the evil counselors. In this trench, the souls of deceivers who gave false or corrupted advice to others for personal benefit are punished. They are constantly ablaze, appearing as nothing so much as living, speaking tongues of flame.

Famous Damned Souls:

Seen in this ditch was the Greek hero, King Odysseus (Ulysses), suffering here for his deception with the Trojan Horse, and the massacre of the Trojans by this trickery. Odysseus tells Dante of his final voyage, during which he had spotted Mount Purgatory before his ship was overturned, drowning the former king of Ithaca. Along with Odysseus is his fellow Greek hero and fighting companion, Diomedes.

Also found here is Guido da Montefeltro, who advised Pope Boniface VIII to make a truce with the noble Colonna family, and then subsequently break it, resulting in the destruction of the clan. Boniface offered complete absolution to Guido for any sins his advice might incur, though Guido's presence here shows Dante clearly felt this did nothing to save him from damnation in Hell.

Sowers of Discord

Description:

The ninth level was the home of "sowers of discord". Sinners who in life promoted scandals, schism and discord are punished here, particularly those who caused discord within the Church or within politics. They are forced to walk around the circumference of the circle bearing horrible, disfiguring wounds inflicted on them by a great demon with a sword. Being already dead, these sinners could not die from their mutilations, which in fact healed as they continued walking around the circle. By the time they reached the demon again, they would be fully whole once more, only for the demon to hack them apart all over again and the cycle to eternally repeat.

The nature of the wound mirrored the sins of the particular soul. While some only had gashes or fingers and toes cut off, others are decapitated, cut in half (as Schismatics) or are completely disemboweled.

Famous Damned Souls:

Among those who are tormented here was Bertrand de Born, who carried around his severed head like a lantern, as punishment for the discord that he caused between Henry II of England and his son, Henry the Young King, who died rebelling against his father. The prophet Muhammad is also damned here; according to Brunetto Latini, Dante's mentor, Muhammad was a former cardinal before establishing the religion of Islam, which further split the Catholic Church. His son-in-law, Ali, is also present, going before Muhammad and weeping. He is damned for the division of Islam into the Sunni and Shi'ite denominations.

Prophesied to come to this bolgia in the future is Fra Dolcino, a member of the Order of Apostolic Brothers, who renounced all worldly goods. However, his order was deemed heretical; he and his fellows were hunted down, and Dolcino was burned at the stake. Muhammad gives Dante the warning for Dolcino to give up his ways before this fate comes to pass.

Falsifiers

Description:

The tenth and final area of the circle was the home for the falsifiers who attempted to alter things through lies, deceit or alchemy. Those who tried to pass off false things as real things, such as counterfeiters of coins, are punished here. This ditch had four subdivisions where specific classes of falsifiers (alchemists, impostors, counterfeiters and liars) endured different degrees of punishment in the form of horrible, consumptive diseases, such as rashes, dropsy, leprosy and consumption.

Famous Damned Souls:

Here, Dante encountered the shade of Myrrha, a princess afflicted with madness for disguising herself in order to seduce her own father. Others found here include Zuleikha, the wife of Pontifar, who had lusted after Joseph, son of the Biblical patriarch Jacob. When he refused her advances, Zuleikha used his robe to falsely accuse him of rape. Also found here is Sinon, a mythological figure from Virgil's Aeneid. Sinon was stated to be a Greek spy who helped trick the Trojans into taking the Trojan Horse into their city. Due to his advice not only being evil but a complete falsification of the truth, Sinon is damned to this ditch rather than the one for Evil Counselors.

---

Me: Lets go and stay close to me.

We went over each of the Bolgia and it was terrifying to see and we also met some of the most infamous liars of all. Thais, Tiresias and Myrrha.

---

Thais

Thaïs (Greek: Θαΐς) was a famous Greek hetaera who accompanied Alexander the Great on his campaigns. She is most famous for instigating the burning of Persepolis. At the time, Thaïs was the lover of Ptolemy I Soter, one of Alexander's generals. It has been suggested that she may also have been Alexander's lover, on the basis of Athenaeus's statement that Alexander liked to "keep Thaïs with him", but this may simply mean he enjoyed her company. She is said to have been very witty and entertaining. Athenaeus also says that after Alexander's death Ptolemy married Thaïs, who bore three of his children.

Tiresias

In Greek mythology, Tiresias (/taɪˈriːsiəs/; Greek: Τειρεσίας, Teiresias ) was a blind prophet of Apollo in Thebes, famous for clairvoyance and for being transformed into a woman for seven years. He was the son of the shepherd Everes and the nymph Chariclo.[1] Tiresias participated fully in seven generations in Thebes, beginning as advisor to Cadmus himself.

Myrrha

Myrrha (Greek: Μύρρα, Mýrra ), also known as Smyrna (Greek: Σμύρνα, Smýrna ), is the mother of Adonis in Greek mythology. She was transformed into a myrrh tree after having had intercourse with her father, and gave birth to Adonis in tree form. Although the tale of Adonis has Semitic roots, it is uncertain from where the myth of Myrrha emerged, though it was likely from Cyprus.

The myth details the incestuous relationship between Myrrha and her father, Cinyras. Myrrha falls in love with her father and tricks him into sexual intercourse. After discovering her identity, Cinyras draws his sword and pursues Myrrha. She flees across Arabia and, after nine months, turns to the gods for help. They take pity on her and transform her into a myrrh tree. While in plant form, Myrrha gives birth to Adonis. According to legend, the aromatic exudings of the myrrh tree are Myrrha's tears.

The most familiar form of the myth was recounted in the Metamorphoses of Ovid, and the story was the subject of the most famous work (now lost) of the poet Helvius Cinna. Several alternate versions appeared in the Bibliotheca, the Fabulae of Hyginus, and the Metamorphoses of Antoninus Liberalis, with major variations depicting Myrrha's father as the Assyrian king Theias or depicting Aphrodite as having engineered the tragic liaison. Critical interpretation of the myth has considered Myrrha's refusal of conventional sexual relations to have provoked her incest, with the ensuing transformation to tree as a silencing punishment. It has been suggested that the taboo of incest marks the difference between culture and nature and that Ovid's version of Myrrha showed this. A translation of Ovid's Myrrha, done by English poet John Dryden in 1700, has been interpreted as a metaphor for British politics of the time, linking Myrrha to Mary II and Cinyras to James II.

In post-classical times, Myrrha has had widespread influence in Western culture. She was mentioned in the Divine Comedy by Dante, was an inspiration for Mirra by Vittorio Alfieri, and was alluded to in Mathilda by Mary Shelley. In the play Sardanapalus by Byron, a character named Myrrha appeared, whom critics interpreted as a symbol of Byron's dream of romantic love. The myth of Myrrha was one of 24 tales retold in Tales from Ovid by English poet Ted Hughes. In art, Myrrha's seduction of her father has been illustrated by German engraver Virgil Solis, her tree-metamorphosis by French engraver Bernard Picart and Italian painter Marcantonio Franceschini, while French engraver Gustave Doré chose to depict Myrrha in Hell as a part of his series of engravings for Dante's Divine Comedy . In music, she has appeared in pieces by Sousa and Ravel. She was also the inspiration for several species' scientific names and an asteroid.

We arrived at the 10th Bolgia for the true Falsifiers and we saw BEATRICE!

Beatrice was the fiancee and lover of Dante Alighieri. Although described by all as a "Pure" soul worthy of Heaven, after losing a bargain with Lucifer, she was forced to accompany him to Hell to become his bride. Her capture was the catalyst for Dante's journey through the Inferno and the redemption of his soul.

The Third Crusade

Beatrice was introduced in the game as Dante's betrothed who was waiting for him to return home from his services during the Crusades. Before Dante was summoned to join the Third Crusade, the two made love for the first time. Beatrice believed completely in Dante's faithfulness to their love in spite of not being married yet. As a token of this devotion, Beatrice gave him her cross to take with him on the Crusades. Dante swore on it to forsake "All of the pleasures of the flesh" until he returned to Beatrice. She also asked him to protect her brother named Francesco who joined Dante during the Crusades.

At an unspecified time, while Dante was away at Acre, Beatrice made a bargain with Lucifer. According to the deal, if Dante kept his promise to remain true to her during the Crusades, Lucifer would ensure that he would return home safely. However, if Dante broke his vow and slept with another woman, Beatrice would have to give her soul to Lucifer and become the Devil's bride.

Unfortunately for Beatrice, while assigned to guard the prisoners at Acre, Dante slept with a Slave Girl who offered him "Comfort" in exchange for her and her "Brother's" freedom though Dante expressed some remorse for betraying Beatrice. Nevertheless, this infidelity caused her to lose her bet with Lucifer. After committing several unspeakable acts in the misguided belief that the Crusaders are automatically absolved of all of their sins, Dante was killed at Acre by the Slave Girl's "Brother" who was her husband. This man that was named the Avenger headed to Dante's home in Florence to complete his vengeance. Unaware about his own death or the Avenger's intention, Dante's soul also began journeying to Florence to be reunited with his beloved by having no memory of his horrific crimes or his betrayal of Beatrice.

Death

Meanwhile, Dante's father named Alighiero who Beatrice was staying with while Dante was away came upon her crying over the fact that she had not heard from Dante in three years. Alighiero tried to persuade Beatrice into giving all of the hopes of Dante who was ever returning alive up in an attempt to seduce her. Realizing his intent, Beatrice recoiled from him, but at that moment, the Avenger broke into the villa. Dante's father and the man engaged in a sword fight, but Alighiero was overpowered by the Avenger and killed when his gold cross was stabbed through his eye socket. Beatrice tried to escape, but she was killed when the Avenger threw Alighiero's sword at her, impaling her through the chest. Following her outside, he withdrew the sword and delivered the killing blow, stabbing Beatrice in the abdomen.

Dante's Inferno Abduction

Beatrice died only minutes before Dante arrived home and he was devastated to see her lifeless body. Upon touching her, Beatrice's soul emerged from her corpse, smiling at Dante and insisting that she knew that he would come for her. However, within seconds, Lucifer arrived as a being of darkness and Beatrice was forced to go away with him in accordance with her bargain. Beatrice was taken to a church that was located on a hill that was overlooking Dante's villa. There was a statue of her, allowing Dante to save his progress. Entering the church, Dante found her soul writhing naked on the altar. She asked Dante why he broke his promise much to his confusion as he did not remember what he did. She disappeared again, leaving a crucifix-shaped patch of holy energy for Dante's Cross to absorb. This cross allowed him to battle the creatures that are found in Hell as well as to absolve the damned souls. The church crumbled, revealing a gateway to Hell beneath it which Dante descended after Beatrice.

The Nine Circles of Hell

When Beatrice arrived in Hell, she asked the soul of the virtuous Roman poet named Virgil to help Dante save her. In return for his service, Beatrice offered to praise Virgil before God once she was free from Hell. At the Gates of Hell, Virgil related this information to Dante in explanation for why the poet would be his guide in the Woeful Realm. More Beatrice Statues like the one outside the church are found around Hell as well as Beatrice Stones which empowered Dante's Cross and allowed him to automatically absolve the souls.

Dante entered the Gates of Hell, coming to the Shores of Acheron to begin the journey to find his fiancee. When confronted by Dante, the ferryman named Charon mentioned that Beatrice "Made a very foolish wager". In response, Dante offered his life and soul to reach her though the ferryman mocked him for this declaration and he was aware that Dante did not realize the irony of his words.

Within the second circle that was called Lust, when Dante entered the second floor of the Carnal Tower, Beatrice was seen perched silently on a bed in the center of the chamber. She was lifted up to the top of the Tower by the means of it's wind-powered elevator before Dante could reach her. While battling against the queen of Lust named Cleopatra, Dante found Beatrice once again who was in the company of Lucifer. The fallen angel told Beatrice that Dante was unfaithful to her during the Crusades. Shocked by Lucifer's words, Beatrice turned to Dante and commanded him to look into her eyes through which she saw the memory of Dante's affair with the Slave Girl. Upset by this revelation, she was pulled down onto the bed by Lucifer and disappeared with him.

In the Hall of the Gluttons, Lucifer came to taunt Dante about his failure to stay true to Beatrice. Dante tried to defend his actions by saying that his fiancee had no idea of what he was going through. Lucifer countered this argument by telling Dante that he actually showed Beatrice all of what Dante experienced during his time away. He proceeded to show the former Crusader the murders of Alighiero and Beatrice through the mirrors of the Hall. In horror, Dante realized that he was responsible for Beatrice's death and subsequent damnation. As Dante attempted to navigate the confusing corridors of the icy hall, Beatrice's sorrowful face was seen in the smoky surfaces of some of the portals that he used to escape into the next circle.

She was seen again in the Circle of Anger with Lucifer during Dante's battle with Phlegyas. Levitating above the swamps, Beatrice tearfully asked herself why Dante broke his promise as Lucifer began caressing her breasts. Having given all of her faith up in her lover, when Dante finally reaches her, Beatrice furiously exclaimed that when he had his "Way with that girl, [Dante] gave [Beatrice] to Lucifer!" Lucifer thanked Dante for doing so and as Dante watched, the Devil gave Beatrice a pomegranate which turned into three seeds. Though Dante begged her not to eat them, Beatrice turned her back on him, swallowing the seeds in one gulp. She immediately doubled over in pain as her body caught fire with Lucifer gloating over her final renunciation of Dante. Beatrice was transformed completely into a fiery and demonic entity: Lucifer's new consort and the Queen of Hell. Lucifer and Beatrice proceeded to kiss passionately as Lucifer looked pointedly at Dante. The pair left the warrior behind to continue his struggle.

As Dante entered the eighth circle, the malevolent Beatrice reappeared alone, sitting on a litter of bones carried by four demons. She expressed more of her rage toward Dante by calling him a fraud, saying that he belonged in the eighth circle. Beatrice summoned the demon that was called the Malacoda to kill him, refusing to listen to Dante's pleas. Upon the defeat of her underling, Beatrice forced Dante to traverse the ten ditches of Fraud. As the minions of Hell are unleashed all at once upon Dante, she watched his progress with contempt, describing the sinners of each bolgia and remarking how Dante belonged with some of them. Despite the odds, Dante successfully made it through the Malebolge and exited the circle.

Salvation

At the entrance to the Ninth Circle, Beatrice came again before Dante, berating him for what he did to her and Francesco, calling him the biggest fraud of all. Feeling defeated and understanding that he was to blame for what Beatrice became, Dante agreed with her, telling her that he belonged in Hell and he would no longer attempt to redeem her. He laid Beatrice's Cross down in resignation. Despite her corruption, she recognized the cross that she gave him. Lucifer's hold on her was weakened enough for the power of the cross to fully absolve Beatrice to Dante's surprise. Purified, her soul returned to it's human and radiant form as she collapsed. At that moment, a blinding light pierced Hell and the archangel named Gabriel descended. He took Beatrice's unconscious form up, confirming that her soul was saved by Dante's act. Gabriel promised Dante that he would see her again soon though he must complete his journey which was far more important than the warrior knew.

Dante moved on to Cocytus to battle Lucifer who stated directly that Beatrice was never his intended target. He made the bargain with her merely to be able to use her as "Bait" to lure Dante into Hell. Having tried and failed in the past to use the other warriors to break the Chains of Judecca, Lucifer saw the potential in Dante and felt that he would be the perfect pawn to aid in his escape. His theory was proven to be correct as Dante succeeded in freeing Lucifer from bondage in Hell, breaking each chain in his journey to reach Beatrice and redeem himself.

Beatrice was last seen at the end of Inferno in a vision and she was no longer under Lucifer's control. Immediately after Dante resealed Lucifer back into his icy prison, Dante and Beatrice appeared in a smoky and barren region. Smiling at one another, they grasped hands and a bright light flashed around them. Beatrice vanished while Dante was left to begin his next journey up Mount Purgatory.

But she was now a fiery spirit and she was overflowing with hatred towards Dante.

Me: Beatrice Portinari!

Francesco: Sister!

Beatrice: Hello brother.

Varie: I can save her.

Acid Storm: (to Beatrice) I'm gonna melt you with acid so hard that all that's gonna be left will be your skeleton!

Nico: Acid Storm stand down! Let Varie talk with her.

Varie went up to her.

Varie: Beatrice listen to me! Is this what your brother would have wanted? Is this what Dante would have wanted? To become a monster made by God's most evil enemy? That has plagued the world for eons and caused us to do things we don't want to do and has poisoned our minds with evil and sin?

Francesco: She's right sister. Look what Lucifer has done to you. Look what he did to me, Alighiero and many of our friends and family and many of us over the years.

Varie: Dante fought in the Crusades yes and he did so to protect you. What that man did to you when he killed Alighiero and you was unforgivable and he did it ALL out of vengeance. I will not let him get away with that. Please Beatrice. I can bring you back and I can restore you to what you were like before all this ever happened.

Beatrice: There is nothing left for me in all of God's creation.

Varie: That's a lie! Lucifer has fed you nothing but lies! He poisoned your mind with lies and evil.

Dante Alighieri: She's right Beatrice.

He showed Beatrice her cross that was given to him from her.

Beatrice: My cross.

Dante: I brought it back to you. Accept again the love of God.

She was enveloped in a flash of light and all of Lucifer's evil was destroyed and she was purified.

Beatrice: Dante.

Varie: Beatrice, this was something that was not supposed to happen to you. (Snaps Fingers)

Varie resurrected Beatrice.

Beatrice was brought back and she looked at Varie and went over and hugged her and she was crying.

Varie: It's all right Beatrice. It's all right.

Nico: Awesome.

Then Batroc then appeared.

Me: Captain America you're up.

He and his group went next.

Batroc: (to Captain America) Who did J.D. rescue this time?

Captain America: Her name is Actia and she's a Mothman. Or mothgirl in this case.

Starlight Glimmer: She's really amazing and she likes to fly around everything.

Cozy Glow: I wonder how she would look at night.

Trixie: That would be a most interesting sight to see.

Clover: Boy it sure would.

Cynder: I think it would look amazing.

Tae Kwon Crow: It sure would.

Naruto: I think so too.

Sakura H.: Same here.

Ino: You said it.

Batroc: You got that right. Lets get it on!

Batroc jumped at them and the group blasted him all over with energy and magic and bones and smashed him down.

Captain America: Great job guys!

Starlight Glimmer: That was awesome!

We went to the edge of a cliff and we saw the last circle.

TREACHERY - THE 9TH CIRCLE OF HELL

We were crossing the icy cavernous wasteland of the 9th Circle of Hell, Treachery.

Me: This is it guys. The 9th Circle of Hell, Treachery. Home to the worst of the worst.

Applejack: Man is it cold.

Twilight Sparkle: I was expecting it to be fire.

Fluttershy: Why is it so cold?

Me: This whole level was made by Lucifer's tears after he was cast out of Heaven and imprisoned here.

Nico: Yep.

Brittney: This is a dark and terrible place.

Me: This circle is also divided into 4 parts.

---

Round 1: Caina. Named after the Biblical Cain, the first murderer, who killed his younger brother Abel in a jealous rage, and attempted to conceal his crime from God. Here, those who betrayed their families are imprisoned. Those that are condemned here are frozen up to their necks in ice. They can be able to bend their necks, which provides them some protection against the cold winds. Mordred is among the Damned here.

Round 2: Antenora . Named after the Trojan General Antenor, who betrayed his homeland to the Greek army despite the Trojans' willingness to ransom him when Antenor was captured. Here, those who betrayed their countries are imprisoned. The ice here reaches the base of the traitors' skulls, leaving them unable to bend their necks. Dante encounters Count Ugolino here, gnawing on the skull of the man who condemned him to die from starvation.

Round 3: Ptolomaea . Named after Ptolemy, son of Abubus. Despite being married to a daughter of the Biblical Simon Maccabaeus, Ptolemy invited his father-in-law and two of his brothers-in-law to a banquet and murdered them. Here, those who betrayed their guests are imprisoned, along with those who mistreated people who were sheltered in their homes. In many cultures, such an action was considered an abomination and subject to divine retribution. Those that are condemned here lay supine in the ice, which covers everything except for their faces. When they cry, the tears freeze and seal up their eyes; even the comfort of tears is denied to them. At this ring, Dante meets Fra Alberigo, who asks him to wipe off his icy tears but in vain.

Round 4: Judecca . Named after Judas Iscariot, a former Apostle who betrayed Jesus Christ; he is considered the greatest traitor of all in the Christian world. According to the Gospel of St. Matthew, once Judas realized what he had done, he hung himself (the Acts of the Apostles instead states that he died when his abdomen burst open while plowing a field). Here, those who betrayed their lords, masters and benefactors are imprisoned. All of the sinners who are punished within are completely encased in ice, and distorted in all conceivable positions. Due to having no one to talk to here, Dante and Virgil moved on to the center of the ninth circle of Hell.

At the center of the ninth Circle of Hell, Satan is depicted as a giant and terrifying beast with six wings and three faces (one red, one black and one a pale yellow), an inversion of the Holy Trinity. Satan is frozen waist-deep in ice. His right and left heads gnaw on Cassius and Brutus (the Roman senators who betrayed and murdered Julius Caesar), feet first in those mouths. In the central, most vicious mouth is Judas Iscariot. Judas is being administered the most horrifying torture of the three traitors: His head was gnawed by Satan's mouth and his back is forever being skinned by Satan's claws.

Rarity: My goodness.

Me: Yeah. It's the worst ever place in all of creation.

Control Freak and Nojoke then came out.

Me: Nicole you're up and Nojoke you're back for round 3? Wow!

Nojoke: I know. Cool huh.

Laney: Literally.

Actia: I'll say.

Nojoke: (to the Megaforce Rangers) I know I've had the most appearences out of my fellow Warstar buddies so far. But I figured out who can be my archenemy.

Troy Burrows: Who is that?

Nojoke: I chose PallaPalla.

PallaPalla: Me? AWESOME! This is gonna be so much fun!

Lola: Yeah!

Me: Yep.

A bat screech was heard and we saw a Man Bat Creature! It was THE VAMPIRE BAT CREATURE!

Shaggy: ZOINKS! It's the Vampire Bat Creature!

Qin: This one we hardly know much about. But I do know that it was an old man that stole a beautiful necklace worth thousands.

Laney: That's the necklace that I'm wearing?

Qin: Yep the very same one.

Actia: I'll face him.

Me: Go for it guys.

The groups got ready.

Control Freak was next.

Control Freak: You guys sure went on a scary adventure.

Nicole: You are not kidding on that.

Control Freak: And here's my next boss for this battle.

He summoned BOSS DUMB DRUM! He looked like a big oil drum with a skull and crossbones on it.

Nicole: Boss Dumb Drum from Donkey Kong Country. Good choice.

Control Freak: Thanks and it's amazing that there is an organization that goes after Glitches like that.

Rainbow Dash: It sure is. I think it's really awesome.

Scootaloo: It sure is. But having to fight it down here in this horrible place is gonna be awesome.

Magma Gloom: No kidding and we had to save and redeem a bunch of people as a result.

Flash Magnus: We sure did and it was one harrowing adventure for us.

Whirlwind: No kidding. But it was awesome.

Fox McCloud: Boy it sure was.

Krystal: (British Accent) Yes it was.

Control Freak: You got that right. Lets do it!

The Boss Dumb Drum dropped 2 Kremlings and the group blasted the drum and smashed Control Freak down and the drum was gone.

Nicole: ALL RIGHT! Goddess of Video Games wins again.

Rainbow Dash: That was AWESOME!

Nojoke's battle was next.

Troy Burrows: This is gonna be so fun.

Isaribi: It sure is.

Nico: First lets crack those safes. Lisa, Lily you're with me.

They teleported and cracked Nojoke's safes and in them were 3 Treasures! One was a blue sword with the symbol of Neptune on it and the other two were a bow of fire and a crystal sword.

Nojoke: The blue sword is called Neptunescalibur and it has the powers of Neptune and all of the water. The bow is called the Fire Bow of Xiuhtecuhtli and the crystal sword is called The Crystal Sword of Tlaltecuhtli.

The Fire Bow of Xiuhtecuhtli, The Aztec God of Fire. It's a powerful 6'0" longbow with fiery angel wings, and a red quiver with unlimited fire arrows, and the wielder will have their fire powers enhanced 100-fold, The Crystal Sword of Tlaltecuhtli, The Aztec God or Goddess of Earth. The Crystal Sword of Tlaltecuhtli is a 6'0" massive double-edged sword, the large, double-edge blade is emerald green with Aztec glyphs, amethyst purple angel wings for the crossguard, and a large sapphire blue crystal globe for the pommel, and the wielder will get his crystal powers enhanced 100-fold.

Nico: I know who these will be perfect for.

Nico, Lisa and Lily teleported back and Lily gave the Neptunescalibur sword to Isaribi.

Isaribi then had a blue sun with the symbol of Neptune appear in the middle of it.

Troy Burrows: Lets do it!

Megaforce Rangers: IT'S MORPHIN TIME! GO GO MEGAFORCE!

They transformed.

Troy: "Fury of the Dragon! Megaforce Red!"

Emma: "Flames of the Phoenix! Megaforce Pink!"

Jake: "Venom of the Snake! Megaforce Black!"

Gia: "Claw of the Tiger! Megaforce Yellow!"

Noah: "Bite of the Shark! Megaforce Blue!"

All: "Earth's Defenders, Never Surrender! Power Rangers… Megaforce!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off behind them and the Megaforce Symbol appeared in the explosion.

Sailor Pallas: Time for my battle first.

Nico: Go for it Palla.

Sailor Pallas flew at Nojoke and blasted him all over with water blasts and smashed him down and then she kicked him in the back and smashed him down.

Sailor Pallas: ALL RIGHT!

Nico: Lets get him!

Megaforce Rangers: MEGAFORCE BLASTER!

Emma and Troy: SKY POWER! ENERGIZE!

They put the Air Power Cards on the blaster.

Gia and Jake: LAND POWER! ENERGIZE!

They put the Land Power Cards on the blaster.

Noah: SEA POWER! ENERGIZE!

Noah put the sea power card on the blaster!

Nico: Lets get him!

Nojoke: UH OH!

Nico: FIRE!

Megaforce Rangers: DYNAMIC VICTORY CHARGE!

They fired energy blasts and the blasts all hit Nojoke and he went into the air and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Nico: YEAH! Nojoke you have failed this world 3 times! Wow! That's the first time I've said that.

Lola: It sure was.

Troy Burrows: Mega Rangers, That's a Mega Win!

Next was the Vampire Bat Creature.

Actia: Time for a moth to become the hunter and you become the prey.

The Vampire Bat Creature screeched and she went at him and kicked him down and smashed him down.

We had the usual battles down and Nico gave the bow and sword to Bobby and Ronnie Anne.

Me: That was fun. Lets get to the center pit.

We walked on and we saw three famous figures from history in the 9th Circle: Fra Alberigo, Mordred and Count Ugolino.

---

Fra Alberigo

Friar Alberigo (died c. 1307) was a 13th-century Italian from Faenza. His family, the Guelph Manfredi family, were banished in 1274 from Faenza by their rivals, the Accarisis. The Manfredis returned in 1280, with the aid of a traitor, the Ghibelline Tebaldello del Zambrasi.

Later in his life Alberigo is said to have joined the Jovial Friars.

Alberigo appears in the Divine Comedy poem Inferno of Dante Alighieri, where he resides in the third ring of the ninth circle, the location of traitors to their guests. This is because of an episode where Alberigo had his brother and nephew killed during a banquet at his home. Alberigo's orders to bring fruit was the signal for the murder. Dante portrays him as regretting this crime, stating in Canto XXXIII that he is repaid in Hell in dates for the figs he called for at the banquet (dates being much more expensive than figs).

Mordred

Mordred or Modred is a figure who is variously portrayed in the British tradition. The earliest known mention of a possibly historical Medraut is in the Welsh chronicle Annales Cambriae, wherein he and Arthur are ambiguously associated with the Battle of Camlann in a brief entry for the year 537. His figure seemed to have been regarded positively in the early Welsh tradition and may have been related to that of Arthur's son.

As Modredus, Mordred was depicted as Arthur's traitorous nephew and a legitimate son of King Lot in Geoffrey of Monmouth's pseudo-historical work Historia Regum Britanniae which then served as the basis for the following evolution of the legend since the 12th century. Later variants most often characterised him as Arthur's villainous bastard son, born of an incestuous relationship with his half-sister, the Queen of Orkney named either Anna, Orcades, or Morgause. The accounts presented in the Historia and most other versions include Mordred's death at Camlann, typically in a final duel, during which he manages to mortally wound his slayer, Arthur.

Mordred is usually a brother or half-brother to Gawain; however, his other family relations, as well as his relationships with Arthur's wife Guinevere, vary greatly. In a popular telling originating from the French chivalric romances of the 13th century, and made prominent today through its inclusion in Le Morte d'Arthur, Mordred is knighted by Arthur and joins the fellowship of the Round Table. In this narrative, he eventually becomes the main actor in Arthur's downfall as he helps his half-brother Agravain to expose Guinevere and Lancelot's affair and then takes advantage of the resulting civil war to make himself the high king of Britain.

Count Ugolino

Ugolino della Gherardesca (c. 1220 - March 1289), Count of Donoratico, was an Italian nobleman, politician and naval commander. He was frequently accused of treason and features prominently in Dante's Divine Comedy .

---

We also saw the frozen giants of legend: Nimrod - Builder of the Tower of Babel, Ephialtes of Trachis who betrayed the Greeks to the Persians, and Antaeus the Invincible Son of Mother Earth.

---

Nimrod

Nimrod, a biblical figure according to the Book of Genesis and Books of Chronicles. The son of Cush, Nimrod was also described as a king in the land of Shinar (Mesopotamia). The Bible states that he was "a mighty hunter before the Lord [and]… began to be mighty in the earth". Extra-biblical traditions associating him with the Tower of Babel led to his reputation as a king who was rebellious against God.

Historians have failed to match Nimrod with historically attested figures. Nimrod may not represent any one personage known to history, and various authors have identified him with several real and fictional figures of Mesopotamian antiquity, including the Mesopotamian god Ninurta or a conflation of two Akkadian kings, Sargon of Akkad and his grandson Naram-Sin (2254-2218 BCE), and the Assyrian Tukulti-Ninurta I (1243-1207 BCE).

Several ruins of the Near East are named after him.

Ephialtes of Trachis

Ephialtes was the son of Eurydemus of Malis. He betrayed his homeland, in hope of receiving some kind of reward from the Persians, by showing the army of Xerxes a path around the allied Greek position at the pass of Thermopylae, which helped them win the Battle of Thermopylae in 480 BC.

Antaeus

Antaeus, known to the Berbers as Anti, was a figure in Berber and Greek mythology. He was famed for his defeat by Heracles as part of the Labours of Hercules.

---

We then got to the center pit of Judecca and we saw an ugly figure and it was LUCIFER HIMSELF!

---

Lucifer is the fallen Angel that rules over Hell and the main antagonist of the videogame Dante's Inferno . He was voiced by John Vickery in the game, and Steve Blum in the film.

Banishment to the Inferno

Lucifer was once God's most favored Angel, the "Morning Star, the brightest in the sky" as he called himself, and lived in Heaven, having no superior other than the Lord himself. But his great beauty and power sowed a belief that he was a perfect being and he became enraged when God's favorite creation became man. Lucifer gathered an army and attempted to take control of Heaven, but was defeated and lost God's favor. As punishment, he and his minions were cast into Hell, where Lucifer seized control, becoming ruler of the damned.

Taking Beatrice

While Dante Alighieri was fighting in the Crusades, Lucifer and Danet's fiance Beatrice Portinari made a bet. If Dante kept his vow not to sleep with any woman while he was gone, Beatrice would see his safe return from the war. If not, her Soul would belong to Lucifer.

The lord of the damned won the bet and when Beatrice was killed, he took her Soul to Hell with him. Dante chased after them, determined to save Beatrice from the Inferno while Lucifer constantly taunted him and forced him to undergo flashbacks of his sins to try and break his Spirit. As Dante traveled through the Circle of Anger, he was forced to watch as Lucifer had Beatrice undergo the final ritual to become his bride.

Final Battle with Dante

After freeing Beatrice from Hell, Dante descended into the Circle of Treachery where he encountered Lucifer in a giant three-faced form trapped in a lake of ice formed from his own frozen tears named Cocytus. Dante succeeded in greatly injuring the Demon, but he only split his stomach open to let out his true form, a corrupted version of his old self with torn wings, large horns, and goat legs.

Lucifer revealed that Beatrice had never been the one he sought to use to free himself from Hell, she had simply been bait to draw in Dante. Others had tried to free him before, including Alexander the Great, Attila the Hun, and Lancelot, but they had not been impure enough to get through his outer body. However Dante had been perfect for the job since he had the strength to fight his way through Hell and a soul black enough to free Lucifer. The lord of the damned then began battling Dante on Cocytus, but the demon was overpowered by him. However Lucifer revealed that despite the crusader's defeat of Death, he was still dead and could not leave Hell because of his sins. But Dante called on the souls that he had absolved on his journey and asked that they do the same for him. Seeing the power of the souls, Lucifer realized the unimaginable power and tried to tempt Dante to join him to overthrow God and Heaven together. However, Dante refused and let the Souls poured forth and drove Lucifer back into his imprisoning body, then bound his arms in ice. They then gave Dante passage to Purgatory, but when he arrived there, he tore off the tapestry on his chest, which formed into a snake and Lucifer's laugh was heard, implying that he did manage to escape from the Inferno.

Lucifer: (Chuckles) Thank you Dante and J.D. I am very impressed. Many have tried and many have failed me. Ulysses, Alexander, Attila, Lancelot, truly you two are the greatest of all my minions.

Me: Sorry to disappoint you but we don't serve you.

Dante Alighieri: That's right! We are not your minions! Speak without your forked tongue Serpent!

Lucifer: Do you not. You freed me from my eternal torment.

Me: Exactly as I wanted.

Dante Alighieri: I came only for Beatrice!

Lucifer: Beatrice? She was only bait. It was you I wanted all along. Don't you see, I was bound by God in this frozen pit. Only my shadow self was allowed to roamed free. It took a mortal to release me. You, Dante.

Dante Alighieri: NO! It isn't true! I defeated you before!

Me: You have torment our planet for far too long Lucifer. And now…

I transformed into my Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix-Harmony 500,000,000,000 form and I was ready for action!

Lucifer: Destroy an Angel of God? You arrogant gnat! Such vanity and such pride. I could have slain you at the moment that you fell into Hell!

Lucifer formed a whip and I slashed it and destroyed it and then I teleported and kicked him in the face and fired powerful energy waves and they hit him all over with massive fiery explosions!

Eli: Lets do it! EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: TYRANNOSAURUS

REX!

Eli fired a wave of earth by punching the ground and it formed into the meanest dinosaur that ever lived from 68 million years ago: Tyrannosaurus Rex!

---

Tyrannosaurus is a genus of coelurosaurian theropod dinosaur. The species Tyrannosaurus rex, often called T. rex or colloquially T-Rex, is one of the most well-represented of the large theropods. Tyrannosaurus lived throughout what is now western North America, on what was then an island continent known as Laramidia. Tyrannosaurus had a much wider range than other tyrannosaurids. Fossils are found in a variety of rock formations dating to the Maastrichtian age of the upper Cretaceous period, 68 to 66 million years ago. It was the last known member of the tyrannosaurids, and among the last non-avian dinosaurs to exist before the Cretaceous-Paleogene extinction event.

Like other tyrannosaurids, Tyrannosaurus was a bipedal carnivore with a massive skull balanced by a long, heavy tail. Relative to its large and powerful hind limbs, Tyrannosaurus forelimbs were short but unusually powerful for their size and had two clawed digits. The most complete specimen measures up to 12.3 meters (40 feet) in length though T. rex could grow to lengths of over 12.3 m (40 ft), up to 3.66 m (12 ft) tall at the hips, and according to most modern estimates 8.4 metric tons (9.3 short tons) to 14 metric tons (15.4 short tons) in weight. Although other theropods rivaled or exceeded Tyrannosaurus rex in size, it is still among the largest known land predators and is estimated to have exerted the strongest bite force among all terrestrial animals. By far the largest carnivore in its environment, Tyrannosaurus rex was most likely an apex predator, preying upon hadrosaurs, armored herbivores like ceratopsians and ankylosaurs, and possibly sauropods. Some experts have suggested the dinosaur was primarily a scavenger. The question of whether Tyrannosaurus was an apex predator or a pure scavenger was among the longest debates in paleontology. Most paleontologists today accept that Tyrannosaurus was both an active predator and a scavenger.

Hunter: (German Accent) INFERNO STYLE NINJA ART: SPINOSAURUS!

Hunter fired a wave of black fire and it formed into the largest and meanest carnivorous dinosaur that ever lived from 112 million years ago in Egypt: Spinosaurus!

Spinosaurus (meaning "spine lizard") is a genus of spinosaurid dinosaur that lived in what now is North Africa during the upper Albian to upper Turonian stages of the Cretaceous period, about 112 to 93.5 million years ago. This genus was known first from Egyptian remains discovered in 1912 and described by German paleontologist Ernst Stromer in 1915. The original remains were destroyed in World War II, but additional material has come to light in the early 21st century. It is unclear whether one or two species are represented in the fossils reported in the scientific literature. The best known species is S. aegyptiacus from Egypt, although a potential second species, S. maroccanus, has been recovered from Morocco. The contemporary spinosaurid genus Sigilmassasaurus has also been synonymized by some authors with S. aegyptiacus, though other researchers propose it to be a distinct taxon. Another possible junior synonym is Oxalaia from the Alcântara Formation in Brazil.

Spinosaurus was among the largest of all known carnivorous dinosaurs, nearly as large as or even larger than other theropods such as Tyrannosaurus, Giganotosaurus and Carcharodontosaurus. Estimates published in 2005, 2007, and 2008 suggested that it was between 12.6 to 18 meters (41 to 59 ft) in length and 7 to 20.9 metric tons (7.7 to 23.0 short tons) in weight. New estimates published in 2014 and 2018, based on a more complete specimen, supported the earlier research, finding that Spinosaurus could reach lengths of 15 to 16 meters (49 to 52 ft). The latest estimates suggest a weight of 6.4 to 7.5 metric tons (7.1 to 8.3 short tons). The skull of Spinosaurus was long, low and narrow, similar to that of a modern crocodilian, and bore straight conical teeth with no serrations. It would have had large, robust forelimbs bearing three-fingered hands, with an enlarged claw on the first digit. The distinctive neural spines of Spinosaurus, which were long extensions of the vertebrae (or backbones), grew to at least 1.65 meters (5.4 ft) long and were likely to have had skin connecting them, forming a sail-like structure, although some authors[who?] have suggested that the spines were covered in fat and formed a hump. Spinosaurus's hip bones were reduced, and the legs were very short in proportion to the body. Its long and narrow tail was deepened by tall, thin neural spines and elongated chevrons, forming a flexible fin or paddle-like structure.

Axel Adell: (Swedish Accent) ICE STYLE NINJA ART: WOOLLY MAMMOTH!

Axel fired a wave of ice and it formed into the famous and widely known ancestral elephants from 800,000 years ago: The Woolly Mammoth.

The woolly mammoth (Mammuthus primigenius) is an extinct species of mammoth that lived during the Pleistocene until its extinction in the Holocene epoch. It was one of the last in a line of mammoth species, beginning with Mammuthus subplanifrons in the early Pliocene. The woolly mammoth began to diverge from the steppe mammoth about 800,000 years ago in East Asia. Its closest extant relative is the Asian elephant. The appearance and behaviour of this species are among the best studied of any prehistoric animal because of the discovery of frozen carcasses in Siberia and Alaska, as well as skeletons, teeth, stomach contents, dung, and depiction from life in prehistoric cave paintings. Mammoth remains had long been known in Asia before they became known to Europeans in the 17th century. The origin of these remains was long a matter of debate, and often explained as being remains of legendary creatures. The mammoth was identified as an extinct species of elephant by Georges Cuvier in 1796.

The woolly mammoth was roughly the same size as modern African elephants. Males reached shoulder heights between 2.7 and 3.4 m (8.9 and 11.2 ft) and weighed up to 6 metric tons (6.6 short tons). Females reached 2.6-2.9 m (8.5-9.5 ft) in shoulder heights and weighed up to 4 metric tons (4.4 short tons). A newborn calf weighed about 90 kg (200 lb). The woolly mammoth was well adapted to the cold environment during the last ice age. It was covered in fur, with an outer covering of long guard hairs and a shorter undercoat. The colour of the coat varied from dark to light. The ears and tail were short to minimise frostbite and heat loss. It had long, curved tusks and four molars, which were replaced six times during the lifetime of an individual. Its behaviour was similar to that of modern elephants, and it used its tusks and trunk for manipulating objects, fighting, and foraging. The diet of the woolly mammoth was mainly grasses and sedges. Individuals could probably reach the age of 60. Its habitat was the mammoth steppe, which stretched across northern Eurasia and North America.

The woolly mammoth coexisted with early humans, who used its bones and tusks for making art, tools, and dwellings, and the species was also hunted for food. It disappeared from its mainland range at the end of the Pleistocene 10,000 years ago. Isolated populations survived on St. Paul Island until 5,600 years ago and on Wrangel Island until 4,000 years ago. After its extinction, humans continued using its ivory as a raw material, a tradition that continues today. With a genome project for the mammoth completed in 2015, it has been proposed the species could be revived through various means, but none of the methods proposed are yet feasible.

Dana: ICE STYLE NINJA ART: SABER-TOOTH CAT!

Dana fired a wave of ice and it formed into the ancestral cats of 42 million years ago: The Saber-Toothed Cats!

---

A saber-toothed cat (alternatively spelled sabre-toothed cat) is any member of various extinct groups of predatory mammals that are characterized by long, curved saber-shaped canine teeth which protruded from the mouth even when closed. The saber-toothed cats have been found almost worldwide from the Eocene epoch to the end of the Pleistocene epoch 42 million years ago (mya) - 11,000 years ago (kya). The first saber-toothed cat fossil in Canada was found in Medicine Hat, Alberta.

One of the best-known genera is Smilodon, species of which, especially S. fatalis, are popularly, but incorrectly, referred to as "saber-toothed tigers". However, usage of the word cat is in some cases a misnomer, as many species referred to as saber-toothed "cats" are not closely related to modern cats (Felidae). Instead, many are members are classified into different families of Feliformia, such as Barbourofelidae and Nimravidae; the oxyaenid "creodont" genera Machaeroides and Apataelurus; and two extinct lineages of metatherian mammals, the thylacosmilids of Sparassodonta, and deltatheroideans, which are more closely related to marsupials. In this regard, saber-toothed cats can be viewed as examples of convergent evolution. This convergence is remarkable due not only to the development of elongated canines, but also a suite of other characteristics, such as a wide gape and bulky forelimbs, which is so consistent that it has been termed the "saber-tooth suite."

Of the feliform lineages, the family Nimravidae is the oldest, entering the landscape around 42 mya and becoming extinct by 7.2 mya. Barbourofelidae entered around 16.9 mya and were extinct by 9 mya. These two would have shared some habitats.

Lana: ICE STYLE NINJA ART: WOOLLY RHINOCEROS!

Lana fired a wave of ice and it formed into the Ice Age ancestors of modern day Rhinoceroses from 3.6 Million years ago: The Woolly Rhinoceros!

---

The woolly rhinoceros (Coelodonta antiquitatis) is an extinct species of rhinoceros that was common throughout Europe and northern Asia during the Pleistocene epoch and survived until the end of the last glacial period. The woolly rhinoceros was a member of the Pleistocene megafauna.

The woolly rhinoceros was covered with thick and long hair, which allowed it to survive in the extremely cold, harsh mammoth steppe. It also had a massive hump reaching from its shoulder. It fed mainly on herbaceous plants that grew in the steppe.

Mummified carcasses preserved in permafrost and many bone remains of woolly rhinoceroses have been found. Images of woolly rhinoceroses are found among cave paintings in Europe and Asia.

Killer Frost: ICE STYLE NINJA ART: IRISH ELK!

Killer Frost fired a wave of ice and it formed into the largest deer ever known that lived 2.5 million years ago: The Irish Elk.

---

The Irish elk (Megaloceros giganteus) also called the giant deer or Irish deer, is an extinct species of deer in the genus Megaloceros and is one of the largest deer that ever lived. Its range extended across Eurasia during the Pleistocene, from Ireland to Lake Baikal in Siberia. The most recent remains of the species have been carbon dated to about 7,700 years ago in Siberia.

Although abundant skeletal remains have been found in bogs in Ireland, the animal was not exclusive to Ireland nor closely related to either of the living species currently called elk: Alces alces (the European elk, known in North America as the moose) or Cervus canadensis (the North American elk or wapiti). For this reason, the name "giant deer" is used in some publications, instead of "Irish elk". Although one study suggested that the Irish elk was closely related to the red deer (Cervus elaphus), most other phylogenetic analyses support that their closest living relatives are fallow deer (Dama dama).

Maggie fired a wave of ice and it formed into the Ice Age bear from 1.8 million years ago: The Short-Faced Bear.

---

The short-faced bear (Arctodus sp.) is an extinct bear genus that inhabited North America during the Pleistocene epoch from about 1.8 Mya until 11,000 years ago. It was the most common early North American bear and was most abundant in California. There are two recognized species: the lesser short-faced bear (Arctodus pristinus) and the giant short-faced bear (Arctodus simus), with the latter considered to be one of the largest known terrestrial mammalian carnivores that has ever existed. It has been hypothesized that their extinction coincides with the Younger Dryas period of global cooling commencing around 10,900 BC.

Khalyaka: (India Accent) EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: TARBOSAURUS BABAAR!

Khalyaka fired a wave of earth and it formed into the terrible theropod of 70 million years ago: Tarbosaurus!

---

Tarbosaurus (meaning "alarming lizard") is a genus of tyrannosaurid theropod dinosaur that flourished in Asia about 70 million years ago, at the end of the Late Cretaceous Period, considered to contain a single known species, Tarbosaurus bataar. Fossils have been recovered in Mongolia, with more fragmentary remains found further afield in parts of China.

Although many species have been named, modern paleontologists recognize only one, T. bataar, as valid. Some experts see this species as an Asian representative of the North American genus Tyrannosaurus; this would make the genus Tarbosaurus redundant. Tarbosaurus and Tyrannosaurus, if not synonymous, are considered to be at least closely related genera. Alioramus, also from Mongolia, has previously been thought by some authorities to be the closest relative of Tarbosaurus, though this has since been disproven with the discovery of Qianzhousaurus and the description of the Alioramini.

Like most known tyrannosaurids, Tarbosaurus was a large bipedal predator, weighing up to 5 metric tons (5.5 short tons) and equipped with about sixty large teeth. It had a unique locking mechanism in its lower jaw and the smallest forelimbs relative to body size of all tyrannosaurids, renowned for their disproportionately tiny, two-fingered forelimbs.

Tarbosaurus lived in a humid floodplain criss-crossed by river channels. In this environment, it was an apex predator, probably preying on other large dinosaurs like the hadrosaur Saurolophus or the sauropod Nemegtosaurus. Tarbosaurus is represented by dozens of fossil specimens, including several complete skulls and skeletons. These remains have allowed scientific studies focusing on its phylogeny, skull mechanics, and brain structure.

Lynn: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: APATOSAURUS!

Lynn fired a wave of Earth and it formed into the famous sauropod from 158 million years ago: Apatosaurus!

---

Apatosaurus is a genus of herbivorous sauropod dinosaur that lived in North America during the Late Jurassic period. Othniel Charles Marsh described and named the first-known species, A. ajax, in 1877, and a second species, A. louisae, was discovered and named by William H. Holland in 1916. Apatosaurus lived about 152 to 151 million years ago (mya), during the late Kimmeridgian to early Tithonian age, and are now known from fossils in the Morrison Formation of modern-day Colorado, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Wyoming, and Utah in the United States. Apatosaurus had an average length of 21-22.8 m (69-75 ft), and an average mass of 16.4-22.4 t (16.1-22.0 long tons; 18.1-24.7 short tons). A few specimens indicate a maximum length of 11-30% greater than average and a mass of 32.7-72.6 t (32.2-71.5 long tons; 36.0-80.0 short tons).

The cervical vertebrae of Apatosaurus are less elongated and more heavily constructed than those of Diplodocus, a diplodocid like Apatosaurus, and the bones of the leg are much stockier despite being longer, implying that Apatosaurus was a more robust animal.

The tail was held above the ground during normal locomotion. Apatosaurus had a single claw on each forelimb and three on each hindlimb. The Apatosaurus skull, long thought to be similar to Camarasaurus, is much more similar to that of Diplodocus. Apatosaurus was a generalized browser that likely held its head elevated. To lighten its vertebrae, Apatosaurus had air sacs that made the bones internally full of holes. Like that of other diplodocids, its tail may have been used as a whip to create loud noises.

The skull of Apatosaurus was confused with that of Camarasaurus and Brachiosaurus until 1909, when the holotype of A. louisae was found, and a complete skull just a few meters away from the front of the neck. Henry Fairfield Osborn disagreed with this association, and went on to mount a skeleton of Apatosaurus with a Camarasaurus skull cast. Apatosaurus skeletons were mounted with speculative skull casts until 1970, when McIntosh showed that more robust skulls assigned to Diplodocus were more likely from Apatosaurus.

Apatosaurus is a genus in the family Diplodocidae. It is one of the more basal genera, with only Amphicoelias and possibly a new, unnamed genus more primitive. While the subfamily Apatosaurinae was named in 1929, the group was not used validly until an extensive 2015 study. Only Brontosaurus is also in the subfamily, with the other genera being considered synonyms or reclassified as diplodocines. Brontosaurus has long been considered a junior synonym of Apatosaurus; its type species was reclassified as A. excelsus in 1903. A 2015 study concluded that Brontosaurus is a valid genus of sauropod distinct from Apatosaurus, but not all paleontologists agree with this division. As it existed in North America during the late Jurassic, Apatosaurus would have lived alongside dinosaurs such as Allosaurus, Camarasaurus, Diplodocus, and Stegosaurus.

Laney: FOREST STYLE NINJA ART: DIPLODOCUS!

Laney fired a wave of trees and leaves and it formed into the famous sauropod from 154 million years ago: Diplodocus!

Diplodocus is a genus of diplodocid sauropod dinosaurs whose fossils were first discovered in 1877 by S. W. Williston. The generic name, coined by Othniel Charles Marsh in 1878, is a neo-Latin term derived from Greek διπλός (diplos) "double" and δοκός (dokos) "beam", in reference to the double-beamed chevron bones located in the underside of the tail, which were then considered unique.

This genus of dinosaurs lived in what is now mid-western North America at the end of the Jurassic period. It is one of the more common dinosaur fossils found in the middle to upper Morrison Formation, between about 154 and 152 million years ago, during the late Kimmeridgian age. The Morrison Formation records an environment and time dominated by gigantic sauropod dinosaurs, such as Apatosaurus, Barosaurus, Brachiosaurus, Brontosaurus, and Camarasaurus. Its great size may have been a deterrent to the predators Allosaurus and Ceratosaurus: their remains have been found in the same strata, which suggests that they coexisted with Diplodocus.

Diplodocus is among the most easily identifiable dinosaurs, with its typical sauropod shape, long neck and tail, and four sturdy legs. For many years, it was the longest dinosaur known.

May: ICE STYLE NINJA ART: LEAELLYNASAURA!

May fired a wave of ice and it formed into the Australian dinosaur from 118 million years ago: Leaellynasaura!

---

Leaellynasaura is a genus of small herbivorous ornithischian dinosaurs from the Albian stage of the Early Cretaceous (dated to between 118 and 110 million years ago), first discovered in Dinosaur Cove, Australia. The only known species is Leaellynasaura amicagraphica. It was described in 1989, and named after Leaellyn Rich, the daughter of the Australian palaeontologist couple Tom Rich and Patricia Vickers-Rich who discovered it. The specific name, amicagraphica, translates to "friend writing" and honours both the Friends of the Museum of Victoria and the National Geographic Society for their support of Australian paleontology.

Lori: WIND STYLE NINJA ART: ALLOSAURUS!

Lori fired a wave of wind and it formed into the vicious theropod from 155 million years ago: Allosaurus!

---

Allosaurus is a genus of carnivorous theropod dinosaur that lived 155 to 145 million years ago during the late Jurassic period (Kimmeridgian to late Tithonian). The name "Allosaurus" means "different lizard" alluding to its unique concave vertebrae (at the time of its discovery). It is derived from the Greek ἄλλος (allos) ("different, other") and σαῦρος (sauros) ("lizard / generic reptile"). The first fossil remains that could definitively be ascribed to this genus were described in 1877 by paleontologist Othniel Charles Marsh. As one of the first well-known theropod dinosaurs, it has long attracted attention outside of paleontological circles.

Allosaurus was a large bipedal predator. Its skull was large and equipped with dozens of sharp, serrated teeth. It averaged 9.5 meters (31 ft) in length, though fragmentary remains suggest it could have reached over 12 m (39 ft). Relative to the large and powerful hindlimbs, its three-fingered forelimbs were small, and the body was balanced by a long and heavily muscled tail. It is classified as an allosaurid, a type of carnosaurian theropod dinosaur. The genus has a complicated taxonomy, and includes three valid species, the best known of which is A. fragilis. The bulk of Allosaurus remains have come from North America's Morrison Formation, with material also known from Portugal. It was known for over half of the 20th century as Antrodemus, but a study of the copious remains from the Cleveland-Lloyd Dinosaur Quarry brought the name "Allosaurus" back to prominence and established it as one of the best-known dinosaurs.

As the most abundant large predator in the Morrison Formation, Allosaurus was at the top of the food chain, probably preying on contemporaneous large herbivorous dinosaurs, and perhaps other predators. Potential prey included ornithopods, stegosaurids, and sauropods. Some paleontologists interpret Allosaurus as having had cooperative social behavior, and hunting in packs, while others believe individuals may have been aggressive toward each other, and that congregations of this genus are the result of lone individuals feeding on the same carcasses.

Leni: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: OMEISAURUS!

Leni fired a wave of water and it formed into one of the largest dinosaurs from 173 million years ago: Omeisaurus!

Omeisaurus (meaning "Omei lizard") is a genus of sauropod dinosaur from the Middle Jurassic Period (Bathonian-Callovian stage) of what is now China. Its name comes from Mount Emei, where it was discovered in the lower Shaximiao Formation of Sichuan Province.

Like other sauropods, Omeisaurus was herbivorous and large. It measured 20.2 metres (66 ft) long, and weighed 9.8 tonnes.

Luna: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: SUCHOMIMUS!

Luna fired a wave of water and it formed into the ferocious spinosaurid dinosaur from 125 million years ago: Suchomimus!

Suchomimus (meaning "crocodile mimic") is a genus of spinosaurid dinosaur that lived between 125 and 112 million years ago in what is now Niger, during the Aptian to early Albian stages of the Early Cretaceous period. The animal was named and described by palaeontologist Paul Sereno and colleagues in 1998, based on a partial skeleton from the Erlhaz Formation. Suchomimus's long and shallow skull, similar to that of a crocodile, earns it its generic name, while the specific name Suchomimus tenerensis alludes to the locality of its first remains, the Ténéré Desert.

Suchomimus was 9.5 to 11 metres (31 to 36 feet) long and weighed between 2.5 to 5.2 tonnes (2.8 to 5.7 short tons), although the holotype specimen may not have been fully grown. Suchomimus's narrow skull was perched on a short neck, and its forelimbs were powerfully built, bearing a giant claw on each thumb. Along the midline of the animal's back ran a low dorsal sail, built from the long neural spines of its vertebrae. Like other spinosaurids, it likely had a diet of fish and small prey animals.

Some palaeontologists consider the animal to be an African species of the European spinosaurid Baryonyx, B. tenerensis. Suchomimus might also be a junior synonym of the contemporaneous spinosaurid Cristatusaurus lapparenti, although the latter taxon is based on much more fragmentary remains. Suchomimus lived in a fluvial environment of vast floodplains alongside many other dinosaurs, in addition to pterosaurs, crocodylomorphs, fish, turtles, and bivalves.

Stella: SCORCH STYLE NINJA ART: OURANOSAURUS!

Stella fired a wave of fire and it formed into the Iguanodont from 100 million years ago: Ouranosaurus.

---

Ouranosaurus is a genus of herbivorous iguanodont dinosaur that lived during the Aptian stage of the Early Cretaceous of modern-day Niger. Ouranosaurus measured about 7 to 8.3 metres (23 to 27 ft) long. Two rather complete fossils were found in the Elrhaz Formation, Gadoufaoua deposits, Agadez, Niger, in 1965 and 1970. The animal was named in 1976 by French paleontologist Philippe Taquet; the type species being Ouranosaurus nigeriensis. The name is a combination of the Arabic word for "courage" and the country of discovery, although ourane is also the Tuareg name for the desert monitor.

Becca Chang: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: TITANOBOA!

Becca fired a wave of water that formed into the Colombian giant snake from 60 million years ago: Titanoboa!

---

Titanoboa (/tiˌtɑːnoʊˈboʊə/) is an extinct genus of very large snakes that lived in what is now La Guajira in northeastern Colombia. They could grow up to 12.8 m (42 ft) long and reach a weight of 1,135 kg (2,500 lb).

Fossils of Titanoboa have been found in the Cerrejón Formation, and date to around 58 to 60 million years ago. The giant snake lived during the Middle to Late Paleocene epoch, a 10-million-year period immediately following the Cretaceous-Paleogene extinction event.

The only known species is Titanoboa cerrejonensis, the largest snake ever discovered, which supplanted the previous record holder, Gigantophis.

Syd: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: OPHTHALMOSAURUS!

Syd fired a wave of water and it formed into the Ichthyosaur from 165 million years ago: Ophthalmosaurus!

---

Ophthalmosaurus (meaning "eye lizard" in Greek) is an ichthyosaur of the Middle Jurassic period (165-160 million years ago), named for its extremely large eyes. It had a graceful 6 m (19.5 ft) long dolphin-shaped body, and its almost toothless jaw was well adapted for catching squid. Major fossil finds of this genus have been recorded in Europe and North and South America.

Girl Jordan: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: ELASMOSAURUS!

Girl Jordan fired a wave of water and it formed into the huge long-necked plesiosaurus from 80.5 million years ago: Elasmosaurus!

---

Elasmosaurus is a genus of plesiosaur that lived in North America during the Campanian stage of the Late Cretaceous period, about 80.5 million years ago. The first specimen was discovered in 1867 near Fort Wallace, Kansas, US, and was sent to the American paleontologist Edward Drinker Cope, who named it E. platyurus in 1868. The generic name means "thin-plate reptile", and the specific name means "flat-tailed". Cope originally reconstructed the skeleton of Elasmosaurus with the skull at the end of the tail, an error which was made light of by the paleontologist Othniel Charles Marsh, and became part of their "Bone Wars" rivalry. Only one incomplete Elasmosaurus skeleton is definitely known, consisting of a fragmentary skull, the spine, and the pectoral and pelvic girdles, and a single species is recognized today; other species are now considered invalid or have been moved to other genera.

Measuring 10.3 meters (34 ft) long, Elasmosaurus would have had a streamlined body with paddle-like limbs, a short tail, a small head, and an extremely long neck. The neck alone was around 7.1 meters (23 ft) long. Along with its relative Albertonectes, it was one of the longest-necked animals to have lived, with the largest number of neck vertebrae known, 72. The skull would have been slender and triangular, with large, fang-like teeth at the front, and smaller teeth towards the back. It had six teeth in each premaxilla of the upper jaw, and may have had 14 teeth in the maxilla and 19 in the dentary of the lower jaw. Most of the neck vertebrae were compressed sideways, and bore a longitudinal crest or keel along the sides.

The family Elasmosauridae was based on the genus Elasmosaurus, the first recognized member of this group of long-necked plesiosaurs. Elasmosaurids were well adapted for aquatic life, and used their flippers for swimming. Contrary to earlier depictions, their necks were not very flexible, and could not be held high above the water surface. It is unknown what their long necks were used for, but they may have had a function in feeding. Elasmosaurids probably ate small fish and marine invertebrates, seizing them with their long teeth, and may have used gastroliths (stomach stones) to help digest their food. Elasmosaurus is known from the Pierre Shale formation, which represents marine deposits from the Western Interior Seaway.

SpongeBob: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: LIOPLEURODON!

SpongeBob fired a wave of water and it formed into the ferocious marine reptile from 166 million years ago: Liopleurodon!

---

Liopleurodon (/ˌlaɪoʊˈplʊərədɒn/; meaning 'smooth-sided teeth') is a genus of large, carnivorous marine reptile belonging to the Pliosauroidea, a clade of short-necked plesiosaurs. The two species of Liopleurodon lived from the Callovian Stage of the Middle Jurassic to the Kimmeridgian stage of the Late Jurassic Period (c. 166 to 155 mya). It was the apex predator of the Middle to Late Jurassic seas that covered Europe. The largest species, L. ferox, is estimated to have grown up to 6.4 metres (21 ft) in length.

The name "Liopleurodon" (meaning "smooth-sided tooth") derives from Ancient Greek words: λεῖος leios, "smooth"; πλευρά pleurá, "side" or "rib"; and ὀδόν odṓn, "tooth".

Salar: (Arabic Accent) FIRESTORM STYLE NINJA ART: GALLIMIMUS!

Salar fired a massive wave of fire and it formed into a herd of the ostrich-like egg-eaters from 70 million years ago: Gallimimus!

---

Gallimimus (/ˌɡælɪˈmaɪməs/ GAL-i-MY-məs) is a genus of theropod dinosaur that lived in what is now Mongolia during the Late Cretaceous period, about seventy million years ago (mya). Several fossils in various stages of growth were discovered by Polish-Mongolian expeditions in the Gobi Desert of Mongolia during the 1960s; a large skeleton discovered in this region was made the holotype specimen of the new genus and species Gallimimus bullatus in 1972. The generic name means "chicken mimic", referring to the similarities between its neck vertebrae and those of the Galliformes. The specific name is derived from bulla, a gold capsule worn by Roman youth, in reference to a bulbous structure at the base of the skull of Gallimimus. At the time it was named, the fossils of Gallimimus represented the most complete and best preserved ornithomimid ("ostrich dinosaur") material yet discovered, and the genus remains one of the best known members of the group.

Gallimimus is the largest known ornithomimid; adults were about 6 metres (20 ft) long, 1.9 metres (6 ft 3 in) tall at the hip and weighed about 440 kilograms (970 lb). As evidenced by its relative Ornithomimus, it would have had feathers. The head was small and light with large eyes that faced to the sides. The snout was long compared to other ornithomimids, although it was broader and more rounded at the tip than in other species. Gallimimus was toothless with a keratinous (horny) beak, and had a delicate lower jaw. Many of the vertebrae had openings that indicate they were pneumatic (air-filled). The neck was proportionally long in relation to the trunk. The hands were proportionally the shortest of any ornithomimosaur and each had three digits with curved claws. The forelimbs were weak while the hindlimbs were proportionally long. The family Ornithomimidae is part of the group Ornithomimosauria. Anserimimus, also from Mongolia, is thought to have been the closest relative of Gallimimus.

As an ornithomimid, Gallimimus would have been a fleet (or cursorial) animal, using its speed to escape predators; its speed has been estimated at 42-56 km/h (29-34 mph). It may have had good vision and intelligence comparable to ratite birds. Gallimimus may have lived in groups, based on the discovery of several specimens preserved in a bone bed. Various theories have been proposed regarding the diet of Gallimimus and other ornithomimids. The highly mobile neck may have helped locate small prey on the ground, but it may also have been an opportunistic omnivore. It has also been suggested that it used small columnar structures in its beak for filter-feeding in water, though these structures may instead have been ridges used for feeding on tough plant material, indicative of a herbivorous diet. Gallimimus is the most commonly found ornithomimosaur in the Nemegt Formation, where it lived alongside its relatives Anserimimus and Deinocheirus. Gallimimus was featured in the movie Jurassic Park, in a scene that was important to the history of special effects, and in shaping the common conception of dinosaurs as bird-like animals.

Andropov: (Russian Accent) ICE STYLE NINJA ART: ELASMOTHERIUM!

Andropov fired a wave of ice and it formed into the ancestral big-horned rhinoceros of the Ice Age from 2.6 million years ago: Elasmotherium!

---

Elasmotherium is an extinct genus of large rhinoceros endemic to Eurasia during the Late Pliocene through the Pleistocene, existing from 2.6 Ma to at least as late as 39,000 years ago in the Late Pleistocene. A more recent date of 26,000 BP is considered less reliable. It was the last surviving member of Elasmotheriinae, a distinctive group of rhinoceroses that had separated from the ancestry of living rhinoceroses by at least 35 million years ago according to fossils and estimated around 47.4 million years ago based on molecular clock.

Four species are recognised, which were largely confined to the Pontic-Caspian steppe, the Caucasus and Central Asia. The best known, E. sibiricum, known as the Siberian unicorn, was the size of a mammoth and is thought to have borne a large, thick horn on its forehead. Like all rhinoceroses, elasmotheres were herbivorous. Unlike any other rhinos and any other ungulates aside from some notoungulates, its high-crowned molars were ever-growing. Its legs were longer than those of other rhinos and were adapted for galloping, giving it a horse-like gait.

Golova: (Russian Accent) ICE STYLE NINJA ART: CAVE LION!

Golova fired a wave of ice and it formed into the Ice Age lions of 500,000 years ago: Cave Lions!

---

Panthera spelaea, also known as the "Eurasian cave lion", "European cave lion", or "steppe lion", is an extinct Panthera species that evolved in Europe probably after the third Cromerian interglacial stage, less than 600,000 years ago. Phylogenetic analysis of fossil bone samples revealed that it was highly distinct and genetically isolated from the modern lion (Panthera leo) occurring in Africa and Asia. Analysis of morphological differences and mitochondrial data support the taxonomic recognition of Panthera spelaea as a distinct species that diverged from the lion about 1.9 million years ago. Nuclear genomic evidence suggests a more recent split approximately 500,000 years ago, with no subsequent interbreeding with the ancestors of the modern lion. The oldest known bone fragments were excavated in Yakutia and radiocarbon dated at least 62,400 years old. It became extinct about 13,000 years ago.

Matthias: (German Accent) FOREST STYLE NINJA ART: LEPTICTIDIUM!

Matthias fired a wave of wood and leaves and it formed into a swarm of the ancestor of the Elephant Shrew that lived 50 million years ago: Leptictidium!

Leptictidium (a Latinized diminutive of the name of its close relative Leptictis, which means "graceful weasel" in Ancient Greek) is an extinct genus of small mammals that were likely bipedal. Comprising eight species, they resembled today's elephant shrews. They are especially interesting for their combination of characteristics typical of primitive eutherians with highly specialized adaptations, such as powerful hind legs and a long tail which aided in locomotion. They were omnivorous, their diet a combination of insects, lizards and small mammals. One of the first branches to split from basal eutherians, they appeared in the Lower Eocene, a time of warm temperatures and high humidity, roughly fifty million years ago. Although they were widespread throughout Europe, they became extinct around thirty-five million years ago with no descendants, probably because they were adapted to live in forest ecosystems and were unable to adapt to the open plains of the Oligocene.

Eustreptospondylus (/juːˌstrɛptoʊspɒn'daɪləs/ yoo-STREPT-o-spon-DY-ləs; meaning "true Streptospondylus") is a genus of megalosaurid theropod dinosaur, from the Oxfordian stage of the Late Jurassic period (some time between 163 and 154 million years ago) in southern England, at a time when Europe was a series of scattered islands (due to tectonic movement at the time which raised the sea-bed and flooded the lowland).

Fiona: WIND STYLE NINJA ART: ORNITHOCHEIRUS!

Fiona fired a wave of wind and it formed into the ostrich-like dinosaur from 92.5 million years ago: Ornithocheirus!

Ornithocheirus (from Ancient Greek "ὄρνις", meaning bird, and "χεῖρ", meaning hand) is a pterosaur genus known from fragmentary fossil remains uncovered from sediments in the UK and possibly Morocco.

Several species have been referred to the genus, most of which are now considered as dubious species, or members of different genera, and the genus is now often considered to include only the type species, Ornithocheirus simus. Species have been referred to Ornithocheirus from the mid-Cretaceous period of both Europe and South America, but O. simus is known only from the UK, though a specimen referred to O. cf. simus is also known from Morocco.

Because O. simus was originally named based on poorly preserved fossil material, the genus Ornithocheirus has suffered enduring problems of zoological nomenclature.

Fossil remains of Ornithocheirus have been recovered mainly from the Cambridge Greensand of England, dating to the beginning of the Albian stage of the early Cretaceous period, about 110 million years ago. Additional fossils from the Santana Formation of Brazil are sometimes classified as species of Ornithocheirus, but have also been placed in their own genera, most notably Tropeognathus.

Becky: PHOENIX STYLE NINJA ART: COELOPHYSIS!

Becky fired a wave of fire and it formed into one of the first ever dinosaurs from 216 million years ago: Coelophysis!

Coelophysis (/sɛˈlɒfɪsɪs/ seh-LOF-ih-sis traditionally; /ˌsɛloʊˈfaɪsɪs/ SEL-o-FY-sis or /ˌsiːloʊˈfaɪsɪs/ SEE-lo-FY-sis are heard more commonly in recent decades) is an extinct genus of coelophysid theropod dinosaur that lived approximately 216 to 196 million years ago during the latter part of the Triassic Period in what is now the southwestern United States and also in South Africa and Zimbabwe.

Coelophysis was a small, slenderly-built, ground-dwelling, bipedal carnivore, that could grow up to 3 m (9.8 ft) long. Coelophysis is one of the earliest known dinosaur genera. Scattered material representing similar animals has been found worldwide in some Late Triassic and Early Jurassic formations.

The type species C. bauri, originally given to the genus Coelurus by Edward Drinker Cope in 1887, was described by the latter in 1889. The names Longosaurus and Rioarribasaurus are synonymous with Coelophysis. Another dinosaur genus, Megapnosaurus, has also been considered to be a synonym. This primitive theropod is notable for being one of the most specimen-rich dinosaur genera.

Muttaburrasaurus was a genus of herbivorous ornithopod dinosaur, which lived in what is now northeastern Australia sometime between 105 and 103 million years ago during the early Cretaceous Period. It has been recovered in some analyses as a member of the iguanodontian family Rhabdodontidae. After Kunbarrasaurus, it is Australia's most completely known dinosaur from skeletal remains. It was named after Muttaburra, the site in Queensland, Australia, where it was found.

Paige: PHOENIX STYLE NINJA ART: CRYOLOPHOSAURUS!

Paige fired a wave of fire and it formed into the Antarctic dinosaur from 193 million years ago: Cryolophosaurus!

Cryolophosaurus (/ˌkraɪoʊˌloʊfoʊ'sɔːrəs/ or /kraɪˌɒloʊfoʊ'sɔːrəs/; "CRY-oh-loaf-oh-SAWR-us") is a genus of large theropods known from only a single species Cryolophosaurus ellioti, known from the early Jurassic period of Antarctica. It was about 6.5 metres (21.3 ft) long and 465 kilograms (1,025 lb) in weight, making it one of the largest theropods of its time. Individuals of this species may have grown even larger, because the only known specimen probably represents a sub-adult. Cryolophosaurus is known from a skull, a femur and other material, the skull and femur of which have caused its classification to vary greatly. The femur possesses many primitive characteristics that have classified Cryolophosaurus as a dilophosaurid or a neotheropod outside of Dilophosauridae and Averostra, whereas the skull has many advanced features, leading the genus to be considered a tetanuran, an abelisaurid, a ceratosaur and even an allosaurid. Since its original description, the consensus is that Cryolophosaurus is either a primitive member of the Tetanurae or a close relative of that group.

Cryolophosaurus possessed a distinctive "pompadour" crest that spanned the head from side to side. Based on evidence from related species and studies of bone texture, it is thought that this bizarre crest was used for intra-species recognition. The brain of Cryolophosaurus was also more primitive than those of other theropods.

Cryolophosaurus was first excavated from Antarctica's Early Jurassic, Sinemurian to Pliensbachian aged Hanson Formation, formerly the upper Falla Formation, by paleontologist Dr. William Hammer in 1991. It was the first carnivorous dinosaur to be discovered in Antarctica and the first non-avian dinosaur from the continent to be officially named. The sediments in which its fossils were found have been dated at ~194 to 188 million years ago, representing the Early Jurassic Period.

Lateefa: (Arabic Accent) DESERT STYLE NINJA ART: VELOCIRAPTORS!

Lateefa fired a wave of sand and it formed into the deadly carnivorous dinosaurs from 78 million years ago: Velociraptor!

---

Velociraptor (/vɪˈlɒsɪræptər/; meaning "swift seizer" in Latin) is a genus of dromaeosaurid theropod dinosaur that lived approximately 75 to 71 million years ago during the latter part of the Cretaceous Period. Two species are currently recognized, although others have been assigned in the past. The type species is V. mongoliensis; fossils of this species have been discovered in Mongolia. A second species, V. osmolskae, was named in 2008 for skull material from Inner Mongolia, China.

Smaller than other dromaeosaurids like Deinonychus and Achillobator, Velociraptor nevertheless shared many of the same anatomical features. It was a bipedal, feathered carnivore with a long tail and an enlarged sickle-shaped claw on each hindfoot, which is thought to have been used to tackle and disembowel prey. Velociraptor can be distinguished from other dromaeosaurids by its long and low skull, with an upturned snout.

Velociraptor (commonly shortened to "raptor") is one of the dinosaur genera most familiar to the general public due to its prominent role in the Jurassic Park motion picture series. In real life, however, Velociraptor was roughly the size of a turkey, considerably smaller than the approximately 2 m (6 1⁄2 ft) tall and 80 kg (180 lb) reptiles seen in the films (which were based on members of the related genus Deinonychus). Today, Velociraptor is well known to paleontologists, with over a dozen described fossil skeletons, the most of any dromaeosaurid. One particularly famous specimen preserves a Velociraptor locked in combat with a Protoceratops.

Nataša: (Czech Accent) EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: UTAHRAPTOR!

Nataša fired a wave of earth and it formed into the state dinosaurs of Utah from 139 million years ago: Utahraptor!

---

Utahraptor (meaning Utah's predator) is a genus of large dromaeosaurid dinosaur that lived in North America during the Early Cretaceous period. It was a heavy-built, ground-dwelling, bipedal carnivore. It contains a single species, Utahraptor ostrommaysi, which is the largest-known member of the family Dromaeosauridae.

In 2018, it was proposed that Utahraptor be the Utah state dinosaur, an act that was approved by the Senate. Initially Utahraptor would have replaced another dinosaur, Allosaurus, as the state's official fossil, but it was decided that Utahraptor would be another symbol of the state.

Suwailim: (Egyptian Accent) DESERT STYLE NINJA ART: PROTOCERATOPS!

Suwailim fired a wave of sand and it formed into the Ceratopsian from 75 million years ago: Protoceratops.

---

Protoceratops (/ˌproʊtoʊ'sɛrətɒps/; from Greek proto-/πρωτο- "first", cerat-/κερατ- "horn" and -ops/-ωψ "face", meaning "first horned face") is a genus of sheep-sized (1.8 m long) herbivorous ceratopsian dinosaur, from the Upper Cretaceous Period (Campanian stage) of what is now Mongolia. It was a member of the Protoceratopsidae, a group of early horned dinosaurs. Unlike later ceratopsians, however, it was a much smaller creature that lacked well-developed horns and retained some basal traits not seen in later genera.

Protoceratops had a large neck frill which was likely used as a display site to impress other members of the species. Other hypotheses about its function include protection of the neck and anchoring of jaw muscles, but the fragility of the frill and the poor leverage offered by possible attachment sites here makes these ideas implausible. Described by Walter W. Granger and W.K. Gregory in 1923, Protoceratops was initially believed to be an ancestor of the North American ceratopsians. Researchers currently distinguish two species of Protoceratops (P. andrewsi and P. hellenikorhinus), based in part by their respective sizes.

In the 1920s, Roy Chapman Andrews discovered fossilized eggs in Mongolia that were interpreted as belonging to this dinosaur, but which turned out to be those of Oviraptor. However, it wouldn't be until 2011 that a genuine Protoceratops nest was discovered, with the remains of the neonates inside suggesting parental care in this dinosaur.

Woya: WIND STYLE NINJA ART: PTERANODON!

Woya fired a wave of wind and it formed into the famous pterosaur from 86 million years ago: Pteranodon!

---

Pteranodon (/tɪ'rænədɒn/; from Greek πτερόν (pteron, "wing") and ἀνόδων (anodon, "toothless")) is a genus of pterosaur that included some of the largest known flying reptiles, with wingspans over 7 meters (23 feet). They lived during the late Cretaceous geological period of North America in present-day Kansas, Alabama, Nebraska, Wyoming, and South Dakota. More fossil specimens of Pteranodon have been found than any other pterosaur, with about 1,200 specimens known to science, many of them well preserved with nearly complete skulls and articulated skeletons. It was an important part of the animal community in the Western Interior Seaway.

Pteranodon was a pterosaur, meaning that it is not a dinosaur. By definition, all dinosaurs belong to one of the two groups within Dinosauria, i.e. Saurischia or Ornithischia. As such, this excludes pterosaurs. Nonetheless, Pteranodon is frequently featured in dinosaur media and are strongly associated with dinosaurs by the general public. While not dinosaurs, pterosaurs such as Pteranodon form a clade closely related to dinosaurs as both fall within the clade Avemetatarsalia.

Leyati: WIND STYLE NINJA ART: ARGENTAVIS!

Leyati fired a wave of wind and it formed into the largest prehistoric bird ever to grace the skies from 9 million years ago: Argentavis Magnificens.

Argentavis magnificens was among the largest flying birds ever to exist, quite possibly surpassed in wingspan only by Pelagornis sandersi, which was described in 2014. A. magnificens, sometimes called the Giant Teratorn, is an extinct species known from three sites in the Epecuén and Andalhualá Formations in central and northwestern Argentina dating to the Late Miocene (Huayquerian), where a good sample of fossils has been obtained.

Edwayl: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: BASILOSAURUS!

Edwayl fired a wave of water and it formed into the one of the first whales of the Eocene epoch from 41.3 million years ago:

Basilosaurus!

Basilosaurus (meaning "king lizard") is a genus of large, predatory, prehistoric archaeocete whale from the late Eocene, approximately 41.3 to 33.9 million years ago (mya). First described in 1834, it was the first archaeocete and prehistoric whale known to science. The first fossils were discovered along the Gulf Coast of the United States, along with a few fossils in the eastern U.S., attributed to the type species B. cetoides. They were originally thought to be of a giant reptile, hence the suffix "-saurus", Ancient Greek for "lizard". The animal was later found to be an early marine mammal, which prompted attempts at renaming the creature, which failed as zoological nomenclature dictates using the original name given. Fossils were later found of the second species, B. isis, in 1904 in North Africa, more specifically the countries of Egypt, Jordan, Tunisia and Morocco. Basilosaurus has a possible record in Seymour Island in Antarctica.

Basilosaurus is considered to have been common in the Tethys sea. It was one of the largest, if not the largest, animals of the Paleogene. It was the top predator of its environment, preying on sharks, large fish and other marine mammals, namely the dolphin-like Dorudon, which seems to have been their predominant food source.

Basilosaurus was at one point a wastebasket taxon, before the genus slowly started getting reevaluated, with many species of different Eocene cetacean being assigned to the genus in the past, however they are invalid or have been reclassified under a new or different genus, leaving only 2 confirmed species. Basilosaurus may have been one of the first fully aquatic cetaceans (sometimes referred to as the pelagiceti). Basilosaurus, unlike modern cetaceans, had various types of teeth-such as canines and molars-in its mouth (heterodonty), and it probably was able to chew its food in contrast to modern cetaceans which swallow their food whole.

Rusty: DESERT STYLE NINJA ART: PARACERATHERIUM!

Rusty fired a wave of sand and it formed into the one of the ancestral rhinoceroses from 34 million years ago: Paraceratherium!

---

Paraceratherium is an extinct genus of hornless rhinoceros. It is one of the largest terrestrial mammals that has existed and lived from the early to late Oligocene epoch (34-23 million years ago). Its remains have been found across Eurasia between China and the Balkans. It is classified as a member of the hyracodont subfamily Indricotheriinae. Paraceratherium means "near the hornless beast", in reference to Aceratherium, the genus in which the type species A. bugtiense was originally placed.

The exact size of Paraceratherium is unknown because of the incompleteness of the fossils. The shoulder height was about 4.8 metres (15.7 feet), and the length about 7.4 metres (24.3 feet). Its weight is estimated to have been about 15 to 20 tonnes (33,000 to 44,000 lb). The long neck supported a skull that was about 1.3 metres (4.3 ft) long. It had large, tusk-like incisors and a nasal incision that suggests it had a prehensile upper lip or proboscis (trunk). The legs were long and pillar-like. The lifestyle of Paraceratherium may have been similar to that of modern large mammals such as the elephants and extant rhinoceroses. Because of its size, it would have had few predators and a slow rate of reproduction. It was a browser, eating mainly leaves, soft plants, and shrubs. It lived in habitats ranging from arid deserts with a few scattered trees to subtropical forests. The reasons for the animal's extinction are unknown, but various factors have been proposed.

The taxonomy of the genus and the species within has a long and complicated history. Other genera of Oligocene indricotheres, such as Baluchitherium, Indricotherium, and Pristinotherium, have been named, but no complete specimens exist, making comparison and classification difficult. Most modern scientists consider these genera to be junior synonyms of Paraceratherium, and it is thought to contain at least three discernible species; P. bugtiense, P. transouralicum, and P. huangheense. The most completely-known species is P. transouralicum, so most reconstructions of the genus are based on it. Differences between P. bugtiense and P. transouralicum may be due to sexual dimorphism, which would make them the same species.

Zach: PLAIN STYLE NINJA ART: ENTELODON!

Zach fired a wave of sand and leaves and it formed into the ancestors of the wild boar from 33.9 million years ago: Entelodon!

---

Entelodon (meaning "complete teeth", from Ancient Greek ἐντελής entelēs "complete" and ὀδών odōn "tooth", referring to its "complete" eutherian dentition), is an extinct genus of entelodont artiodactyl endemic to Eurasia. Fossils of species are found in Paleogene strata ranging in age from the Houldjinian (37.2-33.9 mya) until the Rupelian epoch of the early Oligocene (33.9-28.4 mya).

Liam: (Southern Accent) PLAIN STYLE NINJA ART: HYAENODON!

Liam fired a wave of sand and leaves and it formed into the ancestors of the hyena from 42 million years ago: Hyaenodon!

---

Hyaenodon ("hyena-tooth") is the type genus of the Hyaenodontidae, a family of extinct carnivorous fossil mammals from Eurasia, North America, and Africa, with species existing temporally from the Eocene until the middle Miocene, existing for about 26.1 million years.

The various species of Hyaenodon competed with each other and with other hyaenodont genera (including Sinopa, Dissopsalis, and Hyainailurus), and played important roles as predators in ecological communities as late as the Miocene in Africa and Asia and preyed on a variety of prey species such as primitive horses like Mesohippus and early camels. Species of Hyaenodon have been shown to have successfully preyed on other large carnivores of their time, including a nimravid ("false sabertooth cat"), according to analysis of tooth puncture marks on a fossil Dinictis skull found in North Dakota.

Mollie: LIGHTNING STYLE NINJA ART: GIGANOTOSAURUS!

Mollie fired a wave of lightning and it formed into the ferocious theropod from 98 million years ago: Giganotosaurus!

---

Giganotosaurus (/ˌdʒaɪɡəˌnoʊtəˈsɔːrəs/ JY-gə-NOH-tə-SOR-əs) is a genus of theropod dinosaur that lived in what is now Argentina, during the early Cenomanian age of the Late Cretaceous period, approximately 98 to 97 million years ago. The holotype specimen was discovered in the Candeleros Formation of Patagonia in 1993, and is almost 70% complete. The animal was named Giganotosaurus carolinii in 1995; the genus name translates as "giant southern lizard" and the specific name honors the discoverer, Rubén D. Carolini. A dentary bone, a tooth and some tracks, discovered before the holotype, were later assigned to this animal. The genus attracted much interest and became part of a scientific debate about the maximum sizes of theropod dinosaurs.

Giganotosaurus was one of the largest known terrestrial carnivores, but the exact size has been hard to determine due to the incompleteness of the remains found so far. Estimates for the most complete specimen range from a length of 12 to 13 m (39 to 43 ft), a skull 1.53 to 1.80 m (5.0 to 5.9 ft) in length, and a weight of 4.2 to 13.8 t (4.6 to 15.2 short tons). The dentary bone that belonged to a supposedly larger individual has been used to extrapolate a length of 13.2 m (43 ft). Some researchers have found the animal to be larger than Tyrannosaurus, which has historically been considered the largest theropod, while others have found them to be roughly equal in size, and the largest size estimates for Giganotosaurus exaggerated. The skull was low, with rugose (rough and wrinkled) nasal bones and a ridge-like crest on the lacrimal bone in front of the eye. The front of the lower jaw was flattened, and had a downwards projecting process (or "chin") at the tip. The teeth were compressed sideways and had serrations. The neck was strong and the pectoral girdle proportionally small.

Part of the family Carcharodontosauridae, Giganotosaurus is one of the most completely known members of the group, which includes other very large theropods, such as the closely related Mapusaurus and Carcharodontosaurus. Giganotosaurus is thought to have been homeothermic (a type of "warm-bloodedness"), with a metabolism between that of a mammal and a reptile, which would have enabled fast growth. It may have been relatively fast moving, with a calculated maximal running speed of 14 m/s (50 km/h; 31 mph). It would have been capable of closing its jaws quickly, capturing and bringing down prey by delivering powerful bites. The "chin" may have helped in resisting stress when a bite was delivered against prey. Giganotosaurus is thought to have been the apex predator of its ecosystem, and it may have fed on juvenile sauropod dinosaurs.

Luan: JUNGLE STYLE NINJA ART: GIGANTOPITHECUS!

Luan fired a wave of leaves and grass and it formed into one of the first apes from 2 million to 300,000 years ago: Gigantopithecus!

---

Gigantopithecus is an extinct genus of ape from the Early to Middle Pleistocene of southern China, represented by one species, G. blacki. Potential identifications have also been made in Thailand, Vietnam, and Indonesia. The first remains of Gigantopithecus, two third molar teeth, were identified in a drugstore by anthropologist

Ralph von Koenigswald in 1935, who subsequently described the ape. In 1956, the first mandible and over 1,000 teeth were found in Liucheng, and numerous more remains have since been found in at least 16 sites. Only teeth and 4 mandibles are known currently, and other skeletal elements were likely consumed by porcupines before they could fossilise. Gigantopithecus was once argued to be a hominin, a member of the human line, but it is now thought to be closely allied with orangutans, classified in the subfamily Ponginae.

Gigantopithecus has traditionally been restored as a massive, gorilla-like ape, potentially 200-300 kg (440-660 lb) when alive, but the paucity of remains make total size estimates highly speculative. The species may have been sexually dimorphic, with males much bigger than females. The incisors are reduced and the canines appear to have functioned like cheek teeth (premolars and molars). The premolars are high-crowned, and the fourth premolar is very molar-like. The molars are the largest of any known ape, and have a relatively flat surface. Gigantopithecus had the thickest enamel by absolute measure of any ape, up to 6 mm (a quarter of an inch) in some areas, though was only fairly thick when tooth size is taken into account.

Gigantopithecus appears to have been a generalist herbivore of C3 forest plants, with the jaw adapted to grinding, crushing, and cutting through tough, fibrous plants; and the thick enamel functioning to resist foods with abrasive particles such as stems, roots, and tubers with dirt. Some teeth bear traces of fig family fruits. It primarily lived in subtropical to tropical forest, and went extinct about 300,000 years ago likely due to climate change and the retreat of preferred habitat, and potentially archaic human activity by Homo erectus. Gigantopithecus has become popular in cryptozoology circles as the identity of the Tibetan yeti or the American bigfoot, humanlike monsters in local folklore.

Fletcher: (Scottish Accent) ICE STYLE NINJA ART: DIRE WOLVES!

Fletcher fired a wave of ice and it formed into a pack of the first wolves from 125,000 to 9,500 years ago: the Dire Wolves!

---

The dire wolf (Canis dirus, "fearsome dog") is an extinct species of the genus Canis. It is one of the most famous prehistoric carnivores in North America, along with its extinct competitor, the sabre-toothed cat Smilodon fatalis. The dire wolf lived in the Americas during the Late Pleistocene and Early Holocene epochs (125,000-9,500 years ago). The species was named in 1858, four years after the first specimen had been found. Two subspecies are recognized: Canis dirus guildayi and Canis dirus dirus. The dire wolf probably evolved from Armbruster's wolf (Canis armbrusteri) in North America. The largest collection of its fossils has been obtained from the Rancho La Brea Tar Pits in Los Angeles.

Dire wolf remains have been found across a broad range of habitats including the plains, grasslands, and some forested mountain areas of North America, and in the arid savannah of South America. The sites range in elevation from sea level to 2,255 meters (7,400 ft). Dire wolf fossils have rarely been found north of 42°N latitude; there have been only five unconfirmed reports above this latitude. This range restriction is thought to be due to temperature, prey, or habitat limitations imposed by proximity to the Laurentide and Cordilleran ice sheets that existed at the time.

The dire wolf was about the same size as the largest modern gray wolves (Canis lupus): the Yukon wolf and the northwestern wolf. C. d. guildayi weighed on average 60 kilograms (132 lb) and C. d. dirus was on average 68 kg (150 lb). Its skull and dentition matched those of C. lupus, but its teeth were larger with greater shearing ability, and its bite force at the canine tooth was the strongest of any known Canis species. These characteristics are thought to be adaptations for preying on Late Pleistocene megaherbivores, and in North America its prey are known to have included horses, ground sloths, mastodons, bison, and camels. As with other large Canis hypercarnivores today, the dire wolf is thought to have been a pack hunter. Its extinction occurred during the Quaternary extinction event along with most of the American megafauna of the time, including a number of other carnivores, that occurred soon after the appearance of humans in the New World. Its reliance on megaherbivores has been proposed as the cause of its extinction, along with climate change and competition with other species, but the cause remains controversial. Dire wolves lived as recently as 9,500 years ago, according to dated remains.

Alex T.: (Greek Accent) FIRESTORM STYLE NINJA ART: ARGENTINOSAURUS!

Alex fired a wave of fire and it formed into the largest dinosaur that ever lived from 96.2 million years ago: Argentinosaurus!

---

Argentinosaurus is a genus of giant sauropod dinosaur that lived during the Late Cretaceous period in what is now Argentina. Although it is only known from fragmentary remains, Argentinosaurus is one of the largest-known land animals of all time, if not the largest, with length estimates ranging from 30 to 39.7 metres (98 to 130 ft) and weight estimates from 50 to 100 tonnes (55 to 110 short tons). It was a member of Titanosauria, the dominant group of sauropods during the Cretaceous.

The first Argentinosaurus bone was discovered in 1987 by a farmer on his farm near the city of Plaza Huincul. A scientific excavation of the site led by the Argentine palaeontologist José Bonaparte was conducted in 1989, yielding several back vertebrae and parts of a sacrum-fused vertebrae between the back and tail vertebrae.

Additional specimens include a complete femur (thigh bone) and the shaft of another. Argentinosaurus was named by Bonaparte and the Argentine palaeontologist Rodolfo Coria in 1993; it contains a single species, A. huinculensis. The generic name Argentinosaurus means "Argentine lizard", and the specific name huinculensis refers to its place of discovery, Plaza Huincul.

The fragmentary nature of Argentinosaurus remains makes their interpretation difficult. Arguments revolve around the position of the recovered vertebrae within the vertebral column and the presence of accessory articulations between the vertebrae that would have strengthened the spine. A computer model of the skeleton and muscles estimated this dinosaur had a maximum speed of 7 km/h (5 mph) with a pace, a gait where the fore and hind limb of the same side of the body move simultaneously. The fossils of Argentinosaurus were recovered from the Huincul Formation, which was deposited in the middle Cenomanian to early Turonian ages (around 96 to 92 million years ago) and contains a diverse dinosaur fauna including the giant theropod Mapusaurus.

It had a broad distribution across the United States, but it was never abundant.

GIANT GROUND SLOTH!

Tshibangu fired a wave of leaves and grass and it formed into the ancestor of the sloth from 5 million years ago: Megatherium or Giant Ground Sloth!

---

Megatherium (/mɛɡəˈθɪəriəm/ meg-ə-THEER-ee-əm from the Greek mega [μέγας], meaning "great", and therion [θηρίον], "beast") is an extinct genus of ground sloths endemic to South America that lived from the Early Pliocene through the end of the Pleistocene. It is best known for the elephant-sized type species M. americanum, sometimes called the giant ground sloth, or the megathere, native to the Pampas through southern Bolivia during the Pleistocene. Various other smaller species belonging to the subgenus Pseudomegatherium are known from the Andes. Megatherium is part of the sloth family Megatheriidae, which also includes the similarly elephantine Eremotherium, which was native to tropical South America and southern North America. Only a few other land mammals equaled or exceeded M. americanum in size, such as large proboscideans (e.g., elephants) and the giant rhinoceros Paraceratherium. Megatherium was first discovered in 1788 on the bank of the Luján River in Argentina. The holotype specimen was then shipped to Spain the following year wherein it caught the attention of the esteemed paleontologist Georges Cuvier, who was the first to determine, by means of comparative anatomy, that Megatherium was a sloth. Megatherium became extinct around 12,000 years ago during the Quaternary extinction event, which also claimed most other large mammals in the New World. The extinction coincides with the settlement of the Americas, and a kill site where a M. americanum was slaughtered and butchered is known, suggesting that hunting could have caused its extinction.

Lang Yan: (Chinese Accent) BAMBOO STYLE NINJA ART: DWARF PANDA!

Lang punched the ground and a bunch of bamboo grew in seconds and they formed into the ancestor of the Giant Panda from 2 million years ago - the Dwarf Panda!

Ailuropoda microta is the earliest known ancestor of the giant panda. It measured 1 m (3 ft) in length; the modern giant panda grows to a size in excess of 1.5 m (5 ft). Wear patterns on its teeth suggest it lived on a diet of bamboo, the primary food of the giant panda. The first discovered skull of the animal in a south China limestone cave is estimated to be 2 million years old. The skull found is about half the size of a modern-day giant panda, but is anatomically very similar. This research suggests that the giant panda has evolved for more than 3 million years as a completely separate lineage from that of other bears.

Guanlong (冠龍) is a genus of extinct proceratosaurid tyrannosauroid from the Late Jurassic of China. The taxon was first described in 2006 by Xu Xing et al., who found it to represent a new taxon related to Tyrannosaurus. The name is derived from Chinese, translating as "crown dragon". Two individuals are currently known, a partially complete adult and a nearly complete juvenile. These specimens come from the Oxfordian stage of the Chinese Shishugou Formation.

Brock: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: DOEDICURUS!

Brock fired a wave of earth and it formed into the ancestral armadillo from 2 million to 7,000 years ago: DOEDICURUS!

Doedicurus, or Dædicurus, is an extinct genus of glyptodont from South America containing one species, D. clavicaudatus. Glyptodonts are a member of the family Chlamyphoridae, which also includes some modern armadillo species, and they are classified in the order Xenarthra alongside sloths and anteaters. Being a glyptodont, it was a rotund animal with heavy armor and a carapace. Averaging at an approximate 1,400 kg (3,100 lb), it was one of the largest glyptodonts to have ever lived. Though glyptodonts were quadrupeds, large ones like Doedicurus may have been able to stand on two legs like other xenarthrans. It notably sported a spiked tail club, which may have weighed 40 or 65 kg (88 or 143 lb) in life, and it may have swung this in defense against predators or in fights with other Doedicurus at speeds of perhaps 11 m/s (40 km/h; 25 mph).

Doedicurus was likely a grazer, but its teeth and mouth, like those of other glyptodonts, seem unable to have chewed grass effectively, which may indicate a slow metabolism. Doedicurus existed during the Pleistocene. Before this, South America had been isolated from the rest of the world, but the formation of the Isthmus of Panama allowed North American fauna to invade South America in the Great American Interchange, including big cats, bears, elephants, camels, and horses. Doedicurus seems to have inhabited the relatively cold and humid Chaco-Pampean plains of northeastern Patagonia. It may have been the latest-surviving glyptodont, with remains suggested to date to 8,000-7,000 years ago during the middle Holocene, though these dates have been questioned. It may have gone extinct due to some combination of human hunting and climate change.

Nora: (Spanish Accent) JUNGLE STYLE NINJA ART: CARNOTAURUS!

Nora fired a wave of grass and leaves and it formed into the ferocious theropod from 72 million years ago: Carnotaurus!

---

Carnotaurus /ˌkɑːrnoʊˈtɔːrəs/ is a genus of large theropod dinosaur that lived in South America during the Late Cretaceous period, between about 72 and 69.9 million years ago. The only species is Carnotaurus sastrei. Known from a single well-preserved skeleton, it is one of the best-understood theropods from the Southern Hemisphere. The skeleton, found in 1984, was uncovered in the Chubut Province of Argentina from rocks of the La Colonia Formation. Carnotaurus is a derived member of the Abelisauridae, a group of large theropods that occupied the large predatorial niche in the southern landmasses of Gondwana during the late Cretaceous. The phylogenetic relations of Carnotaurus are uncertain; it might have been closer to either Majungasaurus or Aucasaurus.

Carnotaurus was a lightly built, bipedal predator, measuring 7.5 to 9 m (24.6 to 29.5 ft) in length and weighing at least 1.35 metric tons (1.33 long tons; 1.49 short tons). As a theropod, Carnotaurus was highly specialized and distinctive. It had thick horns above the eyes, a feature unseen in all other carnivorous dinosaurs, and a very deep skull sitting on a muscular neck. Carnotaurus was further characterized by small, vestigial forelimbs and long, slender hindlimbs. The skeleton is preserved with extensive skin impressions, showing a mosaic of small, non-overlapping scales approximately 5 mm in diameter. The mosaic was interrupted by large bumps that lined the sides of the animal, and there are no hints of feathers.

The distinctive horns and the muscular neck may have been used in fighting conspecifics. According to separate studies, rivaling individuals may have combated each other with quick head blows, by slow pushes with the upper sides of their skulls, or by ramming each other head-on, using their horns as shock absorbers. The feeding habits of Carnotaurus remain unclear: some studies suggest the animal was able to hunt down very large prey such as sauropods, while other studies find it preyed mainly on relatively small animals. Carnotaurus was well adapted for running and was possibly one of the fastest large theropods.

Timmy Turner: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: DIMETRODON!

Timmy fired a wave of earth and it formed into the Permian reptilian mammal from 295 million years ago: Dimetrodon!

---

Dimetrodon (/daɪˈmiːtrədɒn/ (About this soundlisten) or /daɪ ˈmɛtrədɒn/, meaning "two measures of teeth") is an extinct genus of non-mammalian synapsid that lived during the Cisuralian (Early Permian), around 295-272 million years ago (Ma). It is a member of the family Sphenacodontidae. The most prominent feature of Dimetrodon is the large neural spine sail on its back formed by elongated spines extending from the vertebrae. It walked on four legs and had a tall, curved skull with large teeth of different sizes set along the jaws. Most fossils have been found in the southwestern United States, the majority coming from a geological deposit called the Red Beds of Texas and Oklahoma. More recently, fossils have been found in Germany. Over a dozen species have been named since the genus was first erected in 1878.

Dimetrodon is often mistaken for a dinosaur or as a contemporary of dinosaurs in popular culture, but it became extinct some 40 million years before the first appearance of dinosaurs. Reptile-like in appearance and physiology, Dimetrodon is nevertheless more closely related to mammals than to modern reptiles, though it is not a direct ancestor of mammals. Dimetrodon is assigned to the "non-mammalian synapsids", a group traditionally called "mammal-like reptiles". This groups Dimetrodon together with mammals in a clade (evolutionary group) called Synapsida, while placing dinosaurs, reptiles and birds in a separate clade, Sauropsida. Single openings in the skull behind each eye, known as temporal fenestrae, and other skull features distinguish Dimetrodon and mammals from most of the earliest sauropsids.

Dimetrodon was probably one of the apex predators of the Cisuralian ecosystems, feeding on fish and tetrapods, including reptiles and amphibians. Smaller Dimetrodon species may have had different ecological roles. The sail of Dimetrodon may have been used to stabilize its spine or to heat and cool its body as a form of thermoregulation. Some recent studies[citation needed] argue that the sail would have been ineffective at removing heat from the body due to large species being discovered with small sails and small species being discovered with large sails, essentially ruling out heat regulation as its main purpose. The sail was most likely used in courtship display with methods such as threatening rivals or showing off to potential mates.

Nantan: WIND STYLE NINJA ART: AUSTRALOPITHECUS AFARENSIS!

Nantan fired a wave of wind and it formed into one of our human ancestors on our evolutionary chain from 3 million years ago: Australopithecus Afarensis!

---

Australopithecus afarensis is an extinct species of australopithecine which lived from about 3.9-2.9 million years ago (mya) in the Pliocene of East Africa. The first fossils were discovered in the 1930s, but major fossil finds would not be discovered until the 1970s. In the 1972-1977 expedition in Hadar, Ethiopia, the International Afar Research Expedition led by anthropologists Maurice Taieb, Donald Johanson, and Yves Coppens unearthed several hundreds of hominin specimens, the most significant being the exceedingly well-preserved skeleton AL 288-1 ("Lucy") and the site AL 333 ("the First Family"). Beginning in 1974, Mary Leakey led an expedition into Laetoli, Tanzania, and recovered notably fossil trackways. In 1978, the species was first described, but this was followed by arguments for splitting the wealth of specimens into different species given the wide range of variation which had been attributed to sexual dimorphism (normal differences between males and females). A. afarensis probably descended from A. anamensis and possibly gave rise to Homo, though the latter hypothesis is not without dissent.

A. afarensis had a tall face, a delicate brow ridge, and prognathism (the jaw jutted outwards). The jawbone was quite robust, similar to that of gorillas. The living size of A. afarensis is debated, with arguments for and against marked size differences between males and females. Lucy measured perhaps 105 cm (3 ft 5 in) in height and 25-37 kg (55-82 lb), but she was rather small for her species. In contrast, a presumed male was estimated at 165 cm (5 ft 5 in) and 45 kg (99 lb). A perceived difference in male and female size may simply be sampling bias. The leg bones as well as the Laetoli fossil trackways suggest A. afarensis was a competent biped, though somewhat less efficient at walking than humans. The arm and shoulder bones have some similar aspects to those of orangutans and gorillas, which has variously been interpreted as either evidence of partial tree-dwelling (arboreality), or basal traits inherited from the human-chimp last common ancestor with no adaptive functionality.

A. afarensis was probably a generalist omnivore of both C3 forest plants and C4 CAM savanna plants-and perhaps creatures which ate such plants-and was able to exploit a variety of different food sources. Similarly, A. afarensis appears to have inhabited a wide range of habitats with no real preference, inhabiting open grasslands or woodlands, shrublands, and lake- or riverside forests. Potential evidence of stone tool use would indicate meat was also a dietary component. Marked sexual dimorphism in primates typically corresponds to a polygynous society and low dimorphism monogamy, but the group dynamics of early hominins is difficult to predict with accuracy. Early hominins may have fallen prey to the large carnivores of the time, such as big cats and hyenas.

Ronnie Anne: JUNGLE STYLE NINJA ART: BRACHIOSAURUS!

Ronnie Anne fired a wave of leaves and grass and it formed into the famous sauropod from 154 million years ago: Brachiosaurus!

---

Brachiosaurus (/ˌbrækiəˈsɔːrəs/) is a genus of sauropod dinosaur that lived in North America during the Late Jurassic, about 154-153 million years ago. It was first described by American paleontologist Elmer S. Riggs in 1903 from fossils found in the Colorado River valley in western Colorado, United States. Riggs named the dinosaur Brachiosaurus altithorax; the generic name is Greek for "arm lizard", in reference to its proportionately long arms, and the specific name means "deep chest". Brachiosaurus is estimated to have been between 18 and 21 meters (59 and 69 ft) long; weight estimates range from 28.3 to 58 metric tons (31.2 and 64 short tons). It had a disproportionately long neck, small skull, and large overall size, all of which are typical for sauropods. Atypically, Brachiosaurus had longer forelimbs than hindlimbs, which resulted in a steeply inclined trunk, and a proportionally shorter tail.

Brachiosaurus is the namesake genus of the family Brachiosauridae, which includes a handful of other similar sauropods. Most popular depictions of Brachiosaurus are in fact based on Giraffatitan, a genus of brachiosaurid dinosaur from the Tendaguru Formation of Tanzania. Giraffatitan was originally described by German paleontologist Werner Janensch in 1914 as a species of Brachiosaurus, B. brancai, but moved to its own genus in 2009. Three other species of Brachiosaurus have been named based on fossils found in Africa and Europe; two are no longer considered valid, and a third has become a separate genus, Lusotitan.

The type specimen of B. altithorax is still the most complete specimen, and only a few other specimens are thought to belong to the genus, making it one of the rarer sauropods of the Morrison Formation. It is regarded as a high browser, possibly cropping or nipping vegetation as high as 9 meters (30 ft) off the ground. Unlike other sauropods, it was unsuited for rearing on its hindlimbs. It has been used as an example of a dinosaur that was most likely ectothermic because of its large size and the corresponding need for sufficient forage, but more recent research suggests it was warm-blooded. Among the most iconic and initially thought to be one of the largest dinosaurs, Brachiosaurus has appeared in popular culture, notably in the 1993 film Jurassic Park.

Australovenator (meaning "southern hunter") is a genus of megaraptorid theropod dinosaur from Cenomanian (Late Cretaceous)-age Winton Formation (dated to 95 million years ago) of Australia. It is the most complete predatory dinosaur discovered in Australia.

Anthropornis is a genus of giant penguin that lived 45-33 million years ago, during the Late Eocene and the earliest part of the Oligocene.[1] It reached 1.8 m (5 ft 11 in) in height and 90 kg (200 lb) in weight. Fossils of it have been found in the La Meseta Formation on Seymour Island off the coast of Antarctica and in New Zealand. By comparison, the largest modern penguin species, the emperor penguin, is just 1.2 m (3 ft 11 in) tall.

The type species, Anthropornis nordenskjoldi, had a bent joint in the wing, probably a carryover from flying ancestors.

Eloá: (Brazilian Accent) JUNGLE STYLE NINJA ART: GASTORNIS!

Eloá fired a wave of leaves and grass and it formed into the terror bird of 56 million years ago: Gastornis!

Gastornis is an extinct genus of large flightless birds that lived during the late Paleocene and Eocene epochs of the Cenozoic era. The genus is currently thought to contain three or four distinct species, known from incomplete fossil remains, found in western-central Europe (England, Belgium, France and Germany). More complete specimens are known from a fourth, North American species, which had previously been classified in the distinct genus Diatryma. Many scientists now consider Diatryma to be so similar to the other species of Gastornis that it should also be included in that genus. A fifth species, also previously classified in its own genus, is known from China.

Gastornis species were very large birds, and have traditionally been considered to be predators of small mammals. However, several lines of evidence, including the lack of hooked claws in known Gastornis footprints and studies of their beak structure have caused scientists to reinterpret these birds as herbivores that probably fed on tough plant material and seeds.

Haiku: DARK STYLE NINJA ART: TITANIS TERROR BIRD!

Haiku fired a wave of darkness and it formed into the ferocious giant terror bird of 5 million years ago: Titanis!

---

Titanis is an extinct genus of giant flightless terror birds that inhabited North America during the early Pliocene to early Pleistocene epochs. The generic name, Titanis, refers to the titans, Ancient Greek gods that preceded the Twelve Olympians, in allusion to the bird's size. The specific name, T. walleri, honors the holotype's collector, Benjamin I. Waller, an avocational underwater archaeologist. Titanis was thought to be carnivorous and most likely preyed on the many small mammals of the time period. This giant flightless bird was one of the most efficient predators of its time in North America.

There is only one thoroughly described species of bat in the genus, I. index, although fragmentary material from France has also been tentatively placed within Icaronycteris as the second species I. menui. I. sigei is based on well-preserved fragments of dentaries and lower teeth found in Western India.

Lola: FIRESTORM STYLE NINJA ART: BAJADASAURUS!

Lola fired a wave of fire and it formed into the newly discovered dinosaurs from 140 million years ago: Bajadasaurus!

Bajadasaurus is a genus of sauropod dinosaur from the Early Cretaceous epoch (late Berriasian to Valanginian stages) of northern Patagonia, Argentina. It was first described in 2019 based on a single specimen found in 2010 that includes a largely complete skull and parts of the neck. The only species is Bajadasaurus pronuspinax. The genus is classified as a member of the Dicraeosauridae, a group of comparatively small and short-necked sauropods that lived from the Early or Middle Jurassic to the end of the Early Cretaceous.

Bajadasaurus sported bifurcated, extremely elongated neural spines extending from the neck vertebrae. Similar elongated spines are known from the closely related and more completely known Amargasaurus. Various possible functions have been proposed for these spines in Amargasaurus, with the 2019 description of Bajadasaurus suggesting that they could have served as passive defense against predators in both genera. The skull was gracile and equipped with around 44 teeth that were pencil-shaped and restricted to the front of the jaws. The eye openings of Bajadasaurus were exposed in top view of the skull, possibly allowing the animal to look forwards while feeding. Bajadasaurus was discovered in sedimentary rocks of the Bajada Colorada Formation, and its environment resembled a braided river system. It shared its environment with other dinosaurs including the sauropod Leinkupal and different theropods.

Lily: OCEAN STYLE NINJA ART: MOSASAURUS!

Lily fired a wave of water and it formed into the marine reptile from 87 million years ago: Mosasaurus!

---

Mosasaurus (/ˌmoʊzəˈsɔːrəs/; "lizard of the Meuse River") is the type genus of the mosasaurs, an extinct group of aquatic squamate reptiles. The genus lived from about 82 to 66 million years ago during the Campanian and Maastrichtian stages of the Late Cretaceous. The earliest fossils known to science were found as skulls in a chalk quarry near the Dutch city of Maastricht in the late 1700s, which were initially thought to have been the bones of crocodiles or whales. One particular skull discovered at around 1780, and which was seized during the French Revolutionary Wars for its scientific value and transported to Paris, was famously nicknamed the "great animal of Maastricht". In 1808, naturalist Georges Cuvier concluded that it belonged to a giant marine lizard with similarities to monitor lizards but otherwise unlike any animal known today. This concept was revolutionary at the time and helped support the then-developing ideas of extinction. However, Cuvier did not designate a scientific name for the new animal; this task was completed by William Daniel Conybeare in 1822 when he named it Mosasaurus in reference to its origin in fossil deposits near the Meuse River. The relationships between Mosasaurus and modern reptiles are controversial and scientists continue to debate whether its closest living relatives are monitor lizards or snakes.

Traditional interpretations have estimated the maximum length of Mosasaurus to be up to 17.6 meters (58 ft), making it one of the largest mosasaur genera. Its skull, which was either broad or slender depending on the species, was equipped with robust jaws capable of swinging back and forth and strong muscles capable of powerful bites using dozens of large teeth designed for cutting prey. Its tail was long and ended in a paddle-like fluke that bent downwards. Mosasaurus was a predator that had excellent vision to compensate for its poor sense of smell, and a high metabolic rate that suggests it was warm-blooded, an adaptation found in other mosasaurs but no other squamates. The classification of Mosasaurus was historically problematic due to an unclear diagnosis of the type specimen. As a result, over fifty different species have been attributed to the genus in the past. A rediagnosis of the type specimen in 2017 helped resolve the taxonomy issue and confirmed at least five species to be within the genus and another five species still nominally classified within Mosasaurus are planned to be reassessed in a future study. Each species was variable with unique anatomical features differentiating them from the robustly-built M. hoffmannii to the slender and serpentine M. lemonnieri.

Fossil evidence suggests that Mosasaurus inhabited much of the Atlantic Ocean and the seaways adjacent to it. Continents that have recovered Mosasaurus fossils include North America, South America, Europe, Africa, Western Asia, and Antarctica. This distribution encompassed a wide range of oceanic climates including tropical, subtropical, temperate, and subpolar climates. Mosasaurus was a common large predator in these oceans and a dominant genus positioned at the top of the food chain. Scientists believe that its diet would have included virtually anything; it likely preyed on bony fish, sharks, cephalopods, birds, and other marine reptiles including sea turtles and other mosasaurs. It likely preferred to hunt in open water near the surface. From an ecological standpoint, Mosasaurus probably had a profound impact in the structuring of marine ecosystems; its arrival in some locations such as the Western Interior Seaway in North America has been marked with a complete turnover of faunal assemblages and diversity. Mosasaurus faced competition with other large predatory mosasaurs such as Prognathodon and Tylosaurus-which are known to feed on similar prey-though they were able to coexist in the same ecosystems through niche partitioning. There were conflicts among them, as an attack on Mosasaurus by Tylosaurus has been documented.

Several discovered fossils illustrated deliberate attacks on Mosasaurus individuals by another of the same species. Infighting likely took place in the form of snout grappling, similarly seen in modern crocodiles today.

Rainbow Dash: WIND STYLE NINJA ART: HAAST'S EAGLE!

Rainbow Dash fired a wave of wind and it formed into the one of the ancestral eagles from 1.8 million to 700,000 years ago: The Haast's Eagle!

---

The Haast's eagle (Hieraaetus moorei, synonym Harpagornis moorei) is an extinct species of eagle that once lived in the South Island of New Zealand, commonly accepted to be the pouakai of Maori legend. The species was the largest eagle known to have existed, with an estimated weight of 15 kilograms (33 lb) nearly double that of the Harpy eagle at 9 kilograms (20 lb). Its massive size is explained as an evolutionary response to the size of its prey, the flightless moa, the largest of which could weigh 230 kg (510 lb). Haast's eagle became extinct around 1400, after the moa were hunted to extinction by the first Māori.

Shrek: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: DEINOSUCHUS!

Shrek fired a wave of water and it formed into one of the first crocodiles from 82 million years ago: Deinosuchus!

---

Deinosuchus (/ˌdaɪnəˈsjuːkəs/) is an extinct genus of crocodilian related to the modern alligator that lived 82 to 73 million years ago (Ma), during the late Cretaceous period. The name translates as "terrible crocodile" and is derived from the Greek deinos (δεινός), "terrible", and soukhos (σοῦχος), "crocodile". The first remains were discovered in North Carolina (United States) in the 1850s; the genus was named and described in 1909. Additional fragments were discovered in the 1940s and were later incorporated into an influential, though inaccurate, skull reconstruction at the American Museum of Natural History. Knowledge of Deinosuchus remains incomplete, but better cranial material found in recent years has expanded scientific understanding of this massive predator.

Although Deinosuchus was far larger than any modern crocodile or alligator, with the largest adults measuring 12 meters (39 ft) in total length, its overall appearance was fairly similar to its smaller relatives. It had large, robust teeth built for crushing, and its back was covered with thick hemispherical osteoderms. One study indicated Deinosuchus may have lived for up to 50 years, growing at a rate similar to that of modern crocodilians, but maintaining this growth over a much longer time.

Deinosuchus fossils have been described from 10 U.S. states, including Texas, Montana, and many along the East Coast. Fossils have also been found in northern Mexico. It lived on both sides of the Western Interior Seaway, and was an opportunistic apex predator in the coastal regions of eastern North America. Deinosuchus reached its largest size in its western habitat, but the eastern populations were far more abundant. Opinion remains divided as to whether these two populations represent separate species. Deinosuchus was probably capable of killing and eating large dinosaurs. It may have also fed upon sea turtles, fish, and other aquatic and terrestrial prey.

Lincoln: ICE STYLE NINJA ART: GORGOSAURUS!

Lincoln fired a wave of ice and it formed into the Theropod from 76.6 million years ago: Gorgosaurus!

---

Gorgosaurus (/ˌɡɔːrɡəˈsɔːrəs/ GOR-gə-SOR-əs; meaning "dreadful lizard") is a genus of tyrannosaurid theropod dinosaur that lived in western North America during the Late Cretaceous Period (Campanian), between about 76.6 and 75.1 million years ago. Fossil remains have been found in the Canadian province of Alberta and possibly the U.S. state of Montana. Paleontologists recognize only the type species, G. libratus, although other species have been erroneously referred to the genus.

Like most known tyrannosaurids, Gorgosaurus was a bipedal predator weighing more than two metric tons as an adult; dozens of large, sharp teeth lined its jaws, while its two-fingered forelimbs were comparatively small. Gorgosaurus was most closely related to Albertosaurus, and more distantly related to the larger Tyrannosaurus. Gorgosaurus and Albertosaurus are extremely similar, distinguished mainly by subtle differences in the teeth and skull bones. Some experts consider G. libratus to be a species of Albertosaurus; this would make Gorgosaurus a junior synonym of that genus.

Gorgosaurus lived in a lush floodplain environment along the edge of an inland sea. It was an apex predator, preying upon abundant ceratopsids and hadrosaurs. In some areas, Gorgosaurus coexisted with another tyrannosaurid, Daspletosaurus. Although these animals were roughly the same size, there is some evidence of niche differentiation between the two. Gorgosaurus is the best-represented tyrannosaurid in the fossil record, known from dozens of specimens. These plentiful remains have allowed scientists to investigate its ontogeny, life history and other aspects of its biology.

Bart: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: DINOGORGON!

Bart fired a wave of earth and it formed into the Gorgonopsid from 259 million years ago: Dinogorgon!

---

Dinogorgon is a genus of gorgonopsid from the Late Permian of South Africa and Tanzania. The generic name Dinogorgon is derived from Greek, meaning "terrible gorgon", while its species name rubidgei is taken from the surname of renowned Karoo paleontologist, Professor Bruce Rubidge, who has contributed to much of the research conducted on therapsids of the Karoo Basin. The type species of the genus is D. rubidgei.

Dinogorgon is part of the gorgonopsian subfamily Rubidgeinae, a derived group of large-bodied gorgonopsians restricted to the Late Permian (Lopingian). The Rubidgeinae subfamily first appeared in the Tropidostoma Assemblage Zone, and reached their highest diversity in the Cistecephalus and Daptocephalus assemblage zones of the Beaufort Group in South Africa.

Homer: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: EDAPHOSAURUS!

Homer fired a wave of earth and it formed into Dimetrodon-like synapsid from 303.4 million years ago: Edaphosaurus!

Edaphosaurus (/ˌɛdəfoʊˈsɔːrəs/, meaning "pavement lizard" for dense clusters of teeth) is a genus of extinct edaphosaurid synapsids that lived in what is now North America and Europe around 303.4 to 272.5 million years ago, during the late Carboniferous to early Permian periods. American paleontologist Edward Drinker Cope first described Edaphosaurus in 1882, naming it for the "dental pavement" on both the upper and lower jaws, from the Greek edaphos ἔδαφος ("ground"; also "pavement") and σαῦρος (sauros) ("lizard").

Edaphosaurus is important as one of the earliest-known, large, plant-eating (herbivorous), amniote tetrapods (four-legged land-living vertebrates). In addition to the large tooth plates in its jaws, the most characteristic feature of Edaphosaurus is a sail on its back. A number of other synapsids from the same time period also have tall dorsal sails, most famously the large apex predator Dimetrodon. However, the sail on Edaphosaurus is different in shape and morphology. The first fossils of Edaphosaurus came from the Texas Red Beds in North America, with later finds in New Mexico, Oklahoma, West Virginia, and Ohio. Fragmentary fossils attributed to Edaphosaurus have also been found in eastern Germany in Central Europe.

Tabby: FOREST STYLE NINJA ART: DILOPHOSAURUS!

Tabby fired a wave of leaves and water and it formed into the theropod from 193 million years ago: Dilophosaurus!

---

Dilophosaurus (/daɪˌloʊfəˈsɔːrəs, -foʊ-/ dy-LOHF-o-SOR-əs) is a genus of theropod dinosaurs that lived in what is now North America during the Early Jurassic, about 193 million years ago. Three skeletons were discovered in northern Arizona in 1940, and the two best preserved were collected in 1942. The most complete specimen became the holotype of a new species in the genus Megalosaurus, named M. wetherilli by Samuel P. Welles in 1954. Welles found a larger skeleton belonging to the same species in 1964. Realizing it bore crests on its skull, he assigned the species to the new genus Dilophosaurus in 1970, as Dilophosaurus wetherilli. The genus name means "two-crested lizard", and the species name honors John Wetherill, a Navajo councilor. Further specimens have since been found, including an infant.

Footprints have also been attributed to the animal, including resting traces. Another species, Dilophosaurus sinensis from China, was named in 1993, but was later found to belong to the genus Sinosaurus. It was designated as the state dinosaur of Connecticut based on tracks found there.

At about 7 m (23 ft) in length, with a weight of about 400 kg (880 lb), Dilophosaurus was one of the earliest large predatory dinosaurs and the largest known land-animal in North America at the time. It was slender and lightly built, and the skull was proportionally large, but delicate. The snout was narrow, and the upper jaw had a gap or kink below the nostril. It had a pair of longitudinal, plate-shaped crests on its skull, similar to a cassowary with two crests. The mandible was slender and delicate at the front, but deep at the back. The teeth were long, curved, thin, and compressed sideways. Those in the lower jaw were much smaller than those of the upper jaw. Most of the teeth had serrations at their front and back edges. The neck was long, and its vertebrae were hollow, and very light. The arms were powerful, with a long and slender upper arm bone. The hands had four fingers; the first was short but strong and bore a large claw, the two following fingers were longer and slenderer with smaller claws; the fourth was vestigial. The thigh bone was massive, the feet were stout, and the toes bore large claws.

Dilophosaurus is a member of the family Dilophosauridae along with Dracovenator, a group placed between the Coelophysidae and later theropods. Dilophosaurus would have been active and bipedal, and may have hunted large animals; it could also have fed on smaller animals and fish. Due to the limited range of movement and shortness of the fore limbs, the mouth may instead have made first contact with prey. The function of the crests is unknown; they were too weak for battle, but may have been used in visual display, such as species recognition and sexual selection. It may have grown rapidly, attaining a growth rate of 30 to 35 kg (66 to 77 lb) per year early in life. The holotype specimen had multiple paleopathologies, including healed injuries and signs of a developmental anomaly. Dilophosaurus is known from the Kayenta Formation, and lived alongside dinosaurs such as Megapnosaurus and Sarahsaurus.

Dilophosaurus was featured in the novel Jurassic Park and its movie adaptation, wherein it was given the fictional abilities to spit venom and expand a neck frill, as well as being smaller than the real animal.

The American lion (Panthera atrox), also known as the "North American lion", or "American cave lion", is an extinct pantherine cat that lived in North America during the Pleistocene epoch and the early Holocene epoch, about 340,000 to 11,000 years ago. Its fossils have been excavated from Alaska to Mexico. Genetic analysis has shown that the American lion and the Late Pleistocene Eurasian cave lion (Panthera spelaea) are sister lineages. It was about 25% larger than the modern lion, making it one of the largest known felids.

Nelson fired a wave of earth and it formed into the sauropod from 155 million years ago: Camerasaurus!

---

Camarasaurus (/ˌkæmərəˈsɔːrəs/ KAM-ər-ə-SAWR-əs) was a genus of quadrupedal, herbivorous dinosaurs. It was the most common of the giant sauropods to be found in North America. Its fossil remains have been found in the Morrison Formation of Colorado and Utah, dating to the Late Jurassic epoch (Kimmeridgian to Tithonian stages), between 155 and 145 million years ago.

Camarasaurus presented a distinctive cranial profile of a blunt snout and an arched skull that was remarkably square. It likely travelled in herds, or at least in family groups.

The name means "chambered lizard", referring to the hollow chambers in its vertebrae (Greek καμαρα (kamara) meaning "vaulted chamber", or anything with an arched cover, and σαυρος (sauros) meaning "lizard").

Naruto fired a wave of wind and it formed into the largest flying reptile that ever lived from 68 million years ago: Quetzalcoatlus!

---

Quetzalcoatlus /kɛtsəlkoʊˈætləs/ is a pterosaur known from the Late Cretaceous of North America (Maastrichtian stage) and one of the biggest known flying animals of all time. It is a member of the family Azhdarchidae, a family of advanced toothless pterosaurs with unusually long, stiffened necks. Its name comes from the Aztec feathered serpent god, Quetzalcoatl. The type and only species is Q. northropi.

Hinata: ICE STYLE NINJA ART: PACHYRHINOSAURUS!

Hinata fired a wave of ice and it formed into the ceratopsian from 73.5 million years ago: Pachyrhinosaurus!

---

Pachyrhinosaurus (meaning in Greek "thick-nosed lizard", from Παχυ (pachy), thick; ρινὀ (rinó), nose; and σαυρος (sauros), lizard) is an extinct genus of centrosaurine ceratopsid dinosaur from the Late Cretaceous period of North America. The first examples were discovered by Charles M. Sternberg in Alberta, Canada, in 1946, and named in 1950. Over a dozen partial skulls and a large assortment of other fossils from various species have been found in Alberta and Alaska. A great number were not available for study until the 1980s, resulting in a relatively recent increase of interest in Pachyrhinosaurus.

Three species have been identified. P. lakustai, from the Wapiti Formation, the bonebed horizon of which is roughly equivalent age to the upper Bearpaw and lower Horseshoe Canyon Formations, is known to have existed from about 73.5-72.5 million years ago. P. canadensis is younger, known from the lower Horseshoe Canyon Formation, about 71.5-71 Ma ago and the St. Mary River Formation. Fossils of the youngest species, P. perotorum, have been recovered from the Prince Creek Formation of Alaska, and date to 70-69 Ma ago. The presence of three known species makes this genus the most speciose among the centrosaurines.

Kiba: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: POSTOSUCHUS!

Kiba fired a wave of earth and it formed into the rauisuchid from 221 million years ago: Postosuchus!

---

Postosuchus, meaning "Crocodile from Post", is an extinct genus of rauisuchid reptiles comprising two species, P. kirkpatricki and P. alisonae, that lived in what is now North America during the Late

Triassic. Postosuchus is a member of the clade Pseudosuchia, the lineage of archosaurs that includes modern crocodilians (the other main group of archosaurs is Avemetatarsalia, the lineage that includes non-avian dinosaurs and their descendants, birds). Its name refers to Post Quarry, a place in Texas where many fossils of the type species, P. kirkpatricki, were found. It was one of the apex predators of its area during the Triassic, larger than the small dinosaur predators of its time (such as Coelophysis). It was a hunter which probably preyed on large large bulky herbivores like dicynodonts and many other creatures smaller than itself (such as early dinosaurs).

The skeleton of Postosuchus is large and robust with a deep skull and a long tail. The total body length is about 4 to 5 metres (13 to 16 ft). The extreme shortness of the forelimbs relative to the hind limbs, the very small hands, and measurements of the vertebrae suggest that Postosuchus may have been committed to bipedal locomotion.

Rock Lee: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: MOSCHOPS!

Rock Lee fired a wave of earth and it formed into the therapsid from 265 million years ago: Moschops!

---

Moschops (Greek for "calf face") is an extinct genus of therapsids that lived in the Guadalupian epoch, around 265-260 million years ago. They were heavily built plant eaters, and they may have lived partly in water, as hippopotamuses do. They had short, thick heads and might have competed by head-butting each other. Their elbow joints allowed them to walk with a more mammal-like gait rather than crawling. Their remains were found in the Karoo region of South Africa, belonging to the Tapinocephalus Assemblage Zone. Therapsids, such as Moschops, are synapsids, the dominant land animals in the Permian period, which ended 252 million years ago.

Tenten: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: ANKYLOSAURUS!

Tenten fired a wave of earth and it formed into the armored dinosaur from 68 million years ago: Ankylosaurus!

Ankylosaurus is a genus of armored dinosaur. Its fossils have been found in geological formations dating to the very end of the Cretaceous Period, about 68-66 million years ago, in western North America, making it among the last of the non-avian dinosaurs. It was named by Barnum Brown in 1908; the only species in the genus is A. magniventris. The genus name means "fused lizard", and the specific name means "great belly". A handful of specimens have been excavated to date, but a complete skeleton has not been discovered. Though other members of Ankylosauria are represented by more extensive fossil material, Ankylosaurus is often considered the archetypal member of its group, despite having some unusual features.

Possibly the largest-known ankylosaurid, Ankylosaurus is estimated to have been between 6 and 8 meters (20 and 26 ft) long and to have weighed between 4.8 and 8 metric tons (5.3 and 8.8 short tons). It was quadrupedal, with a broad, robust body. It had a wide, low skull, with two horns pointing backward from the back of the head, and two horns below these that pointed backward and down. Unlike other ankylosaurs, its nostrils faced sideways rather than towards the front. The front part of the jaws was covered in a beak, with rows of small, leaf-shaped teeth farther behind it. It was covered in armor plates, or osteoderms, with bony half-rings covering the neck, and had a large club on the end of its tail. Bones in the skull and other parts of the body were fused, increasing their strength, and this feature is the source of the genus name.

Ankylosaurus is a member of the family Ankylosauridae, and its closest relatives appear to be Anodontosaurus and Euoplocephalus. Ankylosaurus is thought to have been a slow-moving animal, able to make quick movements when necessary. Its broad muzzle indicates it was a non-selective browser. Sinuses and nasal chambers in the snout may have been for heat and water balance or may have played a role in vocalization. The tail club is thought to have been used in defense against predators or in intraspecific combat. Ankylosaurus has been found in the Hell Creek, Lance, Scollard, Frenchman, and Ferris formations, but appears to have been rare in its environment. Although it lived alongside a nodosaurid ankylosaur, their ranges and ecological niches do not appear to have overlapped, and Ankylosaurus may have inhabited upland areas. Ankylosaurus also lived alongside dinosaurs such as Tyrannosaurus, Triceratops, and Edmontosaurus.

Ino: FIRE STYLE NINJA ART: MASSOSPONDYLUS!

Ino fired a wave of fire and it formed into the sauropodomorph dinosaur from 200 million years ago: Massospondylus!

---

Massospondylus (/ˌmæsoʊ'spɒndɪləs/ mas-oh-SPON-di-ləs; from Greek, μάσσων (massōn, "longer") and σπόνδυλος (spondylos, "vertebra")) is a genus of sauropodomorph dinosaur from the Early Jurassic Period (Hettangian to Pliensbachian ages, ca. 200-183 million years ago). It was described by Sir Richard Owen in 1854 from remains discovered in South Africa, and is thus one of the first dinosaurs to have been named. Fossils have since been found at other locations in South Africa, Lesotho, and Zimbabwe. Material from Arizona's Kayenta Formation, India, and Argentina has been assigned to this genus at various times, but the Arizonan and Argentinian material are now assigned to other genera.

The type species is M. carinatus; seven other species have been named during the past 150 years, but only M. kaalae among these is still considered valid. Early sauropodomorphs systematics have undergone numerous revisions during the last several years, and many scientists disagree where exactly Massospondylus lies on the dinosaur evolutionary tree. The family name Massospondylidae was once coined for the genus, but because knowledge of early sauropodomorph relationships is in a state of flux, it is unclear which other dinosaurs-if any-belong in a natural grouping of massospondylids; several 2007 papers support the family's validity.

Although Massospondylus was long depicted as quadrupedal, a 2007 study found it to be bipedal. It was probably a plant eater (herbivore), although it is speculated that the early sauropodomorphs may have been omnivorous. This animal, which was 4-6 metres (13-20 ft) long, had a long neck and tail, with a small head and slender body. On each of its forefeet, it bore a sharp thumb claw that was used in defense or feeding. Recent studies indicate that Massospondylus grew steadily throughout its lifespan, possessed air sacs similar to those of birds, and may have cared for its young.

Haku: ICE STYLE NINJA ART: AMERICAN MASTODON!

Haku fired a wave of ice and it formed into the ancestral elephant of the Great Ice Age from 5.3 million to 10,000 years ago: The American Mastodon!

---

A mastodon (Greek: μαστός "breast" and ὀδούς, "tooth") is any proboscidean belonging to the extinct genus Mammut (family Mammutidae) that inhabited North and Central America during the late Miocene or late Pliocene up to their extinction at the end of the Pleistocene 10,000 to 11,000 years ago. Mastodons lived in herds and were predominantly forest-dwelling animals that lived on a mixed diet obtained by browsing and grazing, somewhat similar to their distant relatives, modern elephants, but probably with greater emphasis on browsing.

M. americanum, the American mastodon, and M. pacificus, the Pacific mastodon, are the youngest and best-known species of the genus. Mastodons disappeared from North America as part of a mass extinction of most of the Pleistocene megafauna, widely believed to have been caused by overexploitation by Clovis hunters.

Sasuke: LIGHTNING STYLE NINJA ART: COMPSOGNATHUS!

Sasuke fired a wave of lightning and it formed into the fast carnivore from 150.8 million years ago: Compsognathus!

---

Compsognathus (/kɒmp'sɒgnəθəs/; Greek kompsos/κομψός; "elegant", "refined" or "dainty", and gnathos/γνάθος; "jaw") is a genus of small, bipedal, carnivorous theropod dinosaur. Members of its single species Compsognathus longipes could grow to around the size of a turkey. They lived about 150 million years ago, during the Tithonian age of the late Jurassic period, in what is now Europe. Paleontologists have found two well-preserved fossils, one in Germany in the 1850s and the second in France more than a century later. Today, C. longipes is the only recognized species, although the larger specimen discovered in France in the 1970s was once thought to belong to a separate species and named C. corallestris.

Many presentations still describe Compsognathus as "chicken-sized" dinosaurs because of the size of the German specimen, which is now believed to be a juvenile. Compsognathus longipes is one of the few dinosaur species whose diet is known with certainty: the remains of small, agile lizards are preserved in the bellies of both specimens. Teeth discovered in Portugal may be further fossil remains of the genus.

Although not recognized as such at the time of its discovery, Compsognathus is the first theropod dinosaur known from a reasonably complete fossil skeleton. Until the 1990s, it was the smallest-known non-avialan dinosaur, with the preceding centuries incorrectly labelling them as the closest relative of Archaeopteryx.

Fu: ARTHROPOD STYLE NINJA ART: BRONTOSCORPIO!

Fu fired a wave of energy and it formed into the Silurian early scorpions from over 423 million years ago: Brontoscorpio!

---

Brontoscorpio anglicus is a species of fossil scorpion. Its remains were discovered in Upper Silurian-aged sandstone from Trimpley, Worcestershire, and the species was described on the basis of an incomplete single free finger of a pedipalp, almost 10 centimetres (3.9 in) long. The complete animal is estimated to have been at least 90 centimetres (35 in) long.

The remains were found in terrestrial sediments, but it is believed, that due to its size, Brontoscorpio had to enter the water to molt. Possibly it lived a semi or fully aquatic life.

Shino: ARTHROPOD STYLE NINJA ART: ARTHROPLEURA!

Shino fired a wave of energy and it formed into the Carboniferous Trilobite from 345 million years ago: Arthropleura!

Arthropleura (Greek for jointed ribs) is a genus of extinct millipede arthropods that lived in what is now northeastern North America and Scotland around 345 to 295 million years ago, from the Viséan stage of the lower Carboniferous Period to the Asselian stage of the lower Permian Period. The larger species of the genus are the largest known land invertebrates of all time, and would have had few, if any, predators.

Zabuza: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: SARCOSUCHUS!

Zabuza fired a wave of water and it formed into the largest crocodilian dinosaur ever known from 133 million years ago: Sarcosuchus!

---

Sarcosuchus (/ˌsɑːrkoʊˈsuːkəs/; meaning "flesh crocodile") is an extinct genus of crocodyliform and distant relative of living crocodylians that lived during the Early Cretaceous, from the late Hauterivian to the early Albian, 133 to 112 million years ago of what is now Africa and South America. It was one of the largest crocodile-line reptiles, reaching an average estimate of 9 m (30 ft) and 3.5 metric tons (3.9 short tons), but estimated to grow up to 9.5 m (31 ft) in body length and weigh up to 4.3 metric tons (4.7 short tons). It is known from two species, S. imperator from the early Albian Elrhaz Formation of Niger and S. hartti from the Late Hauterivian of northeastern Brazil, other material is known from Morocco and Tunisia and possibly Libya and Mali.

The first remains were discovered during several expeditions led by the French paleontologist Albert-Félix de Lapparent, spanning from 1946 to 1959, in the Sahara. These remains were fragments of the skull, vertebrae, teeth, and scutes. In 1964, an almost complete skull was found in Niger by the French CEA, but it was not until 1997 and 2000 that most of its anatomy became known to science, when an expedition led by the American paleontologist Paul Sereno discovered six new specimens, including one with about half the skeleton intact and most of the spine.

Kabuto: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: PARASAUROLOPHUS!

Kabuto fired a wave of water and it formed into a herd of beautiful hadrosaurs from 76.5 million years ago: Parasaurolophus!

---

Parasaurolophus (/ˌpærəsɔːˈrɒləfəs, -ˌsɔːrəˈloʊfəs/; meaning "near crested lizard" in reference to Saurolophus) is a genus of herbivorous ornithopod dinosaur that lived in what is now North America and possibly Asia during the Late Cretaceous Period, about 76.5-73 million years ago. It was an herbivore that walked both as a biped and as a quadruped. Three species are universally recognized: P. walkeri (the type species), P. tubicen, and the short-crested P. cyrtocristatus. Additionally, a fourth species, P. jiayensis, has been proposed, although it is more commonly placed in the separate genus Charonosaurus. Remains are known from Alberta (Canada), New Mexico and Utah (United States), and possibly Heilongjiang, (China). The genus was first described in 1922 by William Parks from a skull and partial skeleton found in Alberta.

Parasaurolophus was a hadrosaurid, part of a diverse family of Cretaceous dinosaurs known for their range of bizarre head adornments. This genus is known for its large, elaborate cranial crest, which at its largest forms a long curved tube projecting upwards and back from the skull. Charonosaurus from China, which may have been its closest relative, had a similar skull and potentially a similar crest. Visual recognition of both species and sex, acoustic resonance, and thermoregulation have been proposed as functional explanations for the crest. It is one of the rarer hadrosaurids, known from only a handful of good specimens.

Finn: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: LAMBEOSAURUS!

Finn fired a wave of water and it formed into a heard of hadrosaurs from 76 million years ago: Lambeosaurus!

Lambeosaurus (/ˌlæmbioʊˈsɔːrəs/ LAM-bee-o-SAWR-əs; meaning

"Lambe's lizard") is a genus of hadrosaurid dinosaur that lived about 75 million years ago, in the Late Cretaceous period (Campanian stage) of North America. This bipedal/quadrupedal, herbivorous dinosaur is known for its distinctive hollow cranial crest, which in the best-known species resembled a hatchet. Several possible species have been named, from Canada, the United States, and Mexico, but only the two Canadian species are currently recognized as valid.

Material relevant to the genus was first named by Lawrence Lambe in 1902. Over twenty years later, the modern name was coined in 1923 by William Parks, in honour of Lambe, based on better preserved specimens. The genus has a complicated taxonomic history, in part because small-bodied crested hadrosaurids now recognized as juveniles were once thought to belong to their own genera and species. Currently, the various skulls assigned to the type species L. lambei are interpreted as showing age differences and sexual dimorphism. Lambeosaurus was closely related to the better known Corythosaurus, which is found in slightly older rocks, as well as the less well-known genera Hypacrosaurus and Olorotitan. All had unusual crests, which are now generally assumed to have served social functions like noisemaking and recognition.

Jake the Dog: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: TSINTAOSAURUS!

Jake fired a wave of water and it formed into a herd of hadrosaurs from 70 million years ago: Tsintaosaurus!

Tsintaosaurus (/tʃɪŋdaʊˈsɔːrəs/; meaning "Qingdao lizard", after the old transliteration "Tsingtao") is a genus of hadrosaurid dinosaur from China. It was about 8.3 metres (27 ft) long and weighed 2.5 tonnes. The type species is Tsintaosaurus spinorhinus, first described by Chinese paleontologist C. C. Young in 1958.

A hadrosaur, Tsintaosaurus had a characteristic 'duck bill' snout and a battery of powerful teeth which it used to chew vegetation. It usually walked on all fours, but could rear up on its hind legs to scout for predators and flee when it spotted one. Like other hadrosaurs, Tsintaosaurus probably lived in herds.

Flame Princess: FIRE STYLE NINJA ART: CARCHARODONTOSAURUS!

Flame Princess fired a wave of fire and it formed into theropod from 100 million years ago: Carcharodontosaurus!

---

Carcharodontosaurus /ˌkɑːrkəroʊˌdɒntoʊ'sɔːrəs/ is a genus of carnivorous carcharodontosaurid dinosaurs that existed during the Cenomanian stage of the mid-Cretaceous Period in Northern Africa. It is currently known to include two species: C. saharicus and C. iguidensis, which are among the larger theropods, nearly as large as or even larger than Tyrannosaurus, Giganotosaurus, and Spinosaurus.

The genus Carcharodontosaurus is named after the shark genus Carcharodon, itself composed of the Greek karchar[os] (κάρχαρος, meaning "jagged" or "sharp") and odōn (ὀδών, "teeth"), and the suffix -saurus ("lizard").

Mario: (Italian Accent) WATER STYLE NINJA ART: CORYTHOSAURUS!

Mario fired a wave of water and it formed into the hadrosaur from 77 million years ago: Corythosaurus!

---

Corythosaurus /ˌkɒrɪθoʊ'sɔːrəs/ is a genus of hadrosaurid "duck-billed" dinosaur from the Upper Cretaceous Period, about 77-75.7 million years ago. It lived in what is now North America. Its name means "helmet lizard", derived from Greek κόρυς. It was named and described in 1914 by Barnum Brown. Corythosaurus is now thought to be a lambeosaurine, related to Nipponosaurus, Velafrons, Hypacrosaurus, and Olorotitan. Corythosaurus has an estimated length of 9 metres (30 ft), and has a skull, including the crest, that is 70.8 centimetres (27.9 in; 2.32 ft) tall.

Corythosaurus is known from many complete specimens, including the nearly complete holotype found by Brown in 1911. The holotype skeleton is only missing the last section of the tail, and part of the forelimbs, but was preserved with impressions of polygonal scales. Corythosaurus is known from many skulls with tall crests. The crests resemble the crests of the cassowary and a Corinthian helmet. The most likely function of the crest is thought to be vocalization. As in a trombone, sound waves would travel through many chambers in the crest, and then get amplified when Corythosaurus exhaled. A Corythosaurus specimen has been preserved with its last meal in its chest cavity. Inside the cavity were remains of conifer needles, seeds, twigs, and fruits: Corythosaurus probably fed on all of these.

The two species of Corythosaurus are both present in slightly different levels of the Dinosaur Park Formation. Both still co-existed with theropods and other ornithischians, like Daspletosaurus, Brachylophosaurus, Parasaurolophus, Scolosaurus, and Chasmosaurus.

Luigi: (Italian Accent) ARTHROPOD STYLE NINJA ART: MEGANEURA!

Luigi fired a wave of energy and it formed into a swarm of the Carboniferous dragonflies from 305 million years ago: Meganeura!

---

Meganeura is a genus of extinct insects from the Carboniferous period (approximately 300 million years ago), which resembled and are related to the present-day dragonflies. With wingspans ranging from 65 cm (25.6 in) to over 70 cm (28 in), M. monyi is one of the largest-known flying insect species. Meganeura were predatory, with their diet mainly consisting of other insects.

Wing venation of Meganeura monyi, redrawn after Brongniart (1893, Pl. XLI)

Fossils were discovered in the French Stephanian Coal Measures of Commentry in 1880. In 1885, French paleontologist Charles Brongniart described and named the fossil "Meganeura" (large-nerved), which refers to the network of veins on the insect's wings. Another fine fossil specimen was found in 1979 at Bolsover in Derbyshire. The holotype is housed in the National Museum of Natural History, in Paris.

Mei Terumi: OCEAN STYLE NINJA ART: MEGALODON!

Mei fired a wave of water and it formed into the largest and most meanest shark ever to swim the ocean and the ancestor of the Great White Shark from 23 million years ago.

---

Megalodon (Carcharocles megalodon), meaning "big tooth", is an extinct species of shark that lived approximately 23 to 3.6 million years ago (mya), during the Early Miocene to the Pliocene. It was formerly thought to be a member of the family Lamnidae and a close relative of the great white shark (Carcharodon carcharias). However, it is now classified into the extinct family Otodontidae, which diverged from the great white shark during the Early Cretaceous. Its genus placement is still debated, authors placing it in either Carcharocles, Megaselachus, Otodus, or Procarcharodon. This is because transitional fossils have been found showing that Megalodon is the final chronospecies of a lineage of giant sharks originally of the genus Otodus which evolved during the Paleocene.

While regarded as one of the largest and most powerful predators to have ever lived, megalodon is known from fragmentary remains, and its appearance and maximum size are uncertain. Scientists differ on whether it would have more closely resembled a stockier version of the great white shark, the basking shark (Cetorhinus maximus) or the sand tiger shark (Carcharias taurus). Most estimates of megalodon's size extrapolate from teeth; with maximum length estimates up to 18 meters (59 ft) and average length estimates of 10.5 meters (34 ft). Estimates suggest their large jaws could exert a bite force of up to 110,000 to 180,000 newtons (25,000 to 40,000 lbf). Their teeth were thick and robust, built for grabbing prey and breaking bone.

Megalodon probably had a major impact on the structure of marine communities. The fossil record indicates that it had a cosmopolitan distribution. It probably targeted large prey, such as whales, seals and sea turtles. Juveniles inhabited warm coastal waters and fed on fish and small whales. Unlike the great white, which attacks prey from the soft underside, megalodon probably used its strong jaws to break through the chest cavity and puncture the heart and lungs of its prey.

The animal faced competition from whale-eating cetaceans, such as Livyatan and other macroraptorial sperm whales and possibly smaller ancestral killer whales. As the shark preferred warmer waters, it is thought that oceanic cooling associated with the onset of the ice ages, coupled with the lowering of sea levels and resulting loss of suitable nursery areas, may have also contributed to its decline. A reduction in the diversity of baleen whales and a shift in their distribution toward polar regions may have reduced megalodon's primary food source. A 2019 study reviewed newer evidence suggesting that competition from the modern great white shark may have also contributed to the extinction of megalodon, coupled with range fragmentation resulting in a gradual, asynchronous extinction as a result of cooling oceans around 3.6-4 million years ago, far earlier than previously assumed. The extinction of the shark appeared to affect other animals; for example, the size of baleen whales increased significantly after the shark had disappeared.

Carol: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: STEGOSAURUS!

Carol fired a wave of Earth and it formed into the awesome dinosaur from 155 million years ago: Stegosaurus!

Stegosaurus (/ˌstɛɡə'sɔːrəs/), from Greek stegos (στέγος), which means roof, and sauros (σαῦρος), which means lizard, is a genus of herbivorous thyreophoran dinosaur. Fossils of this genus date to the Late Jurassic period, where they are found in Kimmeridgian to early Tithonian aged strata, between 155 and 150 million years ago, in the western United States and Portugal. Of the species that have been classified in the upper Morrison Formation of the western US, only three are universally recognized; S. stenops, S. ungulatus and S. sulcatus. The remains of over 80 individual animals of this genus have been found. Stegosaurus would have lived alongside dinosaurs such as Apatosaurus, Diplodocus, Brachiosaurus, Allosaurus, and Ceratosaurus; the latter two may have preyed on it.

These were large, heavily built, herbivorous quadrupeds with rounded backs, short fore limbs, long hind limbs, and tails held high in the air. Due to their distinctive combination of broad, upright plates and tail tipped with spikes, Stegosaurus is one of the most recognizable kinds of dinosaurs. The function of this array of plates and spikes has been the subject of much speculation among scientists. Today, it is generally agreed that their spiked tails were most likely used for defense against predators, while their plates may have been used primarily for display, and secondarily for thermoregulatory functions. Stegosaurus had a relatively low brain-to-body mass ratio. It had a short neck and a small head, meaning it most likely ate low-lying bushes and shrubs. One species, Stegosaurus ungulatus, is the largest known of all the stegosaurians (bigger than related dinosaurs such as Kentrosaurus and Huayangosaurus).

Stegosaurus remains were first identified during the "Bone Wars" by Othniel Charles Marsh at Dinosaur Ridge National Landmark. The first known skeletons were fragmentary and the bones were scattered, and it would be many years before the true appearance of these animals, including their posture and plate arrangement, became well understood. Despite its popularity in books and film, mounted skeletons of Stegosaurus did not become a staple of major natural history museums until the mid-20th century, and many museums have had to assemble composite displays from several different specimens due to a lack of complete skeletons. Stegosaurus is one of the better-known dinosaurs, and has been featured in film, postal stamps, and many other types of media.

Beast Boy: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: TRICERATOPS!

Beast Boy fired a wave of earth and it formed into the fierce dinosaur from 68 million years ago: Triceratops!

---

Triceratops is a genus of herbivorous ceratopsid dinosaur that first appeared during the late Maastrichtian stage of the late Cretaceous period, about 68 million years ago (mya) in what is now North America. It is one of the last known non-avian dinosaur genera, and became extinct in the Cretaceous-Paleogene extinction event 66 million years ago. The name Triceratops, which literally means "three-horned face", is derived from the Ancient Greek words τρί- (tri-) meaning "three", κέρας (kéras) meaning "horn", and ὤψ (ōps) meaning "face".

Triceratops has been documented by numerous remains collected since the genus was first described in 1889 by Othniel Charles Marsh. Specimens representing life stages from hatchling to adult have been found. As the archetypal ceratopsid, Triceratops is one of the most popular dinosaurs, and has been featured in film, postal stamps, and many other types of media.

Bearing a large bony frill and three horns on the skull, and its large four-legged body possessing similarities with the modern rhinoceros, Triceratops is one of the most recognizable of all dinosaurs and the best-known ceratopsid. It was also one of the largest, up to 9 meters (29.5 ft) long and 12 metric tons (13 short tons) in weight. It shared the landscape with and was probably preyed upon by Tyrannosaurus, though it is less certain that the two did battle in the fanciful manner often depicted in museum displays and popular images. The functions of the frills and three distinctive facial horns on its head have long inspired debate. Traditionally, these have been viewed as defensive weapons against predators. More recent interpretations find it probable that these features were primarily used in species identification, courtship and dominance display, much like the antlers and horns of modern ungulates.

Triceratops was traditionally placed within the "short-frilled" ceratopsids but modern cladistic studies show it to be a member of the Chasmosaurinae which usually have long frills. Two species, T. horridus and T. prorsus, are considered valid today, from the seventeen species that have ever been named. Research published in 2010 concluded that the contemporaneous Torosaurus, a ceratopsid long regarded as a separate genus, represents Triceratops in its mature form. This view was immediately disputed with examination of more fossil evidence needed to settle the debate.

Linka: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: TOROSAURUS!

Linka fired a wave of earth and it formed into the ceratopsian from 68 million years ago: Torosaurus!

---

Torosaurus ("perforated lizard", in reference to the large openings in its frill) is a genus of herbivorous ceratopsid dinosaur that lived during the late Maastrichtian stage of the Cretaceous period, between 68 and 66 million years ago, though it is possible that the species range might extend to as far as 69 million years ago. Fossils have been discovered across the Western Interior of North America, from Saskatchewan to southern Texas.

Torosaurus possessed one of the largest skulls of any known land animal. The frilled skull reached up to 2.77 metres (9.1 ft) in length. From head to tail, Torosaurus is thought to have measured about 8 to 9 m (26 to 30 ft) long and weighed four to six tonnes. Torosaurus is distinguished from the contemporary Triceratops by an elongate frill with large openings (fenestrae), long squamosal bones of the frill with a trough on their upper surface, and the presence of five or more pairs of hornlets (epoccipitals) on the back of the frill. Torosaurus also lacked the long nose horn seen in Triceratops prorsus, and instead resembled the earlier and more basal Triceratops horridus in having a short nose horn. Three species have been named, Torosaurus latus, T. gladius and T. utahensis. T. gladius is no longer considered a valid species, however.

In 2010, the validity of Torosaurus was disputed. A study of fossil bone histology combined with an investigation of frill shape concluded that Torosaurus probably represented the mature form of Triceratops, with the bones of typical Triceratops specimens still immature and showing signs of a first development of distinct Torosaurus frill holes. During maturation, the skull frill would have been greatly lengthened and holes would have appeared in it. In 2011, 2012 and 2013 however, studies of external features of known specimens have claimed that morphological differences between the two genera preclude their synonymy. The main problems are a lack of good transitional forms, the apparent existence of authentic Torosaurus subadults, different skull proportions independent of maturation and the assertion that hole formation at an adult stage is not part of a normal ceratopsian maturation sequence.

Paula: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: NASUTOCERATOPS!

Paula fired a wave of earth and it formed into the ceratopsian from 75.9 million years ago: Nasutoceratops!

---

Nasutoceratops is an extinct genus of ceratopsian dinosaur. It is a basal centrosaurine which lived during the Late Cretaceous Period (late Campanian, about 76.0-75.5 Ma). Fossils have been found in southern Utah, United States. Nasutoceratops was a large, ground-dwelling, quadrupedal herbivore with a short snout and unique rounded horns above its eyes that have been likened to those of modern cattle. Extending almost to the tip of its snout, these horns are the longest of all the members of the centrosaurine subfamily. The presence of pneumatic elements in the nasal bones of Nasutoceratops are a unique trait and are unknown in any other ceratopsid. Nasutoceratops, Diabloceratops, and Machairoceratops are the only three centrosaurine dinosaurs from the American southwest.

---

Styracosaurus (/stɪˌrækəˈsɔːrəs/ sti-RAK-ə-SOR-əs; meaning "spiked lizard" from the Ancient Greek styrax/στύραξ "spike at the butt-end of a spear-shaft" and sauros/σαῦρος "lizard") is a genus of herbivorous ceratopsian dinosaur from the Cretaceous Period (Campanian stage), about 75.5 to 75 million years ago. It had four to six long parietal spikes extending from its neck frill, a smaller jugal horn on each of its cheeks, and a single horn protruding from its nose, which may have been up to 60 centimetres (2 feet) long and 15 centimetres (6 inches) wide. The function or functions of the horns and frills have been debated for many years.

Styracosaurus was a relatively large dinosaur, reaching lengths of 5.5 metres (18 feet) and weighing nearly 3 tonnes. It stood about 1.8 meters (5.9 feet) tall. Styracosaurus possessed four short legs and a bulky body. Its tail was rather short. The skull had a beak and shearing cheek teeth arranged in continuous dental batteries, suggesting that the animal sliced up plants. Like other ceratopsians, this dinosaur may have been a herd animal, travelling in large groups, as suggested by bonebeds.

Named by Lawrence Lambe in 1913, Styracosaurus is a member of the Centrosaurinae. One species, S. albertensis, is currently assigned to Styracosaurus. Another species, S. ovatus, named in 1930 by Charles Gilmore was reassigned to a new genus, Rubeosaurus, by Andrew McDonald and Jack Horner in 2010.

She-Hulk fired a wave of earth and it formed into the ramming dinosaur from 70 million years ago: Pachycephalosaurus!

---

Pachycephalosaurus (/ˌpækɪˌsɛfələ'sɔːrəs/; meaning "thick-headed lizard," from Greek pachys-/παχύς- "thick", kephale/κεφαλή "head" and sauros/σαῦρος "lizard") is a genus of pachycephalosaurid dinosaurs. The type species, P. wyomingensis, is the only known species. It lived during the Late Cretaceous Period (Maastrichtian stage) of what is now North America. Remains have been excavated in Montana, South Dakota, Wyoming and Alberta. It was a herbivorous creature which is primarily known from a single skull and a few extremely thick skull roofs, though more complete fossils have been found in recent years. Pachycephalosaurus was one of the last non-avian dinosaurs before the Cretaceous-Paleogene extinction event. Another dinosaur, Tylosteus of western North America, has been synonymized with Pachycephalosaurus, as have the genera Stygimoloch and Dracorex in recent studies.

Like other pachycephalosaurids, Pachycephalosaurus was a bipedal herbivore with an extremely thick skull roof. It possessed long hindlimbs and small forelimbs. Pachycephalosaurus is the largest-known pachycephalosaur. The thick skull domes of Pachycephalosaurus and related genera gave rise to the hypothesis that pachycephalosaurs used their skulls in intra-species combat. This hypothesis has been disputed in recent years.

Rarity: CRYSTAL STYLE NINJA ART: PLATEOSAURUS!

Rarity fired a wave of crystal and it formed into the protosauropod from 214 million years ago: Plateosaurus!

---

Plateosaurus (probably meaning "broad lizard", often mistranslated as "flat lizard") is a genus of plateosaurid dinosaur that lived during the Late Triassic period, around 214 to 204 million years ago, in what is now Central and Northern Europe and Greenland, North America. Plateosaurus is a basal (early) sauropodomorph dinosaur, a so-called "prosauropod". As of 2011, two species are recognised: the type species P. engelhardti from the late Norian and Rhaetian, and the slightly earlier P. gracilis from the lower Norian. However, others have been assigned in the past, and there is no broad consensus on the species taxonomy of plateosaurid dinosaurs. Similarly, there are a plethora of synonyms (invalid duplicate names) at the genus level.

Discovered in 1834 by Johann Friedrich Engelhardt and described three years later by Hermann von Meyer, Plateosaurus was the fifth named dinosaur genus that is still considered valid. Although it had been described before Richard Owen formally named Dinosauria in 1842, it was not one of the three genera used by Owen to define the group, because at the time, it was poorly known and difficult to identify as a dinosaur. It is now among the dinosaurs best known to science: over 100 skeletons have been found, some of them nearly complete. The abundance of its fossils in Swabia, Germany, has led to the nickname Schwäbischer Lindwurm (Swabian lindworm).

Plateosaurus was a bipedal herbivore with a small skull on a long, flexible neck, sharp but plump plant-crushing teeth, powerful hind limbs, short but muscular arms and grasping hands with large claws on three fingers, possibly used for defence and feeding. Unusually for a dinosaur, Plateosaurus showed strong developmental plasticity: instead of having a fairly uniform adult size, fully grown individuals were between 4.8 and 10 metres (16 and 33 ft) long and weighed between 600 and 4,000 kilograms (1,300 and 8,800 lb). Commonly, the animals lived for at least 12 to 20 years, but the maximum life span is not known.

Despite the great quantity and excellent quality of the fossil material, Plateosaurus was for a long time one of the most misunderstood dinosaurs. Some researchers proposed theories that were later shown to conflict with geological and palaeontological evidence, but have become the paradigm of public opinion. Since 1980 the taxonomy (relationships), taphonomy (how the animals became embedded and fossilised), biomechanics (how their skeletons worked), and palaeobiology (life circumstances) of Plateosaurus have been re-studied in detail, altering the interpretation of the animal's biology, posture and behaviour.

Kentrosaurus (/ˌkɛntroʊˈsɔːrəs/ KEN-tro-SAWR-əs) is a genus of stegosaurian dinosaur from the Late Jurassic of Tanzania. The type species is K. aethiopicus, named and described by German palaeontologist Edwin Hennig in 1915. Often thought to be a "primitive" member of the Stegosauria, several recent cladistic analyses find it as more derived than many other stegosaurs, and a close relative of Stegosaurus from the North American Morrison Formation within the Stegosauridae.

Fossils of K. aethiopicus have been found only in the Tendaguru Formation, dated to the late Kimmeridgian and early Tithonian ages, about 152 million years ago. Hundreds of bones were unearthed by German expeditions to German East Africa between 1909 and 1912. Although no complete skeletons are known, the remains provided a nearly complete picture of the build of the animal.

Kentrosaurus generally measured around 4.5 metres (15 ft) in length as an adult, and weighed about one tonne (1.1 tons). It walked on all fours with straight hindlimbs. It had a small, elongated head with a beak used to bite off plant material that would be digested in a large gut. It had a, probably double, row of small plates running down its neck and back. These plates gradually merged into spikes on the hip and tail. The longest spikes were on the tail end and were used to actively defend the animal. There also was a long spike on each shoulder. The thigh bones come in two different types, suggesting that one sex was larger and more stout than the other.

James (Pokemon): EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: LYSTROSAURUS!

James fired a wave of earth and it formed into the Dicynodont from 255 million years ago: Lystrosaurus!

---

Lystrosaurus (/ˌlɪstroʊˈsɔːrəs/; 'shovel lizard'; proper Greek is λίστρον lístron 'tool for leveling or smoothing, shovel, spade, hoe') was a herbivorous genus of dicynodont therapsids from the late Permian and Early Triassic epochs (around 250 million years ago). It lived in what is now Antarctica, India, China, Mongolia, European Russia and South Africa. Four to six species are currently recognized, although from the 1930s to 1970s the number of species was thought to be much higher. They ranged in size from that of a small dog to 2.5 meters long.

Being a dicynodont, Lystrosaurus had only two teeth (a pair of tusk-like canines), and is thought to have had a horny beak that was used for biting off pieces of vegetation. Lystrosaurus was a heavily built, herbivorous animal, approximately the size of a pig. The structure of its shoulders and hip joints suggests that Lystrosaurus moved with a semi-sprawling gait. The forelimbs were even more robust than the hindlimbs, and the animal is thought to have been a powerful digger that nested in burrows.

Lystrosaurus survived the Permian-Triassic extinction, 252 million years ago. In the Early Triassic, they were by far the most common terrestrial vertebrates, accounting for as many as 95% of the total individuals in some fossil beds. Researchers have offered various hypotheses for why Lystrosaurus survived the extinction event and prospered in the early Triassic.

Kitten: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: MACRAUCHENIA!

Kitten fired a wave of earth and it formed into the ancestor of the llama from 7 million years ago: Macrauchenia!

---

Macrauchenia ("long llama", based on the now superseded Latin term for llamas, Auchenia, from Greek "big neck") was a large, long-necked and long-limbed, three-toed native South American mammal in the order Litopterna. The genus gives its name to its family, the Macraucheniidae or "robust litopterns". Like other litopterns, it is not closely related to any living mammal, being most closely related to the group containing horses, rhinos and tapirs (the Perissodactyla), from which litopterns diverged approximately 66 million years ago. The oldest fossils in the genus date to the late Miocene, around seven million years ago, and M. patachonica disappears from the fossil record during the late Pleistocene, around 20,000-10,000 years ago. M. patachonica is one of the last and best known member of the family and is known primarily from the Luján Formation in Argentina, but is known from localities across southern South America. Another genus of macraucheniid Xenorhinotherium was present in northeast Brazil and Venezuela during the Late Pleistocene. The type specimen was discovered by Charles Darwin during the voyage of the Beagle. In life, Macrauchenia may have resembled a humpless camel, though the two taxa are not closely related. It fed on plants in a variety of environments across what is now South America. Among the species described, M. patachonica and M. ullomensis are considered valid; M. boliviensis is considered a nomen dubium; and M. antiqua (or M. antiquus) has been moved to the genus Promacrauchenia.

Tuddrussel: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: ALBERTOSAURUS!

Tuddrussel fired a wave of earth and it formed into the theropod from 71 million years ago: Albertosaurus!

---

Albertosaurus (/ælˌbɜːrtəˈsɔːrəs/; meaning "Alberta lizard") is a genus of tyrannosaurid theropod dinosaurs that lived in western North America during the Late Cretaceous Period, about 70 million years ago. The type species, A. sarcophagus, was apparently restricted in range to the modern-day Canadian province of Alberta, after which the genus is named, although an indeterminate species ("cf. Albertosaurus sp.") has been discovered in the Corral de Enmedio and Packard Formations in Mexico. Scientists disagree on the content of the genus, with some recognizing Gorgosaurus libratus as a second species.

As a tyrannosaurid, Albertosaurus was a bipedal predator with tiny, two-fingered hands and a massive head that had dozens of large, sharp teeth. It may have been at the top of the food chain in its local ecosystem. While Albertosaurus was large for a theropod, it was much smaller than its larger and more famous relative

Tyrannosaurus rex, growing 9 to 10 m (30 to 33 ft) and possibly weighing 2.5 tonnes (2.8 short tons) or less.

Since the first discovery in 1884, fossils of more than 30 individuals have been recovered, providing scientists with a more detailed knowledge of Albertosaurus anatomy than is available for most other tyrannosaurids. The discovery of 26 individuals at one site provides evidence of pack behaviour and allows studies of ontogeny and population biology, which are impossible with lesser-known dinosaurs.

Larry 3000: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: EDMONTOSAURUS!

Edmontosaurus (/ɛdˌmɒntəˈsɔːrəs/ ed-MON-tə-SAWR-əs) (meaning "lizard from Edmonton") is a genus of hadrosaurid (duck-billed) dinosaur. It contains two known species: Edmontosaurus regalis and Edmontosaurus annectens. Fossils of E. regalis have been found in rocks of western North America that date from the late Campanian stage of the Cretaceous Period 73 million years ago, while those of E. annectens were found in the same geographic region but in rocks dated to the end of the Maastrichtian stage of the Cretaceous, 66 million years ago. Edmontosaurus was one of the last non-avian dinosaurs, and lived alongside dinosaurs like Triceratops, Tyrannosaurus, Albertosaurus and Pachycephalosaurus shortly before the Cretaceous-Paleogene extinction event.

Edmontosaurus included some of the largest hadrosaurid species, measuring up to 12 metres (39 ft) long and weighing around 4.0 metric tons (4.4 short tons). Evidence does exist in the form of two fossilized specimens housed at the Museum of the Rockies for an even greater maximum size of 15 m (49 ft) and weighing 9.07 metric tons (10.00 short tons) for Edmontosaurus annectens. Several well-preserved specimens are known that include not only bones, but in some cases extensive skin impressions and possible gut contents. It is classified as a genus of saurolophine (or hadrosaurine) hadrosaurid, a member of the group of hadrosaurids which lacked large, hollow crests, instead having smaller solid crests or fleshy combs.

The first fossils named Edmontosaurus were discovered in southern Alberta (named after Edmonton, the capital city), in the Horseshoe Canyon Formation (formerly called the lower Edmonton Formation). The type species, E. regalis, was named by Lawrence Lambe in 1917, although several other species that are now classified in Edmontosaurus were named earlier. The best known of these is E. annectens, named by Othniel Charles Marsh in 1892; originally as a species of Claosaurus, known for many years as a species of Trachodon, and later as Anatosaurus annectens. Anatosaurus and Anatotitan are now generally regarded as synonyms of Edmontosaurus.

Edmontosaurus was widely distributed across western North America. The distribution of Edmontosaurus fossils suggests that it preferred coasts and coastal plains. It was a herbivore that could move on both two legs and four. Because it is known from several bone beds, Edmontosaurus is thought to have lived in groups, and may have been migratory as well. The wealth of fossils has allowed researchers to study its paleobiology in detail, including its brain, how it may have fed, and its injuries and pathologies, such as evidence for tyrannosaur attacks on a few edmontosaur specimens.

Skipper fired a wave of earth and it formed into the dicynodont therapsid from 253.8 to 251 million years ago: Dicynodon!

Dicynodon ("two dog-teeth") is a genus of dicynodont therapsid that flourished during the Upper Permian period. Like all dicynodonts, it was herbivorous. This animal was toothless, except for prominent tusks, hence the name. It probably cropped vegetation with a horny beak, much like a tortoise, while the tusks may have been used for digging up roots and tubers.

Many species of Dicynodon have been named, and the genus is considered a wastebasket taxon. A 2011 study of the genus found most of the species to represent a paraphyletic grouping, with the only valid members of Dicynodon being D. lacerticeps and D. huenei. A 2019 study named a new species D. angielczyki, but simultaneously transferred D. huenei to the genus Daptocephalus.

Liberty: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: TORVOSAURUS!

Liberty fired a wave of earth and it formed into the theropod dinosaur from 158 million years ago: Torvosaurus!

---

Torvosaurus (/ˌtɔːrvoʊˈsɔːrəs/) is a genus of carnivorous megalosauroid theropod dinosaur that lived approximately 153 to 148 million years ago during the Late Jurassic Period (Kimmeridgian to Tithonian) in what is now Colorado and Portugal. It contains two currently recognized species, Torvosaurus tanneri and Torvosaurus gurneyi.

In 1979 the type species Torvosaurus tanneri was named: it was a large, heavily built, bipedal carnivore, that could grow to a length of about 10 m (33 ft). T. tanneri was among the largest carnivores of its time, together with Epanterias and Saurophaganax (which could be both synonyms of Allosaurus). Specimens referred to Torvosaurus gurneyi were initially claimed to be up to twelve metres long, but later shown to be smaller. Based on bone morphology Torvosaurus is thought to have had short but very powerful arms.

Lyra: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: THRINAXODON!

Lyra fired a wave of earth and it formed into the cynodont from 251 million years ago: Thrinaxodon!

---

Thrinaxodon is an extinct genus of cynodonts, most commonly regarded by its species T. liorhinus which lived in what are now South Africa and Antarctica during the Early Triassic. Thrinaxodon lived just after the Permian-Triassic mass extinction event, its survival during the extinction may have been due to its burrowing habits.

Similar to other synapsids, Thrinaxodon adopted a semi-sprawling posture, an intermediary form between the sprawling position of pelycosaurs (not unlike current Crocodylia) and the more upright posture present in current mammals. Thrinaxodon is prevalent in the fossil record in part because it was one of the few carnivores of its time, and was of a larger size than similar cynodont carnivores.

Chasmosaurus (/ˌkæzmoʊˈsɔːrəs/ KAZ-mo-SAWR-əs) is a genus of ceratopsid dinosaur from the Upper Cretaceous Period of North America. Its name means 'opening lizard', referring to the large openings (fenestrae) in its frill (Greek chasma meaning 'opening' or 'hollow' or 'gulf' and sauros meaning 'lizard'). With a length of 4.3-4.8 metres (14.1-15.7 ft) and a weight of 1.5-2 tonnes (1.7-2.2 short tons), Chasmosaurus was a ceratopsian of average size. Like all ceratopsians, it was purely herbivorous. It was initially to be called Protorosaurus, but this name had been previously published for another animal. All specimens of Chasmosaurus were collected from the Dinosaur Park Formation of the Dinosaur Provincial Park of Alberta, Canada. C. russelli comes from the lower beds of the formation while C. belli comes from middle and upper beds.

It contains three valid species: the type species P. fergusi and the referred species P. alexanderi and P. goweri. All three species lived in what is now South Africa. The genus was named in 1903 by the South African paleontologist Robert Broom. The well-known genus Chasmatosaurus is a junior synonym of Proterosuchus.

Proterosuchus was a mid-sized quadrupedal reptile with a sprawling stance that could reach a length of up to 3.5 meters (11 ft). It had a large head and distinctively hooked snout. It was a predator, which may have hunted prey such as Lystrosaurus. The lifestyle of Proterosuchus remains debated; it may have been terrestrial or it may have been a semiaquatic ambush predator similar to modern crocodiles.

Proterosuchus is one of the earliest members of the clade Archosauriformes, which also includes crocodilians, pterosaurs, and dinosaurs, including birds. It lived in the aftermath of the Permian-Triassic extinction event, the largest known mass extinction in Earth's history.

Fluttershy: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: EUCHAMBERSIA!

Fluttershy fired a wave of earth and it formed into the therapsid from 256 million years ago: Euchambersia!

---

Euchambersia is a genus of therocephalian therapsid that lived during the Late Permian, approximately 255 million years ago, in what is now South Africa. The genus contains a single species, Euchambersia mirabilis, named by paleontologist Robert Broom in 1931 from a skull missing the lower jaws; a second skull, belonging to an immature individual, was later described. It is a member of the family Akidnognathidae, which historically has also been referred by as the synonymous Euchambersiidae (named after Euchambersia).

Euchambersia was a small and short-snouted therocephalian, possessing large canines as is typical of the group. However, it is notable among therocephalians for possessing ridges on its canines and a large indentation in the side of the skull. Under the erroneous assumption that the canines are grooved instead of ridged, it has been proposed that these structures supported a venom delivery mechanism. More recently, the internal structure of the skull of Euchambersia has been used as stronger evidence in favour of the hypothesis that it was venomous; other possibilities, such as the indentation supporting some sort of sensory organ, still remain plausible.

Jimmy Neutron: WIND STYLE NINJA ART: RHAMPHORHYNCHUS!

Jimmy fired a wave of wind and it formed into the flying reptiles from 150.8 million years ago: Rhamphorhynchus!

---

Rhamphorhynchus (/ˌræmfəˈrɪŋkəs/, "beak snout") is a genus of long-tailed pterosaurs in the Jurassic period. Less specialized than contemporary, short-tailed pterodactyloid pterosaurs such as Pterodactylus, it had a long tail, stiffened with ligaments, which ended in a characteristic soft-tissue tail vane. The jaws of Rhamphorhynchus housed needle-like teeth, which were angled forward, with a curved, sharp, beak-like tip lacking teeth, indicating a diet mainly of fish; indeed, fish and cephalopod remains are frequently found in Rhamphorhynchus abdominal contents, as well as in their coprolites.

Although fragmentary fossil remains possibly belonging to Rhamphorhynchus have been found in England, Tanzania, and Spain, the best preserved specimens come from the Solnhofen limestone of Bavaria, Germany. Many of these fossils preserve not only the bones but impressions of soft tissues, such as wing membranes. Scattered teeth believed to belong to Rhamphorhynchus have been found in Portugal as well.

Kick Buttowski: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: SEYMOURIA!

Kick fired a wave of earth and it formed into the Permian seymouriamorph from 275 million years ago: Seymouria!

Seymouria is an extinct genus of seymouriamorph from the Early Permian of North America and Europe. Although they were amphibians (in a biological sense), Seymouria were well-adapted to life on land, with many reptilian features-so many, in fact, that Seymouria was first thought to be a primitive reptile. It is primarily known from two species, Seymouria baylorensis and Seymouria sanjuanensis. The type species, S. baylorensis, is more robust and specialized, though its fossils have only been found in Texas. On the other hand, Seymouria sanjuanensis is more abundant and widespread. This smaller species is known from multiple well-preserved fossils, including a block of six skeletons found in the Cutler Formation of New Mexico, and a pair of fully grown skeletons from the Tambach Formation of Germany, which were fossilized lying next to each other.

For the first half of the 20th century, Seymouria was considered one of the oldest and most "primitive" known reptiles. Paleontologists noted how the general body shape resembled that of early reptiles such as captorhinids, and that certain adaptations of the limbs, hip, and skull were also similar to that of early reptiles, rather than any species of modern or extinct amphibians known at the time. The strongly-built limbs and backbone also supported the idea that Seymouria was primarily terrestrial, spending very little time in the water.[9] However, in the 1950s, fossilized tadpoles were discovered in Discosauriscus, which was a close relative of Seymouria in the group Seymouriamorpha. This shows that seymouriamorphs (including Seymouria) had a larval stage which lived in the water, therefore making Seymouria not a true reptile, but rather an amphibian which was closely related to reptiles. Though no longer considered the most primitive reptile, Seymouria is still an important transitional fossil documenting the acquisition of reptile-like skeletal features prior to the evolution of the amniotic egg, which characterizes amniotes (reptiles, mammals, and birds).

Kendall Perkins: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: HYNERPETON!

Kendall fired a wave of water and it formed into the Devonian creature from 365 million years ago: Hynerpeton!

---

Hynerpeton (/haɪˈnɜːrpətɒn/; from Hyner, Pennsylvania and Ancient Greek ἑρπετόν herpetón, "creeping animal," meaning "creeping animal from Hyner") is an extinct genus of early four-limbed vertebrate that lived in the rivers and ponds of Pennsylvania during the Late Devonian period, around 365 to 363 million years ago. The only known species of Hynerpeton is H. bassetti, named after the describer's grandfather, city planner Edward Bassett. Hynerpeton is known for being the first Devonian four-limbed vertebrate discovered in the United States, as well as possibly being one of the first to have lost internal (fish-like) gills.

This genus is known from few remains discovered at the Red Hill fossil site in Hyner, Pennsylvania. The most notable fossil is a large endochondral shoulder girdle consisting of the cleithrum, scapula, and coracoid (but not the interclavicle and clavicles), all connected into one shoulder bone. The inner surface of this shoulder bone possesses an array of depressions believed to have been attachment points for a unique set of powerful muscles around the chest. This may have given Hynerpeton improved mobility and weight-bearing abilities compared to other Devonian limbed vertebrates such as Ichthyostega and Acanthostega. The cleithrum (upper blade of the shoulder) is fused to the scapulocoracoid (lower plate of the shoulder, in front of the shoulder socket), unlike in most tetrapods, but the shoulder girdle is independent of the skull, unlike in most fish.

Early four-limbed vertebrates are sometimes referred to as tetrapods (using a trait-based definition of the term), although animals like Hynerpeton, Ichthyostega, and Acanthostega are placed outside the crown group Tetrapoda by the vast majority of paleontologists. From a cladistic (relations-based) point of view, a more accurate term would be "stem-tetrapod" or "stegocephalian", indicating that they were part of the lineage of animals that would lead to true tetrapods such as modern amphibians (Lissamphibia), reptiles, mammals, and birds.

Hynerpeton hails from the Red Hill fossil site, which, during the Late Devonian, was a warm floodplain inhabited by a diverse ecosystem of aquatic fish and terrestrial invertebrates. Hynerpeton was one of several genera of four-limbed vertebrates known from the site, although it was the first to be discovered. It has been theorized that animals like Hynerpeton were able to use their amphibious lifestyle to find shallow pools where they could spawn, isolated from predatory fish which inhabited the deeper rivers.

Juandissimo: (Spanish Accent) WATER STYLE NINJA ART: TIKTAALIK!

Juandissimo fired a wave of water and it formed into the Devonian Sarcopterygian from 375 million years ago: Tiktaalik!

Tiktaalik (/tɪkˈtɑːlɪk/; Inuktitut ᑎᒃᑖᓕᒃ [tiktaːlik]) is a monospecific genus of extinct sarcopterygian (lobe-finned fish) from the Late Devonian Period, about 375 Mya (million years ago), having many features akin to those of tetrapods (four-legged animals).

Unearthed in Arctic Canada, Tiktaalik is technically a fish, complete with scales and gills - but it has the flattened head of a crocodile and unusual fins. Its fins have thin ray bones for paddling like most fish, but they also have sturdy interior bones that would have allowed Tiktaalik to prop itself up in shallow water and use its limbs for support as most four-legged animals do. Those fins and a suite of other characteristics set Tiktaalik apart as something special; it has a combination of features that show the evolutionary transition between swimming fish and their descendants, the four-legged vertebrates - a clade which includes amphibians, reptiles, birds and mammals.

It and similar animals may possibly be the common ancestors of the broad swath of all vertebrate terrestrial fauna: amphibians, reptiles, birds, and mammals.

The first well-preserved Tiktaalik fossils were found in 2004 on Ellesmere Island in Nunavut, Canada.

Littlefoot: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: HYBODUS!

Littlefoot fired a wave of water and it formed into the Jurassic Shark from 260 to 66 million years ago: Hybodus!

---

Hybodus ("humped tooth") is an extinct genus of Chondrichthyans. First appearing towards the end of the Permian period, and disappearing during the Late Cretaceous, during the Triassic, Jurassic, and Cretaceous periods the hybodonts were especially successful and could be found in shallow seas across the world. For reasons that are not fully understood, the hybodonts became extinct near the end of the Late Cretaceous period.

Patrick: OCEAN STYLE NINJA ART: LIVYATAN!

Patrick fired a wave of water and it formed into the first ancestral sperm whale from 9 million years ago: Livyatan!

Livyatan is an extinct genus of sperm whale containing one species: L. melvillei. The genus name was inspired by the biblical sea monster Leviathan, and the species name by Herman Melville, the author of the famous book Moby-Dick about a white bull sperm whale. It is mainly known from the Pisco Formation of Peru during the Tortonian stage of the Miocene epoch, about 9.9-8.9 million years ago (mya); however, isolated teeth from other locations such as Chile, Argentina, South Africa, and Australia implies that either it or a close relative survived into the Pliocene, around 5 mya, and was present throughout the Southern Hemisphere. It was a member of a group of hyper-predatory macroraptorial sperm whales (or "raptorial sperm whales") and was likely an apex predator, preying on whales, seals, and so forth. Characteristic of raptorial sperm whales, Livyatan had functional, enamel-coated teeth on the upper and lower jaws, as well as several adaptations for hunting large prey.

Livyatan's total length has been estimated to be about 13.5-17.5 m (44-57 ft), similar to the modern sperm whale (Physeter macrocephalus), making it one of the largest predators to have ever existed. The teeth of Livyatan measured 36.2 cm (1.2 ft), and are the largest biting teeth of any known animal, excluding tusks. It is distinguished from the other raptorial sperm whales by the basin on the skull, and how it spans the entire length of the snout. The spermaceti organ, contained in that basin, is thought to have been used in echolocation and communication, or for ramming prey and other sperm whales. The whale may have interacted with the large extinct shark megalodon (Carcharocles megalodon), competing with it for a similar food source. Its extinction was likely caused by a cooling event at the end of the Miocene which resulted in a drop in food populations. The formation where the whale has been found has also preserved a large assemblage of marine life, such as sharks and marine mammals.

Dawn (Total Drama): FOREST STYLE NINJA ART: DRYOSAURUS!

Dawn fired a wave of leaves and wood and it formed into the hadrosaur from 155 million years ago: Dryosaurus!

---

Dryosaurus (/ˌdraɪoʊˈsɔːrəs/ DRY-o-SAWR-əs; meaning 'tree lizard', Greek δρῦς (drys) meaning 'tree, oak' and σαυρος (sauros) meaning 'lizard'; the name reflects the forested habitat, not a vague oak-leaf shape of its cheek teeth as is sometimes assumed) is a genus of an ornithopod dinosaur that lived in the Late Jurassic period. It was an iguanodont (formerly classified as a hypsilophodont). Fossils have been found in the western United States and were first discovered in the late 19th century. Valdosaurus canaliculatus and Dysalotosaurus lettowvorbecki were both formerly considered to represent species of Dryosaurus.

Mike (Total Drama): FOREST STYLE NINJA ART: ORNITHOLESTES!

Mike fired a wave of wood and leaves and it formed into the theropod dinosaur from 154 million years ago: Ornitholestes.

---

Ornitholestes (meaning "bird robber") is a small theropod dinosaur of the late Jurassic (Brushy Basin Member of the Morrison Formation, middle Kimmeridgian age, about 154 million years ago) of Western Laurasia (the area that was to become North America).

To date, Ornitholestes is known only from a single partial skeleton with a badly crushed skull found at the Bone Cabin Quarry near Medicine Bow, Wyoming, in 1900. It was described by Henry Fairfield Osborn in 1903. An incomplete hand was later attributed to Ornitholestes, although it now appears to belong to Tanycolagreus. The type (and only known) species is O. hermanni. The specific name honors the American Museum of Natural History preparator Adam Hermann.

Fuzzy fired a wave of wood and leaves and it formed into the neornithischian dinosaur from 155 million years ago: Nanosaurus A.K.A. Othnielia!

Nanosaurus ("small or dwarf lizard") is the name given to a genus of neornithischian dinosaur that lived about 155 to 148 million years ago, during the Late Jurassic-age. Its fossils are known from the Morrison Formation of the south-western United States. The type and only species, Nanosaurus agilis, was described and named by Othniel Charles Marsh in 1877. The taxon has a complicated taxonomic history, largely the work of Marsh and Peter M. Galton, involving the genera Laosaurus, Hallopus, Drinker, Othnielia, and Othnielosaurus, the latter three now being considered to be synonyms of Nanosaurus. It had historically been classified as a hypsilophodont or fabrosaur, types of generalized small bipedal herbivore, but more recent research has abandoned these groupings as paraphyletic and Nanosaurus is today considered a basal member of Neornithischia.

Magnolia: FOREST STYLE NINJA ART: DAKOTARAPTOR!

Magnolia fired a wave of wood and leaves and it formed into the theropod dinosaur from 66 million years ago: Dakotaraptor.

Dakotaraptor is a potentially chimaeric genus of large dromaeosaurid theropod dinosaur that lived in North America during the Late Cretaceous period. The remains have been found in the Maastrichtian stage of the Hell Creek Formation, dated to the very end of the Mesozoic era, making Dakotaraptor one of the last surviving dromaeosaurids. The remains of D. steini were discovered in a multi-species bonebed. Elements of the holotype and referred specimens were later found to belong to trionychid turtles, and further analysis of potential non-dromaeosaurid affinities of the holotype and referred material have not yet been conducted. Phylogenetic analyses of D. steini place it in a variety of positions in the Dromaeosauridae.

Dromaeosaurus (/ˌdroʊmiəˈsɔːrəs, -mioʊ-/, "swift running lizard") is a genus of theropod dinosaur which lived during the Late Cretaceous period (middle late Campanian), sometime between 80 and 72.8 million years ago, in Alberta, Canada and the western United States. The type species is Dromaeosaurus albertensis, which was described by William Diller Matthew and Barnum Brown in 1922.

Goku: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: DEINONYCHUS!

Goku fired a wave of earth and it formed into the deadly pack-hunting theropods from 115 million years ago: Deinonychus!

---

Deinonychus (/daɪˈnɒnɪkəs/ dy-NON-i-kəs; from Greek: δεινός deinós, 'terrible' and ὄνυξ ónux, genitive ὄνυχος ónuchos 'claw') is a genus of dromaeosaurid theropod dinosaur with one described species, Deinonychus antirrhopus. This species, which could grow up to 3.4 meters (11 ft) long, lived during the early Cretaceous Period, about 115-108 million years ago (from the mid-Aptian to early Albian stages). Fossils have been recovered from the U.S. states of Montana, Utah, Wyoming, and Oklahoma, in rocks of the Cloverly Formation, Cedar Mountain Formation and Antlers Formation, though teeth that may belong to Deinonychus have been found much farther east in Maryland.

Paleontologist John Ostrom's study of Deinonychus in the late 1960s revolutionized the way scientists thought about dinosaurs, leading to the "dinosaur renaissance" and igniting the debate on whether dinosaurs were warm-blooded or cold-blooded. Before this, the popular conception of dinosaurs had been one of plodding, reptilian giants. Ostrom noted the small body, sleek, horizontal posture, ratite-like spine, and especially the enlarged raptorial claws on the feet, which suggested an active, agile predator.

"Terrible claw" refers to the unusually large, sickle-shaped talon on the second toe of each hind foot. The fossil YPM 5205 preserves a large, strongly curved ungual. In life, archosaurs have a horny sheath over this bone, which extends the length. Ostrom looked at crocodile and bird claws and reconstructed the claw for YPM 5205 as over 120 millimetres (4.7 in) long. The species name antirrhopus means "counter balance", which refers to Ostrom's idea about the function of the tail. As in other dromaeosaurids, the tail vertebrae have a series of ossified tendons and super-elongated bone processes. These features seemed to make the tail into a stiff counterbalance, but a fossil of the very closely related Velociraptor mongoliensis (IGM 100/986) has an articulated tail skeleton that is curved laterally in a long S-shape. This suggests that, in life, the tail could bend to the sides with a high degree of flexibility. In both the Cloverly and Antlers formations, Deinonychus remains have been found closely associated with those of the ornithopod Tenontosaurus. Teeth discovered associated with Tenontosaurus specimens imply they were hunted, or at least scavenged upon, by Deinonychus.

Vegeta: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: DASPLETOSAURUS!

Vegeta fired a wave of earth and it formed into the theropod from 77 million years ago: Daspletosaurus!

Daspletosaurus (/dæsˌpliːtə'sɔːrəs/ das-PLEET-o-SAWR-əs; meaning "frightful lizard") is a genus of tyrannosaurid dinosaur that lived in western North America between about 77 and 74 million years ago, during the Late Cretaceous Period. The genus Daspletosaurus contains two species. Fossils of the earlier type species, D. torosus, have been found in Alberta, while fossils of the later second species, D. horneri, have been found only in Montana. A possible third species, also from Alberta, awaits formal identification. Daspletosaurus is closely related to the much larger and more recent tyrannosaurid Tyrannosaurus rex. Like most tyrannosaurids, Daspletosaurus was a multi-tonne bipedal predator equipped with dozens of large, sharp teeth. Daspletosaurus had the small forelimbs typical of tyrannosaurids, although they were proportionately longer than in other genera.

As an apex predator, Daspletosaurus was at the top of the food chain, probably preying on large dinosaurs like the ceratopsid Centrosaurus and the hadrosaur Hypacrosaurus. In some areas, Daspletosaurus coexisted with another tyrannosaurid, Gorgosaurus, though there is some evidence of niche differentiation between the two. While Daspletosaurus fossils are rarer than other tyrannosaurids', the available specimens allow some analysis of the biology of these animals, including social behavior, diet and life history.

Gohan: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: SINOCERATOPS!

Gohan fired a wave of earth and it formed into the ceratopsian from 73.5 million years ago: Sinoceratops!

---

Sinoceratops /ˌsaɪnoʊˈsɛrətɒps/ is an extinct genus of ceratopsian dinosaur that lived approximately 73 million years ago during the latter part of the Cretaceous Period in what is now Shandong province in China. It was named in 2010 by Xu Xing et al. for three skulls from Zhucheng, China. The name of its type species Sinoceratops zhuchengensis means "Chinese horned face from Zhucheng", after the location of its discovery.

Sinoceratops was a medium-sized, averagely-built, ground-dwelling, quadrupedal herbivore. It could grow up to an estimated 6 m (19.7 ft) length and 2 metres (6.6 ft) height, and weigh up to 2 tonnes (2.0 long tons; 2.2 short tons). It was the first ceratopsid dinosaur discovered in China, and the only ceratopsid known from Asia. All other centrosaurines, and all chasmosaurines, are known from fossils discovered in North America, except for possibly Turanoceratops. Sinoceratops is also significant because it is one of the largest known centrosaurines, and is much larger than any other known basal members of this group.

Sinoceratops was discovered in the Xingezhuang Formation, which was deposited during the late Cretaceous. It lived alongside leptoceratopsids, saurolophines, and tyrannosaurines. The most common creature in the formation was Shantungosaurus, to which most of the material has been assigned. The animals living alongside Sinoceratops and Shantungosaurus were Zhuchengceratops, Zhuchengtitan, and Zhuchengtyrannus.

I fired a blast of blue fire and it formed into one of the largest sauropod dinosaurs ever discovered from 150 million years ago: Amphicoelias!

Amphicoelias (/ˌæmfɪˈsiːliəs/, meaning "biconcave", from the Greek ἀμφί, amphi: "on both sides", and κοῖλος, koilos: "hollow, concave") is a genus of herbivorous sauropod dinosaur that lived approximately 150 million years ago during the Tithonian (Late Jurassic Period) of what is now Colorado, United States. An herbivore, Amphicoelias was moderately sized at about 25 m (82 ft) long-roughly the same length as Diplodocus, to which it was related. Its hindlimbs were very long and thin, and its forelimbs were proportionally longer than in relatives.

The namesake fossil of the type species Amphicoelias altus, American Museum of Natural History 5764, is uncertain in included material. When described by Edward Drinker Cope shortly after its discovery in 1877, Amphicoelias was noted to include many back vertebrae, a single pubis, and a femur. However, after purchase and cataloging of the material by the AMNH, Henry Fairfield Osborn and Charles Mook described that the specimen had only two vertebrae, a pubis, femur, tooth, scapula, coracoid, ulna and a second femur. The additional material, not mentioned by Cope, was found close in proximity to the holotype and was similar to Diplodocus, a relative of Amphicoelias. Their assignment was questioned by subsequent authors Emanuel Tschopp et al. in an analysis of Diplodocidae.

During the description of Amphicoelias altus in 1877, Cope additionally named A. latus, for a femur and tail vertebrae. Following its description, Osborn and Mook in 1921 reidentified the material as a specimen of Camarasaurus, an assignment followed by other authors who reviewed the material. A year later 1878, Cope named the third species of Amphicoelias, A. fragillimus for a gigantic dorsal vertebra that was subsequently lost. Measuring approximately 2.7 m (8.9 ft) if reconstructed based on Diplodocus, early estimates for the length of the animal in life were between 40 and 60 m (130 and 200 ft) long. Due to the incomplete nature, such lengths-the longest of any known dinosaur and sauropod-were largely ignored. In 2018, Kenneth Carpenter renamed Amphicoelias fragillimus as the new genus Maraapunisaurus, and reclassified it from Diplodocidae to Rebbachisauridae.

Sonic: WIND STYLE NINJA ART: EUDIMORPHODON!

Sonic fired a wave of wind and it formed into the flying reptile from Italy that lived 210 million years ago: Eudimorphodon!

---

Eudimorphodon was a pterosaur that was discovered in 1973 by Mario Pandolfi in the town of Cene, Italy and described the same year by Rocco Zambelli. The nearly complete skeleton was retrieved from shale deposited during the Late Triassic (mid to late Norian stage), making Eudimorphodon one of the oldest pterosaurs known. It had a wingspan of about 100 centimetres (3.3 ft) and at the end of its long bony tail may have been a diamond-shaped flap like in the later Rhamphorhynchus. If so, the flap may have helped it steer while maneuvering in the air. Eudimorphodon is known from several skeletons, including juvenile specimens.

Aylene C: FIRE STYLE NINJA ART: HEILONGJIANGOSAURUS!

Aylene fired a wave of fire and it formed into the stegosaur from 76 million years ago: Heilongjiangosaurus!

---

Heilongjiangosaurus" (meaning "Heilongjiang lizard") is the informal name given to an as-yet undescribed genus of duckbilled dinosaur

from the Late Cretaceous. It possibly was a lambeosaurine, and may in fact be the same animal as Charonosaurus. The fossils were found in Maastrichtian-age rocks in Heilongjiang, China. As a nomen nudum, it is unclear what material it was intended to be based on, but might be connected to the nomen nudum "Mandschurosaurus" jiainensis, informally named in a 1983 publication.

The "type species" is "H. jiayinensis", and it was coined in 2001 in a faunal list by Li and Jin.

Cera: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: OJOCERATOPS!

Cera fired a wave of earth and it formed into the ceratopsian from 68 million years ago: Ojoceratops!

---

Ojoceratops ( meaning "Ojo Alamo horned face") is a genus of ceratopsian dinosaur which lived in what is now New Mexico, United States. Ojoceratops fossils have been recovered from strata of the Ojo Alamo Formation (Naashoibito Member), dating to the late Cretaceous period (probably Maastrichtian age, 68 million years ago). The type species is Ojoceratops fowleri. It is very similar to its close relative Triceratops, though it is from an earlier time period and has a more squared-off frill. Nick Longrich, in 2011, noted that the squared-off frill is also found in some true Triceratops specimens and that Ojoceratops is probably a junior synonym of Triceratops, while Holtz (2010) noted that it is probably ancestral to Triceratops and possibly synonymous with the contemporary Eotriceratops.

Ducky: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: GRYPOSAURUS!

Ducky fired a wave of earth and it formed into the hadrosaur from 80 million years ago: Gryposaurus!

Gryposaurus (meaning "hooked-nosed (Greek grypos) lizard"; sometimes incorrectly translated as "griffin (Latin gryphus) lizard") was a genus of duckbilled dinosaur that lived about 80 to 75 million years ago, in the Late Cretaceous (late Santonian to late Campanian stages) of North America. Named species of Gryposaurus are known from the Dinosaur Park Formation in Alberta, Canada, and two formations in the United States: the Lower Two Medicine Formation in Montana and the Kaiparowits Formation of Utah. A possible additional species may extend the temporal range of the genus to 66 million years ago.

Gryposaurus is similar to Kritosaurus, and for many years the two were thought to be synonyms. It is known from numerous skulls, some skeletons, and even some skin impressions that show it to have had pyramidal scales projecting along the midline of the back. It is most easily distinguished from other duckbills by its narrow arching nasal hump, sometimes described as similar to a "Roman nose," and which may have been used for species or sexual identification, and/or combat with individuals of the same species. A large bipedal/quadrupedal herbivore around 9 meters (30 feet) long, it may have preferred river settings.

Petrie: WIND STYLE NINJA ART: TROPEOGNATHUS!

Petrie fired a wave of wind and it formed into the flying reptile from 112 million years ago: Tropeognathus!

---

Tropeognathus (meaning "keel jaw") is a genus of large pterosaurs from the late Early Cretaceous of South America. This genus is considered to be a member of the Ornithocheiridae, a diverse group of pterosaurs known for their keel-tipped snouts and large size. Tropeognathus is regarded as the largest pterosaur found in the Southern Hemisphere, only rivaled by the huge azhdarchids. The type and only species is Tropeognathus mesembrinus. Fossil remains of Tropeognathus have been recovered from the Romualdo Formation, which is a Lagerstätte located in the Santana Group of the Araripe Basin in northeastern Brazil.

Spike: (Through translator) EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: DRAVIDOSAURUS!

Spike fired a wave of earth and it formed into the Dravidanidu dinosaur from 90 million years ago: Dravidosaurus!

---

Dravidosaurus (meaning "Dravidanadu lizard", Dravidanadu being a region in the southern part of India where the remains were discovered) is a controversial genus of prehistoric reptile. It was first described as the last surviving stegosaurian, the group of "plated" dinosaurs. With an estimated length of three metres (10 ft), it would have also been the smallest member of the group. More recent studies, however, have shown that the bones actually belonged to a plesiosaurian marine reptile, and that none of the remains are demonstrably dinosaurian in origin.

Dravidosaurus lived in the Late Cretaceous period (Coniacian stage) of what is now India. It is only known from disassociated remains that were originally described as comprising a partial skull, a tooth, a sacrum, an ilium, an ischium, a dermal plate, and a spike. The badly weathered remains were discovered in marine deposits near Ariyalur in the state of Tamil Nadu in South India. They were in 1979 named by P.M. Yadagiri and Krishnan Ayyasami as the type species Dravidosaurus blanfordi, the specific name honouring William Thomas Blanford. The holotype partial skull is catalogued as GSI SR Pal 1, while other specimens are catalogued GSI SR Pal 2-7.

In 1991, Sankar Chatterjee visited the site and claimed, without presenting concrete morphological evidence, that Dravidosaurus was based on plesiosaurian pelvic and hindlimb elements, the species being a nomen dubium. However, this claim was rejected by Galton and Upchurch (2004), who noted that the skull, tooth and plate of Dravidosaurus are certainly not plesiosaurian as illustrated. Galton and Ayyasami (2017) reaffirmed the stegosaurian classification of Dravidosaurus, claiming the remains do not look like plesiosaurian pelvic and hindlimb elements. They announced that stegosaurian remains from the Dravidosaurus type locality are under study by one of the original describers of Dravidosaurus.

Chomper: FIRE STYLE NINJA ART: ZHUCHENGTYRANNUS!

Chomper fired a wave of fire and it formed into the theropod from 73.5 million years ago: Zhuchengtyrannus!

---

Zhuchengtyrannus (meaning "Zhucheng tyrant") is a genus of tyrannosaurid theropod dinosaur known from the Late Cretaceous period of Shandong Province, China. It belongs to the tyrannosaurinae subfamily, and contains a single species, Zhuchengtyrannus magnus.

---

Emerald Sustrai: CRYSTAL STYLE NINJA ART: KRONOSAURUS!

Emerald fired a wave of emerald crystal and it formed into the marine reptile from Australia that lived 120 million years ago: Kronosaurus!

---

Kronosaurus (krɒnoʊˈsɔːrəs/ KRON-o-SAWR-əs; meaning "lizard of Kronos") is an extinct genus of short-necked pliosaur. With an estimated length of 9 to 10.9 meters (30 to 36 ft), it was among the largest pliosaurs, and is named after the leader of the Greek Titans, Kronos. It lived in the Early Cretaceous period (Aptian to Late Albian). Fossil material has been recovered from the Toolebuc Formation (middle to late Albian) and Wallumbilla Formations (Aptian) of Queensland and New South Wales in Australia, and from the upper Paja Formation (late Aptian) in Boyacá, Colombia, and assigned to two species.

We powered down.

We won!

Me: It's over guys! We won!

We cheered wildly.

Miko: Well, that's two villains taken care of.

KGBeast: Yep. Chomp Kitty and Lucifer have both been taken care of.

Eris: As well as all the other bosses.

Weather Wizard: (to Francesca, Dante and Beatrice) God always said you can be forgiven for your sins.

Batroc: Well, you two can consider joining the Redemption Squad as a sign of forgiveness.

Me: That's right Francesco. Your deeds 831 years ago are deeply admired. God will not abandon you. My ancestors did not abandon you. And I will not do the same.

I reached out my hand and then Francesco did something unexpected. He hugged me and was crying.

Dante and Beatrice put their hands on him.

Eli: Dante, I don't think that tapestry would look good on you. Lets get that off of you.

Dante Alighieri: Thanks Eli. But it will hurt.

Eli: Okay.

Eli grabbed one side of the cross tapestry and ripped it off and it hurt Dante really bad!

Varie healed him up and Eli looked at the tapestry and then he obliterated it in an instant.

Me: We're not done yet. We have one loose end to tie up.

Eli: Go after the man that killed Beatrice?

Me: Yep.

We went back to Dante's house and we saw the stranger that killed Beatrice and Alighiero.

Me: There he is!

Man: Impossible!

He went at us and then I unsheathed my sword just as he was pulling out a knife and then…

SHEEEEENNN!

I stabbed him all the way through his black heart and the sword came out through his back and he was skewered and I looked at him as he only had seconds left to live.

Me: "Vengeance is Mine Sayth the Lord." Remember that when you are in hell.

I pulled my sword out and he fell to the ground dead. I then blasted him with fire and incinerated him in an instant.

Miko: Good riddance to that monster. (To the viewers) This was a brutal and epic adventure.

Me: It sure was.

We went back home. Dante, Francesco and Beatrice were now part of the Redemption Squad and we went and had dinner and then went to bed.

THE END

---

Another epic chapter done.

This is the last of Etstheclarencefan's ideas for now. It was a combination of Glitch Tech and Dante's Inferno. It was a powerful battle and an awesome adventure. I hope you all like it. Also the girl with Actia the Mothgirl at the beginning of the chapter was from the 1971 movie Swamp Girl which started Simone Griffith and Ferlin Husky. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Etstheclarencefan, Nflemingful, Drako1234658 and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ides for this. Thanks guys. The next girl from Daily Life With A Monster Girl is gonna be Kasuka the Will-O'-Wisp and we're going to find her at a lake near the Aokigahara Forest and she will also have Tatsumaki of One Punch Man with her and they will be fighting the Yakuza. The next chapter is the 14th Installment of the My Little Pony chapters and we're going after the second enemy of the 1986 MLP Series, Princess Porcina and we're going to turn that overgrown porkchop tyrant and her pig minions into cold cuts and ham and bacon.

See you all tomorrow.

PIGS, PIGS, PIGS, PIGS, AND PIGS!

Over the infamous Aokigahara Forest in Japan, me and Kaitlyn Logan were flying over the forest and searching for the next girl to rescue.

Me: See that forest down there?

Kaitlyn: I heard that it's called the Suicide Forest.

Me: You heard right. The Aokigahara Forest here in Japan has been widely called that for centuries because a lot of people have gone into this forest to kill themselves.

Kaitlyn: Wow that's terrible.

Me: Yeah it's scary.

We flew over a lake and we saw a cabin on the other side of the lake.

Me: That must be where the next girl is being held.

Kaitlyn: I think there's a second person we have to rescue here.

Kaitlyn concentrated and groaned as she began to shrink.

Me: I sense it too.

She turned into her Azelf form and I held on to her clothes for her.

Me: It's coming from that cabin on the other side of the lake.

We went to the cabin and then we busted in by kicking the door down and we saw THE YAKUZA!

Me: The Yakuza! (Speaking in Japanese) あなたのダートバッグは、私たちがいる間に犯罪を犯すために間違った日を選んだ。今、私たちはあなたが捕まえた女の子を手放すためにあなたに5秒を与えます、さもなければこれはあなたの最後の日になるでしょう！

(You dirtbags have picked the wrong day to commit crimes while we're present. Now we'll give you 5 seconds to let the girls you caught go or this is gonna be your last days alive!)

Yakuza Leader: (Speaking in Japanese) そんなことはしません！日本の名誉のために！(We will do no such thing! FOR THE HONOR OF JAPAN!)

They went at us and we slashed and butchered all the Yakuza and when I sheathed my sword all their blood splattered out all over and they fell to pieces dead.

Me: Sorry you had to see that Kaitlyn.

Kaitlyn: No worries but that was awesome!

We went to a room and we saw the two girls. One was a girl in a orange shirt and grey pants with orange flames swirling around her and the other was a green hair girl dressed in black.

Me: Wow. The girl with flames is a Will-Of-The-Wisp, The Ghost Glows of English Folklore.

We cut them free.

Kasuka: Whew. Thank you guys.

Me: You're welcome.

Tatsumaki: You must've taken care of the Yakuza.

Kasuka: Hey wow! You're the famous J.D. Knudson, Leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Tatsumaki: The famous legendary hero!?

Me: That's right. It's a pleasure.

Kasuka: My name is Kasuka and yes I'm a Will-Of-The-Wisp.

Tatsumaki: And my name is Tatsumaki. It's an honor.

Me: Pleasure to meet you. This is Kaitlyn Logan. She's also an Azelf. Long story on that.

Kaitlyn: Pleasure.

Kasuka: Same here. Thanks for saving us.

Me: Anytime.

Kaitlyn: I'm gonna revert back.

Me: Okay.

I put on my blind glasses and she reverted back.

Kaitlyn was human again. But naked.

Kaitlyn: (covers herself) Good thing the Yakuza are gone now.

Me: Yeah.

Tatsumaki: Nice rack on you.

Kaitlyn: Thanks.

I gave Kaitlyn back her clothes.

Kaitlyn: Thanks J.D.

Me: You're welcome.

Kaitlyn changed.

Kasuka: But that was awesome how you guys killed those dirtbags.

Tatsumaki: I would have done so myself.

Me: What powers do you have Tatsumaki?

Tatsumaki: I have wind powers.

Me: Wow! And your name means Tornado. That's perfect for you.

Kasuka: It sure is.

Tatsumaki: Thanks.

Me: You're welcome. Lets head back to the estate and we can talk more there.

Kasuka: Okay.

We went back to the World Tree Estate.

---

Back at the World Tree Estate, everyone was watching Nicole, Lincoln, Lily and Sunset Shimmer play Super Smash Brothers.

Sunset Shimmer: I got you now!

Lincoln: I don't think so!

Nicole: We'll see about that!

Nicole beat them all!

Nicole: Yeah!

Sunset Shimmer: Aw man!

Lily: Nicole is that good.

Nico: Told you she wasn't called the Goddess of Video Games for show.

Sunset Shimmer: Wow.

We came in.

Kaitlyn went to rest on the sofa.

Nico: Welcome back guys.

Me: Thanks.

Nico: Wow she's a Will-Of-The-Wisp!

Me: Yep.

Kasuka: It's an honor to meet you Nico.

Miia: Kasuka!

Kasuka: Miia!

They hugged.

Kasuka: It's awesome to see you here.

Rachnera: J.D. has been saving us from McWolf.

Tatsumaki: But this time it was the Yakuza that kidnapped us. McWolf was not there.

Me: Odd. He must've had some other things to do.

Nico: Maybe. But wait a second. Aren't you Tatsumaki, the Tornado of Terror?

Tatsumaki: That's right.

Nico: Oh wow! It's an honor to meet you.

Lincoln: You're from one of my favorite manga, One Punch Man.

Tatsumaki: I'm honored to have some fans.

Me: We're glad you're here with us.

---

Later we were on our way to Virbank City in the Unova Region in Canada. I was riding my Rapidash and carrying the hover carriage behind me.

St Patricia: Are we near Virbank City?

Me: Yes we are. We're almost there.

Tatsumaki: This is fun!

Kasuka: Yeah!

Miia: And the way J.D. rides his Rapidash like that is awesome.

Eli: Yeah that's my bro for you.

James Bond: (British Accent) He does have talent.

Natalya: (Russian Accent) He does.

Wai Lin: It sure is amazing though.

We arrived in Virbank City and it was a really nice city.

Me: Here we are guys. Virbank City.

Ash: Wow it's just as amazing as I remember.

We saw a woman up ahead with blond hair and overalls and it was Bianca.

Jirachi: I know how to get Bianca's attention.

Sly Cooper: Go for it, Jirachi.

Bianca felt something touch her shoes. She looked down to see a Jirachi.

Bianca: A Jirachi? What's one doing all the way out here in Unova?

Jirachi: It's because I'm with my friends to find you.

Ash: Bianca!

Bianca saw us.

Bianca: Ash! And Team Loud Phoenix Storm it's an honor! And Ash, Iris, Cilan it's great to see you all again!

Cilan: Same here.

Iris: How have you been?

Bianca: Great.

Me: Pleasure to meet you Bianca. We were told so much about you and how you've been a big help for Ash and team.

Bianca: Same here J.D. and I have been helping them out a lot.

Me: You sure have.

Sunstorm: Let me introduce the rest of our mascots. This is Tentacool, she's Varie's.

Tentacool: Hello.

Sunstorm: Manaphy, she's May's.

Manaphy: How do.

Sunstorm: Poromon, he's Nico's Digimon.

Poromon: Hello there.

Sunstorm: Horsea, she's Maria's.

Horsea: Hey there.

Sunstorm: And Poliwag. He is Nico's too.

Poliwag: Hell… (BELCHES) (Laughs)

Nico: Excuse you.

Bianca: It's an honor.

We got to having lunch with Bianca.

G1 Firestar: A lot has happened since the last time you saw Ash.

Me: Yeah.

We told her everything that happened and everything.

Bianca: Oh wow! That's amazing!

Mallow: Yeah and we are so awesome to be Ash's friends.

Eli: And Ash and his friends have all been a REALLY big help on our adventures.

Lucy (Pokemon): We also discovered a lot of new Pokemon.

Brock: They are from the Galar Region.

Me: Check them out.

I showed my Galarian Moltres.

Bianca: Wow!

Me: This is a Galarian Moltres. Instead of a Fire Type, he's a Dark Type over in the Galar Region.

Nico: And I found this one.

He called out his Galarian Zapdos.

Nico: This is a Galarian Zapdos. Instead of Electric, he's a Fighting Type.

Eli: And here's mine.

Eli called out his Galarian Articuno.

Eli: This is a Galarian Articuno. Instead of Ice, he's a Psychic Tyle.

Bianca: Wow that is so amazing!

Emolga: Emol!

Me: Oh wow an Emolga.

Bianca: Yep. Isn't it cute?

Me: Sure is.

Nico: We may have a 7th Mascot soon.

Me: Yep. We'll have to teach Emolga how to talk.

Laney: Yep and that's gonna be fun.

Bianca was now part of the team and we went back home to the estate.

---

Later we were getting ready for our next mission.

Jinx: Thanks for joining the team, Mr. Bond.

James Bond: My pleasure. Always willing to help you all after how Lincoln helped me.

Me: That was an awesome adventure in Babysitting you did partner.

Vince: It sure was. I love spy movies.

Nico: So do I. They are great.

Batroc, Loki, Leonard, KGBeast, Eris, Unicorn, Weather Wizard, and Whiteout then appeared.

Batroc: Can me, Loki, Leonard, KGBeast, Eris, Unicorn, Weather Wizard, and Whiteout go with you guys this time?

Me: You all sure can. I got this message from Ponyville. They need help dealing with a villain named Princess Porcina.

Weather Wizard: Who is she?

Megan Williams: I know her and she is a Princess Tyrant that wants to use her magic to turn everything into glass. She likes to look at herself in its reflective surface.

We gasped.

Me: What can you tell us about her?

Megan and Firefly told us all about her.

Princess Porcina is an antagonist from the 1986 My Little Pony series, and is the primary antagonist and anti-hero in the episode "The Glass Princess".

She was voiced by Tress MacNeille.

Role

Porcina needs material to replace her magic cloak, which is all but worn out. She uses its magic to turn things into glass, as she's obsessed with her own reflection. The Raptorians work for her with the promise that they'll soon receive their own kingdom, and steal some washing. Porcina deems the washing to be useless and tells the Raptorians to find something better.

They capture Gusty, Heart Throb, and Lickety-Split to use their hair to make her cloak. Porcina receives her new cloak, and happily turns the Paradise Estate and every other non-living thing in Ponyland to glass, much to the Little Ponies' horror. The chief Raptorian praises her efforts, but suggests that it might be even better if every creature in Ponyland also bore her reflection. She agrees, and casts a second spell, turning every Little Pony in the Paradise Estate to glass. Shady, Molly, Megan, North Star, Paradise, Magic Star, and the Bushwoolies made a fake cloak in hopes of switching it with the real one, only for the Raptorians to catch onto them.

Porcina starts the spell to turn the Ponies into glass, but confronting them face to face makes her realize she has no right. The chief Raptorian snatches her cloak and tries the spell himself, but finds he's holding the fake. A tug-of-war ensues over the real cloak, and it tears in half, releasing a bolt of energy that hits the Raptorians and turns them all into glass. Regretting her selfish actions, Porcina uses the remains of the cloak to restore the Little Ponies and everything else in Ponyland. The Bushwoolies destroy the cloak, then offer to take Porcina on as their groomer, and she agrees.

When she was done we were shocked!

Me: Oh man! That's terrible!

Leonard: And I thought I was the only pig that had a pig army.

Me: It's good you're going with us then Leonard. Lets head to Ponyland.

We went to Ponyland.

---

PONYLAND

---

We arrived in Ponyland.

Paragus: Here we are back in Ponyville.

Me: Yep. And it looks like we got here just in time!

We saw Pig Minions attacking.

Me: Let me handle this.

I went up to them.

Me: Hey porkheads!

Pig 1: Well look who it is.

Me: I got one word to say to you all.

Pig 2: And what's that?

I pulled out the Bacon Magisword.

Me: BACON!

The Pigs then squealed and ran like frightened chickens out of the village.

Me: Wow it works.

Then my Dark Orb Detector went off and it showed that there was a Dark Orb to the Northwest.

Me: There's a Dark Orb here.

Nico: Porcina must have it to make pig minions.

Leonard: Who does Porcina think she is, ripping me off?!

Me: Obviously a no good copy cat.

Eli: You got that right.

James Bond: Looks like she's trying to play dirty.

Nico: Yeah she sure is.

Kasuka: I hope she has dinner plans because we're going to show up uninvited when we face her.

Big Mac: Eeyup!

Tatsumaki: And it won't be pretty.

Me: Well we do need to get some food for the 4th of July barbecue we're having this weekend.

Nuova Shenron: We still have some time before we launch our attack. So, let's see if there are still pigs around here. And I'm not talking about Leonard's pigs.

Me: You're right. Lets get to finding them and scare them off.

Prohyas: Ooh. I love a pig hunting mission.

Vambre: (British Accent) This is gonna be most fun.

Kasuka: Lets burn them.

Tatsumaki: And blow them away.

Me: Lets fan out and search.

Jessie (Pokemon): (to Leonard's pigs) You guys go find out where Porcina's hiding.

Leonard: You heard the lady! Go!

Pig Minion 1: YES SIR!

They went out to find Porcina.

Me: Lets get to finding Porcina's pigs!

We went all over the village.

Unicorn was wandering around.

Unicorn: Now, if I were a pig, where would I hide?

He looked around and he heard some shattering.

Unicorn: Come on in you fuckers. (Pulls out a minigun) Come on in. Old Painless is waiting.

Porcina's Pigs came out.

Unicorn blasted them all over.

Cody was hiding in the rooftops with his Yautja technology and he was cloaked and he overheard one of them talking and he turned on his infrared vision and audio analyzer.

Pig 2: (Distorted) Princess Porcina is gonna be really mad when she finds out that Team Loud Phoenix Storm is here.

Pig 3: (Distorted) She sure will be. But even if she knows that they are here we'll have a massive army waiting for them and then KABOOM! She will kill them in one fell swoop with her magic.

Cody had his triangle target on them both and fired plasma blasts at them and destroyed them.

Cody (OC): Bullseye.

Manterror: Hey, Waspinator. Do you get the feeling that we're about to meet more fellow Cybertronians in about a week?

Waspinator: Ooh Waspinator is gonna be excited.

Drill Bit: Me too.

Pigs came at them.

Drill Bit: I got this! Drill Bit, TERRORIZE!

He transformed and skewered the pigs with his drill and killed them.

Drill Bit: Drill Bit 5, pigs zero. BEAST MODE!

He reverted back.

Weather Wizard: Maybe some are hiding in the bakery. I am getting hungry anyway.

Weather Wizard went and checked it out and sure enough there were pigs eating all the sweets!

Weather Wizard: HEY! Hooves off the sweets you pigs!

He fired a blast of lightning and electrocuted them and turned them into pork roasts.

Shield Shredder: Now, let's eat some sweets before continuing the manhunt.

Weather Wizard: Good idea.

They went and gathered some sweets for us.

Nico found a bunch of pigs and turned them into ham with Electro's lightning powers.

Nico: This will be perfect for our lunch.

KGBeast: Little pigs, little pigs. Come out, come out wherever you are.

Pig 1: Not by the hairs of our chinny chin chins!

Pig 2: Smooth move big mouth!

KGBeast found them and ripped them apart and turned them into cold cuts.

Sabrina: (to her Alakazam) Alakazam, find out if there are anymore pigs here.

Her Alakazam used his psychic powers and then numerous pigs came out.

Sabrina: Time for you to be turned into my toys.

Sabrina fired a blast of psychic energy and she turned them into stuffed animals.

Sabrina: They will be perfect for me and Lola.

Eris: Maybe I should my powers to flush the remaining pigs out.

Eris threw a bunch of golden apples and they sunk into the ground and then…

CLANG CLANG CLANG CLANG CLANG CLANG CLANG!

Pigs came out and they had a bunch of bear traps on them and on their butts and they came out of a bunch of restaurants.

Eli: Nice one Eris! Now for me.

Eli fired waves of Force Lightning and turned the pigs into spiral ham and pork ribs.

Eli: These ribs will be perfect for the 4th of July this weekend.

Me: I think we got them all.

Laney: Yeah.

Veon: Now, we should confront Porcina and the rest of her army at her hideout.

Me: We don't know where she is.

Leonard's pigs came back.

Pig Minion 1: We found Porcina's hideout!

Me: Where is it?

Pig Minion 1: Over there behind those hills. There's a lake that has a castle on the other side.

Megan Williams: That's where we're going.

Me: Yep.

Leonard: Let me do the entrance.

Me: Roger that.

We went to Porcina's castle.

---

At Porcina's castle she was looking at herself in the mirror.

But then a massive rumble was felt and then a massive tsunami of Leonard's pigs smashed into the castle and then out of the pigs came us and we were ready to fight!

Me: Games over Princess Porkchop!

Loki: You're not the only one with a pig army, Porcina!

Leonard: That's right!

Leonard had his pig army come out in the tens of millions and there WERE A LOT OF THEM!

Porcina: Oh crud. This is gonna hurt.

Pig 1: Yep.

Me: One word for you Procina.

Porcina: What's that?

Me: Bacon!

She squealed in fear!

Porcina then saw Pumbaa ready to fight!

Porcina: You got something to say pig?

Pumbaa: Pig? Are you talking about me?

Timon: Uh oh she called him a Pig!

Pumbaa: Are you talking about me!?

Timon: Shouldn't have done that.

Pumbaa: ARE YOU TALKING ABOUT ME!?

Timon: Now you're in for it!

Pumbaa: THEY CALL ME MR. PIG! AAAAAHHHHH!

He charged and smashed her all over the place with incredible fury and smashed her and her pigs through the wall!

Nico: YEAH! TAKE THAT!

Eli: YEAH!

Red X: I think it's thanks to the Dark Orb that she has.

Toiiletnator: And is that Boarmon with you guys?

Me: Yep it sure is.

Boarmon: Pleasure to meet you guys.

Me: I guess Gramma Stuffum starts her battles with Luster Dawn?

Gramma Stuffum: (German Accent) Ja und it's gonna be fun. I hope she is skinny because she needs to eat.

Luster Dawn: I may be an egghead but even I have a huge appetite.

Nico: Awesome.

In a swirl of darkness came Emperor Z.

Me: Emperor Z. I have good news for you.

Emperor Z: You found an archenemy for me?

Me: I sure did and Supernova Zap has decided to be your archenemy.

We flew over and busted in and we saw Paige Monroe A.K.A. THE CALENDAR GIRL!

"Mean Seasons".

History

After she turned 30, her modeling career began to dry up, but her agent found a role for her in a sitcom but it was temporary. Monroe disappeared from the public eye and began scheming her revenge on her employers.

Monroe returned to Gotham years later as Calendar Girl to seek revenge. With the help of her henchmen, Calendar Girl kidnapped her former employers on the anniversary of her contract termination, Batman and Batgirl defeated Calendar Girl and her henchmen.

When Harvey Bullock arrested her, he unmasked her and Monroe was dejected and begged him to not look at her face. Batgirl commented that she is still beautiful, but Batman remarked that she cannot see that anymore and all she sees are the flaws.

Abilities

Calendar Girl had an arsenal of weapons that were based on a different holiday such as gas bomb eggs for Easter, firework shooting hats for the 4th of July, explosive pumpkin bombs for Halloween, and a scythe for the Day of the Dead.

---

Me: Paige Monroe A.K.A. The Calendar Girl.

Calendar Girl: J.D. Knudson. Didn't expect you to find me.

Stingbolt: I'm amazed you live up here in the North Pole.

Me: Aren't you gonna freeze to death in this kind of cold?

Calendar Girl: No I have plenty of firewood.

Stingbolt: I'll hold her off and you find the girl J.D.

Me: Right.

I went and searched and Stingbolt fired poison darts into her Chippendale henchmen and knocked them out and I found the girl in a closet and she was a Yuki-Onna, the Snow Women of Japanese Folklore.

Me: She's a Yuki-Onna, the Snow Women of Japanese Folklore. Mizore will like her.

I went over and freed her.

Yuki: Whew. Thank you. Wow it's an honor to meet you J.D. Knudson. My name is Yuki and yes I'm a Yuki-Onna.

Me: Pleasure to meet you Yuki.

We went back and tried to talk some sense into The Calendar Girl.

Me: Paige you are a great fashion model and you are beautiful.

Calendar Girl: You're just saying that.

Stingbolt: I'm gonna revert back now.

I put on my blind man glasses.

Olivia was human again. But topless.

Olivia: (covers her boobs) Calendar Girl, I can't say much about Calendar Man. But how would you like to join either us or the Masters of Evil?

Calendar Girl: I will consider that.

I gave Olivia a shirt and she put it on.

Me: Also Paige you are not ugly.

I took off her mask.

Me: You are still beautiful as you are now as you were back then.

Calendar Girl: Do you really think so?

Me: I know so. You still are beautiful and don't ever doubt yourself like that. Time might not have been on your side. But you are still beautiful on the outside as you are on the inside. Nothing will ever change that. You look amazing in all those awesome dresses and clothes and Leni absolutely loves all those outfits you wore.

Olivia Lovejoy: She sure does.

Yuki: I think so too.

Calendar Girl then had tears flow down your face and then she hugged me and broke down crying.

Yuki: Wow. She thought that she was getting old and lost her mind from that?

Olivia: Yeah and I feel sorry for her. But at least J.D. got through to her.

Yuki: He sure did. Wow.

We later went back to the World Tree Estate and Calendar Girl decided to join the Masters of Evil.

Back at the World Tree Estate, we came in and everyone was watching TV.

Yuki: Wow! It's amazing that you all live up here this far up.

Me: Yep it's amazing.

Nico: Wow she's a Yuki-Onna.

Me: Yep.

Miia: Yuki!

Yuki: Miia!

They hugged.

Miia: It's awesome having you with us.

Yuki: It sure is.

Mizore: It's a pleasure to have a fellow snow woman with us. I'm Mizore Shirayuki and like you I too am a Yuki-Onna.

Yuki: Pleasure to meet you. J.D. told me so much about you.

We got to watching TV.

---

Later I was reading a book about Éclair's home village that was wiped out 4 centuries ago. Lucy got it for me from the Fiore Library.

Me: Hmm.

Nico came.

Nico: What you reading?

Me: It's a book on the history about Éclair's village, the Fire Village. Lucy's letting me read it. It was a small village that was located north of Fiore.

Nico saw what I was reading and it looked interesting.

---

Fire Village was a village of Mages located in the mountains north of Fiore. It was destroyed four centuries ago by attackers, Cream's ancestors hoping to claim the Phoenix Stone.

Aside from the houses of its inhabitants, the village also had a ceremonial stone circle. Within this circle were two ring-shaped stones held the two halves of the Phoenix Stone and a statue of a phoenix, under which a fire was lit during ceremonies.

Localization

The Fire Village was located somewhere in the mountains to the north of Fiore, where Veronica now stands.

Nico: Oh man! Everyone in that entire village was wiped out!

Me: Yeah. They were totally ambushed and they didn't know what hit them. They were caught completely off guard and that Phoenix Festival turned out to be the last one they ever had.

Nico: That's terrible. I can't believe that Éclair went through all that.

Me: I know. It's awful. It's hard to imagine that Éclair would have to carry this terrible burden for such a long time.

Nico: Yeah. What does it say about the Phoenix that they worshiped?

Me: Doesn't really say much other than the fact that it was sealed inside a magical and sacred stone called The Phoenix Stone.

---

The Phoenix Stone is a stone containing a sealed phoenix.

Appearance

The Phoenix Stone is a round, blue stone upon which was engraved an image of a phoenix, with its wings spread and neck craned down.

Description

The stone holds a phoenix sealed within it. According to legend, when the two halves of the stone are reunited, the sealed phoenix will be revived and bestow immortality on the bearer. However, the immortality is actually obtained by drinking the tears of the phoenix as it is being sealed away.

The stone has the power to bestow life upon inanimate objects, such as Momon.

When the two halves of the stone are brought together, the sealed phoenix inside is resurrected. Growing outward from the stone, it takes the form of a huge, metallic, avian monstrosity. The phoenix has immense destructive Magic Power, capable of launching blasts that create huge columns of fire and a fireball that would consume itself and everything around it, with only itself being reborn from the ashes. The phoenix can only be stopped if the stone is destroyed.

The stone cannot be broken through normal means and requires a specially devised Magic to destroy it. If it is destroyed, the phoenix and anyone who has acquired immortality through drinking its tears will die.

---

Nico: Whoa! So if the two pieces are brought together the Phoenix would be released.

Me: Yeah. That Phoenix inside it is evil.

Nico: They obviously must've not had a choice but to save Éclair by infusing her with Phoenix blood.

Me: Yeah.

Nico: Is there any way to destroy the stone completely?

Me: No. It says that the stone is completely indestructible. It can't be destroyed by anything except a very special and powerful kind of magic. But the magic that was used on it was destroyed when the Fire Village was destroyed. Also if it IS destroyed, Éclair will die.

Nico: Oh man. That's bad.

Me: Yeah.

Later I was in the kitchen making breakfast and everyone was getting ready to get up.

Manaphy, Horsea and Tentacool were getting up.

May: (to Manaphy, Horsea, and Tentacool) Morning, girls. Did you sleep well?

Manaphy: (Yawns) We sure did mama.

Horsea: Yeah it was great.

Tentacool: It's great having our own beds instead of having to sleep in water.

May: That's good.

The mascots went to greet Sydney, Nanette and Sheila.

In Sydney's room, Sydney was getting dressed and Manaphy came in.

Manaphy: Good Morning, Sydney!

Sydney: Oh morning Manaphy.

Manaphy: J.D.'s making breakfast today. It's all you can eat egg omelettes day.

Sydney: Wow! That's my kind of breakfast day.

In Nanette's room, Nanette was getting ready.

Horsea: Good Morning, Nanette!

Nanette: Morning Horsea. I heard it's All-You-Can-Eat Omelettes day. Love omelettes.

Horsea: You should see Bottomless Gravy Day for Ed.

Nanette: I know and it's amazing that Ed loves that stuff.

Horsea: He can't get enough of it.

In Sheila's Room, Sheila was getting ready for another day on the force.

Tentacool: Good morning, Sheila!

Sheila: Oh morning Tentacool. I'm excited for All You Can Eat Omelette Day.

Tentacool: I am too.

Manaphy: (to Sydney, Nanette, and Sheila) What are you girls planning to do today?

Sydney: We got to go to work.

Sheila: Got a call about a dangerous homicidal maniac running amuck in the city.

Nanette: I got to open the restaurant for a huge private party coming.

Sydney: And we got some new kids coming into the orphanage so I got to get everyone ready to meet them and take care of them.

Tentacool: Wow!

Me: (Offscreen) Breakfast is ready!

Everyone came doing for breakfast and it was really good omelettes.

Ed: Eggs, eggs, eggs, eggs, eggs, eggs, eggs.

Nico: Mmm! Delicious omelettes.

Eli: I'll say.

Yuki: They are delicious.

Éclair: I'll say.

Miia: They are just as good as anything.

Me: Thanks guys.

The phone then rang.

Moe Howard: Telephone.

Me: Could you guys get that for me?

Curly: Soitenly.

The Three Stooges went to the phone and answered it.

Curly: HELLOOOO…

Larry: HELLOOOO…

Moe: HELLOOOOO! Team Loud Phoenix Storm World Tree Estate, Moe Howard speaking.

(GARBLED SPEECHED)

Moe: One second. J.D. it's for you.

Me: Coming!

I went over and answered it and it was Dr. Quest.

Me: Hello? Oh Hello Dr. Quest. Been a while. What's that? Oh man! We'll be right over. See ya shortly.

I went back.

Maria: So, what's our mission for today?

Me: Well Dr. Quest just called and he wants up in the Yukon for something. We got to meet with famous Humanitarian Dr. Marie Metier.

Nicole: Wow! She's a good friend and one of my colleagues. She's a very good healer and she is helping sick people in the Yukon. You guys will love meeting her.

Laney: I've read a lot about her and I'm really fascinated with her work and how she is using amazing medicines to help cure people.

Nicole: What's going on with her dad?

Me: Something about a wolf attack that happened to her last night.

Nicole: WHAT!? How can a wolf attack her like that?

Me: No idea. But wolves hunt in packs. This one was alone.

Fluttershy: Goodness. We better get up there.

Nico: Yeah I don't like it.

The Masters of Evil then appeared.

Dark Spicer: Can we come with you guys?

Me: You all sure can.

Robo Blaze: By the way, guys, starting July 9, the following members will join the usual battles.

May: Who are they?

Robo Blaze: Stonedozer, Lythos, Magma, Pyros, Iceage, Hydros, Whirlin, Stratos, Killer Croc, Gator Ghoul, Felix Faust, Ben Ravencroft, Grundy, Bizarro, Baron Mordo, Amora the Enchantress, Toad, Leap Frog, Marluxia, Deadwood, Xigbar, Oculous, Zavok, Skullmeramon, Metal Sonic, Machinedramon, Harpymon, Pterodactyl Ghost, Thundermon, 10,000 Volt Ghost, Puppetmon, Marionette Shadow, General Schwarz, BlackWarGreymon, Hydrax, New Wave, White Lightning, Electropede, Black Knight Ghost, Black Lance, Ice Demon, Chillyfish, Black Manta, Manta Bayarsh, Kerbero Gangan, David Cain, Goro, Dumbelltron, Mortal Kombat Scorpion, Fireor, Samon Shakekisutanchin, Seadramon, MetalSeadramon, Ryugu Tamatebacco, Gameface, Dodgeball Wizard, Count Nocturne, Spankulot, Six Gum Gang, Rowdyruff Boys, Salami Swami, and Gramma Stuffum.

Me: WOW! And we picked a REALLY awesome number of recruits for you guys.

Shaggy: Like yeah we sure did.

Nico: And it will be awesome for Nikiya to test her power against BlackWarGreymon.

Eli: And I get to duke it out with Baron Mordo.

Shannon: Same with me for Ben Ravencroft.

Me: My ancestors would be proud of you Shannon.

Shannon: Thanks.

Me: Anyway lets get ready. And bundle up guys. It's gonna be really cold when we get there.

We got ready and got our fur parkas and we were off to The Yukon.

---

THE YUKON, NORTHERN CANADA

---

We arrived in the Yukon in Canada and it was beautiful.

Me: Here we are guys. Welcome to the Yukon.

Nico: It sure is cold.

Kate Lloyd: Yeah it sure is.

The temperature was 10˚ Fahrenheit and it was bonechilling cold.

We then saw Dr. Marie Metier, a famous humanitarian and healer that is well known up in Canada.

Nicole: Marie it's great to see you!

Dr. Metier: (British Accent) It's great to see you Nicole.

Nicole: Same to you.

Poromon: What's up, doc?

Dr. Metier: J.D. Knudson and Benton and everyone it's great having you here.

Me: Pleasure to meet you doctor.

Dr. Quest: We are glad you called us Marie.

Firefly: What seems to be the problem?

Dr. Metier told us everything that happened and it wasn't a pretty sight.

Me: Hmm. That's weird.

Dr. Metier: It took a look at my pendant and stopped.

I looked at her pendant and it had a really interesting coat of arms on it. It was a Wolf head over a shield and swords behind the shield.

Me: Hmm.

Eli: I think that wolf might know you somehow.

Poliwag: (to Yuki) Even though we're not gonna have any usual battles today, you can still find another way to demonstrate your powers in this mission.

Yuki: I understand. Besides it will be a good use for me to demonstrate my skills in helping out in mysteries like this.

Me: That's perfect. Now lets get to finding out what's going on here.

Hadji: (Indian Accent) I agree. Lets get to work.

We got to work and found out some very strange occurrences. We found out that there were tracks in the snow and that they were made by a wolf. But wolves were not bipedal creatures. They were made by a two-legged wolf, A WEREWOLF!

We got to seeing Dr. Metier and Race kissing.

Electro: Do you guys think something's off about Dr. Metier?

Me: Not at all why?

Electro: I don't know. There's something strange.

Jonny Quest: Hey Hadji you don't think Dr. Metier is a werewolf do you?

Hadji: I don't think so Jonny. The full moon has no effect on her.

Jessie B.: Well I think my dad and Dr. Metier would look great as a couple.

Me: I agree. But seeing them standing in the moon like this is amazing.

Laney: It sure is.

Lola: It sure is romantic.

Jessie B.: I think it sure is.

Me: Yeah.

Jirachi: Let's find more proof before we jump to conclusions.

Max: Good idea. And we can start by searching for clues in that cabin we found out about.

Me: Right. We'll search for more clues in the morning.

Later the next morning we got to searching for more clues and in the forest, Shiv saw something.

Shiv: Guys, I think you should see this!

We came and we found a burned down cabin!

Race: Looks like there's a burned down cabin down there!

Me: Whoa! This cabin was totally torched!

Jonny Quest: Lets check it out!

Me: Right!

We went in and looked around and we saw that it was torched and gone.

Me: Man what happened here?

Nico: I don't know.

Eli: Whatever happened here I don't like it.

Dr. Quest: What does it look like?

Race: It was some kind of laboratory.

Dr. Quest: (On the radio) A laboratory in the middle of the Yukon?

Me: And whoever was working here really was up to something.

Nico: Yeah.

Race picked up a broken lantern.

Race: It looks like there was a struggle and the fire could have been arson.

Me: I don't see any trace amounts of gasoline or anything like that. So arson is ruled out.

Lana: And I found some tracks outside that might belong to the wolf.

Dr. Quest: Well it's almost dark. Note your position on the map and we'll start our search from there tomorrow.

I found a fireproof file box and inside it was a ring with the same symbol as the Metier coat of arms.

Me: Look at this ring.

Nico: Wow and it has the Metier family coat of arms on it.

Me: Hmm.

I looked at the files.

Me: Check this out.

I looked at the files and they were the history of the Metier family and all that.

Jonny: Whoa! This one is about Marie. "Dr. Marie Metier given humanitarian award for her work in The Yukon."

Nicole: That's what makes her a good friend and colleague.

Me: We had better head back right now.

Nicole: Right.

Nicole took the File Box and the ring.

Eddy: That proves it. Metier is the werewolf!

Me: Eddy we don't have enough proof.

Nicole: This was Professor Metier's cabin.

Me: Weird. I wonder what happened to him.

Then we heard growling and a wolf pack appeared.

Me: Whoa!

Fluttershy: I got this.

Fluttershy talked to the wolves and befriended them and they became her good friends.

Nico: Wow nice job Fluttershy.

Twilight Sparkle: That was great.

Yuki: It sure was.

Then we heard something in the trees.

We saw a figure and it was Professor Metier and he was half wolf and his clothes were torn and he had a bone tail and he had claws on his hands and feet.

Professor Metier: (Growls) Help me. Please! (Throws something) Take this book. Use the formula. (Growls) Try to make the serum.

Nicole: Professor Metier!?

Me: My God! What the hell happened to you!?

Professor Metier: There's no time to explain! (Growls) For Pity's sake! Help me!

Then the full moon appeared out of the clouds and he howled and his eyes glowed an Evil red.

Nicole: Oh my god!

Professor Metier: EVERYONE RUN! RUN! (HOWLS)

PROFESSOR METIER WAS THE TRUE WEREWOLF!

Dark: Lets get out of here!

We ran fast!

Dark turned into Omegawolf and stated fighting Professor Metier.

Omegawolf: It's only fair to fight wolf with wolf!

Omegawolf fired a sonic blast and sent him into the trees.

Me: Time to join the fight as a werewolf too!

I looked at the moon and my skin turned brown and furry, my eyes turned glowing yellow and slit, my fingers and toes turned into claws, I grew a tail and my ears turned into wolf ears and my teeth turned into fangs. I turn turned into J.D. THE NOCTURNAL!

Me: (Beastly Voice) I'll see if I can talk to him.

I went up to Professor Metier and growled ferociously at him. I even heard his thoughts.

Professor Metier: HELP ME! MAKE THE SERUM! STOP THIS MONSTER! I DON'T WANT TO KILL ANYMORE!

Me: Professor don't worry.

I took the journal.

Me: We'll get you your serum.

I reverted back.

Me: Lets go!

We went back to Dr. Marie Metier's cabin.

Dr. Metier came out and we showed her the things we found.

Dr. Quest: Marie this has gone on long enough. Your pendant, the ring J.D. found, Professor Metier's journal, they all bare your family's coat of arms and they are all connected with the werewolf. You have to be honest with us.

Me: Yeah and we saw Professor Metier. Professor Metier is a full-fledge werewolf.

Nicole: Yeah what's going on Marie?

Dr. Marie: I did not mean to lie to you all. Only now I am beginning to believe in the legend.

Dr. Quest: Legend? What are you talking about?

Laney: I don't understand.

Me: Me neither.

Dr. Metier: For countless generations, the man of my family have been persecuted as werewolves. I have thought it was all a fairy tale until I read the journal of this tortured soul.

Me: What did it say?

Professor Metier: (Voiceover) "My disease still grips me. I have lived with it all my life and still each Full Moon is like a new nightmare. Who would I tell? Who would believe me? I hardly believe it myself. And yet, just two days ago, I came to consciousness covered in blood. Who was I? I do not know. This serum must be successful. I spent so many years searching for the antidote. But no matter how hard I try, all my experiments end in failure. I drift between forms, changing from a demon at night to half man and half monster during the day. I hover between lives. A ghost, a devil, a man, a beast! No one can know my agony. But I have located my last living blood relative. She is my only hope."

Me: Man that's terrible!

Eli: Having to live with Lycanthropy like that is a nightmare from the darkest pits of the Netherworld.

Nico: Yeah.

Nicole: I had no idea that Professor Metier was going through all that! He never told me anything about this terrible dark secret he has.

Ets: It's like a curse from Hell.

Vypra: Yeah no kidding.

Carly Atlas: The poor guy.

Me: We got to get to work on an antidote for him.

We got to work and in Dr. Metier's lab we got to work.

Dr. Metier: It's all here in his journal.

Jonny: But if Professor Metier had the formula to make the antidote, why is he still a werewolf?

Dr. Metier: Because I have the one ingredient he lacked: my blood.

Dr. Quest: Professor Metier believed his disease to be purely genetic. But for some reason the female Metier's are immune. Isolating the female recessive gene may lead to a serum.

Hadji: A werewolf vaccine.

Me: Then lets get to work.

Nicole held on to Professor Metier's ring and we got to work and all it took was one phial of Marie's blood and we made it. It was a grey liquid.

Dr. Quest: There! I have it.

Me: All right!

Fu: This is gonna be interesting to see if it works.

Jonny: Now all we need is the Wolf.

Dr. Metier: Don't worry Jonny. He will come to me.

Nicole: What!? Marie it's dangerous. He will mutilate you until you are a butchered corpse.

Dr. Metier: It is the only way. And Nicole you can keep the ring that you found and Race whatever happens I want you to have this, It has always brought me luck.

Me: Be careful doc.

That night Dr. Metier was standing in the forest and we were waiting and we heard growling and we saw glowing evil red eyes in the shadows. I was in my J.D. the Nocturnal form.

Me: (Beastly voice) There he is.

Jonny: Behind Marie. In the shadows.

Race: I see him.

I looked at him with my vision and the night vision of my eyes was looking through the darkness of the shadow.

Race: Come on out. I can't get a clear shot until he comes out.

The werewolf came out and he was dripping drool and and his eyes were glowing red with pure bloodlust.

Hadji: I have a bad feeling about this Dr. Quest.

Dr. Metier went to the werewolf.

Me: I don't like where this is about to head.

Lincoln: Me neither.

Dr. Quest: What's going on?

Hadji: It's as if she is mesmerized.

Jonny: SHOOT HIM RACE!

Hadji: He is going to attack!

Me: Do it Race!

Nico: Hurry!

But Marie got in the way and then the werewolf attacked!

Nicole: Uh oh! Jonny, dad, come on!

Me, Nicole and Jonny jumped onto the werewolf and injected him with 4 darts full of the serum and he roared in pain and knocked us off.

Hadji picked up Jonny.

Me and Nicole landed.

Nicole: Whoa.

Hadji: Are you all right my friend?

Jonny: Yeah.

The werewolf roared as it ran.

Dr. Quest: (Scolding Jonny) That had to be the stupidest thing I've ever seen you do!

Jonny: But dad…

Dr. Quest: Then again it was probably the bravest thing I've seen anyone do.

Me: Good job Jonny.

I picked up Dr. Metier and she saw me as a werewolf.

Me: It's okay doctor. I have the ability to transform into a werewolf at will. Long story on that. Lets get you back to your cabin.

Nicole: At least we got the serum into him.

We went back to the cabin.

Jonny: Lets just hope that for Professor Metier's sake, the serum works.

Me: It will.

We got her back to her cabin and Dr. Metier was in casts on both her arms and one arm was in a sling and her leg was on the table.

Race was healing her up.

Dr. Metier: You know I think I rather like this. Having someone doctor me for a change.

Me: At least you're gonna be all right.

Dr. Metier: Thank you. But J.D. how did you become a werewolf?

Me: Mine wasn't done by a curse. It was done through artificial means. I got it from a formula made from Steroids and Timberwolf Estrogen. It made me into a werewolf and I am called J.D. the Nocturnal in this form.

Dr. Metier: That is amazing. But thank goodness you saved me. Thank you. Thank all of you. Benton, Hadji and especially you Jonny, J.D. and Nicole. I don't know what else to say. You all saved my life.

Me: (Chuckles) Just doing our job to protect people.

Nicole: Yeah we do what we can.

I reverted back.

Nico: So, everything's okay now, right?

Me: We'll find out.

The door opened in a howling blizzard and a Yukon man named Tuk cam and he had an unconscious man with him in a fur parka.

Tuk: I found him up on the mountain. Naked and half-dead.

We saw that it was professor Metier and he was cured! THE SERUM WORKED!

Me: It worked!

Hadji: Fate is a strange master. You tried to kill him as a wolf, yet it was your destiny to save him as a man.

Me: Lets get him to the bed so he can recuperate.

Nico: Right.

We put him in bed and Professor Metier groaned.

Nicole: Professor?

Professor Metier: (Weakly) Nicole?

Nicole: Professor? Are you all right?

Professor Metier: Nicole. Where am I?

Me: Well you are in Dr. Marie Metier's cabin. It's a long and ugly story professor.

I told him everything and he was shocked and amazed but really weak from being a Lycanthrope.

Me: We made the serum and cured you. But while you were a werewolf you attacked Dr. Metier. But's she's all right. Thanks to Nicole and Jonny Quest here.

Professor Metier: I am forever grateful to all of you.

Nicole: Professor why didn't you tell me you were going through all of this?

Professor Metier: It was because I didn't want to put you in danger and I know how busy you are on all your adventures. But I can never put the student I love as a daughter in danger.

Nicole: (Smiles and tears come down her face) Thank you professor.

Professor Metier smiled.

Professor Metier was cured and The Werewolf Curse of the Metier Family was no more. We later went back home and had dinner and went to bed.

THE END

Another awesome fanfic done.

The episode of Jonny Quest called In The Darkness Of The Moon was one of my favorites back when I was a kid and it was an awesome adventure. Werewolves are scary and ruthless monsters. The episode aired on September 23rd, 1996 and coincidentally the Full Moon of September was in the same week it aired 3 days after that on September 26th. This was supposed to be a chapter for Magi Nation. But I accidentally put that into the lineup twice and replaced it with this one. Sorry about that guys. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan, Drako1234658 and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up in the girls to be rescued is Cholan the Carbuncle and we're going to rescue her in Balloon Land from the 1935 Cartoon Balloon Land and it's gonna be a blast from the past as we save her from the terrible Pincushion Man. Also for Nbwatts we're going to have an awesome race in the Okefenokee Swamp and we're going to race through the dark waters in an extremely dangerous AIRBOAT RACE! We're going to be in for an awesome battle in this one as we fight to the finish.

See you all tomorrow.

The Treacherous Black Swamp Race

In the sky, me and Vina Tereshcova were flying through the clouds and then we saw a bunch of Balloons!

Me: Balloons?

Vina: (Russian Accent) I wonder what they are doing here.

We flew on and then we saw an incredible sight! We saw a city made entirely out of balloons!

Me: Oh wow! A city made entirely out of balloons.

Vina: This is amazing!

We got closer.

Vina: Have you been here before, J.D.?

Vina concentrated and groaned as her buttons popped off of her shirt.

Me: Not this is my first time. This was all from a childhood cartoon that I have known since I was 5 years old.

Vina became VENOMWHIP!

Venomwhip: It does bring back memories. Wow!

Me: This was a cartoon from 1935 called Balloon Land.

Venomwhip: That was a cartoon from the Great Depression.

Me: I know. And it's amazing that this is a city full of anthropomorphic balloons.

We went into Balloon Land and it was amazing. It was a city made entirely out of balloons and the people were all anthropomorphic balloons.

We heard muffled screaming and we went to a janitors closet and in it we saw a girl. She was really a Carbuncle from South American Folklore.

Me: Wow she's a Carbuncle, a legendary creature from South American Folklore.

We went over and got her out and freed.

Cholan: Whew. Thank you. Wow! You're the famous J.D. Knudson, leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Me: That's me. And this is Vina Tereshcova, she's also known as Venomwhip and she is a Blue-Ringed Octopus Gene-Slammer.

Venomwhip: Pleasure to meet you.

Cholan: Same to you. And yes I am a Carbuncle. My name is Cholan.

Me: Pleasure to meet you.

Venomwhip: I'm gonna revert back now.

Me: Okay.

I put on my blind man glasses and Vina reverted back.

Vina was human again. But topless.

Vina: (covers her boobs) McWolf really has been getting a break from being tickled by us.

Me: Tickling does take a lot out of people.

I gave Vina a shirt and she put it on.

Vina: Thanks J.D.

Cholan: But this place is amazing. It's amazing that there is a world where balloons all live in one place.

Me: It sure is cool. Also I think the Pincushion Man would make a great archenemy for Nelliel.

Vina: I think so too.

?: (Evil laughter)

We saw THE PINCUSHION MAN!

The Pincushion Man is the main antagonist of Balloonland .

Biography

The Pincushion Man is the main antagonist of one episode of 1935's Ub Iwerk cartoon, Balloon Land, He's a terror of Balloon Land and all of a sudden, he heard there was a boy and a girl wandering around in a spooky forest.

He hides in front a a tree and then pops out and he's about to pop them but he missed and they start to scram and the Pincushion Man goes after them, the two bounce through the gate but the pincushion slams angrily and he yells, "Let me in, I'll get mad in a minute! Open the gate, I wanna come in!"

The dimwitted gateman wouldn't let him in, but the pincushion beast became a sly old liar to be his friend, the gateman lets him in and he got popped, the children rush to sound the alarm and the balloon people run for their lives, the Pincushion Man goes popping balloons in terror, the kids tell the general of army that the Pincushion Man is on the loose. The army went to battle the beast to cover him and his pins in sap and roll out of Balloon Land and plummet to his death.

---

Me: The Pincushion Man!

Cholan: Lets get this clod!

Vino: Yeah!

He threw a pin and it hit me and grazed my right cheek on my face.

Me: OW!

I grabbed the pin and it was a 12 inch pin and I had blood dripping from the cut.

Me: Geez! Didn't your mother ever tell you never to run with pins or scissors!?

Pincushion Man: I don't care!

Vida fired venom lightning and electrocuted him.

Cholan fired rainbow light and melted all his pins.

Cholan: Take that you walking pinhead!

He was knocked down.

Me: He would make a great archenemy for Nelliel in the Masters of Evil.

Vida: He sure would.

Me: Lets get home.

We went back to the World Tree Estate.

---

Back at the World Tree Estate later that night, everyone was watching Nature Documentaries with Nicole and Laney was reading a book.

We came in.

Me: Here we are.

Vina went and got a glass of water.

Cholan: Wow! So this is where you all live.

Me: Yep. Home sweet home.

Miia: Cholan!

Cholan: Miia!

They hugged.

Nico: Wow she's a Carbuncle from South American Folklore.

Me: She sure is. You would not believe where she was at.

I told him all about it and it was incredible.

Nico: WHOA! Balloon Land like in that old cartoon from the 1930's.

Me: Yep. That was also a cartoon from my childhood and we found a new recruit for the Masters of Evil.

Nico: Let me guess. The Pincushion Man.

Me: Bingo.

Cholan: He was an anthropomorphic safety pin.

Me: Yeah and I got cut by his pins.

Nico saw my cut and it healed up.

Nico: Whoa he sure got you good there.

Me: Yep and he would make a good archenemy for Nelliel.

Nelliel: I'm honored.

Rita: Kids time for bed!

We went to get ready for sleep.

* * *

Later the next morning we were waking up. Poromon, Poliwag and Jirachi woke up and Nico saw them.

Nico: (to Poromon, Poliwag, and Jirachi) Morning, you three. Did you guys sleep well?

Poromon: You bet we did.

Poliwag: What are we having for breakfast?

Nico: It's Whopper Sausage Pancake Thursday today. J.D., Lincoln and Lynn Sr. are making big Texas size sausages and pancakes for breakfast.

Jirachi: Oh boy! I'm starving!

Poromon: Me too!

In Georgina's room she was greeted by Poromon bouncing on her.

Poromon: (jumps on Georgina's stomach) Good morning, Georgina!

Georgina: Oh morning Poromon.

Poromon: It's almost time for breakfast.

Georgina: I better get ready. Whopper Sausage Pancake Thursday.

Poromon: Yep.

Kendra was greeted in her room by Poliwag bouncing on her stomach.

Poliwag: (hops on Kendra's belly) Good morning, Kendra!

Kendra: Morning Poliwag. You sure are excited today.

Poliwag: I'm excited because it's Whopper Sausage Pancake Thursday today! I'm starving.

Kendra: (Laughs) You really are hungry. Better get ready myself.

Jirachi greeted Maxxine and Rice in their room by hopping in between them on their bed.

Jirachi: (to Rice and Maxxine) Good morning, Rice! Good morning, Maxxine!

Rice: Morning Jirachi.

Maxxine: You sure are excited.

Jirachi: Yep! It's because I'm hungry.

Rice: (Giggles)

Me: (Offscreen) Breakfast is ready!

The girls later came out.

Poromon: (to Georgina, Kendra, Rice, and Maxxine) What do you girls have planned for today?

Georgina: Well I got to head out to work for lifting heavy furniture.

Kendra: Got to go to the library to sort out a new shipment of books.

Rice: Got to head to the school to get cleaning.

Maxxine: And me, I got to go to work at the green house.

Poliwag: Neat!

We got to having breakfast. We were having Texas size sausages and lumberjack style pancakes and they were big and delicious.

Later we were watching TV and then the doorbell rang.

Me: I'll get that.

I went to the door and out of the elevator came Bobbie Fletcher.

Me: Bobbie Fletcher. Been a while.

Bobbie Fletcher: It sure has guys. You guys have been really busy since we had our last race.

Me: I know.

Bobbie Fletcher: I came to tell you all that the next race is on soon and it's an airboat race in the Okefenokee Swamp.

Me: Wow! An airboat race. That's a first and through Georgia's Okefenokee Swamp, one of the most treacherous swamps in the world.

Bobbie Fletcher: Yep and you're gonna love it.

Me: I always love a great race. You know that we'll be there.

Bobbie Fletcher: Awesome! See you all there.

Bobbie Fletcher left and I went back to the sofa.

May: We haven't been in a race in a very long time.

Me: I know. It feels like forever since we been in one.

Twilight Sparkles: What races did you all go in?

Me: Oh gosh there are lots of them. But we had so much fun in lots of them.

I showed everyone videos of all of our races we had. We had awesome races on Mars, Venus, Pluto, Grimsvötn Volcano, In a Cave in Asia, A Super Race Around the world, A Race in the Mariana Trench, A Race Around the Solar System, An Offroad Mud Race, A dangerous Race in the Alps, Italy, London, and the first race was through Gotham Royal York.

Janeen (Swamp Girl): (Cajun Accent) Amazing! You guys are going to love seeing all of it.

Applejack: We'll love seeing that swamp.

Me: Yep. But this is gonna be an awesome airboat race. Lets get ready guys. It's race time!

We went to our garage and we got to building our airboat racers and they were designed from our cars and they were awesome.

---

OKEFENOKEE SWAMP, GEORGIA

---

We were all gathered in a water dock for our airboats and we were getting them ready for one of the most amazing races ever known. But it wasn't just us that was getting ready. The Masters of Evil, The Wacky Racers of Hanna Barbera and Speed Racer and his friends were all there. This is gonna be one of the most amazing races of all.

Me: This is gonna be so awesome! Are you all excited for this?

Nico: I sure am.

Speed: I can't wait to get onto the swamp water.

Me: Me too Speed. How are you feeling since the Alpine Race?

Speed: Doing well J.D. Thank you for saving me.

Me: You're welcome Speed.

Snake: Dude, me and the guys already got our cars ready!

Me: We can see that. But this is an airboat race. This is gonna be the first time we've done a race in airboats. This is gonna be so fun! We haven't had a great race in a long time.

Rainbow Dash: I know this is gonna be so AWESOME!

Scootaloo: I know! I can't wait to have fun!

Applejack: YEEHAW! Me too.

Vypra: This is gonna be so awesome.

I looked and saw that ALL OF US had airboats ready.

Me: WOW! Everyone has Airboats ready.

Nico: Yeah they sure do.

Me: Wow! This is gonna be fun.

Nico: Wow! This is the most racers I've ever seen for one race.

Eli: I know. It's so amazing.

All of us are ready to have fun. But then Dick Dastardly then appeared.

Me: Dick Dastardly.

Maria: (sarcastically) Nice to see you too, Dastardly.

Dick Dastardly: (laughs) Haven't seen you for a while, Knudson! Were you taking a break from racing or were you all too busy sending helpless muggers and robbers to the Warp?

Me: For your information Dastardly we were too busy fighting in wars and fighting our most dangerous enemies to even have some fun.

Nico: Yeah and also saving the world is far too important.

Eli: That's right!

Ets: And we have to do what we can to keep the world safe. You should be thanking us for that.

Nunnally: That's right.

Éclair: I've never been in a race before. This will be my first time doing this.

Me: You'll love it Éclair.

Horsea: Maria, where can I fit on your airboat?

Maria: You can sit with me Horsea. There's a seat for you.

Horsea: Yay!

She got in.

Me: This is gonna be so fun. I've never driven an airboat before but it's gonna be awesome.

Varie: It sure will be fun.

Robo-Blaze: You guys ready?

Sora: You bet we are.

The race was getting ready to start.

Billy Natson then appeared.

Billy Natson: And welcome to another most amazing and most exciting race for you all. Hello I'm Billy Natson and today we have an amazing treat for you all. Nico: BRING IT ON!

Billy Natson: That's the spirit! And Vypra how does it feel for you to participate in your first race witih us?

Vypra: It feels awesome! I'm ready to have some fun!

Billy Natson: Love that racing spirit!

Manaphy: Let's get this race started!

Billy Natson: Someone sure is eager.

Krista: LADIES AND GENTLEMEN START YOUR ENGINES!

We got the boats revved up.

Krista: ON YOUR MARKS…

We were ready!

Krista: GET SET!

She then waved the green flag and the fans on our boats blew fast and we zoomed fast!

Krista: REV UP AND GOOOOOOOO!

ZZOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

We gunned it and we zoomed onto the swamp!

Billy Natson: AND THEY'RE OFF!

We were off! The race was on!

We got to the first part of the race and we were in a grove of trees.

Firefly: So far so good!

Me: WOOO! THIS IS AWESOME!

Nico: YEAH! Not bad driving an airboat for the first time!

Carly Atlas: YEAH! This is awesome!

But then we saw 5 airboats coming in front of us and they had missile cannons ready to fire!

Racer 1: DIE J.D.!

Me: NOT ON YOUR F LIVES! MATCHHEAD MISSILES FIRE!

I fired a Matchhead Missile and it hit the racer and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: BULLSEYE!

Nico: You have failed this race!

Electro: (to Dick Distardly) Nice move sending your buddies to attack us!

Dick Dastardly: (confused) What are you talking about? I'm not with them.

Electro: (sarcastically) Right. And Green Goblin's in the Masters of Evil now.

Dick Dastardly: I'm telling the truth! Me and Muttley work solo!

Electro: And we're supposed to believe that bullshit?

Eli: Max he's telling the truth! The Force is telling me that they were hired by someone else.

Me: Then lets interrogate one of them.

I turned around and got the man I blasted out of his airboat out of the water and grabbed him by his shirt.

Me: Who set you bastards!?

Man 1: Why should I tell you!?

I held his head down and threatened to feed him to the alligators!

Me: Better start talking or you're alligator chow!

Man 1: Okay okay I'll tell you! You remember Dirty Piston Joe?

Me: Yeah.

Man 1: He hired me and my friends to kill you all!

We gasped.

Tentacool: Oh crap. Where's Dirty Piston Joe right now?

Man 1: He's still in prison! He had sent a letter to one of his contacts and he hired us to kill you all. He put a huge contract on you all for $510 trillion.

Me: He doesn't have anywhere near that kind of money.

Man 1: I have a feeling that we were used as pawns.

Me: Why is he doing this?

Man 1: He wants revenge on you for putting him in prison and banning from racing for life. He wants to kill all of you for ruining him and his entire family.

Me: That bastard just never learns.

Kairi Yano: (to the man) If you stop working for him and work for us, we'll pay you double that you were paid.

Right: We'll even triple it if you can tell us where Goche and Baron

Nero are.

Man 1: I don't know who they are but I DO know who they are working for.

Me: Who is it?

Man 1: His name is MR. MIND!

WE GASPED IN SHEER SHOCK!

Me: OH MAN! I WAS RIGHT!

Nico: Wait a minute J.D. you saw Mr. Mind?

Me: Yeah I sure did. He had a SaberLeomon with him and so was Baron Nero and Goche.

Keiichiro: Look, we don't know where Mr. Mind is. Heck, he don't even know who he plans to recruit or what he's planning. But we DO know that we have to stop Dirty Piston Joe's henchmen before they hurt someone.

Me: Mr. Mind is SHAZAM's most dangerous enemy.

I went over his history.

---

Captured by the Wizards

At some point, Mister Mind visited the planet Earth to cause chaos but was captured by the Wizard Shazam and the Council of Wizards, and was kept in a terrarium prison in the Rock of Eternity.

In 1974, Mister Mind was first seen looking at a young Thaddeus Sivana from his terrarium. After an older Thaddeus Sivana frees the Seven Deadly Sins and attacks the wizard, Mister Mind's terrarium breaks and he was able to escape.

After Sivana's defeat by Billy Batson and his family, Mister Mind later appears in Sivana's prison cell and Mister Mind insults him in his fruitless effort to reenter the Rock of Eternity and told him that the seven deadly sins aren't the only way to possess magic as he recruits him in a partnership to take over the seven realms.

When I was done everyone gasped in shock.

Keiichiro: YOU HAVE GOT TO BE FUCKING KIDDING!

Tsukasa: He's an inchworm that wants to conquer the seven realms!?

Me: And from the looks of things he's forming his own team to combat us.

Nico: Oh man. We got to destroy all the bad guys that pose a serious threat before he can recruit more.

Me: So far he has 3 now. He has Goche, Baron Nero and SaberLeomon.

Marcus: So SaberLeomon is now in his group.

Me: Yeah. We appreciate you telling us this. Now we all know who we are up against. I got to inform everyone and put the entire planet on full alert for him and his group. But first we have a race to win.

Man 1: You're welcome.

Me: By the way sir who are you?

He took off his mask and he was really Ben Burke!

Me: Ben Burke!

Devon Daniels: Ben Burke!? But why?

Ben Burke: I was desperate for money. I'm sorry.

Me: It's all right Ben.

Dick Dastardly: Let me help you guys.

Shiv: (to Dick Dastardly) Wait. You're helping us?

Dick Distardly: Don't get used to it. Only me and Muttley get to mess with you all in races!

Me: And that's fine with us. Lets get these clods. Hop on Ben.

He came on and strapped in and we got back to racing.

Manaphy: (to Ben Burke) If anyone asks, we'll say that you were blackmailed into doing this.

Ben Burke: Fair enough.

Me: Lets go!

We gunned it and we were off!

Dark Spicer: I'll use Trojanware to merge with my airboat.

Me: Go for it Dark.

Dark Turned into Trojanware and merged with his airboat and it was now equipped with everything from lasers and missiles and more.

Me: Lets get them!

We saw the cheaters up ahead!

Ravi: (to the cheaters) You've got some nerve drafting poor Ben into your group!

Me: And we're going to return the favor! PIRANHA MISSILES FIRE!

I pressed three buttons and fired three piranha missiles and they went and shredded the boats and the cheaters to pieces.

Nico: BINGO!

Razor: Nice shooting J.D.

Me: Thanks Razor.

Laney: Time for some action! Watch these missiles Razor. STINGRAY MISSILES FIRE!

Laney pressed three buttons and fired three missiles and they grew glider wings and fired lasers from their eyes and they blasted the cheaters into nothing.

Me: YEAH!

Laney: BINGO!

Razor: Nice work Laney!

T-Bone: Those missiles were great!

More cheaters came.

Lana: I got this. SPIDER CHAIN MISSILE FIRE!

She fired a missile and it formed into a deadly chain and tied up some of the cheaters and electrocuted them into ash and their boats exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Lana: BINGO!

T-Bone: Nice shooting Lana.

More cheaters came.

Me: How many cheaters did Joe hire?

Eli: Looks like lots of them.

Lincoln: I got them! MEGAVOLT MISSILE FIRE!

He fired a Megavolt Missile and it hit a cheaters boat and electrocuted it and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Lola: SLICER MISSILES! AWAY!

She pressed 3 buttons and she fired 3 Slicer Missiles and they opened up and razor blades spread and they sliced through the cheaters boats and they exploded!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMMM!

Lola: BINGO! Cheater prime rib!

Razor: Nice shooting Lola.

Vypra: You guys make amazing missiles.

Me: Aylene is the one who comes up with the ideas.

Aylene C.: I also help make the designs for them.

Me: Yep.

Kameo: I think we're nearing the finish line!

Me: I see it! And there are more cheaters blocking it!

Nico: I got this! T-Bone you are gonna love this missile. VENUS FLYTRAP MISSILE! FIRE!

He fired a Venus Flytrap Missile and it grabbed the cheaters and dissolved them in acid!

Nico: YEAH!

Razor: BINGO!

T-Bone: Nice work Nico!

Billy Natson: And the winner is… J.D. KNUDSON AND ÉCLAIR!

Everyone cheered wildly for us both!

Éclair: OH WOW!

Me: We won!

Everyone cheered wildly and me and Éclair were given an awesome trophy. We got an emerald trophy in the shape of a Cypress Tree and it had an airboat swirl around it.

Me: AWESOME!

We saw a cheater came up and he was dying.

Marcus: It's over, assholes! You guys failed to kill us and we won the race. What are ya gonna do now?!

Man 2: (Dying) We're not through yet!

He pulled out a remote and pressed a big red button and then a missile was launched high into the air.

Me: What is that!?

Man 2: It's a 10 teraton Nuclear Missile. In 10 minutes it will drop down from the upper atmosphere and kill you all and destroy everything within 10,000 miles!

We gasped!

Me: That kind of missile will destroy the entire planet!

Nico: YOU'RE OUT OF YOUR FUCKING MIND!

Man 2: It's the only way to make sure that you pay for your crimes! Piston Joe has won. (Dies)

Me: Oh no.

Superman: This is not good.

Nico: We got to get everyone out of here.

Me: Yeah!

Éclair: We got to get to a shelter.

Laney: It wouldn't matter.

Superman: I got this.

I looked at Superman.

Me: What are you gonna do Kal?

Superman: I'm gonna stop the missile.

Me: No Kal you can't!

Superman: I know what I have to do. This is for me to do.

Me: Understand Kal.

Superman flew into the air and went at the missile. When the missile reached the upper atmosphere it had its rockets go out and it started to plummet back to Earth and Superman was going towards it.

Me: (Voiceover) We believe in you Superman.

Superman: This is for you J.D.

The missile then hit him and then…

MASSIVE KRABOOM!

The flash of light was as bright as 100 billion suns and the explosion was powerful enough to obliterate all life on the planet. When the light faded we saw a huge cloud of smoke and fire in the sky and then a star was in its place.

Me: Wow!

Everyone cheered wildly!

Me: He did it!

Then a whistle was heard and then a crash and down came Superman and he was burned to a crisp and he crashed into the ground with a tremendous crash!

CRASH!

Me: OOOHH!

We looked at him.

Superman was hurt but still living.

Me: GEEZ!

We went over and got him up.

Me: Kal thank goodness you're all right.

Superman: (Dizzy) I'm never doing that again.

Varie looked him over.

Varie: He'll be all right. At least it wasn't a missile lined with Kryptonite.

Nico: That's a relief. But Dirty Piston Joe is gonna be in a lot of hot water with us.

Me: More like an eternity of ice at 1˚ Kelvin. He is going to the Cryo-Prison for eternity for this.

Dick Dastardly: Don't me and Muttley get anything? We did help you after all.

Data Squad Agumon: (gives them M&Ms) Here are some M&Ms.

Dick Dastardly: Candy is always good.

Me: We love candy.

Nico: Well, the only things left to do is send out that alert about Mr. Mind and his group.

Lori: Actually, let's literally wait on that.

Nico: Why?

Lola: Well, there are still several of us who haven't gotten new transformations yet. So, it's best if we send out that alert after we and all of our genderbent counterparts get said new transformations.

Lynn: By then, the villains recruited by Mr. Mind will probably be pushovers, unlike Joker and Luthor.

Me: That is a good point. We'll wait till we all get stronger and then destroy Mr. Mind and his forces.

Eli: Yeah.

Zoey Reeves: Some of the cheaters are still alive. I'm sure General Burke would be VERY happy to see them.

Lincoln: What makes you say that?

Nate: Ben and his sister Betty are the kids of General Burke. And they're also from Grid Battleforce.

Beast Morphers Steel: And these assholes just made it personal when they decided to include Ben in their revenge plot!

Me: You got that right. Devon we'll leave these cheating freaks to you.

Devon: Thanks man.

Me: Éclair you were awesome.

Éclair: Thanks J.D. Never won a race before. In all my time over 400 years it was the first one ever.

Me: We both more than earned this trophy.

Éclair: And this too.

She then shocked me by kissing me and it was beautiful.

I kissed her too and it was beautiful.

We later went back home and we put the trophy in our trophy case and then we went to Lynn's Table to celebrate and we had Ulti-

Meatum Burgers and we had a lot of good food for dinner. We went back home for sleep.

THE END

---

Another awesome race chapter done.

This was a great chapter! A race we have not done in a while. But don't worry there will be plenty of them later on and I promise not to make anymore delays for them. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan, Drako1234658 and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next girl we're going to rescue is gonna be Myuu the Ryu-Jin and she is gonna be in the Cobweb Hotel, another of my favorite childhood cartoons from my past. Get ready for another explosive battle as we save the entire world from another terrible Vok Artifact. It's the Planet Buster from the Beast Wars episodes Before the Storm and the 2 Part episode Other Voices and this is gonna be interesting as we figure out what the strange Alien Golden Disk means and what is coming and we're gonna stop the Vok from destroying the planet by igniting the energon all over the planet and blow the entire planet to kingdom come.

See you all tomorrow

The Planet Destroying Aliens

Over in a suburb of the city, me and Maxxine Stennson were flying over it and we saw an interesting house.

Me: That house looks interesting.

Maxxine: Lets go check it out.

We flew over to it and just as we went to the window there was a flash of light and we saw that we were the size of common houseflies!

Me: Whoa man! We're the size of flies!

Maxxine Stennson: We shrunk somehow!

Me: Weird.

We went in and saw EVERYTHING GIANT! Because of our tiny size everything was giant.

Maxxine: We're gonna need some new archenemies to make up for the no combat missions the last few days.

Maxxine concentrated and groaned as she began to hunch forward.

Me: Boy you are not kidding Maxxine.

She turned into Queen Nail.

We went into a desk and we saw that we were no bigger than common houseflies. We saw that the desk was being used as a hotel for a spider that wants to eat flies.

Me: Oh wow! It's the Cobweb Hotel from the 1936 Cartoon.

Queen Nail: That's my favorite cartoon.

Me: I remember watching this one back in my childhood too. That was awesome.

Queen Nail: It sure was.

We heard squealing and we saw a spider fighting a fly.

Me: Lets go free his flies!

We went into the rooms and freed the spider's prisoners and we found one prisoner that stood out. It was a girl and she was a Ryu-Jin, a breed of dragonewt. We freed her.

Myu: Whew. Thank you. Wow you're J.D. Knudson, leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: That's right. And this is Maxxine Stennson but she is called Queen Nail in this form.

Queen Nail: Pleasure to meet you.

Myu: Same here. My name is Myu and I'm a Ryu-jin. We're a breed of Dragonewt.

Me: Pleasure to meet you. We can talk later. Lets go tear that spider clerk apart.

Queen Nail: With pleasure.

Myu: Let me at him!

We gathered the flies he caught and really went at the spider clerk and made sure he got a taste of his own medicine and we pulverized him into dirt and smashed him into some library paste.

We left and we exited the house and we were back to our normal size.

Me: Whew! Thank goodness.

Queen Nail: I'm gonna revert back now.

I put on my blind man glasses and Maxxine reverted back.

Maxxine was human again. But naked.

Maxxine: Can someone get me a towel?

I gave her a towel and she put it on and I gave her new clothes.

Maxxine: Oh thanks J.D.

She went and put them on.

Myu: That must happen to her a lot.

Me: You have no idea Myu. But that's the last time that spider will use that hotel.

Myu: You said it.

Maxxine came back.

Maxxine: Yeah you said it.

Myu: But thank you both for saving me.

Me: You're welcome Myu. Lets head back to the estate.

We went back to the estate.

---

Back at the World Tree Estate, everyone was watching TV and reading books.

We came in and Maxxine went to join in.

Myu: Wow! So this is your home.

Me: Yep.

Miia: Myu!

Myu: Miia!

They hugged and were happy to see each other.

---

Later the Ed's were walking to the Arcade.

Ed: I'm the ice cream man.

Eddy: Shut up Ed.

Edd: Lovable oaf.

Eddy: We really need to find more good Robot Chicken Sketches to show the others.

Ed: Good idea, Eddy.

Double D: We just need to find out where to find them.

The Eds came across a boy and a girl.

Ed: Excuse me. Do you know any good Robot Chicken Sketches?

Double D: Ed, I don't think that's something you should ask people.

Eddy: Wait. Those two look familiar.

Edd: They look like Ben and Gwen back when they were younger.

Eddy: It's a trick! Goche and Baron Nero must be in disguise! Get them!

They jumped them.

Back at the estate, we were watching TV. Then the phone rang.

Me: I'll get that.

I went and answered it.

Me: Yello?

Eddy: J.D. it's Eddy.

Me: What's up Eddy?

Eddy: Guys, I got great news! Me, Lumpy, and Sockhead captured Goche and Baron Nero!

2014 Maleficent: That's great news, Eddy! Where are you guys right now?

Eddy: I'm over at the arcade.

Me: We'll be right over.

We went over to the arcade and to our surprise, the Ed's didn't capture Goche and Baron Nero but rather a younger Ben Tennyson and Gwen Tennyson.

Me: Whoa man!

Nico: Uh wrong kids dude.

Ben: That's me back when I was younger.

Gwen T.: I forgot that's what I looked like at that age.

Young Ben: (glares at Kevin) Kevin! I knew you'd be involved in this!

Kevin: For the record, this was not my idea!

Cilan: Eddy, I think you captured the wrong people.

Eddy: Oh, c'mon! There's no way that Ben and Gwen's younger selves would be here without destroying the timeline. It's obvious that these are Goche and Baron Nero in disguise!

Touma: Look, how about me and Umika place our Dial Fighters on Young Gwen?

Umika: If they activate, they'll open a safe. That will prove if these are Goche and Baron Nero in disguise.

Eli: Guys calm down! This is definitely Ben and Gwen's younger selves. The Force is telling me that they are indeed the real deal.

Me: Yeah.

Young Ben: See.

We let them go.

The Young Ben went back with us to the Estate and he saw that it was amazing. Young Gwen was walking around the city.

Young Ben was watching TV. But then he felt something.

Young Gwen: (In Ben's head) HELP ME BEN!

Young Ben: GWEN!

Me: Ben what's wrong!?

We then saw him Jump out the window!

Nico: IS HE OUT OF HIS FUCKING MIND!?

Eli: We're 100 miles up!

Me: Lets go!

We jumped out and we saw Young Ben plummeting towards the Earth with incredible speed.

Me: WOW! He's divebombing like a falcon!

Ets: He should be burning up on reentry from friction caused by the Earth's atmosphere from that incredible speed.

Fu: Wow! He is really going fast.

Nico: There will be nothing left of him when he hits the ground!

Me: Yeah!

Just at above the city at about 5,000 feet we saw Young Ben's back suddenly glow with the fires of the Sun and then he sprouted Fire Butterfly Wings from his back!

We gasped in shock!

Me: WHOA!

Eli: WOW! Those are amazing wings!

Ben swooped down and flew after a black van and we followed him.

Me: Wow! He sure knows how to fly!

The vans windows open and a couple of thugs fired at Young Ben and he dodged the bullets with ease and fired fire laser blasts at the thugs and killed them! He then fired a laser that burned a hole into the van and he ripped it open and then he flew in and blasted the thug holding Young Gwen and he grabbed her and flew into the air as the van exploded!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOM

Young Ben flew up to us.

Me: WHOA! Ben that was incredible!

Nico: Wow! You saved Gwen from those monsters!

Eli: Yeah!

Young Ben: Yeah but it was worth it to show you my secret.

Me: What is this power?

Young Ben: It's a powerful bloodline called Blazewing. It enables me to sprout butterfly wings made of pure fire.

Shanan: I've seen this technique before. It's a technique that was originally used by the extinct Lepipyronians of the Planet Pyrolepidos.

Laney: Wow! That's amazing.

Young Gwen: HELP!

We turned and we saw Young Gwen help hostage! She was being held by a thug that once served Icepick!

Icepick Thug: (points gun at Young Gwen's head) Get back or I shoot this bitch!

Snapdragon: Wait. Aren't you guys those thugs that were among the drug dealers when Steve supposedly went to Hogwarts?

Maria: (to Young Ben) Now would be a good time to use Snare Oh!

Young Ben: Snare Oh?

May: She means your Thep Kufan form. That can save Gwen easily.

Me: He doesn't know or have that form yet.

Nico used his super speed with Kevin 11,000's Kineceleran Speed and grabbed the Young Gwen and I blasted the thugs and obliterated them and banished them into the Warp forever and Young Ben turned into Heatblast and blasted them with fire and incinerated them. Young Ben then reverted back when the Omnitrix timed out.

Me: That takes care of those clods. Lets head back to the Estate and talk this out.

Nico: You guys still think we should keep a cocaine brick in case there's a need to go berserk on certain villains.

Young Ben: Before we discuss any further, I'd like to turn myself in for murder. (puts hands above his head)

Moonracer: Alright then. (puts handcuffs on Young Ben) If you can't do the time, don't do the crime.

10 seconds passed.

Moonracer: (takes handcuffs off) Ok. Time's up.

Young Ben: But, I killed people just now…

Kairi Yano: Yeah, people who threatened to kill your cousin and might've even raped her too.

Me: That's right Ben. You saved Gwen from danger and you did the right thing by killing those fucking assholes.

Young Ben: But I killed them.

Me: You did but it was justifying. It was part of what we do. We kill those that are irredeemable or send them to prison and those guys would have continued on until they did so again.

Young Ben: Oh I get it.

Later back at the estate we were watching TV.

Elec Man: (to Young Gwen) Your Older self can actually turn into a Great White Shark. You wanna volunteer to be turn into that kind of shark too?

Young Gwen: I don't think I would like that.

Gwen T.: That's okay. It's a painful experience.

Young Ben: So you have an Omnitrix too J.D.?

Me: Yep. And there are many more things that the Omnitrix can do Ben.

I told him everything about it and what the Omnitrix is capable of.

Young Ben: Wow! That is amazing.

Me: It sure is.

Then Cargill, Dark Laser, Spymaster, Madame Masque, Red X, 2016 Morbucks, Mummy, and Toiletnator then appeared.

Cargill: Can me, Dark Laser, Spymaster, Madame Masque, Red X, 2016 Morbucks, Mummy, and Toiletnator go with you guys on the next mission?

Me: You all sure can. If we ever get one.

Young Ben: Whoa who are they?

Me: It's all right Ben. These are our frenemies in the Masters of Evil.

Red X: Am I starting to go crazy or are we seeing Ben and Gwen back when they were younger?

Me: You are not going crazy. These are definitely them.

Then the alarm sounded.

Me: Uh oh.

We looked on the computer and we saw on a map a strange energy signature located in the Rocky Mountains in Idaho.

Me: This is unusual. The scanners are picking up an alien energy signature in the Sawtooth Mountains of Idaho.

Nico: Weird. I wonder what it is.

Tigatron: (On the radio) Tigatron to Team Loud Phoenix Storm base do you copy?

Me: J.D. here Tigatron. What's going on?

Tigatron: I'm at the Sawtooth Mountains and I'm picking up a strange alien energy anomaly.

Me: Hang on Tigatron we're on our way. Lets head out.

We were off to Idaho.

---

SAWTOOTH MOUNTAINS, IDAHO

---

In the mountains of Idaho, we saw Tigatron.

Sixshot: What did you find, Tigatron?

Tigatron: Look at that mountain over there.

We saw a mountain that was glowing blue like some kind of beacon.

Me: That's weird. Mountains don't glow.

Nico: There must be a huge amount of Energon in that mountain.

Me: Lets go check it out.

Myu: Lets.

We went and checked it out and inside the mountain was a pool of water and it had a spinning rock and on a rock pillar was a strange golden disk with alien symbols on it.

Me: A golden disk?

Nico: Weird.

We went over and pulled the disk off and we looked at the symbols and they were those of the Vok.

Me: This is a Vok Golden Disk.

Nico: Wow.

Me: Lets head back to the estate.

Nico: Right!

We went back to the estate.

WORLD TREE ESTATE

Back at the World Tree Estate, everyone was having a nice talk.

Mummy: (to Young Ben and Gwen) Um.. you two aren't still pissed at me, are you?

Young Ben: Actually we haven't met you yet.

Nicole: Where were you guys at when you all came here to our Earth?

Young Gwen: We were over at Mount Rushmore facing Vilgax for the first time,

Eli: That's weird.

Me, Nico and everyone came back.

Me: All right we have to translate what is on that Golden Disk. Something tells me that whatever is on that disk is not good.

Shanan: I can do that.

Me: Okay.

Shanan went to her room and was studying the language that was on the Golden Disk.

In Shanan's room, she and Tigatron were deciphering what was on the disk and what they saw was shocking! It was a Golden Disk of Alien Origin and it was not a good sign!

Tigatron: (Gasp) By the matrix!

Shanan: Not a good sign.

Shanan and Tigatron went and told us what they found.

Diamond Tiara: Did you guys find anything out?

Shanan: I'm afraid the news me and Tigatron found out is not good.

Tigatron: The Golden Disk was that of alien manufacture. It was activated recently and that was the energy anomaly we noticed.

Optimus Primal: Another Golden Disk. Coincidence?

Rhinox: Maybe.

Tigatron: This Golden Disk we found was designed to be a beacon. The aliens, the ones who have seeded this planet with Energon, the ones that made those Standing Stones and that mysterious flying island.

Optimus Primal: Yes what are you saying? What did you discover?

Shanan: They're coming!

We gasped in shock and horror.

Tigatron: They are on their way here. And I don't think they're very happy.

Me: Oh shit.

Optimus Primal: Well that's just prime.

Me: Oh boy.

Nico: We had better be ready for them when they come.

Dark Laser: Me and Flipsy are going into the Death Ball to help you guys kill those aliens!

Shanan: It's not that simple Dark Laser. The Vok are incorporeal creatures and they can't be destroyed with any kind of conventional weapon. But their technology CAN be destroyed.

Then the alarm sounded.

Computer: Alert! Power Anomaly in the Sahara Desert.

Rhinox: Display coordinates and cross reference energy signature with data tracks Tau VII.

The computer did so and we saw that it was located at 21° 17' 21.7464" N and 12° 43' 50.3868" E and the energy signature matched that of the Standing Stones energy.

Computer: Energy signature identical with previous alien contacts.

Me: It's located in northeastern Niger.

Rhinox: Looks like our mysterious Vok Friends have finally arrived.

Optimus Primal: Just what we need, a visit from the Landlord.

Me: Lets go check it out.

We were off to the Sahara Desert in Northeastern Niger.

NIGER, SAHARA DESERT

We arrived at the Sahara Desert and we saw an alien bungalow. It was a freaky thing.

Ravage: Hi. How can we help you folks today?

Me: Ravage they can't hear you from out here while they are in there. Whatever this Alien Bungalow is, me and Optimus Primal will go in and figure out what they want.

Nico: Okay.

Me: Nico you stay out here with everyone and make sure no one comes near this thing.

Nico: Right.

I fired an energy blast and we busted into the bungalow.

Me: Lets go.

We went in.

Madame Masque: (to Young Ben and Gwen) While we're waiting, you want to be introduced to our mascots?

Young Gwen: You bet we do!

The 7 Mascots came forward.

Poliwag: Hello there! I'm Poliwag.

Poromon: I'm Poromon.

Horsea: I'm Horsea.

Manaphy: I'm Manaphy.

Tentacool: I'm Tentacool.

Jirachi: I'm Jirachi.

Emolga: And I'm Emolga.

Young Gwen: Wow! They are so cute!

Optimus Primal: What do you think these aliens want?

Me: I don't know Optimus but I have a bad feeling about this. But we need to give them some answers.

Optimus Primal: Right.

Me: Lets see if they are even here. Hello? Anyone here?

Then an orange swirl appeared and then a massive flash of light appeared and above us was the floating head of UNICRON!

Optimus Primal: Unicron!

Me: But that's impossible! We destroyed you!

Vok: We have no physical form you can comprehend. We chose this figure of authority from your data tracks.

Optimus Primal: If you know what I am, you know that we did not come to this planet by choice.

Vok: Yet you are here.

Me: We mean you all no harm. To you or this planet.

Vok: It is too late. You and your enemies have already contaminated the project. The harm has been done. That which does not become part of the one shall become void.

Optimus Primal: No! Wait! We can fix whatever damage was done!

Vok: We are not interested. The experiment will be sterilized.

Optimus Primal: You can't do that! There are living creatures and people here! You with all your power, even you have no right!

Me: Yeah this planet is our home! You can't destroy it!

Vok: We have no choice. There is more danger than you know. Begin termination sequence.

He then vanished in a flash of light and then the bungalo was flashing all over.

Optimus Primal: NO!

Me: LETS GET OUT OF HERE!

Optimus Primal: Optimus Primal, MAXIMIZE!

He transformed and we flew out.

Sissi: (to Young Ben and Gwen) So, back to what Ed was saying this morning, do you two know any good Robot chicken sketches we can watch?

Young Gwen: We don't know that show.

But then the Bungalo glowed and was flashing violently and me and Optimus Primal got out.

Nico: What's going on!?

Me: They've called it a Termination Sequence!

Optimus Primal: We'd better get outta here!

Rattrap: You just said my favorite phrase!

We left fast and went back to the World Tree Estate.

Then the Bungalo bursted open and a massive blast of energon exploded out of the top and the beam flew into space and hit a larger moon in orbit around the Earth that was never there before and it burned the surface and the moon glowed an ominous and powerful blue.

Tigatron and Cheetor saw the beam and the moon.

Cheetor: Suffering Circuits! What could it be?

Tigatron: The light at the end of the world.

Optimus Primal: (On a radio) Optimus Primal to Cheetor and Tigatron. Do you copy?

Tigatron: Tigatron here.

Optimus Primal: We'll explain at the estate. Head there fast! Code X!

Tigatron: On our way!

Rattrap: I've been saying it ever since we hit this planet! We're all gonna die.

Me: No one is gonna die on our watch. Right now we need to figure out what is going on and what the aliens are gonna do.

We flew back fast and arrived at the estate in seconds.

Vok: Termination Sequence engaged. Return to Nexus Zero.

The bungalow vanished and the blue light enveloping the moon disappeared.

Terrorsaur: They're leaving. We scared them away!

Me: I don't think so. Computer, patch in Space Scanner.

Spymaster: (to Dark Laser) You and Flipsy better head into the Death Ball for this!

Dark Laser: Right!

Dark Spicer: The moon. It's gone.

Electro: The Aliens have destroyed it.

Vypra: That moon was never a moon to begin with. And it's far from gone. Computer, magnify image.

It magnified and we saw the moon transformed into some kind of powerful Solar Plasma Cannon.

Laney: What in the world is that!?

Beast Wars Megatron: I'd say it was the instrument of our destruction. Impressive. Yes.

Lincoln: What are we gonna do?

Me: Seal the entire city and charge all shields. Fu, charge superlaser up to full power.

Fu: Right!

Me: Computer analyze machine and purpose.

The computer analyzed it and we saw that it was a powerful Solar Plasma cannon and that it was gonna be used to ignite the Energon and blow the entire planet up from the outside and destroy all traces of it!

Me: WHOA MAN!

Lana: This is bad!

Optimus Primal: By the matrix! No! They're going to ignite the energon deposits!

Beast Wars Megatron: They will cause a chain reaction which will rip this planet to atoms and destroy all traces of them.

Me: And it's simply to deal with all of us.

Beast Wars Megatron: What sheer ruthlessness. What callous disregard for sentient life. I'd rather like these aliens.

Terrorsaur: Like them!? They want to destroy us!

Waspinator: Waspinator not want to be destroyed! Waspinator has plans.

Me: We got to blow up that thing and the Superlaser has more than enough power to do it.

Demolishor: As soon as that laser's destroyed, we're killing those aliens!

Me: Demolishor we don't even know where those aliens even come from.

Laney: And besides you heard what J.D. and Shanan said. Our weapons won't even work on them.

Me: But our powers will. They are incorporeal creatures and we can banish them to the Warp.

Shanan: I can look up where they are later.

Red X: Like you guys said, we can still destroy their technology. So, let's start with that plasma cannon!

Me: Right!

Laney: How will we know when it's going to fire?

Nico: I think it's going to fire now!

We saw the gold star in the middle of the machine spin and then it filled up with plasma.

Me: Fu! Fire!

Fu pressed the red button and then the Solar Plasma Cannon fired as the Superlaser fired and the Superlaser fired and it hit the cannon and the cannon exploded with incredible power!

MASSIVE KRABOOM!

Me: BULLSEYE!

Nico: YEAH!

Eli: That did it!

Ets: Nice try you cosmic vermin!

Bright Man: That should provoke the aliens into coming down here.

Shanan: Not really. I found out where they are.

Me: Where?

Shanan: It's a place called Nexus Zero. It's located at the very distant edge of the Galaxy

The computer showed it.

---

Nexus Zero is a location associated with the Vok, presumably their home. It doesn't seem to be a planet, but rather a nebula where the Vok float around, talk, and keep their kidnapped victims in stasis.

There are other nexi, all part of a wormhole network facilitating travel across the galaxy. The only other specific one known is Nexus Earth, but that pathway was destroyed by the Metal Hunter's explosion. Because of this, Tigerhawk would be sent to Earth via a comet-like vessel instead.

After interrogating Optimus Primal on Earth, the Vok decided to sterilize the planet, activating the Planet Buster. When the Planet Buster was operational, they declared, "Termination sequence engaged. Return to Nexus Zero," at which point they vanished from the Earth in a streak of light.

Tigatron and Airazor were later captured by a giant plant and "beamed" off the planet in a similar fashion. They ended up at Nexus Zero, where the Vok held them in some kind of stasis. Some time afterwards, a debate emerged among the Vok: Some were concerned about "a serious disruption in the timeflow, location: Nexus Earth." Others were skeptical, as "that nexus has been closed; the experiment has been terminated." In the end, they decided to merge Tigatron and Airazor into Tigerhawk and send him to Earth as their emissary to capture or destroy Megatron, who had caused the timestorm.

Me: Target sighted.

Eli: You mess with our planet, you mess with us.

Ets: This is our home you monsters and you are not welcome here.

Laney: Lets get them.

Troy: These guys picked the wrong planet to mess with.

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Lost Galaxy!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Lost Galaxy Rangers.

Me: The Vok picked the wrong superhero team to mess with too.

Rattrap: In case we die, I want you guys to know that you've been the best friends I've ever had.

Optimus Primal and Airazor: Shut up Rattrap!

Me: Now guys that's enough and no one is gonna die today. Lisa, deploy the U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix.

Lisa Loud: Affirmative!

We went onto the ship and we were off to Nexus Zero.

---

The ship was flying through space.

Me: Captain's Log, Stardate 2943.2: The U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix is en route to the nebula called Nexus Zero, home to an evil race called the Vok. 2 Hours ago they attacked our planet by trying to destroy it with a Solar Plasma Cannon that was gonna destroy the planet with the Energon they planted. Our mission is to deliver swift payback towards them.

Nico: And they will get it bad.

Lisa Loud: We have arrived at our destination.

Me: On Screen.

We saw that we were in an ominous nebula.

Me: This is it. Lets get them!

We went and faced them.

Toiletnator: (to the Vok) Hey there! Mind if we come in?

Vok: IMPOSSIBLE!

Me: You messed with the wrong people! (HOLDS OUT HAND) HAKAI!

We banished the Vok to the Warp for all eternity.

Nico: Good riddance.

Me: But there might be more Vok Artifacts on Earth for us to find. Lets head home.

We went back to Earth.

---

We got back to Earth.

Turbo Man: That was a little too easy.

Me: Yeah it sure was. But we still have enough time to have our usual battles. Yuki, Cholan you will be able to test your skills now.

Yuki: All right!

Cholan: This is gonna be fun.

Laney: It sure will be. Lets get some dinner first and then head to the gym.

Nico: Good idea.

We went and got some grub and we later went to the gym and got ready. Out came Molten Man, El Diablo, U Foes, Tala, Living Laser, Cad Bane, Roquefort, Toyman, Kaos and El Oso.

Me: Molten Man, El Diablo, U Foes, Tala, Living Laser, Cad Bane, Roquefort, Toyman, Kaos and El Oso

Roquefort: Boy talk about a good adventure to save the world.

Nico: (Drooling) Got any good cheese on you Roquefort?

Roquefort: (Laughs) I'll see if I can whip up something.

Toyman: Thank goodness you all destroyed that thing.

Molten Man: I'm so glad the Vok didn't make it to Earth!

Dl Diablo: You and me both!

Tala: I honestly wouldn't have minded killing them myself if they had.

X Ray: I would've zapped them into nothing.

Ironclad: Well, I would've crushed them!

Me: Physical attacks don't work on them.

Nico: Yeah but that's one less evil race we have to worry about.

Eli: You said it.

But then we smelled a REALLY MALODOROUS ODOR!

Me: P.U.! Okay who ripped one!?

Nico: It wasn't me! But that smell is horrible!

?: It's from me!

A figure came out and it was STINKWEED!

Shaggy: ZOINKS! It's Stinkweed!

Nico: STINKWEED!? (VOMITS ALL OVER)

Qin: This stinky butthead smells disgusting!

Twilight Sparkle: What was he known for?

Qin: He was really Vincent Thorne, the star of the Stinkweed Movies who played as Stinkweed. He was fed up with making the movies for Stinkweed and he wanted to make him look so bad that the studio would have to stop making the movies for him. And he would have all the money from the robberies. He got 20 years in federal prison for it.

Twilight Sparkle: Whoa man! So he's a disgraced movie actor.

Me: Yep. He was released and is now a janitor.

Then 2 more figures came out and they were THE DEMON FARMER and Sailor Mercury's old enemy FROSTY!

Shaggy: ZOINKS! It's the Demon Farmer!

Frosty: Been a long time Sailor Mercury.

Sailor Mercury: Same to you Frosty.

Shanan: I didn't expect the Negamoon to have a Cryoyukian in their ranks.

Qin: What's a Cryoyukian?

Shanan: They are a race of Snow Woman from the planet Yukionis. It's an ice planet that's home to them and the Cryoyukians are a peaceful race until the whole planet was completely destroyed by a massive comet that smashed into it.

Qin: WHOA! That's crazy.

Frosty: It sure is. And I'm impressed that you know so much about my kind.

Shanan: I know all about the life in the universe.

Qin: Yep and the Demon Farmer was really Neville Poppenbacher, maker of the worst popcorn ever. He was after the Secret 6 Puppies to get the numbers on their tags so that he could break into a lab on a farm and destroy an awesome Popcorn on the Cob prototype.

Shaggy: Like yeah it's really awesome buffet flavor popcorn. But like, Neville's popcorn is the world.

Daphne: Yeah it tastes like greasy cardboard.

Velma: And gets stuck in your teeth.

Shaggy: And REALLY needs salt.

Me: Yep. But Shaggy was not kidding about that popcorn on the cob. It is the best we've ever had.

Qin: It sure is. And Neville got 20 to 30 years for his crimes. He died in prison of cardiac arrest.

Sunset Shimmer: Geez.

Muscle Man: Hey guys you know who else likes good popcorn like that? My mom!

We laughed at his joke.

Cholan: (Laughs) That was funny!

Me: Yeah it was.

?: Bad popcorn huh?

A figure came out and it was SCRAPPER from episode 3 of Dino Charge!

---

Scrapper tried to escape Sledge by creating a space large enough in the bars of his cell for his crusher arm to slip through. However, he was quickly caught by Sledge, who offered Scrapper freedom if he could obtain the Energems. He then worked alongside several Vivix, Wrench, Fury, and Poisandra to face off against the Dino Charge Rangers before Sledge arrived, prompting the battle to begin in earnest. Scrapper fought and easily defeated both Chase and Koda before the villains retreated.

Scrapper was ordered by Sledge to follow the Rangers to their headquarters before returning to Sledge's ship to inform him of its location so they would destroy it and claim the Energems. Tyler Navarro, having stumbled upon the plot, arrived to confront Scrapper and prevented him from escaping in his ship by ramming it with his jeep, sending Scrapper flying out, after which point he fought Tyler.

Wrench arrived to assist Scrapper in taking down Tyler before the others showed up to help. The Rangers used their new Dino Steel upgrades made by Kendall Morgan to discourage Wrench and defeat Scrapper. Sledge promptly used the Magna Beam to make Scrapper grow to destroy the Rangers.

The Rangers called out the T-Rex Zord, Stego Zord, and Tricera Zord to form the Dino Charge Megazord: Tri-Stego Formation, destroying Scrapper with a Final Strike.

---

Tyler Navarro: Scrapper!

Scrapper: Been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were offered freedom to destroy the power rangers and get the Energems. You also were going to find the Dino Charge Rangers and have Sledge destroy it.

Scrapper: That's right. Good memory on you J.D.

Me: Never missed an episode.

G1 Scrapper: Hard to imagine that we've got the same name.

Scrapper: I know, right? But I can't turn into a car.

Me: That would be cool if you did though.

Scrapper: It sure would.

Me: Looks like this is gonna be fun.

Then I heard a familiar voice that I haven't heard in ages)

?: All the more fun for me.

Me: I haven't heard that voice in 5 years.

A figure came out and it was DR. ZIN!

---

Dr. Zin was a power-hungry scientist who was the sworn arch-enemy of Dr. Benton Quest, and, by extension, his son, Jonny. Descended from the Mongol Khans, Zin believed he was destined to create a "Zin Dynasty" and would stop at nothing less than world domination. Although a brilliant scientist in his own right, Zin often attempted to steal his rival Dr. Quest's inventions and ideas for his own use. He had two daughters, Anaya and Melana, who became known as the "Zin Twins." Dr. Zin is the main antagonist of the original Jonny Quest animated series.

He was voiced by Jeffrey Tambor who also played K. Edgar Singer and Mayor Augustus Maywho. In Tom and Jerry: Spy Quest, he was voiced by James Hong.

The Original

Zin primarily operated behind the scenes, relying on various operatives and machines to do his bidding so he would not get his hands dirty. He first tried to create synthetic gold to increase his already vast wealth, but his operation in India was stopped by the Quests. He then attempted to use a gigantic spider-like robot probe to attack a military base and steal the designs for Dr. Quest's para-power ray. The robot was destroyed by the experimental para-power ray before it could return to Zin with the plans. Zin also kidnapped Race Bannon and replaced him with a double so the double could steal a Thai drug created by Quest to enhance astronauts' alertness while in space, but Jonny and Hadji suspected "Race" and enlisted the aid of Jezebel Jade to expose the impostor and rescue the real Race. After this, Zin hatched a scheme to sell a weapon of mass destruction out of a dormant volcano in Haiti, using trickery and special effects to make it seem as though the volcano was active to keep people away. Dr. Quest and his team foiled the plan and the local military destroyed the volcano, however Zin survived because he was transmitting from elsewhere.

The Real Adventures

By the time Jonny, Hadji and Jessie were all young adults, Zin returned with a vengeance, assisted by his daughters Anaya and Melana. He held a NASA space station hostage and also reused his original robotic spies in an effort to kill the Quests once and for all. After that failed, he and his daughters enlisted the help of Dr. Hatani to created robotic ninjas called Zinjas to kill the Quests. Once more he was bested by his old enemies, and, swearing revenge, Zin escaped with his daughters and Dr. Hatani, vowing to return.

---

Me: Dr. Zin!

Dr. Zin: Been a long time J.D. Knudson.

Dr. Quest: I was wondering when you were gonna make your big entrance Zin.

Nico: Wait a minute? Dr. Zin? The malevolent power-hungry scientist that wants to take over the world!?

Me: That's him. He's mine and the Quest Team's most dangerous and most ruthless enemy. I have always been one step ahead of him when he was trying to take over the world. I destroyed his nerve gas, his robots and even all his schemes.

Dr. Zin: And you will pay dearly for all of that J.D.

Me: Not if I kill you first and rid the world of your evil for good. I've had it with you Zin. Now you will pay for your crimes in full.

We powered up.

Battle 1: Kaz, Applejack, Apple Bloom, Frozen Fright, Rockhoof, Earth Skylanders, Magma Man, Lynn Loud, Lola Loud, Flame Princess, Lea, Francis, Flame Man, Heat Man, Volcana, Zuko, Azula, Taranee, Elec Man and Fire Man VS Molten Man

Molten Man was first.

Molten Man: (to Kaz) Was that really Ben's younger self I just saw?

Kaz: Your eyes are not playing tricks on you. That is DEFINITELY Ben's younger self. Gwen's younger self was with him too.

Applejack: Yeah and you should have seen what he did when he rescued younger Gwen.

Apple Bloom: He sprouted fire butterfly wings and saved her from thugs.

Frozen Fright: Yeah he sure did. It's a bloodline he has called Blazewing, where he sprouts fire butterfly wings.

Rockhoof: (Scottish Accent) Aye. It's really amazing. He jumped out of the window from the estate.

Flashwing: And like a divebomber he dove through the Earth's atmosphere and sprouted his wings and saved his younger cousin.

Magma Man: Yeah you should have seen it. It was REALLY something.

Lynn Loud: Boy it sure was.

Lola: It was an epic daredevil move.

Flame Princess: Reckless but it worked.

Lea: Yeah it sure did and Shanan said that she saw this kind of ability before.

Francis: She said it was from an extinct race of aliens called the Lepipyronians.

Molten Man: Wow! That is unusual. But amazing.

Zuko: It sure is.

Molten Man: You said it. Lets do it.

He fired waves of lava and they dodged them and fired waves of earth and fire and smashed him down.

Kaz: YEAH!

Applejack: YEEHAW! That was great!

---

Battle 2: Leo Corbett, Fluttershy, Tree Hugger, Tornado Bolt, Mage Meadowbrook, Life Skylanders, Sunset Shimmer, Wallflower, Swift Foot, Tempest Shadow, Princess Luna, Sixshot and Barrage VS El Diablo

---

El Diablo was next.

Fluttershy: It sure was. Young Ben really did an amazing job in saving his young cousin.

Tree Hugger: It was far out and radical dudes.

Tornado Bolt: Boy it sure was.

Mage Meadowbrook: But thank goodness that we've seen the last of those thugs.

Stealth Elf: Yeah you got that right.

Sunset Shimmer: Those thugs got what was coming.

Wallflower: You said it.

Swift Foot: We never have to worry about those jerks again.

Tempest Shadow: You said it.

Princess Luna: Most agreed.

El Diablo: Indeed. Lets do it.

The U-Foes were next.

Vector: (to Syd) Whether the Vok decided to fight you guys as Unicron's head would've made no difference.

Vapor: You guys have fought Unicron before. That manifestation of his head would've been much more easier to fight.

Syd Chang: Many of us weren't with the entire team when all that happened. But that head was just a hologram from what J.D. told us.

Rarity: But J.D. told us all about Unicron and what that monster Transformer did was absolutely terrible.

Sweetie Belle: Yeah it sure was. Unicron was horrible and he is called the Transformer Devil.

Magma Gloom: You are not kidding. I heard so many terrible things about Dr. Zin. He had a lot of dangerous men working for him and a lot of those men are either dead or in prison by J.D.

Flash Magnus: And the most terrifying part is that Dr. Zin is descended from Genghis Khan.

Whirlwind: Yeah that's nuts.

Elec Man: Yeah and Genghis Khan's line will end by J.D.'s hands.

Fuse Man: It sure will.

Living Laser: I can tell that J.D. and Zin have a huge score to settle. Lets get it on.

TO BE CONTINUED…

Another awesome fanfic done.

The planet buster from Beast Wars Transformers has been a really powerful weapon from that show that I remember watching back when I was a kid. The beginning part of the chapter is based on the Cobweb Hotel, an old cartoon from my childhood from 1936 and it was cute and funny. The Young Ben & Gwen was something I got from a picture that I saw on Deviantart. It's based on LyokoBarbossa's picture called Blazewing. It's a picture of Ben from the Original with Fire Butterfly Wings like what I saw on the Yu-Gi-Oh Card, Blazewing Butterfly. He did a great job on that. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan, Drako1234658 and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next girl will be Sea the Sea Serpent and she will be in the world of the cartoon from 1940, Ants in the Plants. We're going to save her from being eaten by an anteater and we're going to make that anteater cry uncle. The next chapter is for Transformers Animated from 2007 and we're going after Sentinel Prime and we're going to make that brash arrogant jerk pay for his crimes and show him some humility.

See you all tomorrow.

The Animated Transformers Problems

In the middle of the forest, me and Kendra were walking through it.

Kendra: Let's see who we're rescuing this time.

Kendra concentrated and groaned as her eyes began to move closer together.

Me: This is gonna be interesting.

Kendra turned into Armorsight!

Me: YEAH!

We went further into the forest and we saw an ant city.

Me: Oh wow! This is the world of another cartoon from my past. It's Ants in The Plants.

Armorsight: That's a cool one.

Me: It was made in 1940.

Armorsight: We're seeing worlds from cartoons of your past all the time here

Then we heard an ant lookout.

Ant Lookout: Calling all ants! Calling all ants! Run for your lives! Danger! Public enemy #1 at large! Do you want to be his next victim?! Then Scram!

The ants in the city ran for their lives.

We saw an anteater going after a bunch of ants.

Me: Hey you overgrown vacuum cleaner!

Armorsight: Leave those ants alone!

I then saw a tiny figure in his pocket and it was a Sea Serpent Lamia!

Me: There she is and she's a sea serpent Lamia.

Armorsight: Interesting.

Armorsight jumped on the Anteater's back and pulled his legs and he pounded his fists crying uncle and I reached into his pocket and got the girl out.

Me: You all right?

Sea: Yeah thanks. Wow! You're J.D. Knudson, leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Me: Yep. Pleasure to meet you.

Sea: My name is Sea and I'm a sea serpent Lamia.

Me: Pleasure to meet you Sea.

I used my powers and grew her back to her normal size.

Sea: Thanks.

Anteater: UNCLE! UNCLE! UNCLE!

He ran home.

Me: Good riddance to that clod.

Kendra: I'm gonna revert back now.

Me: Okay and Ants don't you dare peek at her.

The ants covered their eyes and I put on my blind man glasses.

Kendra was human again. But naked.

Kendra: (covers herself) Can I wear a towel until we get home?

Sea: I got one.

She pulled out a towel and gave it to Kendra.

Kendra: Thanks.

Sea: You're welcome. Do you have any water? It's dry.

I formed a ball of water for her like I do for Varie and Meru.

Sea: Ah that's better.

Queen Ant: Thank you all so much for saving us from the Anteater.

Me: You're welcome your majesty. As long as we're present that dopey anteater is not gonna be eating you guys. How would you all like to move to our estate under our protection?

Queen Ant: We would like that.

Everyone in the colony agreed.

I snapped my fingers and beamed the whole city and colony to the World Tree Estate Park.

We later went back home.

---

Back at the World Tree Estate, Muriel was watching her favorite show and Eustace was reading the paper and everyone was reading books.

Courage was on Muriel's lap.

Eustace then pulled out his funny mask and scared Courage.

Eustace: OOGA BOOGA BOOGA!

Courage: AAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAHHHHHHHHHH!

Eustace laughed and then…

KABONK!

Muriel bonked Eustace on his head with a Rolling Pin.

Eustace: OW! What did I do!?

Nico: Eustace sure likes to scare Courage huh?

Laney: You have no idea.

Francesca: Grandpa Eustace has always been like that. But he's fun like that.

Me, Sea and Kendra came in.

Kendra: Better go change into new clothes.

Kendra went to her room.

Sea: Wow! So this is where you all live.

Me: Yep.

Miia: Sea!

Sea: Miia!

They hugged.

Miia: It's awesome having you here.

Sea: Same here Miia. It's awesome to see you.

Nico: She's a Sea Serpent Lamia.

Me: Yep.

I told them everything about where we found her.

Nico: Wow! In the world of Ants in The Plants from 1940. That was a good one.

Eli: One of my favorites.

Ets: Great cartoon back then.

Nico: It's good you all moved the ants colony city to the park.

Me: Yep. Under our protection.

---

We later were at the mall shopping. When suddenly it turned into a battle as we were fighting yet another terrorist attack.

All of us were hiding behind a pillar so the Bomber doesn't find us.

Azula: Can't we go shopping without some maniacs trying to destroy the mall?

Me: Obviously not.

I fired an energy blast and it hit the bomber and blew his legs off.

I went at him and the bomber threw bombs at me and I dodged them and Eli used the Force and threw the bombs back at the bomber and they hit the bomber and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

I went up to him.

Me: It's over for you.

Bomber: Don't be so sure. You haven't won. See this? (Pulls out a detonator.)

Me: Looks like some kind of a detonator.

Bomber: It is. But this is a spring loaded dead mans switch. If my finger comes off it, Boom! There's 910,000,000 tons of TNT under this mall. If you don't do as I tell you this entire city will go to hell up in flames.

Me: Fat chance.

Bomber: You will go to every bank in the city and empty them and bring all the money to me.

Me: No thanks.

Bomber: I will blow up this entire city you asshole.

Me: I would like to see you try you fuckpot motherfucker!

Bomber: WHAT THE FUCK DID YOU CALL ME!?

Me: You heard me. You're a fuckpot shitsucking motherfucker!

I snapped my fingers and teleported all the dynamite to me and compressed it to a ball and then I beamed it into him.

I then teleported and grabbed the remote and put my finger on the switch.

Eli: Now you all see how Frieza killed Krillin.

Eli used the Force and lifted him into the air and when he was at 10,000 feet up…

Me: Kaboom.

I lifted my finger off the detonator and then…

MASSIVE KABOOOM!

He exploded with incredible power.

Me: Give my regards to Satan asshole.

We went back to everyone.

Lisa: Remind me again why we can't disarm the bombs?

Chili: Because the bomber might find a way to activate the bombs anyway. We need to take him out first.

Me: Nevermind. I already did that.

Nico: Oh. That was fast.

Eli: Yep.

Ets: How did you do it?

Me: I teleported the bombs to me and compressed it to the size of a ball and beamed it into him.

Eli: Then I used the Force and sent him into the sky and J.D. detonated it.

Nico: WOW! That was clever.

Goku: Like how Frieza did on Krillin.

Krillin bonked Goku on the head.

Krillin: You had to remind them of that.

Razorclaw: Look, Lisa. I know you might think disarming the bombs is the more logical option. But sometimes, the logical solution isn't the right one.

Me: That's right Lisa. Logic doesn't always apply to everything.

Nico: Yeah Lisa. Also you need to have lots of emotions too.

Lisa Loud: You know emotions are not part of who I am.

Me: Yes they are Lisa. Without emotions you're only half a human.

Eli: That's right Lisa.

G1 Grimlock: Me Grimlock glad bombs are gone!

Maria: It would've been a lot faster if Lisa wasn't arguing with how to stop the bomber.

Me: Now Maria, Lisa is smart and likes to go by logic. But she needs to learn that logic can't always apply to everything.

Lincoln: That's right Lisa.

Eli: Yeah.

Sea: Besides. At least the City is safe.

Cilan: Yep.

Tornado Man: (to Cilan) I'd like to thank your brothers for joining the team, Cilan.

Cilan: It's awesome having the whole family here.

Chili: It's an honor to be part of the team.

Cress: It sure is.

Me: You guys are great Pokemon connoisseurs.

Chili: Thanks.

Cress: It's awesome.

Me: (Watch Beeps) Oh we got another mission. It's over in Detroit.

Nico: Not far from here.

Me: We better get ready.

Toyman, Molten Man, El Diablo, U Foes, Tala, Living Laser, Cad Bane, and Roquefort then appeared.

Toyman: Can me, Molten Man, El Diablo, U Foes, Tala, Living Laser, Cad Bane, and Roquefort go with you guys?

Me: You all sure can.

Molten Man: We saw that huge explosion over the city. Are you all okay?

Me: Yes we are.

Nico: Just dealing with a deadly bomber from the Ten Rings.

Vector: I thought those monsters were all destroyed.

Me: So did we. But apparently there are still some remnants of the organization still out there.

Cad Bane: We'll have to keep our eyes peeled for them.

Me: I know. This mall just can't seem to get a break from Terrorist Attacks.

Laney: Yeah.

Sea: Those jerks need to pick different targets.

Me: Yep. Lets head down to Detroit.

We were off to the Motor City Capital of The World, Detroit.

DETROIT, MICHIGAN

We arrived in Detroit, Michigan.

Me: Here we are guys. Detroit, Michigan.

Nico: The Motor City Capital of The World.

Lola: I wonder why it's called that.

Me: Because a lot of major car making companies come from here. Ford, Pontiac, Chrysler, Chevy, GMC, Dodge, many kinds. It's home to some of the most popular brands of cars ever made.

We then saw a bunch of villains we never met and they were Nino Sexton A.K.A. NANOSEC, SLO MO, ANGRY ARCHER, PROFESSOR PRINCESS and CAPTAIN FANZONE!

Nanosec

Nanosec is a supervillain from Transformers: Animated.

Biography

General no-goodnik Nino Sexton pulled a minor heist and discovered that Isaac Sumdac's new automated Detroit police force are colossally stupid. Aiming to make a clean getaway, he attempted to steal a cute little yellow car (Bumblebee), only to discover that not all robots are that dumb. At first, the young Autobot showed off, running rings around him. However, an argument broke out between Bumblebee and Bulkhead, giving Nino the chance to escape. Bulkhead stopped him, but the Autobot apparently didn't realize the fragility of the wooden boardwalk they were on, destroying it and sending the two robots into the drink. Saved from falling by Optimus Prime, Nino was sent straight to jail.

After Megatron manipulated Sumdac Systems' computers to post Nino's bail, he also had them deliver a prototype speed-enhancing suit to the newly freed crook. Realizing his good fortune, Nino did what anyone sensible would do: He went on a crime spree. Taking the nom de guerre of "Nanosec" overheard from a theft victim ("It just disappeared… in a nanosec!"), Sexton soon found that when moving at high speeds, he could receive communications from his robotic benefactor. Megatron offered him access to Isaac Sumdac's bank account in exchange for a heist to acquire Destronium to rebuild Megatron's body from one of Sumdac's laboratories, to be delivered within ten minutes of it being taken from the lab.

Though the heist itself went flawlessly, Nanosec was hotly pursued by the Autobots as he made his way to his new boss. Due largely to Bumblebee's haywire new turbo boosters causing him to careen around out of control, Nanosec was repeatedly able to escape capture. Finally, Bumblebee noticed the aging effects of Nanosec's superspeed and using his new boosters, literally ran the vigorous villain into a geriatric state. Harsh, Bumblebee.

Once the now-explosive substance was hurled into the upper atmosphere, the withered thief was taken into police custody.

Nino found his second wind, and even his youth again and began a new crime spree. As before the Autobots gave chase, but he received aid from an unseen admirer in keeping them off of his tail. Before long she revealed herself to be the newly minted villain Slo-

Mo, and from there it was love at first maniacal cackle, due in no small part to the fact that it was she who had restored his boyish vigor. Going along with her idea for a new criminal syndicate, his dreams of owning a large screen television were briefly realized, then thwarted by the police surrounding him and his cohorts. His new ladyfriend received an anonymous tip, and they peeled out in a posh, roomy Hummer. Once again following Slo-Mo's lead he engaged in a heist of a Sumdac Systems factory, speedily stealing components to impress and woo her. It all turned sour when their getaway car (Swindle) turned out to be a fink that locked up his speed harness, but that creep got his in the end. Unfortunately so did Nino, leading to his re-arrest.

Angry Archer

The Angry Archer is a robin hood-styled supervillain in Transformers: Animated He uses a bowen arrow as his weapon. He is voiced by Jeff Glen Bennett.

Biography

He makes his debut in the episode "Home is where the spark is" robbing an armored car, when suddenly the cops arrived over to arrest him, but then he tried to use a disguised Optimus Prime (as a fire engine) to escape, but his attempt failed after Prime transforms in bot mode and snatches him into his hand, after that, Angry Archer uses his magnet arrow to shoot at a light pole, and glides but fails, when Optimus subdues the thief easily, and smiles for evening news cameras.

He returns in Garbage In, Garbage Out, where he runs away from the sheriff, and makes Wreck-Gar his new partner in crime, and teaches him how to become a criminal like him, and destroy another armored car in order to steal a Biohazardous object of Sumdac Systems, but when Sari reminded Ratchet and Bumblebee to catch the bad guy, Wreck-Gar replied and threw him far into the air.

In the episode Society of Ultimate Villainy, he appears working with the team.

Professor Princess

Professor Penelope (" Penny " for short) "Princess" Sutton, Ph.D. is a little girl out to rid the world of violent boys' toys… by violently destroying them and any who stand in her way. Also, she hates rock music. (No accounting for taste…) Her arsenal includes a magic wand, razor-edged flowers, exploding kitten dolls, and her toy flying unicorn, Powdered Sugar, which fires both beam and projectile weaponry from its horn.

Go ahead and laugh, but she took out Bulkhead and humiliated Starscream.

She insists she is just trying to save people from dangerous, corrupting influences, and will not classify herself as a criminal or villain.

Captain Carmine Fanzone

Captain Carmine Fanzone is the apparent head of the Detroit police department. He hates machines, but in an "I'm old" sort of way rather than being evil or anything. However, despite his oft-repeated mantra of " This is why I hate machines/robots" whenever some device in his vicinity goes on the fritz (often with comedic, embarrassing results), he's pragmatic enough to make use of technology when needed. For example, he's a world champion at yelling at subordinates through megaphones for added effect. And firing heavy weaponry at rampaging robots.

Despite his endless battle with the march of progress and general poor luck, Fanzone is a good cop, dedicated to protecting the people of his city, even if he dislikes certain demographics. He's also not a bad guy to have in a brawl. He doesn't completely trust the Autobots, but he's at least assured that they mean well and, like him, are here to protect and serve the people of Detroit. He just wishes that they'd stop destroying so much of the city in the process.

Along with machines, he also hates lawyers and kids, but most of all, he hates tech support for machines.

Slo-Mo

Working a nine-to-five job as a wage slave sure sucks. It's a drag, baby. A downer. A bummer. Yesterday's scene. Which means that when you discover a fragment of an ancient life-giving alien artifact, it's time to clock out for the last time and launch a career as a super-villain! No? Well, Samantha Lomow or Slo-Mo seems to think so.

This dishy dame's timepiece has the power to slow down machines, even stop 'em cold. In their tracks. Company halt. Fullstop. Do not pass go. It even works on those annoying Autobots!

Amusingly enough, she seems to have a mutual attraction with the speedster Nanosec.

---

Me: Whoa we never saw those guys before.

Sheila: I know the police officer. That's Captain Carmine Fanzone of the Detroit Police Department. He calls on me and Tom Lair from time to time.

Me: Wow!

We went over to them.

Jungle Fury Jarrod: Hold it right there!

Nanosec: (sees Optimus) Hey, Prime. You been working out or something?

Optimus: I'll go with "Or something".

Angry Archer: Before we fight, we'd like to express our condolences for your fallen comrade.

Professor Princess: Yeah! We know you and him were very close.

Optimus: Thanks. I think.

Captain Fanzone walked up to us.

Captain Fanzone: Hey, Prime. Welcome back to Detroit! Like the new look! (sighs) I'm sorry about what happened to Prowl though. Out of all your team, I felt the closest to him.

Optimus: How about you tell us what happened to Prowl. Because we have been gone for a while.

Fanzone (to Slo-Mo): You wanna tell them or should I do it?

Slo-Mo: You do it. The four of us fight these guys every time, remember?

Me: What do you mean?

Angry Ancher: We heard about what happened to Prowl.

Prowl: What? But I'm right here. How can that be when I'm standing right here?

Me: I think you guys are talking about the new Cybertronians that we were gonna meet.

Captain Fanzone: I'm confused.

Sheila: We all are just as much as you Captain.

Captain Fanzone: Wow! Sheila great to see you.

Sheila: Same to you all.

But then the Animated Transformers came!

Me: Oh wow!

Nico: The Animated Transformers!

Laney: They must be the new Transformers we heard about.

Animated Optimus: Excuse me. I know you're a busy guy. But I'm just dying to get your autograph.

Vector: Oh, I think I know what's going on.

Optimus: It's a real honor to meet another version of me.

Animated Bumblebee: Drop the act, Shockwave. We know you're pretending to be a new version of Prime.

X Ray: Okay, let's just calm down here.

Sari: And it looks like you brainwashed Team Loud Phoenix Storm too.

Ironclad: You got any proof to back up what you're saying?

Animated Ratchet: Of course! Autobots would never work with Decepticons willingly!

Bulkhead: Yeah! They're the scum of the unvierse!

Skywarp: (glares at him) That hurts. Really. It does.

Animated Jazz: Not as much as this will!

Animated Jazz punched Skywarp, knocking him down.

Animated Optimus: Sari, try to knock Team Loud Phoenix Storm out of the mind control. The rest of us will handle the others!

Zavok: Don't worry, guys. I already called the Deadly 6 as a precaution.

Vapor: They better get here quickly. Because J.D. and Eli are probably about to make everyone freeze!

Zavok: They should be here right about… now!

The DEADLY 6 THEN ARRIVED!

Zazz: Let us help!

Me: WHOA!

Nicole: Wow! The rest of the Deadly 6!

Nico: Awesome!

Sea: That is awesome!

Maria: It sure is.

Me: Okay EVERYONE STOP!

I formed a freeze spell and stopped the fighting.

Nico: (To Animated Optimus) Optimus, the Decepticons and the Autobots are no longer fighting. The war is over and peace has been restored to Cybertron. We destroyed Unicron and killed our version of Megatron.

Animated Optimus: WHAT!? You all destroyed Unicron?

Nico: It's farfetched but it's true. But also…

He pulled out his medal and showed it.

Nico: I was officially made the new Leader of the Decepticons and I'm leading them to redemption.

Skywarp: He's right. Our loyalty is now with Nico Chan.

Me: The Decepticons that we know are now being redeemed.

Animated Bumblebee: Ok. You guys might be pals with Decepticons. But now, we can confirm that you really are Autobots and not under mind control.

Lori: Glad we could settle that without you guys killing us.

Sari: if you guys end up losing it out there, killing you guys is still an option! Got me?

Zazz: Aww! And I've been itching for a fight all day!

Master Zik: (to me) You would be wise to release me, J.D. This is no way to treat your elders.

Me: Huh? Oh. Sorry.

I released the spell.

Animated Optimus: Sorry we attacked you all like that. Things have been really hectic since we took down the Decepticons.

Me: That's all right.

Nico: It happens.

Captain Fanzone: (on the phone) Listen, can I take the day off? I have to catch up with some old friends.

Animated Bumblebee: (to G1 Bumblebee) Man, you're even smaller then I am!

G1 Bumblebee: I know. I am a Volkswagon Beetle after all.

Me: Yeah he gets that all the time.

Captain Fanzone: But it's an honor to meet the famous J.D. Knudson and his team.

Me: Same to you Captain. We heard so much about you from Sheila and Tom.

Captain Fanzone: Yeah they told me so much about you.

Me: I get that a lot. Also we know so many Transformers. As you can see we know many of them.

Animated Optimus: (to Optimus) Nanosec's right. Maybe I should start working out like you have.

Optimus Prime laughed.

We laughed too.

Muscle Man: You know whoo else likes to work out? My mom!

We laughed at his joke!

Sea: (Laughs) That's funny!

Eli: His jokes are funny.

Animated Optimus: How about we show you our base? Before

Powell uses an opportunity to slander you guys.

Slo-Mo: Can the four of us come with you guys?

Maria: Why not?

Sari: Are you crazy?! These guys are criminals!

Me: They actually have potential quality to join our frenemies in the Masters of Evil. Long story.

Sari: Wow. I'll have to hear about it.

Me: You'll love it.

We went to the base of the Autobots and we explained everything and it was amazing.

We arrived at the base.

Tomahawk Man: So, this is your base?

Animated Optimus: Sorry if it doesn't look like much.

Me: It's still a nice base.

Nico: It sure is.

Eli: I like it.

Miia: It sure is nice.

Sari: But still that's amazing that you all have so many awesome frenemies and I heard about the battle with Thanos. That was intense and crazy.

Laney: Yeah it sure was.

Isaac Sumdac: Sari, thank goodness you're alright! (sees Optimus) Optimus, why are there two of you? (sees the Decepticons) And what are Decepticons doing here?! And why does Blitzwing look normal?

Living Laser: Professor Sumdac, we can explain everything.

Me: They are with us.

Professor Sumdac: Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's an honor to meet you all.

Me: Same to you.

Nico: And don't worry the Decepticons are all under new management so to speak.

He showed his medal.

Nico: I'm the new leader of the Decepticons and I'm leading the Decepticons to redemption.

Professor Sumdac: That's amazing.

Me: A lot has happened to us. The Decepticons are now under Nico's Leadership ever since we killed Megatron and destroyed Unicron.

Nico: That's right.

Professor Sumdac: That's amazing. Wow! What was Unicron like?

Twilight Sparkle: He is the Transformer Devil. He is a Transformer the size of a whole planet and he was out to destroy everything.

They told him about Unicron's history.

Professor Sumdac was shocked and so were the Autobots.

Animated Optimus: Wow! That's incredible.

Optimus Primal: It sure is.

Hun Gurr: So, what is else is different here?

Animated Optimus: Besides the fact that we haven't met our versions of the Terrorcons? Well, I don't know if you have a Blackarachnia on your world, but here, she used to be my Old friend

Elita One.

Blackarachnia: Actually we do have a Blackarachnia and you're looking at her.

Me: She's a Predacon.

Nico: Yep.

Me: But tell us what happened to Elita One.

He did so and it was horrifying.

Me: WHOA MAN!

May: Wait. This world's Blackarachnia used to be your version of Elita One?!

Animated Bumblebee: Yeah until that jerk Sentinel Prime left her on Arach Seven to die!

We gasped in shock!

Me: What a bastard!

Nico: I can't believe he is that big of a jerk!

Me: But first what can you tell us about him? We have to know our enemy.

Animated Optimus: It's a really ugly story.

He told us about him.

* * *

Many times brash, leap-before-you-think types learn a lesson from their misadventures and use that knowledge to grow into more mature well-rounded fighters, even leadership roles.

And sometimes they learn the wrong lesson (or the right lesson the wrong way) and turn out like Sentinel Prime.

Sentinel was once one of the impulsive-types until a disastrous "unsanctioned" mission he'd suggested with best friends Optimus Prime and Elita-1 ended in the loss of Elita. Though both 'bots carried the grief, Sentinel blamed Optimus for abandoning her. When Optimus officially took the fall for the mission and Sentinel failed to speak up for his part of it, he placed his anger on his former friend and drove himself to climb the Autobot ranks into the Cybertron Elite Guard through strict adherence to military protocol.

The end result is an Autobot who could be one of the Autobots' greatest assets but is such a jerk it's hard to see how. His expandable Skyboom Shield is virtually impenetrable and he's a strong combatant and utterly tenacious hunter. He seems to have Cybertron's best interests at heart… but his perception of "best interests" and how far he'll go for said interests is definitely skewed.

To his core, he's still the same smug act-first-think-later-maybe bot he was before, only far more focused. Despite the "stickler for the rules" aspect of his personality that has come from the loss of Elita, he seems to use the rules largely to bully his way of doing things on others. He really can't handle the unexpected thanks to a distinct lack of genuine field experience and inability to improvise like others in the Guard. Thanks to that one fateful trip to Archa Seven, he has a severe phobia of organics and burning desire to further humiliate Optimus. To his credit, he would never actively sabotage another Autobot… but he sure will make their lives a living hell if he thinks he can get away with it.

Don't mention his chin. He's a little touchy about it.

---

When he was done we were shocked!

Me: WHOA MAN! He is a brash and arrogant fuckpot!

Nico: Yeah! I hate that freak!

Me: Me too! What a jerk!

Lisa: Wouldn't it be logical for you to have offlined Megatron instead of taking him to prison back then?

Animated Optimus: You think I don't know that?! It would honestly be too easy. All i've ever wanted to do is kill Megatron. A day doesn't go by where I don't think about every bad thing he's done before ending him for good. But if I do that, if I allow myself to go down that path, I'll never come back.

El Diablo: Compared to the Megatron from our world, this one actually doesn't sound insane.

Me: No he doesn't.

Beast Wars Megatron: Compared to me, this version of me sounds more cool.

Me: He sure does.

Android 21: I think so too.

Me: But Lisa you need to understand that logic can hurt sometimes.

Eli: That's right.

Sari: By the way, Jirachi, thanks for keeping our fight against Saberleomon a secret.

Jirachi: You're welcome.

Me: Wait you guys were helping us with SaberLeomon?

Animated Optimus: That was us.

Me: We owe you guys one. But SaberLeomon is only the beginning of our troubles. He is really part of a group that is lead by Shazam's most dangerous enemy Mr. Mind.

I told them everything and how Goche, Baron Nero and SaberLeomon are part of a group out to kill us.

When I was finished they gasped.

Sari: Oh man!

Me: Yeah. We don't know what they are planning to do but we have to make sure they are destroyed.

Laney: Yeah.

Me: But we're sorry about what happened to your version of Prowl.

Animated Jazz: We wouldn't have defeated Megatron without Prowl's help.

Maria: We can bring him back for you if you want.

Sari: Look, I know you guys are trying to make us feel better. But Prowl's gone. And no matter how much we try, we can't bring him back. The best we can do is honor is sacrifice. (smiles sadly) But he'll always be in our hearts.

Nico: That was actually very touching. But I already revived him while you were telling us all that.

Animated Bumblebee: Say what now?

Blaster Tron: Revived Autobot Energy Signature detected outside of base. Said Autobot seems to be unconscious but alive.

They went outside and sure as silk it was Animated Prowl! BACK FROM THE DEAD!

Animated Optimus: Prowl!

They went over to him and he was coming back to consciousness.

Animated Prowl: What?

Nico: You're gonna be all right.

Animated Prowl: Am I… in the Well of the All Sparks?

Tala: No. You're on Earth.

Animated Prowl: (to Animated Optimus) Now I know how you must've felt when Sari revived you with her Key.

Animated Optimus: You said it. But it's great to have you back Prowl.

Me: Thank goodness you're back Prowl. I'm J.D. Knudson, leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

We introduced ourselves.

Nico: And Prowl it's all right. These are the Decepticons that are now under my leadership. After we destroyed Unicron, the Decepticons have officially been put under my leadership and I'm leading them on the road to redemption.

Skywarp: It's true Prowl.

Animated Prowl: Wow! A lot has changed.

Me: It sure has.

Animated Prowl: I'm glad the war ended on your Earth. But what's changed on this Earth while I was dead?

Animated Bumblebee: Long story short, Cybertron's now ruled with an iron first by Sentinel.

Animated Prowl: As if him making that deal with Lockdown wasn't bad enough.

Animated Bulkhead: C'mon! Sentinel might be a jerk but there's no way he's gonna turn evil. Right?

Helga Sinclair: Face the facts, Bulkhead. Sooner or later, he's bound to snap.

Me: And we'll make him pay for his crimes. What he is doing makes him nothing short of a traitor.

Nico: You got that right. Just like the Sentinal Prime in the Live Action Movies.

Eli: Yeah that guy was a monster.

Nico: But Sentinel Prime in the Live Action Movies is not nearly as bad as the one you all know.

Animated Optimus: That's true.

Brittney: But we will stop him and tear him apart.

Me: Yeah we will.

Unknown to us, Animated Blackarachnia and Animated Lockdown were watching us from the rooftop.

Roquefort: Perhaps we should take Sentinel down once we have proof of his insanity.

Animated Optimus: That might be a good idea. Besides, I have a feeling that Megatron might break out of prison soon.

Animated Blackarachnia: Great! Here I am trying to find a cure for myself and I find more Autobots!

Animated Lockdown: Maybe we shouldn't make a move on them yet. Let's head back to my ship.

Animated Blackarachnia: You know what? Nevermind that! I'm getting myself cured of my organic half no matter what it takes! (leaps down from the rooftop, getting our attention) Well, well, well. Looks like you've clone yourself, Optimus. Good. I wonder if he can feel pain like you an!

Animated Lockdown: (leaps down from the rooftop as well) If we die here, don't say I didn't warn you.

Me: Blackarachnia and Lockdown!

Blackarachnia: (To Animated Blackarachnia) Hard to imagine I would look amazing like this as a spider. But lets see how we look transformed. Blackarachnia, TERRORIZE!

She transformed and Animated Blackarachnia saw how she would look as a Predacon.

Blackarachnia: What do you think?

Animated Blackarachnia: You look awesome.

Blackarachnia: I also have good charms.

Me: (To Animated Lockdown) Also we took down another version of you.

Animated Blackarachnia: (to Animated Optimus) Don't think your clones can distract me from your just desserts, Optimus! I trusted you! And you abandoned me! Left me to become this freak!

Animated Lockdown: I would like to say that this was her idea.

Me: Blackarachnia, Optimus did nothing to you!

Animated Optimus: That's right! It was not my doing that made you this way.

Nico: Yeah it was all because of Sentinel Prime! He did this to you!

Animated Blackarachnia: You're lying!

Nico: No I'm not! Sentinel doesn't give a flying fuck about teamwork. He only cares about himself and he only wants to see all of Cybertron burn!

Me: That's right! Let me show you!

I had my eyes glow and Animated Blackarachnia saw that it was indeed SENTINEL PRIME that left her on Arach Seven for dead and made her get turned into an Organic Spider Robot freak!

Animated Blackarachnia: (GASP) (GROWLS) I WILL KILL YOU SENTINEL PRIME!

Me: Save seconds for us Blackarachnia. But I can cure you of this.

Animated Blackarachnia: How?

Me: By reformatting you.

Nico: What are you gonna do J.D.?

Me: Watch. JETSTORM, RUNWAY, SONAR! POWERLINK!

The Air Minicon Team formed into THE STAR SABER!

Me: STAR SABER! I found out that the Star Saber has the power to reformat Organic Transformers.

Nico: WHOA! That's amazing!

Me: Here goes!

I fired a white light from the blade and it hit Animated Blackarachnia and changed her into a Technorganic Transformer and cured her and she was now like she is in BEAST MACHINES!

Me: Wow!

Animated Optimus: How did you get one of the most powerful weapons in all of Cybertron?

Me: Long story on that.

Animated Lockdown: I think you all owe me an explanation onto what's going on here. Because you seem to be focused on that big chinned Sentinel Prime than Megatron possibly getting out. And why are there more Autobots?

Nico: First, how do you feel about joining another team?

Animated Lockdown: Depends on what it is.

Vypra then appeared.

Vypra: My team. The pay is good and you have lots of amazing friends and have good fights with our frenemies.

Me: Us.

Animated Lockdown: This team of yours sounds interesting. But I really think you should worry more about Megatron busting out of the stockades before dealing with Sentinel.

Me: Right. We need to see what the problem is on Cybertron concerning Megatron first.

Doubledealer: Lockdown's right. We'll worry about Megatron first before Sentinel.

Animated Optimus: That means we'll need everyone's help.

Animated Bumblebee: Everyone. Waspinator, the Constructicons, Soundwave. Even Wreck Gar.

?: Did someone call me?

We saw Animated Wreck Gar walking towards us.

Animated Wreck Gar: Hello. I am Wreck Gar. And I am a hero!

Wreck Gar: What the!? Is that another me!?

Nico: It sure is.

Eli: Geez!

Me: Wow!

Animated Wreck Gar: Awesome!

Animated Grimlock then appeared.

Animated Prowl: Grimlock! It's good to see you and the Dinobots again.

Animated Grimlock: Cycle and robot came back! Me Grimlock and Dinobots no leave your side again!

Sari: I can't imagine how they reacted to your death.

Grimlock: Me, Grimlock shocked to see another Grimlock.

Mr. Krabs: Shiver me timbers!

Me: Yeah!

Nico: Awesome.

Me: Thank goodness. We need all the help we can get if we want to take down both Megatron and Sentinel Prime.

Animated Grimlock: Me Grimlock confused. Truck Robot say Megatron bad. But humans say that big chin robot is bad too.

Me: It is confusing. But Sentinel Prime is worse than Megatron.

Animated Optimus: It's true Grimlock.

He told him everything and Grimlock and the Dinobots were shocked!

Animated Grimlock: Big chin robot pay!

Sari: Seriously, are we gonna go after Megatron first or Sentinel?

Me: Hard to decide. How about we flip a coin?

Nico: Always a good choice.

Me: Okay.

I pulled out a coin.

Me: This is a 24K Gold 1935 Liberty $20.00 Coin. Found it long ago. Heads is Lady Liberty and that means we'll go after Megatron first and tails is the Eagle. We'll go after Sentinel Prime first.

Nico: Nice.

Me: Okay what will it be? Heads or tails?

Nico: Heads!

Animated Optimus: Tails!

I flipped it and I caught it and placed the coin on my hand and then it showed Heads.

Me: Heads. We go after Megatron first.

Nico: Okay.

Animated Ratchet: After the usual battles, we'll take the Space Bridge on Sumdac Tower to Cybertron.

Cad Bane: Can you remind us what a Space Bridge is?

Animated Ratchet: They're large, forked structures and work by generating a sphere of energy between the two prongs. They can send you to anywhere across the galaxy.

Me and Lincoln had sparks coming out of our heads.

Me: Oh ow!

Lincoln: (groans): Me and J.D. aren't good at this kind of science stuff. That's usually Lisa's thing.

Animated Ratchet: (rolls his eyes) Honestly, where were you all when they were handing out brains?

Me: (Offended) HEY!

Animated Bumblebee: Ah don't mind him. He's always grumpy like that.

Me: Oh.

Animated Optimus: Before these usual battles of yours start, I want to say this. Some of you I knew from the beginning. Others I just came to know even just now. But in case we die here, I just want to say that I've never been so proud to fight alongside you. (to Animated Elita One) Even you, Elita.

Elita One: Thank you Optimus.

Me: We won't let anyone die.

Nico: That's right. Only Evil will die.

Eli: That's right!

Vortex, Xaldin, Fixer, Motor Ed, Ssserpent, Multiple Man, Vreedle

Brothers, Duff Killigan and Carmen Dillo and Sportsmaster then appeared.

Me: Vortex, Xaldin, Fixer, Motor Ed, Ssserpent, Multiple Man, Vreedle Brothers, Duff Killigan and Carmen Dillo and Sportsmaster.

Ssserpent: This is gonna be fun.

Vortex: Good thing we found out where you guys went to.

Xaldin: So, is this everyone?

Animated Optimus: No. We still have to wait for a few more bots.

Motor Ed: Well, it sure is nice to have you and your team with us. Seriously!

Ssserpent: I just hope we can show this version of Megatron how great of a leader Nico is. Before Sentinel makes his move.

Me: And we will. Sentinel Prime will pay for his crimes.

Eli: He sure will.

Me: Also I have some guests coming to help us out and face the rest of the Deadly 6 since Zavok has Ace Bunny as his archenemy.

Nico: Who are they?

I pulled out my Zyuohmorpher.

Me: You can come in now guys!

AHHAHHHHAHHAHH!

In a flash of light came THE ZYUOHGER RANGERS!

Nico: NO WAY!

Eli: Wow the Zyuohger!

Yamato: (Speaking Japanese) 有名な世界の救世主に会えて光栄です。(It's an honor to meet the famous world saviors)

Nico: (Speaking Japanese) 喜びは私たちのヤマトです。私たちはテレビでのあなたのすべての戦いが大好きです。(Pleasure is ours Yamato. We love all your battles on TV.)

Amu: We love all your adventures and they are so amazing.

Sela: They sure are and they pack an awesome punch.

Leo: Yeah they do.

Eli: How did you meet the Zyuohger Rangers bro?

Me: I met them when I was out on patrol 3 days ago

---

Me: (Narrating) I was flying over Japan when I saw the Zyuohger Rangers fighting Hunterji, one of the Deathgaliens that was turning people into dolls with his rifle. He was a really good shot. I decided to make sure that Genis never uses him again and only for the Masters of Evil to use him.

I flew down.

Me: Coming at ya! WILD INSTINCT AWAKEN!

AHAHHHAHAH!

I turned into ZYUOHWOLF!

I flew in and slashed and blasted him into oblivion and then he exploded and there was nothing left of him!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM

Hunterji was dead!

Me: Hunterji you have failed this universe!

Yamato: WOW! Who are you?

I took off my helmet and they saw me.

Leo: Wow!

Tusk: You're the famous J.D. Knudson, Leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Me: That's right. (Speaking Japanese) 素晴らしいジュウオウジャーに会うための名誉。(An Honor to meet the awesome Zyuohger.)

Amu: We owe you big time for helping us.

Me: Glad I came. I have a proposition for you all.

Tusk: What is it?

Me: How would you all like to join my team and help us on a mission coming up?

Yamato: It would be an honor. But we have something to ask for you.

Me: Name it.

Yamato: On August 29th, we would like your help here to destroy one of our enemies.

Me: Done.

We shook hands.

FLASHBACK ENDS

Nico: WOW!

Tusk: It is gonna be awesome helping you guys out.

Me: Yep it sure is. Also I have a surprise for you all. You get to try out your skills against one of the Deadly 6.

Zazz: That's us.

Sela: This is gonna be awesome!

Me: It sure will be.

?: Yep it will be.

A figure came out and it was MARIONETTE SHADOW from episode 9 of ToQger!

---

This Shadow Monster hunged around in the shadows of the town, silently manipulating the hearts of humans in it by having the men save the girls from Kuros, including the visiting Mio. Right when Marionette Shadow decided to break some hearts, Mio had finally fessed up to her feelings to a guy named Toru that had saved her the day before, and she had made a lunch for him along with returning the man's dropped wallet. But while every broken hearted girl was emitting darkness like smoke from an intense fire, Mio did not.

Greatly confused, the Shadow Monster went down to ask why Mio was not emitting darkness, only to get hit by her bokken that she had on her (due to it being a poorly-veiled call to a duel on Mio's part due to her tsundere actions) in the face. When he saw Mio put on her ToQ Changer, he realized she's a ToQger and tried to attack the guy Mio had a crush on, but she tackled the guy out of the way of one of Marionette Shadow's thrown Puppetry Cutters (操り系カッター Ayatsuri-kei Kattā ). After getting the guy out of there, Mio transformed and fought Marionette Shadow after wiping out some Kuros, only for Marionette Shadow's Doll Marionettes (ドール系マリオネット Dōru-kei Marionetto ) to pop up and beaten ToQ 3gou out of transformation. Before any harm could come to her, the other ToQgers had arrived, and soon, the Shadow Monster was disarmed and sent airborne via a Shingo Hammer to the chin, and hit the ground hard enough to crater and make a cloud of dust, and the team finished him off with the Rainbow Rush in Present form, smashing Marionette Shadow with an oversized onigiri.

Once enlarged, the ToQgers summoned the Diesel, Tank, and Car Carrier Ressha (since the main Ressha were still being repaired from the Bomb Shadow incident), and during the formation of Diesel-Oh, the formation slammed into Marionette Shadow's leg, sending him flying. In retaliation, Marionette Shadow tried the direct approach, only to be powerfully beaten back by Diesel-Oh. In response, Marionette Shadow jumped over to a building top behind Diesel-Oh, and snagged Diesel-Oh's arms with his strings. Of course, the Ressha Combination powered its way out of the strings, sending the Shadow Monster sprawling back to terra firma. Once up, Diesel-Oh stunned the enlarged Kaijin with a Diesel-Oh Impact, then ended the Monster with a Diesel-Oh Spinning Kick.

Right Suzuki: Marionette Shadow!

Me: Glad you are next for your first battle.

Marionette Shadow: I know I helped you guys against Pablo and Anderson. But this is really my first battle since my first death.

Me: I remember that. This is gonna be awesome.

Nico: I can't wait to get it on.

Right Suzuki: This is gonna be awesome.

Suddenly a big figure came out and it was none other than Popeye's archnemesis, BLUTO!

---

Bluto is the main antagonist in the Popeye franchise and a nasty sailor who loves to pester Popeye and try to win the heart of his crush Olive Oyl. He varies between being a big strong brute of a man and very bold and smart. He is always depicted as extremely strong (often superhumanly so). However, after he usually beats up Popeye, Popeye finds a can of spinach, eats it, gets stronger, and beats Bluto into unconsciousness.

He was portrayed by the late Paul L. Smith in the live-action film, the late Allan Melvin in the Hanna-Barbera series The All New Popeye Hour, and the late Jackson Beck in the theatrical Popeye shorts.

Despite Bluto and Popeye's legendary rivalry, it is often shown that Bluto was once a friend of Popeye but the two became bitter enemies due to the fact that both were in love with Olive Oyl - while

Popeye was a gruff but well-meaning sailor Bluto was always rough and mean, so naturally, he began to pester Popeye and even when Olive Oyl clearly made her choice he wouldn't let them be: going as far as regularly kidnapping Olive Oyl, expressing his affection as only the big brute can.

From time to time this friendship is rekindled, though it seldom lasts long, although Bluto is widely seen as Popeye's nemesis he is not actually the official archenemy of the sailor - that honor belongs to the Sea Hag: who Bluto has occasionally worked for both willingly and as a mind-washed slave.

The 1953 cartoon short Baby Wants a Battle has it that Bluto bullied Popeye even when they were both babies, and not only that but Bluto's father bullied Popeye's father. This, however, contradicts the comic's canon.

Popeye (1981)

Bluto also appears as the main antagonist of the Disney/Paramount live-action Popeye movie where he was not only his traditional bullying self but also a shameless criminal who terrorized the fishing community Popeye came to. This movie was rather unique in that Popeye hated spinach and near the end, Bluto's own stupidity got the best of him when he force-fed Popeye spinach out of spite: the resulting transformation scared Bluto so badly the big bully literally turned yellow and swam out into the sea.

---

Me: Bluto!

Bluto: Pleasure to meet you all.

Nico: The most iconic love rival of Popeye!

Lana: Awesome! I love how Popeye always kicks your big butt!

Sea: And now his butt will be for me to kick.

Me: Go get him. You guys are all in for an awesome show.

Battle 1: Aerrow, Rainbow Dash, Scootaloo, Magma Gloom, Flash Magnus, Air Skylanders, Aang, Katara, Toph, Sokka, Zuko, Tornado Man and Plug Man VS Vortex

Vortex was first.

Vortex: (to Aerrow) I didn't expect to see the Zyuoghers here. J.D. probably met them sometime after their final battle against Genis.

Aerrow: He said he met them during their battle with Hunterji.

Rainbow Dash: And it's awesome that he knows them.

Scootaloo: Yeah it sure is.

Magma Gloom: It's so cool that he knows the Zyuohger Rangers and it's amazing that they are protecting the world from that monster Genis.

Flash Magnus: He thinks everything is all a game and it's awful.

Whirlwind: You better believe it is. What Genis is doing is completely unforgivable.

Aang: Yeah it is.

Katara: Yep. I hope the Zyuohger Rangers tear him apart.

Toph: And they will.

Xaldin: (to Beast Boy) J.D. did the right thing enabling Hunterji to be revived only by us. Though if Genis does come back, he probably wouldn't revive Hunterji anyway.

Beast Boy: He won't revive him anyway. Because we'll be banishing Genis and his monsters to the Warp forever if he ever does come back.

Sunset Shimmer: Yeah what Genis is doing is absolutely unforgivable.

Cayenne: And he will pay for his crimes in full.

Wallflower: But the Zyuohger Rangers will take care of him like always. Just like on TV.

Firecracker Burst: They sure will and the world will aways need the Power Rangers.

Gusty: Absolutely. Just like on TV.

Nico: Awesome!

Me: Dark Spicer is gonna be a great leader for them. One last thing.

Nico: I have a feeling I know who you are gonna bring back.

Me: Yep.

I snapped my fingers and out of a portal of darkness came ANIMATED STARSCREAM!

---

Starscream was aboard the Nemesis when it came across an Autobot repair ship that appeared to be emitting the energy signature of the fabled AllSpark. Starscream's doubt of the AllSpark's very existence and his dismissal of Megatron's millennia-long search did not sit well with Lugnut, and an argument broke out on the bridge until Megatron himself arrived and all fell silent. Starscream was forced to eat his words when Blackarachnia confirmed that the energy coming off the ship was indeed that of the AllSpark, but quickly volunteered to secure it for his leader. Seeing through his lieutenant's greed, Megatron put a dent in Starscream's wing and rose to obtain it for himself. As he was leaving, however, Starscream arrived at the airlock to wish Megatron luck and patted him on the back-planting an overload device on him in the process. As Megatron attacked the Autobot ship, the device overloaded his circuits and caused an explosion that led Starscream to believe that Megatron was no more. In the aftermath of the blast, Starscream got so caught up in his own greatness that he didn't notice that his comrades had left him on the ship, hurtling towards an exploding space bridge.

Surviving the explosion, Starscream spent the next fifty solar cycles searching for the AllSpark on his own, using the damaged ship as a base (and probably getting a few screws loose in his central processor in the meantime). Detecting the faint signal of the AllSpark on Earth, Starscream tapped into television broadcasts from the planet and discovered that the Autobot ship had landed there. While heading for the planet, Starscream was approached by Blackarachnia, who was also seeking the AllSpark for her own purposes and proposed an alliance. Starscream was unsurprisingly unwilling to share power, and he booted Blackarachnia out into space just before the ship warped away. Starscream was so occupied by the task, however, that he failed to notice Earth's moon appearing in the ship's path. The Arrival issue 1 One crash-landing later, Starscream abandoned the ruined hulk of the ship and headed down to Earth, immediately drawing the attention of military jets.

After a brief dogfight, Starscream scanned one of the jets as an alternate mode in order to continuing searching incognito. The search did not go on long, as Starscream found the Autobots watching a Crimson Angels air show, and he quickly joined in the proceedings. Upon revealing himself to the Autobots, he quickly thrashed each of them individually. Starscream mocked them, apparently assuming that the Autobots thought they had really defeated Megatron (whom he referred to as "the great Megatron" without sarcasm, so he seems to have at least a loathing respect for his leader's power). All too boastful of his cunning, Starscream boldly admitted that Megatron was already defeated by the bomb which Starscream himself had put on him. Despite being more powerful than the Autobots, Starscream failed to take the AllSpark, partially because he spent too much time gloating. Optimus Prime grabbed Starscream in midair, and they opened the AllSpark, releasing a massive wave of energy. Optimus was killed by the energy surge and subsequent fall (he got better), while Starscream disappeared.

Starscream was hurled into the wilderness by the AllSpark energy surge, where he lay, unconscious and undisturbed, for an unspecified period of time. Eventually, Starscream came back online, only to discover that his body had succumbed to stasis lock, leaving him immobile. As "luck" would have it, it was at this moment that he was happened upon by the villainous Professor Princess, whom Starscream attempted to sweet-talk into triggering his manual reset. She was insistent upon "fixing up" Starscream first, plastering him with makeup and a wig, but when the horrified Starscream screamed at her, she just decided to blast him. Her rainbow-blast jumpstarted Starscream's systems, and he seized the Professor, but before he could reduce her to a pink stain, she threatened to broadcast an image of the prettified Starscream all over the world and perhaps the galaxy. Preferring not to be hideously embarrassed, Starscream let her live and quickly departed, unaware that she'd worked her fashion magic on his wings, too.

Starscream next appeared when he revealed himself to a badly damaged Blitzwing and Lugnut, offering them help in exchange for their loyalty. After repairing Lugnut and Blitzwing, Starscream continually had to reassert his authority over the two walking malfunctions, who were quick to point out that their service was by threat, not choice. As Lugnut went prostrate with praise, Starscream was initially quite flattered by the hulking Decepticon's obsequity, but quickly learned that the big guy was being manipulated by an outside source. Tracking the transmission, he came to Sumdac Tower and was quite surprised to find the disembodied head of his former leader. Megatron, aware of Starscream's betrayal after seeing a news report on his earlier battle with the Autobots Home Is Where the Spark Is but not wanting to tip his hand, greeted Starscream as a "devoted and faithful subject", while Starscream adopted a subservient attitude himself. Beginning the smug monologue to end all smug monologues, he was interrupted by the senseless heroics of the Autobot Bumblebee. Focusing his attentions on the little yellow squirt, he mistakenly assumed that Megatron was helpless, an oversight that allowed the galactic despot to control the lab's machinery and defenestrate the traitor. Even so Starscream remained fixated on Bumblebee, and thus was caught unaware when the repaired form of Megatron burst from the tower roof.

Starscream watched with interest (briefly pondering if he should side with Megatron or help the Autobots stop him), tossing Bumblebee around absentmindedly as Megatron trashed the Autobots. When Megatron called out his loyal Decepticons, Starscream gracefully landed on Lugnut's head, ready to return to his position as second-in-command. Megatron prepared to fire on the Autobots, but quickly lashed out and rammed the Key into Starscream's chest, seemingly offlining the traitor, who then crumpled to the ground.

Sometime later, Starscream awoke on a garbage barge, evidently thrown in by an Autobot cleaning up Detroit. He found he couldn't detect any energy signals, not even his own. Panicking, he wondered if he was dead, but recovered when he realized he was still on Earth. Furious, he managed to track down Lugnut and Blitzwing and to follow them to the Decepticon base. There he challenged Megatron and was soundly sliced, blasted and thrown off a cliff. However, he again revived, except now he had no spark! Starscream discovered he was being kept alive by an AllSpark fragment embedded in his head. Using this newfound immortality to his advantage, he again attacked Megatron - and again and again and again, each time taking a trouncing and having his corpse thrown off a cliff by Blitzwing and Lugnut. Discovering another fragment, he set up a trap that would draw Megatron out and blow up both him and the city. He embedded the shard in a train engine, and as the overloading machine drew out Megatron, Blitzwing, the Elite Guard AND the Earth team, the plan seemed to be working. Unfortunately, the Autobots stopped the train, and Megatron knocked Starscream out of the sky, sending him crashing into the midst of the Autobots. He blasted Ultra Magnus and took back his fragment, but was put into stasis lock when Optimus slipped some cuffs on him. He was last seen bound, gagged and being taken onto the Elite Guard vessel.

While in transit on said vessel, Starscream somehow blasted his way out, once again vowing revenge against Megatron. Magnus sent word to Optimus Prime, warning him that Starscream was most likely on his way back to Earth. Megatron, eavesdropping on the conversation, offered a substantial reward for bringing Starscream to him.

To this end, Prowl ran off by himself towards to Moon and the resting place of the Nemesis, where he ran right into Starscream. Despite getting in behind Prowl, Starscream was rather easily disabled and put in stasis cuffs. While Lockdown and Prowl battled, Starscream somehow managed to escape.

Lockdown and Prowl agreed to team up, and they tracked down an apparently very scared Starscream, who was captured easily. While Lockdown brought him to Megatron, another Starscream turned up. This Starscream tried to deal with the Autobots, suggesting they team up to deal with their common enemy, Megatron. Prowl disabled him with ease, despite making a total mess.

Shortly after Lockdown delivered "Starscream" into the hands of Megatron, the Autobots showed with the other Starscream. Confusion ensued, and suddenly both Starscreams exposed internal bombs, and a recording of the real Starscream revealed that his entire plan was to allow the clones of himself to be captured and take out all his enemies in one fell swoop. In his infinite wisdom, however, he apparently programmed the bombs to explode long after everyone had realized what had happened. Prowl sent the clones into the sky, where they exploded without destroying the city.

Afterwards, Megatron increased the bounty on Starscream, this time stipulating that it had to be the real one. Watching, Starscream cursed Megatron (again) and dismissed his failure, noting he had plenty more clones-an army of them thanks to the protoforms that Lockdown brought to the ship prior to the series.

His time alone allowed him to produce five clones of himself, which he empowered with small slivers of the AllSpark fragment in his head, giving them life. He quickly learned that each of the Starscreams was a different aspect of his personality: cowardice, ego, sycophancy, deception, and, uh, something else. He asked the female version of him where she came from, and she said not to ask. Once introductions were done, he ordered them on their merry way to Megatron's base.

Upon reaching the base, the clone army attacked, leading to a free-for-all against Megatron's forces and the Autobots who'd assembled to stop the Decepticon leader's plan. During the fight, Starscream became fed up with his female clone telling him how to handle Megatron, as he'd been working on killing him long before she existed. She was unimpressed with his results to date. Eventually, his team overwhelmed Megatron, allowing two of the clones to subdue him while Starscream prepared to deal the killing blow. Starscream relished the moment, wryly assuring Megatron that he'd tell everyone that he died fighting valiantly-after naming Starscream as his successor. Abruptly, Starscream got head-jacked by Isaac Sumdac in a Headmaster unit, hoping to kill Megatron himself, but he easily handled Starscream's body and the clones.

Starscream's inert body fell on top of his head, which put him out of action. Panicking, he told his clones to attack, but was outraged when they all sided with Megatron instead. Starscream's head was then glued to one of the walls by Mixmaster's concrete. When he tried to mock Megatron's plan for the conquest of Cybertron, he had his mouth closed by more concrete.

When Megatron's newly activated Space bridge ran out of power to maintain the portal to Cybertron, Megatron replaced the AllSpark fragment with Starscream's head, which overloaded the power systems. This caused the portal to expand and attempt to suck everything around it into itself. This included Starscream's head and Megatron, the latter of whom was disabled by Autobot stasis cuffs, which prevented him from resisting the space bridge's pull. The overload also caused the space bridge receiving coordinates to be deleted, dumping the pair into empty space. Without a body to maneuver, Starscream was forced to look at Megatron, while Megatron, still disabled by the stasis cuffs, suffered a similar problem. A long night of bickering commenced.

Still a floating head, he and Megatron had a nice friendly chat on who's fault it was that they were in this predicament whilst Starscream attempted to use his teeth to remove Megatron's stasis cuffs. He then decided to place all the blame on Megatron and in his anger his mouth transformed into a gun which shot the stasis cuffs and freed Megatron. Suddenly, the giant Autobot Omega Supreme transwarped in front of them and a frightened Starscream attempted to beg the Autobot to spare his life and that it was Megatron he was after. He looked very foolish when Megatron informed him that Omega Supreme was in sleep mode. He later floated into the Autobot to join Megatron as the Decepticon leader attempted to commandeer the Autobot superweapon.

After numerous failures, Starscream decided to gloat but Megatron found some use for him by plugging him into Omega Supreme and using the Allspark fragment in the head as a power source once more. Taking the giant Autobot back to Earth, he sought to destroy

Optimus Prime but was pulled out of Omega's internal processor by Prowl who managed to awaken Omega Supreme's consciousness. However, things just went back to worse as Starscream had now commandeered Omega Supreme and used his giant body against the Autobots whilst taking Megatron prisoner. A cunning Megatron then said to Starscream that they should work together and return to Cybertron and rule side by side. An intrigued Starscream decided then to transform into space ship mode and make the jump into transwarp though he didn't notice Optimus Prime dumping a Space bridge component into his large body which caused random jumps through transwarp. Victory seemed to have been within his grasp as he jumped near Cybertron only to horrified that the fates conspired against him and began moving from one point in space to another constantly. In his words "No… no… NOOOOO!"

His head later appeared with Megatron on Omega Supreme when Lugnut was drifting through space after being defeated by Sentinel Prime. He then asked Megatron his opinion on hitch-hikers, something Megaron didn't take too kindly to.

After they pick up Shockwave, Starscream starts playing with Lugnut's feelings when Megatron labeled Shockwave his most loyal servant until they arrive on Earth's moon. Sneaking off, Starscream builds himself a replacement body from one of the clones before Megatron arrives and then destroyed most of the remaining clone bodies. Though attempting to bargin Megatron to reconsider slagging him after lying that the clones were an army he made for him, Starscream learns the full nature of Megatron's plan to create clones of Omega Supreme.

After Starscream helped place the protoforms into the Supreme clones, he attempted to take the activation codes for himself before Lugnut shoved him out of the way and receiving them by accident. Revealing that the chain of events was all part of his plan, Megtron blasted Starscream into pieces from the waist down, stating that his services were no longer required.

Starscream soon rebuilt himself, and flew away before he could see Bumblebee, Bulkhead, Ratchet, and Sari Transwarp to the Moon. Meanwhile on earth, The Lugnut Supreme clones were taken over by a program Starscream inserted, mimicking a previous attempt to destroy Megatron. Unfortunately, while Jazz and Prowl were trying to get Allspark fragments to stop the Starscream Supremes, they pulled out Starscream's spark, and he fell to the ground and finally goes offline.

Animated Optimus: Starscream!

Animated Starscream: (smirks) You Autobots must be truly desperate to come to me for help.

Molten Man: Hey, don't forget that J.D. revived you!

Animated Optimus: Reviving you was the last thing on my mind. But no one knows Megatron better then you do. Plus, I know you have some unfinished business with him.

Animated Starscream: How do you know you can truly trust me?

Animated Optimus: (glares at him) That's the thing. I don't trust you at all. So, if you stab us in the back even for a second, I'll kill you before J.D., Lynn, Lola, and Lori get the chance!

Me: That's right.

I had the Star Saber pointed at his head.

Me: The Star Saber will make sure you don't return if you stab us in the back again. We know all about your treacherous reputation but we also know you too.

Armada Starscream: That's right. You may also be another version of me, but at least I have one thing you don't have.

Animated Starscream: What's that?

Armada Starscream: A heart and honor.

Nico: That's right. So don't even think about stabbing us in the back. Or else.

Me: Yeah! Lets head out.

We were off to Cybertron.

---

PLANET CYBERTRON

---

We arrived at Cybertron and we were going to the main building of Cybertron.

But then Prometheus Black A.K.A. MELTDOWN then appeared!

---

Prometheus Black, also known as Meltdown is a recurring antagonist in the Transformers Animated series. He is business rival of Isaac Sundac that experimented on biological technology before mutating himself into an acidic creature.

He was voiced by Peter Stormare, who also portrayed Werner Zytle, Torsten, Gaear Grimsrud, and the Ghost.

Black was a scientist who experimented on biotechnology while his rival Sundac experimented in robotics. His experiments became a success in Detroit because the citizens feared that robots would take them. He organized a wrestling match between Bumblebee and a mutated human and hoped that Captain Fanzone would sign his contracts. The wrestling match, however, went out of control which made Fanzone reject all of Prometheus' contract, ruining him financially.

He later discovers a fragment of Bumblebee's armor covered in the hydraulic fluid after the fight. Black takes it to his laboratory and plans on creating an acid that could melt Autobot's armor. Black presents his findings and plans to the bank representative Porter Powell. Powell refuses to fund his experiments or provide any test subjects which infuriated Black.

In his anger, he throws the steroids all over his lab and mutated by inhaling the fumes. Prometheus now calls himself Meltdown and wears a protective suit that controls his powers. Meltdown seeks revenge on his rival Sundac first by sabotaging his rival's experiments. Later, he tries to kill Sundac by melting him with his powers. The Autobots managed to foil his plot and was trapped in a force field.

After his first confrontation with Autobots, he discovers Dinobot Island and coerced the Dinobots through his acidic powers. Meltdown kidnaps Isaac's daughter Sari and tries to experiment with her like he did with two other people, one of them was Black's lawyer. The Dinobots turned on him and Black chose to go to jail rather than face their wrath. But he eventually escaped from his sentence.

In his last appearance, he was brought to Blackarachnia to cure her of the organic side. Meltdown seemingly agrees and eventually betrays her and tries to destroy both Blackarachnia's organic and mechanical sides. Optimus interferes and Meltdown was hit by an energy beam that melted him. Optimus thinks that Meltdown was gone for good but his body begins to reconstruct itself.

Animated Optimus: Meltdown!

Animated Optimus: Meltdown. I knew you'd find a way to come back.

Meltdown: Did you really think a genetic modifier would keep me down for long? (smirks) Now then, who wants to be melted first?

Just then, we heard the sound of engines.

Maria: (to Motor Ed) Ed, did you call some vehicles to help us?

Motor Ed: Don't look at me. I didn't do anything yet. Seriously.

Me: Wait a second. I know those engine sounds.

We turned and we saw a bunch of vehicles coming at us.

I recognized them. It was Axel Manning and friends from A.T.O.M.!

They stopped.

Me: Axel!

Axel Manning: J.D. great to see you again man!

Me: Same here.

We fist bump and hugged.

Me: It's awesome seeing you here.

Axel Manning: You guys get going. We'll handle Meltdown!

Nico: Right! (to the rest of us) We'll let Mr. Mind have this one. At least it's better than him having a Decepticon.

Me: Yeah! Axel we owe you one.

Axel Manning: Anything for a friend.

Me: We'll see you later on this month.

Axel Manning: Right. Be careful guys.

Me: Thanks.

We ran fast.

Cybertron Red Alert: So this is your version of Cybertron?

Me: Wow! It's not like the one that we know where we destroyed Unicron.

Animated Optimus: Yep it's home.

We kept on running.

Then we saw Animated Jetfire, Animated Jetstorm and our enemy, SENTINEL PRIME!

Animated Jetfire: (Australian Accent) It is an honor to meet Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Animated Jetstorm: Same here!

May: (giggles) The pleasure's all ours!

Sentinel: (glares at us) Just don't get in the way, stupid organics!

You're about to punch Sentinel but I put a hand on your shoulder.

Nico: Easy, J.D. There will be a time for a little… talk with this jerk later.

Me: I'm not intimidated by him. I've dealt with worse monsters than him and a bunch of evil Sasuke's put together.

Eli was glaring at Sentinel, knowing that something was off about him.

Me: I know bro. I got that feeling too.

We continued on and we saw ANIMATED MEGATRON and with him was Animated Blitzwing, Animated Shockwave and Lugnut!

---

Megatron is the main antagonist of the 2007 cartoon Transformers: Animated . Being a delusional megalomaniac who truly believes the heroic Autobots are just tyrannical warmongers, Megatron formed the Decepticon ranks and used both his brute strength and genius level intelligence to put his plans of destroying the Autobots into action.

He was voiced by Corey Burton, who also voiced Shockwave, Brainiac (DC Animated Universe), Zeus, Hugo Strange, and the Hatbox Ghost.

As revealed in "Transform and Roll Out", Megatron had spent 4 million stellar cycles (years) in search of the Allspark. Even though he found it, Megatron was betrayed at the beginning of the series by Starscream, who planted an explosive device on his back. Due to the explosion that crippled the Autobots craft, Megatron's lifeless body crashed on Earth, contracting "space barnacles," while his disembodied head was found in rural Michigan by a young Isaac Sumdac. Megatron's head subsequently became a keystone for Sumdac's various robotic creations, which he used to help convert Detroit into a technological metropolis within the next 50 years.

His head was not reactivated until "Home is Where the Spark Is", when Sari used her Allspark Key to open her father's door to his lab. The surge of the key's power reached Megatron's head, putting him back online. Upon reactivation, he immediately found out that it was Starscream who betrayed him, and immediately plotted payback, but needed a body to do so. When he found out that the Autobots were on Earth, he took control of one of Sumdac's prototype pocket bots and sent it to their hideout - an abandoned automotive plant. Using the pocket bot, Megatron hacked the plant's automated systems to try and kill the Autobots, but his plan failed, and he would have been discovered by the Autobots if it weren't for Bulkhead accidentally destroying the pocket bot.

In "Blast from the Past", he revealed his existence to Professor Sumdac while he was repairing Sari's tutor-bot and the future Dinobots, which were accidentally destroyed by Bulkhead. Even though Sumdac wanted to tell the Autobots, Megatron convinced him that he was an Autobot and didn't want the real Autobots to see him in his weakened state. Eventually, Sumdac repaired the Dinobots with Megatron's "help". The Dinobots went on a rampage, got their new Cybertronian-like forms, and Megatron got his second taste of what Sari's key could do. He then proceeded to tell the Dinobots that the Earth cars were malevolent fossil feeders and the Autobots were even worse, sending them on another rampage.

In "Nanosec", he told Sumdac to hurry up with building a body and that he required Destronium (a play on the words cybertonium, the stuff all Cybertronians are made of and require in G1, and Destron, the Japanese name for the Decepticons), but the only Destronium available was across town, and if it wasn't delivered in under 10 minutes, then it would be futile. Upon hearing this, and seeing a test run with a super-speed suit developed by Sumdac Systems, Megatron secretly bailed petty thief Nino Sexton out of jail and supplied him with the super-speed suit, paying him to deliver the Destronium to him. Both Megatron and Sexton (now calling himself Nanosec), however, were unaware that if Destronium were moved at high speeds, it would become unstable, volatile, and catastrophically explosive. At the same time, Nanosec was unaware that the side effect of the suit's speed-enhancing ability was the wearer's rapid aging. Within minutes of continuously using the suit, Nanosec aged into an elderly man and was shortly apprehended while Bumblebee, using his rocket boosters and aided by Bulkhead and Prowl, disposed of the Destronium just outside Earth's atmosphere before it could explode and potentially take most of Detroit with it.

During "Sound and Fury", Megatron created Soundwave, originally a musical toy he created for Sari's birthday - even though his actual reason for creating Soundwave was to create a new body when Sari used her key to upgrade it. However, Sari used her key too many times and gave Soundwave a spark, and after hearing about this, Megatron recruited him to destroy the humans, all other organics, and the Autobots, whom Megatron said were "traitors who live to serve the humans."

After Lugnut and Blitzwing arrived on Earth during "Lost and Found", Megatron initially waited to see if they were truly loyal. After Lugnut and Blitzwing's battle, Megatron denounced Blitzwing as unstable and Lugnut truly loyal to the Decepticon cause, and spent the rest of the episode communicating exclusively to Lugnut, who Blitzwing thought was even more insane than himself.

In "Nature Calls", space barnacles wreaked havoc in a mining area outside Detroit, assimilating with a construction vehicle and becoming a techno-organic monster. The monster was defeated by Bumblebee, Prowl and Sari using hot water sprayed from a fire hose in the mine. It was revealed that the space barnacles had latched on Megatron's body, which crashed in the vicinity 50 years ago. Shortly after the space barnacles were destroyed, Sumdac found Megatron's body lying by the river and brought it back to his lab.

During the "Megatron Rising" saga, Megatron got impatient with Sumdac since he hadn't had much progress in repairing his body. Then he tried to communicate with Lugnut again, even though he and Blitzwing were with Starscream, who also thought that Lugnut had gone insane. After having his signal detected, Megatron received an unexpected visit from Starscream, who, even though he had the upper hand, didn't do anything except talk to Megatron. Then when Bumblebee burst in, Megatron used the lab's robotics to throw Starscream and Bumblebee outside and convinced Sumdac that he should complete his body to "help" his so-called "Autobot brothers". Lugnut and Blitzwing then flew in, and Blitzwing found out that Lugnut wasn't insane, then placed Sari's key (which they stole from Ratchet into Megatron's head, resulting in him being resurrected into his new Earth mode. Upon his reawakening, Megatron defeated the other Autobots, "killed" Starscream and led Lugnut and Blitzwing to Dinobot Island to retrieve the Allspark. When they arrived, Megatron immediately battled Optimus and both combatants ended up inside the Autobots' ship, rekindling their past struggles. When Megatron got hold of the Allspark, he placed it in his own spark chamber, giving him more power. Even though he had the upper hand, Sumdac attempted to take him down by disrupting his equilibrium circuits, which distracted Megatron long enough for Optimus to disperse the Allspark and seriously damage Megatron. But while Megatron failed in his quest to acquire the Allspark, he succeeded in kidnapping Sumdac and downloading an incomplete design spec for a space bridge.

Season 2

In "The Elite Guard", Megatron put in motion his plans to create a Space Bridge, so that his forces could transwarp to Cybertron and conquer the planet from within. During construction, Megatron found an Allspark fragment in one of Sumdac's worker robots. In "Mission Accomplished", the Allspark fragment-revived Starscream repeatedly tried to destroy Megatron, only to be repelled each time. Using a tachyon transmitter stolen from the Elite Guard's ship, Megatron sent a message to his fellow Decepticons, letting them know of his return. In "A Fistful of Energon", upon hearing of Starscream's escape from the Autobot Elite Guard, Megatron put out a bounty on the fugitive Decepticon. In "Rise of The Constructicons", Megatron recruited Scrapper and Mixmaster to build the Space bridge, coercing them with a supply of oil.

During the "A Bridge Too Close" two-part special, Megatron officially initiated the Constructicons into the Decepticon ranks. When he realized that his Space Bridge was still not in spec, he received word from Shockwave that Cybertron's best foremost Space Bridge expert was none other than Bulkhead, whom he kidnapped and threatened with a Headmaster unit]. In part 2, he battled Starscream, his clones and the Autobots at the same time, telling the Autobots about his plan to conquer Cybertron while the Autobots are at their weakest. Unfortunately, the Allspark fragment he got from the beginning of season 2 wasn't enough to power the Decepticon Space Bridge, so he used the fragment in Starscream's head for more power, but he overloaded the power core and sent himself, Starscream's head, a revived Omega Supreme, and the Space Bridge equipment through, ending up drifting in space with Starscream's head; the two arguing amongst themselves.

Season 3

However, during "Transwarped", Starscream freed Megatron from his stasis cuffs by shooting a sonic laser from his mouth. An offline Omega Supreme suddenly appeared and Megatron took control of him by using Starscream's head. He attacked the Autobots after transwarping back to Earth to prevent them from exposing Shockwave's cover. After Prowl severed his control of Omega, Megatron battled and easily defeated Optimus. He was then trapped by Starscream and they, along with Omega, wound up transwarping randomly across the universe, courtesy of the plasma dynamic thruster Bumblebee placed on Omega.

By the time they managed to get the thruster off Omega in "Decepticon Air", they found themselves in the middle of space with Lugnut drifting towards them. After picking up Shockwave once he had acquired Arcee, Megatron transwarped Omega to Earth's moon to begin his master plan: the construction of Omega Supreme clones, setting in motion the events of the two-part "Endgame".

With Lugnut in possession of the activation codes, Megatron entered one of the clones to personally oversee the destruction of Earth's Autobots before focusing on Cybertron. However, Optimus Prime, wielding the Magnus Hammer, managed to disable the clone Megatron rode in, forcing the Decepticon leader to enter the battle himself. During the course of the conflict, the clones were revealed to have been rigged by Starscream to explode, with Megatron and Detroit ending up caught in the explosion. It was only through Prowl and Jazz's "Processor Over Matter" recovery of the Allspark and Prowl's sacrifice that the explosion caused by the final clone was contained, saving Detroit from total destruction. Surviving in spite of heavy damage to his body, Megatron made a vain attempt to destroy Optimus, only to be knocked to the ground by a swing from the Magnus Hammer. Megatron told Optimus to finish him, but was spared (he only smashed his fusion cannon), so that he would face punishment for his war crimes on Cybertron.

Animated Optimus: Megatron.

Animated Megatron: Long time my friend.

Me: Nice to meet another Megatron.

Animated Megatron: The famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm. An honor to meet you.

Me: Nice to say the same.

Animated Optimus: Alright, Megatron. How did you get out of your cell?

Animated Megatron: Honestly, I'm not so sure myself. Someone seems to have unlocked it from the outside.

Lugnut: Enough talking! I will gladly crush these Autobots for the glorious Decepticon cause!

Animated Blitzwing: (Icy face) I suggest you all surrender. (switches to Hothead face) Before I crush you Autobots into nothing! (switches to Random face) Or we can settle this with a game! How about Hopscotch?

We laughed at his random face.

Me: That randome face of yours is funny!

Nico: It sure is!

Animated Blitzwing: Thank you. (Icy Face) I know my random face is funny. But seriously surrender.

Me: Sorry not gonna happen. We came to figure something out.

Animated Megatron: Who let us out.

Me: Exactly. Also the war is over with the Autobots and the Decepticons.

I told them everything.

Animated Megatron: So, it's true then? The war between Autobots and Decepticons is over?

Nico: On our Earth, it is. And it can be over on this one too. But it's your decision.

Animated Megatron: (sighs) Well, in that case…

Animated Shockwave: (sees something) Lord Megatron, look out!

Animated Shockwave pushes his leader out of the way of a laser blast and fell to the ground with a hole in his chest. The shot came from Sentinel, who stepped out of the shadows.

Sentinel Prime: (smirks) Your part in this is over, Megatron.

Animated Optimus: (eyes widen) Sentinel?! What are you doing?!

Sentinel Prime: I'm doing what's best for Cybertron.

Animated Ratchet: You mean what's best for you?! We knew you were rotten but we never thought you'd do something like this!

Sentinel Prime: Oh, it was easy. After making it possible for you losers to fight Megatron and his lackies.

Maria: Wait. You were the one who broke them out?!

Sentinel Prime: Of course I was. I figured that if I let all of you take each other out, I would emerge the victor.

May: Why?!

Sentinel: Why?! I'll tell you why! Cybertronians deserve to be the strongest species. Not stupid organics. And especially not Decepticons! I'm doing Cybertron a favor and wiping you all out. And then, I'll be the one who leads Cybertron to the New Age!

Animated Megatron: You will pay for this, you sorry excuse for an Autobot!

Sentinel Prime: (laughs evilly) Oh, I don't think that will be possible. (walks to the window) Today's a good day, Optimus.

Animated Optimus: Good?! People are dying, Sentinel!

Sentinel Prime: You've got much more too worry then that, old buddy. I'm gonna use the Allspark and my Dark Orb to go back in time and claim the AllSpark before you and your team of repair bots can find it. That way, I'm sure to become hero of Cybertron like I deserve. (to me) And then, I'll make sure you'll erased from history. And who knows? Maybe I'll even bring back Joker and Luthor from oblivion! (walks away)

Me: (growls) Don't you walk away, you fucker-

Nico: (gets my attention) Guys, Shockwave's counterpart doesn't look too good.

Me: Oh no!

We went over to Animated Shockwave.

Animated Ratchet: Shockwave, hang on! I'll get you patched up!

Animated Shockwave: (dying) No, Ratchet. It's better this way. At least, I can die knowing I saved my leader. (to Animated Megatron) It was an honor to serve you, my liege.

Animated Megatron: (sadly) Till all are one, my friend.

Animated Shockwave: It was an honor.

Animated Shockwave died.

Me: Sentinel Prime you will pay for your crimes.

Animated Optimus: (to Animated Megatron) Megatron, I know we've had our differences in the past. But now, I think it's time for all of us to unite as one. For Shockwave and everyone else Sentinel has hurt! (holds out hand)

Animated Megatron: You're right.

They shook hands.

Me: Come on guys. Lets get that fuckbucket! (Eyes glow red) He fucked around with the wrong people!

---

In a building Sentinel Prime was about to make his way to a machine. But then…

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion blasted through the ceiling and an energy blast hit and destroyed the machine he was going to and a phoenix cry was heard and we landed.

Sentinel: You scrapheaps just won't quit, will you?

Nico: What can I say? It's part of our charm.

Sentinel: Well, I decided not to bring Joker and Luthor back. Instead, I broke out from prison some friends you might know.

Figures came out and they were THE SORE LOSERS!

Me: OH FUCK ME SIDEWAYS!

Heather: Now we can get our revenge on you for the humiliation you dealt us!

Amy: And kill my so called sister!

Laney: You all brought that all on yourselves!

Alejandro: Well now we're gonna return the favor!

Duncan: Are you guys nuts?! Why would you turn your back on your own kind?!

Heather: Because there's nothing left for us on our Earth anymore, Duncan.

Alejandro: At least with Sentinel, we can still come out on top!

Me: Not while we're here you won't!

Eli: We should have killed you all.

Me: Too bad our code won't allow it.

Scott Truman: This will not be pretty for you!

Lisa: Scott, allow me to transform with you all.

Scott: That's fine by me.

RPM Rangers: RPM, Get in Gear!

Scott: "Get In Gear! RPM Ranger Red!"

Flynn: (Scottish Accent) "Get In Gear! RPM Ranger Blue!"

Summer: "Get In Gear! RPM Ranger Yellow!"

Ziggy: "Get In Gear! RPM Ranger Green!"

Dillon: "Get In Gear! RPM Ranger Black!"

Gem: "Get In Gear! RPM Ranger Gold!"

Gemma: "Get In Gear! RPM Ranger Silver!"

All: "Rangers, Get In Gear! Power Rangers RPM!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOM

A massive fiery explosion went off behind them and they were ready for action!

Lisa went up to Sentinel Prime.

Lisa Loud: This ends right now for you my overgrown clefted friend.

Gears and lightning swirled and spiraled around her.

Lisa Loud: What you have done was really poked a really cranky bear my friend.

Suddenly a massive explosion of light came out of Lisa and she was enveloped in a massive vortex of gears and lightning and energy and the vortex exploded high into the sky and it formed into into a robot phoenix and it drew in incredible energy from cosmic radiation and stars as Lisa's energy was rising exponentially. When the vortex faded, Lisa was forever changed! She now looked like she was 21 years old and she had longer brown hair and she didn't need her glasses anymore as her eyes were now fixed and she had gears, lightning and a robot phoenix mark emblazoned in the middle of her forehead and she was wearing earrings in the shapes of gears and she had a green tank top and maroon pants and black shoes and her trench coat was really a laboratory coat with gears and lightning all over it and her wings were robot phoenix and gear wings surging with lightning. She was now a SUPER ANGEL 10,000,000,000 TECHNO GEAR THUNDERSTORM!

Me: Whoa! Lisa you look amazing1

Lola: WOW! Our genius sister is incredible!

Nico: Yeah!

Dexter: Lisa you look amazing!

Me: How do you feel?

Lisa Loud: (Divine Echoing Technological Voice) I feel amazing my friends. This power will make sure that Sentinel pays dearly for all the atrocities he has commited to Cybertron and to everyone. Especially to Blackarachnia.

Nico: Show no mercy.

Sentinel Prime: Do you really think…

KAPOW!

Lisa smashed him in his stomach with devastating force and dealt him a powerful uppercut that sent him crashing into the wall!

Sentinel Prime was enraged and then he fired lasers and Lisa teleported and kicked him in the back and destroyed his entire shield generator!

Animated Optimus: Autobots, transform and roll out!

Animated Megatron: Decepticons, transform and rise up!

Me: CHARGE!

We went at them!

We went up to the Sore Losers.

Heather: What are you gonna do? Throw us in the Cryo Prison?

Maria: Not yet. We still have one more use for you. Until then, we're moving you all to the Masters of Evil prison.

Me: That's right. But you will be permanently burned from all over thanks to us.

Samey: This is payback for all the pain you caused me "Sister."

POW!

Samey punched her so called sister in the face with incredible force and knocked out some of her teeth.

She was knocked out and Vypra beamed the Sore Losers to the Masters of Evil prison.

Later Sentinel Prime was brought before Alpha Trion for his crimes.

Alpha Trion: It is the order of this council that you are no longer to act in any capacity as a representative of Cybertron or the Elite Guard. You are hereby stripped of your title and authority as Prime and Magnus, effective immediately.

Sentinel: Alpha Trion, uh, permission to present to the council testimony as to the circumstances of the incident?

Ultra Magnus: Circumstances of the incident have been considered. It's only because of your previous exemplary service to this planet that I'm recommending against an execution!

Sentinel: Ultra Magnus, I don't think you understand the gravity of the situation fully, thereby have misunderstood the circumstances-

Alpha Trion: This is not a negotiation.

Sentinel: I understand that.

Ultra Magnus: What you have done is completely reprehensible

Sentinel: I'm just asking to be heard…

Alpha Trion: You have acted without our permission.

Sentinel: I under- I understand that! I understand that! I lived my life by the way of the Autobots, I dedicated my life to it! I only ever did what you asked of me, what you told me to be and trained me to do, and I did it! And I did it well!

Ultra Magnus: You will be given a dishonorable Discharge and will be banished to Archa 7. You will hold no rank in retirement and receive no benefits.

Sentinel: You built me. Council, I am the Magnus the Autobots need.

Alpha Trion: Not anymore. Consider yourself extremely fortunate, Sentinel, that we are not letting Team Loud Phoenix Storm kill you here!

Me: Yeah! You should consider yourself lucky that we didn't destroy your spark and banish you to the Warp.

Nico: You make me sick Sentinel Prime. You are an even worse traitor than Starscream.

Armada Starscream: Yeah!

Sentinel Prime was defeated, disgraced and banished from Cybertron forever.

Animated Megatron: If it's all the same to you, I'd like to turn myself in. I have a lot to think about.

Animated Starscream: (solemnly) I'd like to turn myself in as well. Believe it or not, I actually have learned something from all this.

Vypra: We appreciate that. But in a month, you two will be let into the Masters of Evil.

Animated Starscream: I understand.

Animated Megatron: It will be an honor to be a part of the team.

Earlier, Meltdown was defeated by ATOM.

Meltdown: Don't think this is over!

Meltdown then retreats.

King: Should we go after him?

Lioness: Nah. I'm sure he'll show up again.

Hawk: For now, we should head back to base.

Shark: After we get back to our Earth.

Axel Manning: (looks out into the distance) Good luck, Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

They left.

Meltdown saw the battle.

Meltdown: At least I was defeated by humans this time. But no matter. Team Loud Phoenix Storm, Autobot and human alike, will suffer by my hands.

SaberLeomon: Oh, they will. We can promise you that.

Mr. Mind: It's good to know that you're not human anymore. That makes recruiting you so much easier.

Meltdown turned to see SaberLeomon and Mr. Mind there.

Meltdown: Who are you two?

SaberLeomon: I'm SaberLeomon. And this is my boss, Mr. Mind.

Mr. Mind: How would you like to get rid of those Autobots and Team Loud Phoenix Storm once and for all?

Meltdown: I'm listening.

Later, Optimus Prime stood before Ultra Magnus.

Animated Ultra Magnus: Optimus, I believe the time has come for you to be promoted to Autobot Leader like you deserve.

Animated Optimus: Thank you, Ultra Magnus. But there are two conditions first.

Animated Ultra Magnus: Whatever you'd like.

Animated Optimus: First, I'd like to keep my title as Prime. And second, I'd like you to stay in the Autobots as my second in command.

Animated Ultra Magnus: (smiles) I think that's fair. Very well then.

Me: Congratulations Optimus.

Nico: He has more than earned it.

I was happy for him.

Nico: Something wrong, J.D.?

Me: I was just thinking. If Ultra Magnus can step down as leader but still be second in command of the Autobots, maybe the same can be said for you and me as well.

Nico: Are you saying that you're thinking of making me leader while you stay as second in command of the team?

Me: Exactly.

Nico: (sighs with a smile) Why don't you wait until after Independence Day to tell everyone this? For now, let's enjoy our victory.

Me: Good idea.

Rhomboid: So, how does it feel to finally be Autobot Leader, Optimus Magnus?

Animated Optimus: (chuckles) It actually feels pretty nice. And like I told Ultra Magnus, I still want to be called Optimus Prime.

Sportsmaster: That's fine with us. Optimus Magnus doesn't exactly roll off the tongue

Fixer: Looks like it really is the start of Cybertron's New Age.

Multiple Man: You said it.

Me: Absolutely. Now Autobots and Decepticons in this version of Cybertron can be in peace.

Nico: Yep.

Lugnut: I have decided to join the Redemption Squad and redeem myself.

Nico: If that is what you want Lugnut then welcome aboard. But you have to follow my leadership.

Lugnut: I understand.

Yamato: We have to go back to Japan.

Me: Understood Yamato. But it was awesome having you all help us.

Yamato: It sure was.

Amu: I can't wait till you all help us.

Me: We'll be there. On August 29th like I promised.

They teleported back to Japan.

Animated Optimus: (To the viewers) This was one amazing adventure. Now one of Cybertron's most dangerous traitors is done for and we'll never see him again.

Me: You got that right Optimus.

Animated Optimus: Thank you all so much for helping us.

Me: It was our pleasure Optimus. Just doing what we do best and that's helping people in need.

We later went back home and we got ready for dinner and got ready for bed.

Over the Sahara Desert of Africa, me, Sea the Sea Serpent and Nicole Potter the Cheetah Gene-Slammer were flying to find a good rescue.

Nicole Potter: Nothing like a rescue before a holiday celebration.

Nicole concentrated and groaned as spots appeared on her skin.

Me: You said it Nicole! And in one of the hottest places in the world.

She turned into her Cheetah Gene-Slammer form.

Me: YEAH! Race ya?

Nicole Potter: You're on!

We ran fast through the Sahara Desert and then we saw a figure heading up a monster and then we followed a bunch of figures as they were riding horses and then when we turned the curve they were gone and then we saw Popeye!

Me: Wow! Popeye!

Popeye: Oh my garsh! The famous J.D. Knudson. And honor to meet ya.

Me: Same here. You are an iconic legend to all of us.

Sea: You sure are. I love all your cartoons and they are awesome.

Me: Let me guess, Bluto as Abu Hassan took Olive Oyl and Wimpy.

Popeye: You guys got it.

Nicole Potter: Oh boy.

Me: This is gonna be awesome. This cave can only be opened by the phrase (Holds hand to the rock) OPEN SESAME!

I opened the cave and the rock opened like a garage door.

Sea: Wow! That was awesome.

Me: Lets go!

We went in and we saw piles and piles of gold and jewels and more all over the place and it was a ton of the stuff.

Me: Wow look at all this stuff.

Sea: Lots of jewels and treasure.

Popeye: We got to give all these jewels to the people back.

Nicole Potter: And we will.

We saw Bluto as Abu Hassan and he had Wimpy captive and Olive Oyl was washing the clothes and we saw that she wasn't alone. She had an Easter Bunny with her.

Me: Whoa the girl with Olive is an Easter Bunny.

Sea: That's Chocola. Wow.

Me: Lets get them! Ready Popeye?

I pulled out 4 cans of spinach.

Popeye: You know me well.

Me, Sea and Popeye: Open says me!

The cans of spinach opened and the spinach poured into our mouths and we ate it and swallowed it.

Me: Yuck!

Then…

DING! DONG!

We were supercharged and our muscles grew and in my muscles was a nuclear missile ready to fire! In Popeye's muscles was a tank ready for full-fledge combat! In Sea's muscles was a dragon ready to burn and in Nicole Potter's muscles was a pack of wolves ready to strike!

We went at them and pulverized the living crap out of Abu Hassan and his 40 thieves and we rescued Olive, Chocola and Wimpy.

Chocola: That was so awesome!

Me: Aw it was nothing.

Chocola: Wow! You're the famous J.D. Knudson, leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Me: That's right Chocola. Pleasure to meet you.

Sea: Good to see you again Chocola.

Chocola: Same to you Sea.

Me: And you all know Popeye here.

Chocola: How can I not know. Iconic legend here.

Me: Yep. And this is Nicole Potter. She's a Cheetah Gene-Slammer.

Nicole Potter: Pleasure to meet you.

Chocola: Same here.

Nicole Potter: I'm gonna revert back now.

Me: Okay.

I put on my blind man glasses and Wimpy and Popeye covered their eyes.

Nicole was human again. But topless.

Nicole: (covers her boobs) Now I know how Greer and Barbara must've felt.

Popeye covered his eyes.

Popeye: Whoa. (Laughs)

I gave Nicole new clothes and she went and put them on.

Olive Oyl: That was so fun.

Wimpy: (Eating a burger)

Me: Now we have to bring Abu Hassan and his 40 Thieves and all these jewels back.

Chocola: Lets get to work.

Sea: These bandits are gonna do some REALLY hard time in the pokey.

We got to work and gave all the people of a nearby village all their stuff and jewels back and we went back home.

---

We arrived back home at the World Tree Estate, and everyone was having dinner.

Chocola: Wow! So this is the estate.

Me: Yep.

Sea: It's amazing huh?

Nico: Oh wow! She's an Easter Bunny.

Me: Yep.

Miia: Chocola!

Chocola: Miia!

They went and hugged.

---

Lena Isis and Phosphos were walking around Ponyville.

Lena Isis: Hey, Pinkie.

Pinkie Pie: Hey, Lena.

Phosphos: (Pinkie passes them again) Hey, Pinkie.

Pinkie Pie: Hey, Phosphos.

The two of them then realized something.

POINK! WHAT THE WHAT!?

Lena Isis: We said hello to Pinkie Twice!?

Phosphos: But how?

But it wasn't just two!

Lena Isis: We better get everyone down here!

Later we all arrived in Ponyville.

Me: I wonder what Lena called us for?

Nico: I don't know but it sounded Urgent.

We saw all the ponies gathered by Twilight's Castle and they were mad!

[ponies shouting angrily]

Twilight Sparkle : Okay, everypony, please, calm down!

Me: What's going on here everyone?

Eli: Yeah what's gotten you all so upset?

Rarity : Calm down ? I just had a Pinkie hurricane raging through my shop!

Fluttershy : And they trashed our critter picnic!

[ponies shouting angrily]

Me: What do you all mean by that?

Twilight Sparkle : Please, everypony.

Me: Wait a minute. Nico you don't thing that…

Nico: Nah it's sealed up.

Twilight Sparkle : Does anypony here know how we can tell the real Pinkie Pie from all the rest of them?

Ponies : ["Uh…", "I don't know", etc.]

Pinkie Pie : Twilight! I have to talk to you, I need your help!

Me: Pinkie are you alright?

Twilight Sparkle : Excuse me, whoever you are, but I'm not talking to any of you Pinkies unless you're the real Pinkie.

We gasped as we saw another Pinkie and she was imitating Twilight!

Pinkie Pie : Oh, but, but I am the real Pinkie!

Pinkie Pie Duplicate : No, you're not! I'm the real Pinkie!

Pinkie Pie Duplicate 2 : I'm the real Pinkie!

Pinkie Pie Duplicate 3 : No, I'm the real Pinkie!

Pinkie Pie Duplicate 4 : I'm the real Pinkie!

Pinkie Pie Duplicate 5 : No, I'm the real Pinkie!

Pinkie Pie Duplicate 6 : I'm the real Pinkie!

Pinkie Pie Duplicates : Fun! Fun! Fun! Fun!

Cress: Guys, are you seeing what I'm seeing right now?

WE SAW OVER 3 DOZEN PINKIE PIE'S JUMPING AROUND AND GOING CRAZY!

Me: (RUBS EYES) NICO PUNCH ME IN THE HEAD! I THINK I'M STARTING TO SEE THINGS AND GOING CRAZY!

POW!

Nico punched me into the ground with incredible force and I had a nasty lump on my head!

I got up and that hurt.

Me: OW!

I saw that the Pinkie's were still there.

Me: Okay I'm not going crazy! But this is impossible! We sealed up the hole that lead to the Mirror Pond!

Nico: Who would be stupid to unseal that?

Applejack : How in tarnation are we supposed to tell which is the real Pinkie?

Twilight Sparkle : I have no idea.

Homer: This is worse than when I was cloned!

Pinkie Pie : Me either. Ohh… We've all got the same adorable tails, we've all got the same adorable manes, we've all got the same adorable hooves! Which one of us is the real Pinkie?! Oh! I haven't the slightest clue! And if I can't tell us apart… who can ? [crying]

Pinkie Pie Duplicates : Fun! Fun! Fun! Fun!

[duplicates shouting]

They ran through the streets all over.

[windows slamming]

Twilight Sparkle : Ugh, this is hopeless!

Me: Yeah and Naruto and I can make shadow clones and we stand out from the rest of them. But I'm not giving up Hope.

Naruto: Yeah this is crazy.

Fu: No kidding!

Spike : Maybe that one's the real Pinkie.

We saw a Pinkie moping with her head on a mushroom table.

Twilight Sparkle : Please. The real Pinkie Pie never sat that long in one place her whole life!

Me: Actually that is the real Pinkie Pie.

Twilight Sparkle: Are you sure?

Spike : I'm gonna go ask.

Twilight Sparkle : Of course she's gonna say she's the real Pinkie! They all do! You're wasting your time.

Spike : So lemme guess. You're the real Pinkie Pie.

Pinkie Pie : Heck if I know. Could be any one of us if you ask me. And if I said I was the real Pinkie, you wouldn't even believe me anyway. So just leave me alone. I've got some important poking the ground with my hoof to do.

Me: Actually you ARE the real Pinkie.

Eli: J.D. is right. The Force is showing me that you ARE the real Pinkie Pie.

Pinkie Pie: Oh wow! Thank you guys! But what if I'm not the real Pinkie Pie?

Me: We'll figure it out.

Twilight Sparkle : Oh, Spike, how're we gonna do this? I can't risk sending the real Pinkie back into the pond!

Spike : I miss the real Pinkie.

Pinkie Pie : [sighs] I bet she misses you too. Bet she'd do just about anything to get to be with her friends again. Hey. Hey! What if you gave them a test? Pick something really hard for a Pinkie to do, something not fun at all! Any Pinkie that can't do it goes back into the pond. But whoever wants to stay the most, that must be the real Pinkie!

Twilight Sparkle : You know, that's not a bad idea.

Me: A test is perfect. Twilight you go find everyone and we'll meet you to where they are at.

Twilight went to find everyone.

Pinkie Pie : This is great! If I pass, I get to be with my friends again! [gasps] But what if I don't pass? Oh, what if I'm not the real Pinkie Pie?! Ohhhh! Stupid [thud] magic [thud] mirror [thud] water! This is all your fault!… And mine. [thud]

Eddy: Guys, after we find out who's the real Pinkie, keep her close to Lincoln.

Rippersnapper: Okay. Why?

Eddy: Because I plan to blow the rest of their brains out!

He pulled out his blaster and I took it.

Me: Eddy are you nuts!? You could end up killing the real Pinkie Pie too!

Eddy: Oops.

Animated Prowl: I've got an idea. Let's have all the Pinkie Pies do a staring contest with me.

Me: Hmm. Lets try something else. Twilight has a plan. Lets go follow her.

We went to find Twilight.

We caught up to Twilight.

Rainbow Dash : Hey, Twilight!

We saw that Rainbow Dash and everyone was in a tree with a hole in it.

Twilight Sparkle : I've been looking all over for you ponies. What are you all doing here?

Me: Are you all okay?

Rainbow Dash : Fluttershy spoke with the woodland critters, and they've agreed to take us into their home 'til the Pinkie storm dies down.

Twilight Sparkle : You guys, we're gonna fix this. And I know exactly how.

Fluttershy : Are we gonna lose our real Pinkie Pie?

Me: No we aren't.

Twilight Sparkle : I don't think so. Now come along. I've already got Applejack and her family rounding up all the Pinkies.

Me: I better go help her. (Whistles!)

My Rapidash came and I got on.

Me: HYAH!

Me and Rapidash went to help Applejack and her family.

In the meadows the Pinkie Pie's were running fast.

[rumbling]

[duplicates shouting]

Applejack : Hyah, ya Pinkies! Hyah!

Me: GET ALONG PINKIES!

Pinkie Pie Duplicate : Ooh, they wanna play chase! This is fun, too!

Me: HYAH!

[duplicates shouting, continues under]

We got them to the town hall!

Applejack : Oh, give it a rest.

Twilight Sparkle : Welcome, Pinkies, welcome. Please have a seat and make yourselves comfortable. [pause] (The Pinkies were out of control) Okay, I suppose you can't be comfortable staying in one place, but have a seat anyway. [pause] Sit down !

[duplicates stop shouting]

They all sat down.

Twilight Sparkle : Better. Now, I suppose you're all wondering why I've gathered you all here today.

Pinkie Pie Duplicate : For fun?

Twilight Sparkle : No, just the opposite actually.

Rainbow Dash : Wait up, I got one more! Found this one poking at the ground with her hoof, drawing frowny faces.

Me: Twilight that's the real Pinkie. She would never do that.

Twilight Sparkle: Really?

I nodded and I used my magic to form a marker over the real Pinkie Pie that only me and Twilight can see.

Twilight Sparkle : Clever thinking. Have her come sit with the others.

[thud]

Rainbow Dash put her in with the others.

Just like before Fluttershy and Rarity were finished painting the wall.

May: Maybe Prowl's idea was a good alternative.

Twilight Sparkle: Pinkies, you've been brought here to take a test.

Pinkie Pie Duplicates: [in chorus] Awww!

Twilight Sparkle: Don't worry, it's a simple test, about as simple as they come, and whoever passes gets to stay.

[duplicates making huh noises, yeah]

Twilight Sparkle: Curtain, please. The test… will be watching paint dry!

THIS IS GONNA BE REALLY BORING!

[duplicates gasping]

Twilight Sparkle: On your mark, get set, go!

Spike: Ooh, this is so exciting!

Spike was eating some popcorn.

Me: We're gonna be here for a while.

---

French Narrator: (French Accent) 3 Hours Later.

---

Spike: Okay, maybe not that exciting.

Me: Watching paint dry is one of the most BORING things ever.

Billy: I likes it.

POW!

Mandy punched Billy in the head.

Eli: How long does it usually take for paint to dry?

Me: About 8 hours. We've been here for three hours now.

Ets: Geez.

Sea: This is gonna be a while.

[bird chirping]

Pinkie Pie Duplicate: Oh, hey, look at the birdie!

Eddy took this moment to shoot the duplicate in the head.

But the magic of the Mirror Pond deflected the blast back at him and hit him in the leg!

Me: WHOA! The Mirror Pond's Magic must be protecting them.

Nico: Powerful.

Laney: Yeah.

Twilight Sparkle: [grunts]

She fired a beam of magic and it hit the Pinkie Duplicate and she inflated and turned into energy and went back to the pond.

Pinkie Pie Duplicate: Watch me bounce and touch the ceiling!

She did so and Twilight hit another duplicate and the one that bounced.

[poof]

[frog croaking]

Pinkie Pie Duplicate: Is that… is that a frog crossed with an orange?

Pinkie Pie Duplicate 2: Cool!

Pinkie Pie Duplicate 3: Where?

[poof]

She zapped the 3 duplicates at the same time.

Pinkie Pie Duplicate: Look what I can do with my hooves! [blows]

[popping noises]

She made fingers appear.

Me: Okay that is one of the most disturbing sights I've ever seen.

Twilight blasted them.

[poof]

Pinkie Pie Duplicate: Betcha can't make a face crazier than… this!

She made her face into a Generation 1 Pony.

2 More duplicates got blasted.

[poof]

Laney: Okay… that was possibly the most creepiest thing I've ever seen.

Twilight then blasted many more duplicates.

Twilight Sparkle: [sounds of exertion] [blows]

Me: I will say this, Twilight is one awesome sharpshooter.

Lincoln: She sure is.

Nico: Nice shooting.

[long pause]

Me: (In my head) (Referring to the duplicate Pinkie) Come on make a move already. We know it's not you.

Rainbow Dash: Ugh, I can't take it anymore! Somepony's making balloon animals!

Pinkie Pie Duplicate: What? Where?

Twilight blasted the final duplicate.

[poof]

Me: That's all of them.

Twilight Sparkle : Pinkie, you can look away now.

Pinkie Pie : I passed?

Me: You sure did. I put a marker over you that only me and Twilight could see. So that way we could not hit you.

Twilight Sparkle : You passed. You're the only Pinkie who kept staring at the wall.

Pinkie Pie : I had to. I just had to. I couldn't leave my friends, I just couldn't. But I guess sometimes I will have to choose between them.

Me: Oh Pinkie. It's all right. Sure we have the power to be in many places at once but we have to be careful with what kind of powers to use that way we can choose and know when to do it.

Twilight Sparkle : That's right Pinkie. But I knew you'd be up to the challenge.

Pinkie Pie : I'm me! I'm me! I'm me ! Or am I? Yeah, I'm pretty sure I am.

Sludge: Me Sludge glad to have only one Pinkie Pie now!

Pinkie Pie: I'm glad too.

Me: Same here. (Groans) I have a headache the size of Russia.

Nico: You better go get some rest J.D.

Me: Yeah. This is the last time I drink steak sauce.

I went back to the World Tree Estate.

Pinkie Pie: Dear Princess Celestia,

It's great to have fun, but it's even greater to have great friends. And having lots of friends means that you sometimes have to make choices as to who you'll spend your time with. But that's okay, because good friends will always give you lots of opportunities to have fun. So even if you're missing out, it's never for long.

Respectfully yours,

Pinkie Pie.

We made sure that the Mirror Pond stayed sealed for good by having Tara use her powers to cover the hole forever with mud like a cork.

Pinkie Pie got to have fun with everyone. She did Applejack's barnraising, Fluttershy's critter picnic, Rainbow Dash's fun by the lake and more. Then she wrote a letter to the princess.

Spike: [blows fire]

Twilight and everyone came.

Twilight Sparkle: Hi, Pinkie Pie. We were thinking we should go out and celebrate.

Applejack: You up for some wheelbarrow races?

Rainbow Dash: Or I could take everypony on a cloud ride!

Rarity: I could throw a party with punch and zesty cucumber sandwiches! Ooh!

Pinkie Pie: You wanna know exactly what I feel like doing right now?

[sighs] [snores]

She fell asleep after a long day.

Fluttershy: That looks like fun.

[all laughing]

Applejack: Oh, Pinkie.

Eli went up and picked her up and put her in her in her bed and tucked her in.

Eli: You more than earned rest.

Pinkie Pie: (Sleepily) Thanks Eli.

He left and the door closed.

In my room, I had an ice bag full of ice on my head and I was reading a book on magic and spells.

---

Later the next morning it was July 4th and you know what that means.

Manaphy, Poromon, Horsea, Poliwag, Emolga, Tentacool, and Jirachi: Happy Independence Day, everybody!

Me: And a Happy Independence Day to you all too.

Nico: 245 Years of Freedom.

Laney: Yeah amazing.

Lola: It's awesome.

Me: Lets get ready for our big 4th of July barbecue. Me and the Loud's will go to the stores and get the food.

Nico: Okay.

We went to the grocery store to get the stuff for the 4th of July Barbecue.

Nico: (to Keiichiro) I find it odd that Yamato didn't recognize you or Kagura.

May: What's even more weird is that they mentioned that they're still fighting Genis even though he got killed in 2017.

Keiichiro: I have a theory on that. I think J.D. accidentally flew so fast that he ended up traveling back to 2016 when the Zyuoghers were still fighting Genis.

Kagura: Specfically, a moment before Misao and Bud joined them.

Maria: Good thing that won't hurt the timeline severely.

Kairi Yano: Well, I'm sure that the next time we see the Zyuohgers, it'll be their present day selves.

Nico: I agree.

Eli: That was cool meeting the Zyuohghers.

Lola, Lori and Lynn were in thought.

Maria: Something wrong, guys?

Lola: Just literally thinking about what Sentinel tried to do.

May: Oh, c'mon. That's still in your minds?

Lynn: Well, it's hard to forget that someone who's supposed to be an Autobot committed so many bad deeds.

Lori: (to Nico) Is that literally what you're trying to prevent us from becoming?

Nico: More or less. Look, you guys don't have to worry. There's no way you'll ever become like that big chinned jerk at all. (in his mind) Damn Sentinel for pulling that stunt. And I haven't forgotten about what J.D. plans to tell the others after tomorrow.

I came back in.

Me: I'm back.

I had bags full of meat and beans and potato, macaroni, 12 bean and egg salads and even good desserts.

Me: I can't believe that Sentinel Prime. We should have just killed him. He deserves nothing short of death for everything he did.

Nico: I know man.

Salem: What he did was terrible.

Animated Optimus: You guys don't have to worry about Sentinel anymore. Ironically, he's banished to the same planet where he abandoned Elita.

Me: Well he can stay there and be food for those spiders for all we care. What he did was majorly unforgivable.

Nico: You got that right.

Popeye: Wow it sounds like you guys hated that joik.

Me: Hated isn't the right word for it. We DESPISED him.

Eli: Yeah.

Animated Bumblebee: (to Sari) I don't think you've ever told us about the 4th of July before.

Sari: It's a very amazing and awesome and very important holiday.

Me: It commemorates the day we gained our freedom during the American Revolution. On July 4th, 1776 we signed the Declaration of Independence and gained our freedom from the British.

Sari: That's right.

Me: It was 245 years ago.

Animated Optimus: I think this holiday has perfect timing after we just ended the War between Autobots and Decepticons in our world. Even though Meltdown is still out there.

Me: It sure is. And I agree with you all. But if I were to guess I would say that Mr. Mind recruited him.

Eli: He did. The Force is telling me that he did.

Me: So that's number 5 of his team.

Aylene C.: Oh boy.

The Masters of Evil all arrived.

Vypra: Hope we're on time.

Me: You're always on time for the party.

Dark Spicer: Let's make sure the fireworks are somewhere not flammable.

Me: Good idea. We're going to have them in the park by the lake.

Nico: Yeah!

Bluto: I hope we get to pop some rockets off in this runts face!

Popeye: OH YEAH!?

POW!

He punched Bluto in the face and Sea caught him and punched him all over like a punching bag.

Sea: Just be thankful that you don't have your set of usual battles yet. Or you would really be in a lot of pain.

Nico: Yeah!

Poromon: I honestly think we can relax for today. I mean, there's no way anything bad will happen right now.

But he spoke too soon as the Alarm went off.

Me: Uh oh!

We went to the computer and we saw on the space scanners that THE HARVESTER ALIENS from the movie Independence Day were getting ready for a full scale war against us!

Me: Oh boy! We got to be ready for battle! The Harvester Aliens are getting ready.

Nico: Those stupid Harvester Aliens just never learn.

Eli: No they don't.

Robo-Blaze: Who are the Harvester Aliens?

Me: Those ugly aliens from the movie Independence Day.

Robo-Blaze: Oh I remember those guys!

Laney: Yeah they were hideous.

I went over their history.

---

The Harvesters are the main antagonists of the Independence Day franchise, appearing in the films Independence Day and Independence Day: Resurgence. They are a space-faring genocidal race of hostile alien species that destroy planets, and take their orders from their Queens, the overarching antagonists of the franchise. When they destroyed the Sphere's race, she rescued other aliens from the Harvesters.

Their vocal sound effects were provided by Frank Welker, who also did the vocal sound effects of Max 3000 in Man's Best Friend, Red Death in How to Train Your Dragon, Rudy in Ice Age: Dawn of the Dinosaurs, Ludmilla in Bartok the Magnificent, Sharptooth in The Land Before Time, Sabor in Tarzan and Mor'du in Brave.

Becoming a Threat

In an unspecified time in the past, the Harvesters presented themselves as a threat to the universe itself, due to their plague-like nature. Attacking from their own homeworld, their empire encountered a highly-advanced civilization of trans-sentient beings which they pushed to the brink of extinction.

For thousands of years, the Harvester Empire has been at war against a coalition of many alien races, who lost their planets to the Harvesters. This war remains at a stalemate as the Harvesters could not locate their enemies' planet of origin. Because of this, the Harvesters attempt to hunt down a sapient artificial intelligence known as the Sphere for its vital information on their enemies. The remnants from this civilization escaped with technology that they stored at a sanctuary world, where they have since actively prepared species with the necessary tools to combat the Harvesters. Recognizing the beings as a threat, the Harvesters are determined to discover the sanctuary world and prevent the spread of the means that can defeat them.

Contact with Humanity

The first recorded interaction between humanity and the aliens was in 1947, when an Attacker crashed on the Foster Ranch outside of Roswell, New Mexico. In the crash, two aliens were killed, while a third was seriously injured. The crashed ship, the two bodies and the injured alien were brought to the new Air Force installation outside of Rachel, Nevada called Homey Airport, (better known as "Area 51"). The survivor died within a matter of weeks. Over the next 49 years, scientists at Area 51 studied the Attacker, attempted to repair it and studied the physiology of the three alien corpses. However, none of the technology of the Attacker could be accessed, either for expeiments or reverse engineering, as there was no Mothership nearby and human technology were unable to duplicate the power source of the Attacker.

Vietnam War veteran Russell Casse claimed to have been abducted by the aliens in 1986, with the purpose of conducting horrific experiments upon him. However, the veracity of these claims are debatable and as such, Casse was largely dismissed for suffering Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD).

First invasion

On July 2, 1996, a Mothership arrives at the Moon and begins to transmit command signals into Earth's satellite system. During this time, a number of satellites crash into the Mothership, which significantly disrupts terrestrial communications. After establishing a permanent position, the Mothership deploys three dozen city-sized City Destroyers to position themselves over major cities. The signal progressively becomes weaker after every new transmission, with the end of the signal indicating when each City Destroyer should fire upon cities.

On July 3, 1996, humanity is devastated, as the largest cities are now in ruins and hundreds of millions of people are dead. The City Destroyers move on to other major cities, with the intention being to destroy every last one within a matter of days. There are a number of attempts by humans to defend themselves against the City Destroyers, but each of these ends in utter failure, while the alien casualties are minimal, with only one reported crashed Attacker.

On July 4, 1996, the tide of war takes an abrupt turn. In the early Nevada morning, the captured Attacker from 1947 is deployed from Area 51 by the humans, with Captain Steven Hiller piloting and computer scientist David Levinson as a passenger. The Mothership summons the Attacker and docks it in the center of the ship. Levinson connects to the aliens' internal network and uploads a computer virus that disrupts the Mothership's systems and causes the shields to go down for fifteen minutes. With this slim window of opportunity, the United States Air Force manages to destroy a City Destroyer when Casse goes kamikaze into the primary weapon. This strategy is shared with other nations and the City Destroyers everywhere are destroyed. A City Destroyer that previously landed and drills into the earth's crust in the Congo issues a distress signal, calling for other civilizations to come to their aid. Soon after, Hiller and Levinson shoot a nuclear missile into the transport hub of the Mothership and escape. The Mothership then explodes, thus ending the first invasion.

Second invasion

In the twenty years following the first invasion, humanity has worked industriously to prepare for another global threat. The nations have unified to create a defense grid around the planet and Moon that cannibalizes the Harvester's technology from the debris of the first invasion.

A massive Harvester Mothership in the midst of a mission receives the distress beacon from the first mission. Infuriated, the Queen orders an assault on Earth. Their enemy, the Sphere, arrives shortly before they arrival of the Harvester Mothership, but is mistaken for the aliens, so it is shot down by the humans. The Harvester arrives and promptly disables Earth's defenses and situates itself over the Atlantic Ocean.

Upon detecting the presence of the Queen, the humans launch a defensive strike against the Harvester Mothership, with the intention of killing her. Predicting this move, the Queen allows the humans close to her, then has Attackers swarm the scene. A sparse number of humans infiltrate the Harvester and crash land in the ship's interior ecosystem, due to an electromagnetic pulse issued.

The Sphere is activated, which prompts lures the Queen's ship. Taking advantage of her determination, Levinson reroutes the signal from the Enemy to a space tug carrying cold fusion bombs, piloted by former President Whitmore. Through a sacrificial mission, Whitmore flies into the Queen's ship and detonates the bombs directly in front of her. The Queen, however, survives and continues her pursuit of the Enemy. Upon snagging the Enemy, the Queen is attacked and killed by ships piloted by Dylan Hiller and Jake Morrison. With the death of the Queen, the aliens go catatonic, the Harvester releases its grip on Earth and the second invasion ends.

When I was done everyone was shocked!

Eli: These aliens are monsters!

Nico: Yeah they sure are.

Ets: And they are pure evil.

Jirachi: When was the last time you guys fought them?

Me: 2 years ago. They were dangerous as Hell. But let me show you the speech that President Whitmore made when we faced them.

I showed everyone the speech.

---

President Whitmore: In less than an hour, aircraft from here will join others from around the world. And you will be launching the largest aerial battle in this history of mankind.

Mankind - that word should have new meaning for all of us today.

We can't be consumed by our petty differences anymore.

We will be united in our common interests.

Perhaps its fate that today is the 4th of July, and you will once again be fighting for our freedom, not from tyranny, oppression, or persecution - but from annihilation.

We're fighting for our right to live, to exist.

And should we win the day, the 4th of July will no longer be known as an American holiday, but as the day when the world declared in one voice:

"We will not go quietly into the night!

We will not vanish without a fight!

We're going to live on!

We're going to survive!"

Today, we celebrate our Independence Day!

We cheered wildly for that.

---

When it was done it was a really powerful speech.

Eli: Wow! That was a powerful speech.

Sea: Boy it sure was.

Laney: It was a really powerful and motivational speech.

Nico: Boy it sure was.

Tara: That's one of my favorite speeches.

Twilight Sparkle: But it sure was a powerful and very inspirational speech.

Laney: It sure was.

Snake: You know what, dude? We're gonna follow what that speech taught us!

Me: Absolutely! And we're going to show them that this is our planet and this is our galaxy and we're not going to let them take it from all of us.

Nico: That's right!

Me: Now it's time for us to take the fight to them. We're going to show those alien fucksacks that you mess with our planet, then we will mess with you 10,000-fold!

Nico: YEAH!

Eli: No one tries to destroy Earth and lives to tell about it.

Manaphy: (to Poromon) Babe, you stay here in case any of the aliens try to attack the Estate.

Poromon: Yes Ma'am!

Me: Get ready guys. We're going destroy the entirety of the Harvesters by blowing up the entirety of their planet as well as all of their ships and fleets and all that. Lisa, deploy the U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix.

Lisa Loud: Affirmative.

Me: Get ready Harvesters, (EYES GLOW RED) WE'RE ALL

COMING FOR YOU!

Animated Ratchet: I'll call our Omega Supreme to help us out as well!

Me: Okay.

He went and did so and out came ANIMATED OMEGA SUPREME!

Animated Omega Supreme: Looks like we're gonna have some fun.

Me: You bet we are. Lets go.

We loaded up the ship and we were off to the Harvester Home Planet.

The Harvester aliens that were planning to attack the Estate were stopped by what seemed to be a group of dinosaurs.

Dino Brachio: What the Hell are those things?

Dino Tricera: They don't look like Dragozaurs to me.

Dino Stego: Well, whoever they are, they don't look friendly at all!

Dino Tyranno: You're right about that. I think we know what to do at this point!

Dino Brachio: Lets get them!

Dino Tyranno: Dino Tyranno! Power Of The Ancients! Silver Sword! Dino Knight, ready!

Dino Bracho: Dino Brachio, power of the Ancients! Axe of Valor! Dino Knight, ready!

Dino Tricera: Dino Tricera, power of the Ancients! Tricera Spears of Jade! Dino Knight, ready!

Dino Stego: Dino Stego, power of the Ancients! Stego Skeletal Revolution! Dino Knight, ready!

Dino Mammoth: Dino Mammoth, power of the Ancients! Mammoth

Tusks of Vigor! Dino Knight, ready!

Dino Kenty: Dino Kenty, power of the Ancients! Kenty Skeletal Drill! Dino Knight, ready!

Dino Ptera: Dino Ptera, power of the Ancients! Ptera Bristle Boomerang! Dino Knight, ready!

Dino Styraco: Dino Styraco, power of the Ancients! Styraco Sword of Stealth! Dino Knight, ready!

Dino Ichtyo: Dino Icthyo, power of the Ancients! Trident of the Tides! Dino Knight, ready!

Dino Arch: Dino Arch, power of the Ancients! Arch Bone Shield! Dino Knight, ready!

IT WAS THE DINOZAURS!

The Dinozaurs slashed and blasted and destroyed all the Harvesters sent to attack us.

Dino Sabre: Well, that was fun.

Dino Ptera: They definitely weren't Dragozaurs at all.

Dino Mammoth: You're right! The Dragozaurs provided more of a challenge!

They then saw Poromon, who flyin while watching the whole thing.

Dino Tyranno: (to Poromon) Hello. Poromon, was it? Can you keep us a secret from the rest of Team Loud Phoenix Storm until the time is right?

Poromon: You bet but you guys were awesome!

Dino Arch: Thank you. It was cool huh?

Dino Ichtyo: It will be more fun when you guys help us coming up soon.

Poromon: It sure will be cool. Thank you.

Dino Tyranno: You're welcome. Lets head home.

The Dinozaurs left.

---

In space, the U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix was flying through the voids of space to the Harvester Planet.

Me: Captain's Log, Stardate 4935.1: The U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix is en route to the world of a malevolent alien race known as the Harvesters, evil aliens that want to destroy all life in the universe and harvest the resources of the planetary cores of each planet until there is nothing left. They attacked the Earth back in 1996 in the movie Independence day and killed millions of innocent people. Now it's our turn to destroy them. Our mission is to destroy the entirety of the Harvesters and make them all pay for their crimes against Earth.

Electro: Are we getting closer?

Me: Almost.

Popeye: Would you likes to hear my song?

Nico: Oh boy would we?

Sea: Lay it on us!

Popeye: (Singing) I'm Popeye the Sailor Man (TOOT)

I'm Popeye the Sailor Man (TOOT)

I'm strong to the finich

Cause I eats me spinach

I'm Popeye the Sailor Man (TOOT)

I'm one tough Gazookus

Which hates all Palookas

Wot ain't on the up and square

I biffs 'em and buffs 'em

And always out roughs 'em

But none of 'em gets nowhere

If anyone dares to risk my "Fisk"

It's "Boff" an' it's "Wham" un'erstan'?

So keep "Good Be-hav-or"

That's your one life saver

With Popeye the Sailor Man (TOOT)

I'm Popeye the Sailor Man (TOOT)

I'm Popeye the Sailor Man (TOOT)

I'm strong to the finich

Cause I eats me spinach

I'm Popeye the Sailor Man (TOOT TOOT)

We cheered for him.

Sea: Never get tired of that song.

Nico: Me neither.

Linka: It's awesome.

Cleveland: How come when me, Joe, Quagmire, and Peter tried to eat spinach to get out spot at the Drunken Clam from some random guys, it didn't do nothing for us?

Me: That's because Popeye has a great talent in anything. Also Quahog isn't like what Popeye does.

Cleveland: That is a good point.

Lisa Loud: We have arrived at our destination.

Me: On screen.

We saw that we were at a terrifying planet and it had LOTS AND LOTS of ships around it. Some of the ships were as big as small planets!

Me: RED ALERT! BATTLESTATIONS!

The alarms sounded.

Nico: Maybe we can use the technology that the Harvesters have for our benefits.

Me: Good idea.

Eli: First lets upload that virus like in the movie.

Nico: Good idea.

Lisa Loud: Leave that to me.

Me: Lets get to the ships and prepare for battle.

We went to the ships and Lisa was making the virus.

Lisa made the virus and typed in a code and she was uploading the virus into the mainframe of the Harvesters computers.

Nico: J.D., she's uploading the virus.

Me: Roger that. Package is being delivered. Stand by to engage everyone.

Eli: Copy that.

The virus was uploaded.

Lisa Loud: Virus Upload Complete!

The Harvesters computers were starting to malfunction.

Me: Give it a few seconds to kick in.

30 Seconds later we engaged.

Me: Lets do it. All wings report in.

Nico: Saiyan Wing Standing By.

Varie: Neptune Wing Standing By.

Eli: Egypt Wing Standing By.

Lincoln: Lightning Wing Standing By.

Lori: Wind Wing Standing By.

Leni: Gravity Wing Standy By.

Lisa: Tech Wing Standing By.

Lily: Glow Wing Standing By.

Vypra: Evil Wing Standing By.

We were all ready for action!

Me: Lock S-Foils in Attack Position.

We did so and we were ready to attack.

Me: We're passing through the magnetic field! Hold tight and switch your deflectors on double run!

We flew at the planet and the ships.

Ets: Look at the size of those ships they have.

Me: Cut the chatter Tech 2. Accelerate to Attack Speed.

We were flying fast.

Me: This is it boys. Shields up and fire at will!

We had our shields up and Laser turrets from the U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix were blasting the Harvester Ships all over the place into kingdom come!

Horsea: This is just like a video game!

Horsea was firing a laser turret and blowing many Harvester ships into flaming space dust.

Nico: YEAH!

Muscle Man: You know who else loves blowing up ships like this? My mom!

Then numerous Harvester attack ships came at us and were firing lasers at us like there was no tomorrow!

Poliwag: Yippee Ki Yay, motherfuckers!

Nico: YEAH!

Me: This is Phoenix Leader, I'm going in!

I fired laser blasts and blew many ships apart in fiery explosions!

The ship fired the superlasers and blew many huge ships apart in massive explosions!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO
KRABBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Nico: YEAH!

Shiv: You think President Whitmore is proud of what we're doing right now?

Me: I'm sure he is Shiv.

Vypra: Yeah!

Laney: Time for these Harvesters to feel our powers!

We fired waves of elements and energy and blew the ships apart all over the place.

We saw that many of the largest and most powerful ships were completely destroyed and a flaming mess.

Me: We have them on the run guys.

Tentacool: Once we reach the queen, we'll need to use all the combos we've got!

Me: Yeah! Lets head down to the planet. We got them on the run.

We headed down to the planet and we saw that it was an incredibly vast and amazingly hyper advanced city and civilization.

Me: Oh wow! Look at this planet.

Nico: Wow! I didn't know they were THIS advanced.

Laney: Yeah.

Me: It must be 100 million years more advanced than Earth.

Eddy: It's so beautiful.… now let's blow it up.

Me: YEAH!

We fired lasers and missiles and bombs and blew much of the entire city apart.

Nico: Take this! Time to try my new sword out. NUOVA STAR SLASH!

The 4-Star Ball on his bracelet and the sword glowed and he swung it and fired a massively powerful blade blast of fire and it cut much of the city apart and blew it apart in massive fiery explosions.

We fired elemental blasts and they formed into said events and figures of our country's history.

Me and my Harem: AMERICAN HISTORY FINAL SMASH: AMERICAN TIME PERIOD HADOUKEN BARRAGE!

We fired a barrage of Hadouken blasts based on American History.

Lincoln and his Harem: AMERICAN PRESIDENT FINAL SMASH: PRESIDENTIAL KAMEHAMEHA!

They fired a Presidential Kamehameha blast.

Me, Lincoln and our harems: ULTIMATE AMERICAN HISTORY FINAL SMASH: THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE SPIRIT BOMB!

We fired a massive Spirit Bomb based on the American Constitution.

Popeye, Vypra, Sea, Eli, me, Nico, Naruto and Nunnally: SUPER EARTH INDEPENDENCE KAMEHAMEHA BLAST!

We fired a massive Kamehameha Wave with the Earth pictured into it and the blasts all combined and we got out of there as the blast slammed into the planet and it all exploded with enough power to obliterate 10,000 Planets!

TREMENDOUSLY MASSIVE KRABOOM!

All the Harvester Aliens were all completely obliterated in an instant and they were never gonna torment another planet ever again!

Me: YEAH! We did it guys!

Laney: The Harvesters are now no more!

Nico: (looks up to the heavens) We did it, President Whitmore. We finished what you started. I hope we made you proud.

And sure enough, President Whitmore's face appeared in the stars and it smiled.

President Whitmore: You sure did Nico. You sure did.

Nico smiled and saluted him.

Me: Lets go home.

We went back home to Earth.

---

We arrived back home on Earth.

Nico: Hey, Poromon. How were things while we were gone?

Poromon: Pretty boring. I decided to take a nap after keeping a lookout for an hour.

Me: That's okay. Lets get our barbecue going. Now that we've finally seen the last of the Harvesters.

Eli: Yeah lets eat!

We got our barbecue going and we had chicken, ribs, pork, brisket, beans, everything. Homer was cooking on his Beehive shaped Smoker and I was cooking on the smoker and barbecuer. Later that night we were watching the awesome fireworks show.

Me: WOW!

Nico: Love the fireworks!

Eli: Me too! I love being American.

We stood up and saluted and we sang America The Beautiful.

All of us: (Singing)

Oh beautiful, for spacious skies

For amber waves of grain

For purple mountain majesties

Above the fruited plain

But now wait a minute, I'm talking about

America, sweet America

God shed his grace on thee

He crowned thy good in brotherhood

From sea to shining sea

We cheered.

Me: (To the Viewers) Happy Independence Day everyone. I hope you all liked this adventures as much as we did. Have fun with everyone you know on this awesome 4th of July Celebration of 245 Years of Freedom!

I winked at the camera and it irised in with the shape of a firework and it showed Happy Independence Day with the American Flag in the Background.

THE END

---

Another awesome Fanfiction complete.

Glad you all had fun with this awesome 4th of July chapter. This was for the 2nd Independence Day movie and we took the Battle to them and made sure the Harvesters all paid for their crimes. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Drako1234658, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next girl from Daily Life With A Monster Girl is Fan Long the Huang Long and she is gonna be in the world of To Spring from 1936. I know it's late but I figured it would be a great idea for this as we help the Spring Elves stop Old Man Winter from delaying Spring. It was also another awesome cartoon from my childhood. Also the next chapter is for the 13th Pokemon Movie - Zoroark: Master of Illusion and we're going to meet the Legendary Illusion Pokemon, Zoroark and we're also going after the evil and ruthless Grings Kodai and bring and end to his malevolent phony fortune telling business.

See you all tomorrow.

The Bad Illusion Pokemon Usurper

Over in a beautiful meadow with amazing trees, me and Dayna were flying over the meadow and we flew down into a hole. I was in deep thought.

Dayna: Are you alright, J.D.? You sound a little stressed.

Dayna concentrated and groaned as her hair fell out.

Me: Yeah I'm alright. Just stressed about what Sentinel Prime said. (GROWLS!) I hate that monster!

Dayna turned into her Octopus Gene-Slammer Form.

Dayna: I know J.D. but don't worry about it. Besides he got what was coming to him.

Me: I know. But lets get a move on.

We flew on and we saw that we were in a huge cave.

Me: Wow! What a cave.

We then heard tools clanging and we saw elves working hard and making liquids in every color of the rainbow. They were pounding away at rock walls and colored cave columns and they were REALLY working hard.

Me: WOW! Look at this!

Dayna: This is amazing!
